ACTING CHAIRMAN.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Claremore, I.T., November 13th, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Frank S. Bullette for the enrollment of himself and child as Cherokee citizens by Delaware blood, and for the enrollment of his wife as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage.

The said Frank S. Bullette, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name please? A Frank S. Bullette.
Q How old are you? A I am thirty-three.
Q What is your post office? A Dawson.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Why myself and baby.
Q No wife? A Yes, sir; and my wife.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Delaware.
Q Your wife is a white woman, is she? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A I have lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since 1868.
Q You have lived here for some thirty-two years? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Simon Bullette.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Saphrona.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your wife? A Anna.
Q How old is she? A She is twenty-two.
Q What was her name when you married her? A King.
Q Was that her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q She was never married except to you? A No, sir.
Q When did you marry her? A August 4th, 1898.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant presents an illuminated certificate showing that he was united in marriage to his wife on the 4th of August, 1898, by the Rev. John N. Laird.

Q Where were you and your wife married? A At Tulsa, I.T.

THE COMMISSIONER: This certificate is returned to the applicant.

Q Has your wife lived with you ever since you and she were married? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you ever married except to this wife? A No, sir.
Q Give me the name of your child? A Sanona.
Q How old is that child? A One year old.
Q How long has your father been dead? A I can't tell you. Mary G. Rogers was my guardian in 1880.
Q Who were you living with in 1880? A Mary G. Rogers, my guardian, in 1880.
Q Was your guardian an old woman? A Yes, sir; she was an old woman.
Q Have you any brothers and sisters older than yourself?
A I had a sister but she died.

Q What was the name of your sister on the roll of 1880?
A Lillie Bullette, but they couldn't find her name on the roll of 1880 when they looked for it.
Q Did you have anybody kin to you named Manda Bullette?
A That must be the other Bullette.
Q Did you have anybody kin to you named Sarah Bullette? A Yes, sir. She was my father's half sister.

THE COMMISSIONER: The printed list in the possession of the Cherokee representative present of Delawares who came to the Cherokee Nation in 1868, contains the name of the applicant's father, Simon Bullette.
Q Are you a full blood Delaware? A No, sir.
Q What proportion of Delaware blood have you? A I am about a half.
Q You have a sister named Lillie, haven't you? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of her husband? A John A. Pitzenbargar.
Q He has a daughter hasn't he? A Yes, sir.
Q What is her name? A Lillie Pitzenbargar.
Q Lillie H.? A I don't know the middle name, but her first name is Lillie.
Q Your sister's husband's name is John A. Pitzenbargar? A Yes, sir.
Q And where does he live? A He lives at Big Cabin.
Q Does he live near Vinita? A Yes, sir, northeast of Vinita.
Q Might Vinita be his post office? A No, Big Cabin is his postoffice.
Q He gave his post office as Vinita? A Well, he gets part of his mail at Big Cabin.
Q How old is your sister's child, Lillie? A I don't know.
Q She is not a young lady, is she? A Oh, no; she is not grown.
Q Well, about how old? A She must be about seven or eight.
Q Seven or eight or ten along there? A Let's see--yes, somewhere along there.
Q Has your sister got a middle name? A No, I don't think she has.
Q Did you ever hear her called Lillie Bullette? A No.
Q That is the way her husband gives her name. A I always signed it Lillie Bullette.
Q Your sister, is she alive or dead? A She is dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A She has been dead six or seven years.
Q Did she leave more than one child? A No, just one.
Q How old was she when she died, that is, how old was your sister? A I think she was about twenty-two or twenty-three, somewhere along there, as near as I can remember.
Q You have an uncle, haven't you? A Yes, sir.
Q What is his name? A John Bullette.
Q And what is his post office? A Claremore.
Q Your mother then was a sister of this John Bullette? A No, my father was a brother of his.

THE COMMISSIONER: It is shown in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lillie H. Pitzenbargar, Del. Card D. 19, by the testimony of John Bullette, the uncle of the applicant, that the father and mother of the applicant came with the Delawares in 1868 or 1869, and in the same case it appears that the mother and father of the applicant are on the Delaware pay roll, which is not at present in the possession of the Commission, the same having been returned temporarily to the Cherokee authorities for use at Tahlequah.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and one child. He is identified on the roll of 1896, and states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation for thirty-two years.

It is shown in a satisfactory manner, as set forth in the testimony, that his omission from the roll of 1880 is through no fault of his own, and he will now be listed for enrollment as an adopted Delaware. He is shown to have married his wife in 1898; neither were previously married; she has lived with her husband ever since her marriage. This marriage is too late under the Cherokee law of 1895 to entitle the applicant's wife to enrollment, and therefore the application for the enrollment of his wife is rejected, she being classed as a Cherokee by adoption.

When a certificate is filed of the birth of the child Sanona this child will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee-Delaware.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this application for enrollment, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) Wm. S. Wellshear.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of November, A. D. 1900.

In the matter of the application of FRANK S. BULLETTE, for the enrollment of himself and child, Sonoma Bullette, as Delaware citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

FRANK S. BULLETTE, being sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Frank S. Bullette.
Q How old are you? A I am going on 34 or '5. Born in '67. September, '67.
Q About 36 years old past? A Yes sir.
Q What is your postoffice? A Owassa.
Q It was Dawson? A It was Dawson and I changed it.
Q Where were you born? A In Kansas.
Q Your father is Simon and mother, Saphronia Bullette? A Yes sir.
Q They are both dead? A Yes sir.
Q Did they come from Kansas with the Delawares in 1868? A Yes sir.
Q Did you come with them at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Does your name appear upon the Register of Delawares who came at that time? A I don't think so.
Q You were born after the treaty? A Yes sir.
Q You were born between the time the Register was made and the Delawares started down here? A Yes sir.
Q The treaty was made in April and you were born in September, 1867? A Yes sir, the 25th of September.
Q Your father and mother were both Registered Delawares were they? A Yes sir.
Q Have you resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since you came to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever make your home anywhere else at all? A No sir.
Q What is the reason if you know, why your name does not appear on the roll of 1880? A I don't know, it wasn't my fault, cause I was going to school at the Cherokee Orphan Asylum at that time. I went t ere in '80 and 81 at the Cherokee Orphan Asylum, and my guardian at that time was Mary G. Rogers.
Q By what name were you known when you were going to school? A Frank Bullette.
Q Did they ever call you by any other name? A They used to call me when I was small, Stephen Franklin, was my name, but I just put it Frank S.
Q Have you any brothers and sisters? A Got one.
Q What was its name? A Lillie.
Q Did they ever call her Lizzie? A No sir.
Q When was your sister born? A 1870.
Q Did you know someone that went to the Orphan Asylum named Lizzie Butter? A My sister went there in '80 and 81.
Q Your sister was how much younger than you? A Three years.
Q Did you know ~~x~~ anyone that went to the Orphan Asylum by the name of Frank and Lizzie Butter? A No, I didn't.
Q Did they ever call you by the name of Butter? A No, if they did I didn't know it.
Q Did your sister Lillie go to the Orphan Asylum with you? A Yes sir. I had a cousin that went there too, her name was Rosella Coody; she went there in '81 and '82.

Q You say you were going to the Orphan Asylum in 1880 and 1881?
A Yes sir.
Q And that is the time the roll of 1880 was made? A I think so. When I went on the roll in '96, they couldn't find it in the Orphan Asylum record, or they couldn't find it in the old lady's, Mary G. Rogers was my guardian and I thought maybe she might put our names in. We was at the Orphan Asylum at the time, but they couldn't find it.
Q Did you know most of the Delaware children that went to the Orphan Asylum in 1880? A Yes sir, I knowed some.
Q Most of the Delawares live in Cooweescoowee District? A Yes sir.
Q That's the district your home is in? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know a Frank and Lizzie Butter, to be about 10 and 13 years old, going to school at the Orphan Asylum from Cooweescoowee District? A I don't believe I knowed them.
Q Never heard of anyone by that name? A No sir
Q Did they ever call your sister Lillie by any other name when she went to the Orphan Asylum? A She was nick-named Babe, a long time but they didn't call her that in school.

COMMISSION:

There appears upon the 1880 Orphan Roll for Cooweescoowee District, at Nos. 417 and 418, the names of Frank Butter and Lizzie Butter, aged 13 and 10 years respectively at that time. Various parties of this Commission have sought information in regard to these names, they having never been accounted for in any way, and no information could be gathered among the Delaware Indians relative thereto. Owing to the similarity in the given names and the number of letters in the surname and the probability of the latter "T" in the name Bullette haveing been crossed over the word in the wrong place, might have crossed the two "L"'s in the name Bullette, thereby making Butter. The ages of these children on the 1880 roll correspond with the ages of the applicant and his deceased sister, Lillie.

Q You have a child named Sonoma? A Yes sir.
Q Is that child living? A Yes sir.
Q Your wife is named Anna Bullette? A Yes sir.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q She's a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q Have you always drawn money with the Delaware Indians? A Yes sir.
Q Have you always been recognized as a Delaware? A Yes sir.
Q You have never made your home outside of the Cherokee Nation since you came here with the Delawares? A Only off to school. I went to Lawrance, Kansas, in '85 and '86.
Q Only for school purposes? A Yes sir.

R. Palmer, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he recorded the testimony and proceedings had in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

1896 enrollment; page 353, #801, James Walker, Coowescoowee.
Q This boy is livingnow, is he? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, does he call himself a Delaware or Shawnee, this old man?
Interpreter: He says he want to be enrolled as a Delaware.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicatat applies for the enrollment of himself and of an orphan boy who is living with him. The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as an adopted Shawnee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation for 52 years and he will be listed now for enrollment as an adopted Shawnee. The boy, James Walker, is an orpahn boy. His father and mother are identified on the rollsof 1880 as Delawares. He is said to be a full blood Delaware. He is a minor and his is living at this time. He is not identified upon any roll in the possession of the Commission, but the applicatnt states that the boy was born in the Cherokee Nation and has lived here all his life. No doubt being entertained as to hisidentity and being a full blood, he will be listed at this time for enrollment as a Cherokee-Delaware.

A. H. NORWOOD, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

Q What is your name? A A. H. Norwood.
Q Your age? A 55.
Q Your post office? A Dewey, Indian Territory.
Q You are a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A I am.
Q Were you at one time guardian for William Walker, an adopted Delaware citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A I was.
Q Did you apply for his enrollment? A I did.
Q What is the name of his father? A Thomas Walker.
Q The record shows he is dead? A Yes sir, he died a good many years ago.
Q Do you know the name of the mother of William Walker? A I don't remember.
Q Has William Walker any brothers and sisters? A He has not.
Q Is he the only child that Thomas Walker had who is living now?
A He is the only one of the Delaware Tribe.
Q The records of this office show that on October 12, 1900, James Walker applied for the enrollment of his grand-child, Thomas Walker, a son of Thomas Walker and Jennie Walker, both deceased, do you know that boy? A No sir, I don't know him.
Q The age of this Thomas Walker is given the same as William Walker for whose enrollment you applied but his name was not identified on any of the Tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation, do you know what relation Walker is to William Walker, your ward? A He is the grand father of William Walker.
Q He is the father of Thomas Walker, deceased, that is James?
A Yes sir.
Q Did your ward live in the family of James Walker? A He lived in the family of James Walker and John Walker, his uncle, ever since he was a small child. Under the Cherokee courts John Walker was his guardian, but under the United States Court I was appointed guardian.
Q Do you think this William Walker and James Walker are one and the same person? A I think so.
Q Do you know whether James Walker had a grand son by the name of Thomas Walker? A If he had I don't know it, I know that he has no grand son citizen of the Cherokee Nation. There never was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by the name of Thomas Walker, a son of old Tom Walker, I knew him well when he died, and his wife I think died at the time William was born or about that time.
Q Is William Walker a full blood Delaware? A Yes sir. He is enrolled as a Delaware, he is one half Shawnee and the other half Delaware. Old James Walker himself was a Shawnee and Tom Walker was a half Delaware and half Shawnee but they were always classified as Delawares.
Q Is William Walker, your former ward, the only grand son of James Walker, who is a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, John Walker, his son, has one or two small children, and then he has two or three young boys of Mary Spybuck, his daughter, she is the aunt of this William Walker, he makes his home there, but there never was a grand child named Tom Walker. John Walker has

The records of this office show that on November 14, 1902, Andrew J. Norwood, made application for the enrollment as a citizen of Delaware Blood of the Cherokee Nation of William Walker, 19 years of age, a child of Thomas Walker, deceased, by his deceased wife. The records further show that on October 12, 1900, James Walker appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and made application for the enrollment of his grand child, Thomas Walker, age 18 years, a son of Thomas and Jennie Walker, both deceased. William Walker is identified on the 1880 Authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, No. 3264, Cooweescoowee District, being identified thereon with his father. He is also identified on the 1896 Pay roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, page 328, No. 4826, as Willie Walker, Cooweescoowee District.

Thomas Walker has not been identified on any of the Tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation, he being identified as a descendant of his father, Thomas Walker, who is identified on the 1880 Authenticated roll.

It appears from the testimony just taken that William Walker and Thomas Walker are one and the same person.

Geo. H. Lessley, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported the proceedings had in the above entitled cause, and that the above and foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to schedule No. 32 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation heretofore approved by the Department, I have the honor to report that Thomas Walker appearing thereon opposite No. 31291 is a duplicate enrollment of William Walker, who appears on said schedule opposite No. 31613.

Testimony of A. H. Norwood, former guardian for William Walker, taken before thisoffice on January 8, 1906, shows that Thomas Walker and William Walker are one and the same person. A copy of said testimony is inclosed herewith.

No application for the selection of an allotment of land in the Cherokee Nation has been made for this person under the name of Thomas Walker.

I, therefore, respectfully recommend that the name of Thomas Walker appearing on said schedule opposite No. 31291 be January 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to submit for your consideration the enclosed letter of the 8th instant, from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, wherein he refers to schedule No. 32 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, heretofore approved by the Department, and reports that Thomas Walker, appearing thereon opposite No. 31291, is a duplicate enrollment of William Walker, who appears on the same schedule opposite No. 31613.

Mr. Bixby says that the testimony of A. H. Norwood, formerly the guardian of William Walker, taken at the office of the Commissioner on January 8th, 1906, shows that the names Thomas Walker and William Walker appearing on the roll represent one and the same person. A copy of the testimony is enclosed.

He further says that no application for the selection of an allotment of land in the Cherokee Nation has been made for this person under the name of Thomas Walker.

The Commissioner therefore recommends that the name of Thomas Walker, appearing on schedule No. 32 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation opposite No. 31291, be stricken from the copies of the schedule retained by the Department and this Office and that he be authorized to strike the name from the copies of the schedule returned to him.

It is shown by the testimony of Mr. Norwood that William Walker is the son of Thomas Walker who was the son of James Walker; that Thomas Walker, deceased, the father of William Walker, had no child by the name of Thomas Walker, nor was there any grand-child of James Walker of the name of Thomas, and that he knows of no other child of similar age of the name of Thomas Walker. It is satisfactorily appears that the enrollment of the name of Thomas Walker opposite No. 31291 is intended to represent William Walker, whose name appears opposite No. 31613. I therefore concur in the recommendation of the Commissioner that the name of Thomas Walker, No. 31291, be stricken from all copies of the Cherokee roll.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
WASHINGTON, D. C.

January 29, 1906.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On January 8, 1906, you reported, referring to schedule No. 32 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation heretofore approved by the Department, that the name of Thomas Walker, appearing thereon opposite No. 31291, is a duplicate enrollment of William Walker, who appears on said schedule opposite No. 31613.

You recommend that the name of said Thomas Walker, appearing on said schedule opposite No. 31291, be stricken from the copies of the schedule retained by the Department and the office of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and that your office be authorized to strike his name from the copies of said schedule returned to it.

Reporting January 23, 1906, the Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

You are instructed to strike the name of Thomas Walker, appearing on said schedule opposite No. 31291, from the copy of the schedule in your office.

I have this day made the proper correction upon the schedule in this office and requested the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to correct the schedule in his possession.

Respectfully,

Dear Sir:

You are advised that this office is in receipt of Departmental letter of January 29, 1906, granting authority to strike the name of Thomas Walker, son of Thomas Walker and Jennie Walker, both deceased, and whose name appears on Cherokee roll card, Field No. 10538 (Delavare card No. Old Series 189), opposite Cherokee roll No. 31291, from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation. Thomas Walker, listed on that card is a duplicate enrollment of William Walker, listed on Cherokee card, Field No. 10663 (Delavare card No. Old Series 332).

A My wife died this spring.
Q How many children have you? A Eight.
Q Yourself, then, and eight children? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A I am a Delaware.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since I was eight years old; I myself am a white man, I married a Delaware.
Q What was the name of your wife? A Lucy Connor.
Q She was a Delaware, was she? A Yes, sir.
Q You say she died when? A She died this last spring, the 15th of May.
Q How old was she when she died? A She was 54.
Q Did she live in the Cherokee Nation all her life? A Yes, sir.
(The applicant presents an official copy of the records of Coowescoowee district, showing that license was issued to him on December 26, 1882, to marry Miss Lucy Conner, the ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Adams, and this copy was supplied to the applicant on the 6th of November, 1896. This is filed herewith.)
Q Did you live with your wife from the time you married her in 1882 until she died? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you ever married except to this wife? A That was the first wife I ever married.
Q Have you married since she died? A No, sir.
Q Then you have never married except to this wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you ever marry any woman except Lucy Connor? A Lucy Connor was the only woman I ever married.

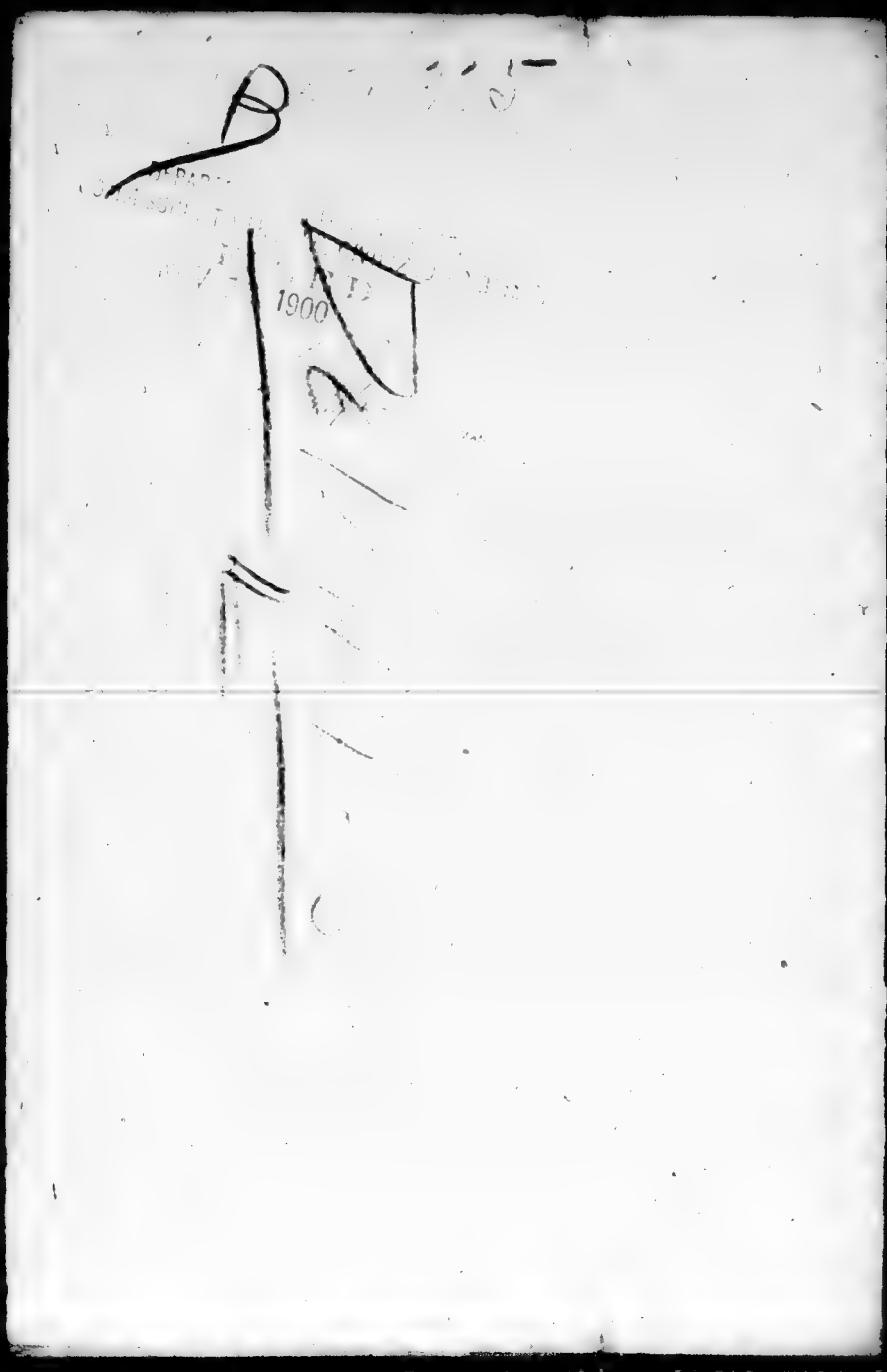
Oliver Bulkey on 1896 roll, page 393, No. 802, Oliver Bulky, Coowescoowee district.)

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and eight children. His deceased wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as an adopted Delaware. She lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life. She died in May of the present year. The applicant is shown to have married her in accordance with Cherokee law in 1882. Neither he nor his wife were previously married. He has not married since his wife's death. He lived with his wife from the time of their marriage until her death, and he has continued to live in the Cherokee Nation. He is identified on the roll of 1896, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by intermarriage.

Of the eight children named in the testimony, the first seven are identified on the roll of 1896, they are all living now, and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee-Delawares. When the certificate of birth of the youngest child, Mark L., is filed with the Commission, this child also will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee-Delaware.



Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant is here for the enrollment of himself, his wife and three children. His wife is identified on the roll of 1880 as an adopted Delaware. She is stated to have lived in the Cherokee nation all her life. She is identified on the roll of 1896 and she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee-Delaware. Her husband is shown to have married her in accordance with Cherokee law in 1888. Neither were previously married. They have lived together ever since their marriage. The official evidence of the marriage is filed herewith. He is identified on the roll of 1896 and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by intermarriage. The three children named in the testimony are identified on the roll of 1896. They are living and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee-Delawares.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSIONER OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

FILED
DEC 5 1901

Applicant and children Delawares; doubtful as to husband, Everett M.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Chelsea, I.T., November 19, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Adeline L. Lowrance for the enrollment of herself, husband and children as Cherokee citizens; she and her children being of Delaware blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge she testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Adeline L. Lowrance.
Q How old are you? A 48.
Q What is your postoffice? A Alluwee.
Q You live in Cooweescoowee District? A Yes, sir.
Q Who do you want to enroll, just yourself, or have you a family? A I have a family.
Q Have you a husband? A Yes, sir.
Q And how many children? A I have only two children of my own living, I have three step-children.
I have a son over age.
Q You apply then for only one of your own children and three step-children? A Yes, sir.
Q None of these children are married? A No, sir, they are not married.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir, I am a Delaware.
Q And what is your husband? A He is a white man.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since we moved to this country, I suppose about 56 years.
Q You have lived here ever since have you? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Charles Journeycake.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Jane.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
Q How often have you been married? A I have been married four times.
Q What was the name of your first husband? A Samuel D. Love.
Q When did you marry him? A I married him in 1872.
Q Did you live with him until his death? A No, sir.
Q When did you separate from him? A I separated from him 28 years ago.
Q You separated from him then in 1872? A Yes, sir, about that.
Q Was he a white man or a Cherokee? A He was a Delaware.
Q When did you marry the second time? A The second time I married John L. Sullivan.
Q Was he a white man or a Cherokee? A He was a white man.
Q When did you marry him? A About 14 years ago.
Q Is he dead? A I don't know sir.
Q Did you separate from him? A Yes, sir, he deceived me, and was taken up for bigamy.
Q When was it you separated from him, about 18 months after you married him? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your first husband Samuel D. Love dead? A Yes, sir.
Q When did he die? A I can't remember just when he did die. I was married again when he died.
Q Did you get a divorce from him? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a copy of the decree of divorce? A No, sir, it is in the clerk's office.
Q Did you get a divorce from John L. Sullivan; is there a decree of divorce between you? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any official copy of that document? A No, sir.
Q Whom did you marry the third time? A C. W. Merritt.
Q Was he a white man? A Yes, sir.
Q When did you marry him? A In 1888.
Q Is he dead? A I don't know.
Q How long did you live with him? A I lived with him something like 7 years.

Q Then you separated from him? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you get a divorce from him? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a copy of the decree of divorce? A Yes. sir.
(Produces papers.)
Com'r: The applicant presents an official copy of the decree of divorce rendered by T. M. Buffington, Judge of the Northern Judicial Circuit of the Cherokee Nation, on July 20, 1897, granting a divorce to the applicant from her husband, C. W. Merritt; this is filed herewith.
Q After that divorce you married again? A Yes, sir.
Q To whom did you marry the next time? A Everett Lowrance.
Q Have you a certificate of your marriage to him? A Yes, sir.
(Produces papers.)
Com'r: The applicant presents a certificate showing that she was united to her present husband in marriage as stated by her on June 21, 1899; the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Thomas Lloyd.
Q Your present husband is a white man? A Yes, sir.
He is an adopted citizen rather.
Q He claims to be a citizen by intermarriage does he? A Yes, sir, that's all.
Q Does he claim through any other marriage except his marriage to you? A Yes, sir.
Q Was he married to a Cherokee citizen before? A He was married to a Delaware.
Q Give me the name of your husband in full? A Everett M. Lowrance.
Q How old is he? A He is 40 I think.
Q Have you and he lived together ever since you were married in June 1899? A Yes, sir.
Q He is living with you now? A Yes, sir.
Q Where is he at this time? A He is at Wagoner serving on the grand jury.
Q Was he married before he married you? A Yes, sir.
Q How many times was he married before he married you? A Just once.
Q To whom was he married the first time? A To Emma C. Worrell.
Q Did you say she was a Delaware? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
Q When did she die? A She has been dead about 4 years I think.
Q She was never married except to your husband? A Never was.
Q And your husband was never married except to her and to you? A And to myself.
Q How old was Emma Worrell when she died? A I don't know.
Com'r: The applicant presents an official copy of the records of Coowescoowee District showing that a license was issued to E.M. Lowrance a citizen of the United States to marry Miss Emma Worrell, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, on the 31st day of December, 1887, and that same was recorded on the 13th day of January, 1888; the record does not state whether the marriage was consummated in accordance with that license; this is filed herewith.
The applicant now presents what purports to be the original of the marriage license just referred to, and the certificate indorsed thereon shows that the marriage was performed by the Rev. James J. Dodd on the first of January, 1888; this is also filed herewith. Q Did your husband live with his wife Emma C. Worrell from the time of their marriage until she died? A She left him for a few weeks, but they made up, and they lived together until she died.
Q How long was that previous to her death? A They had a child the time she left him, and she came back to him and they had two children.
Q She lived with him then until she died? A Yes, sir.
Q And one child was born after her reunion to him? A 2 children.
Q Give me the name of your child? A Elmer Preston Merritt.
Q How old is that child? A 11 years old.

Q He is living now? A Yes, sir.

By Cherokee rep've Baugh:
Q Did you bring a suit in the courts against Samuel D. Love?
A No, I believe I did not since I come to think of it. We compromised and he brought the suit and give me the child.
Q You went to Col. Bryan's and he drew up the papers between you and he, and you just separated, and you and he agreed to separate?
A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, her husband and four children, one being a child of hers by a former husband and three being children of her present husband by a former wife. The applicant herself is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as an adopted Delaware; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation for 30 odd years, ever since the Delawares came to the Cherokee Nation, and she will be listed now for enrollment as an adopted Delaware. Her child Elmer P. Merritt, is identified on the roll of 1896, is living now, and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Delaware.

The three children Edith M., Arthur L. and Addie L. Lowrance are children of her husband by a former wife; their mother Emma C. Worrell, is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896, and her marriage is established by the official evidence filed herewith; she is now dead; these children will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Delawares; their mother being identified as a Delaware.

As regards the application for the enrollment of the husband of the applicant, Everett M. Lowrance, he is shown to have married his first wife, a Cherokee woman of the Delaware tribe, in accordance with Cherokee law in 1888; it is stated that he did not marry between the time of the death of that wife to his marriage to his present wife, who is shown to be a Delaware by her enrollment cited; but the present applicant is shown to have married three times prior to her present marriage, and she has been divorced from all three of her former husbands, but does not present official evidence of her divorce from her first husband, Samuel D. Love, who was living at the time she married her second husband; as regards the marriage of her present husband it is required that legal evidence be furnished of her divorce from her first husband; she does not present official evidence of her divorce from her second husband, John L. Sullivan, who may be still living, and it is required that official evidence of divorce from this husband be supplied to the Commission; the applicant's husband is in the attitude of having been married to a woman of Cherokee citizenship, and while his present wife is undoubtedly a woman of Cherokee citizenship, it does not appear from the evidence now adduced, that she was in a position to consummate a legal marriage with her present husband, and no attempt is made at this time to decide what the effect would be upon his right of a union with her under the present status of the two parties; he will be listed as a Cherokee by intermarriage upon a doubtful card for further consideration, and the decision will be made known to him at his postoffice address.

The Cherokee representative present states that it is reported that the applicant's husband at one time abandoned his first wife and lived as husband and wife with a white woman, and it is desired that he appear before the Commission and establish in a satisfactory manner the legal status of his relations to his deceased wife.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

CHEROKEE NATION

COO-WEES-COO-WEE DISTRICT

To any lawful officer GREETING: In the name of the Cherokee Nation you are commanded to summons C. W. Merritt to be and appear at the lawful place of holding Court in said District and Nation on the first monday in June 1897 at 9 o clock a.m. then and there to answer the demand of Adaline. L. Merritt who claims the right of being divorced from the bonds of matrimony now existing between this plaintiff and defendant. The custody of their minor child viz: Elmer P. Merritt age 7 years until he shall arrive at the age of maturity.

And for cause of action plaintiff alleges:-

1st That plaintiff and defendant are each citizens of the Cherokee Nation and residents of said district.

2nd. That plaintiff and defendant were lawfully married toeach other on the 28th. day of March 1888 and continued to live together as man and wife until July 1896.

3rd. That the aforesaid minor child is the offspring of plaintiff and defendant and is the fruit of said marriage.

4th. That in July 1896 this defendant without cause or assigning any reason therefor and without any notice to plaintiff willfully abandoned and deserted her.

5th. That at divers times during their married life this defendant was so cruel and abusive as to render the life of this plaintiff unbearable

6th. That on or about the third of October 1896 this defendant returned or came to the home of plaintiff and at once began to abuse and maltreat plaintiff in a very cruel manner and on the night of October the 4th 1896 by reason of the cruel treatment of defendant to plaintiff this plaintiff was compelled to scream for help.

Fail not to execute and return this summons within the time as required by law.

ING CHAIRMAN

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Chelsea, I.T., November 19, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Mary Parker for the enrollment of herself and children as Delawares, and her husband as a Cherokee by intermarriage; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Brecinridge through John Secondine, a duly sworn interpreter, she testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name, please? A Mary Parker.
Q How old are you? A 35.
Q What is your postoffice? A Chelsea, I.T.
Q In what district do you live, Cooweescoowee? A Yes, Cooweescoowee.
Q Who do you want to enroll, yourself and family? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you got a husband? A Yes, sir.
Q How many children? A Six.
Q Are you a full blood Delaware? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your husband, a Delaware? A I don't know what he is.
Q He is an Indian? A Yes, he is an Indian.
Q Is he a Cherokee? A He claims to be A Sioux.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation all your life, or did you come here with the Delawares? A Yes. I have been here ever since the Delawares moved down here.
Q That is about 32 years, isn't it? A Yes.
Q Have you been married more than one time? A I have been married twice.
Q When did you marry your first husband, how long ago? (Presents paper.)
Q What was your name in 1880, was it Bigfield? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Bigfield.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Mary Bigfield, she is dead.
Q What is the name of your husband, George Parker? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is George Parker? A About 36 years old.
(The applicant presents an official copy of the record of Cooweescoowee District, showing that license was issued the 13th of July, 1888, authorizing marriage between George Parker, a citizen of the United States, and Mary Bigknife. This document is recorded on the 30th day of July, 1888. There is no record made of marriage having been consummated, but presumably that was done before the document was admitted to record.)
Q Has George Parker lived with you ever since he married you in 1888? A Yes, sir.
Q Was he ever married except to you? A No, sir, never did have any other woman.
Q Where is he now? A He is back there somewhere.
Q What was the name of your husband before you married George Parker? A Joseph Hill.
Q When did you marry Joe Hill? A I can't tell.
Q About what time? A About 20 years ago.
Q Was he dead when you married George Parker? A No, he wasn't.
Q Did you have any children by Joe Hill? A No, sir.
Q Did you ever get a divorce from him? A Yes, sir.
Q Where is your decree of divorce? A I haven't got it.
Q What did you do with it? A I never received it, I was divorced but I never did get the papers.
Q Give me the names of your children? (Presents paper with names and ages of children thereon.)
Q Millie, 11 years old; Carrie, 9 years old; John W., 7 years old; Minnie, 6 years old; Elmer, 4 years old; Bertha, 2 years old; is that right? A Yes, sir.
Q These children all alive now? A Yes, sir, they are all alive.
Q When did Hill die? A About 20 years ago.
Q Did Joe Hill die about four years ago? A Yes.

Q Why wasn't your husband enrolled in 1896? A I don't know.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, her husband and six children. She is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as an adopted Delaware. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation some thirty-two years, and she will be listed now for enrollment as an adopted Delaware. Of her six children, the first four named in the testimony are identified with her on the roll of 1896, they are living now, and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee-Delawares. When the Commission is supplied with certificates of birth of the two younger children, Elmer and Bertha Parker, they also will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee-Delawares.

Her husband, George Parker, is shown to have married her in accordance with Cherokee law in 1888. She states that they have lived together ever since. She testified that he is a Sioux Indian. He is not identified on the roll of 1896, and the applicant is unable to establish at this time the fact of her having been lawfully divorced from her first husband, Joe Hill, to whom she was married nearly 20 years ago, and who died some four years ago.. For the further consideration of the application for the enrollment of George Parker, and to await official evidence of a lawful divorce having been obtained between the applicant and her first husband, Joe Hill, George Parker, will now be classed as a Cherokee by intermarriage upon a doubtful card, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to him at his post office address.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Are you a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir, by intermarriage.
Q Have you some children, Mrs. Adams? A Yes sir, I have two children, a girl and a boy.
Q What are their names? A Viola May Adams and Emmett Logan Adams.
Q Your husband is named Nathan F. Adams? A Yes sir.
Q You and he living together now? A No sir.
Q When was it you separated? A It's been over a year ago.
Q About what time? A Well, it's been about a year in January or February.
Q You separated in January or February? A Well we haven't lived together as man and wife, haven't kept house for over a year; he has been in Colorado; but we haven't lived together for over a year; we have never been divorced.
Q Who has the custody of the children? A Oh, I have in full, supporting them and everything; he does nothing for them; I have my little girl in school.
Q Have you had the children ever since you separated? A Indeed I have, and paid their expenses and had the care of them.
Q He hasn't in any way had custody of them since you separated? Or supported them? A No, he has not; I have asked him to, but he has not offered to.

Q What is your name? A Nathan F. Adams
Q How old are you? A 29
Q What is your post office address? A Chelsea.
Q Are you the husband of Effie M. Adams? A Yes, sir.
Q Effie is a Deleware, is she? A She is a white woman.
Q You are a Deleware? A Yes, sir.
Q You and your wife have two children, Viola M. and Emmett L.
A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you and your wife been separated? A Well she, we have been separated since about the first of October, 1901.
Q Have not lived together since that time? A No.
Q Where are the two children living? A They are stopping with her part of the time and with my mother part of the time.
Q Who has the custody of them? The mother? A Yes, sir.
Q She is looking after them? A Yes, sir.
Q Where are you living? A I live at Chelsea.
Q Where does she live? A Well, I could not exactly say where she lives.
Q You have not been supporting her since you left? A No, sir.
Q You have not been home to visit your wife and children since you left in '01. A Well, I don't think that she has a home.
Q Who is she living with? A She is living around so far as I know.
Q Making her own living? A Yes, sir.
Q The children have not lived with you since you and your wife separated? A No, sir.
Q Do you support them? A Yes, sir , partly.
Q How? A Well, I occasionally , in one way, I send them money, to her and she uses the money I suppose for the children.
Q How much would you send in the course of a year? A. Well, I could not exactly say, in the course of a year, probably $50 or 75 dollars.

Q Are you divorced? A No, sir.
Q Neither one of you applied for a divorce? A No, not yet, no, sir.
Q What was the cause of the separation? A Well, that is more than I can tell exactly. I don't know as I had any cause th leave.
Q She left you? A Yes, sir.
Q Took the children with her? A Yes, sir. I was working at the time. I was city marshall at Adair and was working for the M.K.& T Railroad, partly and working under the United States Marshall, going all the time, day and night. I was making good money.
Q What cause had she for leaving you? A Well, I suppose it was jealousy, that's all I know.
Q Did you have any place in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Where you living on that place, while you were living together as husband and wife? A We had a home at Adair.
Q You want to file for yourself and two children on part of your own holdings? A. Yes.
Q Has your wife any land she could file on for these children?
A No, sir, not now.
Q Did she at any time? A. No, sir.
Q Apart from what you had? A No, sir.
Q What kind of land is it you have for these children? A . Well, I would call it good land, right in the river bottom on the Verdigris River, not really bottom land, but next to the bottom.
Q You say your wife has no land she could file on for these children? A Unbeknownst to me if she has.
Q Have you been holding this land for yourself and children since you separated? A Not since we separated, no, sir, about a year since I bought this land - my brother let me have this land.

Dear Sirs:

In would like to be enformed if I could select and allot lands for my too children, Viola M. Adams & Emmett L. Adams, previding Nathan F. Adams Thear Father hasny already Filed, who is my Former Husband. I will explain why I Request this on 2 page.

I, Effie M. Adams, married Nathan F. Adams a Citizen by Blood of the Cherokee Nation March first 1894 at Claremore, I.T. and lived Together as man & wife untill September 1901, and my husband fell in love with a Girl that staid with us and Degreaded my self by not showing any respect to his family. Geting in big Debt giveing Notes knowing he was unable to pay out no chance for any happiness in the future and was a very unpleasant husband at any rate and was very much Deseaveing telling me untruthes Exaggreated on Everything he said. This was why I Deserted him September 1901. I moved from Adair to Vinita, I.T. where I rezided 4 months then went from there too Estella with my sister and Nathan F. Adams come to see myself & children Frequently and promised to Do far Differant if I would beleave him and live as man and wife again. Though n t keep house again soon and I beleaved him again Promised if he kept his word I would keep house again with him Gladly and since that he has proved more Faulce than Ever and has not helped me suport our children scarcely any I can prove I have kep my children right by me and strictly alone a mothers part and Raising them Perfectly hinerable I have been keeping house at a Ranch, cooking for hands geting my children board and waiges likewise for the last six months sewed or done anything that was honerable for my childrens suport and keep Them Properly and thear Father just will not help Them Enough to half keep one child and has come to see Then Twice since December and brought a Girl to acompany him and have gave them $12 since about 15 of December, so why should he be the Proper one to have Thear Land. I think myself the proper one as I suport and have every reaspunsibility of my children. I desire very much to have my girl Viola in school and her land would Educate her it is for my Childrens Benefit. Espashly Viola age 8 years Emmett 3 years old I have explaned to you by Letter as plane as could in Person and will swair to the same and can prove myself perfectly honerable and Perfectly Truthful have gave Mr. Adams ample time to Do right so now I mean strict Business hoping to Receive an Early Reply

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
CHELSEA, I. T., NOV. 20th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Edward Olinthus Nidiffer for the enrollment of himself and child as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn ~~and ex~~ by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

By the Commission:
Q What is your name please? A Edward Olinthus Nidiffer.
Q How old are you? A Twenty three.
Q What is your Postoffice address? A Afton.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Cherokee and Delaware both.
Q What degree of Indian blood do you claim?
A I do not know just how much Cherokee I am: More Delaware than Cherokee.
Q How much Indian blood do you claim? A About one fourth I guess.
Q For whom do you make application? A Myself and one child.
Q Yourself and one child? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you actually resided in the Cherokee Nation?
A All my life.
Q Have you been outside of the Cherokee Nation for any purpose within the past three years? A No sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A Freeman Nidiffer.
Q Is he living? A Yes sir.
Q Is your father a Cherokee or Delaware? A Cherokee.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Mary R.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q Is she a Cherokee or Delaware? A Delaware.
Q Does your name appear upon the roll of 1880? A Yes sir.
Q What district were you living in at that time? A Delaware.
Q What district were you living in in 1896? A I think Coowee-scoowee.
Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Maud R.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q How old is she? A Twenty two years old.
Q Is she a Cherokee or a white woman? A White woman.
Q When were you married to her? A In 1897 I believe.
Q Have you any evidence of your marriage? A Yes sir.

The applicant presents a marriage license, authorizing the marriage of the applicant to Miss Maude Lewis; license issued by James A Winston, Clerk of the United States Court for the Northern District of the Indian Territory on the 20th day of November, 1897. He also presents a certificate, showing that he was married by T. M. Buffington, Judge of the Northern Circuit of the Cherokee Nation, on the 21st day of November, 1897. License and certificate are filed herewith.

Q Give me the name of your child? A Louisa R.
Q How old is this child? A Three weeks old, last Friday, I believe.
Q Is this child living and living with you at this time?
A Yes sir.
Q You are the father of the child? A Yes sir.
Q And your present wife is the mother? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married before? A Yes sir.
Q What was the name of your first wife? A Bertha Dorsey.
Q Was she a white woman, you say? A I guess so.
Q When did she die? A I do not know whether she is dead or not.
Q Were you divorced from her? A Yes sir.
Q Have you any evidence of your divorce? A Not sir, but not with me.
Q Who secured the divorce? Did you, or was the divorce granted to her? A Granted to me.
Q Upon what grounds? A We just did not agree.
Q Did she leave you, or did you leave her? A I left her.

Q Did you leave her, or did she leave you? A I left her.

By Mr. Cale Starr, Cherokee Representative:
Q You say you brought the suit for divorce? A Yes sir/
Q In what ~~ground~~ Court? A Cherokee Court, Claremore.
Q Coowescoowee District? A Yes sir.
Q What ground did you allege for obtaining the divorce?
A Just because she had been with some one else.
Q What do you mean by that? A She had been with another man.
Q It was upon the ground of adultery then? A I do not know what you call it. I guess that is it.

By the Commission:
Q Was your wife ever married before? A Yes sir.
Q What was her first husband's name? A James Lewis.
Q Is he living or dead? A Dead.
Q When did he die? A About six years ago I think.
Q He died before you married her? A Yes sir, about two years.
Q Did she live with him continuously until the time of his death?
A Yes sir.
Q Never was divorced from him? A No sir.

(1896 Roll, Page 224, #5549, Edward O. ~~Nidiffer~~ Nidiffer, Coo-weescoowee District)

Q Do you desire to be enrolled as a Delaware? A Yes sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and one child as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. He is i den-tified upon the authenticated roll of 1880, and upon the census roll of 1896, as a nativr Cherokee: He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all hiw life. His mother appears upon the said rolls as an adopted Delaware, and he avers that his mother was a Delaware by blood.
The applicant will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by Delaware blood. When he files with the Commission a properly executed affidavit of the birth of his child, Louisa E., this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by Delaware blood.
He presents satisfactory proof of marriage to Maur R. Nidiffer, a white woman, on the 21st day of November, 1897: He has lived with her continuously since that time. He avers that he was formerly married to one, ~~Mamie Lewis~~ Bertha Dorsey: He was divorced from her, and he will be required to file with the Commission either the original, or a certified copy of the decree of Court granting him the divorce from his former wife, Bertha Dorsey.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and five children as Cherokee citizen by Delaware blood and for his wife as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage: He is identified on the 1880 roll as a native Cherokee, but he avers that both his father and mother were Delawares by blood. He is identified on the census roll of 1896 as an adopted Delaware. He will be listed now for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee-Delaware. His three eldest children are identified on the census roll of 1896 as adopted Delaware. Their residence has been established to the satisfaction of the Commission and they also will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by Delaware blood. When he furnishes affidavits as to the birth of his two youngest children, they also will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee-Delawares. He produces satisfactory proof of his marriage to his wife in the year 1898. He has lived with her continuously since then, and she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by intermarriage. She is identified on the census roll of 1896 as an adopted white. The applicant has resided in the Cherokee Nation for 20 years.

Chas. von Weise, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all the proceedings in the above entitled cause, and that the foregoing is a true, full and correct transcript of his stenographic notes therein.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 5, 1904.

J. A. Tillotson,

Nowata, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of September 24, relative to the enrollment of Joseph Secondine as a Registered Delaware. You state that Joseph is a nickname, and that his real name is Silas Secondine.

In reply you are advised that an examination of the Delaware Register in possession of the Commission has been made and neither the name Joseph Secondine or Silas Secondine can be found thereon. You are further advised that if he still desires to establish his right to enrollment as a Registered Delaware he may appear before the Commission at any time and he will be given a hearing.

Respectfully,

SIGNED. Tams Bixby.
Chairman.

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, January 16, 1904.

Charley Bill,

Nowata, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of application and plat describing land which you desire segregated for you as a descendant of a deceased registered Delaware.

It does not appear, however, that the land which you describe, was selected and occupied by the deceased registered Delaware, of whom you claim to be a descendant. Under the Commission's resolution, providing what land should constitute the Delaware segregation, the only land segregated to deceased registered Delawares was land selected and occupied by them during their lifetime and now held by a descendant.

The land you describe is not, therefore, land which should be properly embraced in the segregation.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Bartlesville, I. T., June 7, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Robert Wheeler for the enrollment of John Wheeler as a Cherokee citizen of Delaware blood; he being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name. A Robert Wheeler.
Q How old are you? A About thirty-five.
Q What is your postoffice? A Bartlesville.
Q You have already applied for your own enrollment have you not? A Yes sir.
Q You applied by yourself? A Yes sir.
Q Do you want to apply for a brother who is in prison? A Yes sir.
Q Give me his full name. A John Wheeler.
Q Is he a Delaware? A Yes sir.
Q Is he a full blood? A His mother was a half white woman. We were always considered full bloods.
Q How old is your brother? A He is about 25 years old.
Q Where is he now? A He is in the Fort Leavenworth penitentiary.
Q When does his term of imprisonment expire? A The last letter I got he said he would get out in 1904.
Q When did he get in? A He got in for five years and has been there pretty near three years.
Q Has your brother John lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of his father. A Jack Wheeler.
Q He is dead is he? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of his mother. A Mary Wheeler, she is dead.
Q Did she have any other name besides Wheeler? A Not that I know of.
Q They never called her Mary Wilson? A No sir.
Q Is Bartlesville his postoffice and Cooweescoowee District? A Yes sir, when he is at home.
Q Where was your brother in 1896, was he in prison? A No, I guess not.

John Wheeler is identified on the roll of 1880 page 203 No. 3303, John Wheeler, 6 years of age, Adopted Delaware, Cooweescoowee District.

A. He was in prison once before.

John Wheeler is not identified on the available list relating to the roll of 1896 and he is supposed to have been in prison at that time. (He cannot be found on the original census roll of 1896 in the office of the Commission.)

The applicant applies for the enrollment of his brother, John Wheeler, supposed to be a full blood Delaware. It seems that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life except when in prison and he is now in prison at Fort Leavenworth. He is identified on the roll of 1880; he is not found on the roll of 1896 but this is supposed to be due to his being in prison at that time. He will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee of Delaware blood.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q You know that Doode Davis and these two children are living now and living in Delaware District? A Yes sir.
Q You know that she is the mother of these two children, and W.T. Davis is the father of these two children? A Yes sir, always said to be.
Q W.T.Davis was at one time married to you? A Yes sir.
Q About when were you married to him? A 1882.
Q How long did you live with him?A I couldn't tell you. We separated several times and went back together ; we lived together about two years steady, or three.
Q While he was your husband did he quit you at one time and live awhile with another woman? A I could not say whether he lived with that woman or not; he ~~didn't~~ taken some race horses and went off and whether he was living with that woman I couldn't say; I just heard it.

Doode Davis and her two children, Georgia A. and Virginia Davis will be listed for enrollment upon a straight card as Cherokee citizens by Delaware blood.

Q When did Ida die? A A little over two years ago.
Q Was it been four years ago? A I expect it has; I do not remember.
Q Do youremember when the census was taken in 1896? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Ida die before that? A No, sir; she was put on the roll then.
Q Why was not Grace put on the roll; how did they happen to leave her off; where was she? A It ought to be on there.
Q Was she living with some one else? A No, sir; she was at home; she is the oldest girl I have got.

The applicant, Katy Day, applies for the enrollment of herself, her husband and her six minor children, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by Delaware blood. The name of the applicant appears upon the 1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, as Katy Whiteturkey; and the name of her husband appears upon the 1880 authenticated roll as James Day, adopted Delaware; their names also appears upon the 1896 census roll as James and Katy Day, together with the names of their three minor children, Clarence, Harrison and Nora Day. Listed with them on the 1896 roll is the name of Ida Day, whom, the applicants testify, died two years ago, and the name of their third child, Grace Day, is not found thereon. The applicant and her husband, together with her three children, Clarence, Harrison and Nora, will be listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by Delaware blood, sufficient evidence having been adduced as to the continuous residence in the Cherokee Nation for the time prescribed by law.

Their two minor children, Loyd and Mary, having been born subsequent to the preparation of any of the tribal rolls by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, will be listed for enrollment upon the presentation of proper affidavits of their births.

The third child, Grace Day, for whom application is made, and who from the testimony of the applicant would now be nine years of age is not found upon any of the rolls of Cherokee citizens, in the possession of this Commission. It is the testimony of both the mother and father of this child that she is a Delaware. Pending the exhibition of sufficient evidence of her having been recognized by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, her name will be placed upon a doubtful card.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the

Dear Mr. [illegible]

Upon examination of the Delaware Day Rolls in the possession of this Commission, we find the name of Teresa Day is found on the Delaware Annuity Roll of 1859, and on the Delaware Annuity Roll of 1867, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1880, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1885, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1890, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1896, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1898, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1900, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1902, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1906, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1910, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1924, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1928, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1932, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1934, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1936, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1938, and on the Delaware Census Roll of 1940, and on the Delaware Census Roll of

Cherokee-Delaware # 11

Department of the Interior,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Muskogee, I. T. July 22, 1902.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Grace Day as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

Upon an examination of the Delaware Pay Rolls in the possession of this Commission the name of Teresa Day is found on the Delaware Annuity Pay Roll of December 1891, and on the Delaware Annuity Pay Roll of August 1895, her age appearing on the first mentioned roll as one year, and on the second roll as two. Teresa Day is mentioned on said roll as the daughter of James Day and Katie W. Day, and her name appears with those of her brothers and sisters in the order of their ages. The name of Dolly Day appears with the names of the others of her family on the Delaware Pay Roll of 1896, she at that time being four years of age.

Taken in consideration with the testimony in this case it is considered that Grace Day was known as Teresa Day and Dolly Day, and that she is identified on the above mentioned rolls by those names.

The record in this case shows that on October 12, 1900, Katie Day appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, among others, of her minor child, Grace Day, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. The other parties to the application are differently classified and are not embraced in this decision. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on July 22, 1902.

The evidence shows that Grace Day is the child of Katie Day, a Delaware Indian, an adopted citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and James Day, a Delaware Indian, an adopted citizen of the Cherokee Nation. Katie Day and James Day are both identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880. The name of Grace Day cannot be found on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, but she is identified on the Delaware Annuity Pay rolls of 1891 and 1893, as Teressa Day, and on the Delaware Pay Roll of 1896 as Dolly Day.

It further appears from the evidence that Grace Day has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since her birth.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Grace Day should be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

The record in this case shows that on October 17, 1900, Amelia Phipps, now Amelia Blair, appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on July 25, 1902. On November 20, 1901, Amelia Phipps married Morgan Blair, and a child, James L. Blair, has been born to said Amelia Blair and her husband, Morgan Blair. James L. Blair is now embraced in this decision.

The evidence shows that Amelia Blair is of Delaware blood, and that she is identified on the 1880 authenticated tribal roll of the Cherokee Nation, as "Nannie Day." She is also identified on the Delaware Pay roll of 1896. Her son, James L. Blair, born April 11, 1901, is too young to be on any roll but proper proof of his birth has been furnished this Commission.

The evidence further shows that Amelia Blair has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, except for a period of four years during which time she was away at school. It is considered from the evidence that James L. Blair has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since his birth.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Amelia Blair and James L. Blair should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

ADDRESS ONLY THE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Mrs. Amelia Phipps,

Bennett, Indian Territory.

Madam:

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself and child

for enrollment as citizen of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on March 22, 1902.

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application, that you may deem necessary.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to offer such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

Yours truly,

Registrar.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of Elizabeth Davis, et al., as Cherokee citizens by Delaware blood; ~~made~~ John D. Marker, being sworn and examined by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A John D. Marker.
Q How old are you? A 76.
Q What is your post office address? A Vinita.
Q What district do you live in? A Delaware.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A I am.
Q By blood or intermarriage? A Intermarriage.
Q Do you know Elizabeth Davis? A Yes, sir.
Q What relation is she to you? A My step-daughter is all.
Q Did you marry her mother? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her mother's name when you married her?
A Jane Connor.
Q Well was Jane Connor an Indian by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q A Delaware? A Yes, sir.
Q Is Jane Connor living? A Yes, sir.
Q The mother of Elizaveth Davis? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether the name of Elizabeth Davis is on the roll of 1880 or not? A I put it there.
Q By what name? A I don't recollect whether it was Carlton or Connor.
Q You say you don't recollect whether you put it on as Connor or Carlton? A No, sir.
Q Why should you have put it on by the name of Carlton? A He assumed that name, her father.
Q Why? A I don't know.
Q Did he ever go by the name of Carolton? A Yes, sir, his proper name was John Q. Connor, son of old John Chief Connor.

Q Has Elizabeth any children? A Yes, sir.
Q How many? A Four.
Q All living? A Yes, sir.
Q What are their names? A Bruce, Cyrus, John D. and George.
Q How old is Bruce? A About 16 I think.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir, living with his mother.

The 1880 Authenticated Roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of Elizabeth Carlton found thereon at page 239, #622, Delaware District as an adopted Delaware, 18 years of age.

Q I find upon examined of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation that one Elizabeth Carolton is enrolled on the roll of 1880; are you satisfied that that is intended for the enrollment of Eliza Davis?
A Yes, sir.
Q Is Elizabeth Carlton married? A Yes, sir.
Q What is her husband's name? A She is a widow now.
Q But she was married? A Yes, sir.
Q Whom to? A First married to William T. Davis and they separated and she married Davis, he is dead.
Q Her name has been Davis continuously since she was married the first time? A Yes, sir.

COM'R NEEDLES:--From the testimony just taken it is shown that Elizabeth Davis and children who are listed upon Delaware doubtful card #3 should be listed upon straight card, her name having now been found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Elizabeth Carlton.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Elizabeth Davis and her three minor children, Cyrus, John D., and George Davis as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

D E C I S I O N.

--oOo--

The record in this case shows that on September 26, 1900, Elizabeth Davis appeared before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory and made application for the enrollment of herself and her three minor children, Cyrus, John D., and George Davis, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Vinita, Indian Territory, on May 21, 1901, and on June 27, 1902. The testimony taken in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Bruce Davis, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood, Cherokee-Delaware Case No.357, on May 14, 1902, is made part of the record in this case.

The evidence in this case shows that Elizabeth Davis is a Delaware Indian, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 as Elizabeth Carlton. She and her children, Cyrus and John D. Davis, are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. George Davis, born March 23, 1897, is too young to be on any roll and proper proof of his birth has been furnished this Commission.

The evidence further shows that Elizabeth Davis has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since the year 1868, and it is considered from the evidence that her children, Cyrus, John D. and George Davis, have lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since their birth.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Elizabeth Davis, Cyrus Davis, John D. Davis and George Davis should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Davis for the enrollment of herself and children, Cyrus, John D. and George Davis as Delaware citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

Upon an examination of the Register of Delaware Indians, made in 1867, of the names of persons who elected to remove to and become citizens of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the terms of the Treaty between the Delaware and Cherokee tribes of Indians, entered into April 8, 1867, it is found that the applicant is duly identified upon said Register as follows:

Elizabeth Davis, as Elizabeth Carleton, No. 942.

It is ordered that copies of this statement be filed with and made a part of the record in this case.

1896 enrollment, page 360, #818, Minnie Powell, Coweseenowee.
(With the same note as with Josie Powell.)

JOHN R. WILLIS, being sworn and examined by [illegible] C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name? A John R. Willis.
Q What is your post office? A Kenwa.
Q How did these children here come to be on the roll of 1896 as Powell? A I suppose their father used to call himself Powell.
Q Why so? A He said they give him that name in the Army.
Q You knew him back here as Lenowisha? A Yes, sir, and the give him the name in the Army as Powell.
Q And you think that is how they come on the roll as Powell? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge:--This completes the record necessary for the admission to enrollment of Joseph Lenowisha, and it shows that the Minnie Wilson who was supposed to be Lizzie Lenowisha is another individual, and that the name of Powell on the roll of 1896 is the person we now enroll as Lizzie Lenowisha.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Bartlesville, I. T., June 7, 1902.

In the matter of the application for enrollment of Joseph Lenowisha as a Cherokee-Delaware.

Mary Wilson, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows through interpreter John H. Secondine:

Q Give me your full name. A Mary Wilson.
Q How old are you? A About forty.
Q Are you the mother of the children Minnie, Charles and Lillie Wilson? A Yes sir.

This applicant is on Delaware straight card 78 with her children and she has children born prior to her present marriage, one of whom Lizzie Lenowisha is on the card with her mother, No. 78, and the other child, Joseph Lenowisha, is found by the index to be on Delaware Doubtful card No. 4.

Q You have a child named Joseph Lenowisha have you? A Yes sir.
Q And a child named Lizzie Lenowisha? A Yes sir.
Q Are they full brother and sister? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know why Joseph was put on a doubtful card, what was told you at the time? A The question was whether he should be called Wilson or Lenowisha.
Q You don't know any other trouble at that time? A No sir.
Q Are these two children, Joseph and Lizzie, the children of the same [illegible]? A Yes.
Q And was his name Lenowisha? A That is his Delaware name.
Q What is his English name? A Howell.
Q What was his full name? A That is all I know.
Q Was he a full blood Delaware? A Yes.

Copies of this statement will be filed with Delaware Doubtful case No. 4 and with Delaware straight case No. 78, and this testimony will indicate that Joseph and Lizzie Lenowisha are full brother and sister and that both of them should be entered upon the rolls with the surname of Howell.

Q Do you generally call them Howell? A Yes.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES. 1111. 602

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Joseph Powell as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

--oOo--

The record in this case shows that on October 8, 1900, Mary Wilson appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, among others, of Joseph Lenowisha, her minor child by a former marriage, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, on June 7, 1902. The other parties to the application are differently classified and are not embraced in this decision. Joseph Lenowisha is usually called Joseph Powell and will be enrolled by that name.

The evidence shows that Joseph Powell is the son of Mary Wilson, a Delaware by blood, an adopted citizen of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, as Wis-kep-ake, and Lenowisha, sometimes called Powell. The said Joseph Powell is identified on the Delaware Pay Roll of 1896, and on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that Mary Wilson, the mother of Joseph Powell, has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and it is considered from the evidence that Joseph Powell, twelve years of age at the date of this application, has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since his birth.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Joseph Powell should be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

The record in this case shows that on October 10, 1900, Lizzie Beaver appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, among others, of John A. Lee, a child by a former husband, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. The other parties to the application are differently classified and are not embraced in this decision.

The evidence in this case shows that John A. Lee is the son of Lizzie Beaver, formerly Lizzie Lee, a Delaware Indian, an adopted citizen of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and Thomas Lee, now deceased, a Delaware Indian, an adopted citizen of the Cherokee Nation who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880. John A. Lee cannot be identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, but, upon examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, he is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1890 as Johnny Beaver Jr. Upon an examination of the Delaware Pay rolls in the possession of this Commission his name is found on the Delaware Pay roll of 1896, and on various Delaware Annuity rolls, as Albert J. Lee.

The evidence further shows that John A. Lee has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that John A. Lee should be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John A. Lee as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

D E C I S I O N.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, on October 10, 1900, Lizzie Bean appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of, among others, John A. Lee , as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. The records further show that on November 20, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered its decision herein granting said applicant the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood, and that, thereafter, on September 8, 1903, there was filed with the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes an affidavit showing the death of John A. Lee on the ___ day of February, 1901.

Section Twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), provides:

> "The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered November 20, 1902, in so far as it affects the applicant, John A. Lee, be rescinded, set aside, and held for naught, and it is further ordered that, under the provisions of the Act of Congress above noted, the application for the enrollment of John A. Lee as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood be, and the same is, hereby dismissed.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of Jan. 12th-'06 addressed to Lizzie Beaver read. by me, and in regard to the dismissal or refusal of the enrollment of John A. Lee as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, I wish to state to you that Lizzie Beaver died in Feb. 1903, and I would like to know whether she has read. an allotment as yet. If not I will see to it and in the case of John A. Lee He died also in Feb. 1903. I can bring evidence to prove the same. I want to know who made affidavits to him dieing in 1901. Can the case be reopened? If so, I want to know.

Respt.

Eliza Beaver.

W. W. Hastings,
Attorney for Cherokee Nation,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed herewith for your information a copy of a letter received from Eliza Beaver, dated February 7, 1906, in which it is stated that Lizzie Beaver and John A. Lee died in February, 1903.

The records of this office show that Lizzie Beaver applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for enrollment as a Delaware citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that on June 7, 1901, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit signed by Willie Longbone, a nephew of Lizzie Beaver, in which it is stated that said Lizzie Beaver died in February, 1901.

The records of this office further show that application was made to the Commission for the enrollment of John A. Lee as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood; that on November 20, 1902, the Commission rendered its decision granting said application, that on November 25, 1903, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit signed by Mary B. Harjo, a second cousin, and John R. Riley, an acquaintance, of said John A. Lee, showing his death on February, 1901, and that on January 13, 1906, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered a decision dismissing the application for his enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, a copy of which has heretofore been furnished you.

You are advised that Eliza Beaver has this day been notified that she will be permitted to appear before the offices of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on Thursday, March 8, 1906, at nine o'clock A.M., and introduce such testimony as she desires tending to show the correct date of death of these parties. The Cherokee Nation will also be permitted to appear on that date and introduce such testimony as it desires in the matter.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

Bartlesville, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

This office is in receipt of your letter of February 7, referring to this office's letter of January 12, 1906, inclosing a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes dated January 12, 1906, dismissing your application for the enrollment of your son, John A. Lee, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, of Delaware blood. You state that he died in February, 1903, and not in 1902, and also that Lizzie Beaver died in February 1903, and ask to be advised if you can bring evidence to prove the same. You also ask to be advised whether Lizzie Beaver had received an allotment of land.

In reply you are advised that on November 29, 1901, there was filed with the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes a duly executed affidavit as to the death, in February of 1901, of your child, John A. Lee, and the application for his enrollment was therefore dismissed.

advised that the records of this office show that on June 7, 1902, there was filed with the Commission an affidavit as to the death, in February of 1901, of Lizzie Beaver, who was an applicant before the Commission for enrollment as a Delaware citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No application for the selection of an allotment of land in the Cherokee Nation has been made for Lizzie Beaver.

If you claim that the date of the death of John A. Lee and Lizzie Beaver, as shown by the records of this office is in error, you will be given an opportunity to appear, with witnesses, before the officers of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on Thursday, March 8, 1906, at nine o'clock A. M., for the purpose of showing the correct date of their death. The Cherokee Nation will also be permitted to appear on that date and introduce such testimony as it desires in the matter.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby advised that you will be permitted to appear before the offices of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, on Thursday, March 29, 1906, at nine o'clock A. M., instead of Thursday, March 8, 1906, and introduce testimony as to the date of the death of Lizzie Beaver and John A. Lee.

By the Commissioner:-

The name of the applicant appears upon the final authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation as [illegible] upon the [illegible] Seventh Call of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, and having given sufficient testimony in the Indian Territory as provided by law, [illegible] enrollment by this Commission as a citizen of the [illegible] Nation by Delaware blood. The enrollment of your wife will be rejected for the reason that she was married to you subsequent to Sept. 25, 1902, denying the rights to intermarried citizens to participate in the property rights of the Cherokee Nation. The application made by you on behalf of your minor child, Mary Ellen Bowen, will be considered by the Commission some time in the future, and the name of your child will now be placed upon a doubtful card for that purpose; his child having been born four months after your marriage to your present wife.

E. C. Rothenberger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary E. Young and Emma L. Young as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

D E C I S I O N.

--oOo--

The record in this case shows that on October 10, 1900, Edward Young appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, among others, of his minor child, Mary E. Young, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. The other parties to the application are differently classified and are not embraced in this decision. Another child, Emma L. Young, has been born since the date of the application, and she is now embraced in this decision.

The evidence shows that Mary E. Young and Emma L. Young are the children of Edward Young, a Delaware Indian, an adopted citizen of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and Anna Young, a white woman, who were lawfully married on April 19, 1900. Mary E. Young and Emma L. Young, born on August 17, 1900, and March 22, 1902, respectively, are too young to be upon any roll of the Cherokee Nation, but proper proof of their births has been furnished this Commission.

The evidence further shows that Edward Young has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and it is considered from the evidence that Mary E. Young and Emma L. Young have lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since their birth.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Mary E. Young and Emma L. Young should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
(1880 Roll, Page 78, #492, Polly Cullin, Coo. District - applicant's mother)

The name of the applicant, Almira Cox Webber is not found upon any of the rolls: She makes satisfactory proof of birth as to her two children, Albert K. and Alonzo: The name of her mother, Polly Cullin is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880. The testimony shows that the applicant is the daughter of the said Polly Cullin, but her name does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, or upon any other roll now in the possession of this Commission: It is averred that her name is on the roll of 1896: Satisfactory proof not having been made as to her citizenship, final decision as to the enrollment of the said applicant and her children will be suspended, and their names will be placed on a doubtful card.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
MUSKOGEE, I.T., NOVEMBER 15, 1906.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Almira C. Webber and her two minor children, Albert M. and Minnie Webber, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

-----ooooo-----

Upon an examination of the Delaware payrolls in the possession of this Commission, the applicant in chief is identified on the 1891 annuity roll, page 287, #420, as Almira Cox Manly; on the 1892 annuity payroll, page 393, #423, as Almira Cox Manly, on the annuity payroll of 1893, page 616, #449, as Almira Cox Webber nee Manly. The applicant's mother is identified upon the Delaware Register, page 13, #432, as Polly Dick.

It is directed that this statement be filed with and made a part of the record in the case of Almira C. Webber.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES. H.H.L. 10A

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Almira C. Webber and her two minor children, Albert E., and Alonzo Webber, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

D E C I S I O N.

--oOo--

The record in this case shows that on October 18, 1900, Almira C. Webber appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself and her two minor children, Albert E., and Alonzo Webber, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Nowata, Indian Territory, on June 24, 1901, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on April 5, 1902.

The evidence in this case shows that Almira C. Webber is of Delaware blood, the daughter of Polly Manly, whose name appears upon the Register of Delawares who removed to the Cherokee Nation pursuant to the Cherokee-Delaware agreement of April 8, 1867, as Polly Dick, her name at the time that Register was made, and Alonzo Manly, a Freedman. Almira C. Webber cannot be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, or on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, but her mother and sister, Amanda, are identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, by the name of Cullin, the name sometimes given to Alonzo Manly. Upon an examination of the Delaware Pay rolls in the possession of this Commission the name of Almira C. Webber is found on the Delaware Annuity Rolls of December 1891, April 1892, August 1893 and other Delaware Annuity Rolls. The two children of Almira C. Webber, Albert E., and Alonzo Webber, were born on February 2, 1895 and August 9, 1899, respectively, and proper proof of their births has been furnished this Commission.

The evidence further shows that Almira C. Webber and her two children, Albert E., and Alonzo Webber, were born in the Cherokee Nation and have lived there all of their lives.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Almira C. Webber, Albert E. Webber, and Alonzo Webber should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 3, 1902.

Mrs. Almira Cox Webber,

Hayton, Indian Territory,

Madam:-

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself and two minor children for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on March 22, 1902.

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application, that you may deem necessary.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

Yours truly,

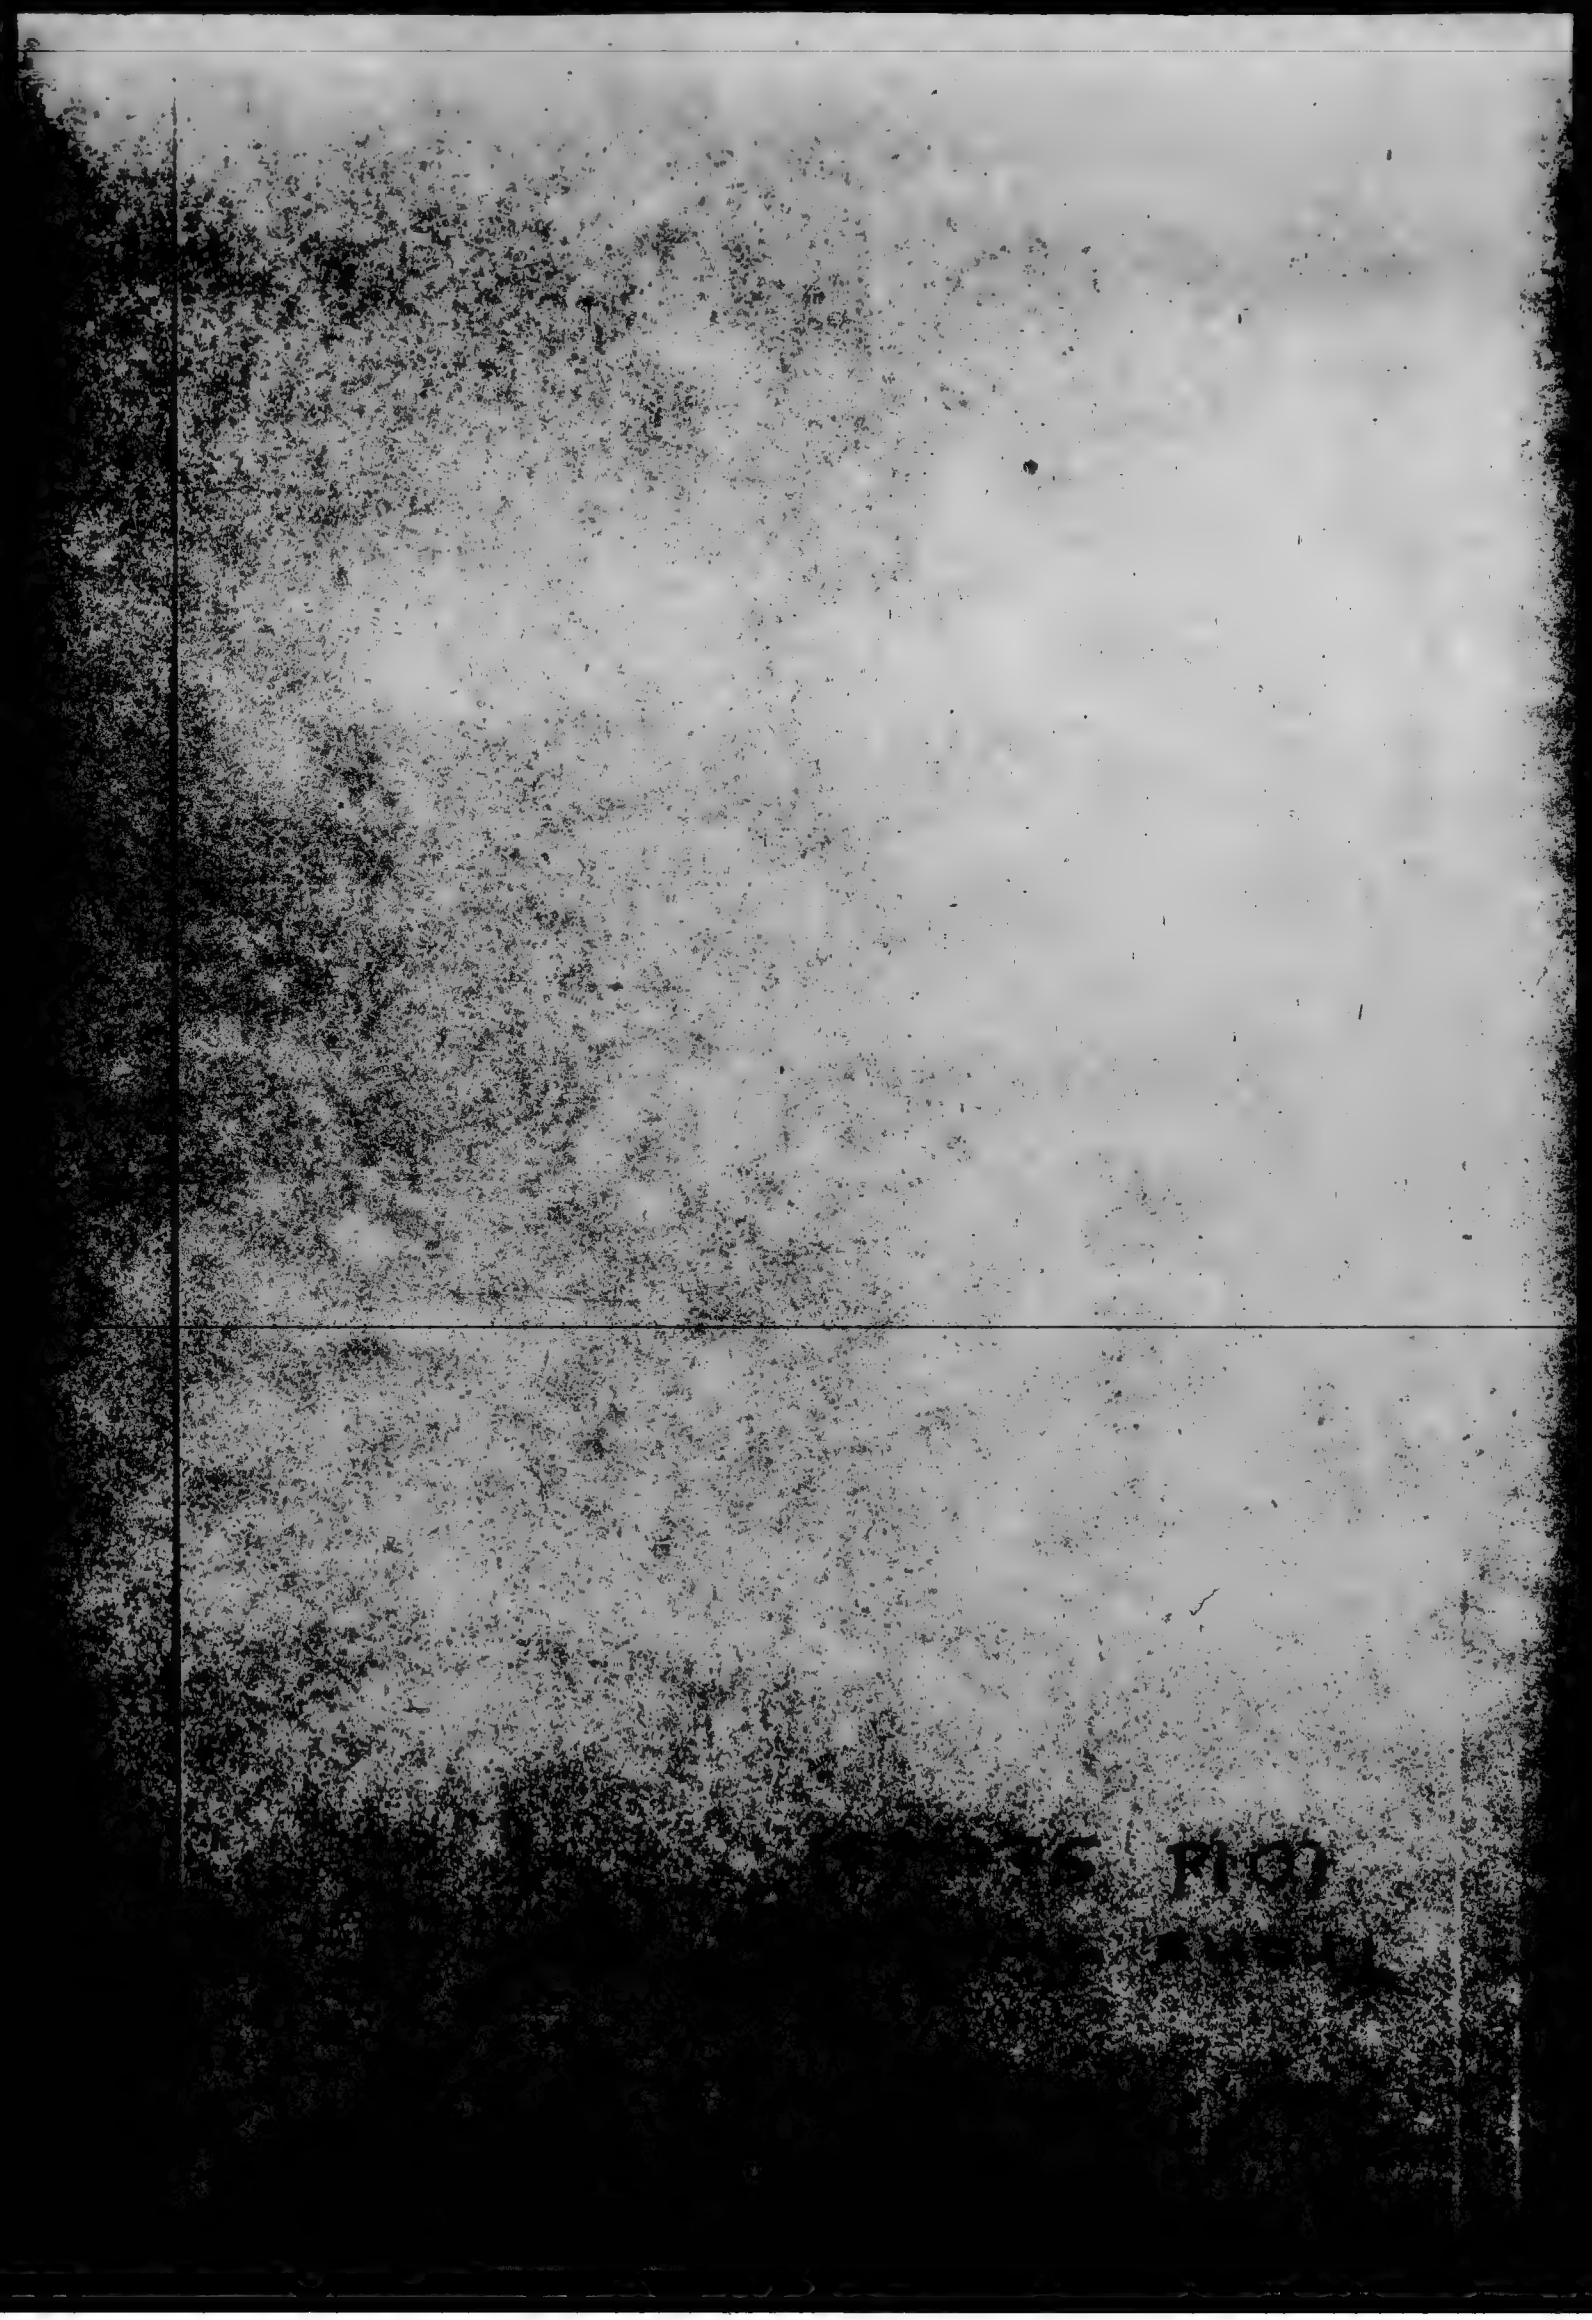
W. A. Chase, Esq.,
Attorney at Law,
Nowata, Indian Territory.,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 30th ultimo, requesting that you be given more time in which to introduce a certificate showing that Almira C. Webber, an applicant for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, was paid certain moneys due the Delaware Indians by the United States Indian Agent at Muskogee.

In reply you are advised that your request will be complied with, and that you will be granted thirty days from the date hereof in which to furnish the Commission with said certificate.



Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
CHEROKEE, I.T., September 20th, 1900.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the application of JOHN THOMAS for enrollment as a citizen by Delaware blood of the Cherokee nation.

JOHN N. CAMPBELL, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Brackinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your full name there, please? A John N. Campbell.
Q Your age? A 53.
Q Your post office? A Alluwee.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee nation? A Since '75, 25 years.
Q You want to give some additional testimony in regard to the application of Jobe Thomas. It appears that he applied for enrollment at Nowata on the 28th of October, and he stated that he had lived in the Cherokee nation all his life, but that he was not identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896. He was however, identified on the Pay roll of 1894. Now, what do you know about his being born in this country? A Well, sir, I know him as a child, a small child, about 25 years ago.
Q Did you know his mother? A I knew his mother and I knew his father.
Q Was his mother a Delaware? A Yes, sir, she was a full blood Delaware.
Q She was recognized as a full blood Delaware? A Yes, sir.
Q Everybody knows the boy was born in the Cherokee nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you known him ever since that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Knew that this has been his benified home? A Yes, sir.
Q Did his mother die when he was young? A Yes, sir.
Q And when did his father die? A About the same time.
Q Can you think of any reason why he should have been left off the roll of 1880 and the census roll of 1896? A I think of no other except that he was an orphan and was not looked after. I was appointed as his guardian and drew his money and I likely drew some of his Cherokee money.
Q Appointed his guardian by the Cherokee Court? A Yes, sir. I remained his guardian a few years until he got to be a pretty good sized boy.
Q This boy is a full blood is he? A He is considered a full blood.

WILLIAM NICHOLAS, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Brackinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your full name there, please? A William Nicholas.
Q How old areyou? A I am 56 years old.
Q What is your post office? A Alluwee, Indian Territory.
Q Coowescoowee district? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee nation? A Pretty near all my life.
Q What are you Delaware? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know one Jobe Thomas who is a Delaware? A Yes, sir.
Q What was the name of his father? A Jacob Thomas.
Q His mother, what was her name? A I think her name was Mary Thomas.
Q Can you state where was Jobe Thomas born? A There about Spoke Hollow, northeast of Alluwee.
Q Was his mother a full blood Delaware? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know what her name was before it was Thomas? A No, sir.
Q You do not know whether that name was Delaware?
A No, sir.

--oOo--

The record in this case shows that on October 18, 1900, Job Thomas appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Chelsea, Indian Territory, on November 20, 1900.

The evidence shows that Job Thomas is of Delaware blood, the son of James Thomas and Mary Thomas, Delaware Indians. Upon an examination of the Delaware rolls in the possession of this Commission the name of Job Thomas is found on the Delaware Annuity rolls of December 1891, April 1892, and August 1893, and on the Delaware Pay roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that Job Thomas has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, except a period of about two years, during which time he was in the Creek Nation of the Indian Territory.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Job Thomas should be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

[illegible]

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
MUSKOGEE, I.T., OCTOBER 15th, 1900.

In the matter of the application of John A. Pittsenbarger for the enrollment of his child, Lillie M. Pittsenbarger, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by Delaware blood; said Pittsenbarger having been sworn and examined by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A John A. Pittsenbarger.
Q How old are you? A 29.
Q Post office address? A Vinita.
Q What district do you live in? A Coowescoowee.
Q Are you a recognized citizen? A No, sir, I apply for the enrollment of Little M. Pittsenbarger.
Q How old is she? A Nine years old.
Q What is her mother's name? A Little A. Pittsenbarger.
Q Are you wife? A She was, she is dead.
Q What was Little A.'s name before you married her? A Bullet.
Q Is she a citizen by blood? A Delaware.
Q You are her husband? A Yes, sir.
Q You are a white man? A Yes, sir.
Q Non-citizen? A I am a non-citizen.
Q The mother of this child was named Lillie Bullet? A Yes, sir.
Q What would be her age now? A Something near 28 or 29.
Q What was her father's name, Lillie Bullet's father? A Simon Bullet
Q What was her mother's name? A Nathroma.
Q Are they living? A No, sir.
Q Are their names upon the roll of 1880? A I do not know as to that. They are on the Registered Delaware roll.
Q How long have you been married? A I was married in 1891.
Q The name of your wife, your wife's father or mother does not seem to be on any roll of the Cherokee Nation? A No.
Q Did you ever apply to the Dawes Commission in 1896 for the enrollment of your wife? A No, sir.
Q Did she apply? A No, sir.
Q Did you apply to the Cherokee authorities for the admittance or re-admittance to citizenship? A No, sir, she was never denied citizenship.

1896 Delaware Pay roll, page 24, #730, Lilly A. Pittsenbarger.

Q Were you married to her mother in 1891? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any other testimony to offer as to the citizenship of your child? A Only in affidavit form.
Q Where is the child residing? A She is now in Rich-hill, Missouri.
Q Where did she livin before you sent her up there? A Five miles South of Vinita.
Q Has she lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life? A Yes, sir.
Q You lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

HENRY ARMSTRONG, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Henry Armstrong.
Q What is your age? A 58.
Q What district do you live in? A Coowescoowee
Q Do you know Lillie M. Pittsenbarger? nine years old, daughter of John A. Pittsenbarger and Lillie Bullet? A I know Lilli Bullet.
Q She is living? A No, sir.
Q How long did you know her? A Ever since about 1871.
Q Did you know anything about her citizenship? A I know her mother and father.
Q Are they living? A No, sir, both dead.
Q When did they die, before 1880 or since? A Before.
Q They were Delaware Indians? A Yes, sir.
Q What blood? A Full blood.
Q

John A. Pittsenbarger--2.

Q Was the mother of [illegible] Pittsenbarger a full blood Delaware?
A You speak long of time, we are [illegible].
Q Do you know whether she was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation or not? A I never heard her citizenship disputed.
Q Did you ever hear it asserted? A No, sir, she always drew money with the Delawares.

By John C. Starr, Cherokee representative:

Q Do you know whether the name of the mother of this child is on the roll of 1880 or not? A I do not know. She must be enrolled with Sophia Rogers.

Com'r Needles:--The name of Lillie M. Pittsenbarger, the nine year old child of John A. Pittsenbarger, appears upon the Delaware pay roll of 1896. Her name does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880. He avers that she is the daughter of one Lillie Bullet, a Delaware indian; but the name of Lillie Bullet does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880. He also avers that the father and mother of Lillie Bullet were Delaware Indians, but their names do not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, probably for the reason that they died before the roll was compiled. Said Lillie M. Pittsenbarger is identified as the child of John A. Pittsenbarger by his wife Lillie Bullet, he being a non-citizen. Because of the fact that the name of the mother of said Lillie M., does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, and for the fact that no satisfactory proof has been produced as to her citizenship, the application for the enrollment of said Lillie M. Pittsenbarger will be suspended and her name will be placed upon a doubtful card.

[illegible] OF THE INTERIOR.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Claremore, I.T. October [illegible], 1906.

[illegible]

In the matter of the application of [illegible] for the enrollment of said applicant as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

The said John A Pittsenbarger, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name. A John A. Pittsenbarger.
Q How old are you? A Twenty-nine.
Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita.
Q Do you live in Cooweescoowee District? A Yes, sir.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Lillie M. Pittsenbarger.
Q You only apply for her? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she your child? A No, she is my daughter.
Q How old is the child? A Two years old.
Q You do not apply for yourself? A No, sir.
Q Has this child lived in the Cherokee Nation all its life? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of the mother of the child. A Lillie A. Bullette was her maiden name.
Q She was your wife, was she? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
Q When did she die? A In March 1904.
Q How old was she when she died? A Twenty years old I think.
Q Give me the name of her father. A Simon Bullette.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q And the name of her mother. A Sagarona.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
Q Did your wife Lillie Bullette live in the Cherokee Nation all her life? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a certificate of her marriage to you? A I have had. I started in with this case at Nowata before the honorable Mr. Breckons and he told me to bring the case here. Sagarona Bullette and Simon Bullette were put on the roll of 1880 because they were dead. I wanted to introduce his brothers showing that they were on the registered. Bullette roll but not on the roll of 1880, and for that reason. This wife of mine was not enrolled in 1880 because they were dead.
Q I thought you said your wife Lillie Bullette was a Cherokee?
A No, sir; she was a Delaware.
Q Isn't she on the roll of 1880? A No, sir.
Q Why isn't she? A For that reason, I presume, her parents being dead before 1880, and they overlooked it. That was the principle I wanted to introduce. Her mother would appear on Sagarona Bullette roll but not on the roll of 1880, and for that reason. This wife of mine was not enrolled in 1880 because they were dead.
Q Do you know them Simon Bullette died? A No, sir. Mr John and Mr. George Bullette are here and they know.

JOHN [illegible], being sworn and examined by the Commissioner, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name. A [illegible].
Q Give me your age? A [illegible].
Q What is your post office? A [illegible], Indian Territory.

Q How long have you been in the Cherokee Nation? A Over forty years, I guess.

Q Did you know Lillie A. Bullette, the daughter of [illegible]?

A Yes, sir.

Q [illegible]

A No, she is not in this country.

Q [illegible]

A Yes, sir.

Q [illegible]

A Yes, sir.

Q I want to know [illegible] the death of her husband Bullette? A Oh, yes; I knew of.

Q [illegible]

A Yes, sir.

Q [illegible] I could [illegible] but when she did die.

Q [illegible] that child, Lillie A. Bullette? A [illegible]

Q Give me the name of her grandmother. A [illegible]

Q What was the name of her grandfather, or was he living then? A The grandfather of Lillie A Bullette.

Q Yes, sir; the husband of Mary Ellis Rogers. A He was not living. She was a very old woman. Mary Ellis Rogers may have died before 1880.

Q Do you think that Lillie A. Bullette may have been enrolled in 1880 as Lillie A. Rogers? A I think not.

Q Who would she be enrolled as 1880? A As Lillie Bullette, I expect. And I think [illegible] died before 1880 too.

Q Well, now this Lillie A. Bullette was a niece of yours, was she? A By our blood.

Q The daughter of your brother? A Yes, sir.

Q And do you know that she was born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know that her mother came with the Delaware tribe, they moved down here? A Yes, sir; she came right along with us, the same body of us.

Q Was on the roll in the possession of the Cherokee Nation [illegible] fourth of the Delaware tribe [illegible] the name of [illegible] Bullette and the name of Mary [illegible] and I think, Sam Smith Delaware [illegible]

Q And child [illegible] A She was a boy. Sampson I don't know how that happened.

Q Sarah Bullette agreed with William and Jennie A That is her family.

Q William and Jennie were children of Sarah? A Yes, sir. The husband of Sarah was Sampson at that time. She ought not to know [illegible] A Delaware by girl, they was a Sampson.

Q So it is not the name of this person Lillie Bullette [illegible] for? A No, sir. This little child's mother [illegible] on there. Lillie Bullette was not living in 1880 [illegible] was born after they came here.

Q Had her mother married Simon Bullette at that time, do you? A Yes, sir.

Q What was she doing on there as Rogers? A I couldn't tell you that.

Q You think its correct? A Yes, sir. They got [illegible] Bullette did not get the name of Bullette? A [illegible]

Q Was any authority ordered name Bullette? A No, sir; [illegible]

Q And was [illegible] a full blood Delaware? A [illegible] I guess I [illegible] there I think [illegible]

Q Do you know anything about Mary Gillis Rogers? A Yes, sir; she is the grandmother of Lillie A.

Q Now, Rogers was the maiden name of Lillie Bullette's mother, was it? A Yes, sir.

Q Was this Sephrona married to her husband Bullette when she came here from Kansas? A Yes, sir; she was married there in Kansas.

Q And you think she is enrolled here under her maiden name? A They certainly did.

Q She is enrolled with a Mary Gillis Rogers. That is the grandmother of Lillie A? A Yes, sir.

Q And the mother of Sephrona Bullette? A Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: Sephrona Bullette is identified under her maiden name as Sephrona Rogers, and with her mother Mary Gillis Rogers, on the list of Delawares in the possession of the Cherokee Representatives present, it being a list of those who came from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation in 1868 or 1869.

Q How can you account for this Lillie A. Rogers, or Lillie A. Bullette when your Members state is the daughter of Sephrona, not being on the roll of 1880? A I can't say.

Q Was her father dead in 1880? A Yes, sir.

Q Was her mother dead in 1880? A I think she was.

Q Do you think then she was just overlooked because no one looked after her particularly? A Yes, sir.

Q You know that Lillie A. Bullette was born here? A Yes, sir.

Q And lived here all her life? A Yes, sir; although she went out after Pittsenbarger married her. I don't know anything about that.

Q And then she is the daughter of this woman Sephrona? A Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: It appears from this testimony that the father and mother of Lillie A Bullette, the mother of the child [illegible] application has been made heretofore came to this country with the Delawares in 1868 or 1869, the father being identified by [illegible] on the Delaware roll and the mother of the child being [illegible] with Sephrona under the name she had before marrying her husband, which was her maiden name of Rogers. And it appears also from the testimony of the uncle of this child Lillie M. Pittsenbarger, that her mother Lillie A. Bullette could only have been omitted from the roll of 1880 by neglect, she being an orphan at that time, he stating that he knew that she was born in the Cherokee Nation of Sephrona Rogers, the wife of his brother, Simon Bullette, and that she lived in the Cherokee Nation consistently until she died. In the absence of conflicting testimony it is now directed that when this card is received in regular order, the name of Lillie M. Pittsenbarger be enrolled as a Cherokee-Delaware.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this application for enrollment, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lillie H. Pittsenbarger as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

--oOo--

The record in this case shows that on October 19, 1900, John A. Pittsenbarger appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of his minor child, Lillie H. Pittsenbarger, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had on October 31, 1900, at Claremore, Indian Territory.

The evidence in this case shows that Lillie H. Pittsenbarger, nine years of age at the date of this application, is the daughter of Lillie A. Pittsenbarger, deceased, a Delaware Indian, and John A. Pittsenbarger, a white man. The name of the father of Lillie A. Pittsenbarger, Simon Bullet, and the name of her mother, as Sophronia Rogers, are found upon the Register of Delawares who removed to the Cherokee Nation pursuant to the Cherokee-Delaware agreement of 1867. The name of Lillie H. Pittsenbarger cannot be found on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, but, upon an examination of the Delaware Pay rolls in the possession of this Commission, she is identified on the Delaware Annuity Pay rolls of December 1891, April 1892, August 1893, and on the Delaware Pay roll of 1896. On the Delaware Annuity Pay roll of December 1891, Lillie H. Pittsenbarger is identified as the daughter of "Lillie Pittsenbarger, (formerly Bullett) Died April 24, '91."

The evidence further shows that Lillie H. Pittsenbarger has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Lillie H. Pittsenbarger should be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Q This grand child is living now, is he? A Yes sir.

Mr. J. B. Parker, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:
Q What is your full name? A J. B. Parker.
Q What is your age? A Fifty two.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A About thirty two years.
Q You are one of the official witnesses here for the Cherokee Nation, are you not: Interpreter? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know Wild Bill Anderson, the son of Mary Anderson?
A I know Wild Bob or Wild Bill; yes sir.
Q Her son? A Yes sir.
Q A son of this applicant's wife by a former marriage? A Yes sir.
Q He is dead now? A Yes sir.
Q Been dead about eight years? A Yes sir.
Q Was he married before he died? A I do not know.
Q Did you ever know the woman, Alena Akyuah, that was said to be his wife? A Yes sir; but I do not know it to be a fact.
Q What was she? A I do not know; She might have been part colored and part white.
Q Do you know whether she lived with him as his wife? A
A I do not know.
Q Do you know whether they lived together at all?
A No sir, I do not.

Applicant recalled:
Q What do you know about their living together as husband and wife? A They were living together.
Q They were living together to the time of her death, were they?
A Yes sir.
Q Did she die before he did? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know they lived together before this boy was born?
A I donot know: He brought her home when the kid was born, and said that was his wife.
Q Did you know Wild Bill all his life? A Yessir.
Q Did he ever claim any other woman as his wife? A No sir.
Q And he brought this woman to your house and said she was his wife? A Yes sir.
Q Did you hear of their having married? A Yes sir, but I did not ask how they lived together: Indian fashion; old fashion or how.
Q You never heard of his living with any other woman as his wife?
A No sir.
Q Any fashion? A No sir.
Q Did you ever hear of this woman living with any other man?
A I do not know anything about it. That is further than my knowledge went.

By Mr. W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Representative:
Q Did he ever have any other children by this woman[illegible]
A [illegible] He has a girl.

QBy the Commission? A Is she married? A Yes sir.
Q Did he ever have any other children by this woman he claimed?
A No sir.

By Mr. W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Representative:
Q What is the name of this other child he claimed? A Lizzie [illegible]
Q Is she married? A Yes sir.
Q To whom? A I have forgotten his name: There is another [illegible] coat, right there against that coat. (indicating)

Q Is that the only child he had by this wife[illegible] one?
A Yes sir: they are the only two children as he had.
Q Were they both by the same mother? A Yes sir.

By the Commission:
Q Is that other child, Lizzie, older or younger that this one?
A Older.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and a grand child of his wife's: His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896, as an adopted Delaware. Her change of name is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith: She has lived in the Cherokee Nation thirtyn years, and will now be listed for enrollment as an adopted Delaware.

The applicant is identified with his wife on the roll of 1896, and is shown by the marriage license and certificate to have been married to her in accordance with Cherokee law, in 1887. He states that they have lived together ever since their marriage.

The applicant states that he is half Creek and half colored, and he is identified on the roll of 1896 as a "Freedman". For the further consideration of his rights, his application for his own enrollment will at present be placed upon a doubtful card, and when a final decision is reached, he will be notified at his Post-office address.

As for the grand child, this child is identified on the roll of 1896, and is living now. His father is identified on the roll of 1880: His father has been dead some eight years: His mother is dead: She can not be identified on the roll of 1880, nor can accurate information be obtained in regard to her at this time. It is desired to determine more definately the fact of the marriage of this child's father and mother: For the present, this application for the child will be placed upon a doubtful card.

The undersigned, being sworn, statesthat as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q You raised her ever since she was a child, and know all about her? A Yes sir.
Q Was she married to Wild Bill the father of these two children? A No, I suppose Interpreter: I asked him awhile ago, he said theywas not married by law.
Q How long did they live together as man and wife, or did they live together as man and wife at all? A Yes, they lived together as man and wife about three years.
Q But they were never married by a preacher or anybody? A No sir they was not married at all.
Q Was Alenoquah ever married before she lived with Wild Bill? A No sir. She was supposed to be married. She had a child before she got Wild Bill, but don't know who it belonged to.
Q She did live with Wild Bill and had these two children, Sam Bob and Annie Martin by Wild Bill? A No, the girl says I don't belong to Bill, just the boy.
Q Do you know who is the father of the girl? A No, nobody knows; this Annie Martin is the one she had before she got Wild Bill, and don't know whose it is, but the other one, the boy, Samuel Bob, is supposed to be the child of Jim Gibson, a Delaware Indian; Gibson would not own thechild, but the woman says it is his.
Q Did this woman ever live with Gibson as his wife? A No.
Q Gibson is a Delaware Indian? A Yes sir.

WALLACE THURSDAY, being sworn and examined, testified as follows:
BY COMMISSION:
Q What is your name? A Wallace Thursday.
Q How old are you? A About 54 years old.
Q You are a Cherokee Freedman are you? A I don't know what they call me; if they knock the boy off it will knock me off.
Q You know Samuel Bob, and you are his guardian? A Yes sir, I am his guardian.
Q Who was his mother? A Alenowequa.
Q What is the name of Samuel Bob's father? A Wild Bill or Gibson Anderson; his Delaware name was Tulpequa.
Q Of what blood was Alenowequa? A She was part colored and part Munsey; that is what my wife says; she knowed her from a child; it was her uncle's child, that's what she said.
Q Alenowequa had no Delaware blood? A She was part Munsey, I guess that's Delaware.
Q Do you know that Alenowequah was enrolled and recognized as a Delaware where she lived? A No, I don't know that.
Q When did Alenowequah die? A I don't know, must have been dead over 17 years; she died two or three months after Sam Bob was born.
Q Do you know whether or not her name appears upon the roll of 1880? A If we had the list we could find her; she was [illegible] Freedman'shake left up there by this Willis Gibson [illegible] child, and then Lizzie Martin was the next, and then Sam Bob was the third child.

Q Under what name would she have been enrolled in 1880, if at all? A Under the name of Wild Bill, I guess that would be right.
Q Was she married to Wild Bill? A No sir, not as I heard of.
Q How long did they live together? A It must have been two or three years, I can't tell exactly.
Q They lived together after theybegan living together, until she died? A Yes sir,, he was there with her from the time he had her until she died. He would come to my house, with her, and then go back to old man Frenchman's until she had this boy; he was two or three days old when they came, because the payment was coming off next month, and that was a chance for him to go to the payment with his mother.
Q How old was Alenowoquah when she died? A I don't know anything about that Q Is Sam Bob on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A He is on the pay roll of the Cherokees, 1894 roll.
Q Is Annie M. Martin on any of the Cherokee rolls? A I guess she is; John Willey put her on.
Q Have she and Sam Bob always lived in the Cherokee Nation since their birth? A Yes, always, they were born here and have always lived here.

Before the Honorable Dawes Commission, sitting at Muskogee, I. T.

In the matter of the application of [redacted], for enrollment as a Citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Brief of applicant.

This applicant would most respectfully represent that he is the Son of Willie Bob Anderson, called called Wild Bill, and that his Mothers name was Allen again.

The evidence in this case shows that applicant is the Grandson of Mary Anderson, now Mary Thursday, and that the name of Mary Thursday appears on the 1880 and the 1896 rolls; that the name of applicants Father appears on the 1880 roll and that applicants Fathers name does not appear on the 1896 roll for the reason that he was deceased before the making of the said 1896 roll.

Applicant would represent that his own name appears on the 1896 roll.

The only contention in this case is whether the Father, and Mother of applicant were ever married, and lived together as Man and Wife.

The attention of the Commission is called to the testimony of John Young and James Shaw , Delaware Indian Citizens who state positively that they knew applicants Father and Mother; that they lived together as Man and Wife to their knowledge for more than four years and were recognized as such by the people generally, and that applicant was born why his Father and Mother were living together.

Moreover the testimony shows that applicants Mother was a Delaware Indian and recognized as such .

We see no reason why the Cherokee Nation should contend or contest the enrollment of applicant, as we think the evidence shows conclusively that he is entitled to enrollment.

The record in these cases shows that on October 8, 1900, Wallace Thursday appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, among others, of his grandchild, Samuel Bob, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. The other parties to this application are differently classified and are not embraced in this decision. Further proceedings were had in said application at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, on October 10, 1900, at Nowata, Indian Territory, on June 25, 1901, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on March 5, 1902, and at Dewey, Indian Territory, on October 15, and October 17, 1902; that on October 9, 1900, Annie M. Martin, alias Lizzie Martin, appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 22, 1902, and at Dewey, Indian Territory, on October 15, 1902.

The evidence shows that Samuel Bob and Annie M. Martin, alias Lizzie Martin, are the children of William Bob Anderson, (sometimes called William Bob and generally known as Wild Bill), by his reputed wife, Al-en-ah-quah. The father of these children is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, under the name of Willie Bob Anderson, as an adopted Delaware. The nationality of Al-en-ah-quah is not definitely known, and while there does not seem to have been any marriage ceremony between the said William Bob Anderson and the said Al-en-ah-quah, it appears that they lived together as husband and wife for several years, and that Samuel Bob and Annie M. Martin were born to them while they lived together as husband and wife. The said Samuel Bob and Annie M. Martin are identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that the said Samuel Bob and Annie M. Martin have resided in the Cherokee Nation all their lives.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the said Samuel Bob and Annie M. Martin should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

DECISION.

The record in these cases shows that on October 8, 1900, Wallace Thurmday appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, among others, of his grandchild, Samuel Bob, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. The other parties to this application are differently classified and are not interested in this decision. Further proceedings were had in said application at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, on October 10, 1900, at Nowata, Indian Territory, on June 25, 1901, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on March 8, 1902, and at Dewey, Indian Territory, on October 15, and October 17, 1902; that on October 9, 1900, Annie M. Martin, alias Lizzie Martin, appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 22, 1902, and at Dewey, Indian Territory, on October 15, 1902.

The evidence shows that Samuel Bob and Annie M. Martin, alias Lizzie Martin, are the children of William Bob Anderson, (sometimes called William Bob and generally known as Wild Bill), by his reputed wife, Al-ce-ah-quah. The father of these children is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, under the name of Willie Bob Anderson, as an adopted Delaware. The nationality of Al-ce-ah-quah is not definitely known, and while there does not seem to have been any marriage ceremony between the said William Bob Anderson and the said Al-ce-ah-quah, it appears that they lived together as husband and wife for several years, and that Samuel Bob and Annie M. Martin were born to them while they lived together as husband and wife. The said Samuel Bob and Annie M. Martin are identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that the said Samuel Bob and Annie M. Martin have resided in the Cherokee Nation all their lives.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the said Samuel Bob and Annie M. Martin should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Q Who is it you want to have put on the rolls? A My son.
Q One child? A Yes sir.
Q What is his name? A Eddie Shailer.
Q Is not that a contraction of Edward? A I always called him Eddie.
Q How old is he? A Twenty one.
Q Why does he not apply for himself? A He is in jail at Muskogee.
Q Is he on the roll of 1880? A Yes sir.
Q And the roll of 1896? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he lived in the Cherokee Nation; all his life?
A Yes sir.
Q Was he ever called by any other name except Eddie?
A That is all.

(1896 Roll, Page 384, #613, Edward Shailer, Cooweescoowee D'st)
Q His real name is Edward, is it not? A Yes sir.
Q Were you some times called Jack Shailer? A Yes sir.
Q What caused this boy to be enrolled as "Beck"? A They made a mistake I guess.
Q Did he ever have the nick name, Beck? A I do not know.
Q How do you account for his being put on the roll of 1880 as "Beck"? A They just put it down that way.
Q You did not have a child by that name? A No sir.
Q And this child was one year of age at that time? A Yes sir.
Q This boy is living now, is he? A Yes sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of a son, who is said to be in jail at Muskogee; consequently, unable to apply for himself. The son is twenty one years of age: He is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a Delaware: He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life: For the consultation of the records at Muskogee, the application for the enrollment of this boy will be taken into consideration, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to the applicant at his Postoffice address.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Edward Shailer as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

D E C I S I O N.

--oOo--

The record in this case shows that on October 11, 1900, William H. Shailer appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of his son, Edward Shailer, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

Edward Shailer is a Delaware Indian, an adopted citizen of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 as "Book Shelar." Edward Shailer is also identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and on the Delaware Pay roll of 1896.

The evidence shows that Edward Shailer has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Edward Shailer should be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherkee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

May 28, 1904, preferring to schedule No. 14 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation approved by the Department, you report that one John Walker, whose name appears thereon opposite No. 13617, is erroneously classed as a Cherokee by blood when he is in fact a registered Delaware citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that when he made application for enrollment, November 19, 1900, he stated he was of Shawnee blood and made no mention of any claim of right as a registered Delaware; that on May 18, 1904, his father and sister appeared before your Commission and from their testimony he was identified upon register of Delawares who returned to the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the agreement between the Delawares and the Cherokee Nation of April 8, 1867, his name appearing thereon opposite No. 963, and you recommend that his enrollment upon the said schedule of Cherokee citizens be cancelled, and that he be added to the schedule of registered Delawares of the Cherokee Nation as No. 196, card No. 186.

Reporting in the matter June 17, 1904, the Chief Clerk of Indian Affairs recommended that the [illegible] on the [illegible] file with the Dawes Commission

DELAWARE PAYnROLL, 1896, page 7, No. 457, Irena Dick,

By Mr Dale Starr Cherokee representative.

Q Where were you 30 years ago? A. In this country all my life.
Q Who with? A. With my mother.

The name of Irena Dick appears on the census roll of 1896, and on the Delaware pay roll of 1896. She swears that she is a Delaware Indian. She avers that she is the daughter of Pollie Ocklum whose name appears on the 1880 authenticated roll and who is known some times as Pollie Johnniecake. She avers that her fathers name is Jacob Dick. Her name does not appear on the authenticated roll of 1880 and no satisfactory proof having been introduced why it does not appear with her supposed mother Pollie Ocklum and witther half-sister Manda whose name appears on that roll. Her name does not appear upon the list of registered Delawares now in the hands of the Cherokee Nation, but the name of her father Jacob Dick and of her mother Polly appear at Numbers 431 & 432. No satisfactory proof as to her citizenship having been presented the final decision as to the enrollment of Irena Dick will be suspended and she will be placed on a doubtful card.

Chas. von Weise being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized tribes he reported in full all the proceedings had in the above entitled cause and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said proceedings.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES. T.H.L. for R

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Irena Dick as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

--oOo--

The record in this case shows that on October 18, 1900, Irena Dick appeared before the Commission at Nowata, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Nowata, Indian Territory, on June 24, 1901, and at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 25, 1901.

The evidence shows that Irena Dick is the daughter of Jacob Dick, a Delaware Indian, whose name appears upon the Register of Delawares who removed to the Cherokee Nation pursuant to the provisions of the Cherokee-Delaware agreement of 1867, and Polly Dick, a Delaware Indian, whose name also appears upon the Register of Delawares who removed to the Cherokee Nation. Irena Dick cannot be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, but her mother, and her half sister, Amanda Cullen, are identified on that roll. Irena Dick is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1890, on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and on the Delaware Pay roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that Irena Dick was born in the Cherokee Nation and has lived there all her life.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Irena Dick should be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

We the undersigned, Chiefs, Counsellors and Headmen of the late Delaware tribe of Indians hereby certify that John Redmond Ketchum has been duly recognized and acknowledged as a member of the late Delaware tribe of Indians and entitled to participate in the annuities, and all the rights, privileges and immunities of said tribe. That he is the son of Jonas Ketchum and Mrs. Jane Cornet who is a white woman who were married in Kansas, who separated when the child John Redmond Ketchum was three years of age, the mother taking the child. That the names of both Jonas Ketchum and John Redmond Ketchum appear on the rolls of the Delaware tribe as incorporated with the Cherokee Nation, that the Cherokee Nation received payment for both Jonas Ketchum and John Redmond Ketchum. That during his long absence with his mother the name of John Redmond Ketchum was dropped from the rolls. We hereby direct that his name be restored to the rolls and that he be paid his share of the Annuity payment made by Lee. R. Bennett U. S. Indian Agent Union Agency, I. T., this 18th day of November 1890, and all succeeding payments to be made, and otherwise entitled to all rights and privileges as a member of the late Delaware tribe of Indians.

Sir:-

Referring to Office Letter "A" 37123-90, dated Dec. 6, 1890, in reply to Agency Letter dated Nov. 29, 1890, relative to the claim of John Redmond (Redman) Ketchum, to annuity as a Delaware, I have the honor to transmit additional evidence as to his identity-to wit-the affidavit of Suze Miller, who knew the parents of the said John Redman Ketchum in Kansas, and is familiar with the circumstances attending the marriage and separation of the claimants parents, and the birth of the claimant, and the failure of the claimants father to secure possession of the child after their departure from Kansas; also, a statement signed by nine of the older members of the tribe, asserting their belief that the claimant is the son of Jonas Ketchum, whom they knew in Kansas as a member of the Delaware tribe of Indians and who afterward removed to the Cherokee Nation, and giving their reasons for this belief, and the certificate of Charles Journey cake, one of the Headmen of the Delaware tribe that the names of Jonas Ketchum and John Redman appear upon the original roll of Delawares who elected to remove from their reservation in Northern Kansas to the Cherokee Nation, their numbers being 743 and 744 and that John Redman is the son of Jonas Ketchum. The evidence heretofore presented by the claimant and transmitted to you in my letter of Nov. 29th was satisfactory proof of his identity and right to participate in the Delaware Annuity, so far as two of the three representative headmen were concerned, and a letter from Silas H. Conner the remaining and dissenting headman states that the additional evidence herewith submitted is satisfactory, and sufficient to remove his objection. His letter is also enclosed.

As the representative headmen of the tribe have, after a careful investigation, unanimously recommended that the name of John "Redman" Ketchum be restored to the Delaware Rolls and he be permitted to share in the Annuities paid to said tribe, I respectfully recommend that I be instructed to place his name upon a supplemental roll, and pay him his share of the Delaware Annuity for the 3rd and 4th quarters 1890, and of such succeeding payments as may be made hereafter.

Sir:

The undersigned members of the late Delaware Tribe of Indians resident in the Cherokee Nation I. T. were personally acquainted with Jonas Ketcham, deceased, a Delaware by blood and a bonefede member of the said Tribe, who died in the year 1869. Prior to our removal here he was married to Mrs Jane Cornet, and they lived together as husband and wife for about two years and a half, during which time they had a son who was enrolled with his father on the original roll of the Delawares who elected to remove to the Cherokee Nation, His name was John Redman Ketcham, and he was about three years old when his father come with us to this country, this boy was kept by his mother who had separated from his father. The said John Redman Ketcham has recently come among us and asks to be reinstated in the Tribe. We firmly believe that he is the identical John Redman Ketcham, the son of Jonas Ketcham. We reach our conclusions from our personal recollection of him, from his strong resemblance to his father and his fathers family, and from his own statements and from sworn statements made by his mother and others which we respectfully submit.

Being fully convinced of his [illegible] we ask that he be reinstated on the Delaware roll.

Sir; judging from the sworn statement made by Suse Miller it is convincing to my mind that John Redman Ketchum is the identical person he claims to be - a son of Jonas Ketchum a delaware indian (dec'd.) who was enrolled with the Delaware Tribe and who moved to the Cherokee Nation from Kansas. The sworn statement of his Mother in your possession is additional evidence in his favor, also her lawful marriage to Jonas Ketchum. With the above evidence referred to above now in your possession you can enroll him on the Delaware Annuity Roll.

This is to certify that there appears on the Original roll of the Delawares who elected to remove from their reservation in Northern Kansas to the Cherokee Nation, the names of Jonas Ketcham and John Redman, which names are numbered 743 and 744 respectively. I also certify that the name John Redman should have been John Redman Ketcham as he is the son of Jonas Ketcham.

Case.

Henry Armstrong
vs.
James Meyhlin, admr

This suit instituted in Commissioners District Circuit Court for the possession of a certain improvement as described in the Citation — was tried Sept. Term of said Court 1892.

In the pleading in the Circuit Court defining the issue between the parties to this suit the record shows that Plaintiff alleges that he is the lawful owner of said improvement, having purchased the same from Betsey Ann Arnold on the 17th day of Jan. 1891, as shown by a certain bill of sale a Copy of which was filed with the Clerk at the time of the institution of this suit.

To this allegation, defendant answers and denies that plaintiff is the lawful owner of said improvement in question and further denies that he purchased said improvement from Betsey Ann Arnold — Plaintiff further alleges that the aforesaid Betsey Ann Arnold is the only law heir to said improvement [illegible] the niece of the said Samuel P. Ketchum to whom the place belonged to during his life time.

To this allegation defendant answers and denies that Betsy Ann Arnold is the only heir to said place. Plaintiff further alleges that although the Constitution will allow and the administration has been running more than nine months the said Meyhlin declins to turn the place over to the heir as provided in Sec 12, of Art. 1, Chap 9 of the Cherokee laws.

This allegation of Plaintiff, defendant denies that he refused to turn the place over to the heir for the reason that they have never asked for it, Defendant admits the location of the improvement in question.

In the examination of the evidence offered by Plaintiff in support of his first allegation we find a bill of sale from Betsy Ann Arnold to Plaintiff dated Jan. 17th 1891, duly witnessed by three subscribing witnesses. Defendant in his answer does not a this bill of sale as fraudulent or not genuine in any way but simply denies that plaintiff bought the place from Betsy Ann Arnold

The Court is of the opinion that this bill of sale is Prima facie evidence of title in plaintiff to defendant as administrator, as the plaintiff being the assignee of Betsy Ann Arnold to her interest as heir to said improvement. Defendant admits by his answer that Betsy Ann Arnold is one of the lawful heirs to said R. P. Ketchum's estate and in his testimony attempts to show that one, John R. Ketchum is also a lawful heir to said estate, but the evidence in relation to John R. Ketchum goes to establish the fact in the opinion of this Court that the aforesaid John R. Ketchum is not, nor never has been a duly recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation and therefore could not as heir hold any interest in any real estate in this Nation.

The Court finds from the evidence in this case that there is only one to the estate of Samuel P. Ketchum who is the aforesaid Betsy Ann Arnold. The Court further finds from the evidence offered in the trial by defendant that defendant has failed to establish his right as administrator of the aforesaid estate to hold the possession of the improvement in question as against the assignee of Betsy Ann Arnold she being of lawful age at the time of making said bill of sale. This Court is of the opinion from all the facts in the case as appears upon the record that plaintiff is entitled to the possession of the improvement in question as between plaintiff and defendant without affecting the interest of third parties not parties to the record. The judgment of the Circuit Court is reversed and judgment against defendant and in favor of plaintiff, the assignee, for said improvement together with cost of this suit.

The [illegible] that the fact, make application in [illegible] 1900 to the Commission [illegible] for enrollment as citizens of the Nation, but this application appears never to have been passed upon. It does not appear whether these applications were ever to the Cherokee Council or to the Council. The contention as exhibited by the master is solely upon the fact that they are Cherokees by blood.

The court is of the opinion that the judgment of the United States Commission should be affirmed, and that application of the claimants to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation is denied

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY AND PROCEEDINGS in the matter of the application of John K. Ketchum for the enrollment of himself and children as Delaware Cherokees, and also in the matter of the application of Hattie Ketchum for enrollment of citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:
E. B. Lawson, attorney for applicants.
W. W. Hastings, attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

The applicants in this case were notified by registered letter February 25, 1902, that their application for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation would be taken up for final consideration by the Commission at its office in Muskogee, I. T., on the 15th day of March, 1902. On said date the applicants appeared by their attorney E. B. Lawson, and by agreement the case was continued until the 22nd day of March, 1902. On said 22nd day called, as re-set the 22nd day of March, 1902, the applicants appear by their attorney, E. B. Lawson.

JOHN KENNAH KETCHUM, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. LAWSON: State your name? A John Kenman Ketchum.
Q Where do you live? A Up in the Cherokee Nation.
Q How old are you? A I am thirty-five.
Q You are married? A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Hattie.
Q Have you any children? A Two sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation?
A I have been living there--I came in 1899, the latter part of December.
Q Have you been living here ever since? A Yes sir.
Q What was your father's name? A Jonas Ketchum.
Q Was he an Indian? A Yes sir.
Q What kind of an Indian? Cherokee, Delaware, Shawnee?
A Delaware.
Q Where were you born? A Born in Kansas.
Q What place in Kansas?
A Up on the Indian Reservation there, Leavenworth.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes sir.
Q Is she present here today? A Yes sir.
Q Is she an Indian or a white woman? A She is a white woman.
Q At the time the Delawares came to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, were you brought along with them? A No sir.
Q Did your mother come with your father?
A No, she was with me a while here about six years ago and stayed a month and went back to her home. Her home is in Missouri.
Q. Did you know Lehon Ketchum? A Yes sir.
Q Where did he live when you knew him?
A Up there on the place I am occupying now.
Q What relation was he of yours? A Uncle.
Q Did you know your father, Jonas?
A No sir, I was too small. I don't remember anything about him.

Q When you came to the Cherokee nation in 1839 or 1840, was your [illegible]?
A Yes sir.
Q And your uncle, Johnson Lockman living? A Yes sir.
Q And he took advantage of the Cherokee [illegible]
A [illegible]
Q [illegible] A [illegible]
A [illegible] is to me that list. [illegible]
Q What was your father's name? A Jarret Ketcham.
Q When you came here to the Cherokee nation in 1839 or 1840, what did you do to get your rights?
A I made application to Chief Journeycake first.
Q Who was he?
A Agent Mr. and the Chief of the Delawares, and I went to him and he told me how to proceed.
Q Did the Delawares adopt you?

MR. [illegible]: I submit that that would not be evidence of citizenship in the Cherokee nation because the fact of the Delawares did adopt him; do you suppose that would give him any standing in the Cherokee nation if they did adopt him? The very question itself is not admissible in itself. I cannot see that it is admissible on any ground.

MR. LAWSON: Did the Delawares adopt you? A Yes sir.

MR. HASTINGS: Was there any record of that.

MR. LAWSON: I have certified copies of it here.

MR. HASTINGS: Their adoption must be a matter of record, and the record is the best testimony.

MR. LAWSON: Do about and tell what you did?
A They held a council and admitted me, and then sent it to the Agent; and he sent it to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

MR. LAWSON: Now I desire to introduce in evidence [illegible] copies of the acts of the [illegible] Chief Journeycake, Chief of the [illegible] Agent, and the [illegible] Commissioner of Indian Affairs, [illegible] Delawares, [illegible] Cherokee nation, [illegible] Delawares, [illegible] in the year of Jesus Christ, [illegible] the Cherokee Indians in 1839 with the remainder of the Delawares.

Personally appeared before me J. E. Campbell a U. S. Commissioner for the Western District of Arkansas Suse Miller who states under oath as follows: That he is a member of the Delaware tribe of Indians, that his name appears upon the original roll of the Delawares who elected to remove from their former reservation in Northern Kansas to the Cherokee Nation and that he is 56 yrs. of age, that about the year 1860 he became acquainted with James Ketchem a Delaware Indian and member of the Delaware Tribe of Indians, that during the year 1865 said James Ketchem and Jane Garnett were living together as man and wife, that in the year 1867 there was born to them a son who was named John Ketchem, that about six months afterwhich birth the parents were separated, that the mother kept the child, that he was sent by James Ketchem to get the child from its mother, that he was under instructions of James Ketchem two times for this purpose but the mother refused to give him up, yet stated that it was James Ketchems child and that if he would come himself he could have him, that he had not seen John Ketchem since his infancy until about one year ago, that he fully believes that the said [illegible] Ketchem who now claims to be the son of James Ketchem is the identical John Ketchem that he knew in his infancy and that he is a bonafide Delaware Indian and as such is entitled to all the rights of a member of the Delaware tribe, that he recognizes in him a strong resemblance to James Ketchem and Jane Ketchems family, that he is not related to any of the parties and has no interest in the matter involved.

THOS. P. SMITH,
Acting Commissioner.

MR. MASTERS: The Cherokee Nation most strenuously objects to the introduction of this evidence, for two reasons. First, the action of the Delaware could not have any force or effect on the Cherokee Nation. The Delawares, under the law, have no authority to admit a man to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation. While under their rules and regulations they may have a right to admit a man to be a Delaware, yet they have no authority to make him a Delaware citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Second, The Cherokee Nation strenuously objects to the introduction of this evidence, these affidavits, which have never yet been received by this Commission. These are affidavits in their own interest, and the witnesses are living and obtainable, and should be brought here to be cross examined by the Cherokee Nation. The Nation contends that a certified copy of an affidavit cannot be any better than the affidavit itself, and if the original should not, certainly a certified copy should not be received.

MR. LACKEY ON WITNESS: When did you first learn that your father was and that you were entitled to citizenship rights here in the Cherokee Nation?

MR HASTINGS: The Nation ob jects to the question, because it is entirely irrelevant and immaterial. This man's right must depend upon himself. He did not say he never came to this country until 1869: His rights are not descendible from his father, but he must stand upon his own rights.

WITNESS: It was about 1861 or 1862. I came down here in 1862 and stopped a little while at Clarmore and made inquiries, but could not find any of my people, and then I went on West.
Q Who do you mean by your people?
A My father, thatis all the people I knew I had at that time.
Q Did you find your uncle at that time? A No sir.
Q When did you find him? A In 1869.

MR. HASTINGS: Is your mother yet living? A Yes sir.
Q She was alive in 1861 and 1862, when you was down here looking for your relatives? A Yes sir.
Q You have livedwith her--
A No sir, not since 1862.
Q Up until 1862? A Yes sir.

MRS. JANE SULLIVAN, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

MR. LAWSON: State your name. A Jane Sullivan.
Q How old are you, Mrs. Sullivan. A Seventy on the 3rd day of March.
Q Where do you live? A Live in Stone County, Missouri.
Q Do you know John Redman Ketchum? A Yes sir.
Q What relation is he of yours? A He is my son.
Q Did you know thefather of John Redman Ketchum? A Yes sir.
Q What was his name? A James Ketchum.
Q What relation, if any, did he bear to you? A My husband.
Q Where did he marry you? A I can hardly tell, it is so long ago. Between Wyandotte and Kansas City, in that country there.
Q How long did you live with James Ketchum as his wife?
A Pretty near two years.
Q Was John Red an Ketchum born while you and James Ketchum were living together as man and wife? A Yes sir.
Q Where was John Redman Ketchum born? A I cannot think, ithas been so long.I think we were living on his place there between Wyandotte and Kansas City.
Q On the Delawre Indian reservation? A Yessir,
Q Was James Ketchum, your husband, an Indian? A Yes sir.
Q What kind of an Indian was he, what blood? A Delaware.
Q When did you and James Ketchum separate? A I can hardly remember
Q What is your best recollection?
A It hasbeen so long ago, and I amso old.
Q Was it after John Redman was born? A Yes sir.
Q About how long after John Redman was born did you and your husband separate?
Q I asked you, Mrs. Sullivan, how long after John Redman was born, that you and your husband separated. How old was he at the time you and your husband separated?
A He was not quite a year old, I don't think. Maybe he was a yearold
Q What is your recollection as to when John Redman was born?
A I can hardly recollect, it is such a long time.
Q What month was he born in? A September, the 12th.
Q Did you know Mr. Pratt, the Indian Agent?
A Yes, I was down to his house many a time.
Q Where did you know him. A In the Delaware territory.
Q In Kansas? A Yes sir.

Q Were you present when Jonas Hotchkiss enrolled himself on the last roll, at Mr. [illegible]? A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] enrolled at that time? A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] A [illegible] home, there's where he Q [illegible] gave his name in to Mr. [illegible]?
A I believe [illegible]. I was present, I do, to my best knowledge.
Q [illegible] tell him what I [illegible]
Q [illegible] come to the [illegible] in the remember of the [illegible] in 1865? A I don't recollect.
Q Did he come up here with the [illegible] in 1865?
A Yes, he came with them.
Q Did John Hudson come with them? A No sir.
Q Did you and Jonas Hotchkiss separated when he came down here?
A Yes, ushed.
Q Why didn't Jonas bring the little boy along with him?
A Because I hadhim away from him?
Q Did he try to get him? A Yes sir.
Q When did you first tell John Hudson who his father was?
A I don't think I told him until he was about twelve years old, or thirteen.
Q After he got up to be a right smart boy? A Yes sir.

MR. HASTINGS: How old are you? A Seventy on the 3rd day of March.
Q Who was your first husband? A William Youngblood.
Q You and him separated of? A Yes sir.
Q Where did he go to? A He lived back there when I did. He is dead.
Q When did he die? A It hasbeen over two years ago.
Q You never were divorced from him? A Yes sir.
Q Have you got a copy of that divorce? A No sir, I have not, but it has been years ago.
Q Where were you divorced from him? A In Carroll County.
Q What state? A I don't recollect.
Q In the State of Maine, A I think so, I don't recollect.
Q Was it in Missouri? A No sir, in Carroll County.
Q What state were you living in, Missouri, Ohio or where?
A It must have been Arkansas.
Q What was your next husband's name? A Sullivan.
Q Were you married to Sullivan by a preacher? A Yes sir.
Q Where, A It is hard to recollect.
Q Before the war? A After the war.
Q Sullivan was your second husband?
A No sir, I am no fool. I married a man by the name of Cornick.
Q When did you marry him? A Before the war.
Q What became of him? A He is dead.
Q When did he die? A Just as the war began to break up.
Q After the war was over did he come home?
A Yes sir, he came home and died.
Q Do you remember the year he died? A No sir, I can't remember.
Q About how long after the war? A About a year, pretty near a year
Q Did he die in thespring of 1866? A Must have been.
Q How long after Cornick d ed that you married Sullivan.
A Two or three years.
Q You are positive he was your next husband? A Yes sir.
Q You have been living with him ever since? A Yes sir, until he died.
Q When did he die? A About twelve years ago.
Q You never was married to Jonas Hotchkiss?
A Yes sir, I married Jonas Hotchkiss.
Q Who married you? A I don't remember, but I think it was a minister. It has been so long.
Q Did you have any license? A Yes sir.
Q In what county did you marry? A Married right there on his place.
Q What county? A I don't know the name of the place.

Q Do you know what time of the year it was when you married him?
A I hardly remember, I think it was in the fall. It seems to me like it was in the fall.
Q Do you know how long after the war that was? A No sir.
Q You don't know? A No.
Q You, of course, went over there to him enroll, and he put your name down, and your husband's and your child's? A Yes sir.
Q You are positive of that? A Yes sir.
Q You were there and saw it? A Yes sir.
Q What was your name then? A Cornick.
Q You had your name put down as Cornick? A That was my name.
Q After you was married to Jonas Ketchum? A Went by the name of Ketchum.
Q I am talking about the time you went over to enroll, if you remember about it. I want to know if you enrolled your name there with your husband's and your child's. A I don't remember whether my name was enrolled or not.
Q Why do you remember the child?
A I remember holding him up, and my name was enrolled too.
Q What was he enrolled as, Ketchum? A Yes sir.
Q What was his first name. A John.
Q Then you enrolled yourself, your husband and this boy? Why didn't you enroll it as John Redman Ketchum. A I don't recollect.
Q You don't remember 25 years back, just how that boy was enrolled, do you? A No sir, I don't. I can't remember everything. Some things I can remember, and some things I can't. It is a long time.

MR. LAWSON: Who was your fist husband? A William Youngblood.
Q Then when did you marry? A Cornick.
Q Then when? A Jonas Ketchum.
Q Then when? A Sullivan.
Q You have been married four times? A Yes sir, but they are all dead.
Q You are a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q You state that you were lawfully married to this man Jonas Ketchum. A Yes sir.
Q You state that you were present when this boy was enrolled, A Yes sir.
Q You know that your son John Redman's name was out on there?
A Yes sir, I know that they put it on.
Q Do you know whether John Redman drew any money before you and Jonas separated? A Yes sir. One time with the Relcamp.

MR. HASTINGS: You knew that your name was put on there with theirs.
A I can't tell.
Q You know it just the same as theirs name is put there?
A I know I was to have had it put there.
Q You went there to have the child's name put there? A Yes sir.
Q You know it was enrolled just like your own?
A I knew it was.
A How? A Because I heard them read it there.
Q Cornick was your second husband, was he? A Yes sir.
Q Who married you to Cornick? A Jim Myers.
Q Where the married you to Jonas Ketchum? A I can't recollect.

Q Why is it you can recollect who married you to everyone else except in this one case. A I just can't remember.
Q You don't know the state county or place? A It has been so long.
Q It must been longer since you married Cornick? A Yes.
Q It is longer back to your first husband.
A So many things I can recollect.
Q You can't give us any information as to where to send for that divorce from your first husband. A No, for the man is dead. You can find out that here in Arkansas.
Q Back here in Arkansas, Carroll County? A Yes sir.

WILLIAM YOUNGBLOOD, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

MR. LEWIS: State your name? A William Youngblood.
Q Where do you live? A Boone County, Missouri.
Q How old are you? A Born in 1854.
Q Are you acquainted with Mrs. Sullivan? A Yes sir, I ought to be.
Q What relation, if any, is she to you? A She is my mother.
Q Do you know John Redman Ketchum? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I have known him all his life.
Q What relation, if any, is he to you? A Half brother of mine.
Q Did you know John Redman Ketchum's father? A Yes sir.
Q What was his name? A Jonas Ketchum.
Q How old were you when Jonas Ketchum and your mother, Mrs. Sullivan, were married? A I expect I was 11 or 12 years old.
Q Where were they married? A Married in Kansas in the Delaware Nation.
Q Near what place? A It is about fifteen miles from Wyandotte, North, up the river.
Q Were Jonas Ketchum and his wife living together when John Redman was born? A Yes sir.
Q Where were they living? A Living within the Delaware Nation, on Jonas' place.
Q How old was John Redman when your mother and Jonas Ketchum separated.
A He must have been right close to a year old, eight months or a year old.
Q Where were they living when they separated?
A On the Delaware Nation, on the old ~~[illegible]~~man's place.
Q What old man? A Jonas Ketchum.
Q Was Jonas Ketchum a Delaware? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether or not John Redman Ketchum drew any money before his father and mother separated?
A I know before that they went to a certain place and drew money, and they said that he made one drawing, but of course I never went. He made one drawing to the best of my recollection.
Q What did Jonas Ketchum call his son? A John Redman.
Q Where were you living when your mother and your father Youngblood separated? A We were living in Arkansas.
Q What County? A Boone County.
Q Boone County, Arkansas? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know where your mother got a divorce from Youngblood?
A At Galena, I think. Galena, Missouri.
Q Were you living there then? A I guess we were I don't recollect. I was quite small.
Q You don't know where she got the divorce?
A Not for certain, but I have heard her say, I think.
Q Youngblood and his wife, Mrs. Sullivan now, were not living together when she married Jonas Ketchum? A No sir.

MR. HASKINS: She married Cornick after Youngblood and she separated? A Yes sir.
Q How long did she and Cornick live together?
A I don't recollect exactly how long.
Q Did they separate before he died? A No sir, he died.
Q Do you remember when he died? A I don't remember exactly the year.
Q Was it after the war? A It seems to me right about the commencement of the war.
Q Who married your mother to Jonas Ketchum?
A I don't know the man's name.
Q About how old was John Redman Ketchum, the appliemt, when Jonas Ketchum separated from your mother?
A He must have eight months or a year old.
Q What did his father call him, John Redman Ketchum?
A That is what he called him.

Q You remember of him killing an eight months old child, about 28 years ago, John Redman? A Yes sir.
Q You are absolutely certain of that proposition? A Yessir.

JESSE MILLER, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

MR. LAWSON: State your name? A Jesse Miller.
Q Where do you live? A Live at Watova.
Q Ind an Territory? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Thirty-four years.
Q How old are you? A I am sixty-five.
Q Did you know Jonas Ketchum? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know his wife, Mrs. Sullivan now? A Yes sir.
Q Where did they live when you knew them? A In Kansas.
Q What place in Kansas? A Between Leavenworth and Lawrence.
Q On the Delaware Reservation? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know John Redman Ketchum. A Yes sir.
Q Whatis the name of his father? A Jonas Ketchum.
Q Was he a Delaware? A Yes sir.
Q Where were Jonas Ketchum and his wife living when John Redman Ketchum was born? ?
A Living in thesame place where he was living.
Q Where was that? A Between Lawrence and Leavenworth.
Q In the Delaware Indian Reservation? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know the time that the Delawares came to the Cherokee Nation, in 1866? A Yes sir.
Q Did John Redman Ketchum come along at that time? A No sir.
Q Do you know why Jonas Ketchum did not bring John Redman along?
A Yes sir.

MR. HASTINGS: The question is objected to by the representative of the Cherokee Nation because the same is irrelevant. This man did not come in, did not come until Hunx after he arrived of age some three or four years.

WITNESS: I went after the babe when he was about a year old.
Q What babe? You mean John Redman? A Yes sir. And the old lady told me to go back, because that man did not come with me. That is the last I saw of it.
Q How close did you live to Jonas Ketchum and his wife?
A About half a mile.
Q Were you living there when John Redman was born? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether John Redman drew any money, any Delaware money, before his father and mother separated.
A No, I don't know.
Q How old was John Redman when Jonas Ketchum and his wife separated?
A One year old, or a little over

MR. HASTINGS: What was John Redman Ketchum's mother's name when Jonas Ketchum married her? A I don't know.
Q Don't you know her. A I don't know the name.
Q How many times had she been married before? A I don't know.
Q What year was John born? A In 1866
Q What time of the year? A In the fall, I don't know what month.
Q What time did you leave there to come down here?
A It was in the winter, after New Year, in 1868.
Q When did you go over there after John? A Before that.
Q How long? A Just about--I think it was in the summer.
Q Of 1867? A Yes sir
Q How do you pretend to tell this Commission that you went up there to take a nursing babe away from its mother's breast?
A They sent me.

Q It was nursing, wasn't it, at that time?
A Yes, sir, it was one year old.

MR. LESTER: - Who sent you up to try and get the babe?
A Mrs Ketcham.
Q Jesse Ketcham, the father of the child? A Yes sir.

There appears on the docket, Interest, Vol. 2, page 58, January Adjourned Session, March 4th, 1856, on page 58, number 745, Mary Jane Ketcham, and on the same page, number 744, the name of John Ketcham. The name of John Ketcham does not appear of record at said page.

John R. Ketchum recalled.

MR. LESTER: Mr. Ketchum, when did your father die?
A In the year 1870.
Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q That is your information? A Yes sir.

MR. LESTER: I want to introduce the original record in Court No. 45, the same being the number of the case of Louisa E. Trotter, appeal from the Dawes Commission, in 1896.

MR. LESTER: We object to the introduction, for the reason that the record in that case is incompetent testimony in the application of John R. Ketchum, and for the further reason that same is immaterial.

This record is introduced for the purpose of showing that his wife applied to the Dawes Commission in 1896, and was rejected.

The record is as follows:

2674. Louisa E. Trotter, Christopher Pittsenbarger, Henry Pittsenbarger, Francis M. Pittsenbarger, Mary A. Redd, Chas. M. Lassiter, Lewis K.Harn, Thomas Jefferson Pittsenbarger, Francis A. Crossmiller, et al.,	Filed Sept. 5-1896. Answer filed. Application denied.

I find that these applicants are all lineal descendants of Christopher Harman as hereinbefore shows; that the said Christopher Harman was a brother of the whole blood of one John Harman referred to herein; that the said John Harman is shown to have been an enrolled memberof the eastern tribe of Cherokees and that it is shown that he came to or was removed to the Indian Territory.

That is imot shown that the said Christopher Harman was an enrolled Cherokee but that it is shown that he was a recognized and acknowledged Cherokee Indian by blood in the State of Tenn. where he resided; that these applicants are all Cherokee Indians by blood;

That Louisa E. Trotter resides in the Cherokee Nation Indian Territory; that the evidence does not show that any other of said applicants resids in said Cherokee Nation; that it is not shown that either of these applicants were ever enrolled by the Cherokee Nation as Cherokee Indians by blood since the removal of said Nation to its present location; that the evidence shows that said family have made applications in 1880 and 1890 to the proper authorities of the Cherokee Nation and filed a great number of affidavits but said application appears never to have been passed upon.

-V-

Applicants contend, they having shown that they are Cherokee Indians by blood and that their ancestors were acknowledged Cherokee Indians by blood and that they have sought in good faith to obtain enrollment from the Cherokee Nation without adjudication that they are entitled to be enrolled as Cherokee Indians by blood and to all the rights and benefits which attach to such citizenship.

While appellee contends that it not having been shown that either of these applicants was ever enrolled by the Cherokee Nation as a Cherokee Indian by blood since the removal of said Nation to its present location; that applicants are barred from being enrolled at this time.

I respectfully ask that a reasonable fee be allowed me as Master herein. Master's fee paid.

Respectfully submitted this 28 day of Sept. 1897.

Louisa E. Trotter, et al,

vs. No. 63. Supplemental report.

The Cherokee Nation.

Now attention having been called to the fact that the names of some of the applicants embraced herein have been omitted from the foregoing report, I herewith submit the following finding in connection with the foregoing report:

I find that upon examination of the papers herein that Wm. Castoe and Sarah Castoe, Wm. P. Castoe, Fred Cox, Nellie Castoe, Lawrence, Robert F., Isaac R. McCabe, Gertrude York, Stephen Wesley, Lewella Pittsenbarger, Rena Parish, Amos Reed, were embraced in the original application.

That the above named applicants are related to those applicants heretofore mentioned in the foregoing report, whose relation to the common ancestor has already been therein shown, as follows, to-wit: Sarah and Wm. Castoe are children of James E. Castoe, who was the grandson of the aforesaid Mary A. Reed;

W. P. and Nellie Castoe are the children of John A. Castoe who was also the grandson of the aforesaid Mary A. Reed; that Amos Reed is the son of Isaac Reed also the son of the aforesaid Mary A. Reed;

Lawrence, Robert F. Isaac McCabe are children of Wm. F. McCabe also the son of the aforesaid Mary A. Reed;

Gertrude York is the daughter of Sarah York who is the daughter of Chas. M. Lauchner mentioned in the foregoing report;

Stephen Wesley and Lewella Pittsenbarger are the children of Thos. J. Pittsenbarger mentioned in the foregoing report;

Rena Parish is a daughter of Henry Pittsenbarger mentioned in the foregoing report;

That the evidence in the foregoing case does not show how long the said Louisa E. Trotter has resided in the Cherokee Nation; that the family was originally from the state of Tenn.

Respectfully submitted, 7/28/97.

Louisa E. Trotter, et al
vs.	No. 63.	Supplemental Report.
The Cherokee Nation.

I, Edgar Smith, Special Master in the above entitled cause respectfully submit to the Court that under and by virtue of the order of resubmission herein of date Nov. 9th, 1897, and in accordance with the notice given by me as such Special Master as provided by law I heard testimony, in the above entitled cause on Nov. 15th, 1897, and I find as follows, to-wit:

That Louisa E. Trotter and her family (except Lovina Brown and her family and Flora Miller and her family and Albert V. Trotter and his family) reside in the Cherokee Nation; that Lovina C. Brown resided in the Cherokee Nation for about 8 years and left the Cherokee Nation about one year ago with the intention of returning if their application for citizenship to the Cherokee Nation should be passed upon favorably; that the said Flora Miller and her family and the said Albert V. Trotter and his family have never resided in the Cherokee Nation; that Francis M. Pittsenbarger and his family, Henry Pittsenbarger and his family; Thos. Jefferson Pittsenbarger and his family, Ella Lawrence and her family, Isaac Reed and his family and Chas. M. Lauchner and his family reside in the Cherokee Nation; that the said Francis Pittsenbarger, Henry Pittsenbarger, Thos. Jefferson Pittsenbarger, Wm. Castoe, Chas. M. Lauchner and Isaac Reed, together with their respective families have resided in the Cherokee Nation for the last nine years.

That Louisa E. Trotter and her family with the exception above stated have resided in the Cherokee Nation for the last 8 years; that Mary A. Reed resided in the Cherokee Nation for 8 years and left the said Nation immediately after the application was filed before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

William T. McCabe improved a farm in the Cherokee Nation and left the improvements about one year afterwards, leaving some household goods and declaring his intention to return to the Cherokee Nation.

The applicants herein were from Missouri to the Indian Territory and the family was originally from the state of Tenn.

Respectfully submitted this 16th day of May, 1897.

BY THE COURT:

It seems that there are 147 applicants for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation embraced in this case. The Special Master's report is very thorough and exhaustive; no exceptions have been taken to it. A supplemental report is also submitted and made a part of this opinion.

The applicants in this case base their right to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation on the ground that they are the descendants of Christopher Harmon, who is alleged to have been a Cherokee Indian by blood, who was a brother of one John Harmon, who was a member of the Eastern Band of Cherokees, and that he was recognized as such in the State of Tennessee. It appears from the supplemental report in this case that some of the applicants reside in the Cherokee Nation, but that the longest time of the residence

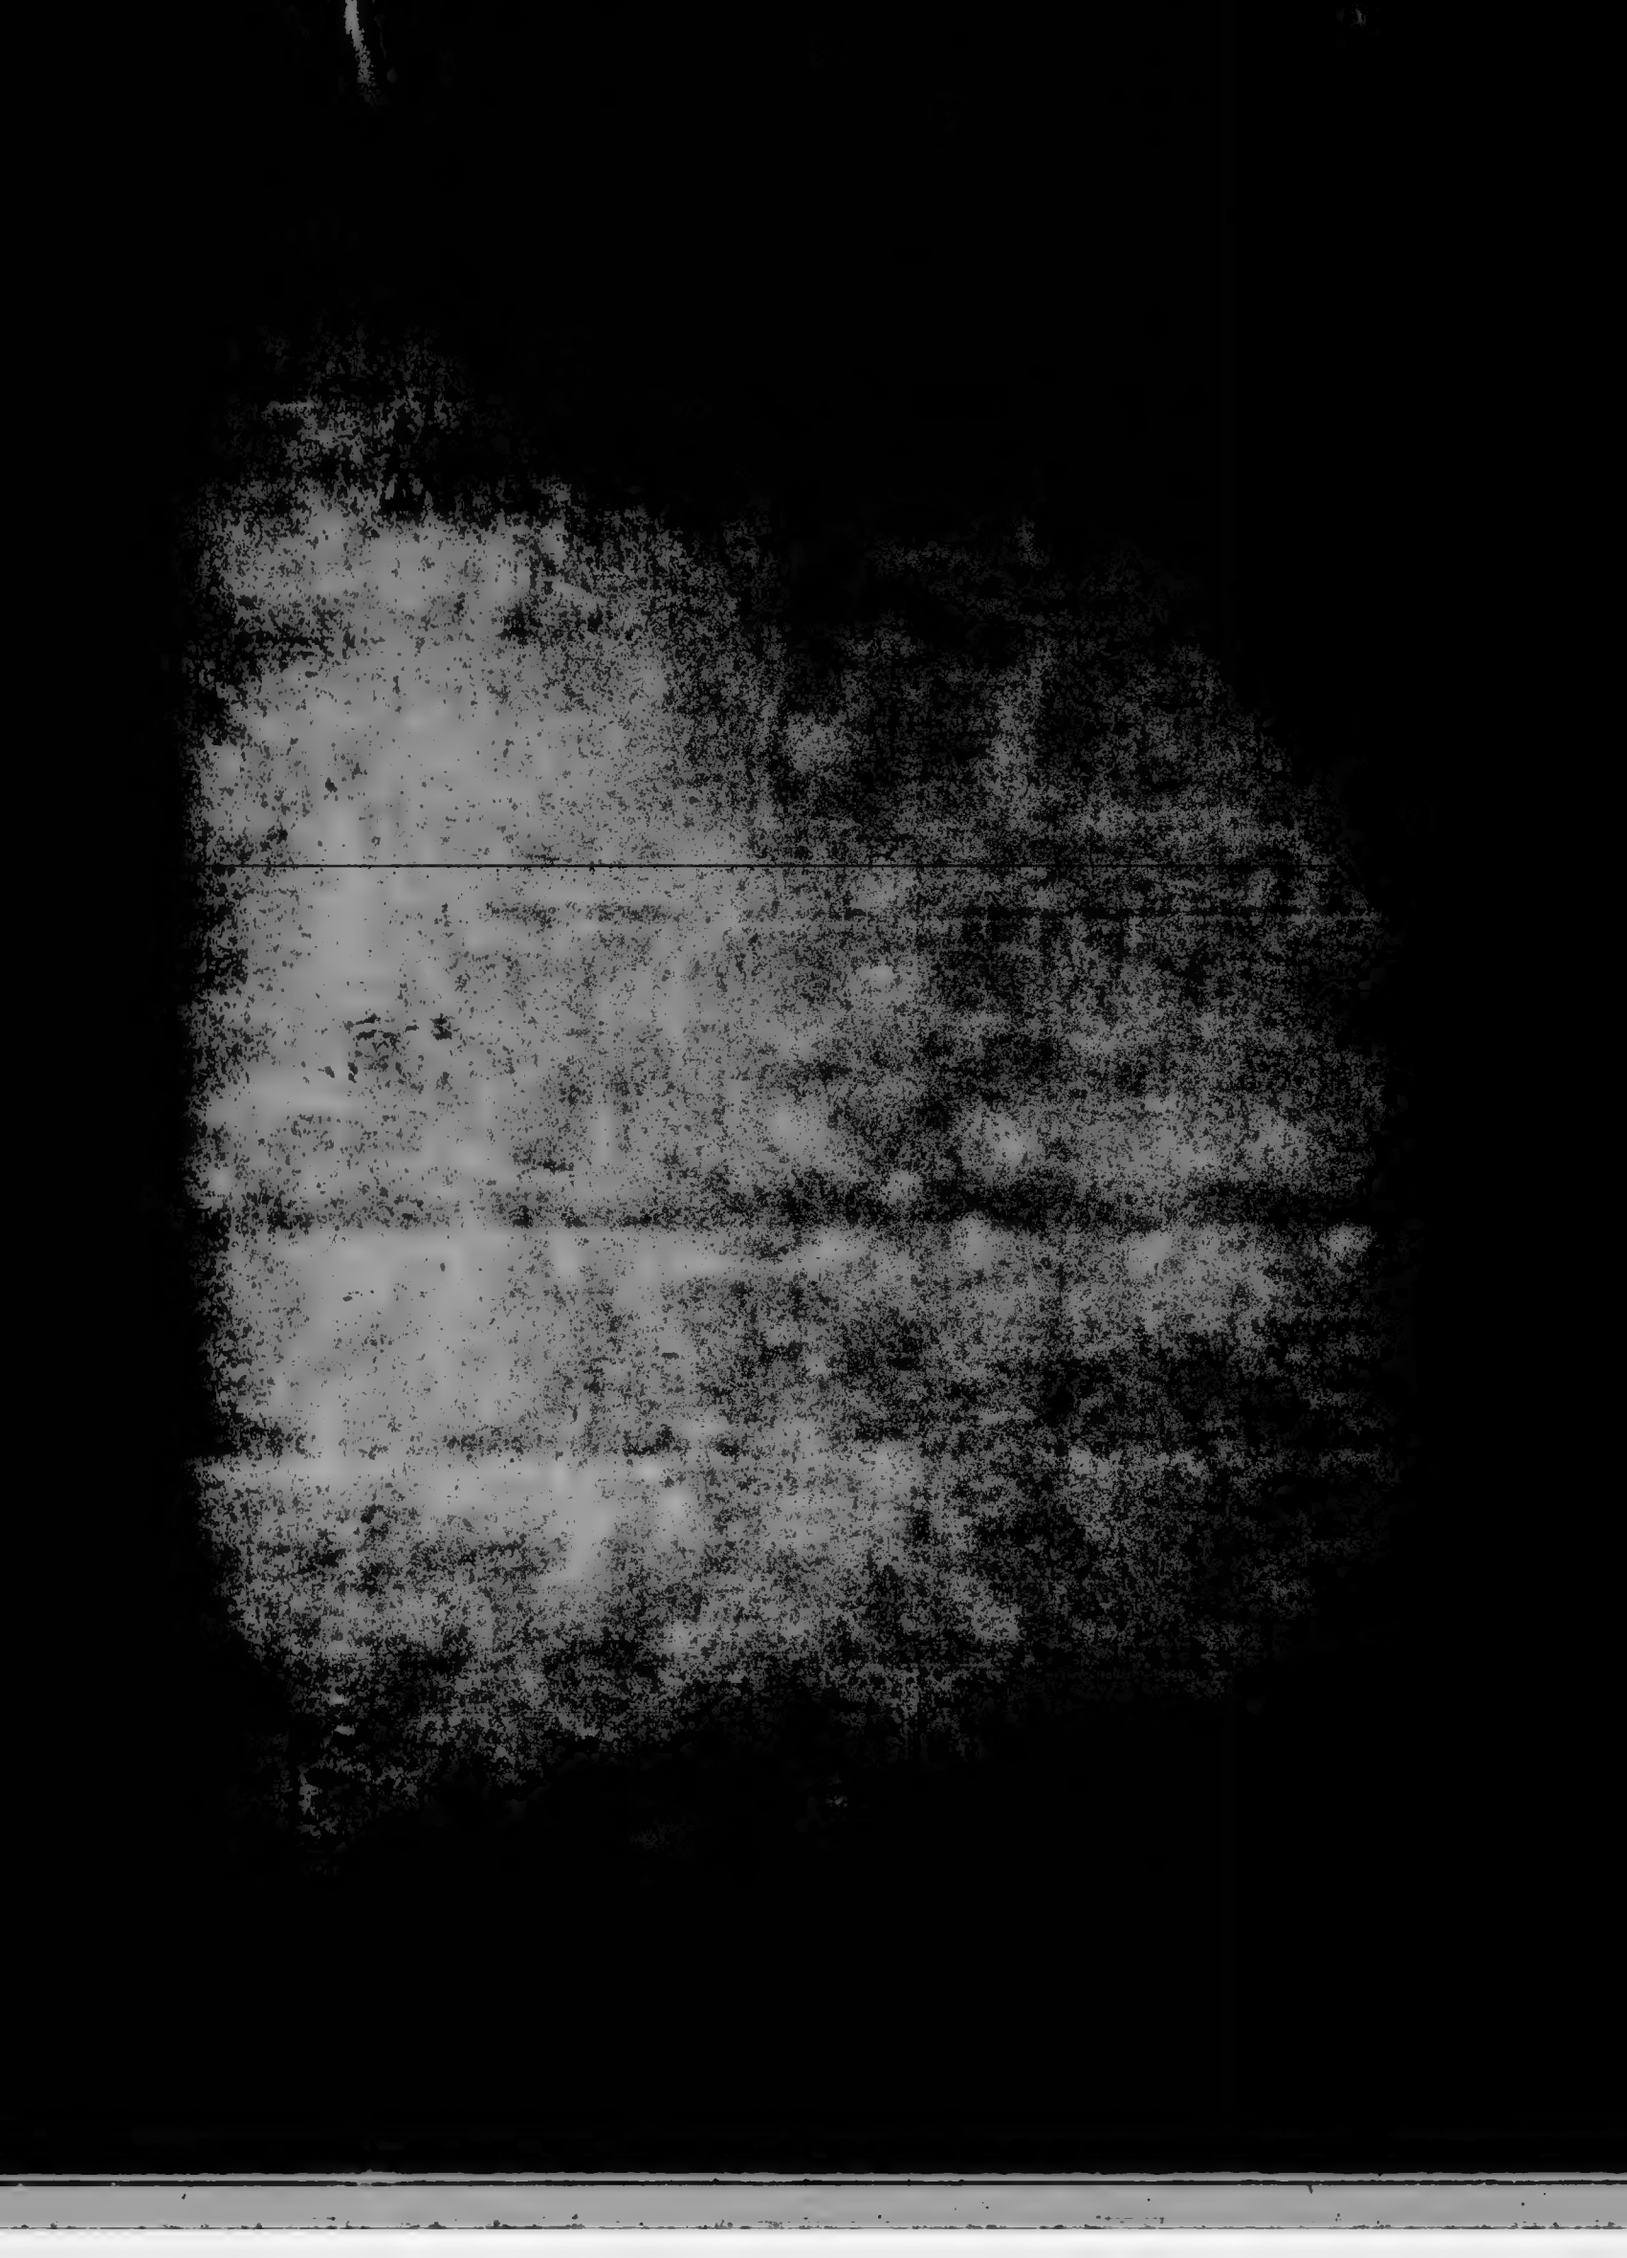
In the matter of the application of John R. Ketcham for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware Blood.

Number Delaware Doubtful 34.

Briefon part of the Cherokee Nation.



John R. Ketcham the applicant claims that he was born in 1867 and that he is a son of Jonas Ketcham whose name appears upon the list of registered Delawares who came to the Cherokee nation under the agreement made April 8th 1867 and that his name appears upon said list under the name of his father as John Redmon; Redmon being his middle name. His mother was a white woman who had been twice previously married and no divorce is shown to have been obtained from her second husband or the one to whom she had been married previous to her marriage with Jonas Ketcham. That she is a citizen and resident of the state of Missouri where she always continued to reside and that she never was a resident of the Cherokee nation or of the Indian Territory. Neither does the applicant claim that he came to the Cherokee nation with his father or that he ever came to the Cherokee nation until 1891 for the purpose of living or making it his home. Having them been born in the state of Missouri his residence was there with his mother until after he was twenty-four or twenty-five years old when as above observed he removed to the Cherokee nation where he married on the 2nd day of September 1893 and where he seems to have since continuously resided. The testimony introduced was far from convincing that the John Redmon whose name appears upon the list of Registered Delawares is the applicant although the mother testifies that she was present when the baby was enrolled but she is just as positive that her own son died [illegible] does appear upon that roll that it was necessary for him to [illegible] to the Cherokee Nation along with his father in order to [illegible] citizenship in the Cherokee nation.

His continuous residence in the state of [illegible] with [illegible] citizen of that state and in our judgment would [illegible] rights, if any he ever acquired by being enrolled upon the [illegible] Delawares. So far as citizenship is concerned we contend that [illegible] Citizen or a Shawnee citizen is [illegible] to the Cherokee Constitution and laws of the Cherokee nation [illegible] ence to residence as any other citizen. Our constitution and [illegible] distinction whatever.. When the Delawares and Shawnees came to the Cherokee Nation they were incorporated into and became citizens of the Cherokee nation; voted, held office, and exercised rights of citizenship the same as Cherokees by blood and it is as necessary for a Delaware or Shawnee to reside in the Cherokee Nation in order to retain his citizenship as it is for a Cherokee by blood. The applicant never removed to the Cherokee Nation until he was 24 or 25 years of age or three or four years after he had reached his majority and we contend that it was necessary for the applicant to have been readmitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation the same as if he claimed as a Cherokee by blood,. No citizen can continuously retain his domicile in a distant state and at the same time retain his citizenship in the Cherokee nation . He does not pretend to have had any effects in the Cherokee Nation during any of this time.

The Delaware Council or Committee had no authority whatever to enroll any one as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation if this Delaware Council or Committee so voted to divide their funds which were not a part of the Cherokee funds , with the applicant it is a matter over which the Cherokee Nation has no control. That the Constitution and laws of the Cherokee Nation does not provide for a Delaware Council to determine citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, neither does the Delaware Agreement make any provision for it.

Again the name of the applicant does not appear upon the [illegible] roll of citizens [illegible]

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of John R. Ketchum for the enrollment of himself and his three minor children, Daisy, Bertha and Elmer Ketchum, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

D E C I S I O N.

--oOo--

The record in this case shows that on December 14, 1900, John R. Ketchum appeared before the Commission at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and his three minor children, Daisy, Bertha and Elmer Ketchum as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. The application also included the wife of John R. Ketchum, but, as she is differently classified, she is not embraced in this decision. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on January 21, 1901, and on March 22, 1902.

The evidence in this case shows that John R. Ketchum is of Delaware blood, and that his name appears upon the Register of Delawares who removed to the Cherokee Nation pursuant to the terms of the Cherokee-Delaware agreement of April 8, 1867, as "John Redman." John R. Ketchum is not identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, but he and his two children, Daisy and Bertha Ketchum, are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. Elmer Ketchum, born November 30, 1898, is too young to be on any roll but proper proof of his birth has been furnished this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the mother and father of John R. Ketchum separated when he was about one year old, and that his mother took him with her. His father, Jonas Ketchum, who had removed to the Cherokee Nation with the Delawares attempted to get possession of John R. Ketchum but was unsuccessful. In 1889 or 1890 John R. Ketchum came to the Cherokee Nation and he has lived there ever since. He and his wife, Mattie Ketchum, have lived continuously in the Cherokee Nation ever since their marriage in 1898, and it is considered that their minor children have lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since their birth.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that John R. Ketchum, Daisy Ketchum, Bertha Ketchum and Elmer Ketchum should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

You are hereby advised that the Cherokee Nation protests against the action of the Commission in this case, a copy of which protest has been furnished you by the attorney for the Nation.

The decision, with the record of proceedings had in the case, has this day been transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his review and decision.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith report from the of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, forwarding, for the Department's consideration, the to the application of John M. Bruton, for the and his three minor children, Daisy, Bertha and citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

November 20, 1902, the Commission held that the applicants above named were entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

John M. Bruton also made application for the enrollment of his wife, Mattie Bruton, and the Commission states in the decision that she is differently classed and has not, therefore, been enrolled in the Cooweescoowee.

The evidence in this case shows that John M. Bruton is of Delaware blood; that he removed to the Cherokee Nation prior to the Cherokee-Delaware agreement of April 8, 1867, and [illegible] the registration of Delawares who removed, etc.

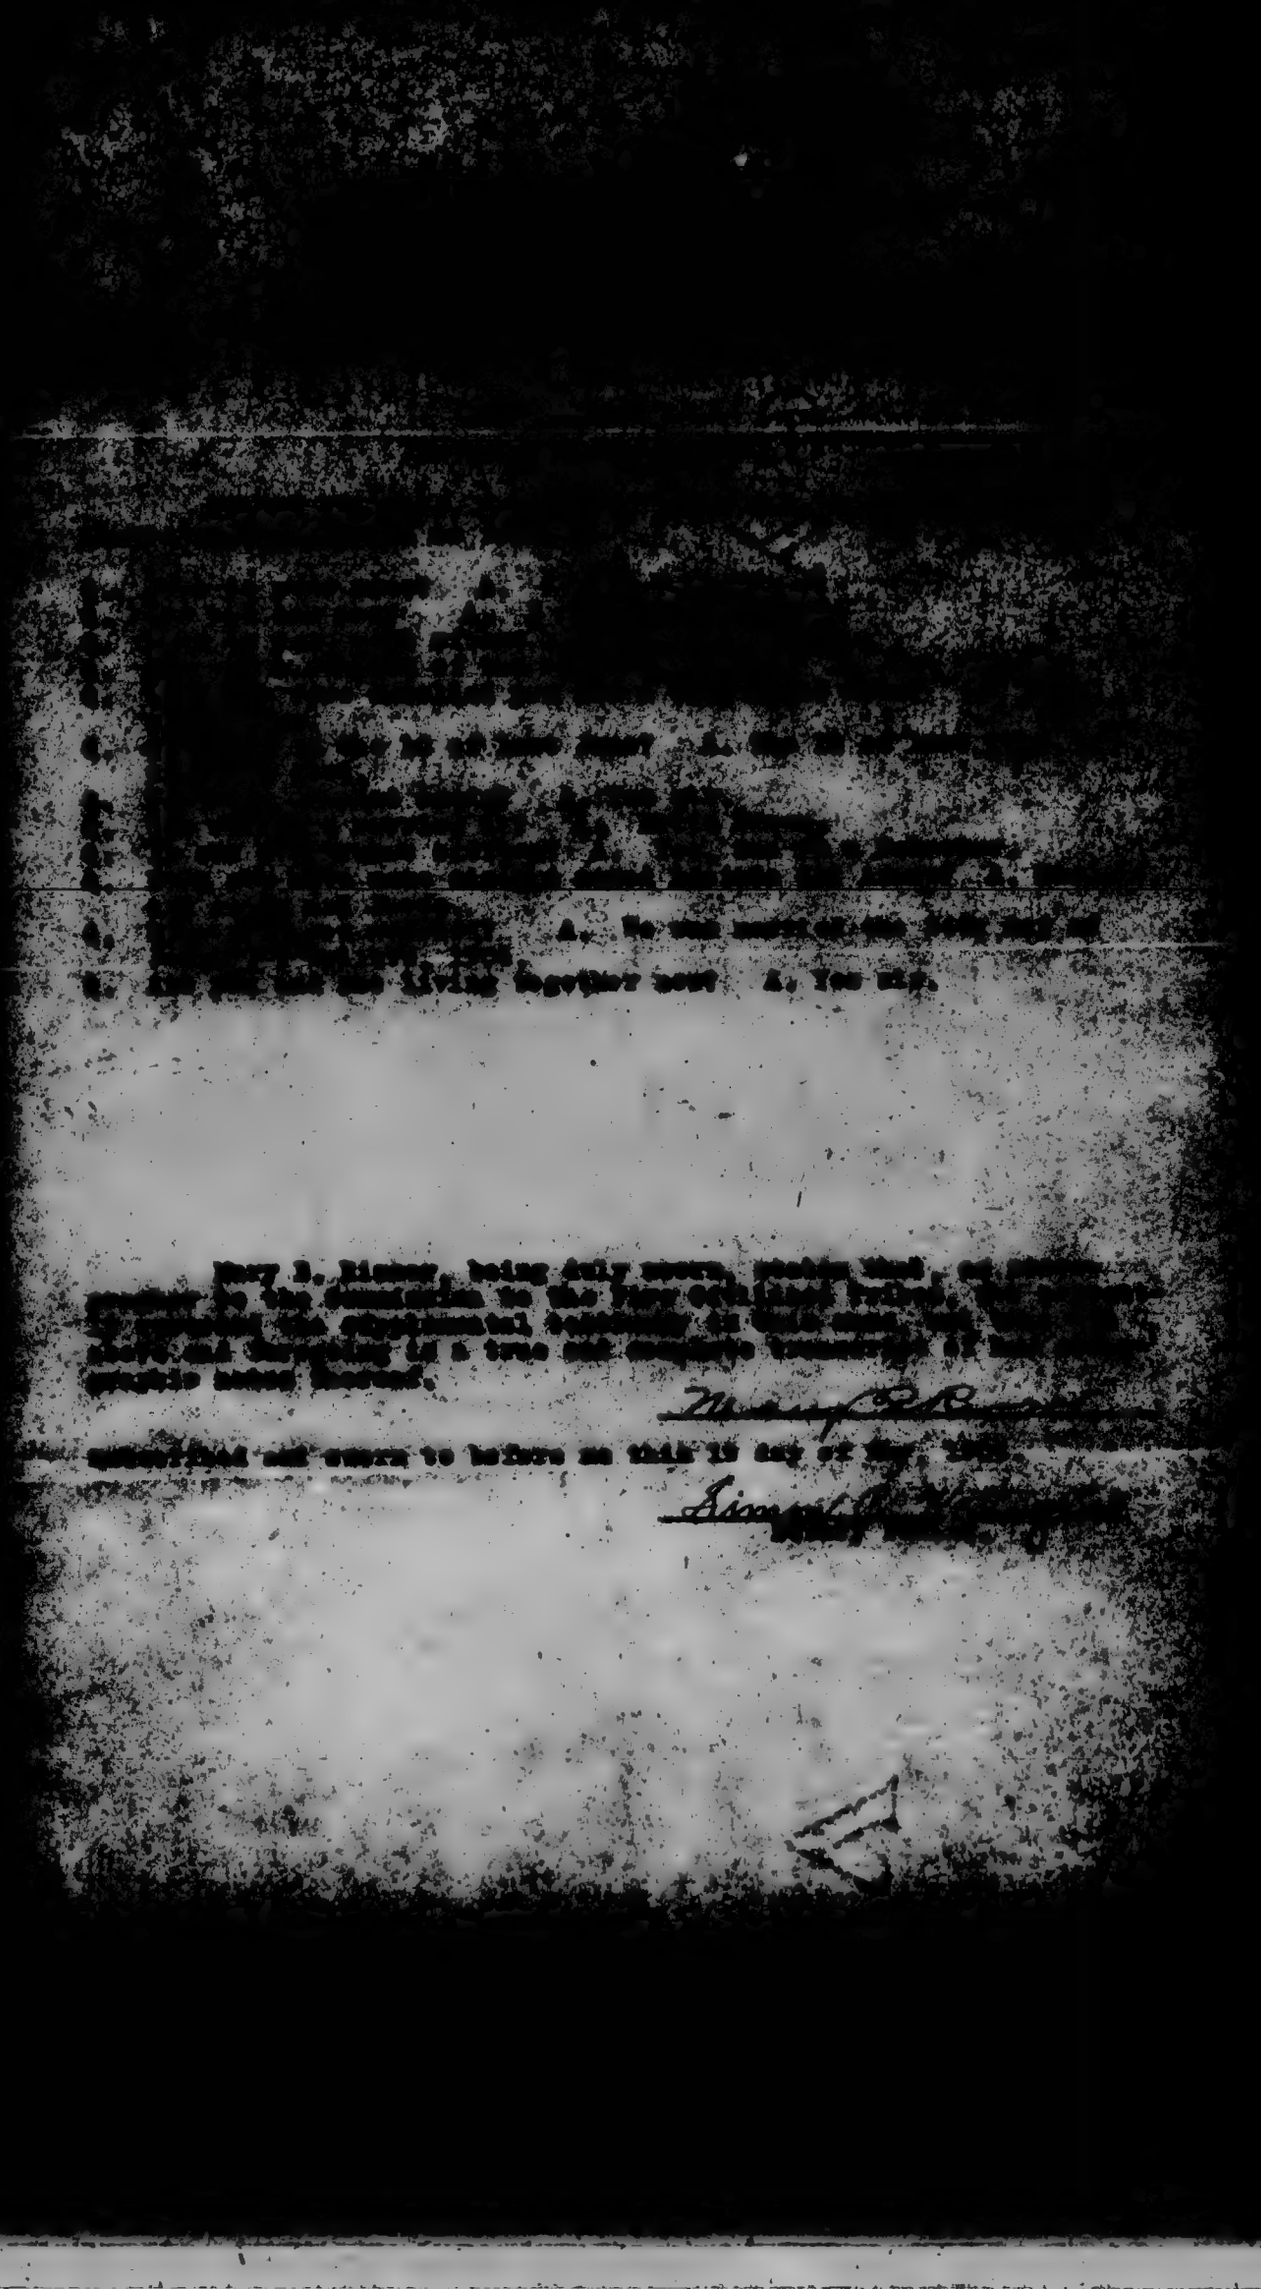
In the matter of the application of [redacted] Lucinda Brown and Annie Brown for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware Blood.



Motion to Reopen.

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and represents to the Commission that the testimony in this case shows that the mother of the applicants herein was a recognized shawnee of kinn of the Cherokee nation and the father was a Delaware citizen of the Cherokee nation hence the children should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee nation of Shawnee blood and not as citizens of the Cherokee nation of Delaware blood and therefore moves the Commission that its judgment be set aside and this case be reopened and that a new judgment be rendered ordering the applicants to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Shawnee blood.

The Honorable,

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report from the Acting Chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated February 7, 1903, forwarding for the Department's consideration the record relative to the application of John Brown for the enrollment of himself and his three minor daughters, Katie, Lucinda and Annie Brown, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

The Commission in its decision of November 12, 1902, states that John Brown is differently classed and is not therefore embraced in its decision of that date. The Commission held that Katie, Lucinda and Annie Brown are entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

The Cherokee Nation by its attorney protests against the decision and takes the position that the applicants should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Shawnee blood.

The record in the case shows that the applicants are the children of John and Sarah Brown; that John Brown is of Delaware blood; that Sarah Brown was of Shawnee blood; that the name of

Gentlemen:

The Department has considered the case involving the application for the enrollment of Katie Brown, Lucinda Brown and Annie Brown, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

It is shown that the applicants are the children of John and Sarah Brown, the former being a Delaware and the latter a Shawnee Indian. John Brown is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, as an adopted Delaware. The mother of the applicants has been dead about 9 years.

November 12, 1902, you held that the applicants should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

The Nation protests against your decision, contending that as the mother of the applicants was a recognized Shawnee citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and the father was a Delaware citizen of said Nation, the children should be enrolled as citizens of said Nation of Shawnee blood and not of Delaware blood.

The theory upon which this contention is based does not appear.

In the matter of the application of [redacted] for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware Blood.
C. D. 566.

The Cherokee Nation desires to protest against the enrollment of the applicants as citizens of the Cherokee nation of Delaware Blood and asks that the decision of the Commission rendered on August 11, 1908 be forwarded to the Honorable Secretary of the Interior for review.

The testimony in this case shows that the father of the applicants was a Cherokee citizen of Delaware Blood and that the mother of the applicants was a recognized Cherokee citizen of Shawnee blood and the contention of the Cherokee Nation is that the citizenship of the children should follow and be that of the mother and that inas much as there is no contention but that their mother was of Shawnee blood that the applicants should not be enrolled as of Delaware blood following their father but should be enrolled as of Shawnee blood following their mother. This is the only point in the case for consideration whether the Children will follow the status of their father or their mother.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report from the Acting Chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 9, 1903, forwarding the record in relative to the application of Jane Hill for the enrollment of herself and Alonzo T. Hill as Cherokee citizens.

August 11, 1902, the Commission held that the applicants were entitled to enrollment. The Cherokee Nation by its attorney protests against the Commission's decision. The attorney for the Cherokee Nation states that the father of the applicants was a Cherokee citizen of Delaware blood and that their mother was a Cherokee citizen of Shawnee blood, and that the applicants should be enrolled as citizens of Shawnee blood instead of citizens of Delaware blood.

The evidence shows that Jane Hill, nee Brown, is the daughter of John and Sarah Brown; that John Brown was a Delaware, and that his wife, Sarah Brown, was a Shawnee Indian. The name of John Brown appears on the 1880 roll as an adopted Delaware. The name of Jane Hill appears on the Cherokee [illegible] roll of 1896 as an adopted Delaware, and Alonzo T. Hill is properly identified by birth certificate. He was born December 21, 1900, and is the son of Jane Hill. Jane Hill, nee Brown, was born in the Cherokee Nation and has resided there continuously since her birth.

In view of the foregoing the office is of the opinion that Jane Hill and Alonzo T. Hill should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood, and it recommends the approval of the Commission's decision.

Gentlemen:

The Department has considered the case involving the application of Albert T. Hill, for the enrollment of his wife, Jane Hill, and his minor child, Alonzo T. Hill, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

It appears that Jane Hill, formerly Brown, is the daughter of John and Sarah Brown, the former being a Delaware and the latter a Shawnee Indian; that John Brown is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 as an adopted Delaware; that the mother of Jane Hill has been dead for 9 years; that Jane Hill is identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896, as an adopted Delaware; that Alonzo T. Hill was born December 21, 1900.

You held August 11, 1902, that Jane Hill and Alonzo T. Hill should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood in accordance with the provisions of section 21 of the act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495).

The Nation protests, contending that inasmuch as there is no question but that the mother of Jane Hill was of Shawnee blood, that the applicants should not be enrolled as of Delaware blood, following their father, but should be enrolled as of Shawnee blood.

following these reports.

If this contention is based on [illegible] of the Cherokee Nation, as recited, there is none.

The Acting Commissioner recommends that you decline concurred in. A copy of his letter of [illegible], submitting the case, is inclosed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Reed Wilson for the enrollment of himself and two minor children, Ida and Dennis F. Wilson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on October 11, 1900, Reed Wilson appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ida Wilson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood. Another child, Dennis F. Wilson, has been born to Reed Wilson and his wife, Laura J. Wilson, since the date of this application and that child is now embraced in this decision.

The evidence in this case shows that Reed Wilson, a Delaware Indian, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and Laura J. Thompson, a Quapaw Indian, were lawfully married June 19, 1897. As a result of that marriage the minor applicants herein were born. Reed Wilson is identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896. Dennis F. Wilson is too young to be upon any roll, but is identified by a birth affidavit made a part of the record herein.

The evidence further shows that Laura J. Wilson, the wife of the principal applicant, is a Quapaw Indian and enrolled as a member of the Quapaw tribe in Indian Territory. The said Reed Wilson has lived in the Indian Territory all his life. The minor child, Dennis F. Wilson, has lived in said Territory since birth and is not enrolled as a member of the Quapaw tribe of Indians. The evidence further shows that Ida Wilson died in June, 1900. An affidavit to that effect is made a part of the record herein.

The Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (Public No. 241), section twenty-five, duly ratified as provided for in section seventy-five thereof, is as follows:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this office that

ADDRESS ONLY THE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Mr. Reed Wilson,

Dewey, Indian Territory.

Sir:-

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself and two minor children for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on

March 22, 1902

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application, as you may deem necessary.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

You are required to supply the Commission with certificate of marriage of yourself to your wife, Roxy; also affidavit as to the death of your child Ida.

Yours truly,

Enclosure.

Sir:

There are enclosed birth affidavits which you are required to have executed by your wife and the midwife attending your wife at the time of the birth of your child, Dennis Flynn Wilson. Certain blanks, marked with crosses (X) in pencil, must be filled out and the affidavits must be sworn to before a Notary Public or other officer authorized to administer oaths. These new affidavits are required on account of certain inaccuracies and omissions in the original affidavits which are herewith returned to you.

There are also enclosed affidavits of death, as it appears that your child, [illegible], is dead. These affidavits you are required to have properly executed and returned to the office of this Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, before August 6, 1902.

You are also required to supply this Commission with a certificate of your marriage to your wife, Laura Jenny Wilson, or a certified copy of the record of your marriage.

Yours truly,

Sirs:

Answering your communication of Nov. 22, 1902, (Delaware ---), I have to state that no application has been made in this office for the enrollment of Dennis F. Wilson, the child of Laura J. Wilson. The mother, Laura J. Wilson, is a Quapaw Indian and enrolled with her tribe, but the child is not enrolled as a member of the Quapaw or any other tribe of this agency.

Very respectfully,

Dear Sir:

There is herewith enclosed a copy of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 27, 1906, granting the application of Reed Vilson for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Dennis F. Vilson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood, and dismissing his application for the enrollment of his minor child, Ida Vilson.

You are hereby advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from date hereof, in which to file such protest as you may desire to make against the action of the Commission in this case, a copy of which protest you will be required to serve upon the applicant. If you fail to file protest within the time allowed, this decision will be considered final.

James Wilson, being sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission,

Q What is your name? A James Wilson.
Q James Wilson? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Bartlesville.
Q Do you know the applicant in this case, Joseph Miller?
A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I known him ever since he was born.
Q Do you know his father and his mother? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know his brothers and sisters? A Yes, sir, I knows them all.
Q Were there two boys in that family named Jacob? A Well, the other one, the oldest named Jacob, and he died way long time ago first we come up here. He had another wife at that time and he died.
Q Now, that was Andrew Miller's boy by his first wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, how old would that boy Jacob be if he was living today?
A The other one?
Q Well, do you know about how long he has been dead? A Let's see, I don't know exactly how long ago that has been.
Q Was he a man grown when he died? A Yes, he was grown. I guess it be about twenty when he died maybe, I don't know exactly. He come from down there.
Q Did he come to this country from the Delaware Nation?
A Yes, sir.
Q That was the stepbrother of this boy? A Yes, sir.
Q Had the same father? A Half brothers.
Q Half brothers? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, is this boy Joseph--he always lived with his father and mother in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, ever since he died.
Q He lived with his parents until his father died, did he?
A Yes, sir.
Q How long has his father been dead? that is, about how many years?
A I can't tell how long about that, some time.
Q Well, now, his half brother Jacob, has he been dead as much as twenty-two years? A Yes, sir, something like twenty-five.
Q Do you think as much as twenty-five years? A I think so.
Q At least that much? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, on this roll of 1880 in the family of Andrew Miller I find two Jacob Millers. One of them is this boy's half brother, who has already been enrolled, and the other Jacob Miller is marked dead and appears to be about nineteen years old in 1880. Do you think that's merely a mistake in the age and this boy is the same as that Jacob Miller there? A No, I guess that be about a little over thirty years when the other Jacob first come up here in the Cherokee Nation. No, he be, I guess, pretty near forty, the other Jacob.
Q His half brother? A Yes, He died way long time ago. I don't know exactly.
Q Are you certain it was as much as twenty-five years ago?
A No, I can't tell exactly, that may be more.
Q Well, do you think it was any less than that? A Well, I can't tell the truth how long he has been dead.

The applicant's father, Andrew Miller, is duly identified on the authenticated roll of 1880 in Goowesecowee District on Page 139, No. 1868, as an adopted Delaware. The applicant's mother is likewise identified on that roll on Page 139, No. 1869, as Mary

The record shows that proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, on June 6, 1902, and thereafter, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on September 9, 1902.

The evidence shows that Joseph Miller is a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood, and is identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896. The evidence further shows that his father, one Andrew Miller (deceased), is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; also that his mother, Mary Miller, is identified on said roll.

The evidence further shows that Joseph Miller has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Joseph Miller should be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Delaware blood, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of August 7, relative to your appearance before the Commission at Muskogee, for the purpose of giving additional testimony in the matter of your application to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

In reply, you are requested to advise the Commission if you have a brother by the name of Jacob Miller, listed by your mother Mary Bascomb, for enrollment on October 10, 1900, or if the Joseph Miller included in that application is intended for yourself. If the Jacob Miller included in that application is intended for yourself, you are requested to explain to the Commission how it is that you sign your name as Joseph Miller, while your name was given to the Commission by your mother as Jacob.

Please give this matter your prompt attention and upon receipt of your reply you will be further advised as to the necessity for your appearance at Muskogee.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Q What is your name? A Milton K. Thompson.
Q What is your age? A 32.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Muskogee.
Q Are you acquainted with the applicant in this case, Cleo T. Reid?
A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known her? A About 23 or 4 years.
Q What relation if any do you bear to the applicant? A A brother.
Q What was the name of her father? A Gilbert T. Thompson.
Q What was her mother's name? A Josephine A.
Q What is the present postoffice address of the applicant? A Charlotte, North Carolina.
Q How long has she been there? A She has been there for about two or three years, I don't know exactly, she is there with her father. About three years since she was there.
Q When was she married? A She was married three years.
Q Has she been living there continuously for the past three years?
A Yes sir.
Q Where was she born? A Born in Tennessee or Georgia; Tennessee I think.
Q When did she first come to the Cherokee Nation? A In '[illegible] or '[illegible].
Q How long did she continue to reside here after that time? A Something like one and a half years or two years.
Q Did she ever [illegible] her home, [illegible] in the Indian Territory since that time? A [illegible] that she goes with him.
Q What prior to her marriage? A Never considered anywhere [illegible] the Indian Territory as her home.
Q Has she ever lived here since that time? A She has been here only just to come for a short time. She has been here several times about her property.
Q How long did she stay during these times? A Probably two or three months some times.
Q Has she ever kept house in the Indian Territory? A No sir, not since they have been married.
Q Did her parents ever keep house here after their admission with the exception of that one year or one and a half years they resided here? A No sir, her father is a preacher and he goes where he has work.
Q Is there anything else you would like to state about the case?
A Except just this, they have always kept up their property [illegible] here and have always considered this as their home, and her husband made application for a school out here this last year I [illegible] he didn't get it and of course had to stay out [illegible]. He expects to come here this fall if he can get [illegible] he is a professional man. He [illegible] to her father [illegible] school continually, and end with her father and be [illegible] with him, who is a minister, and living there on account of [illegible] church work. I believe that is all.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Cleo T. Reid and Thompson Reid for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

--o0o--

The record in this case shows that on August 26, 1902, Cleo T. Reid appeared before the Commission at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on August 30, 1902. An affidavit was filed in May 16, 1903, showing the birth of Thompson Reid since the date of the original application.

The evidence in this case shows that the applicant, Cleo T. Reid, nee Thompson, was twenty-four years of age at the date of her application herein, and that she, with others, was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on September 3, 1883, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation; and she is identified on the 1894 Cherokee Strip Payment Roll. She was a minor when admitted, and the evidence shows that, about a year and a half after her admission she removed with her parents from the Indian Territory. In December, 1899, applicant was married to one James W. Reid, a white man. The minor child, Thompson Reid, is the issue of said marriage, and he is identified by a birth affidavit, made a part of the record herein.

The evidence further shows that the said Cleo T. Reid left the Indian Territory some time in 1885, and since that time has made infrequent visitations thereto, but has never permanently returned and resided therein. The minor child, Thompson Reid, since birth has lived with his mother, and his residence is governed by hers.

Paragraph nine, Section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats.,495) provides:

> "No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the nation in which he claims citizenship."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Cleo T. Reid and Thompson Reid, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, should be denied, and it is so ordered.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY.

ALLISON THOMPSON, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Allison Thompson.
Q How old are you? A 37.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Cleburn, Texas, for the present; I am down there temporarily.
Q Are you an applicant for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Cleo T. Reid? A Yes sir.
Q Are you any relation to her? A Brother.
Q Has she a son named Thompson Reid? A Yes sir.
Q Where does she live now? A She's in Gastonia, North Carolina.
Q What is her husband's name? A His name is Walker Reid; I believe J. W. Reid.
Q He is living? A Yes sir.
Q He is a non-citizen? A Yes sir.
Q She is living with him? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Thompson, you and the other members of your father's family were readmitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation in 1883 were you not? A Yes sir; one of them was born here after the admission.
Q How soon after you were readmitted did you move to the Territory? A We were here when we were admitted.
Q You were living here at that time? A Yes sir.
Q From 1883 how long was it before your sister, Cleo T. Reid, left the Cherokee Nation? A In '84. She went to school in Springfield, Missouri; went to college.
Q Who was she making her home with then, her father? A Yes.
Q She was a minor at that time, was she? A Yes.
Q How long after '83 was it before your father left the Cherokee Nation? A Well he went at the same time, '84; went up there to send her to school, there being no schools here.
Q When did your sister remove to the Nation again? A Well, she has never been back any to live here I guess. Been back, but not to live.
Q Where was she married? A North Carolina.
Q Had she been making her home with her father up to the time she was married? A Yes. She didn't a year I believe but she considered that her home; she taught a year.
Q She considered her father's home her home? A Yes.
Q And that she made her home in the Cherokee Nation until he left here in '84 and before she married? A She had not lived here.
Q She had never kept house in the Cherokee Nation? A No.
Q And since 1884 has never had a home here? A No. If you call her home her residence; she has had property here.

Q What business or profession does her husband follow? He was, until just a short time ago, teaching school; had to quit on account of his health.
Q When Mrs. Reid left here in '84 with her father, did she have any property in the Cherokee Nation? A Not individually; she did as a minor with him.
Q You mean by that she had an interest in the property he had?
A Yes.
Q In other words your father and his family jointly owned property? A Yes.
Q What did that property consist of? A Well, we had property here in Tahlequah, town property; well, it was not all town property then; it was town property and country property at that time. Then we had a ranch in Cooweescoowee District when we left here, several thousand acres, in addition to what we had here.
Q You had then some property in Tahlequah and some farm property near Tahlequah and the ranch in Cooweescoowee District?
A Yes, that is my recollection of it; I don't know whether he had disposed of this in town or not before he left, but he had that other one at the depot and then we had a large ranch near Adair, between Adair and Pryoreroek on both sides of the railroad, extending two or three miles on the west side and probably half a mile on the east side, and several thousand head of cattle.
Q Did you have some cattle on the ranch? A Several thousand head.
Q What was done with that property when your family left?
A We kept it for a while until that break in the prices of cattle came and that kinda swamped us.
Q Was that farm property and the ranch property rented or who had control of it? A I don't know who controlled it just at that time; I think Dr. Pitc. My recollection is that he had charge of it.
Q Did you derive revenue from this property all the time until you parted with it? A I don't know; I was a boy at that time.
Q Do you own that property now? A No. We have another one that we exchanged that for.
Q In what year did you make the exchange? A I don't recollect; about--- somewhere in '92 I think; been 10 or 12 years ago since we made the exchange.
Q What property did you receive in exchange? A We got a ranch near Adair, about two miles and a half, which we now own. We exchanged for the reason that we thought we would take in a body altogether as much land as we could all hold together, and the one we had was too small and we could not get it all in a body, and the one at Adair had enough in it for the whole family to allot together and that is why we got it.
Q Does Mrs. Reid still own an interest in that property?
A Yes sir.
Q She has no personal property or property of any kind except an undivided interest in that ranch? A That's all.
Q But since her readmission to citizenship she has had an undivided interest in farm property and the ranch and cattle, up to the present time? A She has. Her interest in the property has continued unbroken.
Q Either in the property that you owned when you were readmitted or the property that you have acquired by exchange?
A Yes sir.

Examined by J. G. Starr:

Q Who was the father of Cleo T. Reid? A G. T. Thompson.
Q How long had he been living in the Cherokee Nation before he was readmitted in '83? A Well, I don't know just how long; he was here in August a year; I don't know, July or August.
Q When did he leave here? A Just before school commenced at Springfield, Missouri; he went there to send us to school.
Q What year? A '84.
Q What time of the year? A About the last of August or first of September; it was between the 1st and 15th I think when school opened.
Q Did I understand you to say that you came here and stayed about a year during which you were readmitted and then left the country? A No, you see we came from Tennessee here in '83 and as soon as we got here, as soon as we could, we applied for admission; I don't know what was the term; and he came----- We were admitted by act of Counsil in the fall of '83.
Q That was the following autumn? A Yes sir.
Q Then where did he go? A Springfield, Missouri.
Q Now what property did Gilbert T. Thompson own at the time of his readmission to Cherokee citizenship? A I don't know; he just came here, was Pastor of the Presbyterian Church here and didn't have any property when he came here, but he got hold of this ranch up here, part by purchase and part of it he just took like anybody else and put up a house and fences and then purchased cattle and put on and machinery to run it.
Q What is the property he owned in Tahlequah? A Consists of a house, standing up there now by the depot, two-story house and several acres back of it.
Q I mean inside of Tahlequah? A Then he owned a house this side of that about two blocks; that was in town.
Q I believe you stated there was a farm near Tahlequah? A Well, that was the two-story house.
Q What interest did Cleo T. Reid have in all this property? A Well none, except she was a child.
Q She didn't own any property in her own name? A No, she didn't own it in her own name.
Q Did she live with her father in '84? A Yes sir.
Q And has she ever lived in the Cherokee Nation since that date? A No sir.
Q Where wasshe living when she was married? A North Carolina.
Q Where has she lived since that? A North Carolina.
Q Has she owned any property in her own right since she was re-admitted to citizenship? A No , except this property; it was understood among us that she had a common interest in the houses and things of this nature, and the money paid for them.
Q Who controlled this property? A I had charge of it; my father was absent and the boys gave me charge of it and I looked after it until Doctor Thompson came to the Territory and when he came I turned it over to him. Paid taxes on city property here.
Q In whose name were the taxes paid? A G. T. Thompson.
Q In whose name did you collect the rent? A His name, on the Honey Hollow Ranch.
Q What did you do with the money when you collected it? A Divided it up; sent it to him and he divided it among the other children.
Q Who did you send it to? A G. T. Thompson.
Q He has controlled this town property and this farm continuously since '83? A I think so.
Q Then Cleo T. Reid has not property except this property which you think she has a right to in Indian Territory; has she? A No; deeds were never made out; never had deeds made.

By the Commission:

Q Has Cleo T. Reid ever received any of the revenue from this property which you state is owned by your father and the members of your family? A Well, I don't know; I never paid in anything; I sent it to G. T. Thompson.

By J. G. Starr:

Q Did I understand you to say that she has no property in her own name in the Cherokee Nation at this time? A Yes, I suppose so.
Q You mean she does not own any? A She has no deed of any kind; we didn't take deeds.
Q No deed has been made by G. T. Thompson? A No.
Q G. T. Thompson still controls the property does he?
A Yes; I would not say that he stays----
Q No [illegible]gent? A Yes sir. It has always been understood among us that if a division should be made, father and the children----
Q But there has never been a formal division? A No, all hold in common.

GILBERT T. THOMPSON, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A G. T. Thompson.
Q Gilbert T.? A Gilbert T. Thompson sir.
Q How old are you? A 56.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Tahlequah.
Q Are you the father of Cleo T. Reid? A Yes sir.
Q You have heard the testimony of Allison Thompson I believe, as to collecting revenue from property that was owned by you and your family in the Cherokee Nation and sending it to you. When the revenue from that property was received by you what disposition did you make of it? A Well, daughter, Cleo T. Reid, has always gotten her part; it has always been understood that she did; of course I paid all her expenses even after she got out of school and she considered that her property in common with the son here and the family; they hold the property rather in common.
Q Since she has married, has she received a part of the revenue from this ranch? A Well yes, she has received a part just about like the other boys have; we have not made much off of it really; we had a good deal of expense and had to pay out a great deal and there has been very little coming in. In exchanging ranches, as my son was telling you, we paid several thousand dollars difference between them; we took that by supposed we could allot when the division should come and it was not large enough so we gave considerable difference and took another. But what we made on this place has not been divided; it [illegible] to pay the difference.
Q The first property that you owned here, did you receive revenue from that regularly after you left the nation? A Yes sir, until we sold it.
Q You had it rented, did you? A Yes sir.
Q You never had an accounting with any of your children as to the disposition you made of the revenue from that first place, did you? It was simply used in the support of the family?
A Yes sir, that was the way. When I left here all my children were under age and as their father I held all this property and managed it for them and as they came of age, they did not divide it; we consider it all ours and when there is anything to divide we divide, and when there was nothing and we had to pay the difference, we just paid it and that is the way the thing has gone.

Q Since your daughter has married, have you accounted to her regularly for any certain proportion of the revenue for that place? A Well, no sir; that is, not as I would to a stranger; we have talked it over and she owns her interest in it, but we have not been as we would be with strangers.

Q The accounting has been all of an informal nature? A Just of an informal nature, yes sir.

Q She knew that there was a balance of the purchase price still owing on the ranch and that the revenue was being applied to the reduction of the debt on the place? A Yes sir.

Q She still owns an undivided interest in that property?

A Yes sir. We have only one that is still a minor; and we have one at Muskogee who has become of age; he is younger than his sister and he owns an undivided interest; all just alike; she has owned it just like the others have owned it.

Q She had an interest as one of your children in all of the property that the family has owned here? A Yes sir, all the time, so it was understood.

Q When you were readmitted, what property did you own?

A None at all here.

Q How soon after you were readmitted did you acquire some property? A Well, I came here in August; I was admitted some time in the fall, I think it was October or November, the assembling of the Council in 1885, and I began to accumulate property a little before I was admitted, August I think, because I was certain I would be and had no trouble whatever, and I had some money and bought several places.

Q When did you acquire that ranch, the first one? A Well, as near as I remember it was in the late fall of '85, about November.

Q You left here about September, '84? A Yes sir.

Q You left that property as well as the Tahlequah property in control of an agent? A Yes sir, rented.

Q When did you acquire the Tahlequah property? A Well, I think it was just a little while before I was admitted that I built this house up here where Mr. Hudson lives. That was in Tahlequah; it was town property at that time.

Q You exchanged the ranch you first bought for the one you now have, did you? A Yes sir.

Q And you still have the ranch that you acquired in exchange for the one you first owned? A Yes sir, we have kept it.

Q And it is understood that Cleo T. Reid owns an undivided interest in that ranch and the cattle? A Just as all the others do, yes sir.

Q Does she own any other property here? A No sir.

Q Has she ever owned any other property? A No, not more than any of the other children.

By J. G. Starr:

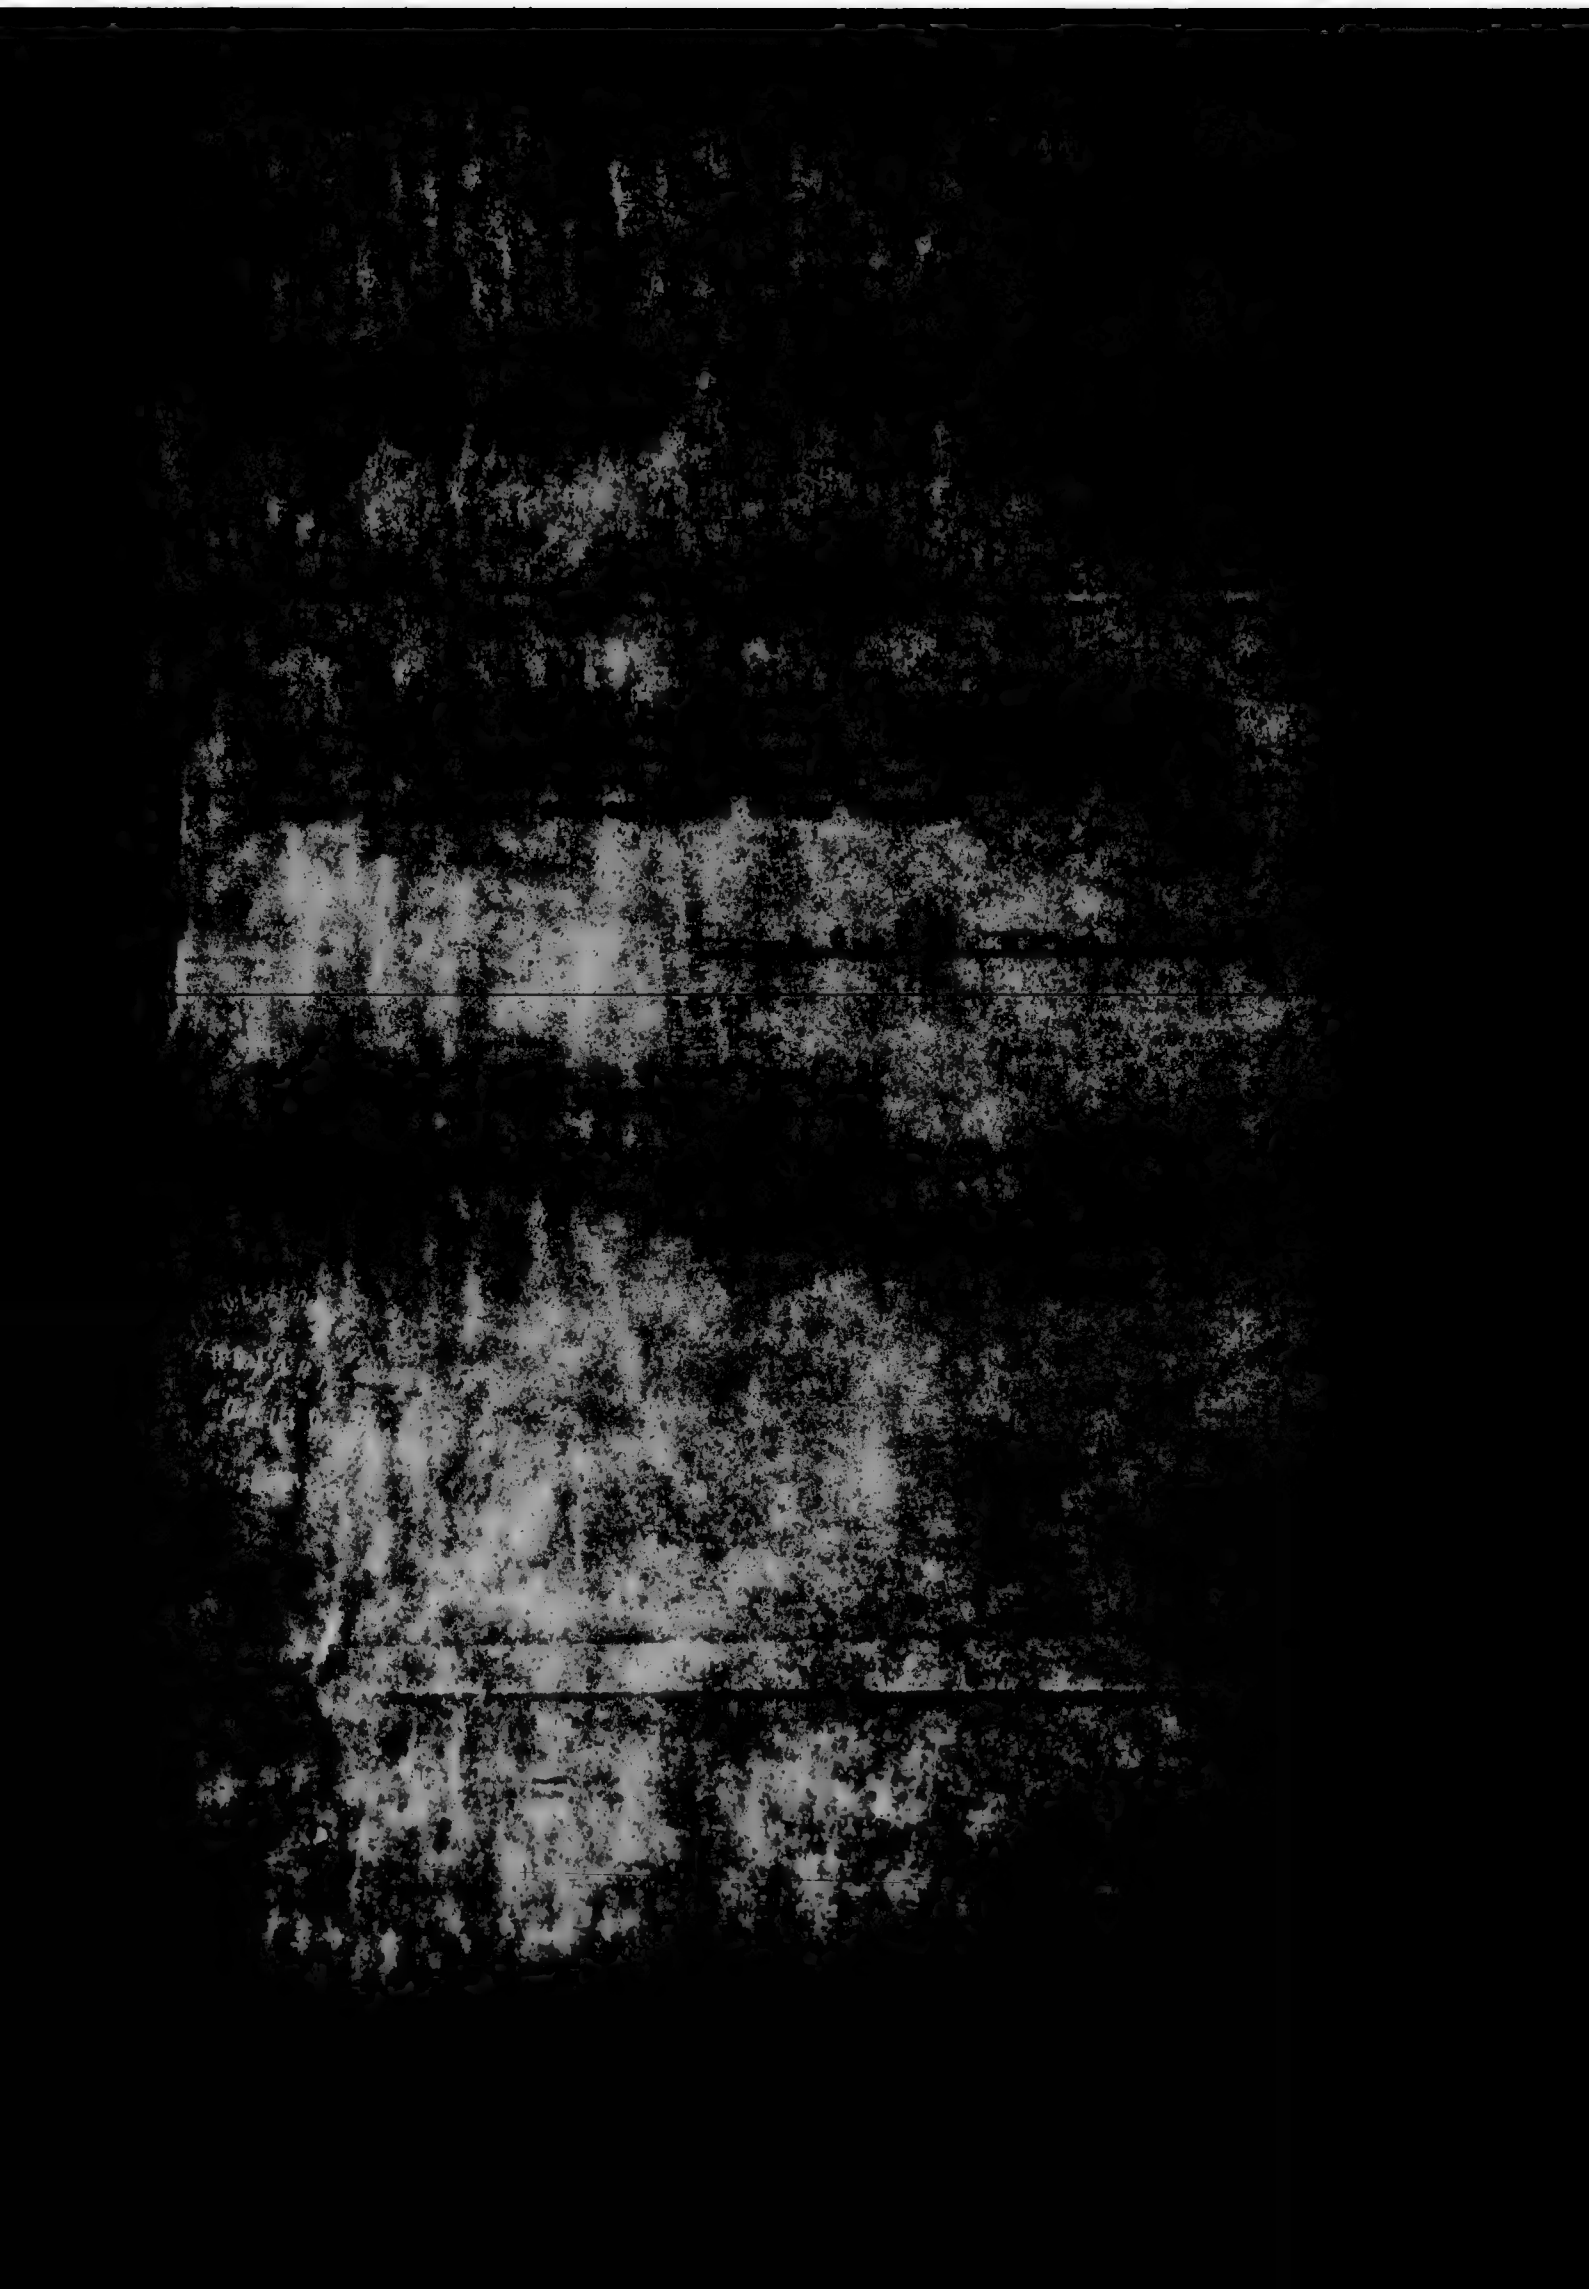
Q Who paid for the property you purchased after you were readmitted? A I paid for it.

Q Cleo T. Reid was then Cleo T. Thompson? A Yes sir.

Q Did she own part of the property? A Well, not more than the boys did; they were under age, but she paid for it the same as they did.

Q How did they pay for it? A Through me. She had no idividual money, only what I had for her.

Q And therefore she didn't pay in anything or acquire it only as being your child? A That's it.
Q When did you dispose of your cattle and horses you speak of having on the ranch and how long did you keep them on the ranch?
A I could not tell you.
Q About when did you dispose of them? A Well, I suppose I was about four years disposing of the bulk of them.
Q After you left the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir. We didn't dispose of them because we didn't want to keep them, but because we had to. We disposed of some of them and some died.
Q Well, say five years after you left the nation, had you disposed of all your horses and cattle, except those that died?
A Well, I suppose we had.
Q Well after you disposed of that property what did you have?
A We had the ranch; we leased out property out for a little while and then we made this exchange paying a large difference and what we got for leasing went to pay this difference, except a few hundred dollars; we got a little revenue.
Q You leased the place out and applied the money on the new place?
A Yes sir.
Q Well, how much money did you put into the new place besides the revenue to pay the difference when you traded places?
A Well, it is a difficult matter to tell; the improvements we had put on the place we considered to be worth about eight or ten thousand dollars and we traded for a place that was worth about fifteen or eighteen thousand so that we paid that difference you know in the rents that we got.
Q How did you pay the balance of the moneythat was due on the price of the new place? A Well, we got $1200.00 rent and there was $5000.00 difference between the two places and we agreed to pay $1000.00 a year on the property that we swapped for and got it out of the rent, and we rented him the place.
Q The point I am trying to make is, did you pay anything for this new place of your own funds? A The new place, that bought the old place.
Q Well, did you put up any money of your own in that deal?
A Why, yes, of course.
Q When you exchanged places? A Well, you see this place, the smaller one, was ours.
Q No money paid whatever for the second place? A No sir. Only our first place went and the difference of a thousand dollars a year.
Q There was no cash involved in the transaction? A No sir. You see we got that place for five thousand dollars difference; we traded the first place for the ranch near Adair; it was considered worth twelve hundred dollars a year rent, which was very little of course; land was worth very little at that time. And now we gave this Squaw Hollow Ranch for the Patten Ranch and this five thousand dollars difference was to be paid annually, a thousand a year, out of the rents of the place; we received no rents you see. Well, we did receive two hundred and fifty dollars every year in money. That is he paid us twelve hundred and fifty and two hundred and fifty of that was in money and the other was the difference between the Squaw Hollow Ranch and this ranch.
Q Mr. Thompson, you exchanged your first ranch for the one you now own and gave five thousand dollars difference boot and the five thousand dollars boot came out of the rents for the ranch you now own, a thousand dollars a year? A Yes sir.
Q And when was this trade made? A That trade was made about five years ago.



Q Does Dr. Pitts still control that place? A Well, he still has it rented, time is not quite out.
Q When is the time out? A This fall.
Q And have you any other property on that place other than just the place? A No sir, I have no stock, nothing but the houses and barns. All the property I have.
Q Had Cleo T. Reid paid anything into this property herself?
A Yes, she has paid just like the boys have paid. The thousand dollars was considered---- one-seventh of that was considered hers and she has consented for one-half of that to go annually for the payment of this ranch and she owns her interest in the larger ranch just as the boys do and it is so understood.
Q That is to say, she owns it when you get it paid out? A Yes, she owns an interest.
Q And the place is paying itself out? A Yes sir.
Q Well, she has never furnished any cash to pay on that has she?
A Yes, she has furnished a little cash.
Q How much? A Well, I couldn't tell you; we drew the head-right money and a small part of what she drew went in payment for improvements.
Q About how much? A I suppose about fifty dollars, just paid her part of it; I couldn't tell you the amounts; her part as one of the members of the family.
Q Has she ever lived in the Cherokee Nation since 8'4?
A No sir.
Q Where does she live now? A North Carolina.
Q How long has she been living there? A About five years.

By the Commission:

Q Mr. Thompson, you spoke of using some of the strip money you drew for your daughter, Cleo T. Reid, to improve this ranch?
A [illegible]
Q For how many members of your family did you draw strip money?
A For myself and three minors.
Q Was there any money used that was not a part of that strip money? A I paid in $2250---$1250 was money of course that I had---on the improvements of this new larger ranch, and $1000, 1/4 mine and 1/4 daughter's. I remember now that I did put in $1000, or 1/4 of it for each of the children, and when I said $250 I did not remember this.
Q So you think now that, of the $1000 of strip money you paid in for improvements, there was about 1/4 of that amount paid for Cleo T. Reid? A As she and Gilbert E.Jr., and Matthew were still with me at home I drew their money and I used it for them to improve the place. It was for all of them.
Q You used a thousand dollars of the money that you drew for yourself and these three children? A Yes sir.

By J. C. Starr:

Q Have you settled with her for the balance of the strip money?
A Well now, there was mighty little balance. No, I made no settlements.
Q Made no settlement with the other minor children?
A No sir. We have been holding things a little in common.
Q Still holding the property in the same way?
A I suppose you might call it that way.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Cleo T. Reid for the enrollment of herself and her minor child, Thompson Reid, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on August 24, 1900, Cleo T. Reid appeared before the Commission at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Subsequent to the date of her original application, she filed with said Commission an affidavit as to the birth of her minor son, Thompson Reid, and the same is made a part of the record herein. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 26, 1902. The record further shows that on February 2, 1903, the Commission rendered its decision in said case which, on March 11, 1903, was approved by the Department; that thereafter a motion for rehearing was filed by the attorneys for the applicant; that on June 13, 1903, the Department rendered its decision in the matter of said application and remanded the case to the Commission for further proceedings and readjudication; and that further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on July 28, 1903.

The evidence shows that the applicant, Cleo T. Reid, was [illegible] years of age at the date of her application herein; that said child, among others, was admitted as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation on September 7, 1896, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation; that she is identified on the 1896 Cherokee payment roll, under her maiden name, Cleo Thompson, the said Thompson Reid is the son of Cleo T. Reid, born about [illegible], as is shown by a birth affidavit filed [illegible] of this record.

The evidence further shows that about 1898, the said Cleo T. Reid in good faith removed to the Cherokee Nation and located [illegible] in April 1904, at which time, she left said Nation and has never since resided therein; that about 1898, which was during her minority,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON,

March 3, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report from the Acting Chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated February 9, 1903, forwarding the record relative to the application of Cleo T. Reid for the enrollment of herself and Thompson Reid as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

February 2, 1903, the Commission held that the applicants were not entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

The evidence in this case shows that the applicant, Cleo T. Reid, nee Thompson, was 24 years of age at the date of her application, August 24, 1900; that she was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation September 3, 1888, by the authorities of the nation; and that her name appears on the 1894 Strip Payment roll. She was a minor when admitted, and the evidence shows that about eighteen months subsequent to her admission she removed with her parents from the Indian Territory; that in December 1899 she married James W. Reid, a white man, and that Thompson Reid is the issue of that marriage. He is properly identified by birth affidavit. The evidence shows that this applicant lived with her father until the date of her marriage, and that in 1888 she was in Virginia attending school. She testified that her father had not voted in any of the states in which he has resided; that she always claimed the Indian Territory as her home; that she kept up a claim and put improvements on it; that her husband resides in North Carolina; and that he has never been in the Indian Territory.

Following the Department's decision of [illegible] (I.T.D. 1244), in the Joseph Ann Hall case in so far as it related to the enrollment of Jessie M. H. Swan and Blanche E. H. Morrison, the applicants are not entitled to enrollment, and the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to them is recommended.

Very respectfully,

A. C. Tonner,
Acting Commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Gentlemen:

The Department has considered the case involving the application of Cleo T. Reid, for the enrollment of herself and her minor child, Thompson Reid, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, received with your letter of February 9, and the Acting Commissioner's letter of March 5, 1903.

It appears that the principal applicant was 24 years of age at the date of the application to you for enrollment, August 24, 1900; that she was duly admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation in 1883, and is identified on the 1894 Cherokee strip payment roll; that in 1899 she was married to [redacted] man, who is the father of Thompson Reid.

It is also shown that the principal applicant left the Indian Territory in 1895, and since that time has made infrequent visits thereto, but has never permanently removed to and resided therein.

February 2, 1903, you rejected the application, as paragraph 9, section 21 of the act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides that

"No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the nation in which he claims citizenship."

The Acting Commissioner recommends that your decision be concurred in. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

Finding no reason to disturb your decision, it is hereby affirmed.

Respectfully,

Department of the Interior,
Office of Indian Affairs,
Washington, June 13, 1903.

The Honorable
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith a communication from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated April 16, 1903, forwarding a motion of Attorneys Hutchings, West and Parker in behalf of Cleo T. Reid et al, asking that a new hearing be had in the matter of their application for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, on the ground that the decision heretofore rendered rejecting the applicants was erroneous and contrary to the decision recently rendered in the case of the application of Scott Yeargain.

The office has examined the evidence submitted in behalf of these applicants and finds that the same tends to show that the said Cleo T. Reid had at the time her application was heard by the commission, property rights in the Cherokee Nation and claimed said nation to be her home although she had been absent therefrom for a number of years. It appears that under the decision of the Department in the Yeargain case aforesaid, this applicant may be entitled to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and the office recommends that the case be remanded to to the Commission so that further evidence may be submitted as to her said property rights.

The original record in the case is transmitted herewith.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,
Commissioner.

Gentlemen:

April 16, 1903, you transmitted a motion of the [illegible] for the applicants, to reopen Cherokee doubtful case [illegible] Reid et al.

It appears that you rejected the applicants in this case February 2, 1903, referring in your decision to paragraph nine of section 21, act of June 28, 1898. On March 11, 1903, the Department affirmed your decision.

Submitting the motion for rehearing on June 13, 1903, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that the case be remanded to you in order that further evidence may be submitted as to the property rights of the applicants.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of George L. Chambers as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on April 19, 1901, George L. Chambers appeared before the Commission at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

The evidence shows that the applicant is a Cherokee by blood and that he is identified as such on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll and on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that the applicant was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation for some years immediately preceding [illegible] at which time he has lived in the Osage Nation, Oklahoma. It does not appear that he ever removed with his effects from the Cherokee Nation or became a citizen of another government; on the contrary, the evidence shows that he always considered himself a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and has voted in said Nation at every election but one since he became of voting age.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission, following [illegible], that George L. Chambers should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of [illegible] of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

U. S. Indian Agent,
[illegible], Oklahoma Territory.

Sirs:

The Commission has heretofore received an application for enrollment, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, of George Rogers Chambers, who gave his age as 45 years and his postoffice as Perry City, Oklahoma Territory.

It appears that the wife and children of this applicant are members of the Osage tribe of Indians, and you are requested to advise the Commission if said George Rogers Chambers has ever been enrolled or recognized as a citizen of the Osage Nation.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lewis, Clifford and Ada B. Hughes as citizens by Blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on April 20, 1901, Bryant Hughes appeared before the Commission at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and his three minor children, [redacted] Hughes, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife, Janie Hughes, as a citizen by intermarriage of said Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Vinita, Indian Territory, on April 20, 1903, and at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on July 6, and July 7, 1903. Said Bryant Hughes is not embraced in this decision, his name being upon the partial roll of Cherokee citizens by blood approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 23, 1902, at No. 17625. The application for the enrollment of Janie Hughes as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation is not passed upon at this time, nor is she embraced in this decision.

The evidence shows that Bryant Hughes, a Cherokee citizen by blood, and his wife, Janie Hughes, were married in 1892. As a result of that marriage the minor applicants herein were born. The said Bryant Hughes is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880 and the Cherokee census roll of 1896; Lewis Hughes is identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896, and Clifford and Ada B. Hughes are identified by birth affidavits made a part of the record herein.

The evidence further shows that Bryant Hughes has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life. The minor applicants herein have also lived in said Nation all their lives, and with their said parents.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Lewis Hughes, Clifford Hughes and Ada B. Hughes should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Q Have you any recollection of this birth affidavit? A I have

Q State what you know about [redacted] cuted, or what you know about the affidavit? A Mr. Walkingstick, who was one of the interpreters making a canvas of the full blood districts either sent to me or gave to me an affidavit as to the birth of this child, Hazel Spaniard, and I was not able to tell under what name the mother of this child had been listed for enrollment, and was unable to list the child, or identify the child's parents in order to enroll the child. Mr. Walkingstick informed me that one of the persons who had witnessed the signature by mark of the persons executing the affidavit was a school teacher, and I could get reliable information from her, who was Miss Mannie Watts. I wrote her a letter and she wrote back in reply to me, giving the information that I called for.

Q Is this the letter here? A It is.

Q From this letter it appears that the mother signed the affidavit as Eliza Spaniard, and you couldn't identify any such person as Eliza Spaniard as an applicant for enrollment by this Commission, that was the trouble, was it not? A It was.

Q From the reply you got from Mannie Watts, were you able to identify the mother? A I don't remember, but I do remember getting [redacted] I have a [redacted] recollection that the [redacted] time from different [redacted] unable to remember definitely in regard to this particular [redacted]

Q Do you remember if you returned the affidavit to the mother in order that she could sign her name as she is listed for enrollment by the Commission? A I don't have any recollection of having returned the affidavit.

Q Have you any recollection what became of the affidavit after you heard from Mannie Watts? A I have not, more than that I forwarded to the Commission at Muskogee, all affidavits in my possession.

Q As to this particular affidavit you have no distinct recollection? A No sir.

Q This letter written by you to Mannie Watts is dated October 25, 1902, when did you get a reply from her? A As well as I remember it was only a few days after writing the letter.

Q Do you remember of having the affidavit before you wrote this letter? A Yes sir.

Q But you are unable to state now positively what became of the affidavit? A Yes sir.

R. Palmer, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings had in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Luella, Pearl and Alfred Watie and Hazel Spaniard as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on February 25, 1901, William Spaniard appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, among others, of his three stepchildren, Luella, Pearl and Alfred Watie, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The other parties to the application

Nancy [illegible] a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, but her status as such is not [illegible] is the embraced in this decision. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on November 27, 1901, and thereafter at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on July 21, and August 12, 1903. There was also filed with the Commission a birth affidavit wherein it is shown that Hazel Spaniard was born on July 2, 1902, to Luella Watie, one of the applicants herein.

The evidence in this case shows that Luella, Pearl and Alfred Watie are the children of one Tom Watie and his wife, Nancy Watie. The said Tom Watie was a native Cherokee and is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll as "Crawfish Watie." His death occurred about the year 1897. Luella, Pearl and Alfred Watie are identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that the mother of Luella, Pearl and Alfred Watie, Nancy Watie, now Nancy Spaniard, has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and it is considered that her three children, applicants herein, have lived in said Nation

REFER IN REPLY TO THE FOLLOWING

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, October 25, 1902.

Miss Nannie Watts,

Stilwell, Indian Territory.

Madam:

On October 1, 1902, Mr. S. R. Walkingstick of the Commission executed an affidavit as to the birth of Hazel Spaniard, infant child of Richard and Ella Spaniard, to whose marks you were a witness. The records of the Commission fail to show that the mother of this child was listed for enrollment under the name of Ella Spaniard, and it is, therefore, unable to ascertain under what name the said Ella Spaniard was listed for enrollment.

The Commission desires to know the name of Ella Spaniard before her marriage to Richard Spaniard, the name under which she was enrolled and also the names of her father and mother.

By supplying this information to the Commission it will be enabled to properly list the child Hazel Spaniard for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and you will be doing the said Ella Spaniard a favor.

Very respectfully,

Clerk in Charge,
Special Cherokee Enrolling Party.

Commissioner in Charge,
Cherokee Land Office,
Tahlequah, Indian Territory.

Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of letter of August 7, requesting that the records of the mailing room of this office be examined for a letter written in September, October or November, to either Richard Spaniard or Louella (or Ella) Watie, in regard to a birth affidavit for the enrollment of Hazel Spaniard or Watie, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

In reply you are advised that the records of the mailing room fail to disclose that such letter was written between [illegible] 1, and December 1, 1902, to either Richard Spaniard [illegible] Ella) Watie.

Respectfully,

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Robert L., Oscar, Reana M., Henry W. and William F. Waybourn as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on October 25, 1900, Robert L. Waybourn appeared before the Commission at Clarmore, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and his three minor children, Oscar, Reana M. and Henry W. Waybourn as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The applicant [illegible] embraced in this application. Further proceedings in the said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on March 7, and September 29, 1902.

The evidence shows that the said Robert L. Waybourn was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said nation, on March 26, 1879, and that he was lawfully married to his wife Emma on September 6, 1891. As a result of that marriage the minor applicants herein were born. The said Robert L. Waybourn is identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896, as are also Oscar and Reana M; Henry Waybourn is identified by a birth affidavit made a part of the record herein. William F. Waybourn was born subsequent to the original application and an affidavit to that effect was filed with the Commission, showing therein that he is the child of Robert L. Waybourn and Emma Waybourn. Said affidavit is made a part of the record herein.

The evidence further shows that said Robert L. Waybourn has resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since 1894. It is considered that the minor applicants herein, with the exception of Oscar Waybourn, have lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously since birth. The said Oscar's residence in the Cherokee Nation is considered to have been contemplated [illegible]

Robert L. Wybourn, Chas. Wybourn, Edna E. [illegible] by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is [illegible]

Sir:-

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself, your wife and two minor children for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the seventh day of March, 1902.

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

You are required to supply the Commission with a certified copy of your record of admission to Cherokee citizenship.

Gentlemen:

There is enclosed herewith the complete record in the matter of the application of Robert L. Waybourn, et al, for enrollment as Cherokee citizens, Cherokee D-698.

There is a note attached, by Mr. Bixby, to the decision heretofore prepared, that residence in the Cherokee Nation on June 28, 1898, has not been satisfactorily established. Neither of the applicants have yet appeared at the Cherokee Land Office so that testimony could be taken, and it is believed that under the recent holdings of the Department further testimony as to residence is unnecessary.

Inasmuch as one of the applicants is an intermarried white, the record is transmitted for your consideration and appropriate action.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Naomi A., Mary C. and Theodore L. Sitten as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on August 3, 1900, Solomon S. Sitten appeared before the Commission at Bunch, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of his wife, Naomi A. Sitten, and their minor child, Mary C. Sitten as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on December 3, 1900, November 26, 1901 and August 27, 1903. On November 26, 1901, there was filed with this Commission an affidavit wherein it is shown that Mary C. Sitten died on November 2, 1900. Thereafter on April 17, 1902, there was filed with this Commission an affidavit wherein it is shown that Theodore L. Sitten, minor child of Naomi A. Sitten, was born on September 30, 1901.

The evidence shows that Naomi A. Sitten is a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation and was married on September 3, 1899, to Solomon S. Sitten, a white man. As a result of that marriage the minor applicants were born. The said Naomi A. Sitten is identified on the Cherokee strip payment roll of 1894 and the Cherokee census roll of 1896; Theodore L. Sitten is identified by a birth affidavit made a part of the record herein. Mary C. Sitten is shown to have died subsequent to the application for her enrollment, prior to September 1, 1902. An affidavit to that effect is made a part of the record herein. The evidence further shows that Naomi A. Sitten has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life.

Section twenty-five of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons duly living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

It is, therefore, ordered by this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Mary C. Sitton as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is hereby dismissed. It is further ordered that Frank A. Sitton and Theodore L. Sitton be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on July 18, 1900, Charles P. Hunter appeared before the Commission at Claremore, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, among others, of his wife, Maud Hunter, and her minor child, Florence I. Hunter, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The application also included the said Charles P. Hunter, but he is differently classified and is not embraced in this decision.

The evidence shows that the said Maud Hunter is identified by the name of Manda Williams on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll that she is also identified on the 1894 Cherokee strip payment roll and the 1896 Cherokee census roll. It further appears that the applicant, Florence I. Hunter, who is identified by a birth affidavit made a part of the record herein, is the child of said Maud Hunter, and was born since 1880.

The evidence further shows that the said Maud Hunter has resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously from 1894 up to and including the date of her application herein; and it is considered that the residence of her said minor child has always been in the Cherokee Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Maud Hunter and Florence I. Hunter should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 30, 1902

Mr. Charles P. Hunter,

Claremore, Indian Territory.

Sir:

You are hereby notified that the application of Maud Hunter and Florence D. Hunter, your wife and minor child, for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 15th day of February, 1902.

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

You are requested to supply the Commission with affidavit as to the birth of Florence I. Hunter, and there is enclosed you herewith a blank affidavit for that purpose.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Melvina Crittenden as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on July 16, 1900, Israel Crittenden appeared before the Commission at Vestville, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of his minor daughter, Melvina Crittenden, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The application also included himself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, but he is differently classified and is not embraced in this decision. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on September 11, 1903.

The evidence shows that Melvina Crittenden is the daughter of Israel Crittenden, a Cherokee citizen by blood, and one Cornelia Crittenden, a white woman. The said Israel Crittenden is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that Israel Crittenden has resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since 1880 and that Melvina Crittenden has resided therein continuously since birth.

Section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of all persons now living whose names are found upon the 1880 authenticated roll, and their descendants born since the date of said roll.

The evidence further shows that Melvina Crittenden was born since the date of said roll.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Melvina Crittenden should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of law above quoted, and it is so ordered.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of four orphan children. They are identified on the roll of '94, but not upon the roll of '80. They are at present living in Louisville, Ky., where they are attending school. Their mother is said to be a Natural Cherokee and is thought to have lived in the Cherokee nation all her life, but she cannot be identified on the roll of '80. She was an orphan at an early age and cannot be traced through her own father and mother. These four children are all living at this time. At present their application will be placed upon a deferred card to await satisfactory identification of their mother, with reference to her rights at the time of her death.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereon.

Q At whose place ? A Jake Alberty's place.
Q Where did he live ? A Down on Grand River too.
Q What were they doing there ? A They lived there.
Q On Jake Alberty's place ? A I don't know those place they were living on.
Q How long before the war was that ? A I can't tell you how long before the war. I don't know.
Q Ten years ? A No, I guess not quite that long.
Q Your best judgment; about five years ?
A About five years I guess.
Q Did you ever see them after that and up to the time of the war ?
A No sir. They went south somewhere.
Q I mean during that five years that intervened just before the war? What became of Tom Wolfe in that time ?
A I don't know what became of him.
Q How far was Alberty's place from Locust Grove where John Price lived before the war ? A That was; it must have been 40 miles.
Q Near what place on Grand River was that Alberty place, near that town now ? A Nearer Prairie City.

The Commission: The curator for the applicants in this case and the representative of the Cherokee Nation present, submit this case to the Commission for final consideration, and the case is ordered closed, and reported to the Commission for final decision based upon the evidence now of record.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Editha, Howell W., Ada E. and Willie C. W. Ritter as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

An examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, now in possession of the Commission, shows that Nana E. Ritter, mother of the applicants herein, is identified as a native Cherokee on the 1880 authenticated roll at page 197, Goweescoowee District, #3170, by the name of Lizzie Wolfe; and on the 1883 pay roll, Delaware District #694, as N. E. Ritter; and that the said applicants are identified with their mother on the 1890 pay roll as follows:

1890 roll, Delaware District, Nana E. Ritter.
" " " " Editha Ritter.
" " " " Howel Ritter.
" " " " Ada Ritter.
" " " " William Ritter.

Copies of this statement are ordered filed herein and made a part of the record in this case.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Editha, Howell W., Ada E. and Willie C. W. Ritter as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on October 4, 1900, Othie A. Smith appeared before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of four minor children, viz: Editha, Howell W., Ada E. and Willie C. W. Ritter, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation; the said Othie A. Smith being guardian of said children. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 6, 1900, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on March 1 and June 17, 1902.

The evidence shows that the applicants are the minor children of William D. Ritter, a white man, and his wife, Nana E. Ritter, a native Cherokee; and that said children were born since 1882, the date of the marriage of their said parents. It further appears that their mother died in 1891 and their father about three years later.

It further appears that the said Nana E. Ritter, mother of the applicants herein, is identified as a native Cherokee on the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation, by the name of Lizzie Wolfe, and on the 1883 pay roll by the name of N. E. Ritter; and that all the applicants herein, together with the said Nana E. Ritter, are identified on the 1890 Cherokee census roll and on the 1894 Cherokee strip payment roll.

The evidence further shows that on January 7, 1901, Alonzo Conner was appointed curator of said minor children by the United States Court for the Northern District of the Indian Territory; and that he and said guardian both reside in the Indian Territory.

The evidence further shows that all the applicants herein were born in the Cherokee Nation and lived there until the death of their mother; that shortly afterwards they were taken to Kentucky where they have since been residing and attending school. The said applicants being under age and their parents both dead, it is considered that they have not forfeited their citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by their involuntary removal therefrom.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission, following the decision of the Department in the case of James Hunter, et al (I.T.D. 1970-1903), that the said Editha Ritter, Howell W. Ritter, Ada E. Ritter and Willie C. W. Ritter should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Mr. O. A. Smith,

Fairland, Indian Territory,

Sir-

You are hereby notified that the application of Mitha, Rowell W., Ada E., and Willie C. W., Ritter for enrollment as citizen of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 28th day of February, 1902.

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

Q Where is he? A He is in Jenny Creek.
Q When did you separate from him? A We have been separated, I don't know just how long we have been separated.
Q Well about how long after your marriage was it that the separation took place? A About two years.
Q Since that time have you married any other person? A No, sir.
Q Are you aware that you appeared before the Commission the last time that this child was born in February, 1906, and that you were married in May, 1905, about three months after instead the birth of the child? A I guess that's the way of it.
Q You don't you know that that's the way of it: was this child born three months after your marriage or prior to your marriage? A Before, I guess.
Q Is that right? A Yes, sir.
Q And when you were married to him you continued to live together for a period of two years? A Yes, sir.
Q [redacted] ever separated during that time? A No, sir, we never [redacted]
Q [redacted] recognize this as his child? A Yes, sir, he put it on [redacted] when [redacted]

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

F.O.F.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ora Fields as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on September 14, 1900, May Fields appeared before the Commission at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation and for the enrollment of her minor child, Ora Fields, as a citizen by blood of said Nation; but as the status of persons applying for enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation is not fixed at this time, the application for the enrollment of May Fields, as such, will not be passed upon or considered in this decision. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 24, 1902, and at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, August 17, 1903.

The evidence shows that the applicant, Ora Fields, was born since 1880 and is a daughter of Willie Fields and May Fields, who were married in May, 1896; and that said Willie Fields is identified as a native Cherokee on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll. The applicant is identified on the 1896 Cherokee census roll.

The evidence further shows that the parents of said applicant have resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since their marriage in 1896 and that the applicant Ora Fields has resided all her life with her mother.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Ora Fields should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Mr. Smith: I move to strike out the testimony of the witness as to Robert Garrett going to Oklahoma.

Mr. Hastings, to witness: How do you know it ?

Mr. Smith: I object; and move that witnesses testimony be stricken out.

The Commission: Your objection will be noted. (To the witness): Answer the question.

A About a year ago this last September, his boy died, Robert Garrett's boy died, and I heard Mr. White's wife say that they had telegraphed to Bonca City, Oklahoma, to get Bob to the funeral.

Mr. Smith: Is that all the information you have ?

A Yes sir.

Mr. Smith: I renew my objection, and think this testimony in regard to the whereabouts of Robert Garrett is not competent.

Mr. Hastings: Counsel for the Cherokee Nation is not pressing upon this testimony, it is left with the Commission to pass upon it, and upon the weight to be given to it.

Mr. Smith: It is moved to strike out the testimony of the witness in regard to the whereabouts of Robert Garrett, because it is purely hear-say.

The witness who then further examined by Mr. Smith:

Q Well, now you don't know how long Robert Garrett and his wife were separated ? A No sir.
Q Whether it was two, or three, years ago ?
A No sir, I can't say.
Q Well, how often would you see Robert Garrett in Chetopa after that separation ? A Why there was one summer there that I would see him three or four times a day.
Q What about the other summers ? A Well, I don't think I ever seen him very often but the one summer.
Q What summer was that ? A That must have been about 1900.
Q He had relatives living in the Cherokee Nation a very few miles [illegible] ? A Yes sir.

J. H. DUNN, called as a witness, being duly sworn by the Commissioner, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by W. W. Hastings:

Q Your name is J. H. Dunn ? A Yes sir.
Q Your post office is Chetopa, Kansas ? A Yes sir.
Q What is your age ? A Sixty-four.
Q Do you know Robert Garnett ? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know his wife ? A No sir, I never seen his wife but once, I believe.
Q You never talked to wife ? A From hear-say.
Q [illegible] A By sir.
Q About how long have they been separated ? A Well, I got that from hear-say; from what I can hear it is going on two years.

Mr. Smith: I object to that as hear-say.

Q Where were they living when they separated ?
A My understanding is at Chetopa.
Q How long had they been living there ?

Mr. Smith: I object to that as hear-say, and to the understanding of the witness; the answer is incompetent as evidence.

Witness: All that in regards to him and his wife was public talk around and I just heard them talk. Personally I don't know about it.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q Well will as about how long they had been living there prior to the separation ? A My recollection is that they had been there [illegible] about five years.

A No sir.
Q It might have been as long as four or five years ago ?
A I don't think it was that long.
Q But you are not certain ? A No sir.
Q You never saw his wife until this week ?
A I never met her until the other night, about Friday night.
Q Of last week ? A Yes sir Friday night [illegible] when she came down to the train to meet somebody, and I met her.
Q How do you know that Robert Garrett and this woman lived there together as man and wife in Chetopa ? A I have taken groceries there.
Q Was this the same woman that you delivered goods to ?

Q What time in February ? A Along about the middle of February.
Q Have you got any evidence of your marriage ?
A I have got a certificate of marriage right down to the hotel where we stayed last night.
Q How often have you been married ? A Just twice.
Q What was the name of your first husband ?
A Joseph Palmer.
Q Was he a Cherokee ? A Yes sir.
Q When did you marry him ? A I married him right down here below Fort Gibson.
Q When ? A About twelve or thirteen years ago.
Q Where have you been living since that time ?
A I have been living around here in the Cherokee Nation, around Tahlequah, last fall I went out to Kenwick and stayed a while.
Q That's in Oklahoma ? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you continue to live in the Cherokee Nation after you married your husband Palmer ? A I lived here all the time.
Q How long did he live after you were married ?
A I had three children by him, two living, the oldest one is thirteen and the youngest one twelve.
Q How long did you live with him ? A About seventeen years.
Q With him ? A Yes sir.
Q How long has he been dead ? A About nine years.
Q I thought you said you married him about twelve years ago ?
A Well, I don't know how you count it, but I married him about seventeen or eighteen years ago.
Q How long has he been dead ? A Ever since this land was allotted out here in the Cherokee strip, he died the first year after the Strip opened, he settled out there.
Q Then he died about ten years ago ? A Yes sir.

Q And you lived with him about seven years ? A Yes sir.
Q And during that time did you [illegible] the Territory ? A [illegible] sir, only [illegible]
Q Did you go outside the Territory [illegible] ? A No sir.
Q Did you go with him to [illegible] and buried ?
A Yes sir.
Q In 1893 ? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you continue to live there ?
A Well I lived there all the time you might as well say, after he died, until about two years after he died, and then I came back to the Cherokee Nation, I brought the children and came back to Vinita and Claremore.
Q You came back in about 1895 ? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you come to ? A I came here to Vinita, and I went from here down here to Claremore, and I have been right up and down this railroad now.
Q How long had you been living at Newkirk when you applied to the Commission ? A About a month; hadn't been there more than a month.
Q How long did you continue to live there after you applied ?
A I didn't live there at all after I got my name in down there.
Q You came right back to the Territory ? A Yes sir.
Q Been living here ever since ? A Yes sir.
Q What was the date of your marriage to Garrett ?
A I don't know, I expect I had just better send and get that paper, I can't read nor write.
Q From the time Palmer died up to the time you married Garrett had you ever been married ? A No sir.
Q You were a widow all that time ? A Yes sir, I was a widow all the time until I married Mr. Garrett.
Q Were you ever married before you married Palmer ? A No sir.
Q Was Palmer ever married before he married you ?
A Yes sir, he had one child.
Q Was his first wife dead when he married you ? A Yes sir.
Q Was Garrett ever married before he married you ? A Yes sir, he was married to a white woman and got a divorce from her.
Q When was he divorced from her ? A About three or four years ago.

Examined by W. W. Hastings

Q You were married near Fort Gibson, Mrs. Garrett ?
A Yes sir; I was married at Oswego when me and Mr. Garrett was married.
Q I mean you and Mr. Palmer ? A Yes sir, we married down there, I was living down there when we married, but after I got married we went from there down to Texas and got married and came back to Fort Gibson.
Q Now you lived near Fort Gibson after you married Palmer ?
A Yes, and we lived at Tahlequah.
Q Now lets don't leave Fort Gibson yet, where did you live at Fort Gibson with Joe Palmer ? After your marriage now ?
A We lived there close to Fort Gibson, there at, I forget his name, Sam Mayes and all them, I didn't have no home of our own, and we went there and worked for him.
Q Who ? A Sam Mayes.
Q Sam Mayes don't live at Fort Gibson ? A I don't know he don't now, he did then.
Q How far from Fort Gibson ? A I think it was fifteen miles.
Q Which direction ? A Southwest of Fort Gibson. We lived there on a big creek and I don't remember the big creek's name.
Q Where was your post office ? A Fort Gibson.
Q And you lived fifteen miles southwest of there ? A Yes sir.

Q Living on a farm ? A No, worked for these people, [illegible] Hayes' folks.
Q Were they full bloods ? A No sir half-breeds; now they are living down here on Grand River close to Pryor Creek.
Q How Mrs. Garrett, don't you know as a matter of fact that these people, these Hayes who live near Pryor Creek, never lived near Fort Gibson ? A Yes sir they did.
Q They didn't live there fifteen years ago ? A No sir.
Q You married Palmer fifteen years ago ? A Yes sir.
Q The first year or two after you and Joe Palmer married, where did you live ? A Right down at Tulsa, and he worked on the railroad.
Q With whom did you live there ? Did you keep house ?
A We rented a house from Alvin Hodge, and we farmed for him.
Q The first year after you were married ? A After we was married
Q Where did you move to from the town of Tulsa ?
A We moved to Wealaka.
Q That's down in the Creek Nation ? A No, its in the Cherokee Nation aint it ?
Q No. A Well we lived down there one whole winter, you know them Hogans, we worked for them.
Q Well where did you go from the Wealaka Mission ?
A We come back to Tulsa and Claremore.
Q You couldn't go to both towns at once ?
A I come to Tulsa and stayed there a while.
Q How long did you stay at Tulsa ? A About two years altogether.
Q Now when did you go to Claremore ? A Well, we come right from Tulsa up to Claremore, and when we left there we went back--
Q Just wait now, I want to get you at Claremore; in whose house did you live ? A Deam Burgess'.
Q How long did you live there ? A About six or seven months, and then he got to work at Red Fork.
Q You want to get off from Claremore too quick; what kind of labor did your husband do ? A Anything he could get to do, and I did too.
Q Where was this oldest child born ? A At Red Fork.
Q Was that after you left Claremore ? A No, before we moved there; he was working there at Red Fork, and that bridge was going through there.
Q Now where did you go from Claremore ? A We went back to Red Fork.
Q That's in the Creek Nation ? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you stay there ? A About a year.
Q Where did you go from Red Fork ? A I moved up on the strip.
Q What year did you move to the Cherokee Strip ?
A We moved just five years before the strip was opened up.
Q That was in 1888 then, the strip was opened in September, 1893.
A Yes sir.
Q Did you make a place up there then ? A Yes sir, we had a place there and everything.
Q Have a house ? A Yes sir.
Q Where was this second child born ? A At Tulsa.
Q Before you went to the strip ? A Yes sir.
Q How old is this second child ? A Why the oldest one is about fifteen years old.
Q The oldest one ? A Yes sir.
Q How old is the second ? A He's eleven going on twelve.
Q Where was he born ? A At Tulsa.
Q Was he born before or after you went to the Cherokee Strip ?
A He was born before we took an allotment out there.
Q I think you said you were there about five years before it opened?
A We was.
Q If that be true you went there in 1888, and that would be [illegible] years ? A One was born at Tulsa and one at [illegible]

Q You were at the Cherokee Strip when it opened September 16, 1893 ?
A Yes sir.
Q Well now, you made application to this Commission to be enrolled on February 8, 1902, at Muskogee, didn't you ?
A Yes sir.
Q That was your first statement before the Commission ?
A Yes sir.
Q You then gave your post office as Newkirk, Oklahoma ?
A Yes sir, I was at Newkirk then, I was a widow.
Q At that time the Commission asked you "How long have you been living in Oklahoma"; and you answered that you were living there before the strip payment, two years before. The next question the Commission asked you was "Well then, about two years before this payment was made, you moved there"; you answered at that time, "Yes sir". The next question the record shows the Commission asked you was "Have you been back here since that time"; and your answer at that time was, "No sir; I live up there now, just from there". The next question the Commission asked you was "Oklahoma is your home"; and you answered "Yes sir, my husband lived there". Upon cross-examination, I asked you, "And you live out there and they live with you", (referring to your children); and you answered "Yes sir". And the next question I asked you was "And have ever since"; and you answered "Ever since. They have got a town on it and we can't get what we want out of it", (referring to your land). Do you remember being asked those questions and making those answers ?
A I never answered no such questions as that.
Q The next question the Commission asked you was "Are these two children living in Oklahoma with you"; and you answered "Yes sir, down there with me ever since, and last fall I sent them down here and schooled them a while and it come Christmas time and I brought them back. I am going to put them there now; they have got money and land both there but I have neglected it"; did you answer that ?
A No sir.
Q You didn't ? A No sir.
Q The next question that was asked you was "Since you went to the Oklahoma Strip with your husband you have never maintained a residence here in the Nation at all, have you"; and your answer was "No sir. I have just lived up there. I come down here where the kinfolks is at Tulsa and up in there". The next question was "Did you apply to the Cherokee Census takers in 1896 to have these children enrolled;" and you answered, "Why I employed Davenport up here at Vinita to do that and I know he sunk us for about fourteen or fifteen hundred dollars". Did you make these answers ? A I don't know anything about it.
Q Will you swear you didn't do it ? A Why of course I will.
Q You swear this record is all incorrect do you ?
A No sir, I didn't swear to anything, and I never said no such as that.
Q Didn't you swear to it ? A No sir, they didn't swear me at all.
Q Well did you make that statement ? A No sir.
Q Were these questions asked you ? A I don't think they were. Wasn't nothing asked me there only they asked me how long Joseph had been dead, and I signed up some papers and got right out, and I never signed no such and I never swore to nothing.
Q But did you make this statement whether you swore to it or not ?
A No sir, I didn't make no statement.
Q Where did your husband die ? A At Cleveland, Oklahoma.
Q How far from the land you selected ? A We was living on it.
Q He be buried there ? A Yes sir, right up above there at Cleveland.
Q Well, where did you continue to live ? A After he died ?

Q You ? A Just as I told you. I lived there a while, and then came here to Tulsa and Claremore.
Q I want to know how long you lived at Cleveland or Nowata ?
And for in Nowata down there ? A About sixty miles, and then to Bartlesville--
Q I am not trying to get that. I am trying to get your residence, how long did you continue to live there after your husband's death, as you say in January, 1894, I think you said ?
A Well I lived out there about two years after he died.
Q Well now, what year did you move away from there ?
A I can't tell you.
Q What year is this ? A I can't tell you.
Q What year was last year ? A I don't know.
Q You don't know one year from another ? A No, I can't read nor write, and I aint around where there is any of this law business going on, and then I come to Pawnee and stayed there pretty near four years in Pawnee county.
Q That was after the death of your husband ? A Yes sir.
Q You stayed at Cleveland about two years after your husband died ?
A Yes sir.
Q And then went to Pawnee and stayed about four years ?
A Yes sir.
Q Then where did you go ? A I went back to the Choctaw Nation, and stayed about four months, and then come here and stayed here at Vinita about four years.
Q Your husband died in 1894 ? A Yes sir.
Q You stayed there about two years after your husband died ?
A Yes sir.
Q Then you went to Pawnee, Oklahoma, and stayed four years ?
A Yes sir.
Q That would run you up to 1900 ? A Yes sir.
Q And then went to the Choctaw Nation and stayed about two months ?
A Yes sir.
Q And then where did you go from the Choctaw Nation ?
A Back to Tulsa.
Q How long was that before you and your husband married ?
A That was two or three years before me and him married, and I was living in this town when me and Mr. Garrett got married.
Q Did you ever live here before you and Mr. Garrett got married ?
A Yes sir.
Q How long ago ? A About two years before we got married.
Q What two years ? A About two years ago before me and him got married last February was a year ago.
Q You were living in Newkirk, Oklahoma, when you made application for yourself and these children ? A Yes sir me and him was up there.
Q Had you been married then ? A No.
Q After you made this application ? A I was living here and I went down there and made this application and went back to Chetopa, Kansas, where he lived.
Q Were you and Garrett married when you made this application ?
A No sir.
Q What did you go up there where he was for ? A To get married.
Q You were before the Commission you were living at Newkirk, Oklahoma ? A Well I had been living there.
Q You swore that was your post office address at that time ?
A It was.
Q Now you swear Vinita was your post office ?
A I never went back to the old country any more.
Q [illegible] to the time you enrolled [illegible] at Newkirk ?
A [illegible] me that my post office was here I told him Newkirk, I was [illegible] here and was thinking to go to Newkirk.
Q Who did you stay with ? A I was go down here and get [illegible] Garrett, and he can tell you I was here.

Q But you say he sunk you for about fourteen or fifteen hundred dollars ? A I lived right in Dr. Day's house.
Q Where is he ? A He's a dentist here.
Q Who else's house did you live in ? A I don't know, I rented one from Mr. Clark.
Q Did you have your two children with you ? A Yes sir.
Q Who was your neighbor ? A All these folks.
Q Tell me some of them ? A I can't tell you any of them, I never was home long enough to do anything; I had to go out to make a living. I worked for Roger's folks.
Q Who are they ? A They lived out west of town right close to Dr. Day's house.
Q You haven't got much idea of length of time ? A No sir.
Q You don't know much difference between one year and two years ?
A I told you I had to work for what I could get, and at one time it was all I could do to make a living for me and my children. I thought if I went down there and registered alright.

Examined by the Commission:

Q Where did you come from when you came to Muskogee to make application ? A I come from right here.
Q How did it happen that you gave Newkirk as your post office ?
A Because I knowed I was going there in March, and that was February. I had a lawyer employed up there, and he notified me to come up there, and I knowed that would be my post office until I could see what he was going to do.
Q You say Garrett was with you in Oklahoma ? A Yes sir.
Q Were you married then ? A Yes sir we married before we went over there.
Q Before you went to Oklahoma ? A Before me and him went to Oklahoma.
Q How long has it been since you and Garrett were in Oklahoma ?
A We went there the 4th day of March was a year ago.
Q After you were married ? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you stay there ? A We stayed there pretty near all summer.
Q How long did you stay in the Choctaw Nation ?
A About two months.
Q When you appeared before the Commission you were asked "Where were you living when you were married to your husband", (that is to your first husband); and you said "I was living in the Choctaw Nation". A No sir, my step-mother lives down there.
Q And the next question was "Was he down there"; and you answered "Yes sir". Question, "How long had he been down there", and you answered "About a year". Now you state you were there about two months; how long were you in the Choctaw Nation ?
A I wasn't there more than about two months.

Examined by Mr. Hastings:

Q How it is all a mistake about your living near Fort Gibson isn't it ? A No, I have lived there.
Q When did you live there ? A The first year we was married we come up there and stayed a couple of months, and then we come to Tulsa and went to work.
Q [illegible] a while ago you lived at Tulsa the first year ?
A [illegible] first year, we come up there about February, and worked until March, and then went up there to Tulsa.
Q Is that the only time you ever lived near Fort Gibson ?
A Yes sir.
Q You claim you lived about fourteen miles southwest of Fort Gibson with all them Mayes ? A We didn't live there long, we worked for them.
Q Chief Sam Mayes, don't you know he never lived close to Fort Gibson ?

[illegible] Creek ?

[illegible] A [illegible]

[illegible] and I went back here, and stayed over there, and I went back there, and stayed over there.

[illegible] testified that you lived here for two years.

A That's did. A That's what I say, I leased the place and came back here.

Q You said you lived there two years, and went to Furnee and stayed there four years, that would make six years.

A That wasn't out of the Territory.

Q Well that was in Oklahoma, wasn't that in Oklahoma ?

A Why of course.

Examined by the Commission:

Q What effects did you and Palmer have when you went to Oklahoma ?

A Why we went out there and took up land.

Q What did you take with you ? A A wagon and team, and some [illegible].

Q Did you take everything with you ? A No sir, we left some [illegible] at Red Fork. We left a house and lot at Red Fork.

Q Who did the house and lot belong to ? A My husband.

Q Did you leave anything in the house ? A No sir.

Q Did you take all your household effects with you ?

A Yes sir.

Examined by W. W. Hastings:

Q What became of your house and lot ? A I don't know, I never did go back to see about it.

Examined by the Commission:

Q Do you still own it ? A I don't know if I do or not, I never have looked after it.

Q Now when you Appeared before the Commission at Muskogee and applied for these children, and you made application to your post office address, you stated it was probable, and you were asked how long you had lived there in Oklahoma, and your answer was you were living there for two years before the strip payment, and the question was asked "Well then about two years before this payment was made you moved there", and you answered "Yes sir". The next question was "Have you been back here since then ?", and you answered "No sir, I live up there now, just from there".

A I never answered that question.

Q You didn't make that statement ? A No sir, I did not. All I have been out there at Oklahoma for was to see lawyers that was [illegible] my property there.

Q [illegible] you have been here at Vinita before you went to Muskogee [illegible] for these children ? A Three or four years.

Q [illegible] Quotinnowwie, and Margaret knows it [illegible]

Q [illegible] in ? A Go and ask Mr. Hastings, [illegible] I lived here, I bought groceries from Mr.

Q Is Dr. Day in town here ? A I don't know.
Q Don't he know how long you intend here ?
A He knows how long I [illegible] Davenport now long I [illegible] to [illegible] how long [illegible] and [illegible] me [illegible] and [illegible] me [illegible] and [illegible] me

[redacted]

Q [illegible] 6th of January?
[illegible] or did [illegible]
[illegible] you there?
[illegible] A [illegible] sir, [illegible]
[illegible].
Q [illegible] the children all [illegible]?
[illegible]
[illegible] the [illegible] in
[illegible]
Q Is [illegible] that [illegible] her complaint against you?
A No sir.
Q You never were advised? A No sir, her attorneys sent me some papers to sign up, and I signed them up and sent them back to Ballinger.
Q Did you have a farm at the time you and your wife separated?
A Yes sir.
Q How much of a farm did you own? A I expect somewhere in the neighborhood of three hundred acres in it.
Q Did you have a house in Chetopa? A No sir.
Q You rented a house? A Yes sir.
Q Is there anybody up there at Chetopa, Kansas, that you can prove these facts as you have stated them, about your wife leaving you?
A Yes sir.
Q Who? A I have got a sister, and some of the neighbors, they live right around home there. I left on Sunday evening to go to my work, and she left Monday I think sometime.

Before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes

In the matter of the application of Robt L Garrett

C.N. No. 856.

The applicant Robt L Garrett is a brother of Frederick Garrett whose case is fully briefed in number C.N. 495.

The Garrett family are Shawnee Indians by blood and are duly enrolled as such on the roll - of seven hundred and seventy two (772) names made in the Cherokee and Shawnee Agreement of 1869; and the only point in the case of these people is the contention of the Cherokee Nation that they forfeited their citizenship by residing for a time out of the Cherokee Nation; that this question is fully briefed in the case of Frederick Garrett C.N. Number 495, This case is submitted upon the brief in the case of the said Frederick Garrett C.N. Number 495.

Respectfully submitted,

Malcolm L Lewis

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Robert L. Garrett for the enrollment of himself and his minor children, Samuel, Robert L. Jr., and Calvin C. Garrett, as Cherokee citizens of Shawnee blood.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on November 21, 1900, Robert L. Garrett appeared before the Commission at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and his minor children, Samuel, Robert L. Jr., and Calvin C. Garrett, as Cherokee citizens of Shawnee blood. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on October 27, and November 10, 1902, and at Vinita, Indian Territory, on April 15, 1903. Proceedings had at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 23, 1901, in the matter of the application of Frederick Garrett for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, are filed with and made a part of the record herein.

Application was also made for the enrollment of Annie Garrett as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, but her status as such is not passed upon at this time and she is not embraced in this decision.

An examination of the records of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of this Commission, shows that Robert L. Garrett is a Shawnee Indian and is identified on a certain register of names as one of those who located in the Cherokee Nation under the terms of a treaty concluded between the Cherokee Nation and the Shawnee tribe of Indians on June 7, 1869, and approved by the President of the United States June 9, 1869. It further appears that he lived in the Cherokee Nation from 1871 to 1875; that he then returned to the State of Kansas and remained there for about thirteen years; that he then returned to the Cherokee Nation and lived there until about 1897. The evidence further shows that his wife Annie was married to him on October 17, 1885, and the above named children are the issue of that marriage. Thereafter in 1900, his said wife applied for and secured a divorce from the said Robert L. Garrett. Robert L. Garrett is identified on the Cherokee census rolls of 1890 and 1896; his children are identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that during the residence [illegible] principal applicant in Kansas, he owned [illegible] Cherokee Nation, and was engaged in business [illegible] said residence in Kansas being for the purpose of [illegible] children. It further appears that he subsequently removed to Oklahoma Territory. His residence in said State of Kansas [illegible] from his removal thereto in 1897, and later to said Oklahoma Territory, until the date of this application. The residence of the minor children, Robert L. Garrett Jr., and Calvin C. Garrett, is considered to be the same as that of their father. They, however, returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1899 and have continued to reside therein with their mother, who was divorced from their father, the principal applicant herein, as hereinbefore shown.

On April 14, 1903, there was filed with this Commission an affidavit, wherein it is shown that Samuel Garrett died on August 15, 1902. Said affidavit is made a part of the record herein.

Section twenty-five of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the decision of the Department in the case of Joseph D. Yeargain et al., (ITD. 2900-1903), Robert L. Garrett, Robert L. Garrett Jr., and Calvin C. Garrett should be enrolled as Cherokee citizens of Shawnee blood, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

It is further ordered that the application for the enrollment of Samuel Garrett, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Shawnee blood, be, and the same is, hereby dismissed.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Mr. Robert L. Garrett,

Chetopa, Kansas,

Sir:-

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself, your wife and three minor children for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the first day of March, 1902.

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of September 27, stating that Robert Lee Garrett, an applicant for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, was married in February, 1902, to Mary Palmer, and asking if it will be necessary to send certificate of marriage.

In reply, you are advised that when Robert Lee Garrett applied to this Commission for enrollment of himself and family as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, he gave the name of his wife as Annie. If Annie Garrett has died since the date of her application for enrollment, you are requested to have properly executed and forward to the Commission the enclosed affidavit as to her death.

The Commission knows of no reason why you should forward certificate of the marriage of Robert Lee Garrett and Mary Palmer.

Respectfully,

[illegible] Commissioner.

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of October 14, stating that you have, since the date of your application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, been divorced from your former wife, Annie Garrett, and that you are now married to Mary M. Palmour, heretofore an applicant for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

You are requested to supply the Commission with a certified copy of the decree of divorce granted you from your wife Annie; also original or certified copy of the marriage license and certificate, showing your marriage to Mary M. Palmour, in order that her name may be corrected upon the Commission's records.

The Dawes Commission,

Gentlemen:

I write you with reference to one Robert L. Garrett, a Shawnee Indian who will in all probability present himself for the puepose of allotting lands in the Cherokee Nation, in probability in Sec.5 Twp 27 R 22. This man will no doubt attempt to file not only for himself but also for two minor children, to-wit; Robert Lee Garrett, aged 11 years and Calvin Greyeme Garrett, aged 8 years; these are his children, but he does not have the custody of them, nor has not had for nearly two years; neither has he done anything toward their support for the last two years except contributed the total sum of $8.00.

Their mother Mrs. Annie Garrett has the custody and care of the said children and has had for nearly two years, and has supported them wholly except the $7.00 contributed. I will say that I am reliably informed that Mr. Garrett abandoned the children about two years ago, and that he has seen them but once within said time. An application has been made for appointment of the mother Mrs. Annie Garrett as guardian, so that she may receive the rents from their allotments for the support of the said children. It is expected that the appointment will be made by the Probate Commissioner at Vinita, I.T. within a few days.

Hoping that the interest of the minors may receive consideration, I am,

Very truly,

(signed) A. B. Bell.

Q Who do you say is the father of this child, Ira Jackson Collins?
A Clark L. Collins.
Q Is he living now? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge:—The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and two children: One of the children, Samuel Wofford, is a child of Than Wofford, to whom she is shown to have been married June 1, 1898. The other child, Ira Jackson Collins, is her child by Clark L. Collins, with whom she lived a number of years ago. She is a white woman. Her present husband, Than Wofford, is identified on the roll of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. No application is made for him as he is said to express an unwillingness to apply. He is identified on the roll of 1880 with a wife, Rose, who is well known to be dead at this time. The applicant has professed a lack of knowledge as to whether her husband was previously married. Reference to page 3 of the case of Clark L. Collins, shows a strong presumption of a common law marriage in the Cherokee Nation between the applicant and the man with whom she has lived. No divorce was ever obtained between the applicant and that man with whom she first lived, and therefore it is extremely doubtful whether her present marriage confers upon her any right of citizenship, and if not right is conferred upon her, no right is conferred upon the child of hers, Samuel. The applicant herself is not identified on the roll of 1896, nor is the child, Samuel, though it is old enough to be upon that roll, and her marriage occurred six years ago. Giving her the benefit of whatever doubt there is in the case, she will now be listed for enrollment upon a [illegible] card, she being classed as a Cherokee by adoption. And when a certificate of the birth of the child, Samuel, who as stated is not identified on the roll of 1896 is supplied to the Commission, this child, Samuel, will be listed as a Cherokee by blood, upon a doubtful card to await the determination of the status of his father, and a copy of this testimony will be filed with Case No. 678, the same being the case of Clark L. Collins et al., said Collins being, according to the testimony, the man with whom this woman lived as his wife for a number of years prior to her marriage to Wofford, and as she states, the first man with whom she ever lived in the professed relation of a wife.

J. O. Reason, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Samuel Wofford as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on December 13, 1900, Eliza Wofford appeared before the Commission at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by intermarriage and for the enrollment of her two minor children, Samuel Wofford and Ira Jackson Collins, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The application for the enrollment of Ira Jackson Collins is differently classified and he is not embraced in this decision. The application of Eliza Wofford as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation is not passed upon at this time nor are her rights defined in this decision. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Moodys, Indian Territory, on May 2, 1902, and at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on August 31, 1903.

The evidence shows that Samuel Wofford is the minor son of Eliza Wofford and Than Wofford, the latter a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The said Than Wofford is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; Samuel Wofford, the applicant herein, was born subsequent to said roll and is identified by birth affidavit made a part of the record herein.

The evidence further shows that Samuel Wofford has resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously with his father since birth.

Section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of all persons now living whose names are found upon the 1880 authenticated roll, and their descendants born since the date of said roll.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Samuel Wofford should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of law above quoted, and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Alice Bigheart for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on October 8, 1900, Alice Bigheart appeared before the Commission at Bartlesville, Indian Territory, and made application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

The evidence shows that Alice Bigheart is a Cherokee by blood and is identified as such by the name of Alice Grass on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll and under her present name on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

The evidence further shows that she resided in the Cherokee Nation all her life up to about 1892; that in 1887 she married James Bigheart, a member of the Osage tribe of Indians, and that since 1892 she and her said husband have lived in the Osage Nation, Oklahoma; that she has never severed her tribal relations with the Cherokee Indians nor assumed the citizenship of her husband in the Osage Nation, nor is it shown that she has ever removed with her effects from the Cherokee Nation. It does appear, however, that she has maintained possession and control of a farm in the Cherokee Nation continuously since 1887, which was prior to her removal to the Osage Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission, following the decision of the Department in the case of Clement C. Clarke, et al., (I.T.D. 1370-1903), that Alice Bigheart should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Mrs. Alice Bigheart,

Pawhuska, Oklahoma,

Madam:-

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself

for enrollment as citizen of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the first day of March, 1902

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

Commission of the Five Civilized Tribes,
MUSCOGEE, I.T.

Gentlemen,-

Referring to your several letters, dated Nov. 24, 1902, Cherokee D-542, 557, 567, 568, 708, concerning certain parties who have filed applications for enrollment on the cherokee roll, I have to advise you as follows:

Alice Bigheart, who I think is the wife of James Bigheart is not enrolled on the Osage roll.

I do not know Mack Taylor. He is not on the Osage roll.

Lorinda Pettit is not enrolled on the Osage rolls, nor is she recognized as an Osage. If she is the wife of S.W. Pettit, her children by him are enrolled as Osages.

John B. Johnson is not on Osage roll; his present wife and her children are.

Wellington Rogers, his two minor step-children, Claude J. and Mary M. Hicks, his minor child Ruby L. Rogers, and his wife, Dora E. Rogers are not enrolled on the Osage roll. Wellington Rogers' children by his first wife, who was an Osage, are carried on the Osage roll.

Very respectfully,

J A Mitchell

1880 roll, examined for applicant; page 770 #1438 Noah Morton, Goingsnake District.
1894 roll, page 678 #1365 Noah Morton, Goingsnake District.
1896 roll, for child, page 770 #1436 Babe Morton, Goingsnake District.
Applicant states that his father was a white man.
1880 roll page 184 #1178 Aaron Morton, Delaware.

My mother went before the Clerk of Goingsnake District and made an affidavit to me as Buck Morton's child.

John H. Morton being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles testifies as follows:

Q What is your name? A John H. Morton.
Q What is your age? A Forty-four.
Q What is your post-office? A Remy.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Noah Morton for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Babe Morton, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on August 13, 1900, Noah Morton appeared before the Commission at Muldrow, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Babe Morton, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

The evidence shows that the said Noah Morton is a Cherokee by blood, and is identified upon the 1894 Cherokee strip payment roll, as well as upon the 1896 Cherokee census roll. It further appears that the said Babe Morton is the minor daughter of Noah Morton, and is also identified on the 1896 Cherokee census roll.

The evidence further shows that the applicant, Noah Morton, has resided in the Cherokee Nation from childhood up to and including June 28, 1898; and the residence of the said Babe Morton is considered to have been in the Cherokee Nation since her birth.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Noah Morton and Babe Morton should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
MUSKOGEE, I.T., FEBRUARY [illegible] 1901.

In the matter of the application of Mansfield Lynch for the enrollment of himself and child as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said Lynch being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testifies as follows:

Q What is your name? A Mansfield Lynch.
Q How old are you? A 30 years old.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Watova.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q By blood or intermarriage? A Intermarriage.
Q Who do you desire to enroll? A Myself and one child.
Q Are you married now? A My wife is dead.
Q What was her name before you married her? A Rosy May Cumiford.
Q When were you married to her? A '93.
Q Have you any certificate of your marriage? A Yes, sir.

Com'r. Needles:- Applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and marriage certificate certifying that he was married to one Miss Rosy May Cumiford, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation in the year 1893.

Q When did your wife die? A She died the 11th of January.
Q Was she your first wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you her first husband? A Yes sir.
Q Did you live with her continuously from the time you married her until she died? A Yes sir.
Q Never separated? A A No-sir.
Q What is the name of your child? A Luci le.
Q How old is she? A Seven months old.
Q What was the age of your wife when she died? A She was going on her 16th year when I married her.
Q How old was she when she died? A 23.
Q What is her father's name? A Pleas Cumiford.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her mother's name? A She signs her name L. C.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q Have you any certificate of her admission? A Yes sir.
Q Please present it. A You fellers have got it.

Com'r Needles: On file among the papers in the case of Plaintiff Cumiford, D)#771, is found a certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship dated at Tahlequah on the 28th day of January, 1880, signed by W. T. [illegible], Chairman of the Commission on Citizenship, attested by C. C. [illegible], Clerk of the Committee, approved and endorsed by J. B. Mayes, Principal Chief, issued under the seal of the Cherokee Nation; certifying that among other one Rosy May Cumiford was admitted to Cherokee citizenship on the 26th day of February, 18[illegible].

Q In this certificate I find the name of Rosy May Cumiford as she the identical person whom you claim to have married? A Yes sir.
Q She is now dead? A Yes sir.

Tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicants' names found thereon as follows:
1896 Census Roll; page 197, #2759, Rosa M. Lynch, Cooweescoowee district.

1896 Census Roll; page 313, #618, Mansfield Lynch, C[illegible] district.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A [illegible] years.
Q You wife was admitted in 1867, do you know when she came to the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, I do not.
Q How long did you live in the Cherokee Nation continuously to your knowledge? A About 11 years I guess.

By W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Representative:

Q How far is Watoba from Claremore? A Well, sir, I think they call it 25 miles.
Q How far from Nowata? A It is about six miles.
Q How far is it from Chelsea? A About twenty miles.
Q And how far from Bartlesville? A I think they call it about 18 miles.
Q Why did you not come to one of these points to enroll? A My wife at that time was paralyzed and could not move and I had to stay with her all the time.

W. W. Hastings: Because of the reasons set forth in the case of Pleasant Cumiford, D. #771, charging him with having obtained his re-admission to citizenship together with that of his family in the Cherokee Nation by fraud, the representatives of the Cherokee Nation protest against the enrollment of Mansfield Lynch and his child, Lucile.

Com'r Needles: The name of Mansfield Lynch is found upon the census roll of 1896 and he makes satisfactory proof of his marriage according to the laws of the Cherokee Nation to one Rosy May Cumiford, claimed to be a citizen by blood, in the year 1893, and the name of Rosy May Lynch is found upon the census roll of 1896. Applicant avers that his wife is now deceased. The result of marriage is one child, Lucile, seven months of age, whose name does not appear upon the census roll of 1896, but he presents satisfactory proof of its birth. The parties are duly identified and make satisfactory proof as to residence, but by reason of the protest of the Cherokee Nation by its representatives, final [illegible] ment as to the enrollment of Mansfield Lynch as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage and his child, Lucile, as a Cherokee citizen by blood, will be suspended and their names will be placed upon a doubtful card.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Mansfield Lynch for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his child, Lucile, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on February 26, 1901, Mansfield Lynch appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his minor child, Lucile Lynch, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on March 20, 1902, and on October 7, 1902. The proceedings in the matter of the application of Pleasant Cumiford, Cherokee D-771, had at Claremore, Indian Territory, on November 9, 1900, and at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on December 15, 1900, are filed with this case and made a part of the record herein.

The evidence shows that Mansfield Lynch was lawfully married, under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, on December 3, 1893, to Rosa May Cumiford. An examination of the records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission, show that the said Rosa May Cumiford was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, on February 26, 1887. She died in January, 1901. Lucile Lynch is the issue of the aforesaid marriage. Mansfield Lynch is identified on the Cherokee Census Roll of 1896, and his child, Lucile, is identified by a birth affidavit, made a part of the record herein.

The evidence further shows that the said Mansfield Lynch lived in the Cherokee Nation continuously from the date of his marriage to his wife, Rosa May, until her death, and that he has resided therein ever since, and had not remarried up to and including September 1, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Mansfield Lynch should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and that Lucile Lynch should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Vinita I. T. Feb 7th 1906.

In the matter of the application of Mansfield Lynch for enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage and for his child Lucile as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Cherokee D 1122.

Protest of the Cherokee Nation.

Comes now the Cherokee nation and respectfully protests against the decision of the Commission rendered in this case on February 2nd 1906 and asks that the same be forwarded to the Honorable Secretary of the Interior for review.

The testimony in this case shows that the principal applicant Mansfield Lynch is a white man; that he was married to Rosa M. Cumiford in the year 1893 and that the other applicant in this case Lucile Lynch is a child born of this union.

Rosa May Cumiford is a daughter of Pleasant Cumiford listed for enrollment on Cherokee Doubtful card Number 771; Pleasant Cumiford and his family including Rosa M. the deceased wife of Mansfield Lynch were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on the 28th day of January 1896 by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship.

The act of Congress approved June 28th 1898 especially authorizing this Commission in Section 21:

"To investigate the right of all other persons whose names are found on any roll and omit all such whose names have been placed thereon [illegible] or without authority of law enrolling only such as may have lawful right thereto."

Now the testimony of Pleasant Cumiford on file in this case where he appeared before the Commission on November 9, 1900 is that the only witness before the Cherokee Court in 1896 that admitted him was one Watt Christie. When Cumiford was asked the name of his mother he gave it as Rachel Fields through whom he claimed his Cherokee blood and when asked through whom his mother claimed her Cherokee blood her father or her mother he answered "I could not tell you." In fact he showed a complete ignorance of his family history and said that Watt Christie who was an old man and who lived near Tahlequah was the only witness he had before the Commission and when asked who else he had he answered "He was the only man I needed." And when asked whether or not he gave Watt Christie any consideration to testify for him he perjured himself by saying no and denied that he gave him a horse and he reiterated that watt Christie was the only witness that testified in his case.

The Cherokee Nation having been advised of the means by which the said Pleasant Cumiford procured this fraudulent testimony in 1888 examined the said Watt Christie before the Commission who testified that he never knew either the father or mother of the said Pleasant Cumiford and that he never knew the said Pleasant Cumiford until he came to get him to testify for him and in fact he did not know him at that time and knew nothing whatever of the family history except what Cumiford told him and he further stated that Cumiford gave him a horse to testify for him
Now this is the clearest case of the procurement of admission to cherokee citizenship by fraud that has come to our knowledge. Cumiford does not come upon the stand to attempt to deny what Watt Christie stated. He knew nothing of his Cherokee ancestors and he says that Watt Christie is the only witness of any importance that he had and watt Christie comes before the Commission and confesses that he knew nothing whatever about the ancestors of Pleasant Cumiford the fatherof the wife of Greenfield Lynch; he says that he never saw the father or mother of Pleasant Cumiford in his life.

Now in the case of Pleasant Cumiford Cherokee D 771, there was introduced the original testimony of this same Watt Christie that was introduced before the Cherokee Citizenship Commission in 1888, at that time he swore that he was a relative of Cumiford mother Rachel Fisher and that she was three-fourths Cherokee and that she had a child six or seven years old, a boy, and that her name should appear upon certain rolls of the Cherokee Nation and that she went off with a white man. Now the old man swears that he never knew the mother of Pleasant Cumiford and that Pleasant Cumiford gave him a horse to swear for him and the reputation of the said Watt Christie before the various Cherokee Citizenship commissions was thoroughly impeached by William T. Hastings who says that he has had occasion to make diligent inquiry as to the reputation of Watt Christie and that his reputation for veracity was universally bad; that he represented the Cherokee Nation at one time when he took testimony upon this point from numerous prominent citizens of the Cherokee Nation. James S. Davenport testifies that his reputation was bad. J. G. Starr and W. W. Hastings both know him personally and know his reputation for truth and veracity and they know that he was used by fraudulent claimants to testify in any citizenship case in which his testimony was desired. The old man now dead came before the Commission and acknowledged that he had testified falsely and for a consideration for Pleasant Cumiford and we contend that it is the duty of the Commission not to permit these applicants to take advantage of their own wrong and if they were really admitted by perjured testimony procured by them at their instance that their names should be omitted from the rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

If the Government of the United States can not protect the Cherokee Nation against this kind of a fraud then we say it was useless for Congress to have inserted this provision in section 21 of the Curtis Bill.

Congress clearly intended that the Commission and the Secretary of the Interior should have plenary power to thoroughly investigate all persons admitted since 1902 and it was intended that authority should be conferred by the Curtis Bill to correct all wrongs and to enroll only such as were lawfully and equitably entitled to be so enrolled. In other words the Commission was to sit as a high court of equity and commanded by its own rules to see that no injustice was done the Cherokee Nation and to make a correct roll of persons equitably entitled to be so enrolled.

If the Honorable Secretary of the Interior sustains us in this view, and we believe it correct, then we contend that the applicants should not be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. Hastings

Attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

Q You don't know anything about your people any further back than your mother? A No, that is all.
Q And Watt Christie is theonly witness who testified to the material facts in your case? A That is a fact sir; he was the man.
MR. HASTINGS: I protest, then, in behalf of the Cherokee Nation, and ask that this application be held up.
THE COMMISSIONER: Are these children all alive and living with you at that time? A Yes sir.
THE COMMISSIONER: The name of Pleasant Cumiford appears upon the census roll of 1896, and he presents a certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship duly signed and under seal, which certificate is filed herewith. The name of his wife, Letha C., appears upon the census roll of 1896 as well as the names of his children Robert S. Henry S., Julia A., Benjamin, Beula C., and Watt, and he presents satisfactory proof as to a younger child, Margarette, whose name does not appear upon the census roll. He makes satisfactory proof as to his residence and is fully identified. Comes the Cherokee Nation, and by its representative, and presents against the enrollment of the said Pleasant Cumiford and his family. By reason of the protest final judgment as to the enrollment of the said Pleasant Cumiford and his said children will be suspended, and their names will be placed upon a doubtful card.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of his wife, Letha C.; he avers that he was married to her before he was admitted to Cherokee citizenship and her name does not appear in said certificate, nor is there any evidence produced that she was admitted to citizenship. Consequently the application for the enrollment of his wife will be rejected.

The undersigned being sworn, states that as Stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this application for enrollment, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is inclosed herewith, a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 15, 1905, transmitting the record relative to the application of Mansfield Lynch, et al., for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

Mansfield Lynch applied for the enrollment of himself as an intermarried citizen and for the enrollment of his minor child, Lucile Lynch, as a citizen by blood.

February 2, 1905, the Commission held that the applicants were entitled to enrollment -- Mansfield Lynch as an intermarried citizen, and Lucile Lynch as a citizen by blood.

The Cherokee Nation protests against the Commission's decision.

The record in this case shows that Mansfield Lynch was lawfully married to Rosa May Cumiford December 5, 1893, in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Rosa May Cumiford was admitted to citizenship in the nation by the tribal authorities February 26, 1897, and the minor applicant is the issue of this marriage.

Gentlemen:

February 12, 1903, you submitted the case involving the application for enrollment of Mansfield Lynch as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his child, Lucile Lynch, as a citizen by blood of said nation.

February 2, 1903, you rendered your decision in the case holding that the applicants should be enrolled.

October 29, 1903, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, reporting in the matter, recommended that your decision be approved so far as it relates to Lucile Lynch, but that the rights of Mansfield Lynch, as an intermarried citizen, be not passed upon until the Court of Claims shall render its opinion pertaining to the cases submitted to it by the Department February 24, 1903, relative to persons claiming citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage.

Your decision is hereby affirmed as to Lucile Lynch.

The case will be held for future action upon the application of Mansfield Lynch.

A copy of Indian Office letter of October 29, 1903, is inclosed.

Respectfully,

Assistant Secretary.

SUPPLEMENTAL in the matter of the enrollment of PHEASANT CUMFORD, ET AL., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

The applicant was notified by registered letter February 18, 1902, that his application for the enrollment of himself and minor children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation would be taken up for final consideration by the Commission at its offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 8th day of March, 1902, and that on said day he might appear before the Commission either in person or by attorney when an opportunity would be given him to introduce any further testimony affecting his application. The applicant having this day, to-wit: the 8th day of March, 1902, been called three times and failing to respond either in person or by attorney, the case is considered completed and will be reported to the Commission for final decision based upon the evidence now of record.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Pleasant Cumiford, et.al., for enrollment as Cherokee citizens consolidating the applications of:

Pleasant Cumiford, et. al. . . .Cherokee D 791
Letha C. Cumiford, ...Cherokee R 364.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in these cases shows that on November 9, 1900, Pleasant Cumiford appeared before the Commission at Claremore, Indian Territory, and then and there made application for the enrollment of himself and his children, Robert S., Henry S., Julia A., Benjamin F., Beulah C., Watt and Margarette Cumiford, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife, Letha C. Cumiford, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. On December 15, 1900, further proceedings were had at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, relative to this application.

The evidence shows that Pleasant Cumiford and his four children, Robert S., Henry S., Benjamin F. and Julia A., were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on February 26, 1887. He had been previously married to his wife, Letha C., in 1876 or '77. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. The said Pleasant Cumiford, his wife, Letha C., and the above named children, excepting the youngest, are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. An examination of the tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, shows that Pleasant Cumiford and his four older children are identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894. The youngest child, Margarette, is too young to be upon any roll, but she is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said Pleasant Cumiford and the four children admitted with him have resided in the Cherokee Nation since the date of such admission. The residence of the wife, Letha C., is necessarily that of the husband. It further appears that all of the applicants herein were residents of the Cherokee Nation at the date of this application.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Pleasant Cumiford, Robert S. Cumiford, Henry S. Cumiford, Julia A. Cumiford, Benjamin F. Cumiford, Beulah C. Cumiford, Watt Cumiford and Margarette Cumiford should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that Letha C. Cumiford should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of Motion for Rehearing.

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and moves the Commission for a rehearing in the above case for the reason that the testimony conclusively shows that the applicant Pleasant Cumiford obtained his citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by means of bribery and perjured testimony.

The testimony shows that his only witness before the Commission in 1887 when he was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation was one Watt Christie who the applicant avers knew his grand parents and his ancestors; knew that he was a Cherokee by blood and in fact it was upon Watt Christie's testimony alone that the applicant was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation because the applicant himself did not know through whom he derived his Cherokee blood and nothing back of his grand parents of his own people.

Watt Christie his witness was introduced at Tahlequah who swore that he never knew the applicant until he came to get him to testify for him. That he never knew that he was a Cherokee by blood; that he did not know his parents and that the applicant gave him a horse to testify for him before the Commission in 1887. If it be true that Watt Christie was the only witness of importance for Pleasant Cumiford as he himself admits and if Watt Christie did not know any thing of his ancestors he did not know the applicant himself until the time that the applicant was admitted, then the applicant was admitted wholly upon perjured testimony secured by bribing his witness Watt Christie with a horse and we do not believe that the attention of the Commission was called to this phase of the case because we can not believe that the Commission would admit the applicant if their attention was called in the first [illegible]

MOTION TO REOPEN CAUSE.

STATEMENT OF RECORDS.

The record in this case shows that on November 9, 1900, Pleasant Cumiford appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Claremore, Indian Territory, and made personal application for the enrollment of himself and children, Robert S. Cumiford, Henry S. Cumiford, Julia A. Cumiford, Benjamin F. Cumiford, Beulah C. Cumiford, Watt Cumiford and Margarette Cumiford, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife, Letha C. Cumiford, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, December 15, 1900, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 8, 1902. On the 11th day of August, 1902, the Commission rendered a decision granting the application of Pleasant Cumiford for the enrollment of himself and children as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife as a citizen by intermarriage, of the Cherokee Nation.

Under date of August 26, 1902, the Cherokee Nation, by its representative, filed a motion to reopen cause, alleging that Pleasant Cumiford procured his admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by fraud and deceit.

ORDER.

It is, therefore, ordered by this Commission that the motion to reopen this case be, and the same is hereby allowed, and that the decision of the Commission, heretofore rendered, be set aside and held for naught.

It is further ordered that this cause be set down for further hearing at the office of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 31 day of October 1902.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, I. T., October 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Pleasant Cumiford for the enrollment of himself and his children, Robert S. Cumiford, Henry S. Cumiford, Julia A. Cumiford, Benjamin F. Cumiford, Beulah C. Cumiford, Watt Cumiford and Margaret Cumiford, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife, Letha C. Cumiford, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

It appears from the record in this case that under date of August 11, 1902, the Commission rendered a decision in the consolidated case of Pleasant Cumiford, et al., Cherokee D 771, and Letha C. Cumiford, Cherokee R 364, granting the application of Pleasant Cumiford for the enrollment of himself and his children, Robert S. Cumiford, Henry S. Cumiford, Julia A. Cumiford, Benjamin F. Cumiford, Beulah C. Cumiford, Watt Cumiford and Margaret Cumiford, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Letha C. Cumiford, as a citizen by intermarriage, of the Cherokee Nation.

Under date of August 26, 1902, the Cherokee Nation filed with the Commission a motion for a rehearing, alleging that Pleasant Cumiford obtained his citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by means of bribery and perjured testimony.

Under date of October 15, 1902, it was ordered by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that the motion of the Cherokee Nation to reopen the case be, and the same is, allowed, and that the decision of the Commission theretofore rendered be set aside and held for naught, and it was further ordered that this cause be set down for further hearing at the office of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 31st day of October, 1902.

It further appears that under date of October 16, 1902, Pleasant Cumiford and the representative of the Cherokee Nation were furnished with a copy of the order of the Commission reopening the case, and notified that the same would be set down for further hearing at the offices of the Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 31st day of October, 1902.

Comes now the representative of the Cherokee Nation and moves that this cause be continued until November 10, 1902, for the reason that the Cherokee Nation was unable on this date to introduce the witnesses that were subpoenaed.

The motion of the Cherokee Nation will be entertained and the case set down for hearing at the offices of the Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on November 10, 1902, and the Cherokee Nation will be required to make satisfactory proof of service on the applicant before the testimony will be heard.

In the matter of the application of Pleasant Bamford for the enrollment of himself and children, Robert S., Henry S., Julia A., Benjamin F., Beulah C., Watt and Marguerite Bamford, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

J.C.Starr, being sworn and examined by the Cherokee representative, W. W. Hastings, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A J. C. Starr.
Q Are you stenographer for the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if you have tried to get service upon the applicant? A Yes sir., I have; I have been trying to locate the applicant in this case and received letters from S. H. Mayes at Pryorcreek and A. Foyil at Foyil, I. T., and have been advised by these parties that they do not know where the applicant now lives.
Q Did he give his postoffice address at Pryorcreek in the original application? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever send notice to Pryorcreek? A I sent notice to S. H. Mayes at Pryorcreek and he returned it and said he didn't know where he was.
By Mr. Hastings: Comes now the Cherokee Nation and moves to be permitted to take testimony in this case for the reason that service cannot be had upon the applicant as provided for by the rules established by the Dawes Commission.
By the Commission: The motion will be granted and the testimony taken.

William T. Hutchings, being sworn and examined, testified as follows:
By W.W.Hastings: What is your name? A William T. Hutchings.
Q What is your postoffice? A Muskogee.
Q Were you attorney for the Cherokee Nation in citizenship matters in 1896? A I was.
Q Do you remember about how many applications were filed at that time for enrollment before the Dawes Commission? A About five thousand.
Q I will ask you if Wat Christie was a witness in a great many of these cases at that time? A He was a witness in a very large number of cases that were filed before the Commission at that time, and a witness in a very large number of cases previously presented to the Cherokee authorities.
Q I will ask you if you made any investigation to ascertain his reputation throughout the country for truth and veracity? A I did ask I expect possible about one hundred people about him at Tahlequah and elsewhere at that time and since.
Q I will ask you what that reputation was, good or bad? A I found his reputation for veracity was universally bad. I will say that I took the affidavits of prominent citizens of the Cherokee Nation, saying that and they are on file before the Commission in Cherokee citizenship cases.
By the Commission: Do you know where Mr. Christie resided during the year 1896? A I do not. I believe it was very many Tahlequah. I infer that from this fact, that one or two people who had appeared before the Commission told me that they were going out after his affidavit and they took horse and buggies and went out there and I don't think it was very far from there.
(Starr's note: Your last above question is "Same.")

[illegible]

[illegible] being sworn and examined, testified as follows:

By W. W. Hastings: What is your name? A [illegible]

Q Your postoffice is Vinita? A Yes sir.

Q You are a practicing attorney? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if you were one of the [illegible] Cherokee Nation in citizenship matters in 1896? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if during that time [illegible] and since that time, both in the representation of the Cherokee Nation and in the practice of law and otherwise were you generally regarded as [illegible] quite a good deal? A Yes sir, I suppose I may be an average of being in Tahlequah at least one a month for the last five years; often I stayed there for thirty days at a time.

Q I will ask you if you were well acquainted with the people in and around Tahlequah? A Yes sir, I have a general knowledge in and throughout Tahlequah District.

Q I will ask you if you are acquainted with the reputation of an old Cherokee man residing near Tahlequah by the name of Pat Christie? A Yes sir, I am.

Q I will ask you what that reputation is, whether it is good or bad in connection with citizenship matters? A The reputation with regards to truth was bad; in fact his reputation was that he would make an affidavit to anything for compensation.

Q I will ask you if he was generally known as a citizenship witness? A Yes sir. The year before Congress gave the Dawes Commission power to pass upon citizenship there were several that met, on anything that came up, Pat came in with an affidavit. In 1896 when the Commission was there I am satisfied that out of the five thousand cases he gave one hundred and fifty affidavits in different cases.

Q Did you ever talk with Pat Christie with reference to his being a witness in citizenship cases? A Yes sir, I did in September, 1896.

Q Did he acknowledge that he was generally paid a small consideration for testifying? A Yes, he said he got a dollar, $1.50 to $2.00.

J. C. Starr recalled and examined by W. W. Hastings:

Q Your name is ——— A J. C. Starr, and the witness, postoffice Vinita, I. T.

Q You are a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if you were born in [illegible] Cherokee National counties, but grew to [illegible]

Q I will ask you if you were personally acquainted with [illegible]

Q Do you know anything about his reputation for testifying in citizenship cases, I mean his reputation for veracity? A Yes sir.

Q Testifying before Citizenship Commissions and Court? A Yes sir.
Q What is his reputation? A His reputation for truth and veracity in citizenship cases is very bad. I was a member of a Citizenship Committee prior to 1896 for about two terms and I know the Committee disregarded his testimony entirely.
Q Paid no attention to it? A Paid no attention to it.
Q Wasn't his reputation most exceedingly bad? A Yes sir.
Q Was his testimony disregarded? A Yes sir, disregarded by the Senate Committee on Citizenship.
Q Do you know Pleasant Gumiford, the applicant? A Yes sir.
Q How near did he live to you up there? A Lived within about two miles from where I lived on Cowskin Prairie.
Q Did he have a brother up there? A Yes sir.
Q Did he claim citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, not to my knowledge.

By Mr. Hastings: For the purpose of showing the contradiction in the testimony of Wat Christie whom applicant alleges testified in his behalf before the Commission which admitted him on January 20, 1888, the Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the original testimony, taken from the files of the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation, of Wat Christie in the case of Pleasant Gumiford vs. the Cherokee Nation, and desires to call the attention of the Commission to the fact that in his orignal testimony Wat Christie testified that applicant's mother was Rachel Fisher; that she was a relative of his; that she lived near him; that she had one child and that he recognised the applicant as that child. Whereas, in his testimony before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on December 15, 1900, Christie said that he didn't know Pleasant Gumiford's mother, neither did he know his father, and that he didn't know anything whatever about the applicant except what the applicant himself had told him, and that the applicant had given him a horse to testify for him; and he further testified that he didn't know Pleasant Gumiford when he came there, meaning when he came there to get him to testify for him.

W.W. Hastings, being sworn and examined, testified as follows: My name is W. W. Hastings, my postoffice is Tahlequah; I am the attorney for the Cherokee Nation before the Dawes Commission in the matter of Cherokee citizenship. I have been connected with Cherokee citizenship for the Cherokee Nation since about 1893 almost continuously. I knew Wat Christie personally; he is now dead, having died this year some time. He lived around Tahlequah most of the time with his daughter who is Sam Manus' wife. He was quite an old full-blood and was used before every citizenship commission and the committees of the Council and before the Dawes Commission in 1896 by all designing fraudulent citizenship attorneys and by fraudulent citizenship applicants, and his reputation throughout the whole of the Cherokee Nation I might say, and particularly in and about Tahlequah, his home, was universally bad for testifying falsely in citizenship cases for truth and veracity. His testimony was not regarded at all by any of those people in authority, and I have found perhaps only this one case where any applicant was admitted upon the sole testimony of Wat Christie, and the only way I can account for them being admitted in this one was because this case was among the first cases that that Court admitted and they were perhaps not at that time quite acquainted with the reputation of Wat Christie ~~for truth and veracity~~. I have talked with Wat Christie during his lifetime, and a number of times, about this case, and I remember a conversation I had with Christie while Pleasant Gumiford appeared before the Commission at Claremore for enrollment, and from my recollection of it I asked whether or not he hadn't given Christie a horse to testify for him. Christie told

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Pleasant Cumiford et al., for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on November 9, 1900, Pleasant Cumiford appeared before the Commission at Claremore, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and his minor children, Robert S., Henry S., Julia A., Benjamin F., Beulah C., Watt and Margarette Cumiford, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on December 15, 1900, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on October 31, and November 11, 1902. The application also included the enrollment of Letha Cumiford as a citizen by intermarriage, but her status as such is not passed upon at this time nor is she embraced in this decision. The record further shows that on August 11, 1902, this Commission rendered its decision, wherein Pleasant Cumiford and his minor children were enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Thereafter on August 26, 1902, the Cherokee Nation, through its legal representatives, filed with this Commission a motion for rehearing, and on September 17, the Commission allowed said motion to reopen and this cause was set down for further hearing at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on October 31, 1902.

The evidence shows that Pleasant Cumiford and four children, Robert S., Henry S., Julia A. and Benjamin F. Cumiford, were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, on February 26, 1887, by a duly and legally appointed commission on citizenship of said nation. The other applicants, Beulah C., Watt and Margarette Cumiford, were born subsequent to their said father's admission to citizenship as hereinbefore shown, and are his children by his wife Letha, and both the respective descendants of said Pleasant Cumiford, under the rule announced by the Department in the case of Martha J. Hill et al., (I.T.D. 3886-1903), said descendants being residents of the Cherokee Nation, are considered to have acquired the status of their said ancestor. All the applicants herein are identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896, except Margarette Cumiford, who is duly identified by a birth affidavit made a part of the record herein. It is further shown that Pleasant Cumiford has lived in the Cherokee nation continuously since his admission to citizenship therein, and his residence is considered to govern that of the minor applicants herein.

The Cherokee Nation alleges that the judgment admitting Pleasant Cumiford was procured "by means of bribery and perjured testimony." The right of the Cherokee Nation, acting through its duly constituted tribunals to confer citizenship upon whomsoever it saw fit, has always been recognized; provided, said tribunals were acting within their jurisdiction and their judgments were not procured by fraud. This Commission holds to the view that the judgments of a duly constituted Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, if valid, should be given full faith and credit upon the question therein adjudicated, if the same were within its jurisdiction.

As will be seen from the motion for rehearing, the Cherokee Nation does not attack the jurisdiction of the Commission on Citizenship, but relies solely upon the alleged fact that the admission of Cumiford was procured "by means of bribery and perjured testimony." The only question, it appears, to be determined herein is whether the judgment admitting said Cumiford was so procured. It is a well settled rule of law that fraud will not be presumed but must be clearly proven by the party alleging it. It is especially necessary that the proof be clear when the solemn written judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction is sought to be impeached by fraud.

In their allegation charging bribery the Cherokee Nation relies upon the fact that one Watt Christie, a Cherokee Indian, the only witness before the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship in behalf of Pleasant Cumiford, was given a horse by said Cumiford. The transaction, standing alone as it does with not the slightest scintilla of proof to show that it was in consideration of the said Watt Christie perjuring himself, the Commission must incline to the belief that it was purely a business transaction, and that upon the showing made, fraud does not exist. In their charge of bribery the Cherokee Nation makes the charge but adduces no proof in substantiation thereof; neither do they attack the jurisdiction or the integrity of the Commission admitting Cumiford. They do not show that a bribe was either offered to or accepted by the Commission on Citizenship to influence their action in the premises, nor is it shown that any bribe was offered to or accepted by Watt Christie which prompted the testimony given by him before the Commission, and it is not shown that said Christie was suborned by said Cumiford.

In the absence of any proof tending to show subornation of perjury or the practice of fraud upon the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship in the procurment of the judgment rendered in favor of the principal applicant, Cumiford, and granting to said Cumiford the rights of Cherokee citizenship, this Commission is constrained to accept said judgment as being a valid and legal determination of that tribunal. The effect of the judgment is not at all dependent upon the correctness of the verdict or finding upon which it was rendered. It not being set aside by subsequent proceedings, by appeal or otherwise, it is equally effective as an estoppel upon the points decided,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

C O P Y. OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON, March 12, 1904.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith for the consideration of the Department the record of the proceedings had before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the matter of the application of Pleasant Cumiford for the enrollment of himself and his minor children, Robert S., Henry S., Julia A., Benjamin F., Beulah C., Watt, and Margarette Cumiford, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. It further appears that the name of Letha Cumiford was included in said application as a citizen by intermarriage, but that her status as such is not passed upon at this time and she is not embraced in this decision.

On January 22, 1904, the Commission rendered a final decision in this case, from which it appears that on August 11, 1902, the Commission rendered a decision herein enrolling the said Pleasant Cumiford and his minor children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation; that afterward on August 20, 1902, the Cherokee Nation through its legal representatives filed a motion with the Commission for a rehearing and that of September 17, 1902, and [illegible]

hearing of the case [illegible]

The Commission is [illegible]

dence that Pleasant Cumiford and his [illegible]

Robert S., Henry B., Julia A., and [illegible]

to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on [illegible]

a duly and legally appointed Commission to [illegible]

Nation, and that the other children were born [illegible]

the said admission of their father and are considered [illegible] acquired and taken his status. The Commission further finds that all of the applicants are identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896 except Margarette Cumiford, who is duly identified by a birth affidavit made a part of the record herein. The Commission further finds that the said Pleasant

Cumiford has resided in the Cherokee Nation constantly since his said admission to citizenship therein. Said decision of the Commission then takes up the charges of the Cherokee Nation to the effect that said judgement of admission was procured by means of bribery and perjured testimony. The Commission finds that the Cherokee Nation does not attack the jurisdiction of the Commission on citizenship, but relies solely upon the charge that the admission of this applicant and his said children, admitted with him, was procured by means of bribery and perjured testimony, and the Commission considers that the only question to be determined is as to whether or not said judgement was so procured. The Commission then sets out in its said decision a short review of the testimony, reaching the conclusion that the nation has failed to show that said

[illegible] applicant and [illegible] by blood of the Cherokee Nation [illegible] visions of section 21 of the act of Congress approved 1898 (30 Stats., 495).

Attached to the record is a protest of [illegible] Nation to said decision of the Commission, wherein the mony submitted is reviewed at length and a rehearing appeal made to the Department to have the said decision Commission reversed. Inasmuch as the question of [illegible] the sole basis for this protest the attention of the Department is invited to the first paragraph of section 21 of the act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats 495), relative to the provision determining who shall be enrolled as Cherokee citizens. Said paragraph after affirming the Cherokee roll of 1880 authorizes the Commission to enroll ("all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents by reason of their Cherokee blood, have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted"). I am never certain that I know what this part of said section 21 means, for I do not consider that its meaning can be determined with any satisfaction from the wording contained therein. At first glance it appears to refer to but one class of persons, but I am quite certain that a proper construction of the phrase shows that two classes of persons were thereby intended to be enrolled, [illegible]

by the tribal [illegible] settlement in the [illegible]
("All persons) those parents [illegible] have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities and who were minors when their parents were so admitted".

Whether I am correct or not in this construction it is quite evident that the principal applicant in this case and his four children who were admitted by the tribal authorities, come within its provisions and are entitled to be enrolled as Cherokee citizens by reason thereof. It will be noticed that there is no exception made in regard to this class of persons and all are to be enrolled without regard to the manner in which they were admitted by the tribal authorities whether through fraud or otherwise. Said paragraph of section 21 then continues as follows: "And they (the Commission) shall investigate the right of all other persons whose names are found on any other rolls and omit all such as may have been placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law, etc."

I consider that the word fraud, as here used, is limited strictly to the right of other persons found on other rolls and has no reference whatever to either those persons whose names are found on the 1880 roll or who have been admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities.

[illegible] to be applicable to all persons who have been admitted by the tribal authorities.

It is also evident that in passing said act [illegible] never intended to raise the question of fraud as to [illegible] these classes.

By reason of the foregoing I do not consider that the nation has a right at this time to raise the question of fraud as far as these applicants are concerned, and that being the only ground upon which the protest is made I consider that these parties should be enrolled and said decision of the Commission affirmed, and so recommend to the Department.

Very respectfully,

A. G. [illegible],

Acting Commissioner.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

On February 8, 1904, you transmitted for review the matter of the application of Thomas Gunsford, for enrollment of himself and his seven minor children, Mary Henry S., Julia A., Benjamin C., Watt, and Margarvite [illegible] as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, including your decision of January 22, 1904, granting said application.

The original application also included the name of Lotha Gunsford, as an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage. Her status as such was not passed upon by you and is therefore not embraced in this decision.

The Department concurs in the recommendation of the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs in his letter of March 12, 1904, a copy of which is enclosed herewith. Your attention is further invited to the opinion of the Assistant Attorney-General rendered February 18, 1904, relative to the case of Francis M. Dawson, et al. Your decision is therefore approved.

Q [redacted]
Q Your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q How many children? A [redacted]
Q Do you apply for [redacted] a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir; she is a white woman.
Q How long have you lived in the [redacted]? A [redacted] years.
Q Were you admitted by the Cherokee Commission? A [redacted]

The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate of admission to citizenship, showing that on the [redacted] day of January, 1883, certain persons were admitted by the Commission on citizenship, and among those appears the name of [redacted], Dawson.

Q What is your name in full? A [redacted]

This is recognized as [redacted] evidence of the facts stated.

Q Have you lived in the [redacted] ever since [redacted] admission?
A Yes, sir; in Delaware District, [redacted]
Q Give me the name of your wife? A [redacted]
Q How old is she now? A Forty-five.
Q Was she admitted with you? A No, sir.
Q Have you married her according to the laws [redacted]?
A Yes, sir.
Q You have not remarried since your admission? A No, sir; it was not necessary.

The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate license and certificate, showing that he was married to his wife, as stated by him, in 1880, by the Reverend [redacted], in [redacted] County, Arkansas, the license being issued by the Clerk of that County.

Those papers are filed herewith.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and six children:

Q Were these children all born since you were admitted into the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

The applicant is shown by the certificate of admission, cited in the testimony, to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship, by the Commission on Citizenship, January 11th, 1883; he is identified on the roll of 1896, but the representatives of the Cherokee Nation desires to make inquiry into the methods of that time, and for that reason, the application of the applicant will at present be placed on a "Doubtful Card." He has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since his admission to citizenship. His wife was married to him under tribal custom law, and was married prior to his admission, but has never been remarried according to Cherokee law. She has lived with him ever since his admission to citizenship, and is identified on the roll of 1896. The application for her enrollment will be placed on a "Doubtful Card."

[illegible] six children, as enumerated in the testimony are identified on the roll of 1896. They are living with him, all having been born since his admission [illegible]. These children will be placed with him on a "Doubtful Card." The applicant's marriage to the mother of these children is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. If any additional papers, adverse are developed in this case, he will be given timely notice thereof.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

REPORT AND TESTIMONY TAKEN BY THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of E. F. [illegible] for Cherokee citizenship.

Depositions of witnesses produced and sworn to on behalf of the applicant for enrollment were taken before me, [illegible], a Notary Public in and for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, duly appointed, commissioned and qualified, at the office of J. B. Dailey in the town of Vinita, Indian Territory, on the [illegible] day of October 1896, between the hours of nine o'clock A. M. and six o'clock P. M. of said day, pursuant to the agreement to take depositions, entered into between the applicants and the Cherokee Nation, by their respective attorneys, which agreement is hereto attached.

E. F. Thompson, being produced by the applicants, being first duly sworn to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY J. B. DENSON:

Q State your name, age, residence and occupation?
A E. F. Thompson, 38 years old, I live near Vinita, Cherokee Nation, I. T. I am a farmer.
Q How long have resided in the Cherokee nation? A All my life.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation at now entitlement?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is that citizenship based, blood or otherwise?
A Blood.
Q What, if any official position have you held in the Cherokee Nation, and at what time?
A I was elected to the Cherokee Council in 1875 [illegible] I don't remember the exact year. I was also on the [illegible] Court.
Q Do you remember when that was? A Some like 14 years ago, I think, it may have been earlier.
Q Did that Commission or Court have anything to do with admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q State, if you remember, who the members of that Commission or Court there were, and who they were besides yourself?
A There were three, Tehee, Reif and myself, Tehee was President of the Court.
Q Where were the sessions of that body held? A Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation.
Q Did you have a Clerk? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember who that was? A R. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know whether the members of that Commission beside yourself, are living or dead? A Yes, sir, they are both dead.
Q Can you recollect now what period of time that Commission lasted?
A About two years I think, two, sessions, and there was one session each year.
Q Were the sessions of that body held in Tahlequah, open to the public at all times when it was in session?
A Yes, sir.
Q Were the cases coming before that body heard in open session?
A Yes.
Q Witnesses examined orally? A Yes, sir.

Q Judgments of the court of [illegible]
A In case of [illegible]
yes, the judgment [illegible]
Q What you [illegible] was that after [illegible] in secret session [illegible] decision or [illegible]
went into secret session.
Q I will present you with a paper [illegible] will mark exhibit 'A' and a copy of [illegible] and will ask you if [illegible] and will ask you if with the [illegible] certificate of record by H. L. Brogdon, Clerk, [illegible] you recognize it as a [illegible]
A I recognize the signature to it, [illegible] the instrument.
Q Which signature on that paper is yours? A My own.
Q That signature is in your own handwriting? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether Tahquette, [illegible] of the commission could write in English or not? A No, I don't think he could.
Q How as to Alexander Wolfe, a member of the Commission?
A I don't think he could write either. I don't think either of them ever wrote except by touching the pen.
Q Were you, and are you familiar with the handwriting of D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of that Commission?
A Tolerably well, but it has been a long time since I saw any of it.
Q Will you look at the paper again and say whether you recognize his signature attached thereto?
A Yes, that is his signature to the best of my knowledge.
Q Do you preserve any personal [illegible] of the application before that Commission of D. H. Dawson and other members of the Dawson family, to be admitted as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by that Commission?
A I remember D. H. Dawson and the [illegible] that is about the only ones I remember.
Q The question was not as to the personal recollection of the individuals, but as to the claim [illegible] by the Dawsons for admission?
A Yes, there was such a [illegible] the application.
Q Can you state as to [illegible] Tahquette, whether he was a citizen of the [illegible]
A Yes, sir; he was [illegible] full blood besides.
Q What is your knowledge of [illegible]
A About the same; he was [illegible] and recognized as a Cherokee.
Q Judge Thompson, if you [illegible] or have now any knowledge of any corruption [illegible] court or Commission, or any member [illegible] of the Dawson family or anybody connecting with the presentation of their claim for citizenship, state it fully?
A None whatever as far as I am concerned, and I don't think there was by the balance of the Court.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY [illegible]:

Q Do you mean to say Mr. [illegible] that your name attached to the certificate shown you in [illegible]
A Yes, sir.
Q When Mr. Duncan [illegible] that was [illegible] of the decision in the case, he is [illegible]
A No, I don't know. [illegible] I don't know as not the original I did not sign it; I [illegible]
Q You state that the witnesses [illegible] the Court, don't you know that is almost every case [illegible] parte affidavits of witnesses when [illegible]

A I think we ruled [illegible]
Q Did you have any [illegible]? Mr. Dawson did all of the [illegible]
Q Was the evidence [illegible]
A Yes, sir, I think it was.
Q What was done with that evidence, what was any of it ever put?
A I suppose it is at Tahlequah in the office of the Executive or Secretary.
Q When you went into secret session did you have Mr. Benge send that evidence to you?
A Yes, sir, we went over the evidence [illegible]
Q Did you allow the applicants or their attorneys admission to any of your secret sessions?
No, sir.
Q When you got ready to render your decisions did you then send for the applicants or their attorneys?
A No, sir.
Q And you rendered them in secret also, did you? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any recollection who testified in the Dawson case, as to their claim? A No, sir, I have not.
Q Have you any recollection as to who they claimed their Cherokee ancestors were? A Yes, sir, they claimed the Rogers.
Q Did they claim relationship with any of the present families of Rogers residing in the Cherokee Nation?

The applicant objects to this question as tending to elicit testimony wholly incompetent and irrelevant to the issue, and not cross-examination of this witness.

A I don't know that they did, particularly.
Q How would your court determine when they claimed descent through some Rogers family, that that family was of Cherokee blood?

The applicant objects to the question upon the same grounds as their objection to the previous question.

A By the evidence they produced.
Q Didn't you make them prove that that family was well known at one time to be connected with the Cherokee Nation, and were citizens thereof? A Yes.
Q Who was the attorney for the Dawsons? A Old man Houston Benge.
Q Could either Tehee or Wolfe speak English? A They could understand, but they never spoke English, they had an interpreter.
Q Did you ever talk to either of them as to whether they got anything for deciding this case? A No, sir.
Q How long were you considering the case altogether?
A I could not say as to that. I think we were on it two or three weeks anyhow. I could not say positively now, they were a long time getting in testimony.
Q There were only two or three witnesses examined all told, were there not?
A I think so, three I think, they had quite a lot of affidavits, but we did not consider them.
Q Well the Court was a good while arriving at its conclusion after the evidence was closed?
A Yes, quite a good while, I don't remember the exact time.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION:

Q Do you remember who the interpreter the Commission had during the hearing of the Dawson case.
A His name was Reese, I forget his given name.

Q Do you [illegible]
A I don't [illegible]
Q [illegible]
A [illegible]
Q [illegible]
A No, sir, we lived [illegible] I think in Sequoyah.

own name.
Q You didn't [illegible] what I int[illegible] applicants [illegible] now shown you, [illegible] certified by you as [illegible]
A My recollection is [illegible] to the applicant when they [illegible] judgment was not read when the [illegible] signed by the judges, and [illegible] to the applicants I think it was [illegible]
Q If you had any knowledge at the time the [illegible] family, F. M. and others whose [illegible] was pending before that Commission, as [illegible] corruption by bribery, or attempted corruption or [illegible] the Court or any of its officers, by T. M. Buffington, or any [illegible] in any manner with the claim of the Buffington [illegible] the Cherokee Nation, state it fully?
A I never heard a thing of the kind, I knew nothing of the kind, all that I have ever heard about a transaction of that kind is that has originated recently, since the enrollment commission has been inaugurated.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY M. T. MOTLOW:

Q If as you certify, this paper was a transcript of the record, why did you have the judges sign it?
A I know no reason further than there was the question at that time, the members of the Court being present I presume it was thought it would be as good or better than the signature of the Clerk.
Q Examine that signature of Lr. Thompson, examine the name T in his name and the T in Tehee's name and tell if it is not like your own handwriting?
A No, I would not call that mine, there is a resemblance between the letters but I am satisfied it is a very fortunate accident.
Q How was the evidence taken on these cases?
A It was taken by the witness being present and detailing his knowledge of the case, I wrote it down sentence by sentence as it was delivered.

Q Do you know whether that evidence is in existence or not?
A I do not, the last I saw of it was when I turned the records over to the Executive office at Tahlequah, and I have not seen it since.
Q You say you never heard any talk about this being an improper case until very recently?
A Well, that would depend upon what you term by recently, I don't think I ever heard of it prior to these recent days I am certain any that did not.

Q And you were admitted about the 11th of January '33? A Yes, sir.
Q There were other members of your family that applied and were admitted after that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you or not remember the evidence offered in theirs to substantiate their cases was the relationship between yourself and Robert and others and the evidence of your admission by the Tenth Court. In all the subsequent admissions I mean the only evidence offered was the fact that you and your brothers had been admitted before and that they were kin to you; that was the only evidence offered in any subsequent cases, wasn't it; so far as you know?
A That is afterwards?
Q Yes, afterwards? A I think there was some other evidence introduced.
Q Don't you know that there was never any evidence offered in any other case except evidence of Dr. Baker of Arkansas? A Yes, sir.
Q Who else? A Oliver Miller.
Q Who was Oliver Miller; the records in this case have been somewhat destroyed and mutilated? A Oliver Miller lived in Arizona.
Q What was he, who was he? A He is a kin of mine at all.
Q Well, what station in life did he occupy; was he a farmer?
A Yes, sir, former.
Q Were you present when he testified? A Yes, sir.

Q What is [illegible]
A He testified in [illegible] father's case.
Q Well, didn't [illegible] testify in your case but Mr. Baker?
A Yes, sir, several other witnesses.
Q Who were they? A I don't remember my mother got them witnesses around [illegible] Mr. Dye.
Q Were you [illegible] Mr. Dye
Q You were only [illegible] Mr. Baker testified? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you [illegible] Dr. Baker's statement there?
A I could not say all of it or how correct or not, part of it is correct.
Q What part is [illegible]? A The part knowing the family over there.
Q Who is Buck Dawson? A My brother.
Q What is his name? A We always called him Buck, it is Albert, E. Dawson.
Q Who went with you the first time you went up to make application for citizenship do you remember? A With my brothers.
Q The first time? A I met my brother in Texas.
Q Which one? A My Dawson.
Q That is Albert Mr. Buck? A Yes, sir.
Q You were living in [illegible] A Yes, sir.
Q A And he was living [illegible] A Yes, sir, and another one of little brothers, Ray [illegible]
Q Mr. Dawson now? A Yes, sir.
Q What is his [illegible]
Q And you three [illegible] A Yes, sir.

Mr. Masterson: Applicants by their counsel object to all the statement of the witness relating to his testimony introduced both in the Dawson citizenship application, and the history of the family as detailed by him, because the same is incompetent and irrelevant, and cannot be used for the purpose of impeaching the integrity of the judgment of said Commission, or either of the Commissioners in granting said orders of the Dawson family.

The Court: The objection of the Attorney for the applicants [illegible] will be noted. The same will be filed [illegible] it is sworn.

(Attorney for [illegible])

C. E. TAYLOR, [illegible] recalled as a witness on part of the [illegible]
Mr. Masterson:

Q State your name? A C. E. Taylor.
Q Where do you reside, Mr. Taylor? A [illegible]
Q were you an attorney before [illegible]
[illegible] case in the Chancery Court of [illegible]
Q were you attorney for [illegible]
A Yes, sir.
Q Were you present at the taking of testimony in [illegible]? A No, sir; I wasn't present.
Q Do you know who conducted the cross [illegible] the witnesses that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Who were they? A Tom Jones and Alex Wylie and Mr. [illegible]
Q Do you know whether or not they [illegible] was decided? A No, sir, there were only two of them [illegible]
Q Which two? A Jones and Wylie.
Q Who was the Clerk of the Court at that time? A Mr. [illegible] D. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know what witnesses were used in the case of Ex parte [illegible] A No, sir; now I was the attorney in the case and the evidence had already been filed before the Court.
Q When were you made attorney? A I was only called in as an attorney at the— Well, Mr. Duncan came down there, and Mr. Bryant had the case and several other attorneys had the case and he employed me.
Q Did you read the evidence in this case? A No, sir.
Q Did you deliver any money? A Now, I was the attorney in the case and I don't think it would be right for me to make any statement.
Q Now, you have claimed your privilege, I ask that you answer the question? Did Dawson ever send you any money with the direction to pay it to either member of the Court or the Clerk of the Court, D. W. C. Duncan, and if so what the amount? A I had a heap of trouble over this matter.-

Commission: Just answer the question, Mr. Taylor.

A Now; the attorney I don't believe it is right for me to answer that question.

Commission: Do you refuse to answer? A Yes, sir.

Q Did the matter to which you object to testifying upon relate to the rendition of the decision admitting to citizenship or withholding (No response)

COMMISSIONER BRECKINRIDGE:

Q Do you desire to reply to the last question? A I don't think it is right: I was attorney in the case.

Q Mr. Taylor, do you object to answering that question? A Yes, sir.

Q You refuse to answer that question, do you? A I had rather not answer it.

Q Either answer it or say you won't answer it? A I had rather not answer it.

Q Mr. Taylor, you have answered a number of questions down to this point, but it is at this point that you prefer to plead your privileges, as an attorney, do you? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The power in regard to these matters is lodged in the United States. The Court is clothed with special power with reference to matters which arise through this Commission. Of course the Commission desires and the Government needs for the prime of a correct roll the fullest information possible, but it is subject to the limitations of law, and it is not for this Commissioner to decide of the [illegible] a matter of this character with any authority as I understand it at this time, but to report the matter to the United States Court and let the Court pass judgment.

Under Section 21 of the Curtis law as it is commonly called Act of June 28[illegible], the members of the Commission shall in performing all duties [illegible] authority to [illegible] and for papers and [illegible] and the power is given [illegible] to enforce obedience. The law having [illegible] goes on to say so far as all others are [illegible] said Commission to take [illegible] punish anyone who may in any manner or by any means obstruct said work. Now, the Commission will report the facts to the United States Court and let the Court decide whether or not you are within your lawful privilege. It seems that you refuse to answer questions, or at least one question, which tends to establish as to whether or not you are claiming what, what is commonly considered a matter of privilege—according to an authority referred to by an attorney, but the enforcement of an answer seems clearly to be a matter for the Court to deal with.

Q Now, Mr. Taylor, in regard to the last question asked you by Mr. Hutchings, one of the Counsel for the Cherokee Nation, I direct that you make answer, and if you refuse I shall report the matter to the United States Court: do you refuse? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, you have read to you, Mr. Taylor, the first of the two questions propounded to you by Mr. Hutchings, and which you declined at the time to make answer; viz: as to whether Mr. Dawson sent you money to pay to the Court or to any officials of the Court, it seems to come to the question as to whether there was any collusion between you and Mr. Dawson and any member of the Court; now, I understand that you refuse to answer that question upon the grounds that you were Mr. Dawson's attorney? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, I require that you answer that question, do you refuse? A Yes, sir.
Q I shall also report that refusal to the United States Court as it seems to come under the provision of law, relating to conspiracy between you and Mr. Dawson which apparently considered a privilege matter, and you base your refusal now, not upon the ground that you are incriminating yourself, but that you were counsel for Mr. Dawson, I will report the matter to the Court and you will be informed at the time of any proceedings in the matter I caution you not to talk with Mr. Dawson or any of the applicants in this case.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants do not object and have not objected to the witness answering on account of his privilege as an attorney or for any other cause whatever, they only want to object to the incompetence and irrelevancy of the testimony, with the privilege of cross-examining upon any testimony given by the witness.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE:
Q You still refuse having the consent of the attorneys in the case to make answer? A I will just ask your Honor to let the matter go over until morning.

Commissioner Breckinridge: It will rest until it is coming at its present status: it is [illegible] hours [illegible].

As for the objection made by Captain McKennon, Counsel for the applicant, it will be taken into consideration, but will not be granted at the present.
(The Commission adjourns until 1:30 P. M. to-day on afternoon, March 13, 1902.)

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of FRANCIS M. DAWSON ET AL., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of Counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

SAMUEL H. BENGE, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Samuel H. Benge.
Q Where do you reside? A Fort Gibson.
Q How old are you? A I am 70 years old, going in 71.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; Cherokee by blood.
Q State what official position you have held in the Cherokee Nation and what your general connection with the Nation officially in the last 40 years? A Well, I had several; I have been Sheriff, Councilman, Senator, Delegate to Washington; and a hand in making the treaty of 1866, I am the only one living that signed that treaty; President of the National Council of different tribes of Indians.
Q Were you acquainted with F. M. Dawson, commonly called Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir; I knew him.
Q State you connection with and what you know about his citizenship case before what is an on as the Thomas-Tehee Citizenship Court? A Mr. Dawson came down, I was living down below here, he come and employed me to tend to his case and we went to Tahlequah, I believe if I ain't mistaken in 1881 and filed his case there; we went several times and continued his case on for the want of evidence, and finally while we was up there we run across the old darkey by the name of Tosh Rogers; we got his testimony and after we got that testimony we concluded that it was sufficient to go into the trial with. Tosh lived here at Fort Gibson, he was a horse trainer down here and stayed here; he claimed that he knew the Rogers and belonged to one of them and after that we thought we had sufficient evidence we submitted our case to the Court for trial, and the Court went to work and rendered a decision against Mr. Dawson. I told Mr. Dawson right there that "our cake is dough", just made that remark, and he just made the remark "never mind", and next morning they taken up his case again and they rendered a decision in his favor. I filed no motion nor any evidence at all whatever; I give the case up right there and the decision was then given in his favor, and on our way back from Tahlequah, why we got to talking about the case and I told him: "it was a pretty hard blow when they rendered that decision against us." He said: "yes, but Duncan was the man to reach", but he reached him with five Hundred dollars.
Q What position did Duncan occupy? A He was Clerk of the Court.
Q Duncan an educated man or? Yes, sir; he was an educated man.
Q Who were the members of the Court? A Tom Tehee, Alex Wolfe and Tom Thompson.
Q How many of these could speak English at all? A One.
Q Which one? A Thompson.
Q Who was the Attorney that represented the Nation in those cases? A Wm Sanders.

Q What was his given name? A [illegible] Wilson Sanders.
Q Was he an [illegible] A Yes, sir.
Q Did Mr. [illegible] a good deal of [illegible]
Q Was any [illegible] of the case, and if [illegible] ever investigation [illegible]
MR. McKENNON:
Q Were you ever a witness in the [illegible] of those investigations that were made [illegible] don't know that you might call it a witness [illegible] me once at Tahlequah, and asked me to tell him [illegible] case was going against him, and he thought he [illegible] knocked out and I interceded and [illegible] Committee. I was not a witness but that is [illegible]
Q That was Mr. Graham, wasn't it? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you had conversations with Mr. Grahm since that time about it? A Now, I might, I don't recollect, I might have had conversations with him.
Q Well, after the Dawson Commission began taking evidence of the Cherokees and when they were about finished here, did you have a conversation with him here in Fort Gibson about the matter?
A Now, I just can't tell you; I have seen him on various occasions, but the conversations we might have had I can't state.
Q To refresh your memory I will ask you if he did not call you that they were taking a fight on the Dawson family and he wanted to know of you whether that judgment in favor of [illegible] family was fairly rendered, and did you not then tell him that it was all right, that it was fairly obtained? A Not as I recall, only all he was; that is as I have stated he talked to me in regard to his mother, himself and probably his brothers and sisters, I don't recollect how many there were, and he told me they were rejected, that is just the words he used.
Q When? A It has been sometime ago.
Q Here in Fort Gibson? A Well, that is I saw him here in Fort Gibson; anyhow I saw him in Tahlequah.
Q Well, did he here in Fort Gibson ask you particularly about the Robert Dawson judgment, as to whether it was fairly obtained or not? A No, sir; he was basing his claim on the Dawson case, that is the way he-
Q That is the principal Dawson family? A Yes.
Q When was this other written statement here made, when was this made by you? (referring to affidavit heretofore referred to.)
A Yesterday I [illegible]
Q Who came to take this? A Mr. Starr.
Q Who else was present when this was taken? A No, sir.
Q Whom had you told about this matter, Judge? A No one as I know of.
Q Do you know how it was that they knew that you knew this?
A No, sir.
Q You never made any statement? A Never made any statement that I recollect of except I might have talked with Scales, we and him talking about these cases a good many things; if I ever made a statement it was to Mr. Starr.
Q How did Mr. Starr know? A I could not tell you how Mr. Starr knew.

Q Be [illegible] A [illegible] a Notary Public. [illegible] that you [illegible] once, [illegible]
Q And [illegible] A [illegible] qualify [illegible]
Q Are you [illegible] Mr. Dawson [illegible]
A Yes, sir, [illegible]
Q Let me ask you if [illegible] and he went [illegible] next day or two after he left? A My recollection now is that I went together.
Q And returned here together? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he not leave you there and go back direct to Arkansas?
A No, sir, we came here together. If my memory serves me right, I might be mistaken but that I don't believe I am, he came from Webbers Falls up here to my house, that is according to his statement.
Q What amount of fee did they pay you? A I don't know as that is in connection with the case whatever the money they paid me.
Q How did they pay you? A Paid me the money.
Q Who paid it to you? A Dawson there and that fellow, young feller paid me some.
Q Mr. Graham? A Yes.
Q At the same time? A Oh, no, he wanted me to intercede for him at Tahlequah but paid me to do something for him which I did.
Q I will ask you if Mr. F. M. Dawson & Co did not obtain two copies of the judgment one of which you took in a letter in which you wrote to his brother living in Texas and that the copy is found, the one they called Buck, didn't send you $50 that they owed you? A No, if I ever got a lot of Buck whatever you might call him, I don't recollect it and if I ever got a nickel from him I don't recollect it. Old man paid me what money I got from it. I don't know nothing about his brothers; he told me he had an uncle living over in Arkansas, but not living down in Texas, I don't know about it.
Q Where did he pay you the money? A Paid it here at home.
Q Before you went out? A He paid me fifty dollars before we went up and then we went up yonder he paid me fifty dollars more; if you want to know what I got, I got one hundred dollars.
Q You were acting as his attorney in the case? A Yes, sir.
Q How many judges were there present when the judgment was rendered? A In his case?
Q Yes, sir. A Well, according to my recollect there was all there, but if they were not all there, Tom Thompson was sick. Tehee and Rolfe.
Q Don't you remember that they were all present? A No, I think they were present though.
Q Who else was present at the time? A Oh, I could not tell you, there were several people in the house; could not tell you at all.
Q Were there several in the house the evening before the judgment was rendered against them as you say? A Yes, there were several in the house.
Q And several in the house when the judgment was rendered the next day? A I don't know how many there was.
Q Do you remember the names of any of them? A Why not exactly, mighty few friends.
Q How long did you remain out at Tahlequah on that trip?
A I guess I was there about three days.

Q Tending to this case alone, or did you have other cases? A no, sir.
Q Do you know of your own knowledge that the [illegible] money (this question [illegible] objected to by Cherokee counsel.)
A I don't know whether the judge [illegible] or not.

I, J. G. Rowson, do hereby certify upon my official oath as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that I correctly recorded the testimony had this day in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) J. G. Rowson.

March 18, 1902. Commission convened pursuant to adjournment.

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

C. H. TAYLOR takes the stand and continues his testimony.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Mr. Taylor, you said you would consider the matter yesterday and let us know whether you would answer those questions today; have you decided what you would do about the matter? A Well, it is like this, of course I don't want to be held as in contempt of the Court.
Q You would be held in contempt and the other Court would make you answer? A That being the case of course I would make a statement.
Q Are you acquainted with D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of what is known as the Tehee Citizenship Commission Court? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you ever have any conversation with him about letting him know of the different character of cases that would come up before the Court that you knew of, whether they were good ones or bad ones? A No, the only thing that ever come up in that respect; he asked me if whatever large cases that would come up befor the Court to let him know.
Q Did you have any talk with him about the Dawson case during the progress of its trial or before and ever introduced Mr. F. M. Dawson to him, or carry him to him? A I spoke to him when Mr. Dawson came to Tahlequah to see about his case, and he said that he would take the papers over to his room, the Dawson papers.
Q Did you see him again that night? A Yes, sir; after supper I went down to his room.
Q Did he ask you about the Dawsons or Dawson case? A He asked me where Dawson was.
Q Which Dawson are you referring to now, F. M. Dawson, known as Bud Dawson? A Bud Dawson.
Q Well, what didyou reply to him? A I told him that I thought he had gone to church.
Q Did you find Dawson after church? A Yes, sir, he told me to go and bring Dawson down and I did and Dawson was in church.
Q You carried Dawson to him? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you remain during the conversation? A Only a minute.
Q What was said if naything while you were present? A Mr. Duncan spoke to Mr. Dawson and says "there is a hitch in your evidence."
Q Go ahead and state what else he said? A He said "if that was straightened out it would be all right," and I turned and went away, I says, "gentlemen, I will go home."
Q Did you know of their having any other conversation or communication after that? A No, sir.
Q You left them there together yourself? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Mr. Dawson give you any directions the next morning about submitting the case? A Yes, sir, he asked me to call it up the case.
Q The next morning? A Yes, sir.
Q Had there been any additional evidence offered? A No, sir; there was not additional testimony offered.
Q He told you the next morning to call up the case? A Yes, sir.
Q Was it called up and submitted the next morning? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, how many of the members of the Court were there present that morning? A There were only two, two full-blood Indians.
Q Could they speak english at all? A Tehee could talk a little, talk some.
Q Did that Court have open sessions all the time or what is called executive sessions sometimes? A Well, I don't remember about that; it was generally when the case was submitted th attorneys would go out. The parties would go out and they would determine the case.
Q Well, did they go out i to that sort of executive session the next morning on the Dawson case? A Well, we went out when the case was submitted.
Q And was the decision rendered that morning in their favor?
A Yes, sir.
Q Who notified you of the decision of the Court? A Why, Mr. Dawson.
Q Do you remember whether he went out with you or was in there during the consideration of the case? A I think he went out with me.
Q Did you at any time thereafter receive any money, checks or other evidence money from Mr. Dawson with direction to turn it in part over to D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of that Court? A Mr. Dawson gave me 20 dollars and said he would send the balance in a short time, said he would send some more money in a short time.
Q Well, did he send any money afterwards? A Yes, sir, in the course of ten days or two weeks he send a hundred dollar check, draft.
Q What did he direct you to do with it? A He directed me to give D. W. C. Duncan half of it.
Q Did you give him half of it? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he send you any at any other time after that? A Well, in the course of a couple of weeks he sent me a hundred dollars more.
Q Did he direct you to turn any of that and if so how much, to D. W. C. Duncan? A He told me to give him half of it,
Q Did you give him half of it? A I did, sir.
Q Do you remember whether on Dr. Arthur Baker was the principal witness in behalf of the Dawson case? A No, sir, I don't because I never had any connection with the case, but I heard that he was a witness in the case.
Q No argument was made when you submitted the case? A No, sir.
Q Just submitted it on the testimony? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you born and reared in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir; I was born in the old Nation.

Q [illegible] A [illegible]
Q [illegible]
A [illegible]
Q [illegible] A Yes;
Q [illegible] A Yes, sir.
Q Were you [illegible] A Yes, sir; I was convicted there on this same case.
Q And served a term of that length? A I was sent to the jail hospital for sixty days and I served in about 36 or 38 days, and I was released.
Q When was that? A I don't remember how long ago it was now.
Q You say it was in reg rd to this case? A Yes, sir; this case was the base of contention; Glen Rogers and the chief, they were the ones that had me arrested, carried to Muskogee.
Q Well, now, were you charged with an offense against the law in this case, or was it in regard to some other case? A Well, it was in regard to using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q Sending out propositions and obtaining cases for citizenship for people [illegible] e Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, it was for answering correspon[illegible]v.
Q Not relating to this case at all? A Well, this was the main charge, Glen Rogers went befo e the Court there and stated that I had got in at least three hundred Dawsons, that they were white people and not entitled to citizenship and that was the main trouble.
Q Well, now, was the charge based upon that or was it based upon your letters you sent out to other people? A That was the charge for using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q The use of the mails for fraudulent purposes not in connection of this case was it? A Not particular of this case.
Q Then the trouble you had was the prejudice of Glen Rogers and others caused by your connection with the Dawson case; that is that you mean to say? A Yes, sir.
Q Why did you say because you were charged with an offense based upon this case? A Well, the prejudice grew out of this case.
Q Now, then, you had full conversation with the representatives of the Cherokee Nation as to your testimony in this case, did you not befo e you came on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q You had told them of these particulars before you came on the witness stand did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q Yet when you came on the stand you assumed to have conscientious scruples as to answering as to matters which occured between you and your client, Rud Dawson, in relation to this matter and declined to answer claiming your privilege as an attorney did you not? A Yes, sir; I didn't want to make a statement at all in the matter.
Q You had voluntarily made a stat ment to the representatives of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; I had stated to Mr. Hastings; he requested me and I come down here and I didn't want to make a statement to him but he insisted.
Q He had no power to compel you to make a statement? A No, sir.
Q You could then make it very freely and your conscience did not hurt you, but when you came on the stand you were very conscientious about it? A I didn't want to make a statement at all unless I I would be put in jail here if I didn't.
Q But you had armed them with information by which they could ask you these questions when you came on the stand? A I had told Mr. Hastings.

Q You knew when you gave him that information that you would be brought on the stand as a witness, did you not, by reason of that?
A No, I didn't know that I would be compelled to make a statement in the matter, a sworn statement.
Q You thought you would not be compelled to swear?
A I didn't think the law would compel me to make a statement.
Q Why then did you make a statement to him about it? A Oh, he was asking me about it, and I told him what I didn't want to make a statement, and I didn't for quite a while after I came down here.
Q When the enrollment division of the Dawes Commission was in Tahlequah, in the winter of 1900, did you not there meet F. M. Dawson and did you not then and there say to him "I told Shoemake I would be for him if he would employ me in his case and if he didn't I would be against him, and the same to you"? A No, sir; I said to him this; I says that if there is not something done that I will likely be summoned against you and Mr. Shoemake both.
Q What did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant this, I just left the matter with him to say what he wanted to do in the matter; I only spoke a word or two about it. I was going out of town just as he came in.
Q When you told him if something was not done you would be summoned as a witness against him; what did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant that the chances were that the Nation would summon me against him.
Q What did you mean by the expression "if there was not something done" that you would be summoned as a witness?
A Well, I meant this, if I was re-employed in the matter if he was to have a case and I was re-employed I would not be required.

Q You could be required to make a statement as to declarations made to you by your client to you on one instance, but if a little more money was put up you could not be required to make a statement; is that what you mean? A I didn't think I could be forced to make a statement at all in the matter.
Q Why did you make that expression to him "if something wasn't done you might be summoned as a witness" if you believed you could not be made to make a statement? A I meant if I was employed in the case.
Q If he would put up you would not testify? A That they could not force me to testify.
Q About the month of February, 1901, in the town of Wagoner, Indian Territory, did you not send your son to get Graham to come to the hotel at night, and did you not then and there say to Sid Graham; "you people are on the doubtful list and if you will give me $500. I will make it all right and see that you are enrolled and if you don't I will see that you don't get on"? A No, sir; I got a letter from Sid Graham in which he asked me to certify that the case was all right and after I met him I told him that I could not do it, that the case was crooked, he then said to me, he says, "I will give you a hundred dollars", he says "will you take a hundred dollars," I said "no, sir." I didn't make any bid, that is I didn't set no price with him.
Q You did not say to him then what I have embraced in that question there? A No, sir.
Q You did have a conversation with him about that time and at that place, did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you didn't make any bid or set any price? A No, sir; he offered me a hundred dollars.
Q Why did you send for him to come to the hotel? A In answer to his letter.

A Did you not [illegible] yesterday morning on the street in Lawrence, Indian Territory, in a [illegible] with [illegible] say to him: "You have made a great [illegible] and to have the happiness [illegible] cap for? No, sir; I [illegible] employed in your [illegible] I said "it might have been [illegible] me in your matter? Well, he [illegible] case" and I says "No, there is [illegible] that I know of." He said all [illegible] don't know a thing on earth [illegible] a thing on earth [illegible] and decided in your favor."

Q You said nothing to him [illegible] to him "it might have been well if the Attorney had retained [illegible] their case." I said "I am surprised at the part of the [illegible] I don't want to make a statement and I regret if I can possible avoid it."

Q Was that before or after you talked with Mr. Hastings, the representative of the National? A It was afterwards.

Q You meant by that if you had refused to answer you would have gone to jail? A No, sir; if they had employed me before hand I meant not now.

Q You mean that if they had employed you before hand you would not have given this information to Mr. Hastings? A I would not be required, being the attorney.

Q Were you required to give him the information; did you know that you had to give him any information? A The [illegible] Mr. Hastings? A I did refuse him and he insisted.

Q Well, he no authority to compel you to do it? A No, sir; I don't know whether he did or not.

Q As a lawyer you knew that he did not have authority to compel you to make a statement to him? A I told him that I was an attorney in the case and I didn't want to make any statement at all.

Q Why did you do it? A Well, he intimated to me it would go any further. He said to me "I will not make this matter — I will not use it;" that is, what I stated to him was part in confidence.

Q And he pledged you his word that it would not be used? A Well, told him I could make a statement in confidence, and that I didn't want to make a statement before the Court.

Q Well, what did he reply, as you said just now? A Oh, he says make the statement and then I told him—I regretted very much to do it, and I regret very much to make a statement here. I tried to avoid it yesterday.

Q You stated just now that he said it would not be used; did he say that or not? A Well, something to that amount; oh, he says it wont make any difference or something to that effect.

Q Now, don't you know that Mr. Hastings did not intimate to you that the statement he was asking you to make would not be used? A Well, I didn't think that I could be forced to make a qualified statement before the Court here, because I thought my license would protect me in that matter.

Q Yet it did not protect you or prevent you from making a statement to the attorneys for the National? A No, sir.

Q Now, in this conversation with Thornbrough to which I before referred did you not ask him to again [illegible] you and tell him if he could you would make it all right for him? A No, sir; I didn't say that; no, I said if he had employed me in the matter [illegible] have been better for you." Now, he offered me when I was down here last week, he offered me five dollars to go down and talk with his lawyers on the matter, I didn't go I was busy.

[illegible]

Q [illegible]

Q [illegible]

Q [illegible]

Q [illegible]

Q [illegible]

that time.

Q [illegible]

Q [illegible]

Q [illegible] handed you

$50? A Yes, sir.

Q And without [illegible] any reason? A No, sir.

Q [illegible] and says "I will send you some respects - about that, back or so.

Q And then he sent you $100? A Yes, sir.

Q And wrote you to give Dr. W. C. Duncan $50 of it? A Yes, sir.

Q And then sent you another $100 and told you to give him half of it? A Yes, sir.

Q How much did they pay you? A Well, that was the agreement, was that he would pay me $50 a family.

Q How much did he pay you? A I think there was $150; now I am not sure about the $50, but it appears to me like there was a $50 sent, and Mr. Duncan asked me, as well as I remember, says "Have you got a letter from Lawson?" I told him "Yes, sir." It was either that or the $100, and he says "I would like to have some money", and I went to Stapler's and got it changed— I won't be sure about it being $50 or $100—I went to Stapler's and got him to cash the check and give him the part of it.

Q How much did he pay you for your services? A That is all I got.

Q How much? A I think it was $100, $120.

Q What did you do for them? A Didn't do a thing only called up the case and submitted it; never read the evidence.

Q Submitted it without remarks? A Yes, sir.

Q And for that you say it was paid you $120? A Yes, sir; $120.

Q Was Houston Benge present when that was done? A No, sir; I don't think he was.

Q Did you see him then at that time in Tahlequah? A I can't remember.

Q Have you associated with him in any manner in connection with this case? A No, sir.

Q You had a great deal of business of that character, have you before the Courts? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you paid like fees in other cases for like services? A Yes, sir.

Q In many of them? A Yes, sir, good many.

Q All like cases? A Oh, citizenship cases.

Q When was it you were in jail at Fort Smith? A I don't remember; Mr. Collette or Mr. Embry, he was there, he was my attorney.

Q Was it since 1900? A It was somewhere along there, along in 1899 somewhere.

Q That has been your principal business as a lawyer, has it not? A Yes, sir.

Q You have never practiced much in any other way have you? A Very little.

Q Were you in the habit of writing your cases through in the same manner in which you state you worked this through? A No, sir.

Q This was an exception was it? A I never [illegible] this case through. I simply [illegible] by request of Mr. Dawson. I read his statement that I knew what proof he had in it he just wanted me to tell the truth.
Q And he pointed to you and told you a family was dying back? A Yes, sir.
Q Was that what you understood of him? A That is what he agreed to pay. I says "what will you give?" He says "I will give you $50 a family.

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q At the same time that the attorney for the Nation was talking to you about the Dawson case he also made inquiries about the Shoemake case didn't he? A Yes, sir.
Q And you told him at that time before you knew anything about whether you would be made or compelled to testify that so far as you knew there was nothing you knew detrimental to the Shoemake case? A Yes, sir: That is what I said.
Q You told him at the same time that you not only expected to claim you privilege as an attorney in the case, but that you told him, Mr. Hastings, with the full belief that the Court would sustain your position? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: That is very leading.

Q Now, did you think that the re-employment, being the attorney in the pending case would strengthen your position or weaken it, when you spoke to Mr. Dawson? A What I thought in the matter was before ever I would be summoned in the matter, a long time ago, that if I had been employed in the matter of course my position would have been such that I would not have been summoned or could not have been forced.
Q Did you think under those circumstances that Mr. Hastings would approach you about the subject? A No, sir: I don't think I would be forced to, having become to practice law.
Q Did Mr. Hastings tell you at the time that he was going to put you on the witness? A Yes, sir.
Q And let the Court decide? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Now, have you a license to practice in the United States Courts? A Yes, sir.
Q In the Territory? A Yes, sir.
Q And also in the Indian Courts? A Yes, sir: do you want to see them?

JAMES W. LEWIS, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q About what time was that? A September 21, I think.
Q Did you meet there about that time, [illegible] Jack Drumm?
A Yes, sir.
Q How did you happen to meet him? A He and I stopped at the same place, [illegible] the name of Shipley.
Q You and he stopped there, did you, board there? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, did you have any talk about citizenship a time, yourself and him? A
A Yes, sir.
Q Where did he state that he was from? A Texas.
Q Well, state just your recollection of the conversation between you from time to time about citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A Well, we were there a few days [illegible] and we talked about it at different times, as in talking about the evidence we had there I, of course, told him how many witnesses I had and what I could prove and so on, and he said that he didn't have but one witness, Mr. Bailey from Arkansas, a man that was 85 or 90 years old, he said, and he hadn't sent and found he was to have that old man there, but he hadn't sent.
Q Well, what did he say about the matter's having anything?
A Well, he said he was 57 years old and didn't [illegible] straight off.
Q Well, did he say anything about giving him whisky?
A Well, he said he could [illegible] drink of Arkansas whisky and he would swear that was white.

Q You speak about having a dairy business there at Vinita, to what extent? A I am only milking about four cows now, I sold the others to the country.
Q Do you run a dairy wagon there? A No, sir.
Q You serve on the jury a good deal? A I have been serving on the Petit jury there this winter.
Q Generally? No, sir.
Q Are you a kind of a professional juror? A No, sir; I was on the regular petit jury, I was on the regular panel I suppose.

Q Does he still own that place? A I think he does.
Q Were you an applicant for citizenship along about '81 or '2 at Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you have at any time a conversation with Bud Dawson about his and your citizenship cases? A Yes, sir.
Q State what he stated to you of citizenship cases in general and about his case in particular, you can state the two that you had these conversations as near as you can? A Well, I think it was in '83, he told me if I ever got in I would have to pay him; he said it cost him $700 to get in; he said he paid one witness three hundred dollars.
Q Did he state the name of that witness? A No, he did not.
Q Whom did he say he made arrangements with? A He said he made arrangements with the Court; that is, heads of families to get them in at one hundred dollars apiece.
Q Do you know what time of the year that was, whether it was in the summer or not? A I think it was in June.
Q Did he make any other statements to you at any other time?
A No, sir, I don't think he has in regards to that matter.
Q You have been living neighbors with him? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q You say this was about June of '83? A I think it was in June, 1883, I won't be positive whether it was June or not.
Q You were an applicant; were you admitted? A No, sir.
Q Have you been admitted? A No, sir.
Q You are still an applicant? A Yes, sir.
Q Still trying to get in? A Yes, sir.
Q Where was this conversation had? A Had at Bud Dawson's house.
Q What part of the premises? That is, in his residence?
A Yes, sir.
Q In the house? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was present? A There wasn't anybody present; he just built the house and there wasn't anybody there.
Q Was there more than one room? A I won't be positive but I don't think there was but one room, log house.
Q Just one room? A Yes, sir.

Q And is that room he made this statement in your A Yes, sir.
Q He did you are sure and you say I don't think he are mistaken.
Q You say you [illegible] part of the things and part of the time, is that?
Q Haven't you had disagreements [illegible] between your father? A No, that we didn't [illegible]
Q Didn't you have him little boy [illegible] a difficulty?
A Yes, sir.
Q And you say that you are not on bad terms with him?
A Why we speak, have conversation, have right right along all the time.
Q Is it not a fact now that you and he have been all the while at enmity? A No, sir.
Q You don't have any unkind feeling towards him? A No, sir.
Q What were your going statement? A I said no, sir, I didn't have any unkind feeling towards him.

Mr. Kellogg: The evidence object to all of the testimony of this witness because it is wholly immaterial and irrelevant.

[redacted]

THOMAS L. [redacted], being duly sworn, testified as follows on behalf of the defendant Indians:

[redacted]

Q Did you know one James Dawson? A Well, yes; I did; I have seen him time to time.
Q [illegible] A Yes, sir; I was there about five [illegible] was called.
Q Did you know Aaron Butler? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was he? A He was a Cherokee Interpreter for the Court.
Q Do you know Jimmy Smith? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was he? A He was the Nation's attorney before the Court.
Q Well, did you attend that time have a conversation with either Aaron Butler or Jim Smith in company with Mr. James Dawson? A Yes.
Q State the full particulars of it? A About that time this man Dawson and Butler came to me while they were all together, all three of them, and Butler came and called me off to one side, that was down at a colored church, it was after dark, and they called me off there and this man Dawson borrowed some money from me, he said he had to have it that night, his case was going to be submitted the next morning.
Q Well, did he say anything about whether he could get his case submitted if he had more money? A Well, from the language to me and Butler, he wanted this money; Smith had agreed to submit the case without further evidence in the matter.
Q Well, did you let him have the ten dollars? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did they go then? A They walked off up towards town.
Q Did they go together, those three? A Yes, sir.

MR. [illegible]:

Q Was that James Dawson, the leading applicant in that case?
A Yes, best of my recollection that was.
Q How old a man was he? A I don't know; I could not tell you; he looked, I don't know, he might have been—could not tell you anything about how old he was.
Q Well, about how old was he, 35, 30 or 40? A Yes, he was older than that, from my judgment I guess he must have been 45 or 50 years old.
Q Is he living or is he? A I don't know.
Q Where have you been living? A I have been living down here near Tahlequah.
Q That was the man's name, Dawson's name? A Jim Dawson I think.
Q You are certain of that? A Yes, sir; I am pretty certain.
Q They came to you with Smith, the Prosecuting Attorney, and Butler, the Interpreter? A Yes, sir.
Q Dawson took you off to one side? A Butler took me to where Dawson was and introduced me to Dawson and vouched for Dawson being all right for the money.
Q When did you first make a statement of this matter to anybody?
A I guess—I don't remember when.
Q How long have you been in Muskogee this time?
A I have been here since, I was summoned here last Friday.
Q Did you ever make any statement to anybody about this before that time? A Yes, I talked to Butler about it.
Q When? A Oh, about, [illegible] I remember it has been about two years ago, and Butler was talking to me about it; it was at my house.
Q Were you born a citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q You weren't admitted to citizenship by the Courts or Council?
A No, sir.
Q You have been living in the Cherokee Nation all your life?
A Well, I was born and raised here; ; I haven't been here all the time; I have been out and in.

Q You have never seen that man Dawson since? A If I have I have never known it, but I saw him the next day.
Q You saw him and took a good look at him, and know about what kind of man he was? I saw him around there about several times.
Q You think he was about 35 or 40 years old? A That would be my guess at it, my recollection.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness, all of it, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

DELIA A. BREWER, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your full name? A My husband's name was O. P. Brewer, but generally I sign my name Mrs. D. A. Brewer.
Q What was your full maiden name? A Delia A. Vann; well it was really Delilah but I never was called by that name, it was De altogether in my young days.
Q What was your father's name? A His name was Joseph Vann.
Q Was he called by any nicknames and if so how many, and what? A None, but the Cherokees, the full-bloods called him Joe Aney.
Q What does that name mean when you talk English? A Rich Joe.
Q Did any of them call him Big Joe Vann? A I don't know; he was a large man; larger than the other Joe Vann.
Q There was another Joe Vann? A Yes, sir.
Q Did your father have any sisters and brothers? A He had quite a number of sisters.
Q Did he have a half sister? A Had two half brothers.
Q Did he have a half sister? A Had several half sisters.
Q Who did they marry? A Different persons; I knew the names of all of them but I have a bad memory, but I know that there was one, a Mrs. Ibbie Wolfe, and Mrs. Lamar, she was first a Mrs. Hightower and she became a Mrs. Lamar and lived in Alabama and never came to this country, but she has grandchildren in this country.
Q Well, did any of your father's sisters or half sisters ever marry a Rogers? A No, sir.
Q Never had any Rogers kin-folks? A No, sir, I certainly would have heard of them through my family, there was a great many of the kin-folks I never saw, but I heard of them.
Q The Dawson case was talked of here for many years, they claiming kin?
A I never knew until I understood they claimed to be kin to the Vanns, and I flatter myself that my family was prominent enough that they never claimed kin.
Q They never claimed kin at all? A No, sir.
Q Did your father ever had a sister or half sister by the name of Annie, Anna or Alsey? A No, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to all the testimony of this witness because it is incompetent ad irrelevant.

SAMUEL TOLLIVER DAWSON, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Samuel Tolliver Dawson.

Q What relationship you to the Dawsons? A Well, I am not acquainted with none of these Dawsons, I guess I am correct, that is what he told me.
Q Who was your father? A [illegible] Dawson.
Q What did you say your father knew you? A [illegible] Dawson.
Q Do you know what his full name was? A Samuel Riley Dawson.
Q What children had your father? A Why, he had got, you mean his first children or his whole family?
Q I want all of his children. A I don't know, I will have to count a while on them, there was nine or ten of them.
Q Just one or two of them I care for; is Mrs. Lewis your sister?
A Yes, sir.
Q Your full sister? A Yes, sir.
Q Was she a daughter of S. R. Dawson, Jr.? A Yes, sir.
Q Now who were the parents of your father, , Samuel Dawson?
A Why Sam Dawson was his father.
Q Sam Dawson was his father? A Yes, sir.
Q What was Sam Dawson's wife, if you know their family history, what your father said or what your grandfather said? A I have heard that she was a Pruitt, my father said; of course I don't know.
Q What was her given name? A Annie.
Q Did you ever see your grandfather, Samuel Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Saw him? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know about how old he was when he died? A He was somewhere up about 90.
Q About how old were you when your grandfather died? A I don't remember exactly how old I was, I must have been somewhere near 12 years old when my grandfather died.
Q Was your father his youngest child? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know about when your father was born? A Well, no, I don't, he died in '90 and he was 67 years old.
Q He died in about '90 and was about 67 years old when he died?
A Yes, sir.
Q And he was the youngest child? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you know how many children your grandfather had , that is brothers and sisters of your father? A I heard him say seven.
Q Well, did you ever hear your father or grandfather speak of whether or not your grandmother was a white woman or an Indian?
A Well, I heard my father speak about it, I don't know that I ever heard my grandmother say anything about it.
Q Well, what did he say about it? A I have heard him say his mother was not an Indian.
Q Did you fathercome here and apply once for citizenship?
A Yes, sir.
Q Was he admitted? A I think not.
Q Did you hear him make any statements about he grounds he expected to get in? A He said his brothers had moved their rights here and if his brothers had any rights he did, but I don't know.
Q Well, in that connection didhe say whether his father was an Indian or white woman? A Never heard him say that his mother was a white woman in speaking about that, I don't know whether he said anything about that or not; I have heard him say his mother wasn't no Indian.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness because it is wholly irrelevant and incompetent.

Q And had a sister named Mrs. Petty? A Yes, sir.
Q And another one named Mrs. McGee? A Yes, sir.
Q And another brother named John? A Yes, sir.
Q What relation are you to Mrs. A. S. Lewis? A Sister.
Q Did you ever see your grandfather, Samuel Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q You have a distinct recollection of him? A I, yes. I can remember him, but I was small.
Q About how old were you you suppose when your grandfather died?
A About 6.
Q Was your father's birth recorded in the family Bible? A Yes, sir.
Q You know whether your grandfather's record of marriages and deaths were recorded in any Bible or not? A I was, but we haven't it.
Q What became of it? A Got burned.
Q Well, about what year do you remember that your father, Samuel Dawson was born? A I believe it was '23.
Q In 1823? A Yes, sir.
Q And how old was he when he died, if you recollect? A He was between 64 and '7.
Q Did you ever hear your father speak of his relations, his father and mother, as to whether they were white people or Indians?
A Yes, sir, they were white people.

Q. Was I now or either in the [illegible] you [illegible] spoken of by the name of Annie [illegible] sir.

BY MR. [illegible]: [illegible] to a question of [illegible] witness [illegible] is [illegible] irrelevant and incompetent.

ALEX S. [illegible], [illegible], first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. [illegible]:

Q State your name? A Alex S. Lewis.

Q What is your [illegible]? A Dawson, Indian Territory.

Q How old are? A 48 years.

Q What was your wife's maiden name? A Elizabeth Parales Dawson.

Q Who was your wife's father and mother? A Her father was Samuel R. Dawson and her mother was the wife of Samuel R. Dawson, did you want her maiden name?

Q Well, if you know the maiden name of your wife's mother, state how you know it? A Well she was called Margarett, Margarett Queen was her maiden name.

Q The maiden name now of your wife's father's mother? A Why the maiden name of my wife's father's mother?

Q Yes, sir? A From what her husband said my father-in-law told me it was Annie Pruett.

Q What was the name of your wife's father's father? A My wife's grandfather on her father's side, Samuel Dawson.

Q And his wife's maiden name was Annie Pruett? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know this old gentleman, Samuel Dawson, you wife's grandfather? A Yes, sir.

Q Personally? A Yes, sir.

Q What opportunities had you to get acquainted with him? A He lived with his youngest son, my father-in-law, and visited us, my wife and I, after we were married, at [illegible] with us quite a while; I lived near my father-in-law and we visited very often.

Q When did he die? A '74.

Q Have you any particular method of recalling that date? A Well, I was away from the house when he was taken sick, and they sent for my wife and myself, and so when I got home my wife had gone to her father's to see her grandfather, he was sick, and I remember my first wife was a baby at that time.

Q And when was your first child born? A He was born December, '73.

Q You know how old you wife's father was when he died? A Why he was up in 60, but I don't remember his age.

Q Did the old original Samuel Dawson ever tell you his age? A Yes, sir, several times.

Q How old was he at the time of his death? A He was pas ed 90.

Q Did he ever tell you whether or not his wife Annie Pruett had any sister or brother? A Told me she only had one brother named Bob Pruett.

Q Have any of the members of this family named their children after him? A Make it a little plain, it is a little long; my wife's oldest brother was a particular favorite of his grandfather, and he always took this boy with him everywhere, and he has named one of his, - oldest child for this brother-in-law therefore a particular favorite of his grandfather; named it for him I understood.

Q Now, what is his name? A Of course I don't know why he named it, but he gave him the name of Robert Pruett, and I understood it was on one visit of his grandfather thereto, so much of Robert Pruett.

Q Did you ever hear the old Samuel Dawson speak of his mother-in-law? A Yes, sir; I have heard him say that he wished he had never had heard of Bob Pruett, he never had heard of him for a long [redacted] of his children.

Q Well, [redacted] did he have? [redacted] family history, by and [redacted] child, [redacted]

Q And John Dawson was the eldest boy? A Yes, sir.

Q And Samuel R. Dawson was the youngest boy? A Yes, sir.

Q You know something about the time John Dawson was born, have you any way of corroborating it, his eldest boy? A Yes, sir, I know what the oldest son and his wife told me.

Q What was that? A They said he was born in 1811.

Q Who was his oldest son? A Toliver H. Dawson told me his father was born in 1811.

Q Do you remember now whether the old man had occasion to say whether his wife, Annie Pruett was an Indian or white woman, or ever said anything about it? A I know that the old man said that she was, I don't know that I ever heard the question approached in that way, I have heard him speak as to her blood, but it was in a different way than we reached it.

Q What blood did he say she was? A Well he said that she was the daughter of Dob Pruett, a white woman; and that her father was Captain John Rogers, a white man who lived with the Cherokee Indians, and traded with them.

Q Did he say was Captain Juan Rogers afterwards married? A Said he had a wife in the Cherokee Nation.

Q But that Annie Pruett was not [redacted] A No, sir, she was the child of Mrs. Pruett.

Q A white woman? A Yes, sir, that was the half sister of Dob Pruett.

BY MR. MCKENNON:

Applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

John Rogers who ran a boat on the river was the father of the child; I saw the girl frequently there at my mother's and there at Louis Rogers Store I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years old and I think then Old Capt John Rogers took her off to school. I saw her no more from the time Old Capt. John Rogers took her off till I saw her here in Arkansas the wife of old Samuel Dawson. I stayed all night there and she and I had a talk over our old matters, and I asked her when she became acquainted with Dawson and she said at the time she was going to school. And she said after she left school that Dawson followed her home to the Nation and they were to be married. I have told that precisely in the words she used.

Capt John Rogers claimed to be one fourth Cherokee, the claimant is the son of Polly Rogers and I know Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Fruet, and I know the claimant to be the son of Polly Dawson Capt Rogers then resided in the Cherokee Country about twelve miles from Calhoun on the Hiawassee River.

Anna Fruet resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I stayed there the Dawsons when I got acquainted with them Arkansas were recognized where they were as Cherokees. Robt Dawsons children is Robt, John, Marion, Jim and Polly, the children named in the petition I remember as also the claimants.

Question by Solicitor:

Ques. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
Ans. 1 Five, I think that's all.
Ques. 2 Did you say something about someone being married twice?
Ans. 2 The claimant was married twice.
Ques. 3 Could Anna Fruet speak Cherokee?
Ans. 3 Yes she could speak it well
Ques. 4 Did Polly Rogers speak Cherokee?
Ans. 4 She could when she was young.
Ques. 5 How far do you live from Anna Fruet?
Ans. 5 Just across the river about 3/4 of a mile.
Ques. 6 Was Calhoun in the Cherokee Nation?
Ans. 6 It was on both sides of the river, part in the Nation and part out in the State.

Joe Dawson, the father of the applicant was my father's brother. Joe Dawson was considered to be a Cherokee. I think he died on the Tennessee river in Tenn. I think he had four (4) children. I never saw any of them but Andrew J. Dawson, and Jim Dawson.

-Cross Ex.-

Joe Dawson has been dead about 35 years he lived west of the Mississippi River, I understand. My father had five brothers. I don't know how long Joe Dawson had been living in Tenn. before he died. All that I know of the affidavit that the son of my Uncle Joe Dawson, is from what he himself has told me, - My grandfather, Sam Dawson was a white man. The applicant could be of the Dawson name and not be related to me- My grandfather being a Dawson and a white man.

Testimony for Claimants.

Witness, Dr. [illegible] Baker, sworn [illegible] as follows:

My name is [illegible] Baker I reside at Berryville Arkansas Carroll County. I am [illegible] years old not a Cherokee. I lived in the Cherokee Nation about thirty years. Am I first came to Arkansas. I have been acquainted with him since he became a citizen of Carroll County. [illegible] 30 years - At my brothers house near Calhoun I became acquainted with the claimants Polly Dawson grandmother of brother's wife she was frequently at my brothers house though she lived in the Indian side. She claimed to be a half sister to Big Joe Rogers. She claimed to be full Cherokee. The first time she brought the claimants mother to my brothers house was the brothers mother was about grown when I was a little boy. She called her daughter Polly Rogers, said Captain John Rogers who ran a Boat up the River was the father of the child I saw the girl frequently visit at my brothers and there at Louis Rogers Store.

I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years of old and I think then Capt. John Rogers took her off to Memphis. I saw her no more for the first Mid Gayt. John Rogers took her off till I was last here in Arkansas the wife of old Samuel Dawson, I never saw Polly there and we are [illegible] quite old ratting and I asked her where she learned [illegible] Dawson and she said at the time of the war [illegible] and she had grown she left school [illegible] to the Acting and they were there married. [illegible] precisely in the month that the war [illegible] to be one Fourth Cherokee. The claimant is the son of Polly Rogers, and I know Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Priest and I know the child and he is the son of Polly Dawson.

Q. t. Rogers I was residing in the Cherokee Country about twenty (Word "twenty" marked through) twelve miles below Calhoun on the Hiwassee River. Anna Priest resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I stayed there I became acquainted with them. Arkansas were recognized there they were all Cherokees. Robert Dawson children is Buck, John, Marian and two girls. The children named in the petition I recognized as being the claimants.

Question by Solicitor:

No. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
A.s. 1 Five I think that's all.
No. 2 Did you say so saying about one being married twice?

E. W. Swann being duly sworn according to law
deposes and says:

My name is F. M. Dawson; I am 54 years of age; my post office address is Afton Indian Territory I am a farmer by occupation and reside in the Cherokee Nation.

I am a recognized Cherokee citizen by blood. I was born in Carroll County Arkansas near Berryville. I derived my Cherokee Indian blood from my grandmother whose maiden name was Polly Rogers through my father Robert Dawson. My grandmother Polly Rogers was a Cherokee Indian and was married to Samuel Dawson my grand father in the old Cherokee Nation in Tennessee. My grand parents Samuel Dawson and his wife Polly came west from the Old Cherokee Country in about 1828 and settled in Western Arkansas and later came on to the Indian Territory and the father of this affiant Robert Dawson and family settled in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, Robert Dawson, the father of the affiant was also a recognized citizen of the present Cherokee Nation by reason of his Cherokee Indian blood.

The said Robert Dawson father of this affiant and Elizabeth Dawson who married John Petty were full brother and sister by blood, both being children of said Samuel Dawson and his wife Polly Dawson whose maiden name was Polly Rogers The said Elizabeth Petty was the mother Of Joanna Barber who is a full cousin by blood of this affiant in the Indian side. The said Joanna Barber is the mother of Irena J. House nee Barber who is a second cousin of this affiant in the Indian side.

This affiant further states that he has seventy five to a hundred blood relatives who reside in the Cherokee Nation and are recognized Cherokee Indians by blood and drew their per capita money all the last payment; said citizens and relatives derived their Indian blood from the same source that the above named Irene J. House, derives her Indian blood and right.

This statement I have made to John H. Koogler, a Notary Public at Muskogee Indian Territory and it has been written down by him at my dictation. Such part of this testimony which refers to matters occuring previous to my recollection I know by means of family history and traditions which facts I have always been taught and told of by my parents and grand parents from childhood up, th facts stated as occuring since my childhood I know of my personal knowledge. Affiant further states that he is not personally interested in the prosecution of the application of said Irena J. House for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

I, [illegible], being duly sworn, [illegible] on oath [illegible] in the [illegible] of the person duly [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] Cherokee Nation. I am a recognized Cherokee Indian by blood, and entitled all the rights and privileges of a Cherokee citizen now living in the present Cherokee Nation. I was born in Carroll County Arkansas near Berryville. I derived my Cherokee Indian blood from my Grandmother Polly Rogers through my father, Robert Dawson. My grandmother Polly Rogers was a Cherokee Indian and was married to my grandfather Samuel Dawson in the old Cherokee Nation in Tennessee. My Grand Parents, Samuel Dawson & his wife Polly Dawson whose maiden name was Polley Rogers came West from the Old Cherokee Country in about the year 1832, and settled in Western Arkansas, and later came on to the Cherokee Nation. My father Robert Dawson was a recognized member of the Cherokee Nation when he died, by reason of his Cherokee Indian blood.

The said Robert Dawson, the father of this affiant, and Elizabeth Barber who married John Polly were full brother and sister by blood, both being children of the said Samuel Dawson and Polly Dawson his wife she being the same Polly Rogers as aforesaid. The said Elizabeth Barber wife the mother of Joshua Barber who is a full cousin by blood of this affiant on the Indian side, the said Joshua Barber is the mother of Irena J. Rouse, whose maiden name was Irena J. Barber and a second cousin of this affiant on the Cherokee Indian side. This affiant further states that he has seventy five to a hundred blood relatives who reside in the Cherokee Nation and are recognized Cherokee Indians of the present Cherokee Nation and exercise all the rights and privileges of such Cherokee citizens, they having drawn their shares of the funds heretofore at the last per capita payment made by the Cherokee Nation.

Said citizens and relatives derived their Cherokee Indian blood from the same source, as did the above named Irena J. Rouse.

I have made this statement before J. Harrington, Notary Public at Vinita, Ind. Ter., the affiant further states that he has no personal interest in the prosecution of his application for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation of the said Irena J. Rouse.

That he knows facts which are within the personal knowledge of the affiant or within his years of discretion he knows personally, and the other facts which occured before the recollection of affiant he testifies to for what he has been taught from his family history and traditions.

That the relationship existing among all his people in the Cherokee Nation he knos from his personal knowledge and that they are related to the Cherokee Indian side.

VS

THE CHEROKEE NATION.

) 838 REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.

I, W. A. Gibson, Special Master herein, show to the Court that under the general order herein I have examined said proof and pleadings on file in this cause which are made a part of this report, and that I find as follows:-

I

That this cause is in reality a branch of Case No. 90, Jeanna Barber vs Cherokee Nation, the principal claimant herein being Irene J. House a daughter of Jeanna Barber.

That this cause was instituted on September 8, 1896 at which time application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for citizenship by blood in the Cherokee Nation.

That this case was tried by the said Commission on November 24, 1896 and the applicants denied, no reasons being given for the decision, and that on January 20, 1897, the parties appealed from said decision to this Court.

That this petition was made by Irene J. House, her husband, W. J. House, and their children Chas., C. Winston T., and Henry P. House. That they file in support of their application the affidavits of Jeanna Barber, W. P. Dawson, Arthur A. Baker, T. Dawson, and W. A. Dawson. That these Dawson witnesses are citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and state that they are related by blood to the claimants herein on the Cherokee side. The claimants base their contention of a right to Cherokee citizenship upon the fact that the claimant Irene J. House is the daughter of Jeanna Barber, who is the daughter of Elizabeth Pat-y, who is the daughter of Polly Rogers, and that Polly Rogers was the daughter of Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were recognized Cherokee citizens by blood. That the testimony shows that this Dawson family are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that the claimants herein are claiming by blood upon the Indian side, and that they all claim through a son or one Polly Rogers and Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were all recognized Cherokee Indians.

II

The appellee introduces in defense the record of the application of these claimants to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship in the year 1896, and the record of the rejection of the claimants, and further the affidavits of W. J. Rogers and Mrs. Sarah Barber, a grand daughter both of whom state that they never heard of any daughter of Captain John Rogers by the name of Polly Rogers, and he had only one daughter, whose name was Cynthia.

III

TESTIMONY INTRODUCED ON BEHALF OF THE

D. W. C. DUNCAN, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Please state your name, age and residence? A My name is D.
C. Duncan, my age is 72 years, my residence, Vinita, Indian Q Are you a duly recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A I am.
Q You gave testimony in this case once before did you not, before the Dawes Commission? A I did.
Q Before this Commission I will say, made enrollment? A The Dawes Commission? A Yes, I don't remember who, I corresponded with that was taken as rights, or yours.
Q Were you in any way connected with the Cherokee [illegible] Commission in 1896 known as Cherokee Commission? A I was clerk of that Commission.

Q ...ror any length of time? A I don't recollect the exact length of time, but it was about thirty days from the rendition of the judgment, or thereabouts, of that decision.
Q You were the only clerk it had during its existence, were you?
A I think I was.
Q You speak [illegible] of that Commission when it rendered a judgment in favor of Robert Dawson et al, as found on page 11[illegible] of its record, numbered 108 (Dawson Enrollment records referred to.) Was it the composition of this Commission? A It was.
Q The members of that Commission were the same as shown by the signatures to this judgment were they? A The same, yes, sir.
Q Thomas Tehee, Pre ident of the Commission, Alex Posie and J. T. Thompson, Commissioners, that is correct, is it? A That's correct.
Q Were you present when this case was under consideration by that Commission and when it rendered this judgment in the case? A I was.
Q Were you at that time acquainted with F. M. Dawson, or as only called 'Bud Dawson' Campbell Taylor and Samuel H. Benge, who were attorneys, who were Cherokee attorneys at that time? A I might say that I merely knew Mr. Dawson; all I know of him was I saw him there as a party to the suit. I knew Mr. Taylor and Mr. Benge more extensively; I have known them a number of years.
Q They were recognized Cherokee citizens were they? A They were.
Q Was Taylor not known generally as a Citizenship Attorney?
A I think he was.
Q Do you remember seeing him and Benge present at the time this case was under consideration by the Court? A May I do not recollect seeing Mr. Benge, I cannot recollect, but I can recollect of seeing Mr. Taylor about the Court room now and then.
Q Do you know who submitted the case to the Court for the applicants? A Let me understand the meaning of that: who brought the case?
Q Who called it to the case? A No, I don't recollect.
Q Do you remember whether that Commission rendered any other decision than that found upon this record in that case? A I never had any knowledge only but one decision.
Q Was that in favor of or against the applicants? A It was in favor of them: I will say this: that if there was another decision other than the one that appears on the docket now before you, I have no recollection of it.
Q The only decision you have any knowledge of was as stated by you, in this book as here shown was it not? A That is the only one that I have any knowledge of.
Q Did Bud Dawson pay you any money in connection with that case?
A He did not.
Q Did he ever promise to pay you any money for your influence with the Court in that case? A Never.
Q Or paid you any money, either directly or through any other person? A For my influence in that case?
A Yes, sir. A Never.
Q Did you have any knowledge of his having paid to the Court or to any members of the Court any money for the purpose of influencing their judgment in that case? A None whatever.
Q Did you have opportunity of observing his conduct during that [illegible] time? A The only opportunity that I had was during the session of the Commission; I saw but very little of him during the sessions of the Commission; now and then I would see him in the [illegible]
Q Did you see anything in his conduct toward that Court which indicated that he had used undue influence in procuring that judgment? A I never observed anything of the kind: nothing that awakened a suspicion in my mind that he was engaged in that kind of practice.

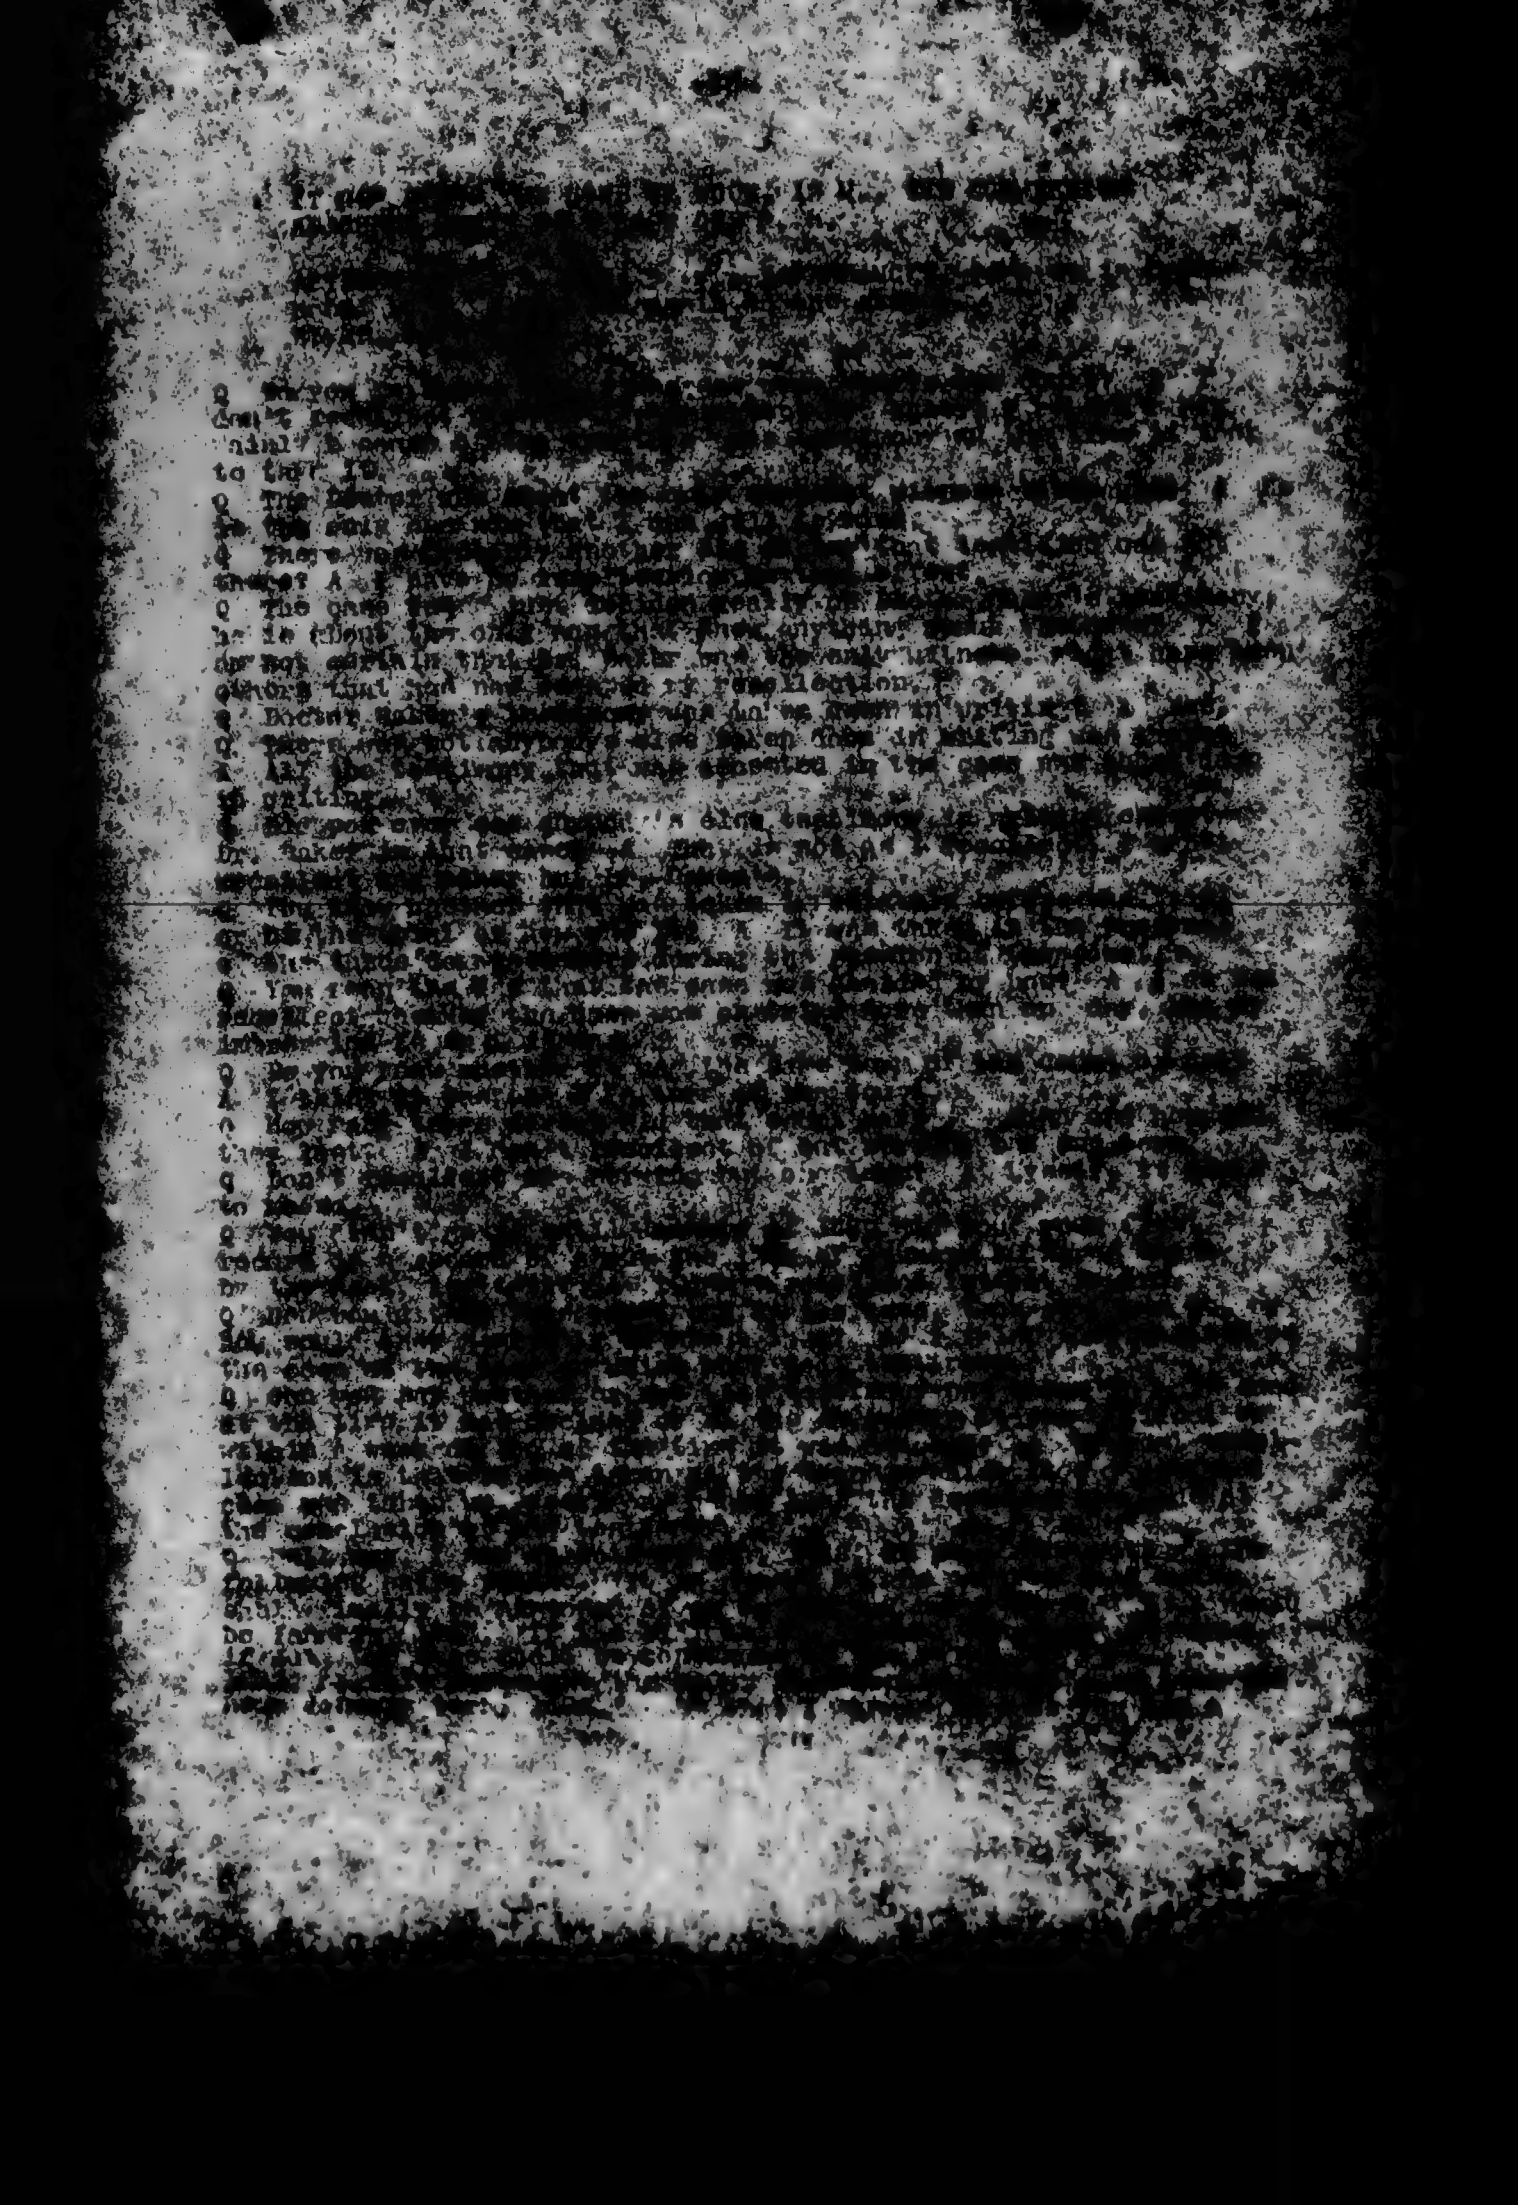
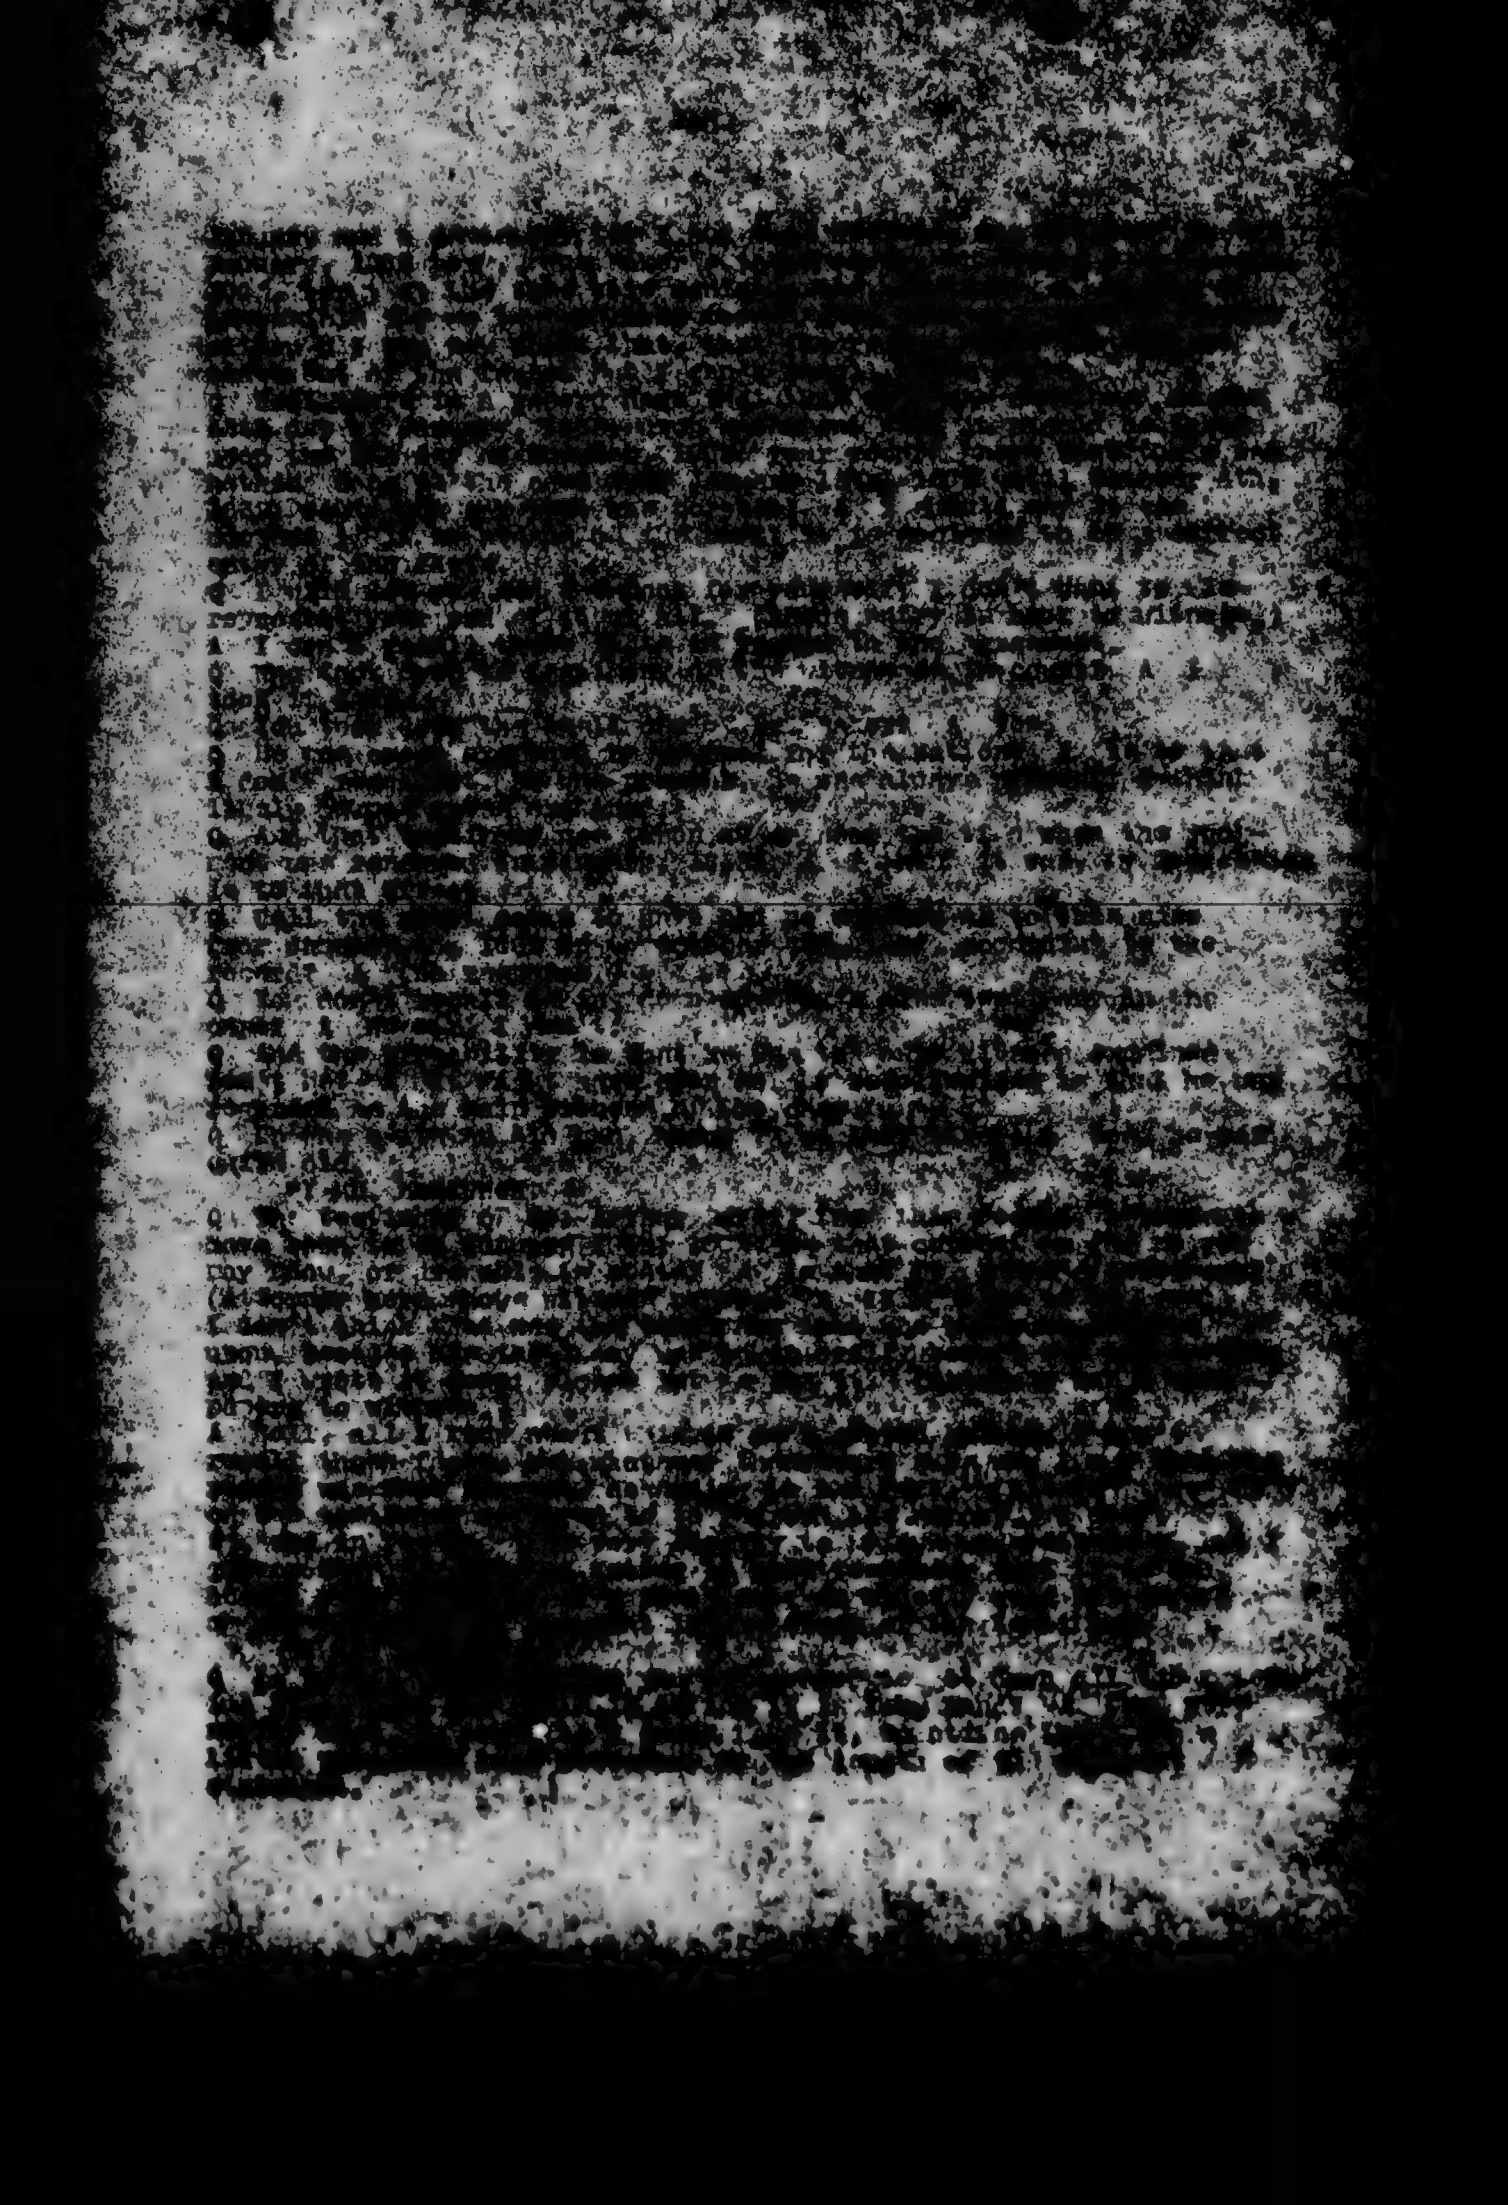
Q Did Campbell Taylor at any time after the rendition of that judgment pay to you any money as coming through him from Bud Dawson for any services which you had rendered to him in that case?
A Yes, he paid me some.
Q What amount? A My recollection is that, I think it was a twenty dollar bill, I don't know but I had better go and state the transaction, all about it.
Q Yes, sir. A Mr. Dawson, Bud Dawson, during the trial of the case occasionally applied to me at my desk for writing paper, issue of a subpoena or transcript, something of that kind; I always treated him with courtesy and proper official consideration. He seemed to appreciate it, and whenever I did services of that kind to him, says he, I have no money, Mr. Duncan, but I feel as I ought to pay you. I told him I made no charges for work of that kind. And in passing I might state that I never received a cent for any kind of that work which I had been in the habit of doing for various parties before the Court.

After his trial was concluded, in the afternoon a little while before supper time I went to my hotel, The National Brick Hotel in Tahlequah; went to my room, laid a little time, laid down upon the bed to rest. I recollect Mr. Duncan stepped into the room, drew a chair up to the bedside and sat down and commenced giving expression to his gratification at the success of his case, dwelling mostly upon the testimony in the case being so satisfactorily, establishing his Cherokee blood, and that he thought that he was entitled and that he had received justice by the Court. I listened to him, and we talked there I guess some ten or fifteen minutes; after a little he says, I must go to-morrow, I think he says to-morrow, I must go home,- he then lived down in Arkansas somewhere. Says he, Mr. Duncan, I believe I owe you something, ought to pay you something. Alluding, as I understood, to these little courtesies that I extended to him at my desk. Says I, I make no charges, Mr. Dawson, for services; if I have done you any good you are welcome. Well, says he, I feel indebted to you, I ought to pay you. I says, that makes no difference; I will leave that to you. Says he, I have hardly enough money to get back home. He shook my hand, and the last word he says to me, you shan't lose anything for your kindness to me. I thought he had reference to my services at the desk. That was the last I saw of Mr. Dawson, oh it must have been a year afterwards; I had located a little claim on the public domain up there in Delaware District, staked off what I intended to be a farm, merely stakes, I didn't make any other improvements, over there on Horse Creek. Went over in that part of the country to look after my claim, and I ran across Mr. Dawson, he had come into the country and located and built him a little shanty and was living in it; I called upon him, he was very glad to see me; I asked him what he was doing there; he said he had moved into the country, and I told him, says I, you are encroaching upon me here; he had spread his claim over part of mine; mine had been made so long it was outlawed under Cherokee law. Well, says Mr. Dawson, I don't feel like doing you any wrong, I will pay you for your claim, and we will settle the matter in that way, that he as soon as he got his little matters together that he would satisfy me for it. Well we parted at that point. It ran on then for a long time, I don't know how long,- I think I met him in Vinita, and says he, did Camp Taylor pay you any money that I sent to you? Says I, No, I have not seen Camp Taylor.

Petition for Citizenship



Followed by the Plaintiff, Oct. 5, 1931.



January 12th, 1932.

Q Will you look at the original transcript hereby shown you and referred to in the judgment and say who signed the names of the Commissioners there? A (Papers shown to witness) A I signed that there.
Q You recognize that as your handwriting? A I do.
Q What made you when you were testifying at Vinita before Mr. Martin, on looking at the same signatures, and being cross-examined by me, say that it was not your signature and that the signature thereto attached was the signature of Mr. Thompson? A Occurred in this way: I had not seen any of the records in the case for about nineteen years. The exact transaction in the court had vanished about entirely from my memory: I recollected at that time, however, when I gave in my testimony before the Commissioner, Martin, that that was a practice of the Court at the time I served by which I signed the names of the full-blood members of the Commission, and Mr. Thompson either uniformly or occasionally signed his own name. I based my statement in that deposition upon my knowledge of the rule or practice in the Court, without comparing the docket and refreshing my memory. I made an incorrect statement when I said that that was not my handwriting; I am convinced now that it is my handwriting. That is the way it occurred, the way it happened.
Q Then you consider your recollection of the fact that Thompson when he was present and rendering a judgment signed it himself, better than your own knowledge of your own handwriting?
A No, I didn't so regard it. I simply spoke without advisement when I gave in that testimony; I subsequently became better informed and concluded that that was my handwriting and not entered by Mr. Thompson under the rule, but was one of those cases in which he authorized me to do it myself, and I did it.
Q Then you have changed your testimony, because you think you have a better knowledge of the surrounding facts now than you had then, and not from the fact of your judgment on your handwriting at present? A I simply corrected my testimony in reference to my statement in regard to this handwriting, this case.
Q And you wouldn't know then as I understand you whether or not that is your handwriting if it was not refreshed by what you consider to be exterior facts? A I should know it by examining it and thinking over the circumstances, I think I should recognize my own handwriting, but if a question should be propounded instantaneously without any advisement or preconsideration I might make a mistake.
Q You did recognize the names of Thomas Tehee and Alexander Rolfe as being in your handwriting at that time? A I was very clear and positive, and so stated, that the names of those Commissioners were in my own handwriting, and I was made certain by reflecting on the rule that they never signed their names with their own hand, but always authorized me to do it. Hence there is no question in my mind in regard to my handwriting in their signatures.
Q And then the third name, right under it, as compared with your admitted handwriting, you had to wait and learn the facts afterwards to determine whether that was your signature or not? A No, I don't think that if I had considered the circumstances, I knew that there was a resemblance; what made me of the opinion that that might have been Mr. Thompson's signature was like this: I knew that he had been in the habit of at least sometimes signing his own name, and I was under the impression, and I do not now think I am much deceived- that his chirography bore at least some resemblance to my own, hence I doubted whether I had signed that name or not on that account.

Q [illegible] A [illegible]
Q [illegible] A [illegible]
Q [illegible] A [illegible]

Q Robert Dawson didn't remove here? A No, I said except Robert Dawson.
Q Did all the members of Robert Dawson family move here? A Yes sir.
Q Except himself? A Yes sir.
Q And all the members of James Dawson family? A No, not all the members, believe now I don't think they lived here.
Q She has never lived here? A No sir.
Q Well all the members of your family, your father's family included in that judgment of the Court, rendered January 11th, 1893? A All but one.
Q That was the name of that one? A Mary.
Q A daughter? A Daughter of Robert Dawson.
Q Your sister? A Yes sir.
Q Was she then of age or was she a minor? A I think she was a minor, as well as I can remember.
Q Was she afterwards admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A She was.
Q By a Commission or by the Cherokee Council? A She was first admitted by the Spears Court, her and two of my brothers.
Q What are their names? A Katie Vernon and Baron Fishback.
Q What became of them? A The certificate where they got was lost, and they went before the Council in 1894 and they was readmitted back by the act of Council.
Q That was in 1894, the Cherokee Council admitted, re-admitted as they called it, the three above named? A Yes sir; Mary and Verna Fishback and Katie Vernon, that have now the same names, now except Vernon, it is not, Tab Robinson married the widow, a neice of mine.
Q Now then was there any other consideration of the Dawson case by the Cherokee authorities at any time after that there was judgments in '93 and '94 admitting the two families of Robert and James Dawson, and the act of Council of '94 admitting these three whom you have just named? A Yes sir.
Q When? A My two of my sons was placed on the roll by the act of Council in 1896 I think it was, left off of the rolls in per capita payment and they was placed on the rolls I think, and Sam Hitchcock member of Council, got their draft for them for the money.
Q Have you got that copy of the act of Council admitting them? A Yes sir.
Q Where is it? A (Produces papers.)

BY MR. LEXINGTON: We offer in evidence an act of the Cherokee National Council making an appropriation of $6,800 dollars belonging to the general fund for the payment of certain persons therein named a per capita payment, as per amount set opposite their respective names, provided that the Principal Chief shall have warrants for such amounts, and further provided that the names of the persons appearing on the per capita rolls in this act shall be placed (on) the authenticated roll of 1896 by the Principal Chief."
It is not dated approved December 21, 1896.
Approval signed by Stephen Foreman, Assistant Acting Principal-
In this act a per the name of Willie G. Dawson for payment of $11,70, and of Marion Dawson, for a like sum. Are those now the names of two of your sons? A Yes sir.
(The paper above introduced, is filed and made a part of the records in this case.
Q Was there any other action of the Cherokee authorities relating to members of your family? A Yes sir.

Q When? A In 1894.
Q What was that? A Allowing them their strip money.
Q Have you a copy of that? A I think I have. (Produces paper)
BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence a duly certified copy of an act of the Cherokee National Council approved Nov. 24, 1894, signed D. J. Harris, Principal Chief. Senate Bill No. 18, appropriating a sufficient amount of money to pay payment out merits of what is known as the strip money to certain persons named therein. Among those are members of the Blessingame family, as follows: John, Elbert, Henry, Jessie, Lee Lee, Pearl, Otto, Myrtle, Fannie and Clifford; this act mentions those persons as Cherokees by blood, and whose names had been left off the pay roll approved May 3, 1894. Provides a payment to each one of those a sum of $300.00.
Q Were those members of the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q Which one of the members of the family? A Jane.
Q This is Jane who was admitted by the judgment admitting the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q And her children? A Her children, were not admitted, but were admitted.
Q I mean this mentions her children here? A Yes, that mentions her children.
(The paper last above introduced is filed and made a part of the record in this case.)
Q Do you know whether the payment of the Cherokee Strip money was to Cherokee citizens by blood only or not? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any other act of the Cherokee Nation passed upon the citizenship of members of your family? A Yes, [illegible] children, by Brewster's grand-children. The [illegible] Dawson.
Q When was that? A That, I think it was in 1894.
Q Have you got a copy of that act? A No, the record is here.
Q Was that by the Speaker Count? A Yes sir by the Speaker Count.
BY MR. McKENNON: We now offer in evidence a judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, Lula and Lydia found on page 190 Book No. 181, dated September 8th, 1894, signed by Eli Shelton, President, John Lee and Andrew Young, Commissioners, admitting to citizenship Lula Doublett and Dallas Doublett as Cherokees by blood.
Q These now are the Doubletts to which you refer, are they? Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON: Attention is called to the fact that the names of the Commissioners are all signed in the same hand-writing, the record of the judgment.

The said judgment record above introduced, and found on page 190, No. 181, record of 1880 to 1884, is as follows:

"Office of Commission on Citizenship,
Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation, September 18th, 1893.

E. Dawson, for his grand-children,

Q [illegible]
Q [illegible]
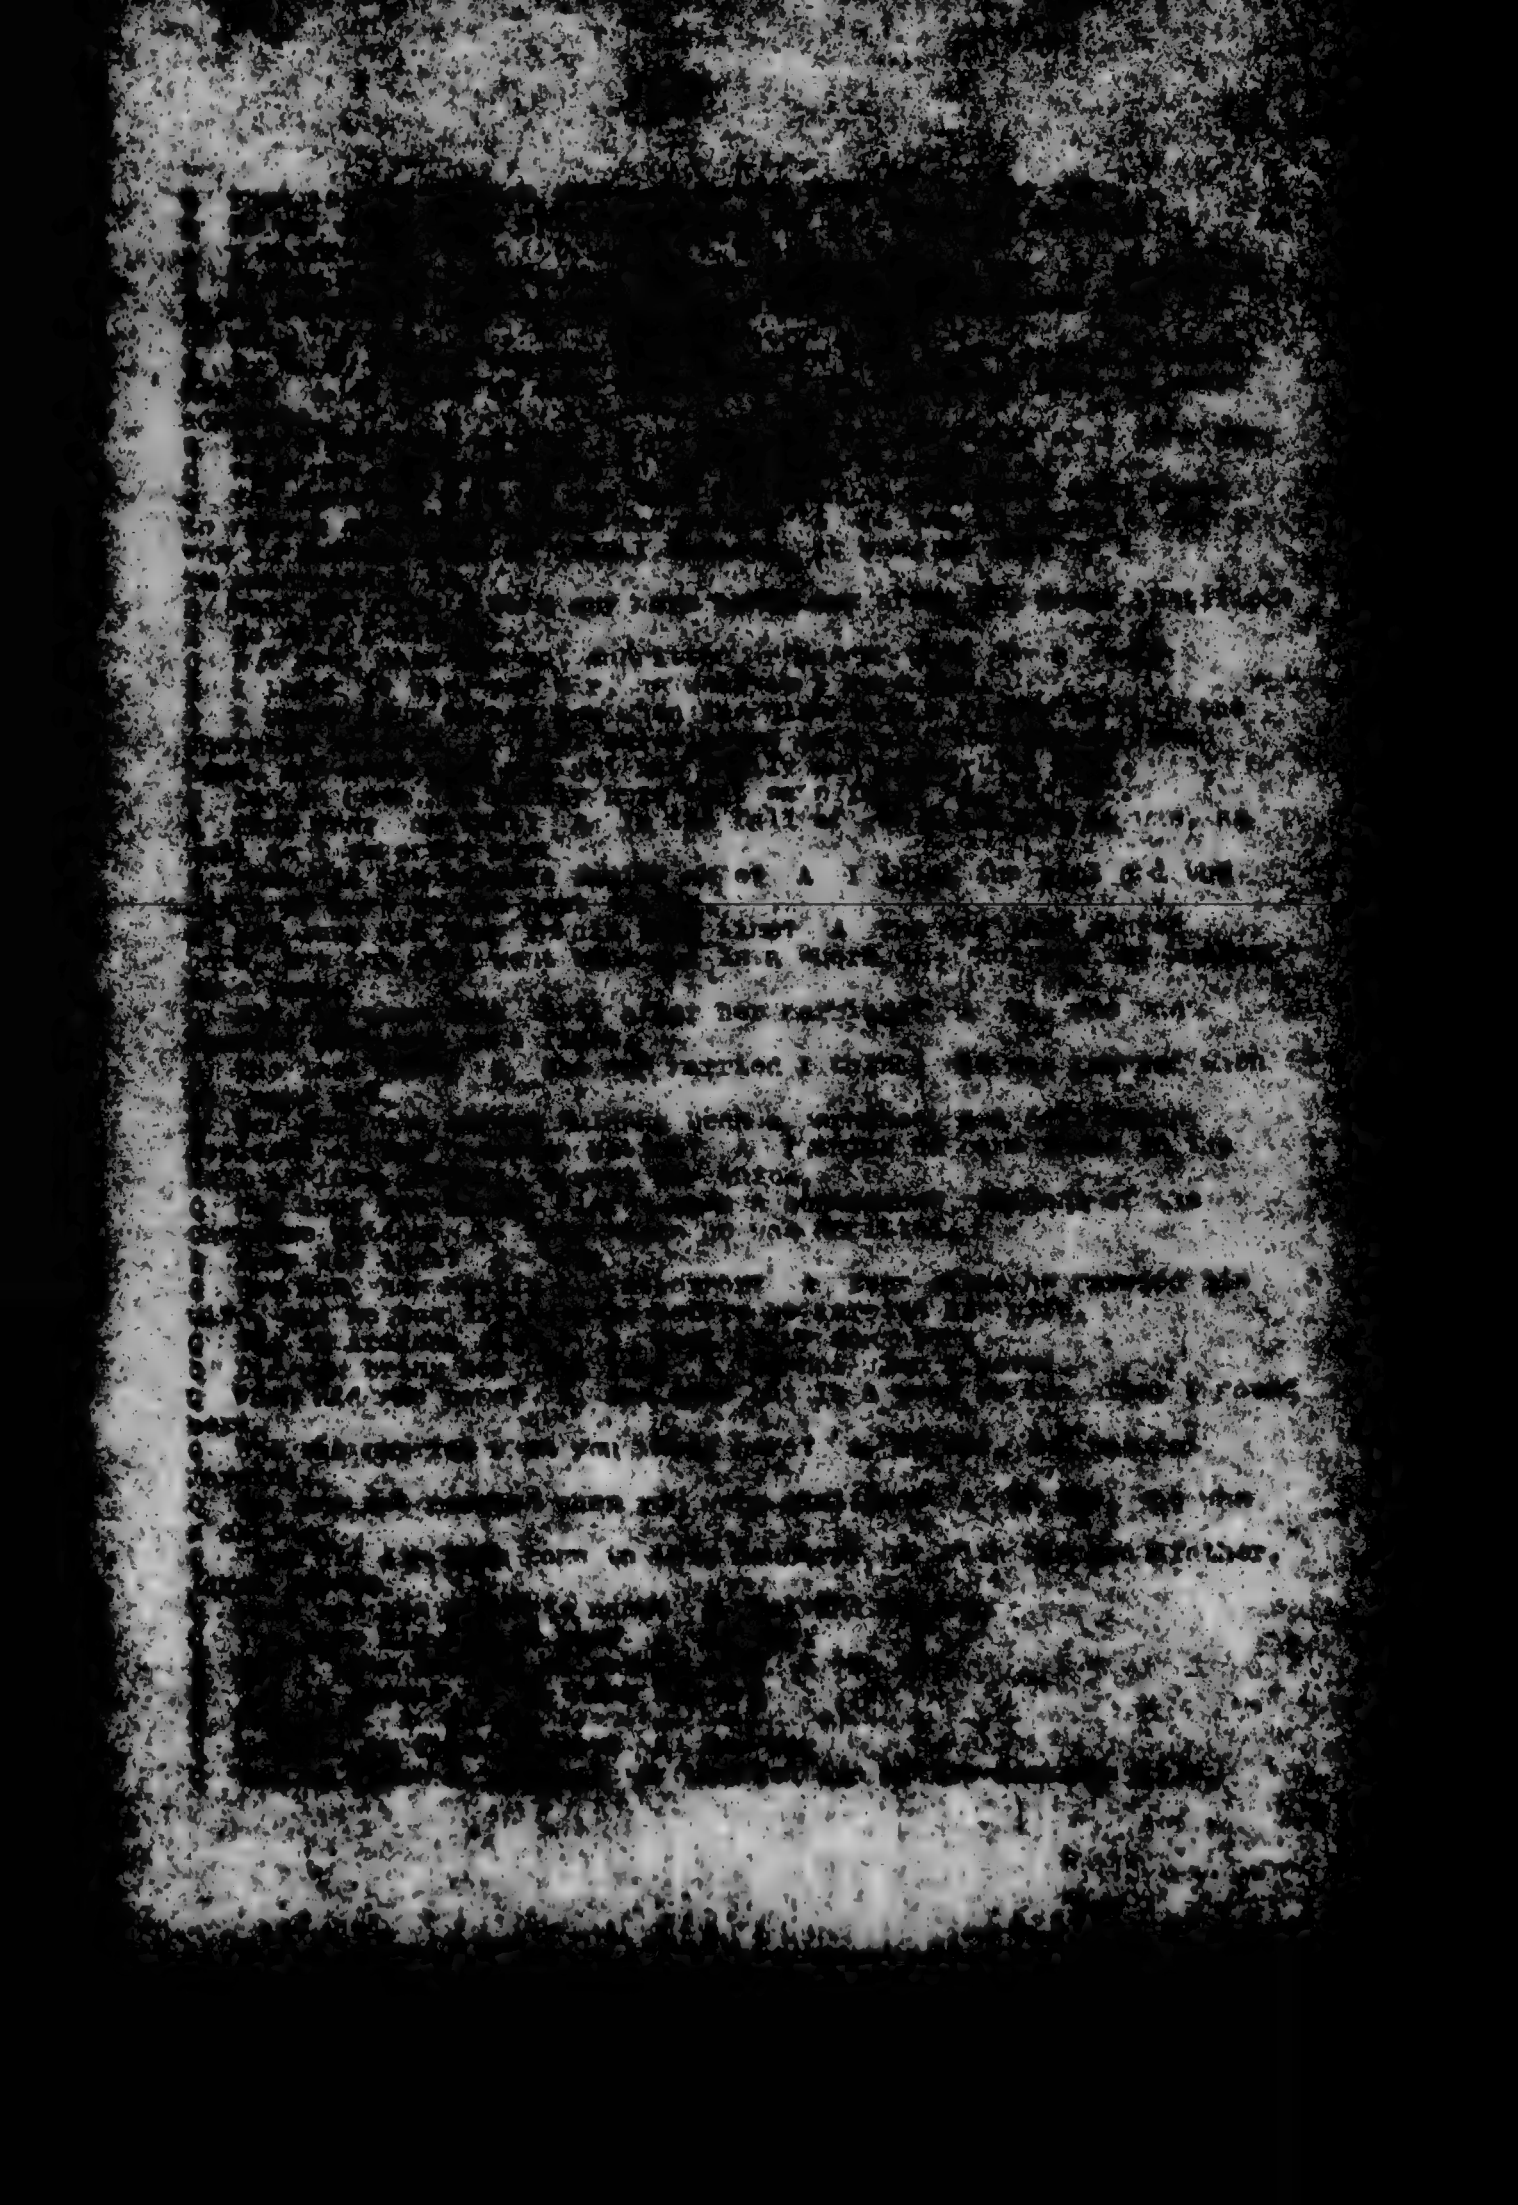
Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And [illegible] A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] A Yes sir.
Q Is there anything else? A Nothing now; I am sick this evening; I have got the head-ache so bad I can't hardly see.



BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How old was your father Robert Dawson when he died? A I don't know; I couldn't say or that.
Q He was a very old man? A Yes sir, he was getting tolerably old.
Q Could you tell me how much older he was than you? A No I don't know.
Q Mr. Jesse B. Dawson in 1894 must have been a very old man, wasn't he? A Well he was old and he was feeble.
Q Well you state that he had become silly; was he naturally that way? A He never to live in Texas; I didn't know him until after he came to the Territory.
Q I say he had gotten so old, that was the meaning of that?
A I suppose so, the eldest one of these children was Mrs. Betty Petty, that is my understanding.
Q And the eldest boy was John Dawson? A He always called him Jack.
Q Jack Dawson he was the eldest? A Yes sir.
Q So he was the youngest? A Sam Riley.
Q He was the youngest one of the crowd? A Yes sir.
Q Your father lived four or five years after he and you were admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir, something about that, he died in 1887, I think he died in 1887. I would be positive, that is as near as I recall her now. I have got a headache so bad that I can't remember anything.
Q He now none of the older members of the family were ever present at any of these trials of citizenship? A No sir, not a one of them was.
Q Not a one of them was ever called upon to testify as to the blood of their father, who was the [illegible] of anything about it? A I don't think they was.
Q Your claim of kinship was through Captain John Rogers and that your grandmother was the half sister of his son Vann, wasn't it? A I don't know, I couldn't answer the question.
Q You were there when they took the testimony? A I was there when Dr. Baker's testimony was taken, that was about 16 years ago.
Q And nobody kin to the Rogers and Vanns was ever called to testify in the case? A Not as I know of.
Q They were very well known Cherokee families in the country?
A I suppose so, I don't know.
Q And not nobody on any side of the family connected with it was ever called to testify? A . Not that I know of, I don't know that my brother Sam, he took some of the evidence at Tahlequah when I was not there; he first filed his claim.

Q You had spoken to Dr. Baker before you were testifying before you brought your case didn't you? A No sir.
Q What have been a short time afterwards? A It was a short time afterwards. I went back after him and it was too late and I fetched him the next time.
Q You had talked to your brother about what you could prove by Dr. Baker? A I told him I thought Dr. Baker, I thought he knew about our folks.
Q You had told him in general way you expected to use Dr. Baker as a witness? A Yes sir.
Q You came here to Anson and left your brother at Tahlequah after you told the real facts? A Yes sir.
Q You didn't see your brother any more until after you were acquitted? A No sir.
Q You and your brother were prosecuted and went to Tahlequah and were at different times, but didn't happen to get together? A No. I heard of all any time and I don't know what he was there until after we were acquitted.
Q But you were there and called Dr. Baker over? A Yes sir.
Q And took him Sentinney a year or such a matter before even you were acquitted? A I think so I remember, yes sir.
Q Now the way you got to Joel Campbell trying one of the recommendation of his ran between and didn't get him, didn't you?
Q The way he came into your case? A The way he claimed to want in.
Q He did more in your case than Bryant did? A Campbell didn't do anything.
Q What did Bryant do? A I think he had my brother take evidence my brother against me.
Q How did you happen to be ordered to pay by Campbell to Mr. Duncan? A I never went into any county.
Q Then what was Mr. Duncan having and Campbell ordered the money as Campbell said he did, paid them money, you and Campbell saying, for me.
Q How did you happen to give it to Campbell? A [illegible] to Campbell to give to Joel Bryant, and [illegible] tried to get the money back from him, would [illegible] or 35 dollars he give to Duncan.
Q Then you didn't tell Duncan as he testified that you owed 30 or 35 dollars by Campbell Taylor? A Campbell Taylor agreed to pay Duncan 30 or 35 dollars for me of the money I paid him to give to Joel Bryant.
Q The family kept Campbell Taylor employed though as their attorney after that? A In the Jarrett Bryant case I think so.
Q E. Bryant, you remember, had him for his grand-children? A That is my understanding.
Q And your uncle Jesse Duncan testified in the case of the children? A Uncle Jesse had nothing to do with it. He was not with Jackson and him; that was my understanding of who employed him.
Q You recall here shown that the case was originally [illegible] by Campbell Taylor and was finally submitted by him yesterday [illegible] in the [illegible] case. [illegible]
Q [illegible] I don't know [illegible]
Q [illegible]
A [illegible]

Q He was likewise attorney in the Mary Dawson case was he, and before the Adair court, the 4th of October, 1887, in the case of James K. P. Dawson? A I don't know anything about that.
Q And the case likewise of Riley Dawson? A I don't know anything about those.
Q They are relations of yours? A Well I couldn't say.
Q James K. P. Dawson proves to be a son of Riley Dawson? A Well if he is he is my connection then. There are so many Dawsons I don't know them all.
Q You know Andrew J. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The Dawsons have so many children their brothers didn't hardly know them did they? A That's it, I don't know them.
Q Well then you don't know who Andrew J. Dawson is? A No sir, I don't know.
Q He refers in his application as being a cousin of E. Dawson, and yourself, who were admitted to citizenship by the Tahlequah Court? A He may be, I don't know nothing about it.
Q He resided I believe, at that time at Nevada, Missouri? A I don't know anything about their people.
Q Old Sam Baker was an old and paralyzed man at the time he testified wasn't he? A Getting old, he was not paralyzed.
Q Then the statement made that the reason he couldn't write his name and had to make his mark, because he was paralyzed, in the testimony isn't that true? A He didn't have good use of his fingers.
Q Then he was not paralyzed? A No, I brought him over there in a hack from Berryville, Arkansas.
Q Well I say he was a very old man? A Yes, getting old.
Q How didn't you come to this place up there joining Brought's and work on it some time before you brought your family? A No, I brought my family with me, except my wife.
Q And you subsequently built a log house on it? A Yes sir.
Q And went back and got your wife and moved them to the log house? A Yes sir, went to Eureka and got my wife.
Q You never saw your grandfather at all? A Saw Dawson, yes sir, I saw him.
Q You remember do you of being with him much of any at all? A I was in Texas in time of the war, with my uncle Riley Dawson, and he was there.
Q In '60 sometime? A '62, I reckon, or '63. Somewhere along there, it was in time of the war.
Q How old a man was he at that time? A Pretty old man.
Q You never saw your grandmother, she died before she came? A Yes sir, I never saw her at all.
Q Who first started the citizenship matter, your brother in Texas or you? A Why it was me, and my brother together.
Q I mean who first conceived the idea? A I first commenced talking about it.
Q And sent down for him? A I was in Texas with him and then in Arkansas; I went backwards and forwards a time or two after the war.
Q About that time nearly everybody in Arkansas were trying to get some claim of kinship to Cherokees? A No sir, not at that time.
Q They were getting pretty thick in there in 1880? A Well in 63 and '4 and '5 I think.
Q Been much excitement over there to get yourselves on the rolls? A Just got to be everybody; but it wasn't at the time we was admitted there was not much stir about the rights here.
Q Well the Watts had been admitted before that? A I suppose they had; there was not much excitement over the Watts claim at that time.

Q [illegible] A [illegible]
Q [illegible] A [illegible]
Q [illegible] A [illegible]

Q That? A Yes sir, that Dawson.
Q Well is that all he did on you? A I don't remember now about it.
Q Why didn't you put your attorney to do that letter writing? A I was not any there.
Q Uncle Joe Benge was not there then? A No sir.
Q That is what you paid the $0 or 25 dollars for, the writing this letter back to your brother? A I paid him for that claim.
Q When did you pay that? A I think I paid it, I don't exactly when, Sam Taylor paid it a year or two after I moved out here and settled where I did; might have been 2 years. I don't remember.
Q Where was Duncan living then? A I couldn't say where.
Q Was he still clerk of this Court? A No sir, not when the money was paid; that is, when Sam Taylor said he paid it.
Q You did send Sam Taylor some money? A I sent some money to him for Joel Bryant.
Q You knew Joel Bryant's ad rem didn't you? A No, I don't know that I did. No I didn't send Sam Taylor any money, I gave it to him.
Q How much did you give him? A One hundred dollars.
Q When? A Right at that time; he claimed it from me as soon as we got our papers; he came into my house and claimed me for Bryant.
Q You never heard him any then after that? A No sir.
Q Did you ever see Bryant after that? A Yes sir
Q How long after that? A I don't know, a year or two afterwards. A year I believe, my brother wrote, I wrote to my brother about paying Sam Taylor money and he went onto my brother about it and he never paid him until he moved out to this country.
Q After all that you got him to attend to your whole Uncle Dawson's and the other relatives names? A The other parties did.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all that part of the witness' evidence in response to interrogation by representatives of the Cherokee Nation which relates to the character of the evidence upon which the judgments admitting members of the Jones and Robert Dawson families were rendered, and to the history of the members of the Dawson family, because the same is irrelevant, incompetent and irrelevant.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q One question I omitted to ask you Mr. Dawson, as to the fourth of the fifty five judgment admitting Robert Dawson's family was rendered, one of the judges were present on that day? A They was all three of them, Wolfe, Jones and Thompson.
Q Are you positive of that fact? A Yes sir.
Q You do not know this Andrew Dawson family who are writing to the Dawes Commission for Cherokee citizenship, and who claimed that they are entitled on some members of your family? A [illegible]
Q Andrew J. Dawson, who claims to be from Mississippi? A How was the question?
Q You do not know them do you? A I don't know that they are any kin to me.
Q You don't know that they are related to you at all? A No sir.
Q Mary Dawson also, do you know the members of that family? A [illegible]
Q [illegible] A No sir.
Q [illegible] A I don't know her either.
Q You don't know whether they are related to you or not? A No sir.
Q If any of these persons are related to you or that family did you have any knowledge of it? A Not as I know of.

Q What County? A Carroll.
Q Is it a town? A Berryville.
Q Did Dr. Baker live at Berryville? A Yes sir.
Q Was your brother intimately acquainted with him for many years?
A Yes sir.
Q Did he live in sufficiently to be acquainted with his character and habits of life? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Josephine Pierce? A Yes sir.
Q Whose daughter was she? A Robert Dawson's.
Q Is she the same identical person who is called Josie Pierce, and Josie Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Is there any other Josie Pierce or Josie Dawson or Josephine Pierce or Josephine Dawson? A I don't know but to one.
Q She was also called Josephine or Josie Kelly? A Yes, after she married; her first husband was Pierce.
Q And her second husband A Tom Kelly.
Q There was another Josephine Dawson wasn't there, Bulaski's wife?
A They called her Joe, I suppose it's her name, I could not be positive; that was Bile Dawson's daughter, August Bulaski's wife.
Q She is much younger than your sister, Josephine, above referred to? A Yes sir, oh yes.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Where were you born, Mr. Dawson? A Carroll County, Arkansas.
Q You know how old you are? A 42.
Q 42? A I think so.
Q How many older children were there of your father's when you were yourself? A Three.
Q Which were they? A E. Dawson, Riley Dawson and Jasper Dawson.
Q You are the fourth child and the fourth boy? A Yes sir, fourth boy.
Q Where did your father and mother live, do you know, prior to their history? A I think it was in Arkansas, I couldn't be positive, I think they was.
Q Do you know how long your grandfather lived in Arkansas? A No sir I don't.
Q Don't know what year he came to Arkansas? A Only from statement.
Q Well what did they say about it? A I think they come there some time in '30.
Q You know whether your father was born in Arkansas? Do any of your grandchildren were born there? A There was one of them born in Arkansas according to history and according to what he always told me, they were born in Tennessee.
Q He came there in '30, and all the other children were born on the Hiwasee River in Tennessee, before he ever came? A That is what I think, yes sir. No I am not positive about that. They were from Tennessee, but either Dr. Baker lived there or my folks came from there; I don't know as I ever knew that I ever heard my father say where he was born at.
Q In Tennessee or where; he said he was a good big boy when he came to Arkansas? A I don't know as I ever heard him say.
Q Do you know the difference in the ages of yourself and your three older brothers? A No I don't.
Q Don't know the time that comes in between you? A No I don't know that; I think it is about two years though.
Q That would make E. Dawson about eight years older than you, probably? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did Josephine Pierce have a daughter who married Mr. Bogle?
A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A I always knowed her by Dode Pierce, I don't know whether that is her right name or not.
Q What is Bogle's name? A John Bogle.
Q She is the child of Josephine Pierce who married John Bogle?
A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Where did she marry John Bogle? A Near Arlee.
Q When? A I couldn't state.
Q About when? A You have got a copy of the marriage license.
Q When did Josephine Pierce come to the Charlos Heights? A '93.
Q Has she lived here continuously since that time? A Up until her death; she is dead.
Q Any of her children come with her at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And have they lived here continuously since that time? A Yes sir, except Bill Pierce, he went to Colorado and died.

J. C. STARR, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Your name is J. C. Starr is it? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Starr, was that instrument taken by you, or before you? (Showing witness document.)
A Yes sir.
Q Where? A At the residence of S. H. Benge; near Fort Gibson.
Q When? A On the 15th day of this month.
Q What day of the week was that? A On Saturday.
Q Is that the day it was taken? A Yes sir.
Q Did you go there on Saturday to take this? A Yes sir.
Q Then when Judge Benge stated on Tuesday that it was taken yesterday, meaning Monday, the 17th, he was mistaken, was he?
A It was taken on Saturday, the 15th.
Q Was he mistaken or not? A It was not taken then.
Q Then his statement made on Tuesday the 18th that it was taken on yesterday, meaning Monday, the 17th, was not correct, was it?
A I think not, because I was there, and it was taken on the 15th.
Q And it was taken on the 15th, you are positive it was taken on the 15th? A Yes sir.

Q Then of course his statement could not be correct? A I guess not.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q He was just mistaken about the date, wasn't he? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did you tell Charles F. Moore who is now present, on last Tuesday that they sent you out there on Monday to take this? A No sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q I sent you there last Saturday? A Yes sir.
Q And you went there at my direction, didn't you? A Yes sir, and come back Saturday night.

ROBERT L. DAWSON, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A My name is Robert L. Dawson.
Q What is your age? A My age is something close to 30 years old, I am 29 past.

Q Are you a son of E. Dawson, commonly known as Buck Dawson?
A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if you will examine this letter and with the enclosure and state whether or not you found that among the papers of your father after his death? A (Hands letter to witness who examines it) A Yes sir, I found this amongst the papers of my father. He always kept all his own papers, and in looking over them I saw this letter.
Q Has that been in your custody ever since you found it? A Yes sir, if that's the letter that was in the envelope.
Q Well that's what it is, you can tell whether it is or not. (Witness further examines letter) Q That purports to be a letter from Samuel H. Benge, does it not, to your father? A Yes sir. (Here applicants' attorney hands letter and env lope referred to to attorneys for Cherokee Nation.)

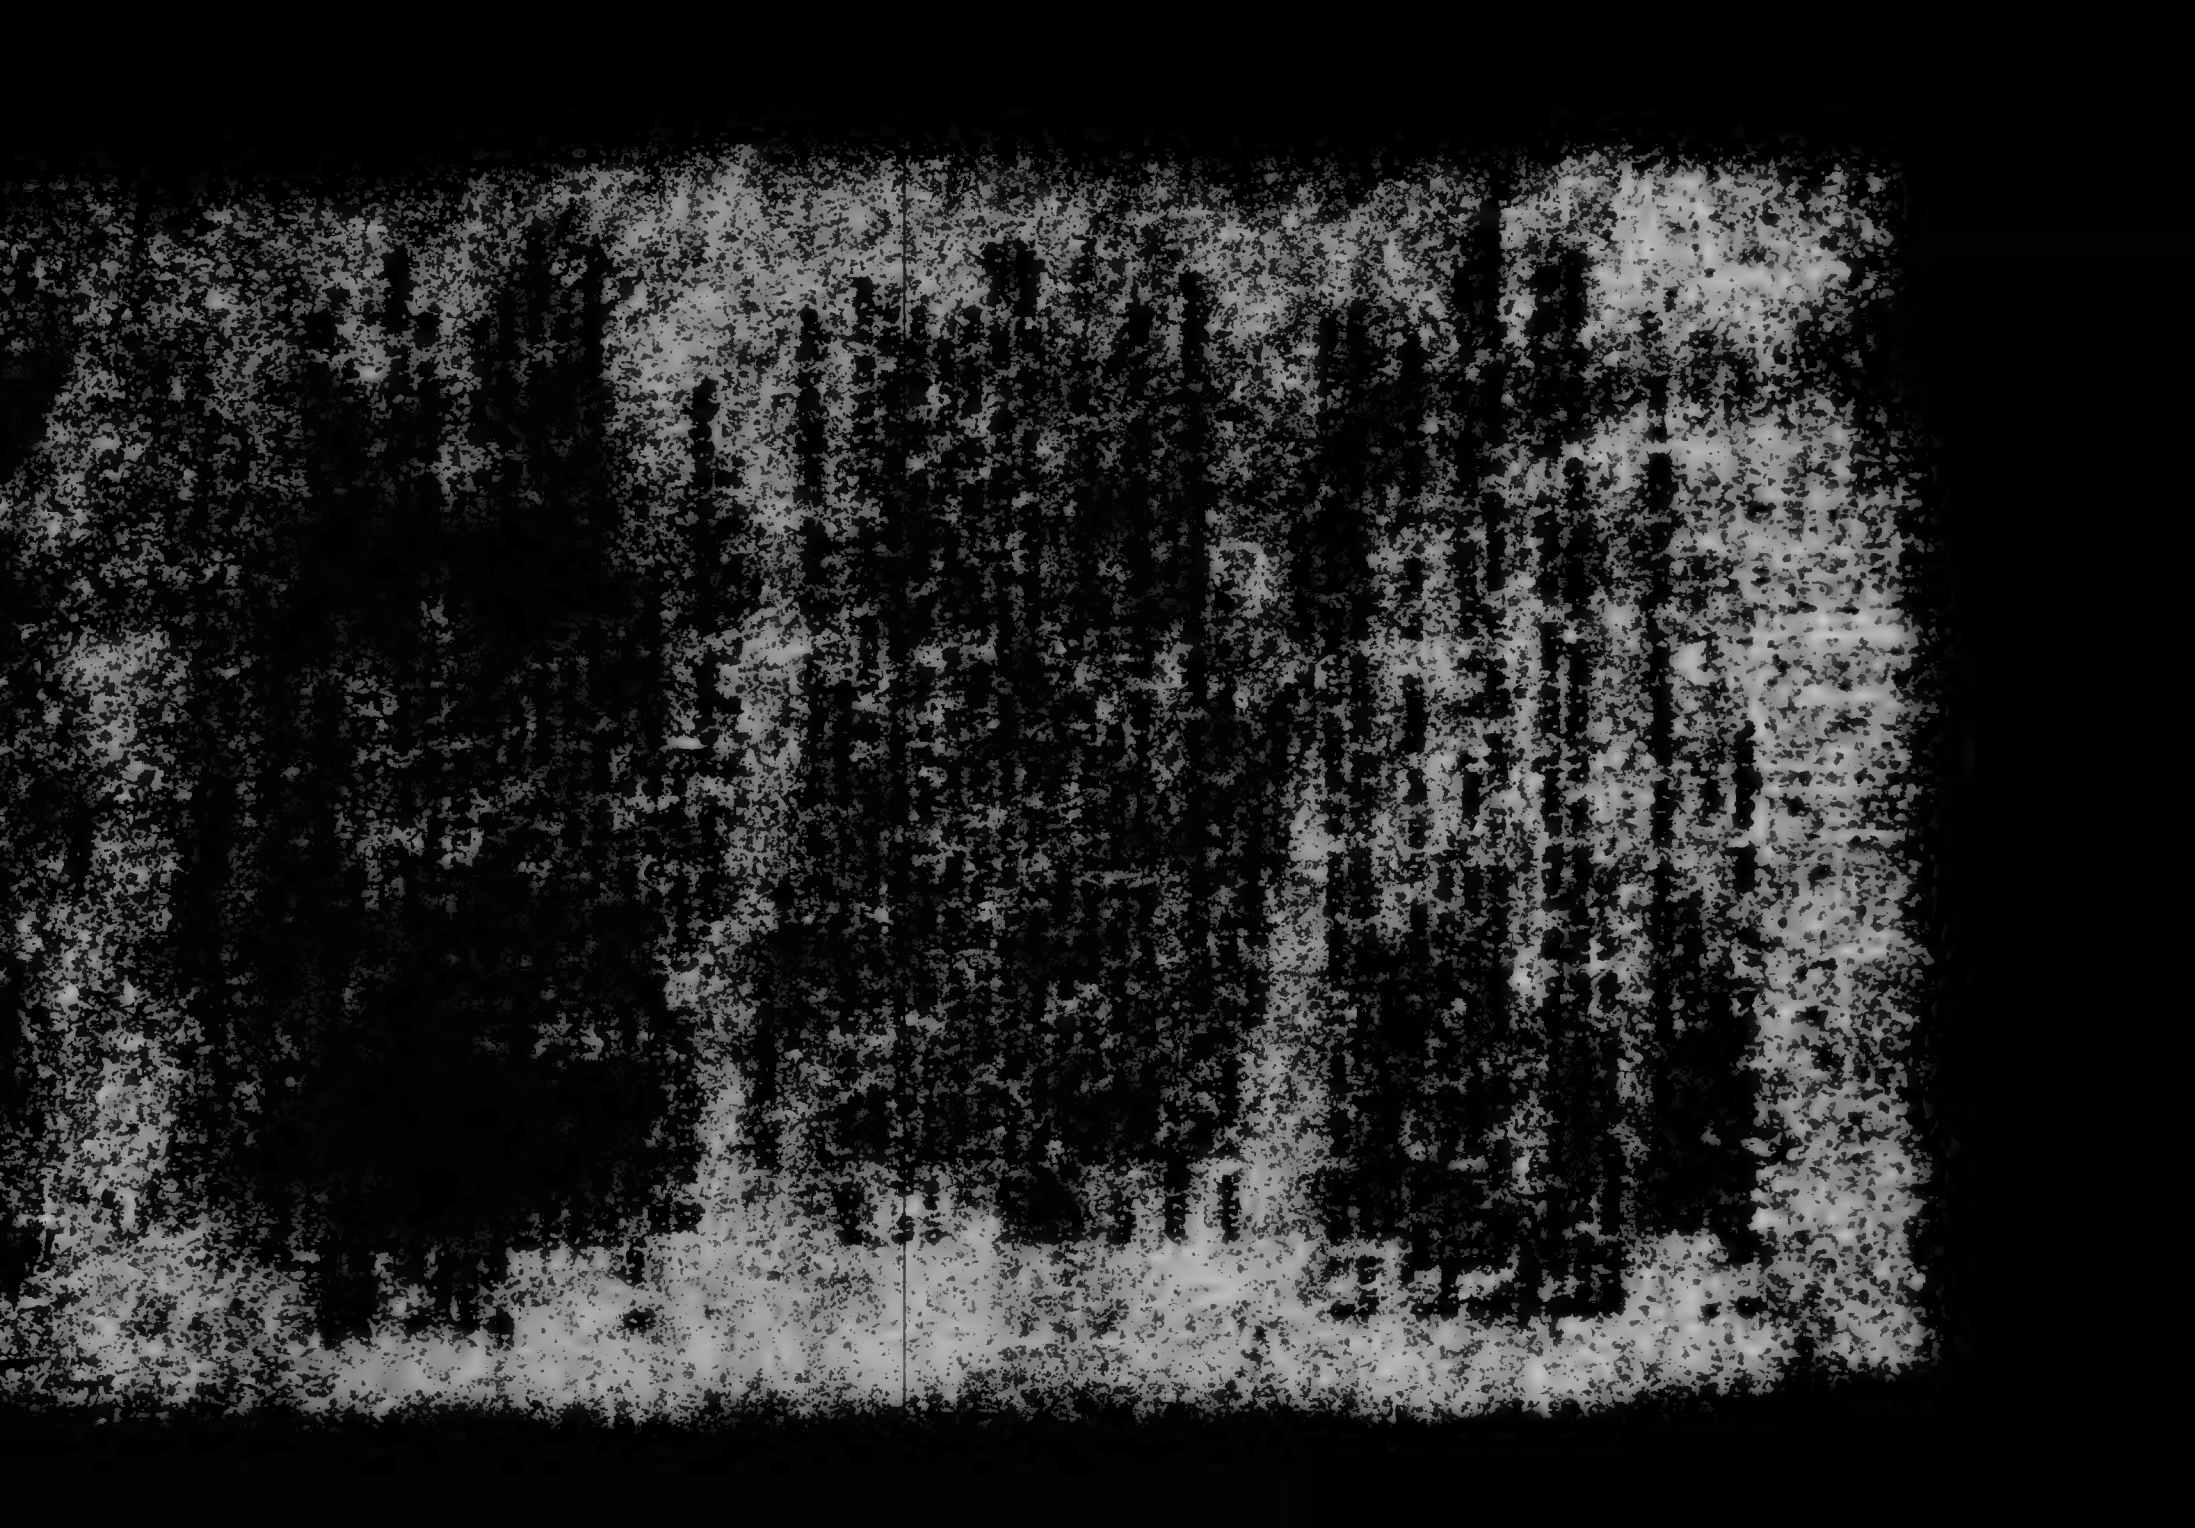
BY MR. McKENNON: I want to offer this letter in evidence in this case; it is a letter signed by S. H. Benge, attorney at law, dated Fort Gibson, C. N., Jan. 13, 1883. Addressed to Mr. E. Dawson, Esq., together with the envelope, in which it was enclosed, with the card of C. H. Taylor upon it; attorney at law, Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and postmarked Tahlequah, Ind. T., January 13.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS: The Nation objects to the introduction of this letter for the reason that S. H. Benge is living and has testified in this case, and his handwriting should be either proven or denied by himself.

G. W. BENGE, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A G. W. Benge.
Q Are you a son of Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know his handwriting? A I believe so.
Q Is that his handwriting? (Shows witness letter before referred to.) A Yes sir, it is either his or a resemblance of his.
Q To the best of your knowledge and belief is that his letter?
A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: Now we offer it in evidence.

BY COMMISSION: (Reading letter)



"Fort Gibson, C. N.,
Jan 13th, 1883.

Mr. E. Dawson, Esq.,

Dear Sir:- I write this note to inform you that your case came off before the Court on Citizenship on the 11th inst, and was decided in your favor, so you all are citizens of this Nation. F. M. Dawson was furnished with a copy of the decision at the court. He will write to you also. You will please send me fifty dollars as my fee in your case according to contract. Send it to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully yours,
S. H. Benge,
Attorney at law."

Enclosed in envelope, as follows:
Card in upper corner, left hand:
"Return in ten days to C. H. Taylor,
Attorney at Law,
Tahlequah, Ind. Ter."
Addressed: "Mr. E. Dawson,

Q How old are you? A Mr. Graham? A I am 38 years old.
Q How long have you been living in the Territory? A I came out here in 1887 or '88.
Q To the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation, that year was that '87 or '88? A Yes sir.
Q Have you resided here continuously from that time ever since in the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live in the Cherokee Nation? A About 6 years.
Q Where did you go then? A Tahlequah.
Q In the Creek Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And been residing there ever since? A Yes sir.
Q In business? A Yes sir.
Q Have you all the while been recognized as A citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Graham, do you know Judge Samuel E. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Did you have a conversation with him in Fort Gibson about September of 1900? A Well as to the exact time I couldn't say, it was sometime about the time that the Dawes Commission were at Sallisaw, or possibly a little later, somewhere about there.
Q Taking the census of the Cherokees? A Yes sir.
Q At that time had the question of the validity of the judgment of the Cherokee citizenship commission admitting Robert Dawson and family been called in question? A Yes sir.
Q Did you talk to him about the facts concerning the obtaining of that judgment? A I did.
Q What did he tell you about it; well I will just ask you, did he then and there tell you that that judgment was regular and all right nothing wrong with it? A He did.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, Mr. Graham, were you? A How was that?
Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, expecting this case to be questioned? A Since the validity of said judgment had been attacked by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, I thought it was well to look into the matter.
Q And he told you the judgment was all right? A Having known that Mr. Benge was connected with the case, I saw him in Fort Gibson, subsequent to that time and asked him about it, if there was anything wrong about the matter, and also that I might have an affidavit concerning the matter, and I also I think maybe wrote to him, possibly prior to that, I am not sure as to the writing, but I think possibly I did.
Q Did he tell you he would make an affidavit? A I don't think at that time that I asked him for an affidavit, I thought as he lived right near here I would use him in person; he assured me that everything was all right.
Q Your mother was Missouri Dawson was not she? A Yes sir.
Q Her name was Missouri Graham when she was re-admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir.
Q And was not Missouri Dawson as named in that judgment? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether the other .. children named in there had married and changed their names also at the time they were admitted? A There were not any of them married.
Q Ella Dawson was your aunt? A Yes sir.
Q Was she married at that time? In 1903? A Yes sir.
Q Melvina Dawson, was she married at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And the fourth one you have mentioned, Missouri Dawson, was your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Can you give us the place where your father [illegible]
A [illegible]
Q And you [illegible]
Q You can't [illegible]
A [illegible]
Q [illegible]
Q [illegible]
Q [illegible]
Q [illegible]
A [illegible]
Q Prior to [illegible] coming here? A Yes sir.
Q That is the only child you had that was born away from here?
A Mr. Julian.
Q Julian was not born in the Territory? A No sir.
Q And prior to the time of your removing to the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q These are the only children born out? A Yes sir.

BY MR. [illegible]:

Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if about February 1901, he came to Wagoner, and sent his son to have you come to the hotel at night, where he was, and if he then and there said to you "You should live on the [illegible] and if you will give me five hundred dollars I will make it all right and see that you are [illegible], and if you don't I will see that you don't get on"? A [illegible] as to the first part of that question, where you say he said his son; that is an error; I don't know whether he sent it by boy or what else; the [illegible] come that evening by wire [illegible] and was at the city hotel at Wagoner, and [illegible] and saw me, I went down there; I [illegible] information [illegible] is in the nature what you said; and asked me if I was on the [illegible] list, etc. [illegible] and told me that we were; he [illegible] if I didn't want to [illegible] something that if we would give him, our family would give him [illegible] he would see that he [illegible] to give him five hundred dollars [illegible] influence against us and see that we [illegible]
Q You never had seen him before, or had any [illegible] with him?
A I never met him before, as to the [illegible], I may have written him something about his [illegible] as to the validity of the judgment, I can't [illegible] to that. It [illegible] that I did, I don't know whether I did or not, now.

BY MR. [illegible]:

Q You were the attorney in the case, originally? A After [illegible] at the request [illegible].
Q I mean you knew it at the time you wrote to him about the [illegible], that was the reason that you thought he would know [illegible]? A [illegible]
Q He never told you he was going to [illegible] you or [illegible] that you had [illegible] I [illegible] know [illegible] five hundred dollars he would [illegible] and [illegible]?
A [illegible] influence against you, that is what he meant? A Yes sir.

Martin, a Notary Public on October 8, 1900, and further proceedings were had therein before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory on March 17, 1902. All of these proceedings have been made a part of the record herein.

The evidence, and an examination of the records of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of this Commission show that on January 11, 1883, one Robert Dawson and his adult children, F. M. Dawson, Elbert Dawson, Jesper Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Wilborn Dawson, James Dawson, Chal Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Julia Dawson and John Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on citizenship, commonly known as the "Teehee Court", and that on September 8, 1884, one James Dawson, a brother of the Robert Dawson aforesaid, together with his adult children, Elia Dawson, W. A. Dawson, Melvina Dawson and [illegible] Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship commonly known as the "Sequoyah Court." In addition to their tribal enrollment as shown by the evidence herein, it also appears from an examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, that F. M. Dawson is identified on the Cherokee pay rolls of 1883 and 1884, Elbert Dawson on the Cherokee pay roll of 1884, Mollie Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Wilborn Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883 and 1884, James Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883 and 1884, Chal Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883 and 1884, Josephine Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Jane Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, [illegible] Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883, 1883 and 1884, Elia Dawson and W. A. Dawson

[illegible]

For convenience, the applications are divided into groups:

Group 1, includes the applications of Francis M. Dawson and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 356, D 360, D 361, D 364, D 368 and D 369.

The evidence shows that Francis M. Dawson is the [illegible] admitted to citizenship as hereinbefore stated under the name of F.M. Dawson. Lydia Dawson, his wife, was married to him on November 28, 1888. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Dawson and William Dawson vs. W. A. Duncan held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and the six children included in the application of said Francis M. Dawson and hereinbefore named are the issue of the marriage aforesaid. All the applicants herein are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

John Dawson, William M. Dawson, Lizzie Atkins, Reynolds Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Arizona Allred are the children of said Francis M. Dawson by a former wife, Julia Ann. They were minors on the date of their father's admission to citizenship, [illegible] Lizzie Atkins and Francis M. Dawson, Jr., are identified on the 1896 payment roll of [illegible] and William M. Dawson and Arizona Allred are identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

Andrew S. [illegible]

[illegible]

Arizona Allred, the Bureau, were from [illegible] Nation for the first time in 1894, resident there about two years and then returned to Arizona, where she was enrolled as [illegible] Such marriage was not in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Arizona Allred and her children were in the Cherokee Nation in 1896, stayed there a month and returned to Arizona where they remained until September, 1896, at which time they came to the Nation, remained there about a year and returned to Arizona in 1898, where they were living at the date of their application. William C. Allred is the child of said Arizona Allred and [illegible] he might not recognize by his mother. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Paragraph 3, Section 21, of the Act of Congress [illegible] 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) provides:

"No person shall be enrolled who has not [illegible] to and in good faith enlisted in his behalf in [illegible] citizenship."

The evidence further shows that Charles H. Burney, [illegible] Katie and William R. Burney, Charles H. Burney, Jr., [illegible] nine have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1893, and Joseph C. Atkins, the husband of said Lizzie Atkins, [illegible] Burney has resided in the Cherokee Nation for [illegible] prior to the date of his application. The testimony [illegible] children of the above named [illegible] [illegible] with themselves and [illegible]

Order No. [illegible] Application of [illegible] for [illegible]

[illegible] evidence shows that Samuel R. Dawson of [illegible] and his final husband submitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as [illegible] before stated. His wife, Catherine, a white woman, was married to him on July 21, 1869. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Mullen Dawson vs. W. A. Scraper held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the date of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since their marriage, and August and Cora Dawson are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. Samuel R. Dawson, his wife and children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Robert Dawson, Albert M. Dawson, Josephine Bulawsky, formerly Josephine Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman, formerly Katie Dawson are the children of said Samuel R. Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Sarah F. Dawson, nee Abbott, was married to the said Albert M. Dawson in October, 1904. She has lived with her said husband, since they were married. Ralph M., Alford and Cecil Dawson are the issue of that marriage. Sarah F. Dawson and her child Ralph M. are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. Alford is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission. The evidence further shows that the youngest child, Cecil Dawson, is dead.

August Bulawsky, who married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 26, 1898, to the said Josephine Dawson. By her [illegible] with his said wife since they were married and the [illegible] children, and [illegible]

[illegible] minor children are identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896, and the third [illegible] roll of 1896. The [illegible] is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and [illegible] is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Fannie Dawson, nee Baugher, was married to the said John W. Dawson on September 2, 1894, and she has lived with her said husband since they were married.

The evidence further shows that Samuel R. Dawson, his wife, Catherine, and Robert Dawson, Albert H. Dawson, John F. Dawson, and Katie Newman have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1896, August Bulawsky and his wife Josephine, since 1893, and Sarah F. and Hannie Dawson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XIX, includes the application of John Dawson, and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 576, D 529 and D 530. The evidence shows that John Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. Sarah J. Dawson, nee Wood, his wife, a white woman, was married to him on October 4, 1871. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the nine children included in the application of said John Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. John Dawson, his wife, and his seven older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Thomas D. Dawson and Orie E. Dawson are the children of said John Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are both identified on the [illegible]

Census roll of 1896.

Thorne P. Dawson was married on April 24, 1898, to Lilly A. Gilbert, and Walter C. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Orie H. Dawson was married on December 22, 1898, to Addie York, and Curr K. and Jessie F. Dawson are the issue of that marriage. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John Dawson and his wife, Sarah J., have resided together in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that said Orie H. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and that Thorne P. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XV, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Josephine Dawson, now deceased. At the time of her admission she was the wife of one Thorne Pierce, but was admitted to citizenship under maiden name of Dawson. The group embraces cases numbered D 408, D 408, D 431, D 471, D 472 and D 479.

The evidence shows that Robert Pierce, William Pierce, Charles E. Pierce, Ona Gray, formerly Ona Pierce, Effie Pierce (nee Effie Akin) and Nancy J. Bogle, formerly Nancy J. Pierce are the children of said Josephine Dawson. They were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Nellie Pierce, a white woman, was married to said Robert Pierce on July 15, 1894. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and Myrtle and Arthur Pierce are the issue of that marriage. Nellie Pierce is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and her two children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Ora Gray was married to John B. Gray on April 7, 1898, and Ossie and Nellie Gray are the issue of that marriage. Ora Gray is identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896 and her children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John W. Bogle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 5, 1894, to the above named Nancy J. Pierce. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. John W. Bogle and his two older children are identified on the Cherokee Census Roll of 1896, and his four younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said William Pierce died in January, 1898.

It further appears that Robert Pierce, Charles E. Pierce, Nancy J. Bogle and Ora Gray have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894; that John W. Bogle, husband of Nancy J. Bogle, and Nellie Pierce, wife of Robert Pierce, have resided in said Nation ever since they were married, and the residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents with whom they are living. It appears that Essie Akins was seventeen years old at the date of the application for her enrollment, and it further appears that she resided in the Cherokee Nation from about 1898 up to December, 1900, when she went to Colorado, was married there to Will Akins, and is now living in that state with her said husband.

Group V, includes the application of the said Joseph Dawson, Wilborn Dawson and James Dawson, and embraces cases number D 534, D 535 and D 536.

Joseph R. Dawson is identified on the Joseph Dawson roll to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He was married to Florence Jackson on May 16, 1896, and they have lived to-father since the date of their marriage. The said Florence Jackson is the daughter of Silas Jackson, but she was of age at the time of the enactment of legislation to citizenship. The six children included in the application of said Joseph R. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the marriage between the said Joseph R. Dawson and Florence Jackson. The applicant, his said wife and his four elder children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Wilborn Dawson is identified as the person of that name admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James R. Dawson is identified as the James Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as heretofore stated. His wife, Martha A. Dawson was married to him on February 20, 1890. She has lived with her said husband since the date of their marriage, and the four children included in the application of said James R. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. The applicant, his said wife and his three elder children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that Joseph R. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Florence Dawson and Wilborn Dawson have resided in said Nation since 1886, and that James R. Dawson has resided in said Nation since 1883, excepting a temporary absence from 1889 to 1893. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group VI, includes the application of Mollie Dawson and those claiming through her and embraces [illegible]

The evidence shows that Mollie Moore, formerly Dawson, is identified as the Mollie Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee

[illegible] as [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] Cherokee Nation in 1907 and have resided therein with their said [illegible] since. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are [illegible]

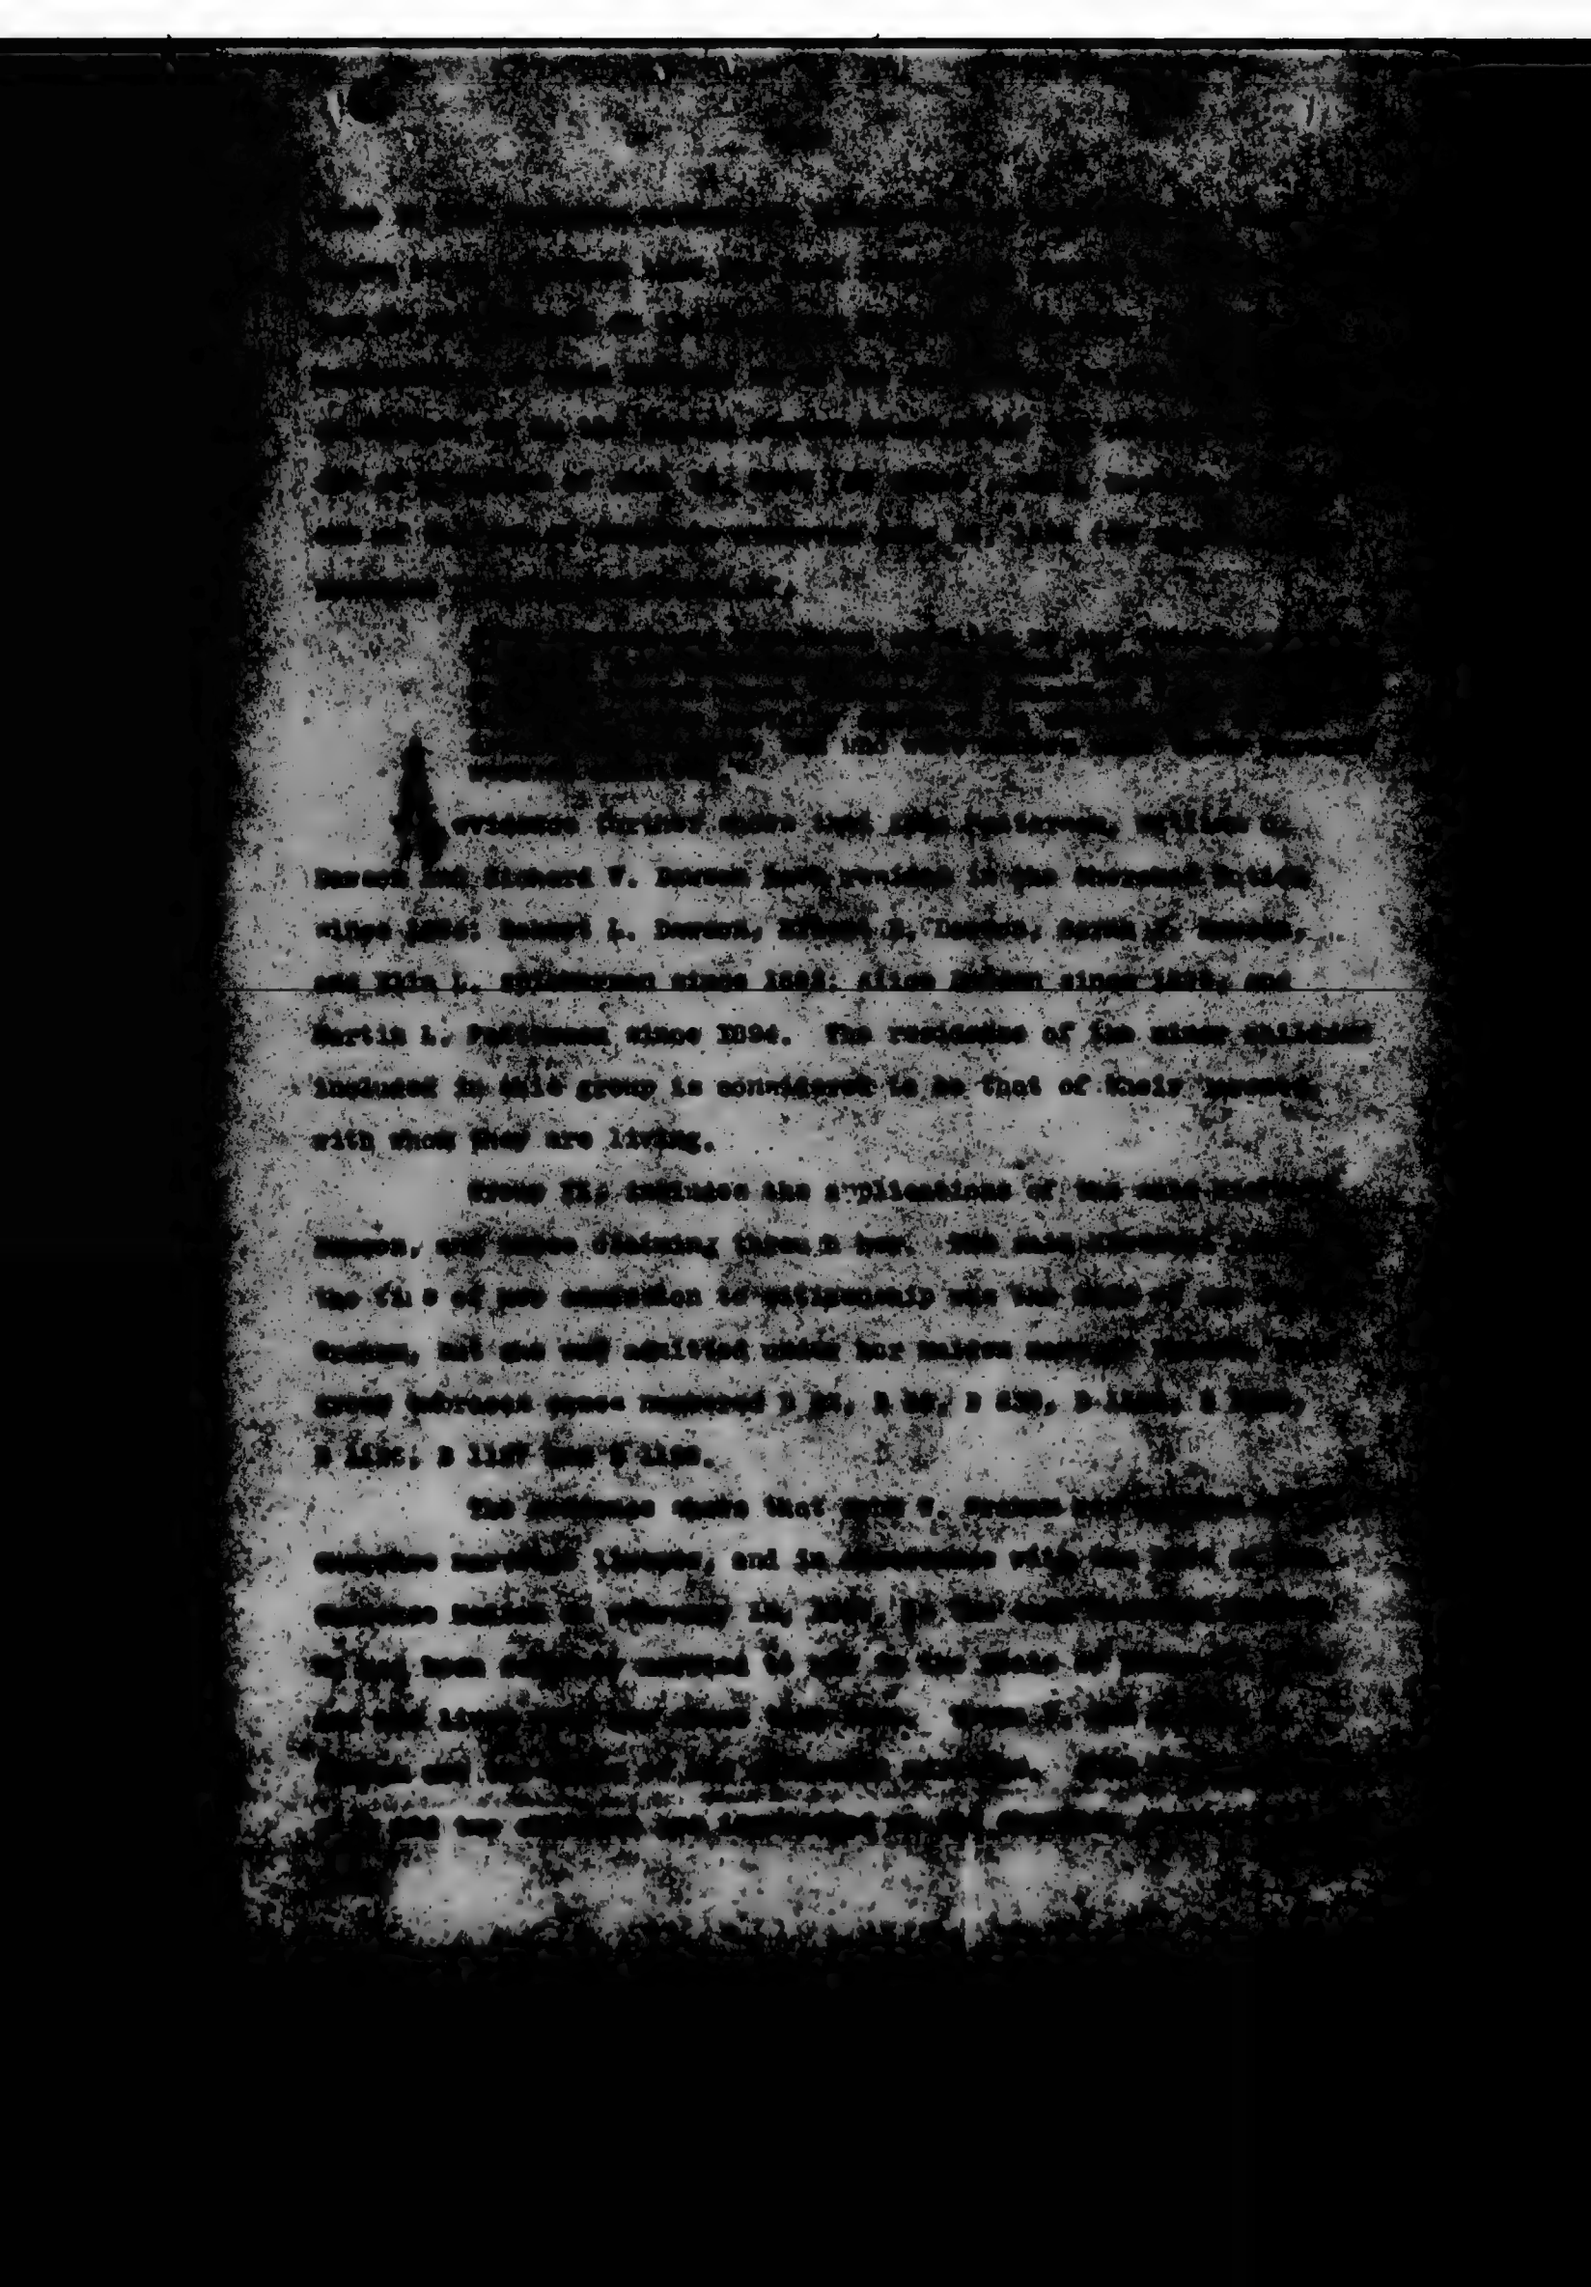
Group VIII, including the enrollment of these children, the said Elbert Benson, was [illegible] Opinion 1 C[illegible], 2 C[illegible], D 505, D 506, D 507, D 508, D 509 and D 510.

The evidence shows that Ada Patterson, formerly Benson, [illegible] Benson, Elbert L. Benson, Wilbert C. Benson, Reginald V. [illegible] Ella L. Spiegelman, formerly Benson, and Frances K. Benson, [illegible] children of the said Elbert Benson. All of them, excepting the said Frances K. Benson, were minors at the time of their enrollment and [illegible] what to citizenship, save Patterson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and by [illegible] Elbert L. Benson and Wilbert C. Benson, minors, by [illegible] L. Benson and Ella L. [illegible] are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. [illegible] of the Dawes Commission [illegible] to the [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] Alice [illegible], was married to the said Albert H. Dawson on [illegible] 18[illegible]. They [illegible] lived with [illegible] ever since [illegible].

Albert H. Dawson was married on February 16, 1898, to Cora Bright, a non-citizen, and his child Ralph H. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this application.



Sarah J. Dawson, nee Jones, was married to the above named Albert Dawson about 1884, and lived with him as his wife until the death in February, 1898, and had [illegible] since the decision of the Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Thompson Ratliff vs. Henry Rogers and William Morgan vs. T. L. Rogers [illegible] was married to a Shawnee Indian at the time of his enrollment [illegible] this acquisition deprived the rights of Cherokee citizenship.

Richard F. Dawson was enrolled as Cherokee Dawes, [illegible] January 24, 1898. His child Ina R. Dawson is the issue of [illegible] riage, and she is identified by a birth affidavit on file [illegible] application.

Ella L. Dawson was married to John J. Spidle, [illegible] and on September 7, 1897. Her children Willie J. and [illegible] are the issue of that marriage, [illegible] identified by [illegible] herewith [illegible] with this [illegible]

The evidence further shows that Flora Lemon, [illegible] Lemon, Willie L. Lemon, Lillie Jackson and Francis Lemon, [illegible] Jackson are the children of John Wesley Lemon, now Lillie Jackson, Flora Lemon, Fannie A. Jackson and Francis Lemon were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James K. Lemon was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April [illegible] 1887, to the said Flora Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the four minor children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are all issue of the said marriage. James K. Lemon and his three oldest children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with the [illegible].

William C. Lemon was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April [illegible] 1888, to the said Francis Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the two children Birtie E. and Myrtle Lemon, included in his application, are the issue of the said marriage. William C. Lemon and his two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Lizzie Jackson claims to have been married in 1898 to one [illegible] William Cockrum, but is not accepted. It appears that [illegible] son of the wife of his mother's admission to citizenship [illegible] twenty-one years old. William D. Deutchitt is the brother of said Sallie D. Peebles and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation with his said sister on September 13, 1884. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Alonzo M. Fishback was married prior to [illegible] to Lavirna A. Bynum. He had been previously married to the said wife in Texas in 1878, and was living with her [illegible] It appears that Lavirna Fishback was recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by an act of the Cherokee Delaware District, December 1, 1894. William A. and Angie B. Fishback are the issue of the said marriage. Alonzo M. Fishback and his said wife and children are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and the wife is also identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1880.

Florence Morgan, the wife of Elbert L. Morgan, is the daughter of the late Richardson Shoemaker and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 9, 1886, with [illegible] Shoemaker as a member of his family. Elbert L. Morgan and [illegible] are her children by her said husband. The [illegible]

John E. Fishbeck is the son of Laverna Fishbeck, who was admitted to citizenship on December 1, 1894, as Cherokee freedman. He was a minor at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship and he is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

George A. Mabry was married to one Edna Dawson in the State of Arkansas in 1884. He claims to have been married under a proper marriage license to his said wife in 1889, but he presents no satisfactory proof of such marriage. Edna Dawson was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Roby and Charley Mabry are her children by her said husband, George A. Mabry. Edna Mabry is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and the two children were minors on the date of their mother's admission to citizenship.

The evidence further shows that Alonzo M. Fishbeck and his wife Laverna A. Fishbeck have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Lula P. Waddle, William D. Douthitt, and John E. Fishbeck have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894, and that Lucy Morgan and Edna Mabry have resided in said Nation since 1889. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

All birth affidavits for the minor children enrolled by this decision, and hereinbefore noted, are made a part of this decision.

It is contended by the Cherokee Nation that the applicants herein are not entitled to be enrolled by this Commission because they have never been lawfully admitted or enrolled by the Cherokee authorities, and that the judgment of the Cherokee Supreme Court admitting Robert Dawson and his family was obtained by fraud on the part of said Dawson.

In considering the question at issue, it is the opinion of this Commission that it has the power, and that it is one purpose of this proceeding, to review or to set aside the judgment in the Dawson case, or to determine such questions as were necessarily involved in the issues before the Cherokee Commission, and were passed upon by that Commission. In United States vs. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. Page 61, it is stated, "the doctrine is well settled that the Court will not set aside a judgment because it was founded on perjured testimony or for any matter which was actually presented and considered in the judgment assailed." Only such facts therefore, are considered by this Commission, as were not part of the record in the Robert Dawson case before the Tesnee Commission, and which tend to show whether the judgment admitting the Dawsons was a bona fide judgment of the Tesnee Commission, or whether such judgment is void because of fraud, and upon this proposition the burden of proof is upon those attacking the judgment.

Briefly stated, the circumstances attending the admission of the Dawsons appear to be as follows:

On September 24, 1881, an application was made to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship known as the "Tesnee Court" for admission to Cherokee citizenship of Robert Dawson and the members of his family above mentioned. The members of that Commission were Thomas Tesnee, Alex Wolfe and T. F. Thompson. The first two were full blood Cherokee Indians; they could understand, but could not talk English. One D. W. C. Duncan was the Clerk of the Commission. The hearing was continued several times before final decision. J. M. Bruner appears to have been an attorney in the case, and after such hearing notified Francis M. Dawson that the case would be taken up by the Commission at its session in January, 1882, and that whereas the said E.M. Taylor would face other pressing matters at that time,

-2-

[illegible] sixty years of age, [illegible]
[illegible] Professor and Jim Smith, soldiers for [illegible]
[illegible] on Thursday the evening of January 10, that [illegible]
[illegible] that Barron had promised [illegible] to [illegible]
[illegible] that Barron had given [illegible] ten dollars.

Admitting all this to be true and that the influence of these officials was purchased for the sum of ten dollars, the foregoing fails to show how these alleged facts show that the Court was imposed upon or misled. Bribery of officials to use their influence with the Commission would not necessarily vitiate the judgment, but it must appear that the fraud, or corruption reached the members of the Commission and tainted the judgment itself. The case was submitted without evidence as appears from the record, and it is argued that such evidence was carefully considered by the Commission. Furthermore, the evidence shows that [illegible] was given him in behalf of the James Barron Estate [illegible].

Hightower testifies that he had a talk with Mose Smith [illegible] about [illegible] that Barron told him he had only one witness in the case, "an old man 85 or 90 years old, who did not know anything" and that he could give Dr. Baker four drinks of whiskey apiece and he would swear black was white. Witness further testified that Barron told him that money was what made the mare go in front and that he had found out that it was here two.

According to this foundation was [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] before the Commission. Further, it is not [illegible] was the only witness in his case. Judge Stilwell [illegible] was a witness, Duncan McRae that impression [illegible] own, one of its Commissioners, states that he thinks there [illegible] witnesses. The testimony of Dr. Baker, coming [illegible] only testimony preserved of record. As to whether Baker suffered perjured testimony by Dawson's procurement, it is proper to recall that the evidence of W. H. Curtis and A. E. McPherson, witnesses for appellants, show that Doctor Baker was a man of integrity and was not addicted to drinking.

The testimony of James W. Lewis is to the effect that he had a conversation with P. H. Dawson about 1883, in which Dawson had told the witness that it had cost him seven hundred dollars to get his rights. Draught also testifies that he was an applicant for citizenship about 1881 or 1882, and that while his case was pending he had a talk with P. H. Dawson who told him that if he [illegible] ever got in, it would cost him seven hundred dollars. [illegible] told him he had paid the witness three hundred dollars, and made arrangements with the Court to get the witness in at once [illegible] have a family. David Bennett testified that he had a talk with James Hughes in 1883, and that the latter told the witness that [illegible] him twelve hundred dollars to get his case through.

It can hardly be urged that such evidence is sufficient to show that the members of the Tyaksa Commission were corrupted by [illegible] fraudulent use of money. So far as these witnesses [illegible] to testify the money spent by the Dawsons might have been for [illegible] and legitimate purposes. P. H. Dawson gives a detailed [illegible] what he says took him and his brother in a [illegible] disposition [illegible] to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] before this Commission with every opportunity the right to be [illegible] with that ground.

Admitting the truth of all the testimony in this case [illegible] the actual transfer of money by the Dawsons, it appears that [illegible] Smith and Smith were the only beneficiaries of that money. There [illegible] evidence that the members of the Commission received any [illegible] consideration for it.

The judgment entered in the Commission's docket shows the signatures of the three members of the Commission appended thereto. There is some conflict as to whether Duncan signed Thompson's name, or whether Thompson affixed his own signature. Duncan testified that all three signatures were made by him as Clerk under authority of the Commissioners present, the two full bloods being unable to sign their names. T. J. Thompson testifies that he signed the original transcript of the judgment, which was made on the day of the rendition thereof. The question, however, is not considered to be very material. The signing of judgments by each Commissioner appears to have been a matter of custom only. T. J. Thompson testifies that he examined the Dawson case and recognizes the judgment therein as the original judgment of the Commission, and that there was no fraud or corruption in the procurement of that judgment by the Dawsons or by [illegible] else so far as he knew.

Much evidence has been introduced by the Cherokee Nation for the purpose of showing that the ancestor, through whom the Dawsons claim, was not a Cherokee, and that other members of the Dawson family, deriving from the same source, have been denied Cherokee citizenship by subsequent Cherokee tribunals, and also by this Commission and by the United States Court. Such evidence, in the opinion of this Commission, is not competent for any purpose in this proceeding. The only question before this Commission is whether [illegible] fraud in the procurement of the Robert Dawson judgment, and not whether the applicants are Cherokee Indians, or whether they ought to have been admitted to citizenship upon the proof submitted. Those were questions presented, considered and passed upon by the Cherokee Commission. If their decision is a valid and regular judgment, it is binding on this Commission. If, on the contrary, the applicants have never been lawfully admitted to citizenship, because the judgment under which they claim is void, for fraud, then the question as to whether they are Cherokees by blood is not material, as this Commission has now no authority to admit them to citizenship.

While it is true, that since 1883, a number of applicants, members of the Dawson family, have been denied admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, no argument derived therefrom is of any force, for it is also true that other members of the same family have been admitted to citizenship, and the action of the Cherokee authorities in admitting them has never been questioned by the Cherokee Nation. Whatever inference, therefore, may be drawn from these facts applies with equal force both for and against the validity of the judgment in question.

The Dawsons have lived in the Cherokee Nation, most of them since 1883; they have exercised the rights of Cherokee citizenship for many years, some of them occupying official positions in the Nation, and no protest seems to have been made against their citizenship until within the last few years. The records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission, show, that since 1883, there have been Commissions on citizenship charged with authority to investigate the judgments of former tribunals alleged to have been procured by fraud, and the Cherokee Legislature has power to order an investigation, and to create a tribunal with authority to pass upon the question of citizenship. No such action appears to have been taken by the Executive authorities with reference to the foreign relations before Congress or the Secret Service corps.

After a careful consideration of all the facts in the case, and this complaint is of the opinion that the evidence fully [illegible]
[illegible] charges made against [illegible] by the [illegible] of the House Committee as reported
[illegible] and [illegible] to the result of correcting, [illegible] or changing [illegible] the acts of the Supreme, or their agents, and the [illegible] judgment, and also the judgment of the British Commission in enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with the provisions of said Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress, and it is so ordered.

It is further the opinion of this Commission that, for the reasons heretofore stated, the applications for the enrollment of William Allred and William C. Allred, (embraced in D 855); Thomas E. Parris, jr. of Albert Parris, (embraced in D 827); Cole Jackson, Lewis Jackson, Nancy Jackson, Ray Jackson, and Clyde Jackson, the children of William and Lizzie Jackson, (embraced in D 850); James Love, Ray Love, Helen Love, Roberta Love and Rosa Love, (embraced in D 859), as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that the applications of Lizzie Jackson, widow of William Jackson, (embraced in D 850), and George A. Mabry (embraced in D 979), as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, in accordance with the provisions of the law heretofore quoted, and it is so ordered.

As hereinbefore stated William Pierce (D 409) and Cecil Dawson (D 356) and Green W. Jackson (D 966), died prior to September 1, 1902. It further appears from affidavits, made a part of the record that Liddie and Margaret Graham (D 1196) were dead at the time of the application for their enrollment and prior to September 1, 1902.

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of said William Pierce, Cecil Dawson, Green W. Jackson, Liddie Graham and Margaret Graham be, and the same are hereby dismissed.

ALLISON L. ROBERTSON, SECRETARY.

ADDRESS ONLY THE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 1st, 1902

Robert L. Dawson,

Talala, Indian Territory,

Sir:-

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself

for enrollment as citizen of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 17th day of March, 1902.

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

Yours truly,

Enrolling D-666

1894 roll; page 178, #1513, Burton Dawson, Cooweescoowee.
Commissioner:

The applicant presents an official certificate of the records of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship showing that his father was admitted to citizenship as a Cherokee by blood in 1883. He states that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since '85 and claims the right of citizenship, being a minor at the time of his father's admission. He is now 22 years of age. He claims to have lived in the Cherokee Nation since 1885. He is not identified on the roll of 1880, but is identified on the roll of 1894. The Cherokee Commission[illegible] protest against the enrollment of the applicant and other members of the family upon the ground of fraud in the procurement of their admission; and it has been found that members of this family were denied enrollment in 1896 by the Cherokee authorities. His application will now be listed upon a doubtful card for further consideration, and the applicant will be classed as a Cherokee by blood. The final decision of the Commission will be made known at his postoffice address. The official document cited is returned to the applicant.

E. C. Rothenberger, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full all proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete translation of his stenographic notes in said case.

Cherokee [redacted]

Depositions of [redacted] witness on behalf of the applicants for enrollment [redacted] taken before me, Edgar T. Martin, a Notary Public in and [redacted] Eastern District of the Indian Territory, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such, at the office of U. S. [redacted] in the Federal building in the town of [redacted], Indian Territory, on Thursday the fourth day of [redacted], between the hours of one and a half o'clock and six o'clock in the afternoon of said day, in accordance with the agreement to take testimony, entered into between the applicants and the Cherokee Nation, by their respective attorneys, which agreement is hereto attached.

T. F. Thompson, being produced by the applicants, being first duly sworn to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY S. B. DENISON:

Q State your name, age, residence and occupation?
A T. F. Thompson, 55 years old, I live near Vinita, Cherokee Nation, I. T. I am a farmer.
Q How long have resided in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation as now constituted?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is that citizenship based, blood or otherwise?
A Blood.
Q What, if any official position have you held in the Cherokee Nation, and at what time?
A I was elected to the Cherokee Council in [redacted] some odd, I don't remember the exact years, I was also on the [redacted] Court, I don't remember what that was? A [redacted] in 1898 or 1899, I think, it my have been earlier.
Q Did that Commission or Court have anything to do with admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q State, if you remember, how many members of that Commission or Court, there were, and who they were besides yourself?
A There were three, Tehee, Wolf and myself, Tehee was President of the Court.
Q Where were the sessions of that body held? A Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation.
Q Did you have a Clerk? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember who that was? A D. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know whether the members of that Commission beside yourself, are living or dead? A Yes, sir, they are both dead.
Q Can you recollect how short period of time that Commission lasted?
A About two years I think, two, sessions, and there was one session each year.
Q Were the sessions of that body held in Tahlequah, open to the public at all times when it was in session?
A Yes, sir.
Q Were the cases coming before that body heard in open session?
A Yes.
Q Witnesses examined orally? A Yes, sir.

Q Judgments of the Court or Commission pronounced in open session?
A In case of [illegible] secret sessions, yes, the [illegible] openly.
Q What you [illegible] the question was that after the [illegible] Commission or Court deliberated in secret [illegible] testimony taken before reaching a decision on [illegible]? A After hearing all the testimony we went into [illegible].
Q I will present you with a paper which has been [illegible] exhibit "A" and a copy of which he will attach to your deposition, and will ask you if upon the exception of the certificate of record by W. L. Bramlett, Clerk, and John L. Adair Asst. Secretary, you recognize it as a paper you have ever seen before?
A I recognize the signatures to it, but don't remember the instrument.
Q Which signature on that paper do you recognize? A My own.
Q That signature is in your own handwriting? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether Im-rus Tehee, president of the Commission could write in English or not? A No, I don't think he could.
Q How as to Alexander Wolfe, a member of the Commission?
A I don't think he could write either, I don't think either of them ever wrote except by touching the pen.
Q Were you, and are you familiar with the handwriting of D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of that Commission?
A Tolerably well, but it has been a long time since I saw any of it.
Q Will you look at the paper again and say whether you recognize his signature attached thereto?
A Yes, that is his signature to the best of my knowledge.
Q Do you preserve any personal recollection of the application before that Commission of F. M. Dawson and other members of the Dawson family, to be admitted as citizens of the Cherokee Nation by that Commission?
A I remember F. M. Dawson and his brother, that is about the only ones I remember.
Q The question was not as to the personal recollection of the individuals, but as to the claim being presented by the Dawsons for admission?
A Yes, there was such a claim before the Commission.
Q Can you state as to the citizenship of Thomas Tehee, whether he was a citizen of the Nation by blood or not?
A Yes, sir, he was always recognized as such, full blood besides.
Q What is your knowledge of Alexander Wolfe?
A About the same, he was also a full blood and recognized as a Cherokee.
Q Judge Thompson, if you possessed or had, or have now any knowledge of any corruption or bribery of the Court or Commission, or any member of it by F. M. Dawson or any of the Dawson family or anybody connected with the presentation of their claim for citizenship, state it fully?
A None whatever as far as I was concerned, and I don't think there was by the balance of the Court.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY W. T. HUTCHINGS:

Q Do you mean to say Mr. Thompson that your name attached to the certificate shown you is in your handwriting?
A Yes, sir.
Q Then Mr. Duncan certified that this is a transcript of the decision in the case, he is mistaken, that is the original?
A No, I don't know, that may be the original, if that is not the original I did not sign it, if it is the original I signed it.
Q You state that the witnesses were examined orally before the Court, don't you know that in almost every case you took ex parte affidavits of witnesses [illegible] witnesses were not present?

A I think we [illegible] number.
Q Did you have [illegible] witnesses?
Mr. Duncan did [illegible]
Q Was the evidence [illegible]
A Yes, sir, I [illegible]
Q What was done with [illegible] were any of it ever put?
A I suppose it is [illegible] the office of the Governor or Secretary.
Q When you went into secret session did you have Mr. Duncan read that evidence to you?
A Yes, sir, we read over the evidence thoroughly.
Q Did you allow the applicants or their attorneys admission to any of your secret sessions?
No, sir.
Q When you got ready to render your decisions did you then send for the applicants or their attorneys?
A No, sir.
Q And you rendered them in secret also, did you? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any recollection who testified in the Dawson case, as to their claim? A No, sir, I have not.
Q Have you any recollection as to who they claimed their Cherokee ancestors were? A Yes, sir, they claimed the Rogers.
Q Did they claim relationship with any of the present families of Rogers residing in the Cherokee Nation?

The applicant objects to this question as tending to elicit testimony wholly irrelevant and immaterial to the issue, and not cross-examination of this witness.

A I don't know that they did, particularly.
Q How would your court determine when they claimed descent through some Rogers family, that that family was of Cherokee blood?

The applicant objects to the question [illegible] the same grounds as their objection to the previous question.

A By the evidence they introduced.
Q Didn't you make them prove that that family was well known at one time to be connected with the Cherokee Nation, and were citizens thereof? A Yes.
Q Who was the attorney for the [illegible] A Old man Houston Benge.
Q Could either Yokes or Felts speak English? A They could understand, but they never spoke English, they had an interpreter.
Q Did you ever talk to either of them as to whether they got anything for deciding this [illegible] A No, sir.
Q How long were you considering the [illegible] altogether?
A I could not say as to that, I think we were on it two or three weeks anyhow, I could not say positively now, they were a long time getting in testimony.
Q There were only two or three witnesses examined all told, were there not?
A I think so, three I think, they had quite a lot of affidavits, but we did not consider them.
Q Well the Court took a good while arriving at its conclusion after the evidence was closed?
A Yes, quite a good while, I don't remember the exact time.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION:

Q Do you remember who the interpreter the Commission had during the hearing of the Dawson case.
A His name was Keene, I forgot his given name.

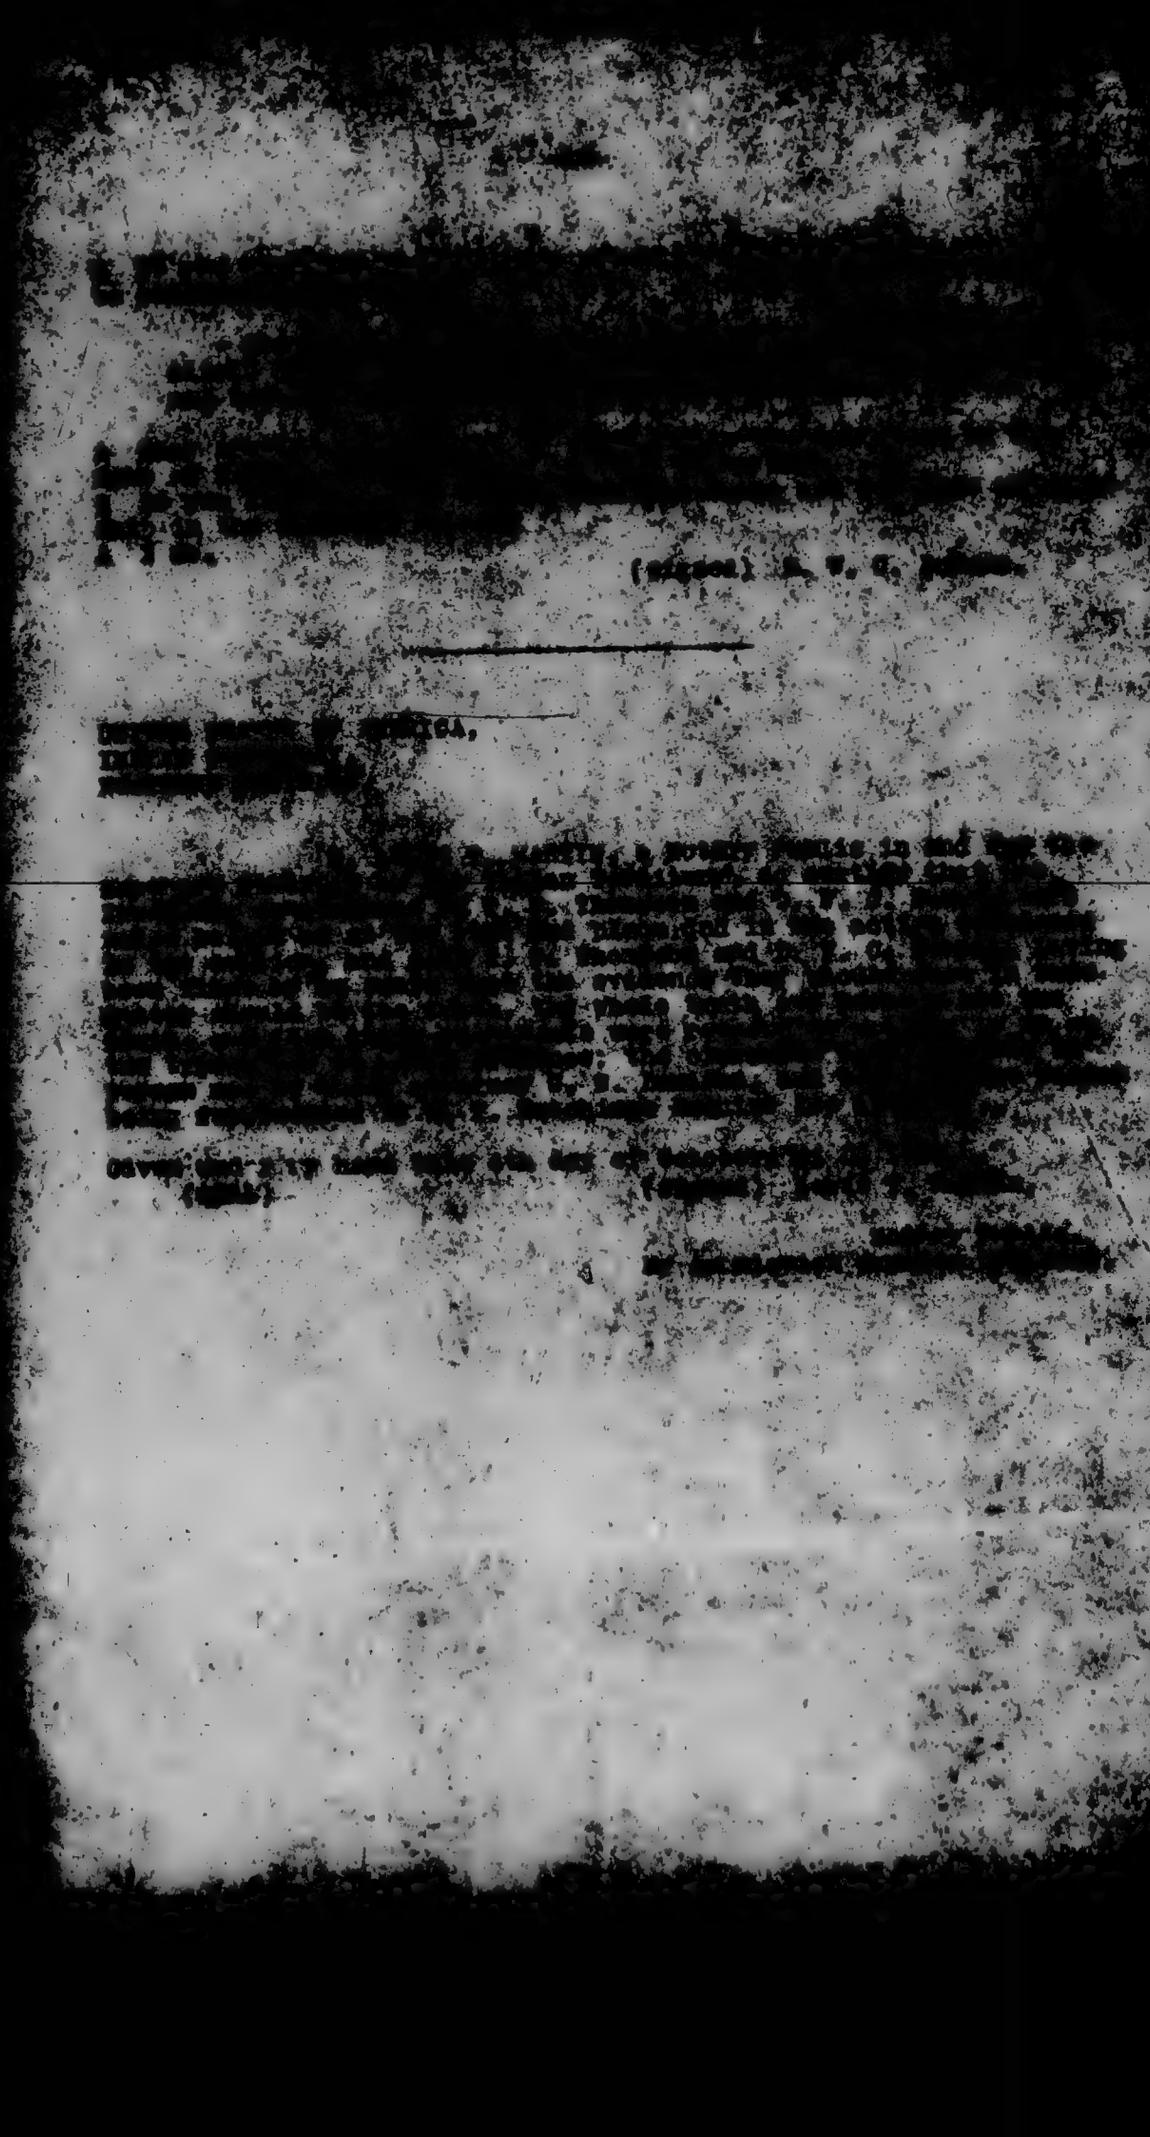
B. F. G. Duncan being produced by the applicants after being sworn to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth testified as follows:



DIRECT EXAMINATION BY S. B. RUNNELS:

Q Please state your name, age, residence and occupation?
A My name is B. F. G. Duncan, my age is 72 years, my residence is Vinita, Indian Territory, my occupation is a farmer.
Q How long had you been your place of residence? A Since 1874.
Q Are you a member of the Cherokee Nation as it is now constituted?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is your citizenship based, a Cherokee by blood?
A Yes, a Cherokee by blood.
Q In January 1896, did you hold any official position in the Cherokee Nation, if so, what was it?
A About that time I held the position of Clerk of the Citizenship Court or Commission.
Q If you remember the names of the members of that Commission or Court, please give them?
A The President of the Commission was Tehee I believe, and a member by the name of Wolfe whose first name I do not recollect, and Mr. Thompson here.
Q T. F. Thompson?
A Yes.
Q Do you know whether those three members of that Commission were recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and whether their citizenship was based upon blood or not?
A They were duly sworn to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and their citizenship was based upon their blood.
Q Will you please look at the paper now handed you which the Notary has marked exhibit "A" to the deposition of Mr. T. F. Thompson, and a copy of which he will attach to Mr. Thompson's depositions, and state whether with the exception of the certificate of H. L. Bragdon, Clerk, and of John L. Adair Asst. Secretary, you recognize the paper as one you have ever seen before?
A Yes, I think I have seen this before.
Q When, and where, if you remember, did you first see that paper?
A This is a paper I drew up at the time I was acting as Clerk of the said Citizenship Court.
Q Looking at its date, was it drawn at you at the time it bears date?
A To the best of my recollection it was drawn at the date specified.
Q Do you recognize the signature to the certificate attached to that paper?
A Yes, that is my signature.
Q State if you know, in whose handwriting the body of the paper is?
A It is in my handwriting.
Q And at that time you were Clerk of that Commission? A Yes.
Q Will you please look at the signatures of the members of the Commission as they appear on that paper, and state if you can, by whom they were written?
A I think the first two is my handwriting, the last I recognize that as T. F. Thompson's.
Q Explain please, how you came to write the signatures of Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolfe to that paper?
A Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolfe were full bloods and could not write, and in their presence, and at their request I wrote their signatures.

SUPPLEMENTAL [redacted] in the matter of the application of FRANCIS M. DAWSON, et al., [redacted]

The cause having been set for final hearing [redacted], the following proceedings were had:

APPEARANCES:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hutchings: Comes now the Nation on the calling of this cause and announces that it is ready for trial, provided permission is given to hereafter examine before the Commission, either at this place or Fort Gibson, the witness S. H. Benge, who has been regularly summoned to attend at this day and time but who is too sick to travel at this time and probably will be for some time to come. As evidence of a good faith of the Nation we hereby present an affidavit of the facts sought to be proven by the said Benge, if the applicants counsel are willing to admit that the witness if present would testify to the facts herein set forth, the Nation is ready to proceed to trial without reservation of any kind. If they are not it desires to reserve this privilege of hereafter, either tomorrow or thereafter, this case being set for to-day and tomorrow, of examining before the Commission, or its authorized officer, this witness as above set forth.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the introduction of the paper presented and do not admit that the witness, Benge, if present would testify to the facts therein [redacted] and desire that the testimony of said Benge be taken before the Commission at its office in Muskogee but not objecting and reserving against it being taken at any other place, with the [redacted] however, that when taken we have opportunity to [redacted] any evidence we may desire in rebuttal.

Mr. Hutchings:
The Nation will pay all the expenses of the [redacted] counsel, their client and Commission officers in taking the [redacted] Fort Gibson.

Commissioner Breckinridge: The allegations of this witness are material in their character and are quite important, the Commission of its own volition would acquire information of [redacted] character if it knew of its existence anywhere. While the [redacted] of the Commission, as well known and in many respects [redacted], yet it is bodied with somewhat complex powers, such as [redacted] time to time to do business of certain [redacted] to make a correct roll, which is a duty [redacted] hearing simply what is brought before them [redacted] and constructor of that roll and if evidence [redacted] before the Commission it must go out and get it, [redacted] that construction of the law. The Commission, [redacted] this information independent of any counsel on either side here with respect to the applicant and to the Nation, and if this witness is is not able to [illegible] on Monday, it is [illegible] upon and to his [illegible]

his testimony,
convenience [illegible]
stand that this [illegible]
he is an old [illegible]
and it may be [illegible] and therefore it [illegible] subject to a [illegible] official of this [illegible] to Fort Gibson and let his testimony be taken there.

After consultation with the attorneys upon the two sides it is found to be agreeable that the parties meet at Fort Gibson to-morrow morning at half past eight o'clock, and it is agreed then and directed with an official of the Commission with a stenographer leave from the office of the Commission for Fort Gibson at 8:30 to-morrow morning.

FRANCIS M. DAWSON, the applicant, re-called for additional cross-examination on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q What is your name? A Francis M. Dawson.
Q Where do you reside? A In Afton.
Q You have been examined in this case heretofore, have you?
A I don't know which case it is.
Q In your own case? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you the one that is commonly called Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q You made the original application in the Dawson family for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, didn't you? No, sir; my brother.
Q What was his name? A A. E. Dawson.
Q You and Robert Dawson and Elbert Dawson and others applied September 24, '81, (about that time? A Yes, sir.
Q And you were admitted about the 11th of January, '82? A Yes, sir.
Q There were other members of your family that applied and were admitted after that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you or not remember the evidence offered in their behalf to substantiate their cases was the relationship between yourself and Robert and others and the evidence of your acceptation by the Tribal Court. In all the subsequent admissions I mean the only evidence offered was the fact that you and your brothers had been admitted before and that they were kin to you; that was the only evidence offered in any subsequent cases, wasn't it; so far as you know?
A That is afterwards?
Q Yes, afterwards? A I think there was some other evidence introduced.
Q Don't you know that there was never any evidence offered in any other case except evidence of Dr. Baker of Arkansas? A Yes, sir.
Q Who else? A Oliver Miller.
Q Who was Oliver Miller; the records in this case have been [illegible] destroyed and mutilated? A Oliver Miller lived in Arkansas.
Q What was he, who was he? A He is no kin to me at all.
Q Well, what station in life did he occupy; was he a farmer?
A Yes, sir, farmer.
Q Were you present when he testified? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you present when Dr. Baker testified? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you a fair recollection of the testimony of these two men?
A No, not at all.
Q You don't read do you, Mr. Dawson? A No, sir, I don't read nor write; I can barely write my name.
Q Do you think you would remember the testimony of Dr. Baker if your mind was refreshed on it? A Part of it I think.
Q Were you present when you were admitted? A I was not in the room.
Q You were in Tahlequah at the time? A I was in the town of Tahlequah at the time.
Q I will read this paer to you and desire for you ro say whether or not it was the testimony of Dr. Baker in your case:
(Affidavit of Dr. Arthur Baker read to witness, and asked to be copied in the record later.)
Q Is that the correct transcript of the testimony? A It was been so long ago, I could not say; a part of it is, I could not remember it all.
Q Does that state the facts as to the family history correctly so far as you know about it? A So far as I know.
Q Now, you were a son of what Dawson? A Robert Dawson.
Q How many children did Robert Dawson have, and give me their names?
A Elbert Dawson, the oldest; Lila, Jesper, Francis Marion-
Q That is yourself? A Yes, sir; Elizabeth Dawson, Josephine Dawson, John Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, James Dawson, Edna Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Wilburn Dawson.
Q Thirteen? (No response.)
Q Now, Rober Dawson's father was whom? A Sam Dawson.
Q Who was Sam Dawson's wife, your grandmother? A I have been told.
Q By family history is all you know? A She was called Polly Dawson.
Q Who was Anna Pruitt? A I don't know.
Q Never heard of anybody in the family by the name of Anna Pruitt? A No, sir, that was away back in the old country; I have heard talk about it, old Dr. Baker talked about it.
Q Your grand-mother's name was Polly Dawson? A Yes, sir; I don't remember seeing her but once, she died when I was small, died in Texas.
Q Pollie Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Ans she was known to be Pollie Rogers, her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q Daughter of Captain John Rogers? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, she died in Texas what time? A I don't remember.
Q Can't you guess at it? A Oh, I could guess.
Q Give your best recollection? A About '58 or '59, or no, '48 or '49; I don't say positive, just guessing at it.
Q How old a boy were you then? A I was born in '42.
Q Have you any distinct recollection of her? A No, sir.
Q Have you any recollection of all the children of Sam and Pollie Dawson; that is, your father, uncles and Aunts? I didn't see all of them.
Q Do you know by family history the names of all of them? A Yes, sir.
Q Will you give them to me?
A Betsy Ann Dawson, I believe her name was.
Q Did she marry a Petty? A Yes, sir; the next is Robert Dawson.
Q Your father? A Yes, sir.
Q Next one? A I think the next was James Dawson, and I think the next one was a girl, Edna Dawson.
Q Did he have two daughters? A Yes, sir.
Q Well sir? A The next one was Joe Dawson; I never saw him; Riley Dawson.

Q [illegible]
Q [illegible]
[illegible]
A [illegible]
have [illegible]
Q [illegible]
Q [illegible]
and Jerry Dawson & Buck
I think.
Q So you [illegible] your family [illegible] of your grandmother, Polly [illegible]
Q Well, as it was [illegible] say what your great grandfather's name was. I don't remember.
Q What is that other man, Silas Wilkerson testified in your case?
A He testified in Jerry Dawson's case; he never testified in my father's case.
Q Well, didn't anybody testify in your case but Mr. Baker?
A Yes, sir, several other witnesses.
Q Who were they? A I don't remember; my mother got them witnesses around talked on, old people.
Q Were you present? A No, sir.
Q You were only present when Mr. Baker testified? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you find any mistake in Mr. Baker's statement there?
A I could not say all of that was correct or not, part of it is correct.
Q What part is correct? A They about moving the family over there.
Q Who is Buck Dawson? A My brother.
Q What is his name? A We always called him Buck, it is Elbert, E. Dawson.
Q Who went with you the first time you went up to make application for citizenship do you remember? A With my mother.
Q The first time? A First or brother in 1896.
Q Which one? A E. Dawson.
Q What is Elbert on there? A Yes, sir.
Q You were living in Illinois? A Yes, sir.
Q And he was living in Kansas? A Yes, sir, and another one of little brothers, Art Dawson, also.
Q Dr. Dawson made A Yes, sir.
Q What is his name? A [illegible]
Q And you three went there? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants by their attorney move to strike the statement of the witness relative to the testimony introduced before the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, that the history of the family as detailed by him, because the same is incompetent and irrelevant, and cannot be used for the purpose of impeaching the integrity of the [illegible] or said Commission, or either of the Commissioners in charge, [illegible] members of the Dawson family.

Commission: The objection of the attorney for the applicants to the testimony above will be noted. The same will be filed and noted for what it is worth.

(Attorney for applicants waived examination.)

C. N. TAYLOR, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. MITCHELL:

Q Which

Q Who was the Sheriff of the county at that time?

D. W. C. Dumas.

Q Do you [illegible] testimony you used in the case of [illegible]

A No, sir; no. I was the Sheriff in the case [illegible] had already been tried before that.

Q Then you [illegible] I was not called as a [illegible] attorney at that well, [illegible] had the case and [illegible] me.

Q Did you [illegible]

Q Did you [illegible] and I don't [illegible]

Q Now, you [illegible] questions. Did [illegible] say it is [illegible] D. W. C. Dumas, [illegible] trouble over [illegible]

[illegible]

A Being the attorney I won't [illegible] answer that question.

Cross-examination by [illegible]

Q Did I or anybody [illegible] the condition of the [illegible]

(No response)

Cross-examination resumed by [illegible]

Q Do you desire to [illegible] it is right; I was attorney in the case.

Q Mr. Taylor, do you object to [illegible]

Q You refuse to answer [illegible] answer it.

Q Either answer it or say you won't answer it? A [illegible] not answer it.

Q Mr. Taylor, you have answered [illegible] point, but it is not this [illegible] privileges, as the attorney [illegible]

Gum's Brief [illegible] is lodged in the [illegible] special master [illegible] Court's [illegible] of course [illegible] needs for the [illegible] possible, and it [illegible] is not my duty [illegible] this Honorable [illegible] tile, and to report [illegible] and let the Court [illegible]

Under section 81 of the Curtis law as it is commonly called Act of June 2nd, 1898, the Commissioners shall in performing all duties pertaining to their [illegible] authority to administer oaths, examine witnesses and parties, papers and persons, and the court is clothed [illegible] enforce obedience. The law having enumerated [illegible] goes on to say so far as all others who [illegible] said Commission to make rolls as therein required, and [illegible] punish anyone who may in any manner or by any means [illegible] said work. Now, the Commission will report the facts to the United States Court and let the Court decide whether or not you are within your lawful privilege. It seems that you refuse to answer questions, or at least one question, which tends to establish as to whether or not you are claiming what what is commonly considered a matter of privilege—according to an authority referred to by an attorney, but the enforcement of an answer seems clearly to be a matter for the Court to deal with.

Q Now, Mr. Taylor, in regard to the last question asked you by Mr. Hutchings, one of the Counsel for the Cherokee Nation, I direct that you make answer, and if you refuse I shall report the matter to the United States Court: do you refuse? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, you have read to you, Mr. Taylor, the first of the two questions propounded to you by Mr. Hutchings, and which you declined at the time to make answer, viz: as to whether Mr. Dawson sent you money to pay to the Court or to any officials of the Court, it seems to come to the question as to whether there was any collusion between you and Mr. Dawson and any member of the Court; now, I understand that you refuse to answer that question upon the grounds that you were Mr. Dawson's attorney? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, I require that you answer that question, do you refuse? A Yes, sir.
Q I shall also report that refusal to the United States Court as it seems to come under the provision of law, relating to conspiracy between you and Mr. Dawson which apparently considered a privileged matter, and you base your refusal now, not upon the ground that you are incriminating yourself, but that you were counsel for Mr. Dawson. I will report the matter to the Court and you will be informed at the time of any proceedings in the matter. I caution you not to talk with Mr. Dawson or any of the applicants in this case.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants do not object and have not objected to the witness answering on account of his privilege as an attorney or for any other cause whatever, they only want to object to the incompetence and irrelevancy of the testimony, with the privilege of cross-examining upon any testimony given by the witness.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE:
Q You still refuse having the consent of the attorneys in the case to make answer? A I will just ask your Honor to let the matter go over until morning.

Commissioner Breckinridge: It will rest until in the morning at its present status: it is [illegible] business hours now.

As for the objection made by Captain McKennon, counsel for the applicant, it will be taken into consideration, but will not be granted at the present.
(The Commission adjourns until 1:30 P. M. to-day on afternoon, March 13, 1902.)

SAMUEL H. BENGE, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Samuel H. Benge.
Q Where do you reside? A Fort Gibson.
Q How old are you? A I am 70 years old, going in 71.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; Cherokee by blood.
Q State what of tribal position you have held in the Cherokee Nation and what your general connection with the Nation officially in the last 40 years? A Well, I have [illegible] several; I have been Sheriff, Councilman, Senator, Delegate to Washington and a hand in making the treaty of 1866, I am the only one living that signed that treaty; President of the National Council of [illegible] Indians.
Q Were you acquainted with F. M. Dawson, formerly called Ned Dawson? A Yes, sir; I knew him.
Q State your connection with him, how you knew his citizenship once before that in the [illegible]? A Mr. Dawson came down, I was living [illegible], he came and employed me to [illegible] his wife and we went to [illegible], I believe if I ain't mistaken in 1861 or 62 [illegible] several times [illegible] and finally [illegible] the name of Ned Dawson [illegible] that testimony we [illegible] trial with. Both lived there at Fort Gibson, [illegible] down here and stayed here; he claimed that [illegible] belonged to one of them and after that we thought we had sufficient evidence we submitted the case to the Court [illegible], and the Court went to work and rendered a decision against Mr. Dawson. I told Mr. Dawson right there that "our case is gone", just made that remark, and he just made the remark "never mind", and next morning they taken up his case again and they rendered a decision in his favor. I filed no motion nor any evidence at all whatever; I give the case up right there and the decision was then given in his favor, and on our way back from Tahlequah, why we got to talking about the case and I told him: "It was a pretty hard blow when they rendered that decision against us." He said "yes, but Dawson was the man to reach", but he reached him with five hundred dollars.
Q What position did Dawson occupy? A He was Clerk of the Court.
Q Dawson an educated man or? Yes, sir; he was an educated man.

Q Did Mr. Dawson say anything [illegible] good deal of money? A He said [illegible]
Q Was any request made on the [illegible] case, and if so, what? A He asked [illegible] ever investigated eventually and I told him I didn't know.
MR. McKINNEY:
Q Were you ever a witness in the Dawson case, that is, in any of those investigations that have been made about that time? A I don't know that you might call it a witness; that young man came to me once at Tahlequah, and asked me to help him up there that the case was going against him, him and his mother, and all was about knocked out and I interceded and done what I could there before the committee. I was not a witness but that is as I can't say that.
Q That was Mr. Graham, wasn't it? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you had conversations with Mr. Gruber since that time about it? A Now, I might, I don't recollect, I might have had conversations with him.
Q Well, after the Dawes Commission began taking a census of the Cherokees and when they were about finishing down here, did you have a conversation with him here in Fort Gibson about the matter?
A Now, I just can't tell you; I have seen him on several occasions, but the conversations we might have had I can't state.
Q To refresh your memory I will ask you if he did not tell you that they were making a fight on the Dawson family and he wanted to know of you whether [illegible] in favor of [illegible] family was fairly rendered, and did you not then tell him that as far as all right, that it was fairly [illegible]? A Not as I recall just at all as he was; that is as I have stated he talked [illegible] to his mother, himself and probably his [illegible] I don't recollect how many there were, but he talked to them [illegible] that is just the words he used.
Q That? A It has been mentioned.
Q Here in Fort Gibson? A Well, that is I saw him here at Fort Gibson, and then I saw him in Tahlequah.
Q Well, did he here in Fort Gibson ask you [illegible] about the Robert Dawson judgment, as to whether it was [illegible]?
A No, sir; he was basing his claim on that Indian case, that is the way he-
Q That is the principal Dawson [illegible]? A Yes.
Q When was this other written statement here read, when was it made by you? (referring to affidavit heretofore entered in.)
A Yesterday I reckon.
Q Who come to take this? A Mr. Starr.
Q Who else was present when this was taken? A No, sir.
Q Who had you told about this matter, Judge? A No one as I know of.
Q Do you know how it was that they knew that you knew this?
A No, sir.
Q You never made any statement? A Never made any statement that I recollect of except I might have talked with Scales, we and him talked about there seems a good many times; if I ever made a statement it was to Joe Ab Scales.
Q How did Mr. Starr know? A I could not tell you how Mr. Starr knew.

Q He came along [illegible] a Notary Public, [illegible] that you [illegible] case," did he [illegible] Q And [illegible] qualify me. Q Are you [illegible] of the [illegible] Mr. Bussey [illegible] you? A Yes, sir, [illegible] Q Let me [illegible] and he went [illegible] next day or the [illegible] went together. Q And returned [illegible] A Yes, sir. Q Did he not leave [illegible] direct to Arkansas? A No, sir, we [illegible] I might be mistaken but [illegible] Webbers Falls up here to my house, that is according to his statement. Q What amount of fee did they pay you? A I don't know as that is in connection with the case [illegible] the money they paid me. Q How did they pay you? A [illegible] Q Who paid it to you? A [illegible] fellow paid me some. Q Mr. Graham? A Yes. Q At the same time? A No, no, he wanted me to be interested for him at Tahlequah and paid me for [illegible] Q I will ask you if Mr. [illegible] of the judgment [illegible] wrote to his brother [illegible] one they called [illegible] if I ever got a letter of [illegible] recollect it and if I [illegible] it. Old man said he want [illegible] about his brother [illegible] Arkansas, but not having [illegible] Q Where did he pay you [illegible] Q Before you went out? A [illegible] went up and when we came [illegible] if you want to know what I [illegible] Q You were acting as his attorney [illegible] A Yes, sir. Q How many judges were there present when the judgment was rendered? A In his case? Q Yes, sir. A Well, according to all recollect there was all there, but if they were not all [illegible] Thompson was sick, Tehee and Wolfe. Q Don't you remember that they were all present? A No, I think they were present through. Q Who else was present at the time? A Oh, I could not tell you there were several people in the house could not tell you at all. Q Were there several in the house [illegible] judgment was rendered against them at the time? A [illegible] there were several in the house. Q And several in the house [illegible] was rendered the next day? A I don't know [illegible] Q Do you remember the names of any [illegible] Why not exactly, mostly full bloods. Q How long did you remain out at Tahlequah on this trip? A I guess I was there about [illegible]

Q Tending to this case alone, or did you have other cases? A No, sir.
Q Do you know of any [illegible] (this question objected to by Mr. [illegible])
A I don't know [illegible] or not.

I, J. O. Rowson, do hereby certify that I am the official stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that I correctly recorded the testimony had this day in the above cause, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) J. O. Rowson.

March 18, 1902. Commission convened pursuant to adjournment.

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McNamon, of counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

C. M. TAYLOR takes the stand and continues his testimony.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Mr. Taylor, you said you would consider the matter yesterday and let us know whether you would answer these questions today; have you decided what you would do about the matter? A Well, it is like this, of course I don't want to be held as in contempt of the Court.
Q You would be held in contempt and the Court would make you answer? A That being the case of course I would make a statement.
Q Are you acquainted with [illegible] Clerk of what is known as the Tahlequah [illegible] A Yes, sir.
Q Did you ever have any [illegible] Know of the different [illegible] the Court that you knew of, [illegible] A No, the only thing that ever [illegible] me if whatever large cases that would come up before the Court to let him know.
Q Did you have any talk with him about the Dawson case during the progress of its trial or before and ever introduced Mr. F. M. Dawson to him, or carry him to him? A I spoke to him when Mr. Dawson came to Tahlequah to see about his case, and he said that he would take the papers over to his room, the Dawson papers.
Q Did you see him again that night? A Yes, sir; after supper I went down to his room.
Q Did he ask you about the Dawsons or Dawson case? A He asked me where Dawson was.
Q Which Dawson did you referring to now, F. M. Dawson, known as Bud Dawson? A Bud Dawson.
Q Well, what did you reply to him? A I told him that I thought he had gone to church.
Q Did you find Dawson after supper? A Yes, sir, he told me to come and bring Dawson down and I did so; Dawson was in church.
Q You carried Dawson to him? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you remain during the conversation? A [illegible]
Q What was said if anything while you were present? A [illegible] spoke to Mr. Dawson and says [illegible]
Q Go ahead and state what else Mr. [illegible] straightened out it would be all right, and I [illegible] I says, "gentlemen, I will go home."
Q Did you know of their having any other conversation or communication after that? A No, sir.
Q You left them there together yourself? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Mr. Dawson give you any directions the next morning about submitting the case? A Yes, sir, he asked me to call it up the case.
Q The next morning? A Yes, sir.
Q Had there been any additional evidence offered? A No, sir; there was not additional testimony offered.
Q He told you the next morning to call up the case? A Yes, sir.
Q Was it called up and submitted the next morning? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, how many of the members of the Court were there present that morning? A There were only two, two full-blood Indians.
Q Could they speak english at all? A Tehee could talk a little, talk some.
Q Did that Court have open sessions all the time or what is called executive sessions sometimes? A Well, I don't remember about that; it was generally when the case was submitted to attorneys would go out. The parties would go out and they would determine the case.
Q Well, did they go out into that sort of executive session the next morning on the Dawson case? A Well, we went out when the case was submitted.
Q And was the decision rendered that morning in their favor?
A Yes, sir.
Q Who notified you of the decision of the court? A Why, Mr. Dawson.
Q Do you remember whether he went out with you or was in there during the consideration of the case? A I think he went out with me.
Q Did you at any time thereafter receive any money, deeds or other evidence money from Mr. Dawson with direction to turn it in part over to D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of that Court? A Mr. Dawson gave me 20 dollars and said he would send the balance in a short time, said he would send some more money in a short time.
Q Well, did he send any money afterwards? A Yes, sir, in the course of ten days or two weeks he sent a hundred dollar check, draft.
Q What did he direct you to do with it? A He directed me to give D. W. C. Duncan half of it.
Q Did you give him half of it? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he send you any at any other time after that? A Well, in the course of a couple of weeks he sent me a hundred dollars more.
Q Did he direct you to turn any of that and if so how much, to D. W. C. Duncan? A He told me to give him half of it.
Q Did you give him half of it? A I did, sir.
Q Do you remember whether on Dr. Arthur Baker was the principal witness in behalf of the Dawson case? A No, sir, I don't because I never had any connection with the case, but I heard that he was a witness in the case.
Q No argument was made when you submitted the case? A No, sir.
Q Just submitted it on the testimony? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you born and reared in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir: I was born in the old Nation.

Q [illegible] to [illegible]
Q [illegible]
A [illegible]
Q [illegible] a great deal of [illegible]
A Yes, sir.
Q You were in the United States Court at Fort Smith on charges in regard to the citizenship business? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you convicted there? A Yes, sir; I was convicted there on this very case.
Q And served a term of that length? A I was sent to the [illegible] hospital for sixty days and I stayed in about 36 or 38 days, and I was released.
Q When was that? A I don't remember how long ago it was now.
Q You say it was in regard to this case? A Yes, sir; this case was the case of contention, Clem Rogers and the Chief, they are the ones that had me arrested, carried to Fort Smith.
Q Well, now, were you charged with an offense against the law in this case, or was it in regard to some civil case? A Well, it was in regard to using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q Sending out petitions and obtaining cards for citizenship for people [illegible] Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, it was for answering correspon[illegible]
Q Not relating to this case at all? A Well, this was the main charge, Clem Rogers went before the Court there and stated that I had got in at least three hundred persons, that they were not people entitled to citizenship and that was the main thing.
Q Well, now, was the charge based upon any sort of writing based upon your letters you sent out to other persons? A That was the reason for using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q The charge that this [illegible] was the substance of this case was it? A Yes, that is the case.
Q Then the trouble you had was not [illegible] others caused by your connection with the Dawes Work, is that you mean to say? A Yes, sir.
Q Why did you say because you [illegible] upon this case? A Well, [illegible]
Q Now, then, you had full [illegible] the Cherokee Nation as to your testimony in this case, did you not before you came on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q You had told them of these particulars before you came on the witness stand did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q Yet when you came on the stand you [illegible] many conscientious scruples as to answering as to matters which occurred between you and your client, Bud Benson, in relation to this [illegible] matter and declined to answer stating your relation as attorney did you not? A Yes, sir; I didn't want to [illegible] all in the matter.
Q You had voluntarily made a statement to the representatives of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; I had stated to Mr. Hastings he summoned me and I came down here and I didn't want to make a statement to him but he insisted.
Q He had no power to compel you to make a statement? A No, sir.
Q You could then make it very freely and your [illegible] hurt you, but when you came on the stand you were very [illegible] about it? A I didn't want to make a statement at all except I I would be put in jail here if I didn't.
Q But you had armed [illegible] with information by which they could ask you these questions when you came on the stand? A I had told Mr. Hastings.

Q You knew when you gave him that information that you would be brought on the stand as a witness, did you not, by reason of that?
A No, I didn't know that I would be compelled to make a statement in the matter, a sworn statement.
Q You thought you would not be compelled to answer?
A I didn't think the law would compel me to make a statement.
Q Why then did you make a statement to him about it? A Oh, he was asking me about it, and I told him that I didn't want to make a statement, and I didn't for quite a while after I came down here.
Q When the enrollment division of the Dawes Commission was in Tahlequah, in the winter of 1900, did you not there meet P. M. Bergen and did you not then and there say to him if Shoemake told Shoemake I would be for him if he would employ me in the case and if he didn't I would be against him, and the same to you? A No, sir; I said to him this; I says that if there is not something done that I will likely be summoned against you and Mr. Shoemake both.
Q What did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant this, I just left the matter with him to say what he wanted to do in the matter; I only spoke a word or two about it. I was going out of town just as he came in.
Q When you told him if something was not done you would be summoned as a witness against him; what did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant that the chances were that the Nation would summon me against him.
Q What did you mean by the expression "if there was not something done" that you would be summoned as a witness?
A Well, I meant this, if I was re-employed in the matter if he was to have a case and I was re-employed I would not be required.

Q You could be required to make a statement as to declarations made to you by your client to you in one instance, but if a little more money was put up you could not be required to make a statement: is that what you mean? A I didn't think I could be forced to make a statement at all in the matter.
Q Why didyou make that expression to him "if something wasn't done you might be summoned as a witness" if you believed you could not be made to make a statement? A I meant if I was employed in the case.
Q If he would put up you would not testify? A That they could not force me to testify.
Q About the month of February, 1901, in the town of Wagoner, Indian Territory, did you not send your son to get Graham to come to the hotel at night, and did you not then and there say to Sid Graham: "you people are on the doubtful list" and if you will give me $500. I will make it all right and see that you are enrolled and if you don't I will se that you don't get on"? A No, sir; I got a letter from Sid Graham in which he asked me to certify that the case was all right and after I met him I told him that I could not do it, that the case was crooked. He then said to me, he says, "I will give you a hundred dollars", he says "will you take a hundred dollars," I said "no, sir." I didn't make any bid that is I didn't set no price with him.
Q You did not say to him then what I have embraced in that question there? A No, sir.
Q You did have a conversation with him about that time and at that place, did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you didn't make any bid or set any price? A No, sir; he offered me a hundred dollars.
Q Why did you send for him to come to the hotel? A In answer to his letter.

A Did you not [illegible] yesterday morning on the street in Muskogee, Indian Territory, in a conversation with W. H. Shoemake say to him: "You have made a great mistake in not keeping in your employment and no have the Dawsons and it will go hard with you and you will see it"? No, sir; I says to Mr. Shoemake, I says: "You have been employed in your case," and he says "Judge Thomas and Mr. [illegible]." I said "It might have been a advantage to you if you had employed me in your matter;" Well, he says "there was nothing wrong in my case" and I says "no, there is nothing wrong on earth in your case that I know of." He said all he wanted was justice and I said "I don't know a thing on earth against you," and I says "there is not a thing on earth wrong in your case as I know it came up fairly and squarely and decided in your favor."

Q You said nothing to him about the Dawson case? A Yes, I said to him "it might have been well if the Dawsons had retained me in their case." I said "I am summoned on the part of the Nation and I don't want to make a statement and I wont if I can possible avoid it."

Q Was that before or after you talked with Mr. Hastings, the representative of the Nation? A It was afterwards.

Q You meant by that if you had refused to answer you would have gone to jail? A No, sir; if they had employed me before hand I meant not now.

Q You mean that if they had employed you before hand you would not have given this information to Mr. Hastings? A I would not be required, being the attorney.

Q Were you required to give him the information; did you know that you had to give him any information? A Who do you mean.

Q Mr. Hastings. A I did refuse him and he insisted.

Q Well, he no authority to compel you to do it? A No, sir; I don't know whether he did or not.

Q As a lawyer you knew that he did not have authority to compel you to make a statement to him? A I told him tht I was an attorney in the case and I didn't want to make any statement at all.

Q Why did you do it? A Well, he intimated to me it would go any further. He said to me "I will not make this matter — I will not use it;" that is, what I stated to him was part in confidence.

Q And he pledged you his word that it would not be used? A Well, told him I could make a statement in confidence, and that I didn't want to make a statement before the Court.

Q Well, what did he reply, as you said just now? A Oh, he says make the statement and then I told him—I regretted very much to do it, and I regret very much to make a statement here. I tried to avoid it yesterday.

Q You stated just now that he said it would not be used; did he say that or not? A Well, something to that amount; oh, he says it wont make any difference or something to that effect.

Q Now, don't you know that Mr. Hastings did not intimate to you that the statement he was asking you to make would not be used? A Well, I didn't think that I could be forced to make a qualified statement before the Court here, because I thought my license would protect me in that matter.

Q Yet it did not protect you or prevent you from making a statement to the attorneys for the Nation? A No, sir.

Q Now, in this conversation with Shoemake to which I before referred did you not ask him to again employ you and tell him if he would you would make it all right for him? A No, sir; I didn't say that; no, I said if he had employed me in the matter "maybe it would have been better for you." He [illegible] he offered me when I was down here last week, he offered me five dollars to go down and talk with his lawyers on the matter, I didn't go I was busy.

Q [illegible] A No, no. I [illegible]
Q [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] the Supreme Court reversed it there? A Yes, sir.
Q You were present in Texlecuan? A Yes, sir.
Q How long had you been in Texlecuan? A I was living [illegible] that time.
Q When were you first employed by them? A By Dawson?
Q Yes, sir. A The evening before the case was tried.
Q You say that after the judgment was rendered Dawson handed you $280? A Yes, sir.
Q And told you to hand to Duncan? A No, sir.
Q What was your statement? A That he would re $2e and says "I will send you more more in a short time, week or so.
Q And then he sent you $100? A Yes, sir.
Q And wrote you to give D. W. C. Duncan $50 of it? A Yes, sir.
Q And then sent you another $100 and told you to give him half of it? A Yes, sir.
Q How much did they pay you? A Well, that was the agreement, was that he would pay me $50 a family.
Q How much did he pay you? A I think there was $250; now I am not sure about the $50, but it appears to me like there was a $50 sent, and Mr. Duncan asked me, as well as I remember, says "have you got a letter from Dawson," I told him "yes, sir." It was either that or the $100, and he says "I would like to have some money," and I went to Stapler's and got it changed-- I won't be sure about it being $50 or $100--I went to Stapler's and got him to cash the check and give him his part of it.
Q How much did he pay you for your services? A That is all I got.
Q How much? A I think it was $100, $150.
Q What did you do for them? A Didn't do a thing only [illegible] the case and submitted it; never read the [illegible].
Q Submitted it without remarks? A Yes, sir.
Q And for that you say they paid you $150? A Yes, sir; $150.
Q Was Houston Benge present when that was done? A No, sir; I don't think he was.
Q Did you see him then at that time in Texlecuan? A I don't remember.
Q Were you associated with him in any manner in connection with the case? A No, sir.
Q You had a great deal of business of that character, have you before the Courts? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you paid like fees in other cases for like services? A Yes, sir.
Q In many of them? A Yes, sir, good many.
Q All like cases? A Oh, citizenship cases.
Q When was it you were in jail at Fort Smith? A I don't remember; Mr. Mellette can remember, he was there, he was my attorney.
Q Was it about 1893? A It was somewhere along there, about in 1890 somewhere.
Q That has been your principal business as a lawyer, has it not? A Yes, sir.
Q You have never practiced much in any other way have you? A Very little.
Q Were you in the habit of working your cases through in the same manner in which you state you worked this through? A No, sir.

Q This was an execution was it? A I never [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible]
Q And [illegible]
Q Was [illegible]
[illegible]. I [illegible] will you [illegible] family.

MR. [illegible]:

Q At the [illegible] that the attorney for the [illegible] about the Dawson case he also made [illegible] didn't he? A Yes, sir.
Q And you told him at that time before you [illegible] whether you would be paid or compelled to [illegible] you knew there was nothing you knew [illegible] A Yes, sir: that is what I said.
Q You told him at the same time that you not only [illegible] to claim you privileges as an attorney in the case, but that you told him, Mr. Hastings, with the full belief that the Court would sustain your position? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: That is very bending.

Q Now, did you think that the co-employment, being the attorney in the pending case would strengthen your position in regard to it, when you spoke to Mr. Dawson? A What I thought in the matter was before ever I would be summoned in the matter, I [illegible] that if I had been employed in the matter of [illegible] would have been such that I would not have been [illegible] not have been forced.
Q Did you think under those circumstances that Mr. Hastings would approach you about the subject? A No, sir; I never thought I would be forced to, having [illegible] to practice law.
Q Did Mr. Hastings tell you at the time that he was going to put you on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q And let the Court decide? A Yes, sir.

MR. [illegible]:

Q Now, have you a license to practice in the United States Courts?
A Yes, sir.
Q In the Territory? A Yes, sir.
Q And also in the Indian Courts? A Yes, sir; I [illegible] them?

Q Did you meet Dickey there at that time, any part of that time?
A Yes, sir.
Q How did you happen to meet him? A We and I stopped at the same place, that's by the name of Shorter.
Q You and he stopped there, did you, while there? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, did you have any talk about citizenship cases, yours and his? A
A Yes, sir.
Q Where did he state that he was from? A Texas.
Q Well, state what you can remember of the conversation between you from time to time about citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A Well, we met there on the same business and we talked about it at different times, and in talking about the evidence we had there
I, of course, told him how many witness I had and that I could prove and so on, and he said that he didn't have but one witness,
Dr. Baker from Arkansas, a man that was 85 or 90 years old, he said, and he hadn't even sent word for him to come, but he hadn't come.
Q Well, what did he say about the negro's knowing anything?
A Well, he said he was 65 by 66 [illegible] and didn't know straight it.
Q Well, did he say anything about getting his money?
A Well, he said he could give him four bottles of Kickapoo whiskey and he would swear that black was white.

Q Did he have a half sister? A Had several half sisters.
Q Who did they marry? A Differe[illegible] persons; I knew the names of all of them but I have a bad memory, but I know that there was one a Mrs. Eddie Wolfe, and Mrs. Lamer, she was first a Mrs. Nicholas and she became a Mrs. Lamer and lived in Alabama and never came to this country, but she has grandchildren in this country.
Q Well, did any of your father's sisters or half sisters ever marry a Rogers? A No, sir.
Q Never had any Rogers kin-folks? A No, sir, I certainly would have heard of them through my family, there was a great many of the kin-folks I never saw, but I heard of them.
Q The Dawson case was talked of here for many years, they claiming kin?
A I never knew until I understood they claimed to be kin to the Vanns, and I flatter myself that my family was prominent enough that they never claimed kin.
Q They never claimed kin at all? A No, sir.
Q Did your father ever had a sister or half sister by the name of Annie, Anna or Alsey? A No, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to all the testimony of this witness because it is incompetent and irrelevant.

BY MR. [illegible]:
[illegible]

ALEX S. [illegible], being first duly sworn and [illegible], testified as follows:
BY MR. [illegible]:
Q State your name? A Alex S. Lewis.
Q What is your post-office? A Dawson, Indian Territory.
Q How old are? A 52 years.
Q What was your wife's maiden name? A Elizabeth Parsons Dawson.
Q Who was your wife's father and mother? A Her father was Samuel R. Dawson and her mother was the wife of Samuel R. Dawson, did you want her maiden name?
Q Well, if you know the maiden name of your wife's mother, state how you know it? A Well she was called Margarett, Margarett Queen was her maiden name.
Q The maiden name now of your wife's father's mother? A Why the maiden name of my wife's father's mother?
Q Yes, sir? A What did her husband and my father-in-law told me it was Annie Pruett.
Q What was the name of your wife's father's father? A My wife's grandfather on her father's side, Samuel Dawson.
Q And his wife's maiden name was Annie Pruett? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know the old gentleman, Samuel Dawson, you wife's grandfather? A Yes, sir.
Q Personally? A Yes, sir.
Q What opportunities had you to get acquainted with him? A He lived with his youngest son, my father-in-law, and visited us, my wife and I, since we were married, and lived by quite a while; I lived near my father-in-law and we visited very often.
Q When did he die? A '94.
Q Have you any particular method of remembering that date? A Well, I was away from the house when he was buried, and was sent for by my wife and myself, and so when I got back my wife had gone to her father's to see her grandfather, he was dead, and I remember my first wife was a baby at that time.
Q And when was your first child born? A He was born December, '93.
Q You know how old your wife's father was when he died? A Why he was up in 60, but I don't remember his age.
Q Did the old gentleman Samuel Dawson ever tell you his age? A Yes, sir, several times.
Q How old was he at the time of his death? A He was past 94.
Q Did he ever tell you anything of how his wife Annie Pruett and any sister or brother? A Told me she only had one brother named Bob Pruett.
Q Have any of the members of the family named their children after him? A Make it a little plain, it is a little long; my wife's oldest brother was a particular favorite of his grandfather, and he always took this boy with him everywhere, and he had named one of his oldest child for this brother-in-law who was a favorite favorite of his grandfather; named it for him I understand.
Q How spell is his name? A Of course I don't know why he named it, but he gave him the name of Robert Pruett, and I understand it was on account of his grandfather thinking so much of Robert Pruett.
Q Did you ever hear the old Samuel Dawson speak of his brother-in-law? A Yes, many I have heard him say that he visited the home what had become of Bob Pruett, he never had heard of him for a long time; didn't know where he was, or whether he was alive or dead.

Q Now, I want the full name of Samuel Dawson's [illegible] many of them [illegible] A [illegible]
Q Yes, [illegible] and Samuel R. Those were the only [illegible] of his children that I remember personally.
Q Well, remember what you know of the family, what other children did he have? A Well he had two girls, as I understand the family history, he had two girls, first, and John Dawson was the third child, and the oldest boy was John Dawson.
Q Was John Dawson the oldest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q Which was the oldest girl? What is she known by now? A I think it was Mrs. Petty, nee Bettie Dawson.
Q And John Dawson was the oldest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q And Samuel R. Dawson was the youngest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q You know anything about the time John Dawson was born, have you any way of coming at it, the oldest boy? A Yes, sir, I know that the oldest son and his wife told me.
Q What was that? A They said he was born in 1811.
Q Who was his oldest son? A Toliver H. Dawson; told me his father was born in 1811.
Q Do you remember now whether the old man had occasion to say whether his wife, Annie Pruett was an Indian or white woman, or ever said anything about it? A I know what the old man said that she was, I don't know that I ever heard the question approached in that way, I have heard him speak as to her blood, but it was in a different way that he reached it.
Q What blood did he say she was? A Well he said that she was the daughter of Mrs. Pruett, a white woman; and that her father was Captain John Rogers, a white man who lived with the Cherokee Indians, and traded with them.
Q Did he say who Captain John Rogers afterwards married? A Said he had a wife in the Cherokee Nation.
Q But that Annie Pruett was not her child? A No, sir, she was the child of Mrs. Pruett.
Q A white woman? A Yes, sir, that was the half sister of Bob Pruett.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

Q Did ever you apply for citizenship here? A Yes, sir, for my wife.
Q When? A My father-in-law made the application, I don't know exactly when it was, I think probably about '98, I couldn't say as to the date.
Q Before the Cherokee authorities? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he file an application before the Dawes Commission in 1898 also? A Him.
Q Yes, sir? A I don't think he did, no sir.
Q Did you? A I did.
Q On account of your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you make affidavit to that application? A No, sir.
Q Who did? A I don't know, don't remember now.
Q You applied for your wife as an Indian by blood didyou not? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you still an applicant? A No, sir.
Q Is she? A No, sir.
Q She was denied was she? A Yes, sir.
Q Was there an appeal taken from that? A Application was filed if I remember, before the Dawes Commission, and they rejected the same, and then I appealed it to the District Court, and it was rejected there and then I stopped.

Joseph Dawson introduced for claimants, sworn in open Court, testified as follows:

Jos. Dawson, am a Cherokee by blood and live in the Cherokee Nation, am 51 years old.

Lulu Dawsett and Dallas Dawsett, the claimants are my children. Fannie Dawson was their mother. Fannie Dawson was a Cherokee, this is about all I know about her. She was E. Dawson, E. Dawson was her brother. She married me while living near Fort Gibson, I was living there, and lived there with me until she died. I have never married any other woman. I have no other children and I have never had any adopted.

Lulu is about 16 years old. The Dallas is about 9 or 8 years old. I never knew Fannie's father's name. Fannie, E. Dawson is dead. My wife died at Millerton, Texas.

I was not present when their mother and E. Dawson had children to the best of my recollection, of the children Fannie, Carrie, Annie, Bob, Willie, Dallas, Lulu, all living, but two, Fannie and Willie, they are dead. Willie died when I left there. I am a citizen by [illegible] have full right. My rights have been admitted to Cherokee Citizenship by this Court.

THE CHEROKEE NATION.)

---oOo---

I, W. A. Gibson, Special Master herein, who by the Court was under the general order herein, I have examined the proof and pleadings herein, which is hereto attached and made a part hereof, and find as follows:

I

This this cause was instituted on September 9th, 1896, before the Dawes Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, by Joanna Barber, and Isaac J. Barber, her husband, and their Children, Onie E., Willie E., James L., Jennie and Joel A. Barber. That Joel A. Barber has the following children, Hattie Toliver, George A., Franklin O., John and Ethel Barber. That the application includes also Mary A. Barber and her child Inez Barber, Emma L. Murphy and her child Claud Murphy, Ella Moore and her children Anna J., Jackson D., Mary and Gladys, Attie L. Hunt and her child Dorris Hunt, Alsey J. Smart and her children Georgia A. and Emzey M. Smart, Joanna J. Carlin House and her children Myrtle O., Cora L. and Bertie M. Carlin House. That this application was by the Commission tried and rejected on October 20th, 1896, with no reasons given for the decision, and that subsequently on December 27, 1896, the claimants appealed to this Court. That the parties all live in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory.

II

That the parties claim the right to be admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by reason of their descent from Polly Rogers, who is claimed to be a Cherokee Indian by blood. That there filed in support of their application the affidavits of S. R. Dawson, E. Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, and W. A. Dawson, who testify that Joanna Barber is the daughter of Elizabeth Fahey, the widow, who was the daughter of Polly Rogers, who married a white man by the name of Samuel Dawson, and that Polly Rogers was the daughter of Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann. That these witnesses are all Cherokee citizens by blood, acquainted with the claimants, and appearing in their testimony, [illegible] by Mrs. [illegible]

[redacted]

Rogers a grandd[illegible] John Rogers, [illegible] a grandd[illegible] John Rogers, [illegible] that [illegible] by [illegible] Rogers by the [illegible] of Polly Rogers, and that [illegible] was his only daughter.

III

The claimants contend that they are residents of the Cherokee Nation, and are relatives of the Dawson family, who are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, are entitled to be enrolled in the Cherokee Nation as citizens by blood, while the applicants contend that John Rogers, through whom the petitioners claim, is not now and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal west; that his name does not appear on the rolls of the Cherokee Nation, and that he nor his ancestors ever resided in the Cherokee Nation as citizens thereof.

The premises considered, in view of the unsettled condition of affairs in the Cherokee Nation at the time when [illegible] John Rogers, the ancestors through whom these claimants trace their Cherokee blood, lived, and especially in view of the absence of a recording [illegible] of records pertaining to [illegible]s, I am of the opinion that these claimants have proved that they are descended from Capt. John Rogers, who resided in the Cherokee Nation, and was a recognized citizen; though they do not show that he was ever enrolled as such, and I therefore find that the claimants are all recognized by the Cherokee Nation, Indian by [illegible], and that they are all Cherokee Indians by blood. That they have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1907, and probably longer, but as the proof does not go to definitely how long, they have so resided.

I ask that the Court allow me a reasonable fee for my services here in the special Master.

Respectfully submitted this 10 day of August, 1909.

(signed) W. A. Gibson,
SPECIAL MASTER.

[illegible]y fee paid.
No Exceptions filed."

BY THE COURT.

From this report it appears that the claimants base their right to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation upon the grounds that they are the descendants of a Cherokee Indian by blood, but their ancestors through whom they claim have never resided in the Cherokee Nation as now constituted. It appears that they have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1907, and probably longer, though the proof does not show definitely how long they have so resided. It does not appear that the claimants or any of their ancestors have ever been recognized as members of the Cherokee Nation.

The judgment of the United States Commission rejecting this case is affirmed, and the application of the claimants

Testimony for Claimants.

Witness, Dr. Arthur Baker sworn testified as follows:

My name is Arthur A. Baker I reside at Berryvill Arkansas Carroll County My age is 77 years I am not a Cherokee. I lived in the Cherokee Nation about three years then I first came to Arkansas I have been acquainted with him since he became a citizen of Carrolls County near 35 years - At my Mothers house near Calhoun I became acquainted with the claimants Robt Dawson grandmother on Mother's side she was frequently at my Mothers house though she Anna Pruet lived in the Nation side; She claimed to be a half sister to Big Joe Vann, also claimed to be half Cherokee, the first time she brought the claimants mother to my mothers house she the mothers mother was about grown when I was a little boy. She called her daughter Polly Rogers, Said Captain John Rogers who ran a boat up the River was the father of the child; I saw the girl frequently there at my Mothers and there at Louis Ramses Store.

I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years of old and I think then Old Capt. John Rogers took her off to school, I saw her no more then the time Old Capt, John Rogers took her off till I saw her here in Arkansas the wife of old Grandi Dawson, I stayed all night there and she and I had a talk over our old mothers and I asked her where she became acquainted with Dawson and she said at the time she was going to school and she said after she left school that Dawson followed her home, to the Nation and they were there married. I have told that precisely in the words that she used, Capt John Rogers claimed to be one fourth Cherokee. The claimant Pat is son of Polly Rogers, and I know Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Pruett and I know the claimant to be he son of Polly Dawson.

Ca t. Rogers then reside in the Cherokee Country about twenty (Word "twenty" marked through) twelve miles below Calhoun on the Hiwassee River Anna Pruett resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I stayed there I saw Dawson when I got acquainted with them Arkansas were recognized where they were no Cherokees. Robert Dawson children is Buck, John, Marian and two girls, The children named in th petition I recognized as being the claimants.

Question by Solicitor:

Qu. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
Ans. 1 Five I think that's all.
Qu. 2 Did you say so saying about woman one being married twice?
Ans. 2 The claimant was married twice.
Qu. 3 Could Anna Pruett speak Cherokee?
Ans. 3 Yes, she could speak it well.

Ques 4 Did Polly Rogers speak Cherokee?
Ans. 4 She did when she was young.
Ques 5 How far did you live from A[illegible]?
A[illegible] 5 About seven five miles S/E of A[illegible].
Ques 6 Was Harmage in the Cherokee Nation?
Ans. 6 He was on both sides of the river here in the Nation and was out in the state.
Ques 7 When Harmage was it went to Texas?
7 George went first, then John went, they were the sons of old man Harmage, that lived us near the line.
Ques 8 Did the Claimant go to Texas?
Ans. 8 No the claimant did not go to Texas.
8 What connection was claimant and Polly Rogers?
9 The Claimant is the son of Polly Rogers
Marion here is the grandson of Polly Rogers.
10 Where does claimant now live?
10 He lives in Carroll Co Arkansas.
11 Do you know what relation old Capt John Rogers was to Charles Rogers here in Cowesscowee?
11 They claimed him but what kin I dont know there were two Capt John Rogers in the Nation I am speaking of the time when I first come to this country about the year 1830.
12 Was Anna Pruet the maiden name of claimants grandmother

E. Dawson, being duly sworn according to law on oath states: My name is E. Dawson; I am 61 years old; my post office address is Talala, Ind. Ter. I am a farmer by occupation, and reside in Cowweescowee District- Cherokee Nation. I am a recognized Cherokee Indian by blood, and exercise all the rights and immunities of a Cherokee Citizen now living in the present Cherokee Nation. I was born in Carroll County Arkansas near Berryville. I derived my Cherokee Indian blood from my Grandmother Polly Rogers through my father, Robert Dawson. My grandmother Polly Rogers was a Cherokee Indian and was married to my grandfather Samuel Dawson in the old Cherokee Nation in Tennessee. My Grand Parents, Samuel Dawson and his wife Polly Dawson whose maiden name was Polley Roger came West from the Old Cherokee Country in about the year 1832, and settled in Western Arkansas, and later came on to the Cherokee Nation. My father Robert Dawson was a recognized member of the Cherokee Nation when he died, by reason of his Cherokee Indian blood.

The said Robert Dawson, the father of this affiant, and Elizabeth Dawson who married John Petty were full brother and sister by blood, both being children of the said Samuel Dawson and Polly Dawson his wife who being the same Polly Rogers as aforesaid. The said Elizabeth Petty was the mother of Joanah Barber who is a full cousin by blood of this affiant on the Indian side, the said Joanah Barber is the mother of Irena J. IN THE UNITED STATES COURT IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY.

NORTHERN DISTRICT AT MUSCOGEE.

IRENE J. HOUSE ET AL

VS # 238 REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.

THE CHEROKEE NATION.

----------oOo----------

I, N. A. Gibson, Special Master herein, show to the Court that under the general order herein, I have examined the proof and pleadings on file in this case which are made a part of this report, and that I find as follows:-

I

That this case is in reality a branch of Case No. 90, Joanna Barber vs Cherokee Nation, the principal claimant herein being Irene J. House a daughter of Joanna Barber.

That this cause was instituted on September 3, 1896 at which time application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for citizenship by blood in the Cherokee Nation.

That this case was tried by the said Commission on November 24, 1896 and the applicants denied, no reasons being given for the decision, and that on January 20, 1897, the parties appealed from said decision to this Court.

That this application was made by Irene J. House, her husband, F. J. House, and their children Chas., C. Winston T., and Henry W. House. That they file in support of their application the affidavits of Joanna Barber, F. M. Dawson, Arthur A. Baker, E. Dawson, and W. A. Dawson. That these Dawson witnesses are citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and state that they are related by blood to the claimants herein on the Cherokee side. The claimants base their contention of a right to Cherokee citizenship upon the fact that the claimant Irene J. House is the daughter of Joanna Barber, who is the daughter of Elizabeth Petty, who was the daughter of Polly Rogers, and that Polly Rogers was the daughter of Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were recognized Cherokee citizens by blood. That the testimony shows that this Dawson family are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that the claimants herein are cousins by blood upon the Indian side, and that they all claim through a common ancestor, Polly Rogers and Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were all recognized Cherokee Indians.

II

The appellee introduces in defense the record of the application of these claimants to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship in the year 1897, and the record of the rejection of the claimants, and further the affidavits of W. C. Rogers, and Mrs. Sarah Carter, a grand daughter both of whom state that they never heard of any daughter of Captain John Rogers by the name of Polly Rogers, and that he had only one daughter, whose name was Cynthia.

III

The Claimants contend that they are residents of the Cherokee Nation and are relatives of the Dawsons, who are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, or entitled to be admitting to the Cherokee Nation by blood, while the ancestor or ancestors through whom the petitioners claim, is not now and never has been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the records were kept, that his name does not appear on the rolls of the Nation, and that neither he nor his ancestors ever resided in the Cherokee Nation as citizens thereof.

XV

The premises considered, I find that the claimants are the descendants of Captain John Rogers, and that it was entirely possible that in the condition of affairs at that early date in the Cherokee Nation, especially owing to the absence of a marriage law and of records pertaining to marriage, that these claimants should be the descendants of Captain John Rogers by a daughter, Polly Rogers, of whom the attorneys for the appellee may never have heard.

I find that the claimants are residents of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, where they have resided since 1887, and that they are Cherokee Indians by blood.

I ask that the Court allow me a reasonable fee for my services herein as Special Master.

Respectfully submitted, this 9 day of Nov 1897.

(signed) M. A. Gibson,
Special Master.

My fee paid,
No Exceptions filed."

Foregoing papers indorsed on cover as follows: "238, Irene J. House et al V Cherokee Nation Final Report of Special Master, Filed Nov 10 1897 Jas. A. Pinston, Clerk."

Foregoing papers enclosed in jacket indorsed as follows: "238, Irene J. House, et al vs. Cherokee Nation."

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Well we close for the present.

TESTIMONY INTRODUCED ON BEHALF OF THE APPLICANTS

D. W. C. DUNCAN, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Please state your name, age and residence? A My name is D. W. C. Duncan, my age is 72 years, my residence, Vinita, Indian Territory.

Q Are you a duly recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A I am.

Q You gave testimony in this case once before did you not, before the Dawes Commission? A I did.

Q Before this Commission I will say, this Commission? A The Dawes Commission? A Why I don't remember who the Commissioner was, that was taken at Vinita, ex parte.

Q Were you in any way connected with the Cherokee Citizenship Commission in 1883 known as the "Tehee Commission"? A I was Clerk of that Commission.

Q For what length of time? A I don't recollect the exact length of time, I think it was about thirty days, during the continuance of that commission, existance of that commission.
Q You were the clerk it had during its existance were you?
A I think I was.
Q You were Clerk of that Commission when it rendered a decision in favor of Robert Dawson et als, as found on page 114, of its record, numbered 108 (witness examines record referred to.) now in the possession of this Commission? A I was.
Q The members of that Commission were the same as shown by the signatures to this judgment were they? A The same, yes, sir.
Q Thomas Tehee, President of the Commission, Alex Wolfe and T. F. Thompson, Commissioners, that is correct, is it? A That's correct.
Q Were you present when this case was under consideration by that Commission and when it rendered this judgment in the case? A I was.
Q Were you at that time acquainted with F. M. Dawson, commonly called "Mad Dawson", Campbell Taylor and Samuel H. Benge, who were attorneys, who were Cherokee attorneys at that time? A I might say that I merely knew Mr. Dawson; all I know of him was I saw him there as a party to the suit. I knew Mr. Taylor and Mr. Benge more extensively; I have known them a number of years.
Q They were recognized Cherokee citizens were they? A They were.
Q Was Taylor not known generally as a Citizenship Attorney?
A I think he was.
Q Do you remember seeing him and Benge present at the time this case was under consideration by the Court? A Why I do not recollect seeing Mr. Benge, I cannot recollect, but I can recollect of seeing Mr. Taylor about the Court room now and then.
Q Do you know who submitted the case to the Court for the applicants? A Let me understand the meaning of that; who brought the case?
Q Who called up the case? A No, I don't recollect.
Q Do you remember whether that Commission rendered any other decision than that found upon this record in that case? A I never had any knowledge only but one decision.
Q Was that in favore of or against the applicants? A It was in favor of them; I will say this: that if there was another decision other than the one that appears on the docket now before you, I have no recollection of it.
Q The only decision you have any knowledge of was recorded by you in this book as here shown was it not? A That is the only one that I have any knowledge of.
Q Did Mad Dawson pay you any money in connection with that case?
A He did not.
Q Did he ever promise to pay you any money for your influence with the Court in that case? A Never.
Q Or paid you any money, either directly or through any other person? A For my influence in that case?
Q Yes, sir? A Never.
Q Did you have any knowledge of his having paid to the Court or to any member of the Court any money for the purpose of influencing their judgment in that case? A None whatever.
Q Did you have opportunity of observing his conduct during that Court at the time? A The only opportunity that I had was during the session of the Commission; I saw but very little of him during the recesses of the Commission; now and then I would see him in passing.
Q Did you see anything in his conduct toward that Court which indicated that he had used undue influence in procuring that judgment? A I never observed anything of the kind; nothing that awakened a suspicion in my mind that he was engaged in that kind of practice.

Q Did Carmbell Taylor at any time after the rendition of that judgment pay to you any money as coming through him from Bud Dawson for any services which you had rendered to him in that case?
A Yes, he paid me some.
Q What amount? A My recollection is that, I think it was a twenty dollar bill. I don't know but I had better go and state the transaction all about it.
Q Yes, sir. A Mr. Dawson, Bud Dawson, during the trial of the case occasionally applied to me at my desk for writing paper, issue of a subpoena or transcript, something of that kind; I always treated him with courtesy and proper official consideration. He seemed to appreciate it, and whenever I did services of that kind to him, says he, I have no money, Mr. Duncan, but I feel as I ought to pay you. I told him I made no charges for work of that kind. And in passing I might state that I never received a cent for any kind of that work which I had been in the habit of doing for various parties before the Court.

After his trial was concluded, in the afternoon a little while before supper time I went to my hotel, The National Brick Hotel in Tahlequah; went to my room, felt a little tired, laid down upon the bed to rest. I recollect Mr. Duncan stepped into the room, drew a chair up to the bedside and sat down and commenced giving expression to his gratification at the success of his case, dwelling mostly upon the testimony in the case being so satisfactorily, establishing his Cherokee blood, and that he thought that he was entitled and that he had received justice by the Court. I listened to him, and we talked there I guess some ten or fifteen minutes; after a little he says, I must go to-morrow, I think he says to-morrow, I must go home,- he then lived down in Arkansas somewhere. Says he, Mr. Duncan, I believe I owe you something, ought to pay you something. Alluding, as I understood, to these little courtesies that I extended to him at my desk. Says I, I make no charges, Mr. Dawson, for services; if I have done you any good you are welcome. Well, says he, I feel indebted to you, I ought to pay you. I says, that makes no difference; I will leave that to you. Says he, I have hardly enough money to get back home. He shook my hand, and the last word he says to me, you shan't lose anything for your kindness to me; I thought he had reference to my services at the desk. That was the last I saw of Mr. Dawson, oh it must have been a year afterwards; I had located a little claim on the public domain up there in Delaware District, staked off what I intended to be a farm, merely stakes, I didn't make any other improvements, over there on Horse Creek. Went over in that part of the country to look after my claim, and I ran across Mr. Dawson, he had come into the Country and located and built him a little shanty and was living in it; I called upon him, he was very glad to see me; I asked him what he was doing there; he said he had moved into the country, and I told him, says I, you are encroaching upon me here; he had spread his claim over part of mine, mine had been made so long it was outlawed under Cherokee law. Well, says Mr. Dawson, I don't feel like doing you any wrong, I will pay you for your claim, and we will settle the matter in that way, that he as soon as he got his little matters together that he would satisfy me for it. Well we parted at that point. It ran on then for a long time, I don't know how long, I think I met him in Vinita, and says he, did Carp Taylor pay you any money that I sent to you? Says I, No, I have not seen Carp Taylor.

Well, says he, I gave him some money and told him to send it to you for me, and, says he, you ask him and he will hand it over to you I guess. Well we parted then. Well, went on for some time, some months; I happened to meet Mr. Taylor and Tahlequah; I met him on the street I think, jocularly I clapped my hand on his shoulder, says I, look here, did Mr. Dawson any money to be by you? He says, yes, and he pulled out what I recollect to be a twenty dollar Bill, and handed it to me; I received it, and I received it with the idea that it was compensating me for taking my claim, or possibly for doing him those little services in the Court. Now that is the sum and substance of the whole thing.

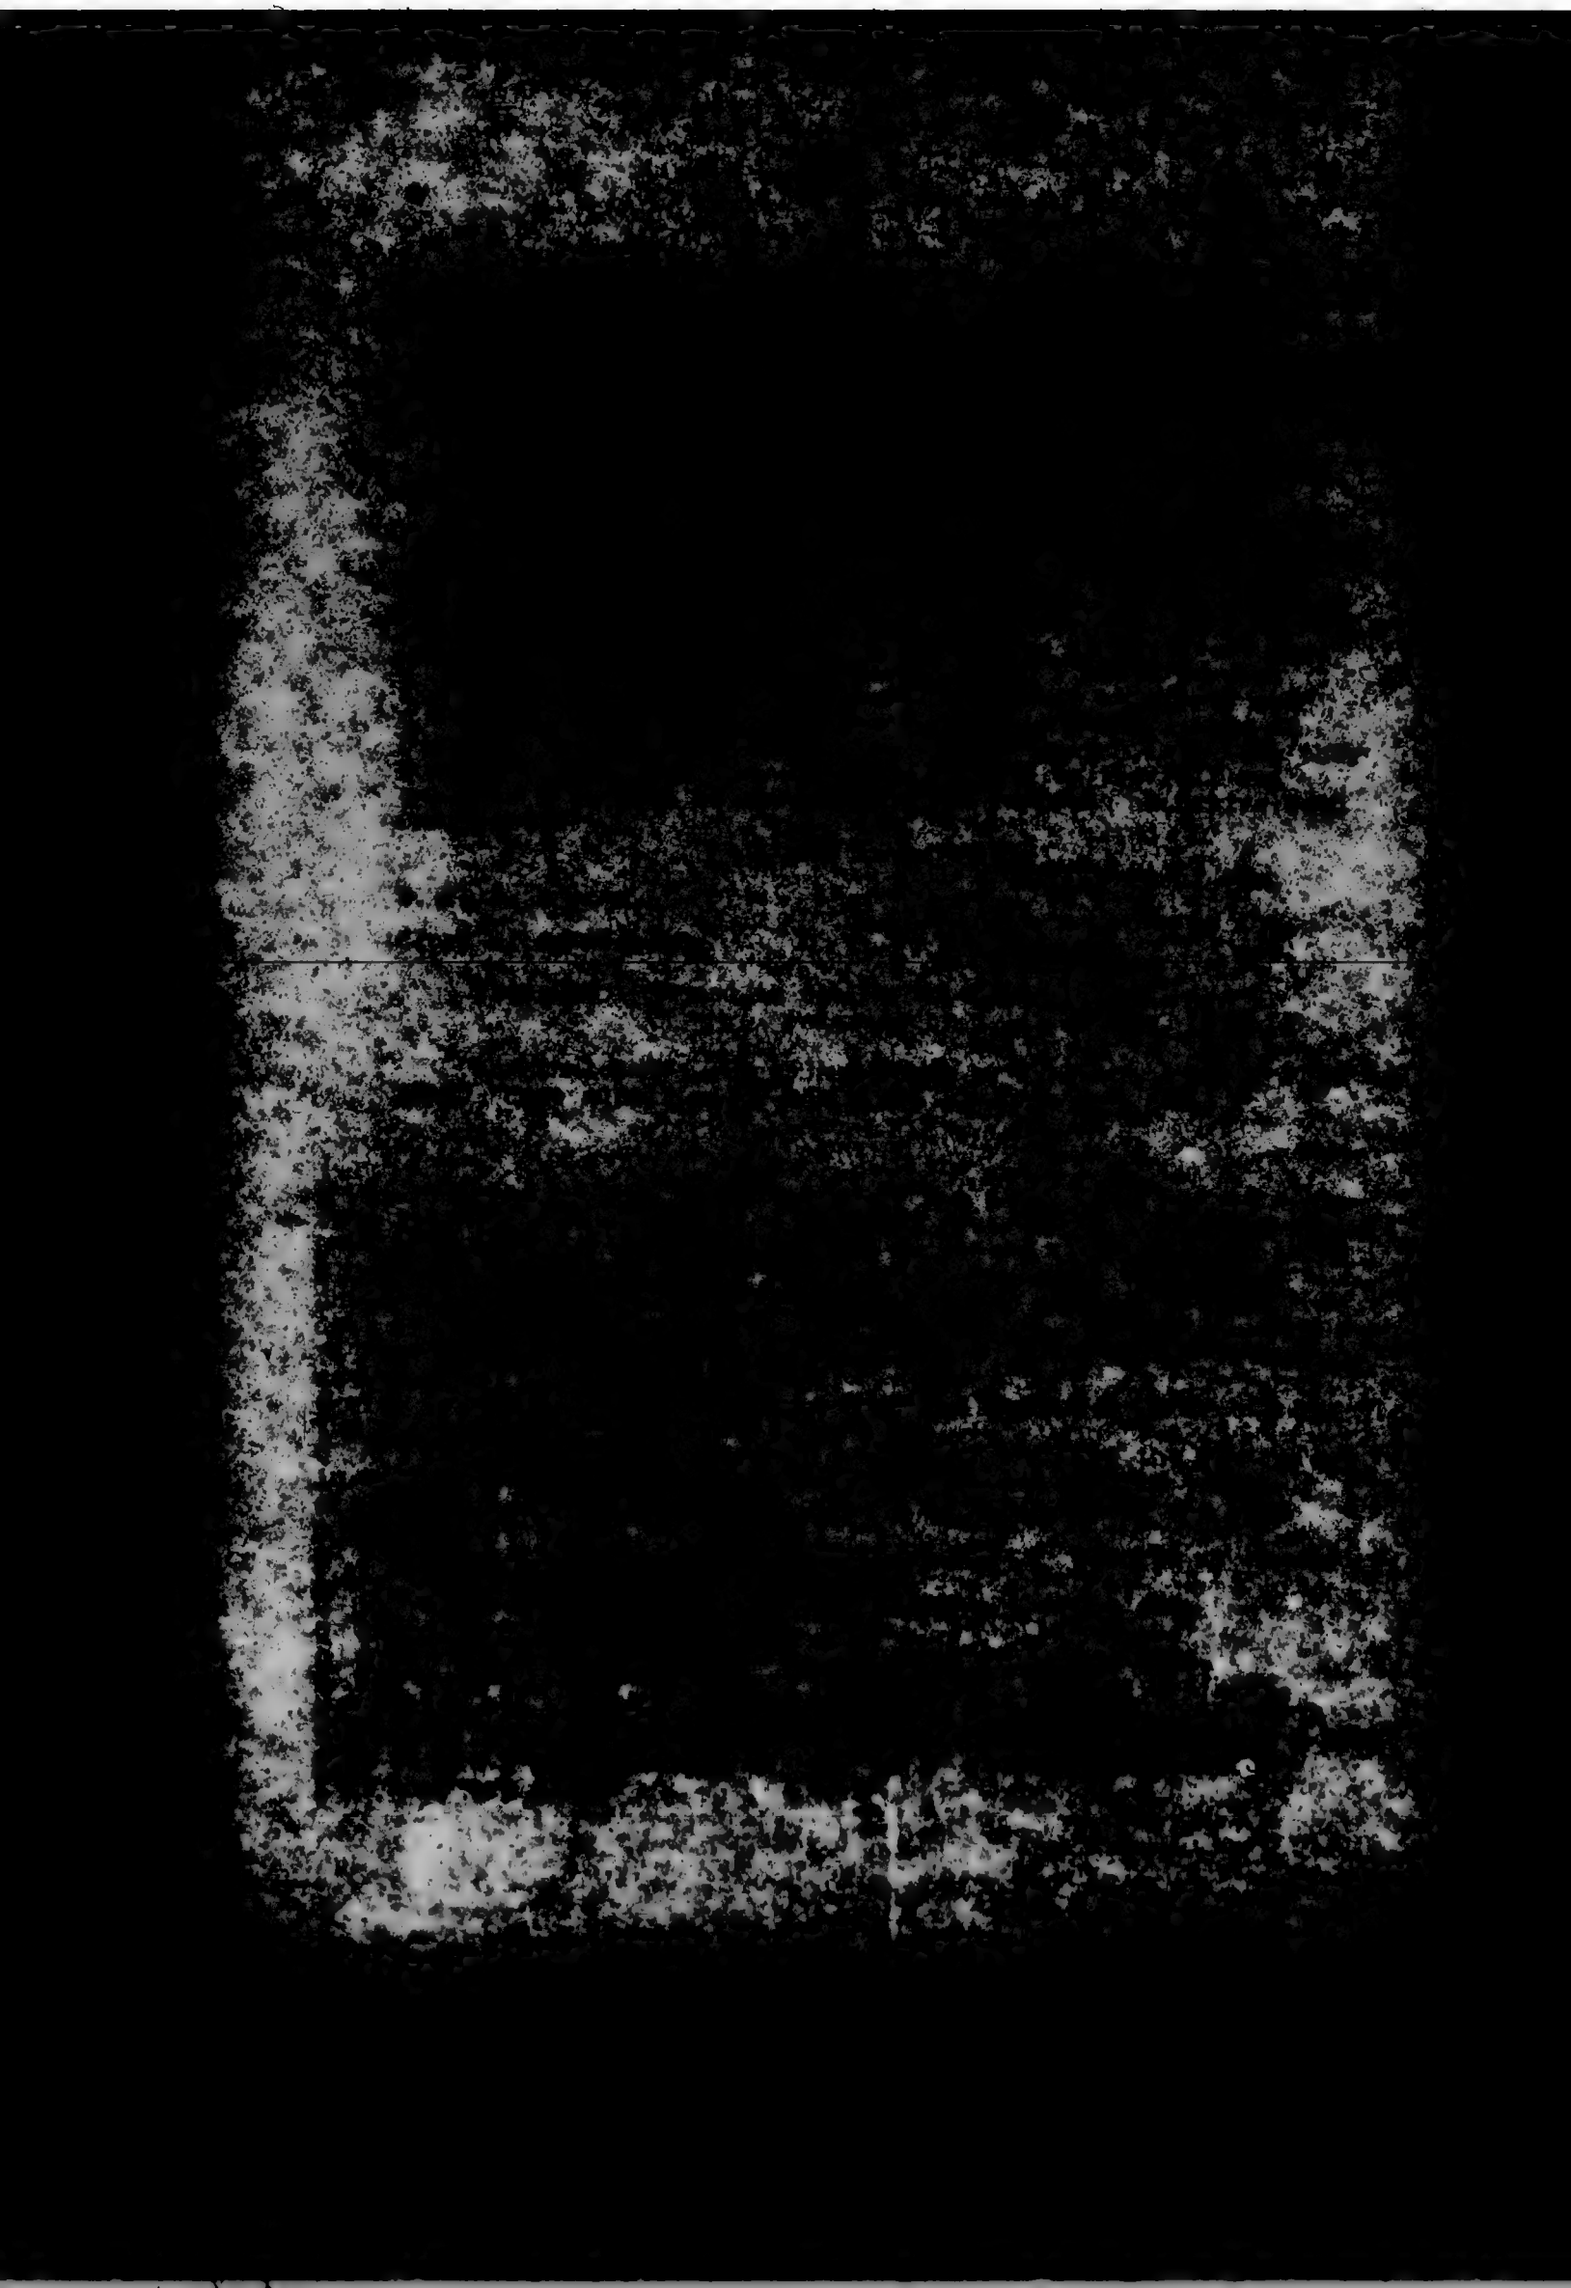
Q Was not that twenty-five dollars, Mr. Duncan? A It might possibly have been, my recollection does not serve me exactly, it might have been 35 dollars.

Q Did Campbell Taylor pay you any other money as coming from Rob Dawson? A Never a cent.

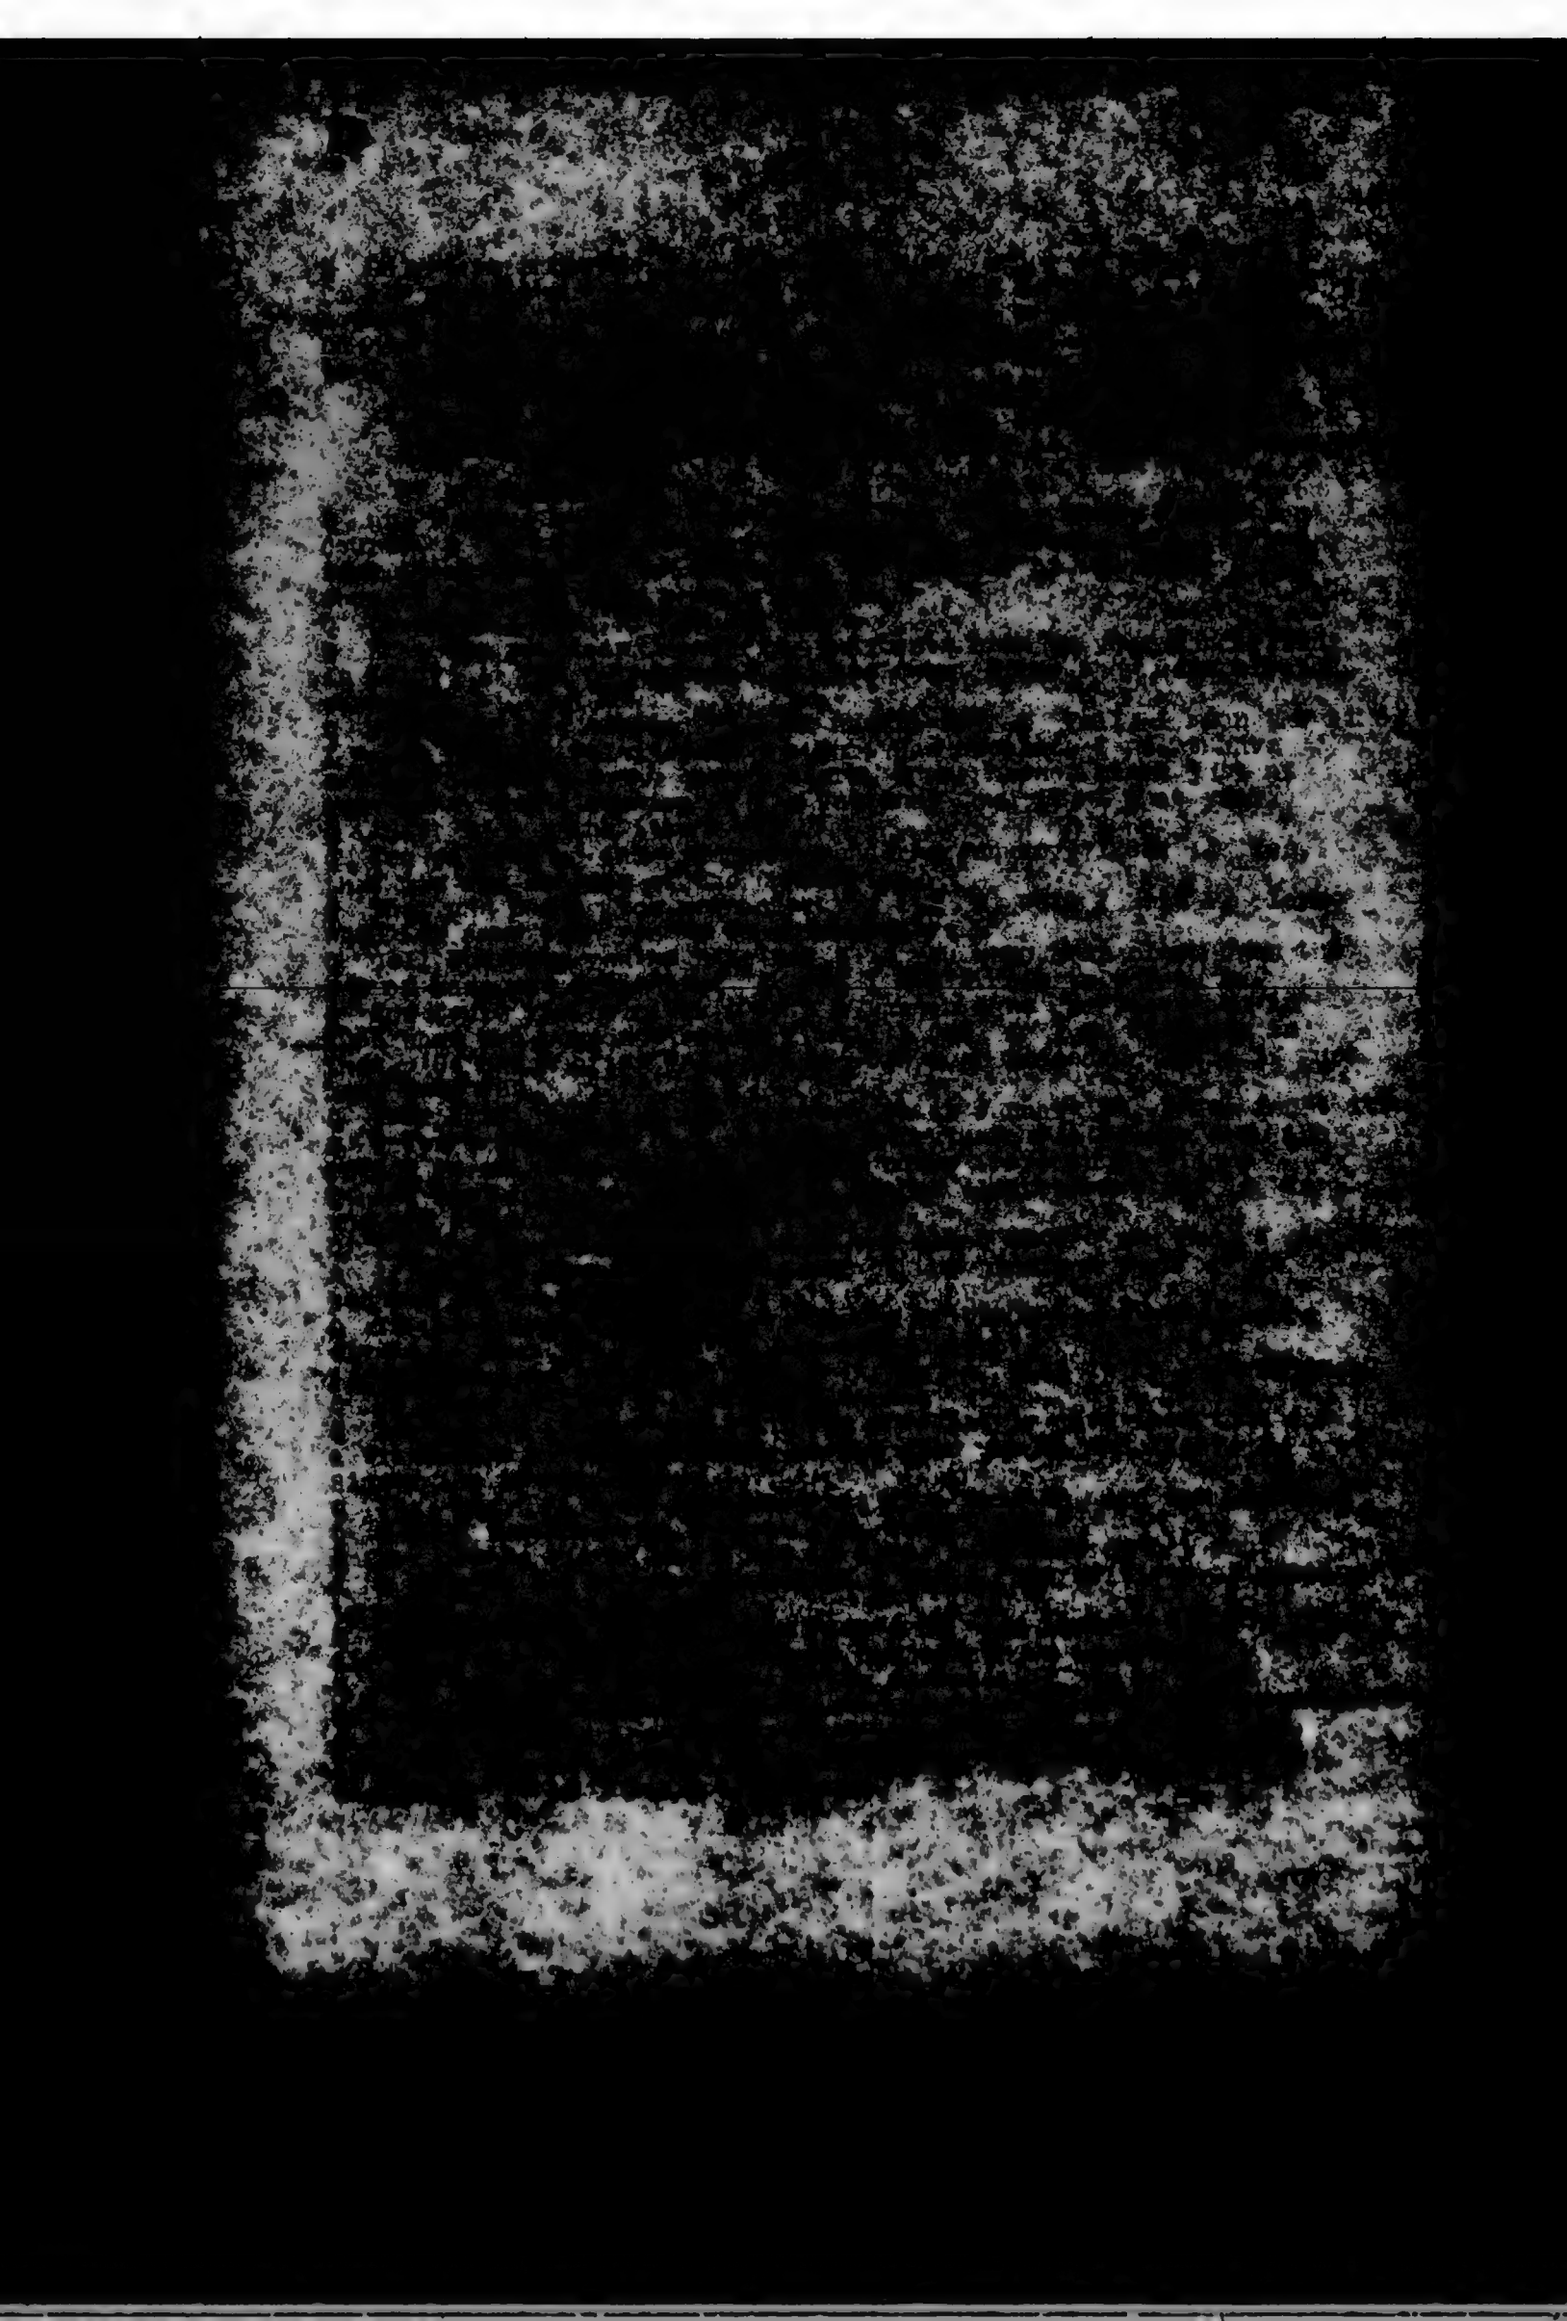
Q Did he at one time pay you fifty dollars out of a hundred dollars which he had received from Mr. Dawson? A Never.

Q Did he on a second occasion pay you fifty dollars out of one hundred dollars which he claimed to have received from Mr. Dawson? A None at all.

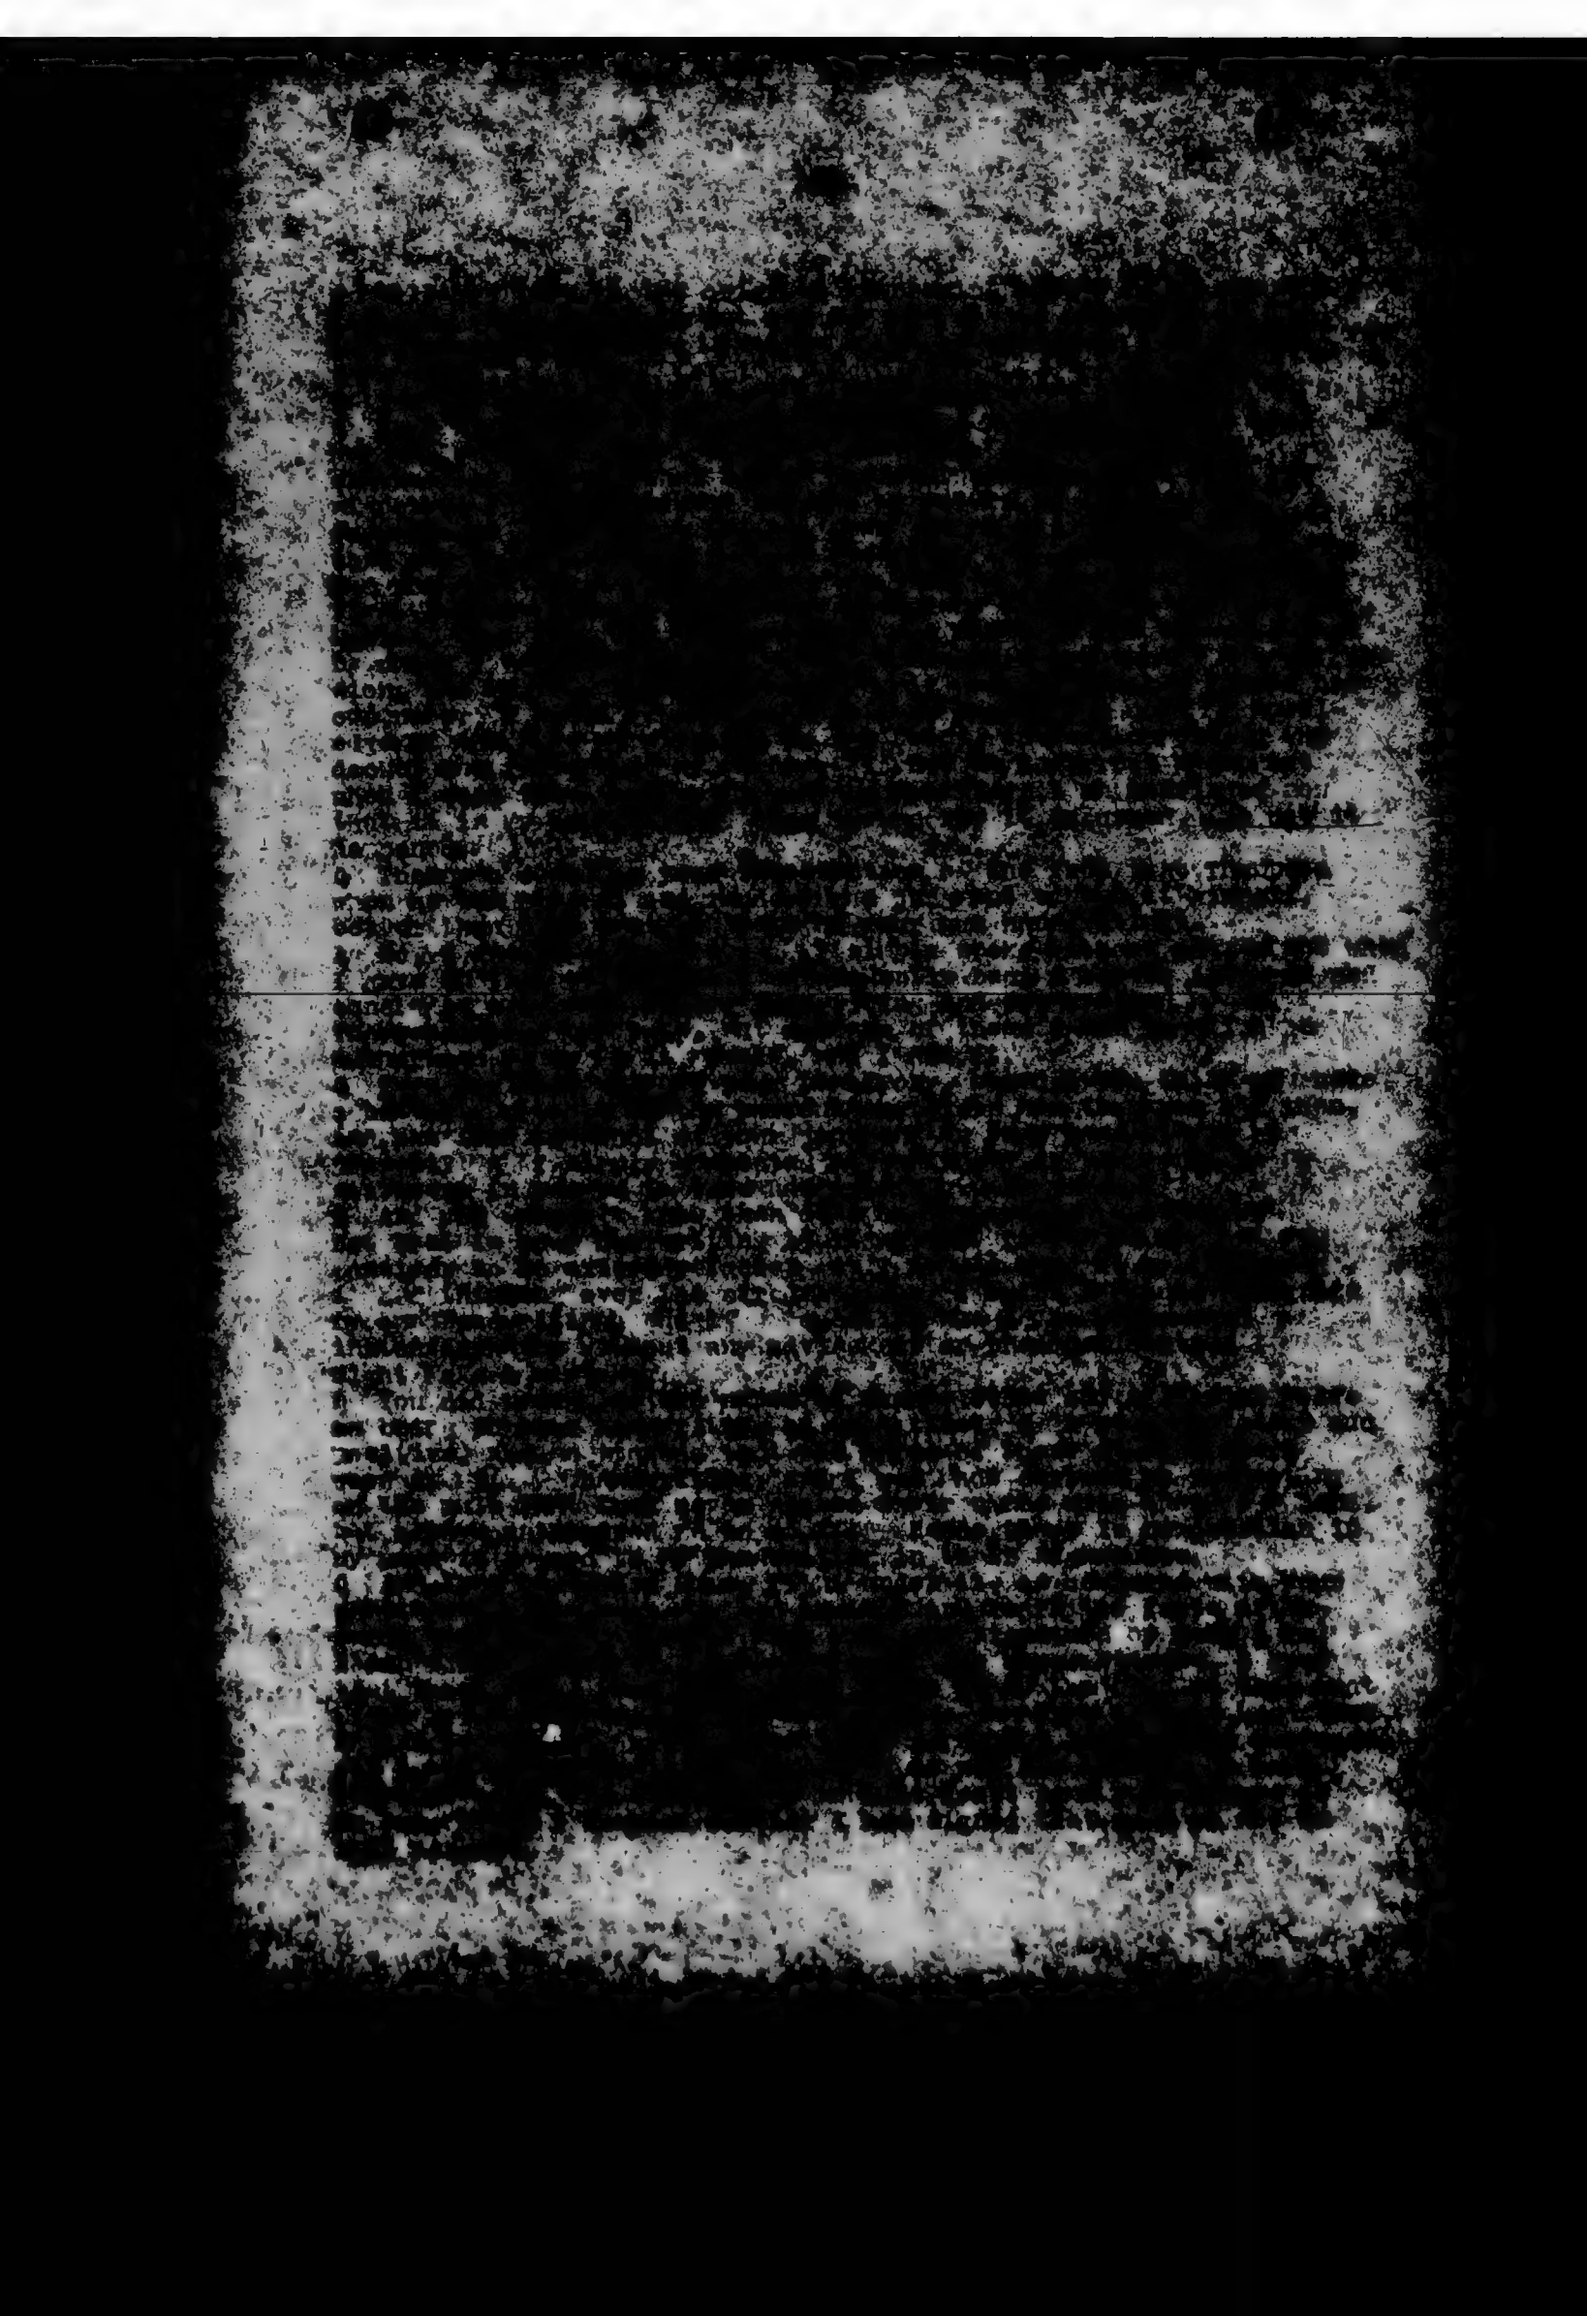
Q He paid you no other money than that you have already stated, from Mr. Dawson? A Not a cent.



BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence the judgment of the Cherokee Citizenship Commission before referred to, and ask that it be filed in evidence in the case of every application made by members of the Robert Dawson family who claim under it, or through Robert Dawson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said judgment being found on page 114, Records of the Tahlequah Court, 1880 to 1884, case number 108, judgment dated January 11th, 1883, signed by Thomas Tehee, President, Alex Wolfe, T. F. Thompson, Commissioners. D. W. C. Duncan, Clerk Commission.



The said judgment just introduced is as follows:



"Office Commission on Citizenship,

Cherokee Nation.

Continued by the Plaintiff, Oct. 5, 1881.

January 13th, 1882.
The above case continued by the Cherokee Nation till Sept.

Q You were asked questions at this time in your testimony by the [illegible]

Q And [illegible] I do not recollect [illegible]

Q Can you assume [illegible] like a print and what was your name, what was the day of May before yesterday, and [illegible]

A I don't remember I have thought of it since that time [illegible]

Q So the only recollection that you have got and the only aid to your recollection that you have in this judgment was entered was the fact that you did put a seal on it, on your endorsing, is it? A Yes.

Q You call [illegible] A That seeing the endorsing also, a recollection was I recall and by that the day is [illegible] all present at the time I signed it, I didn't [illegible] their action was all correct as well.

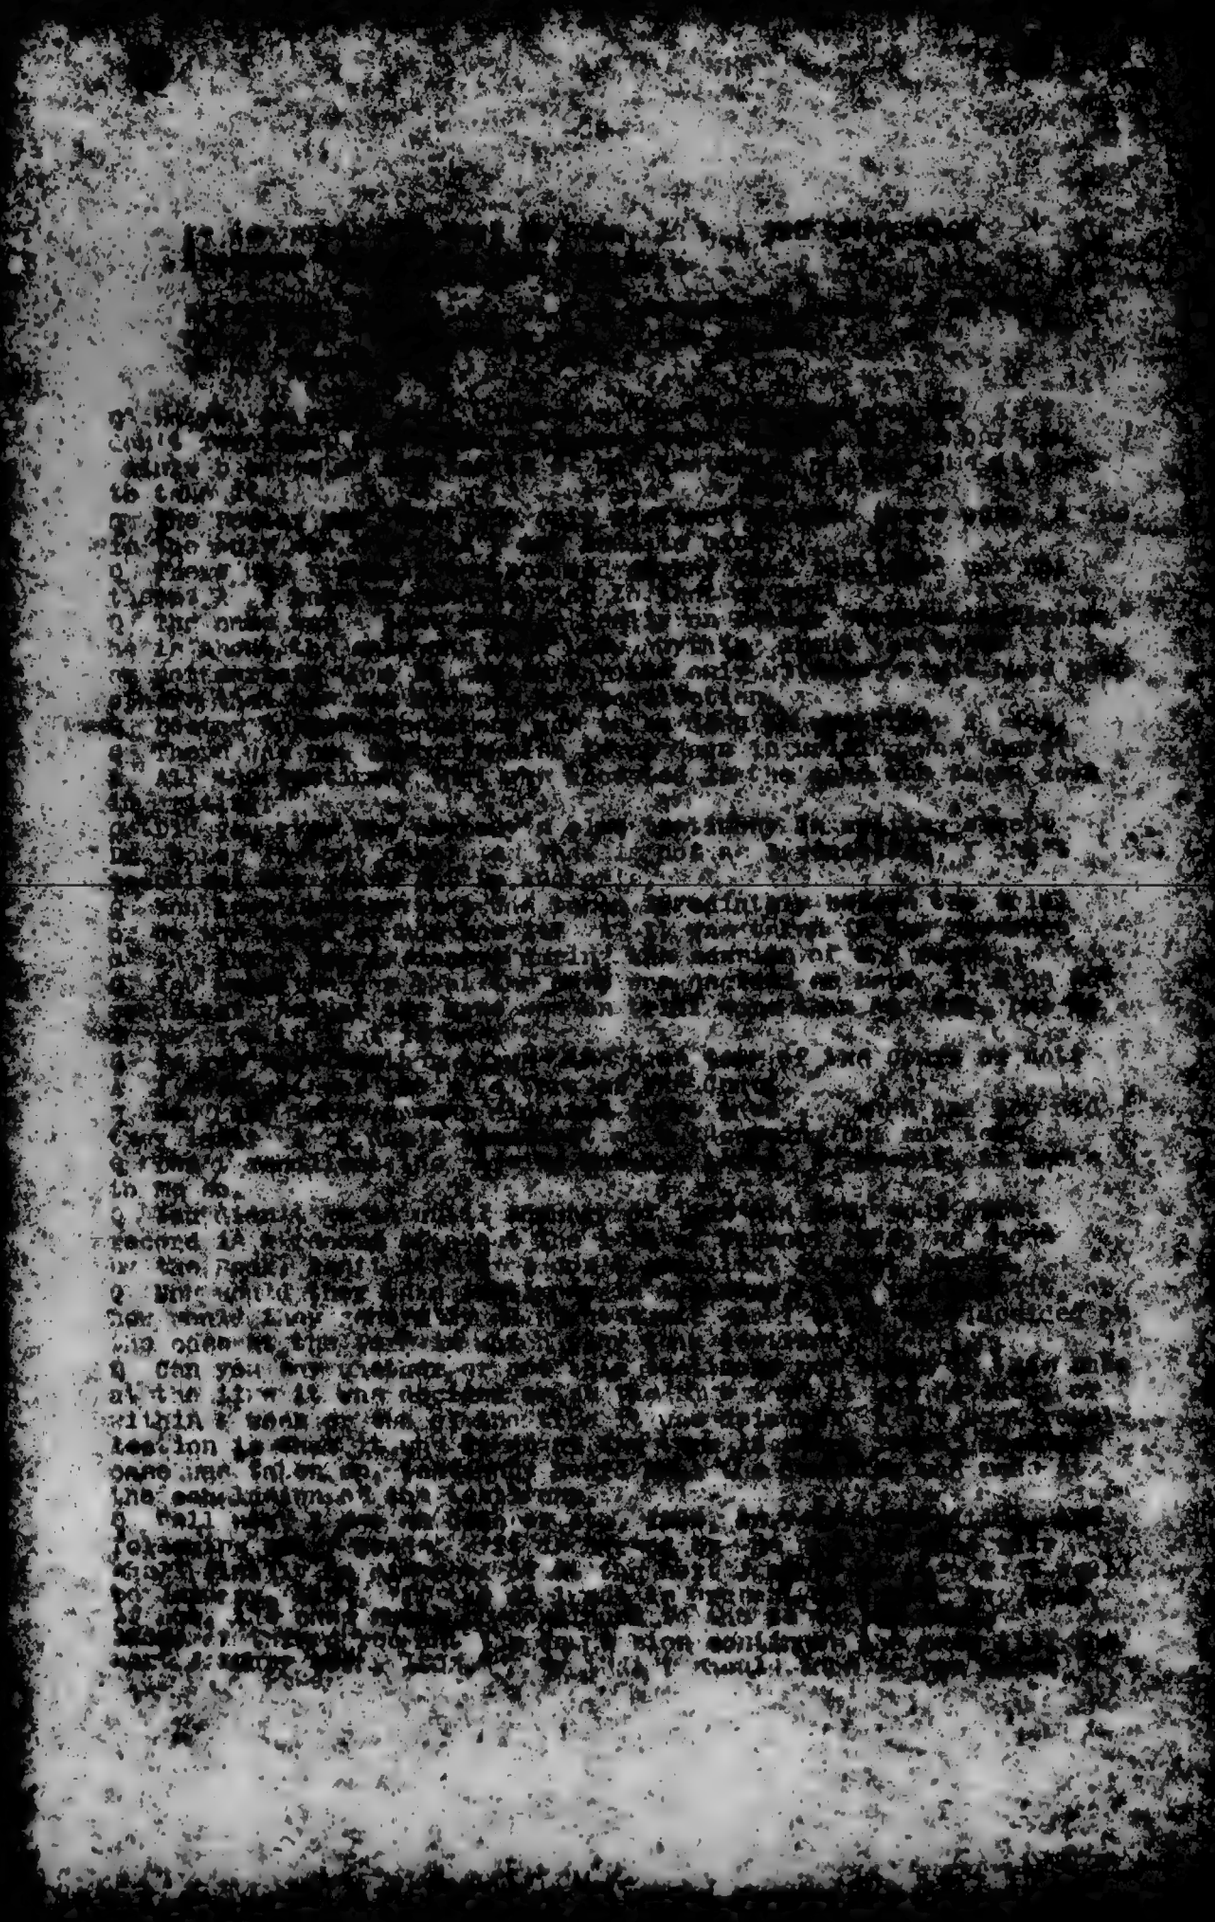
Q Was it in the [illegible] A I don't recollect [illegible]

Q In recollecting that they were all present when you signed, do you mean to say that they were all present when the judge was rendered? A Yes, that is, you mean when the [illegible] A Yes. I [illegible]

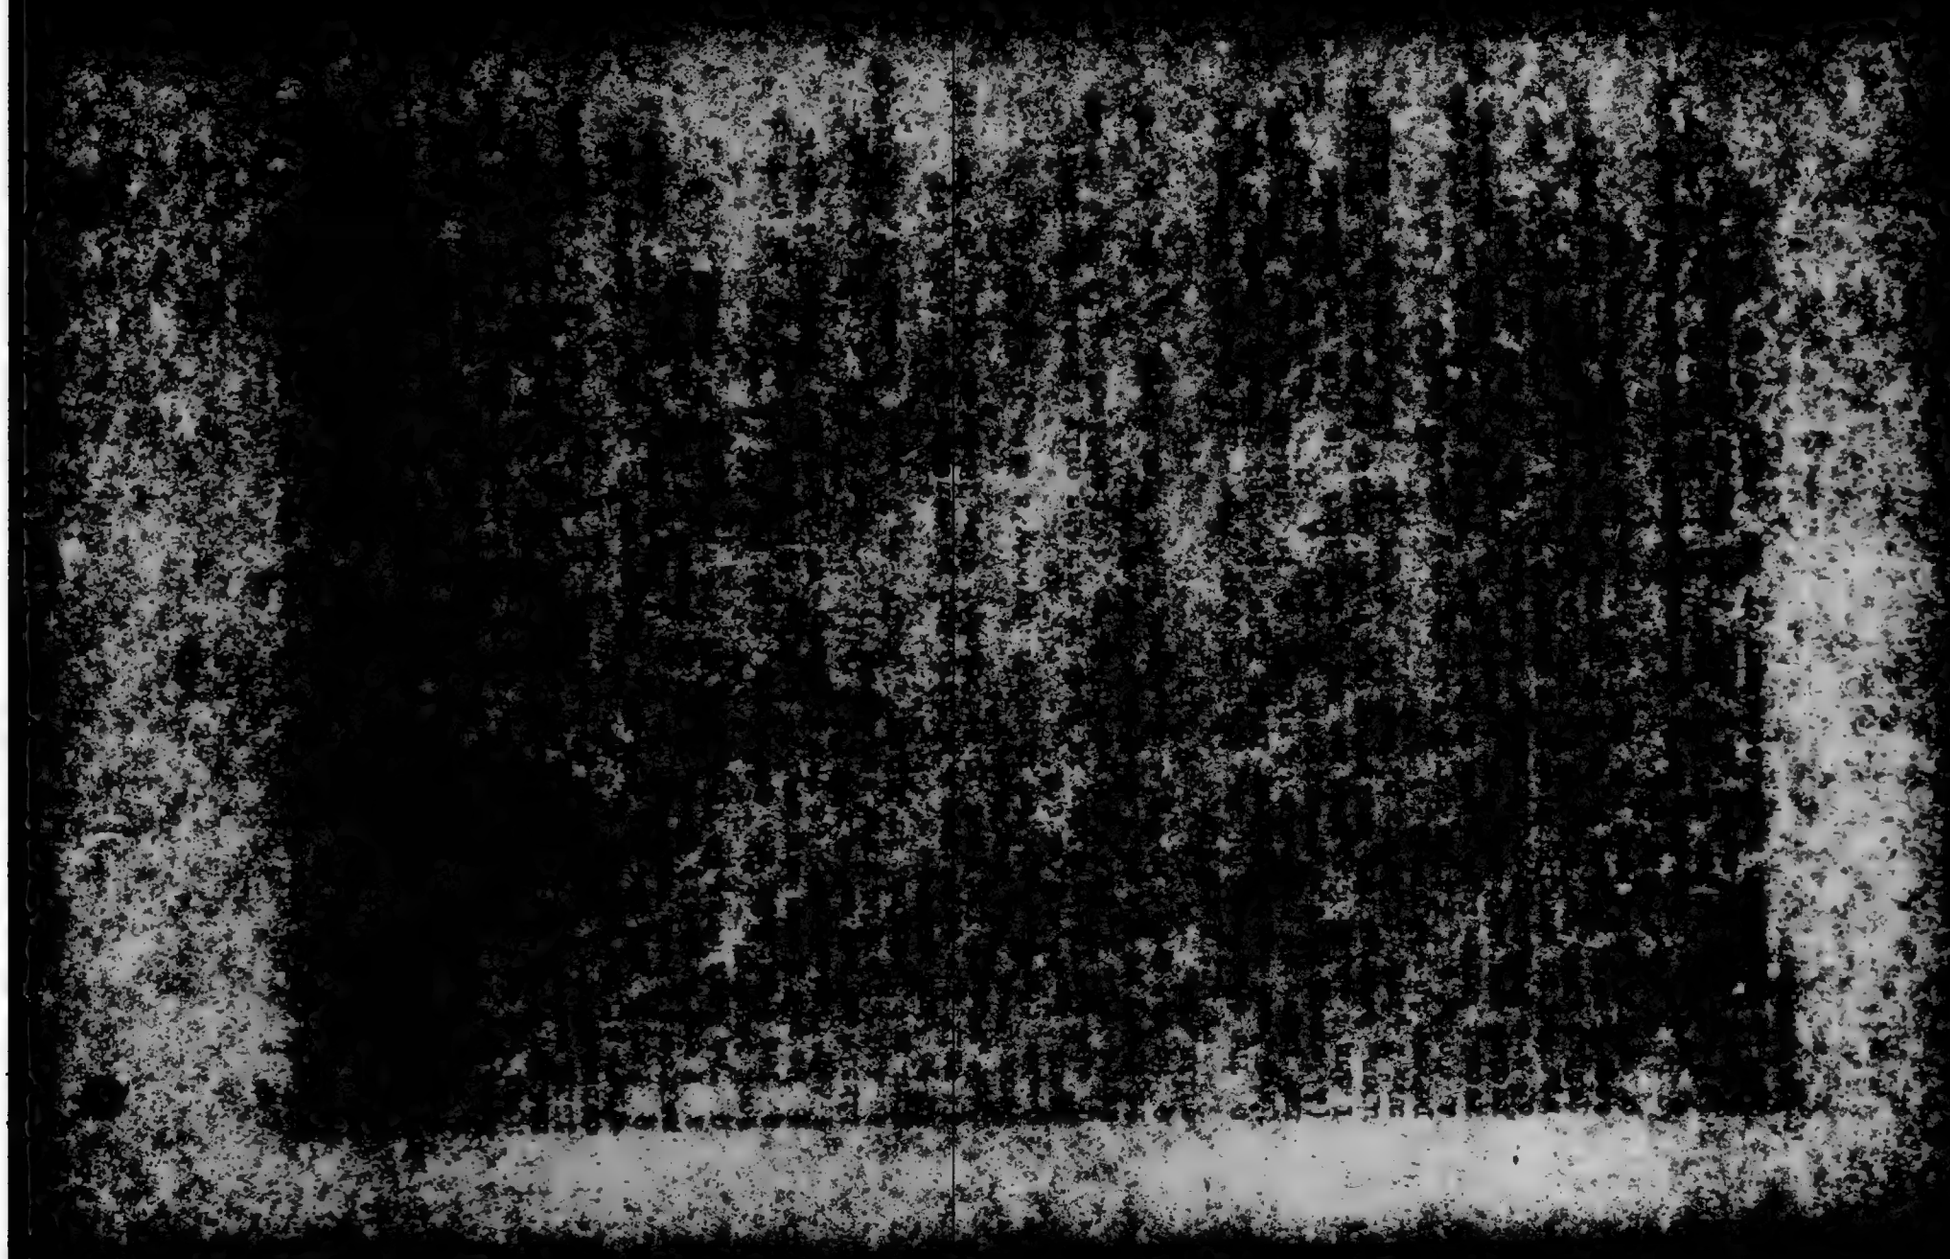
Q Did you [illegible] A [illegible] record after adjournment, generally in the evening and [illegible] next day or [illegible] the [illegible]

Q But in this [illegible] A I didn't recollect as to that.

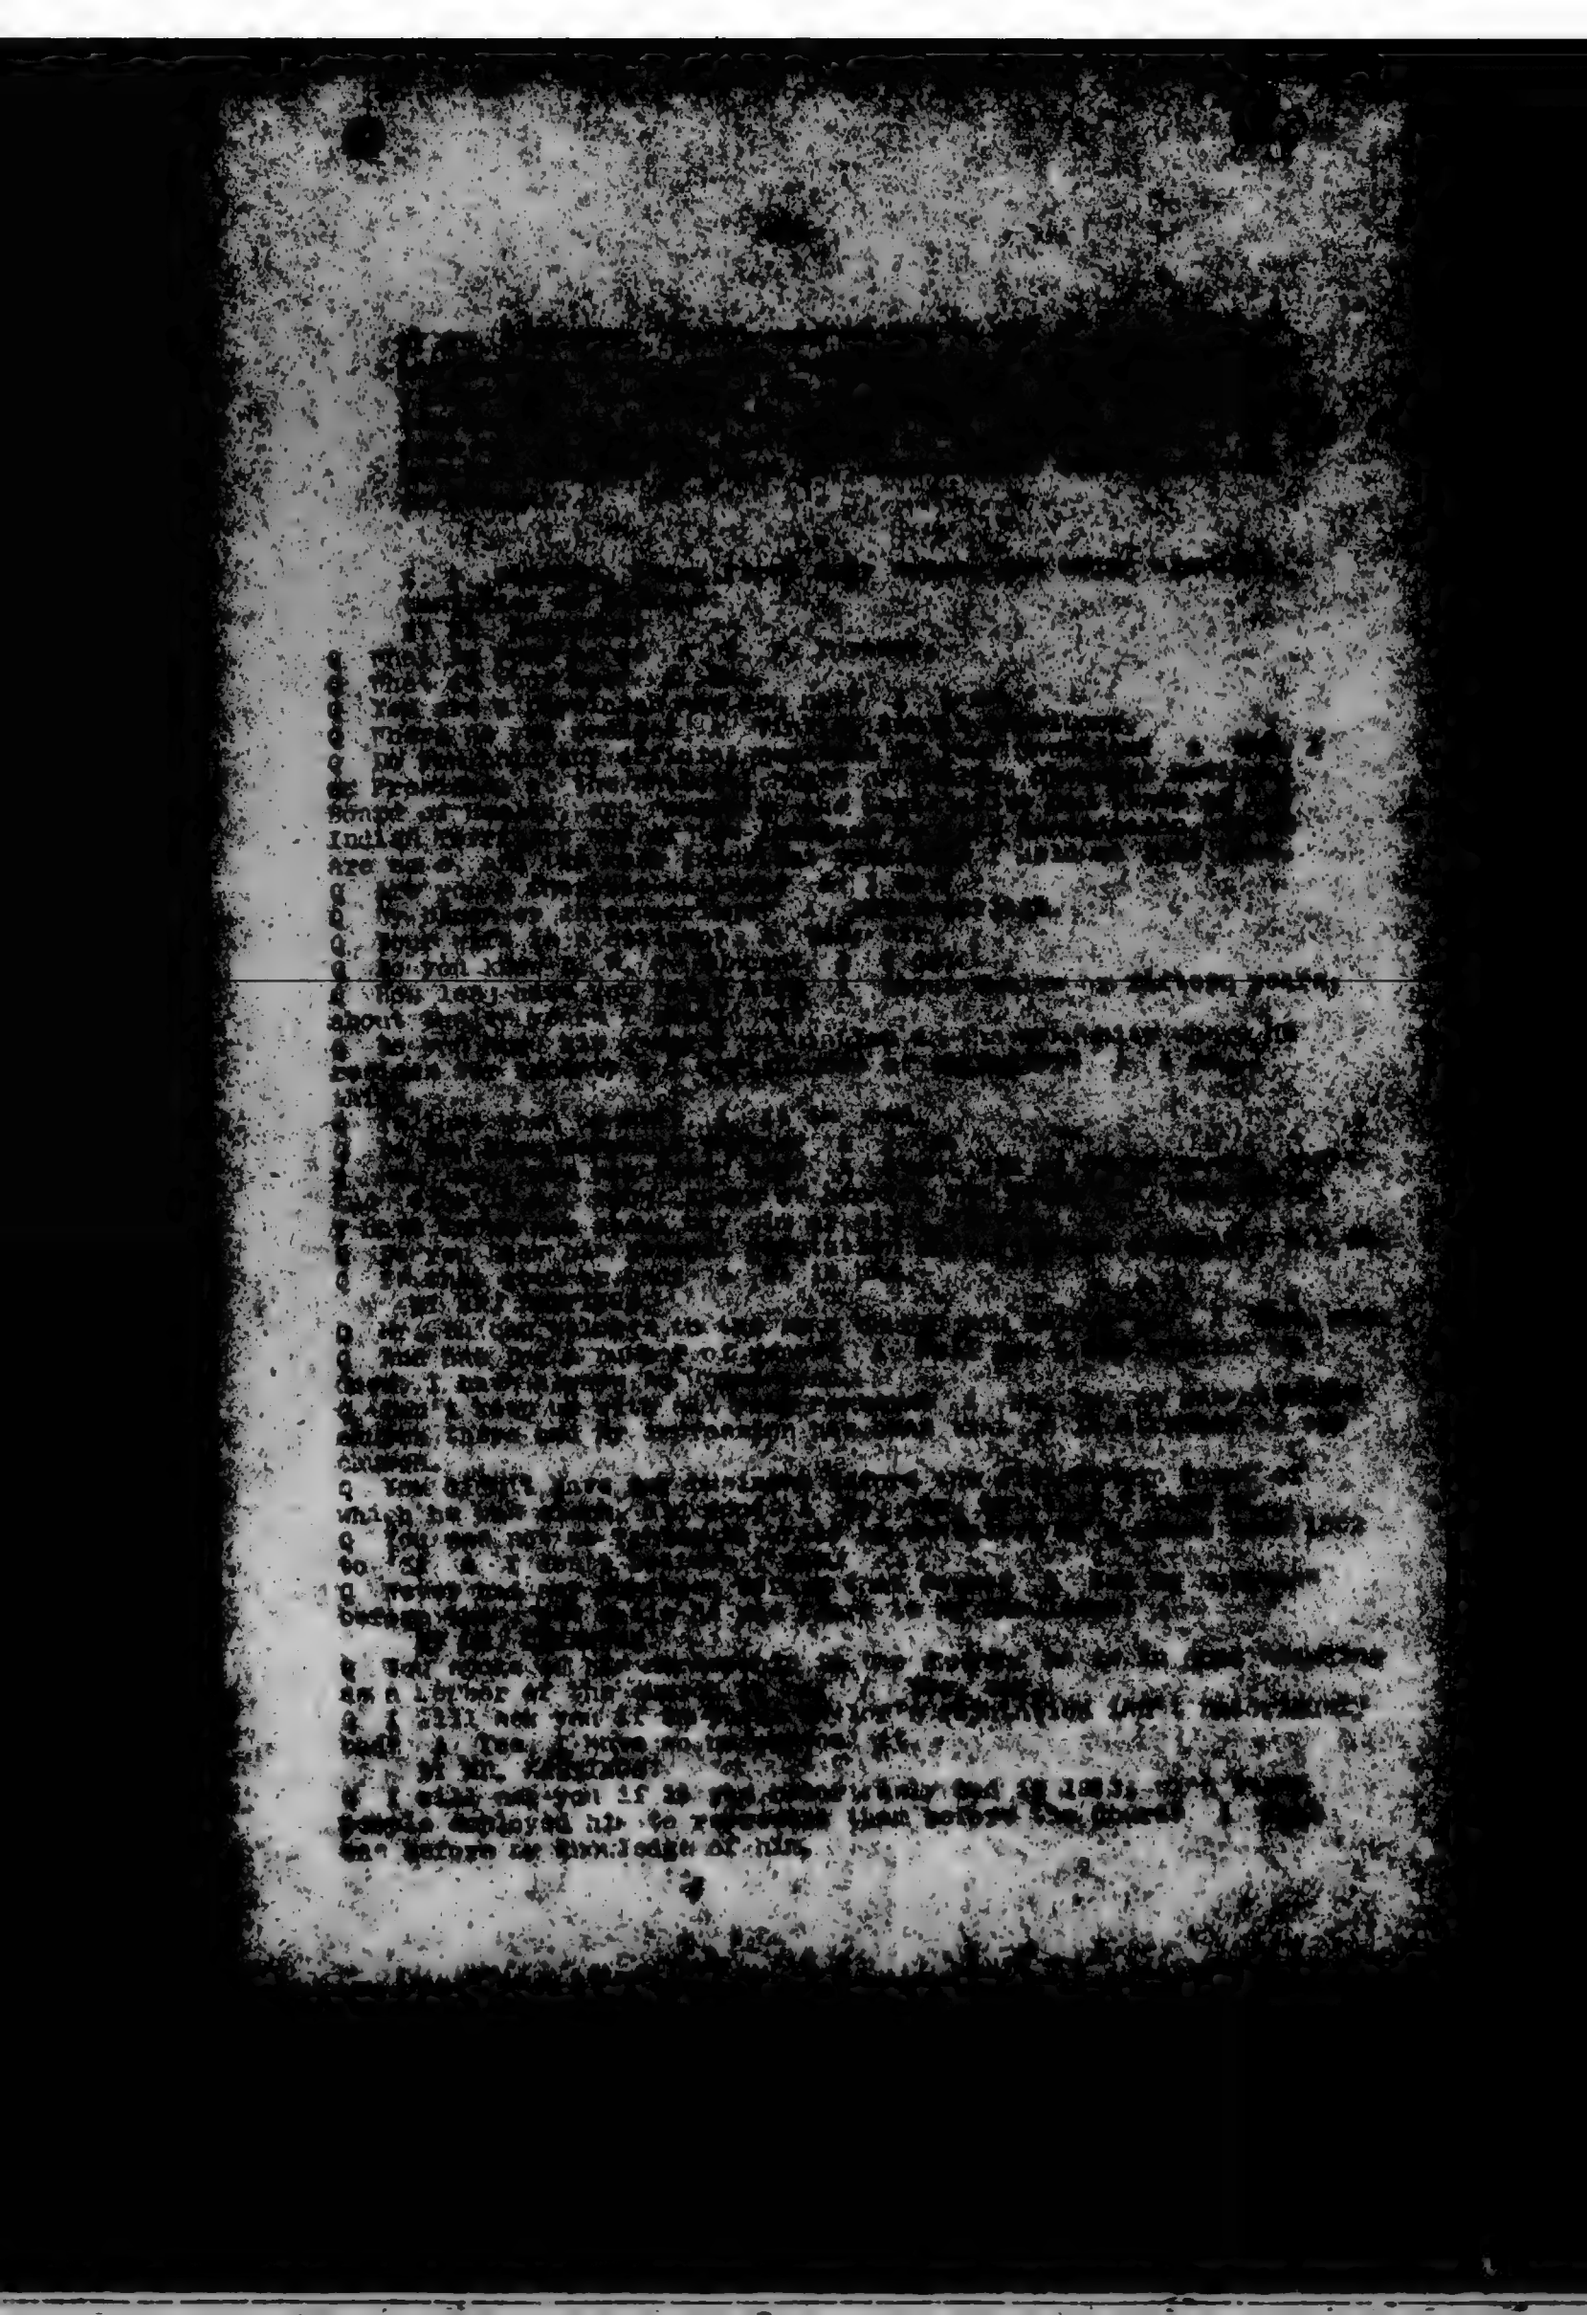
Q And [illegible] A I don't recollect as to that.



Q And indicated [illegible] judge on the day it was rendered? A I should say it was given to the [illegible]

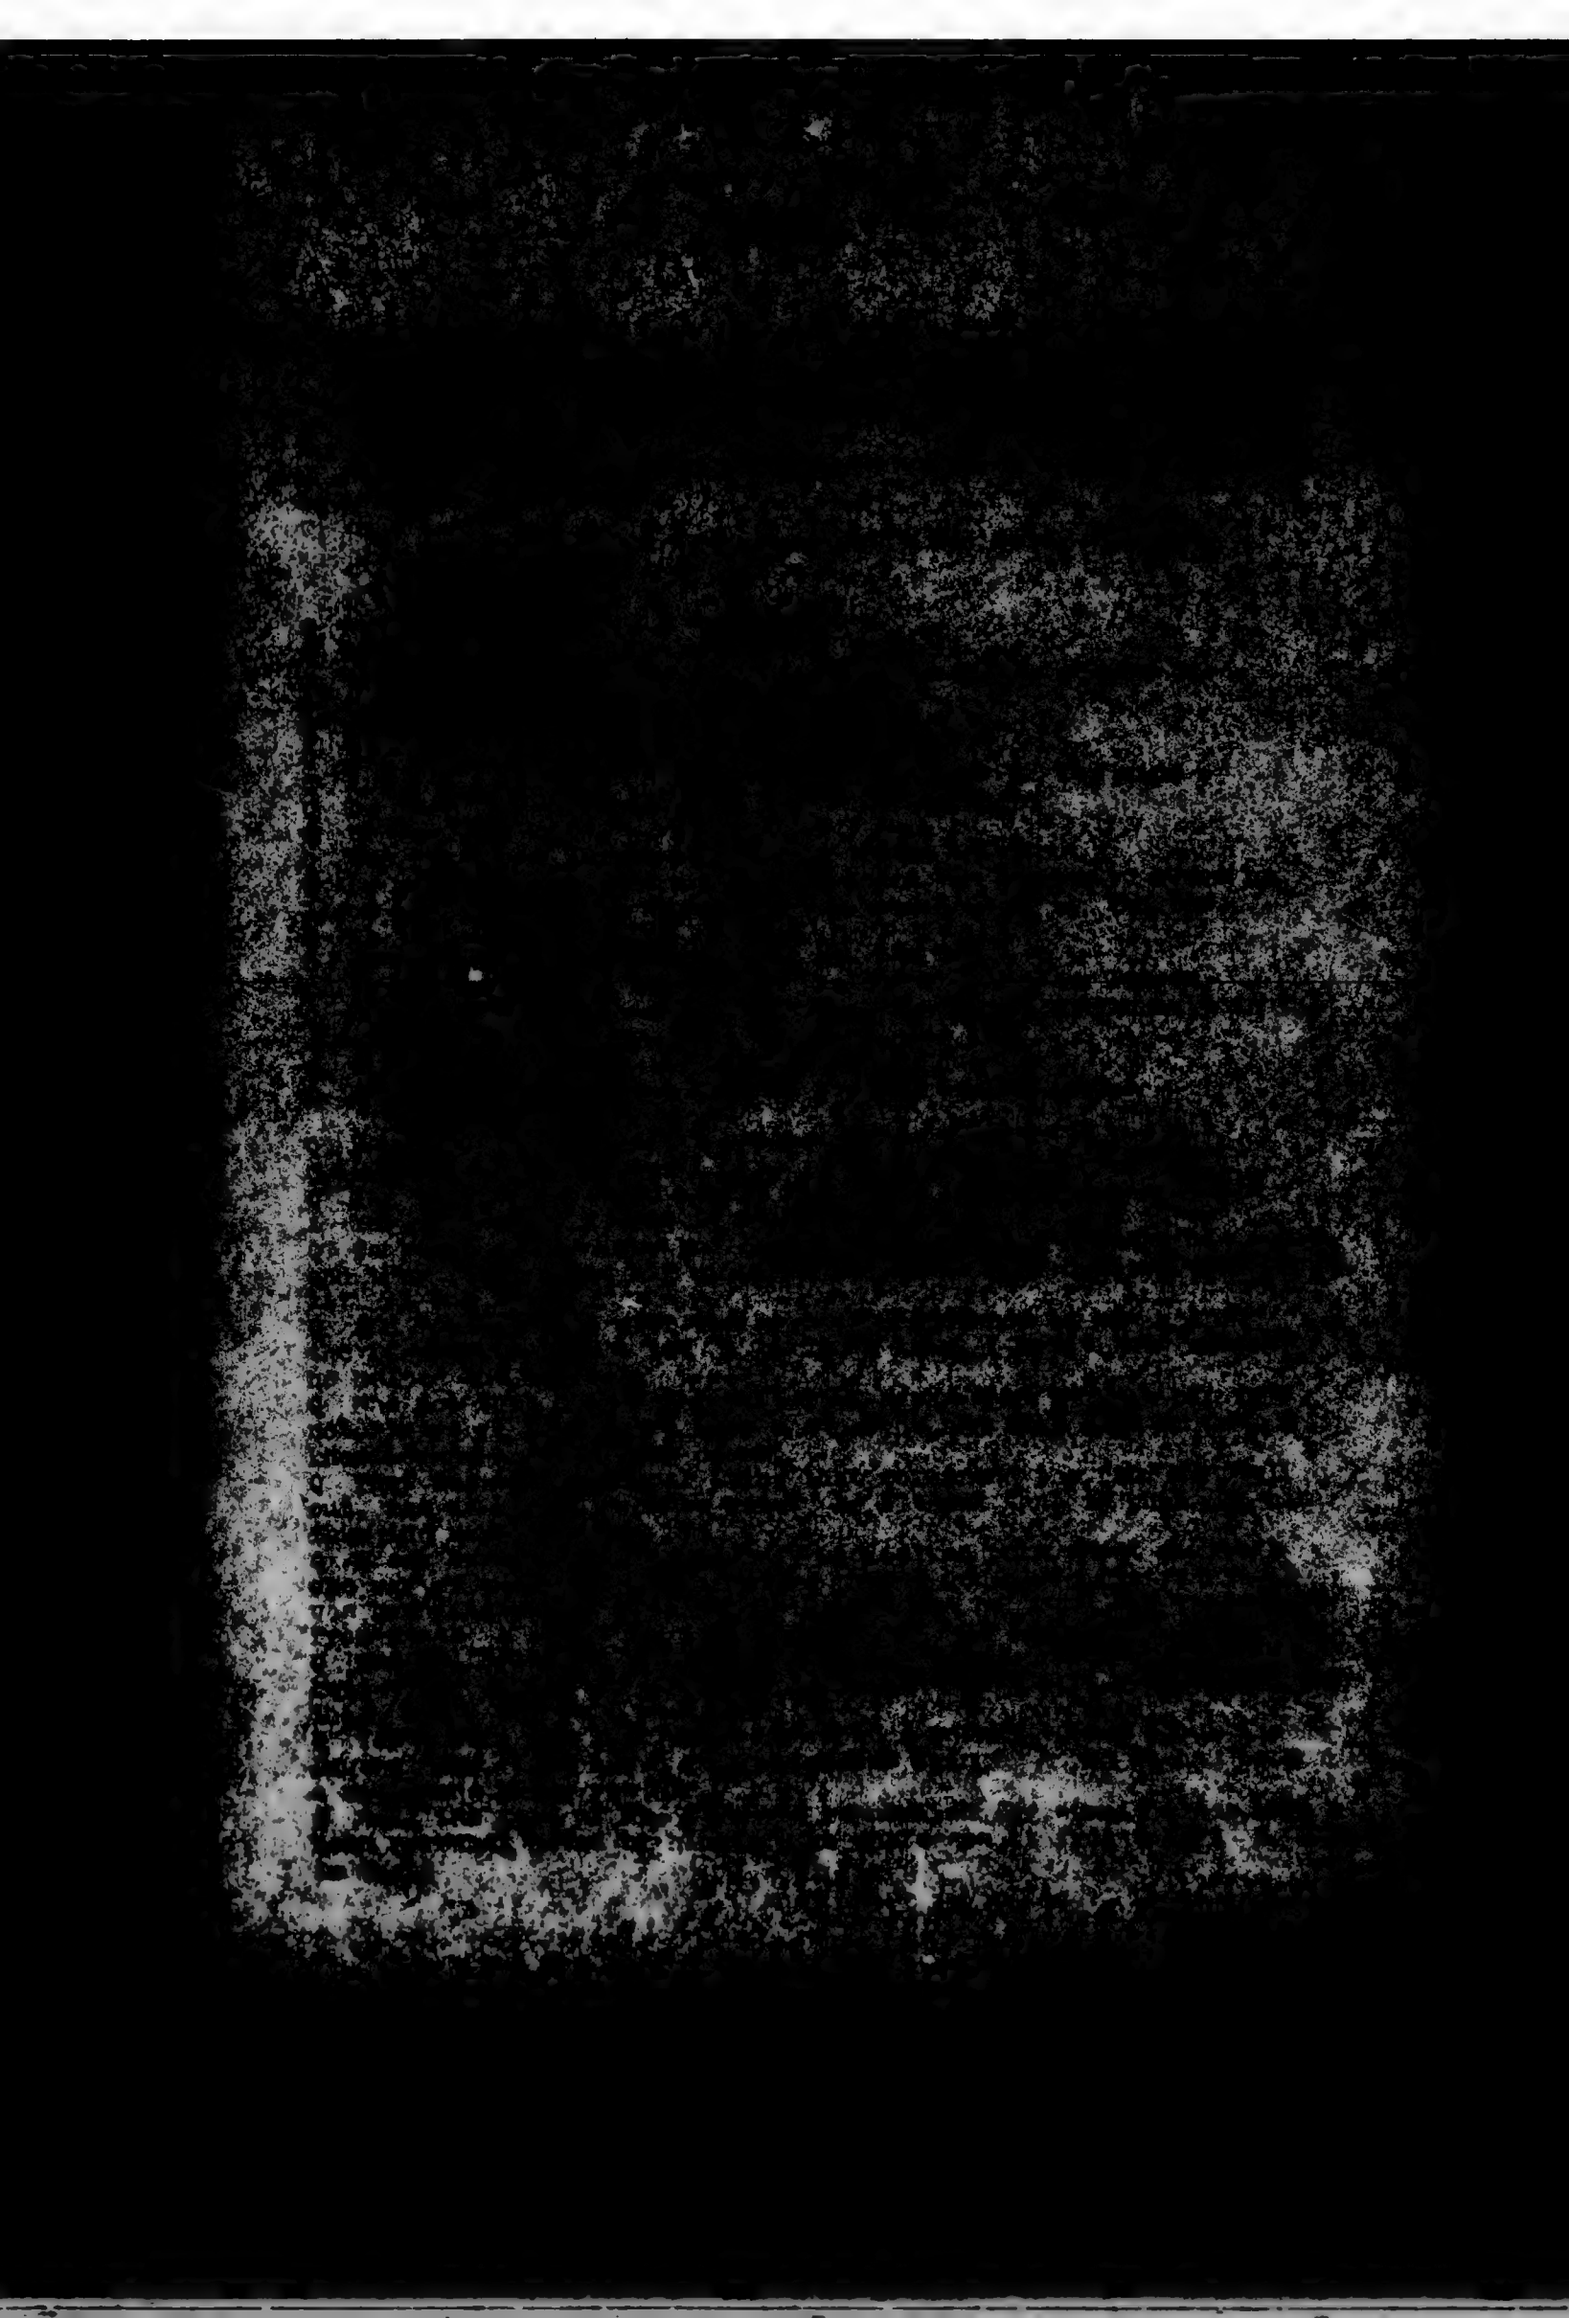


Q That was [illegible] A [illegible]

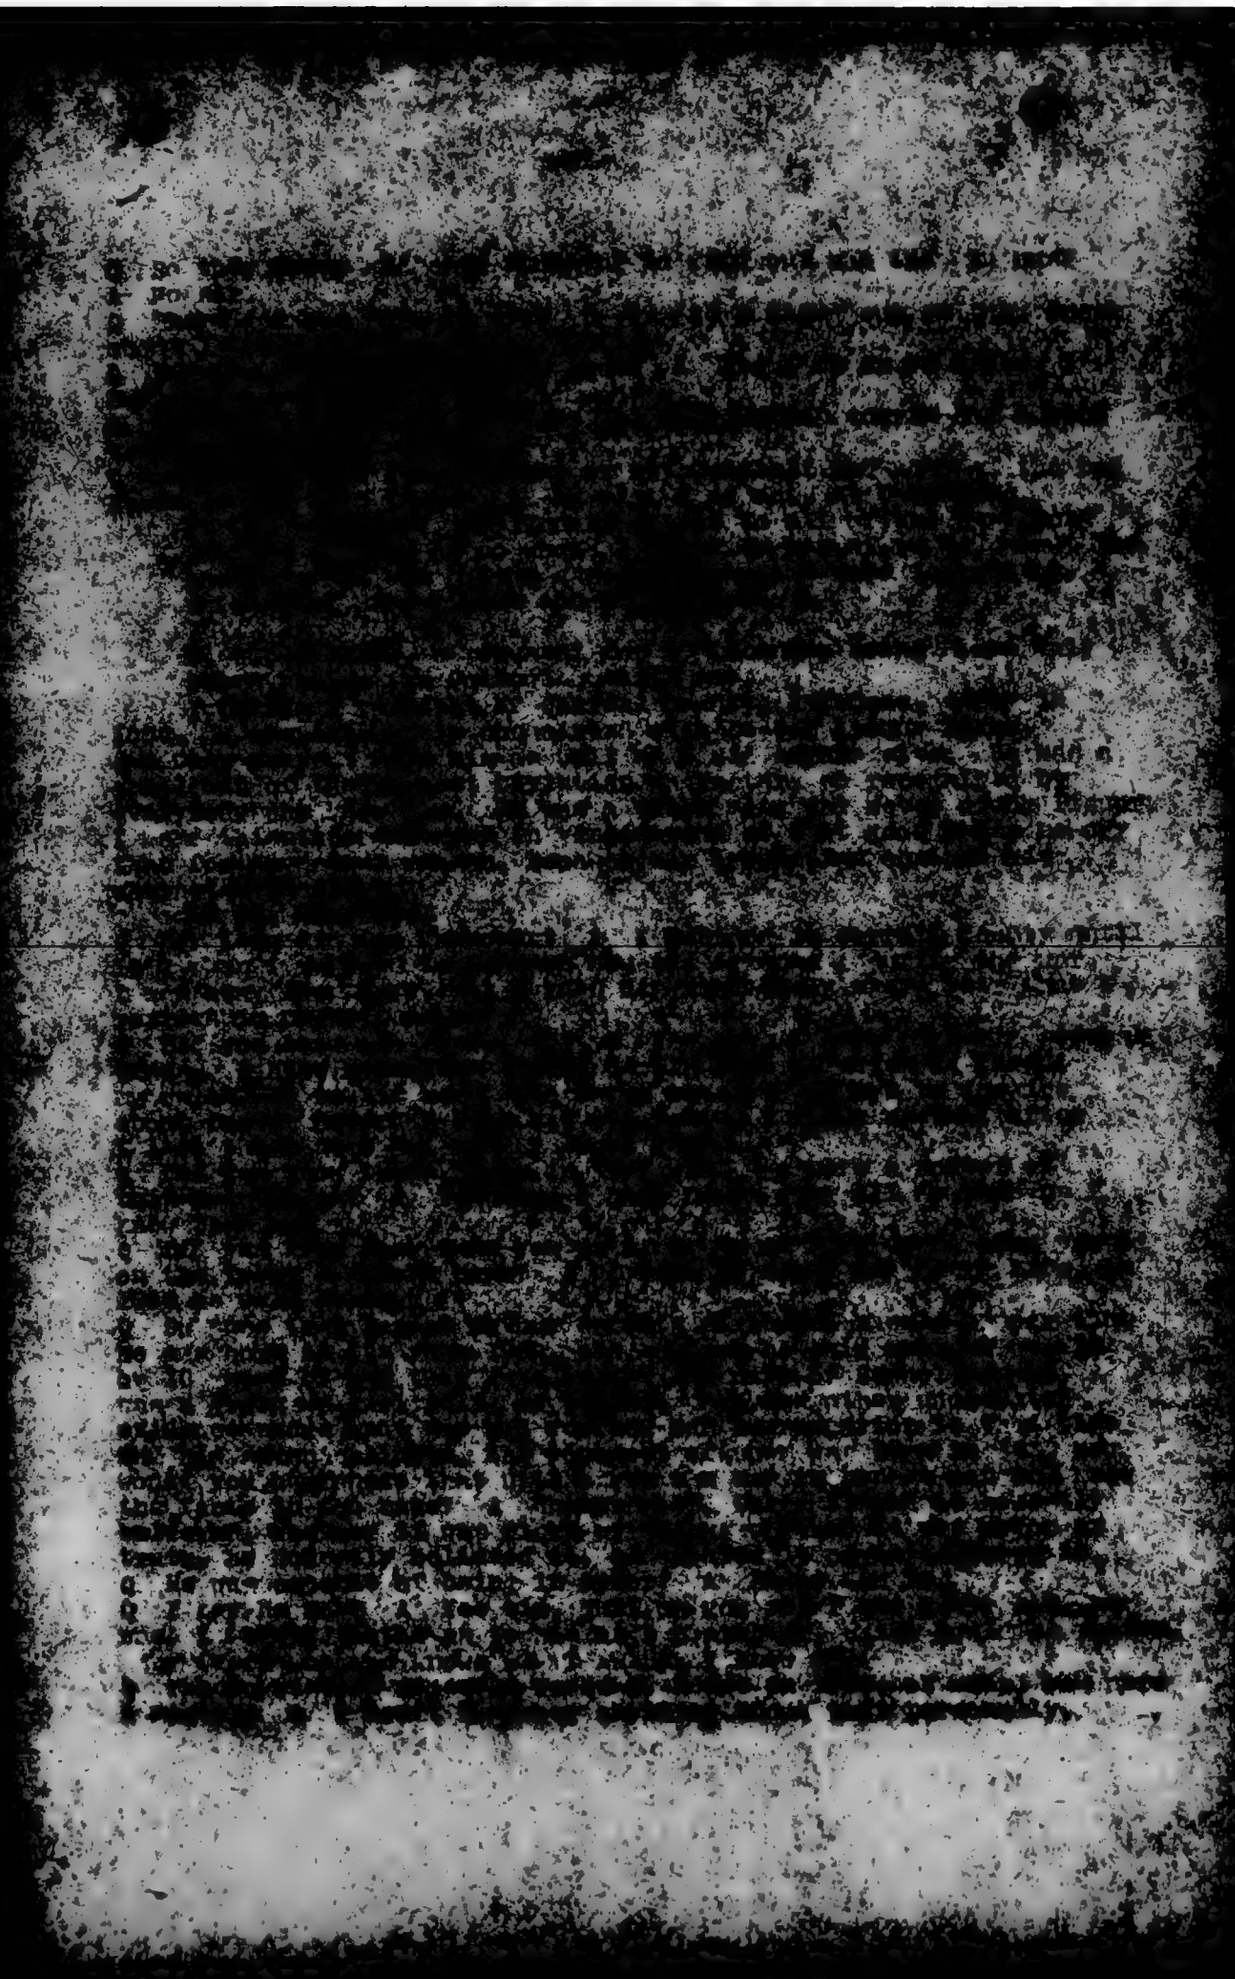


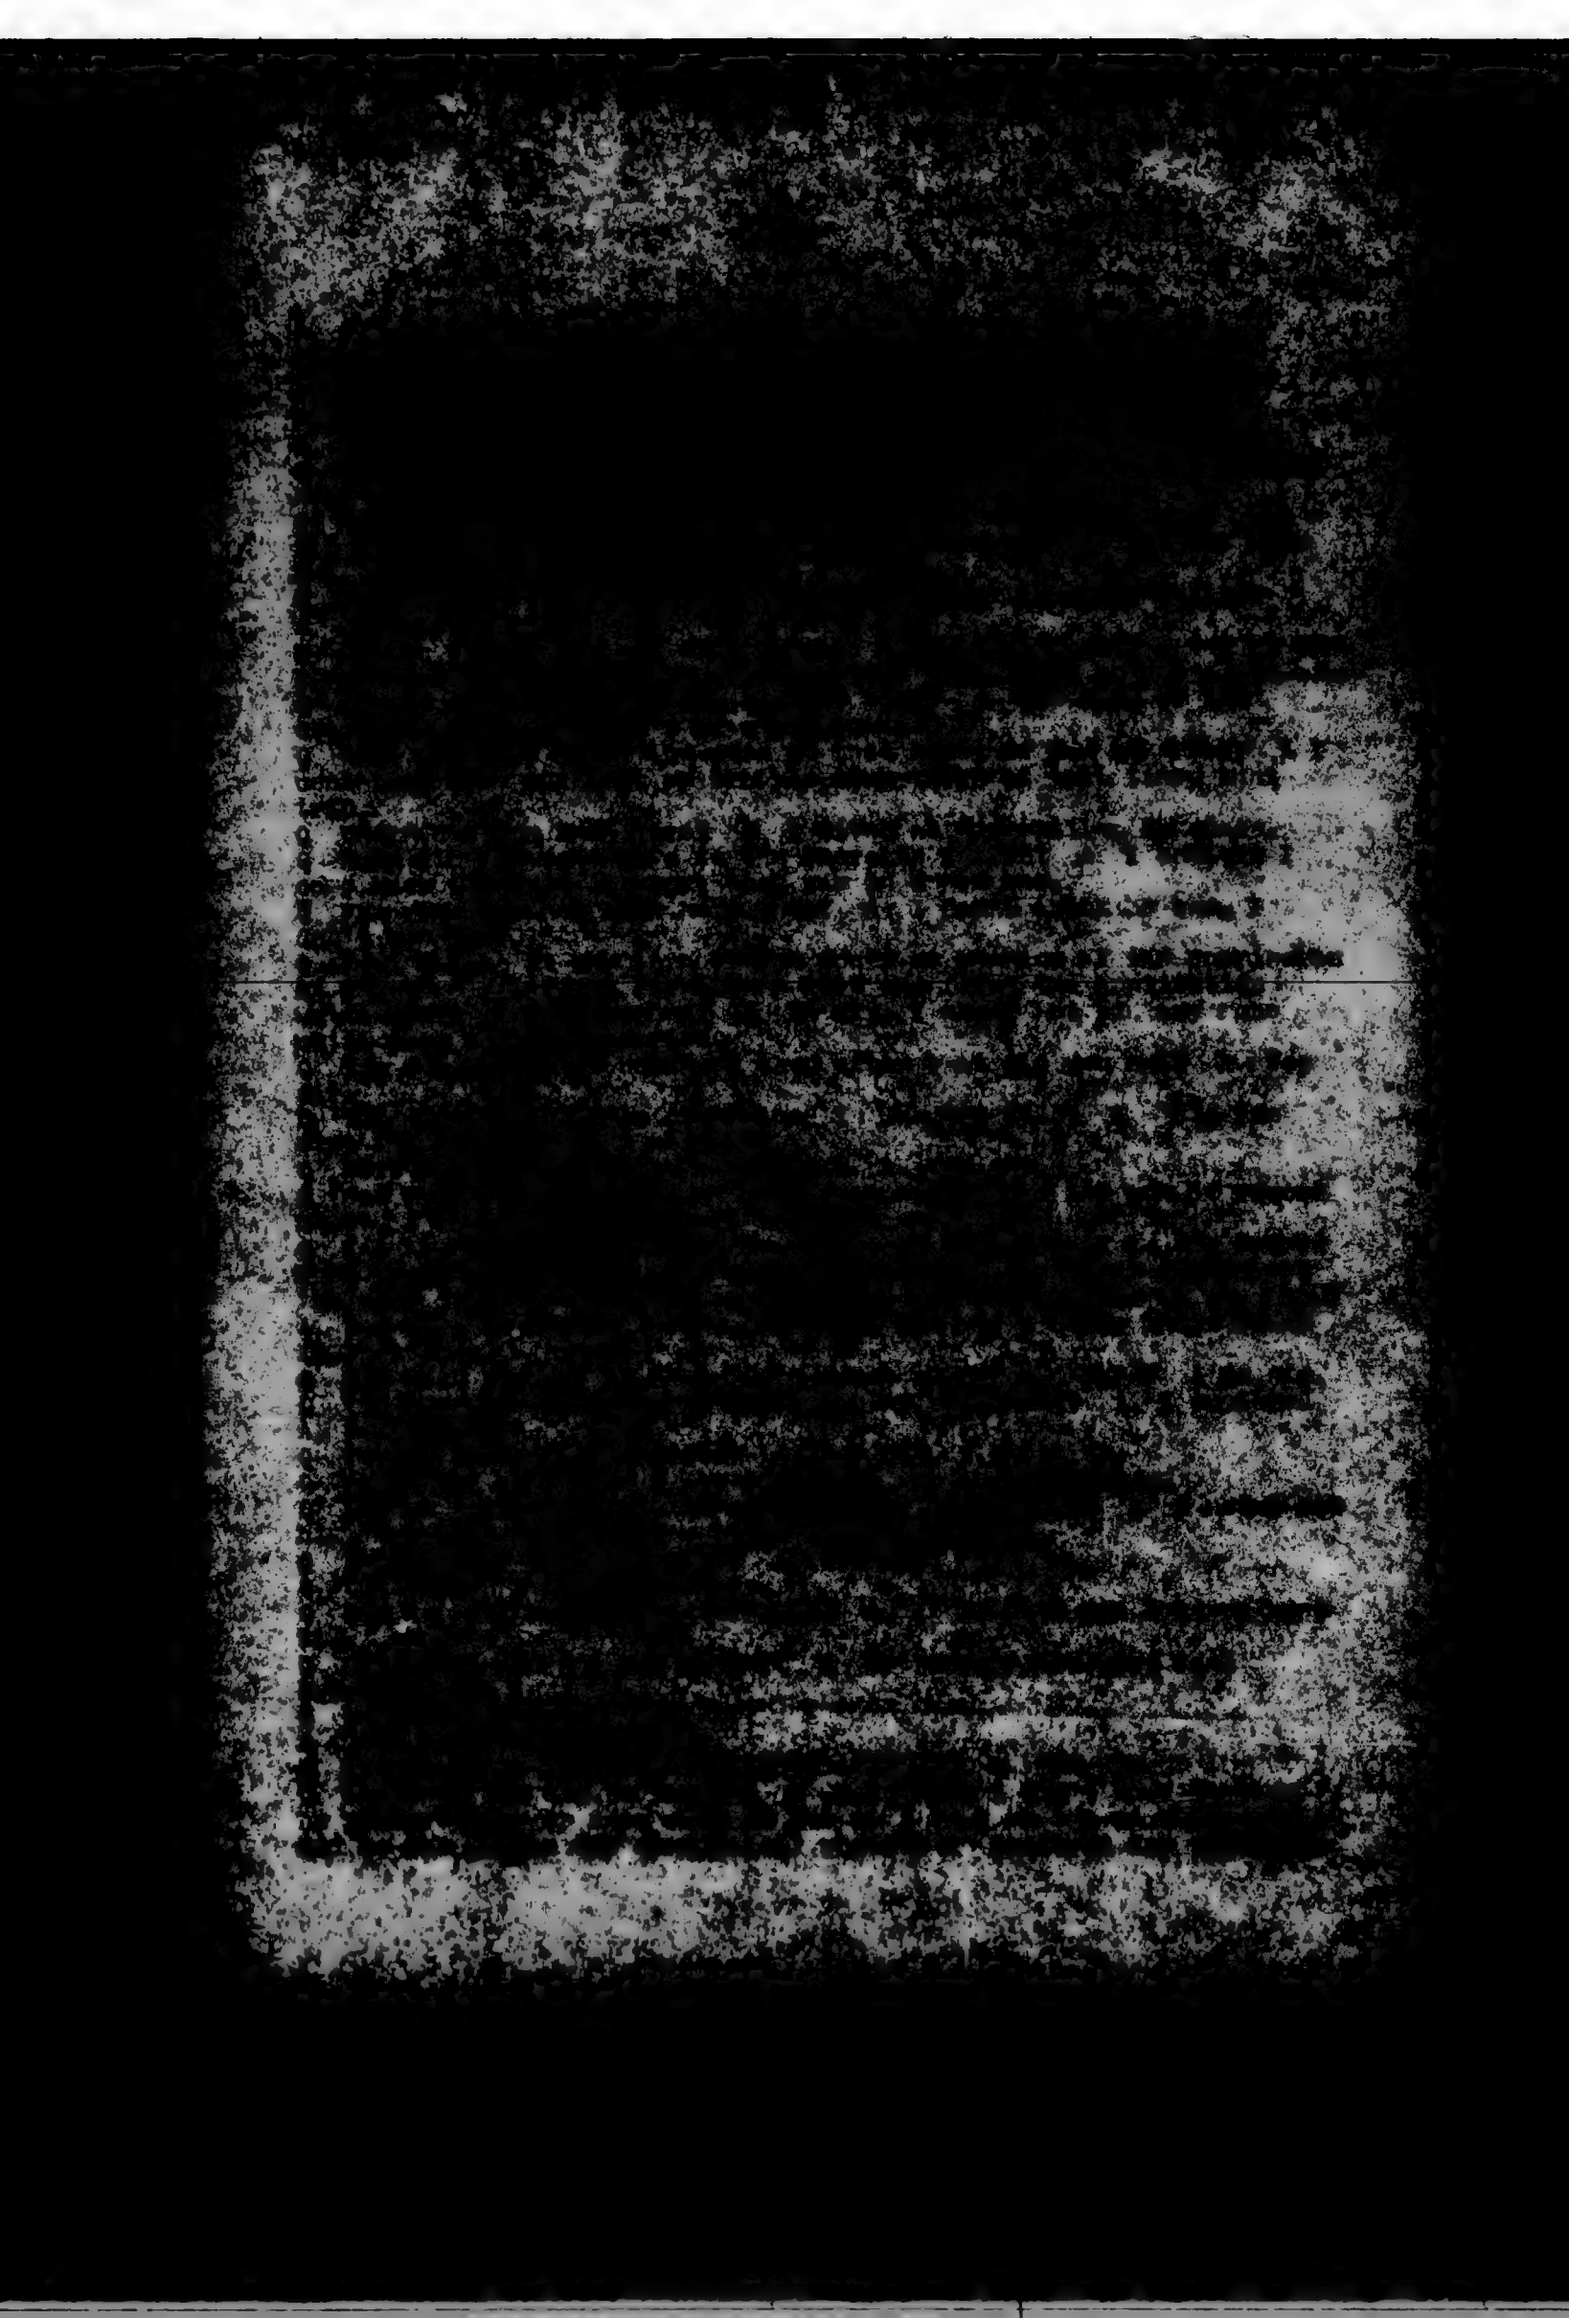
Q To return [illegible] day the judgment was rendered? A No, I don't know [illegible]

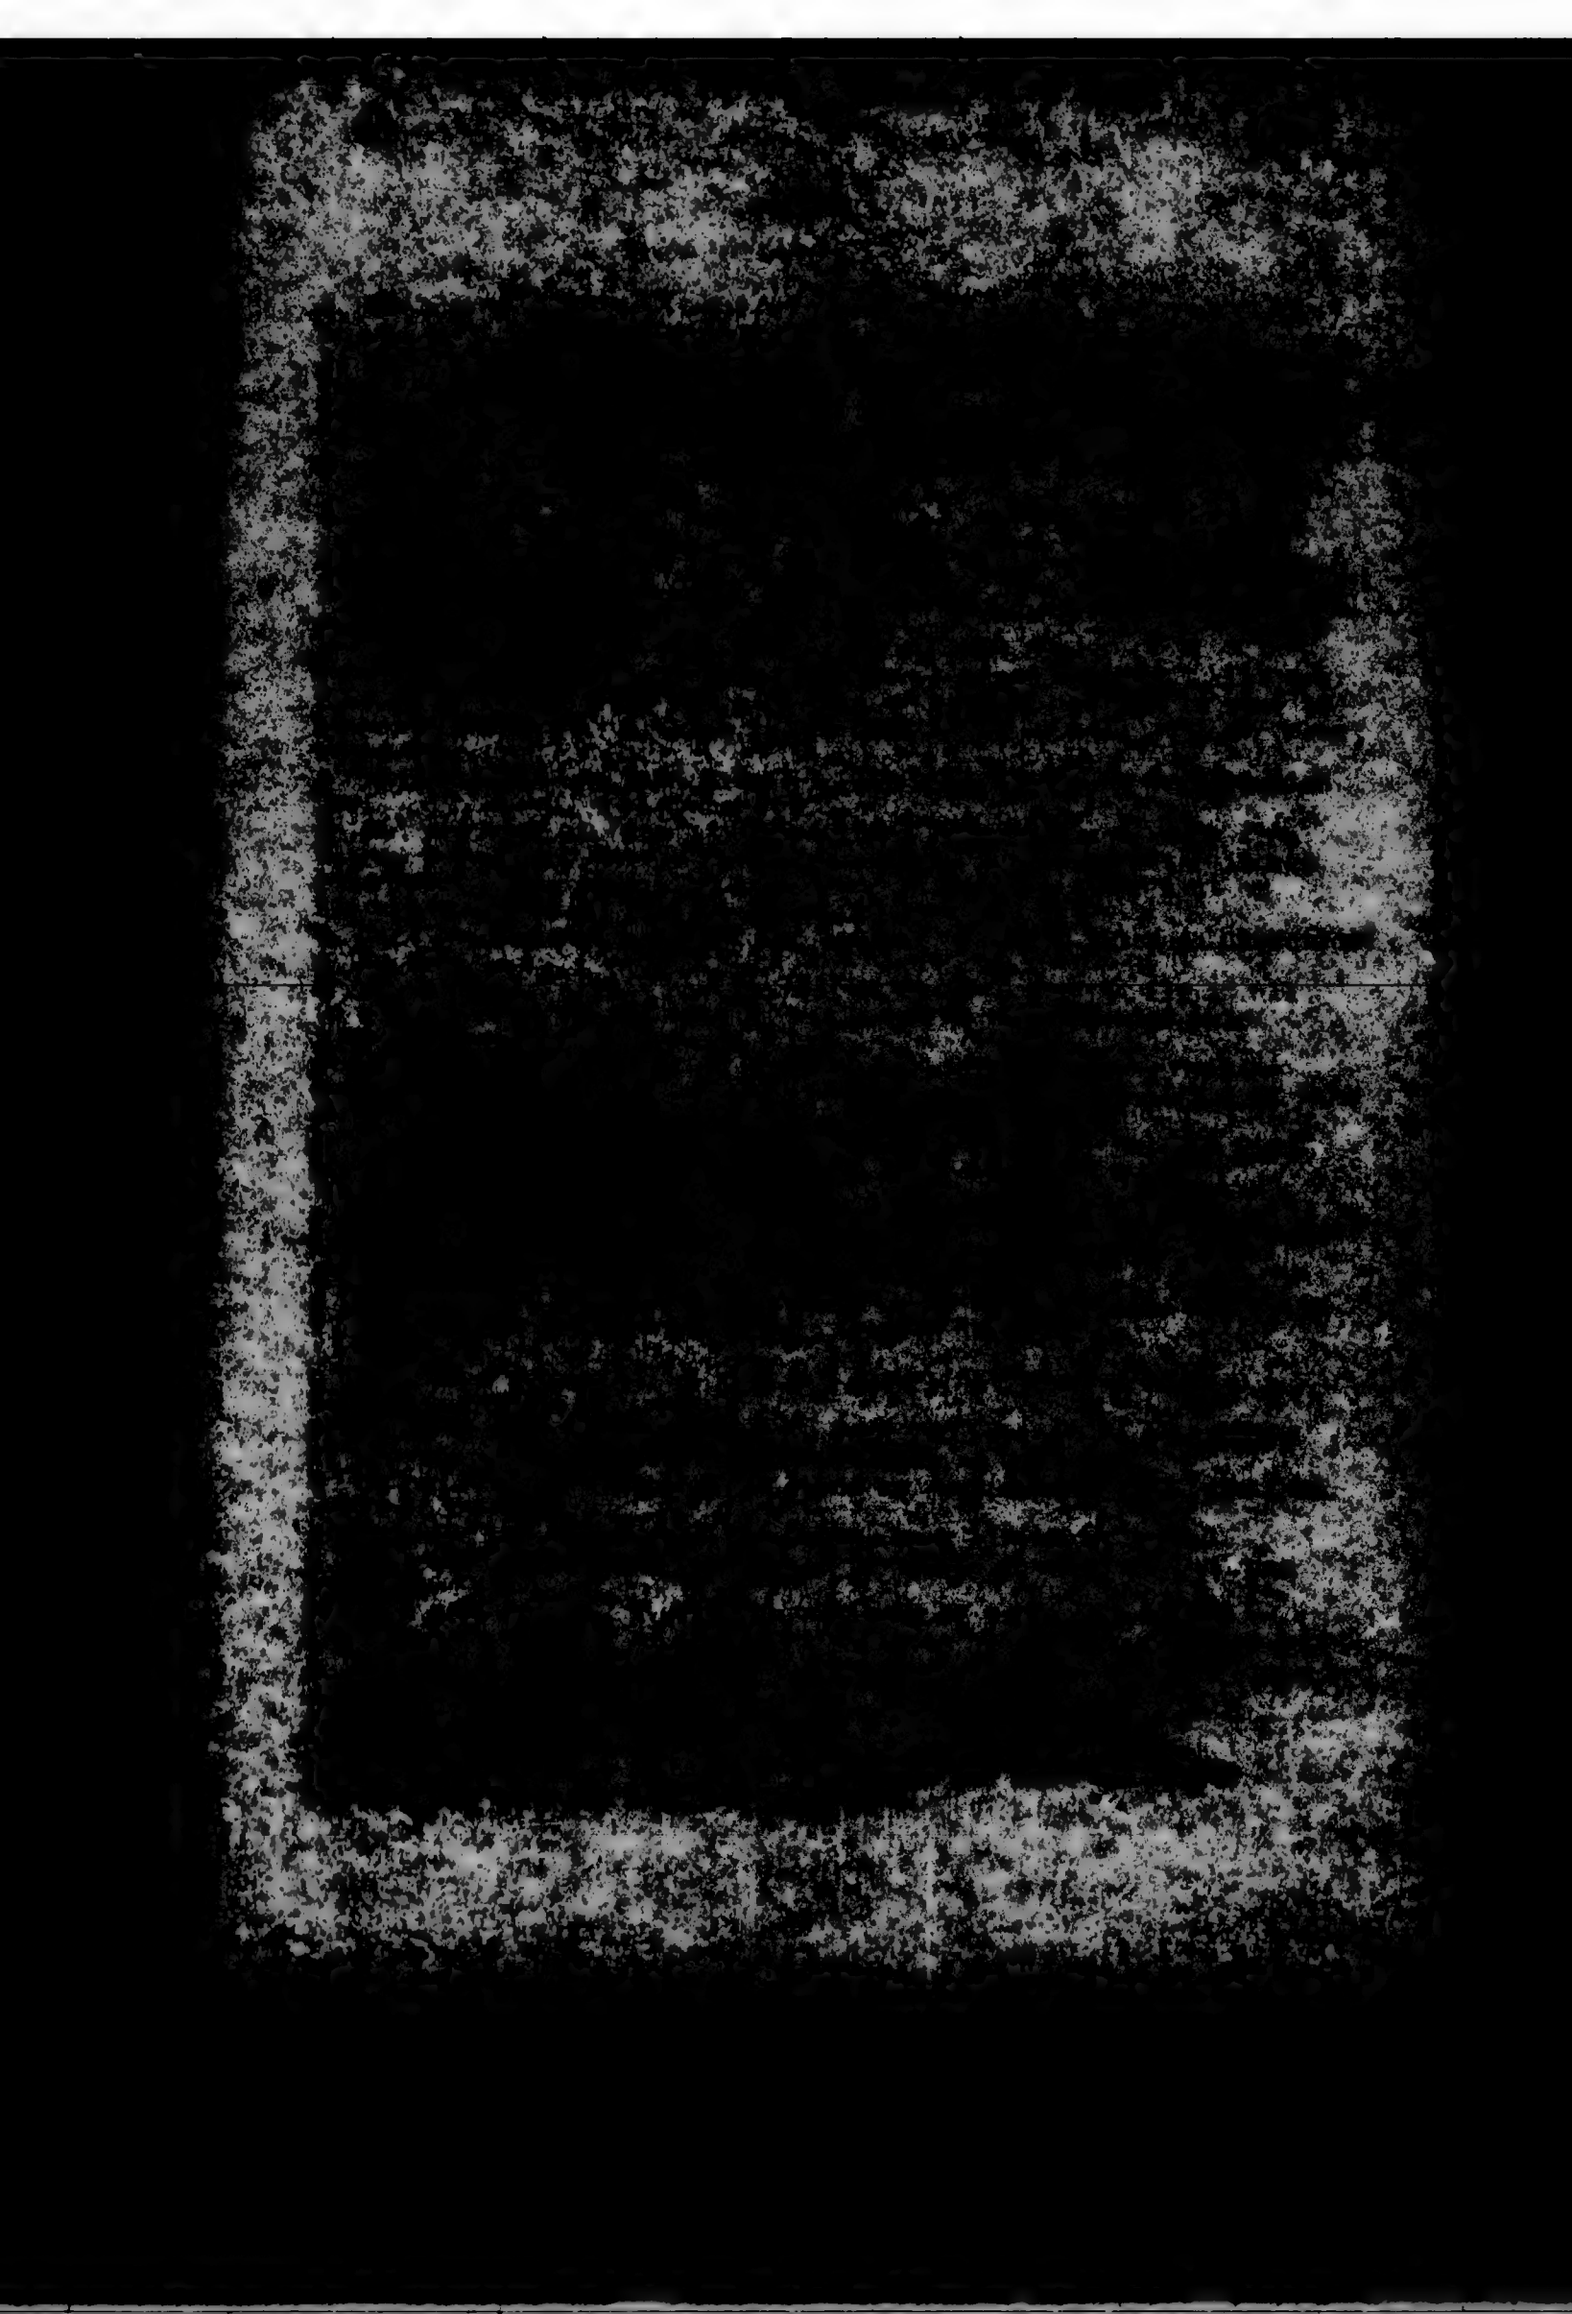
Q [illegible] A I don't recollect [illegible]

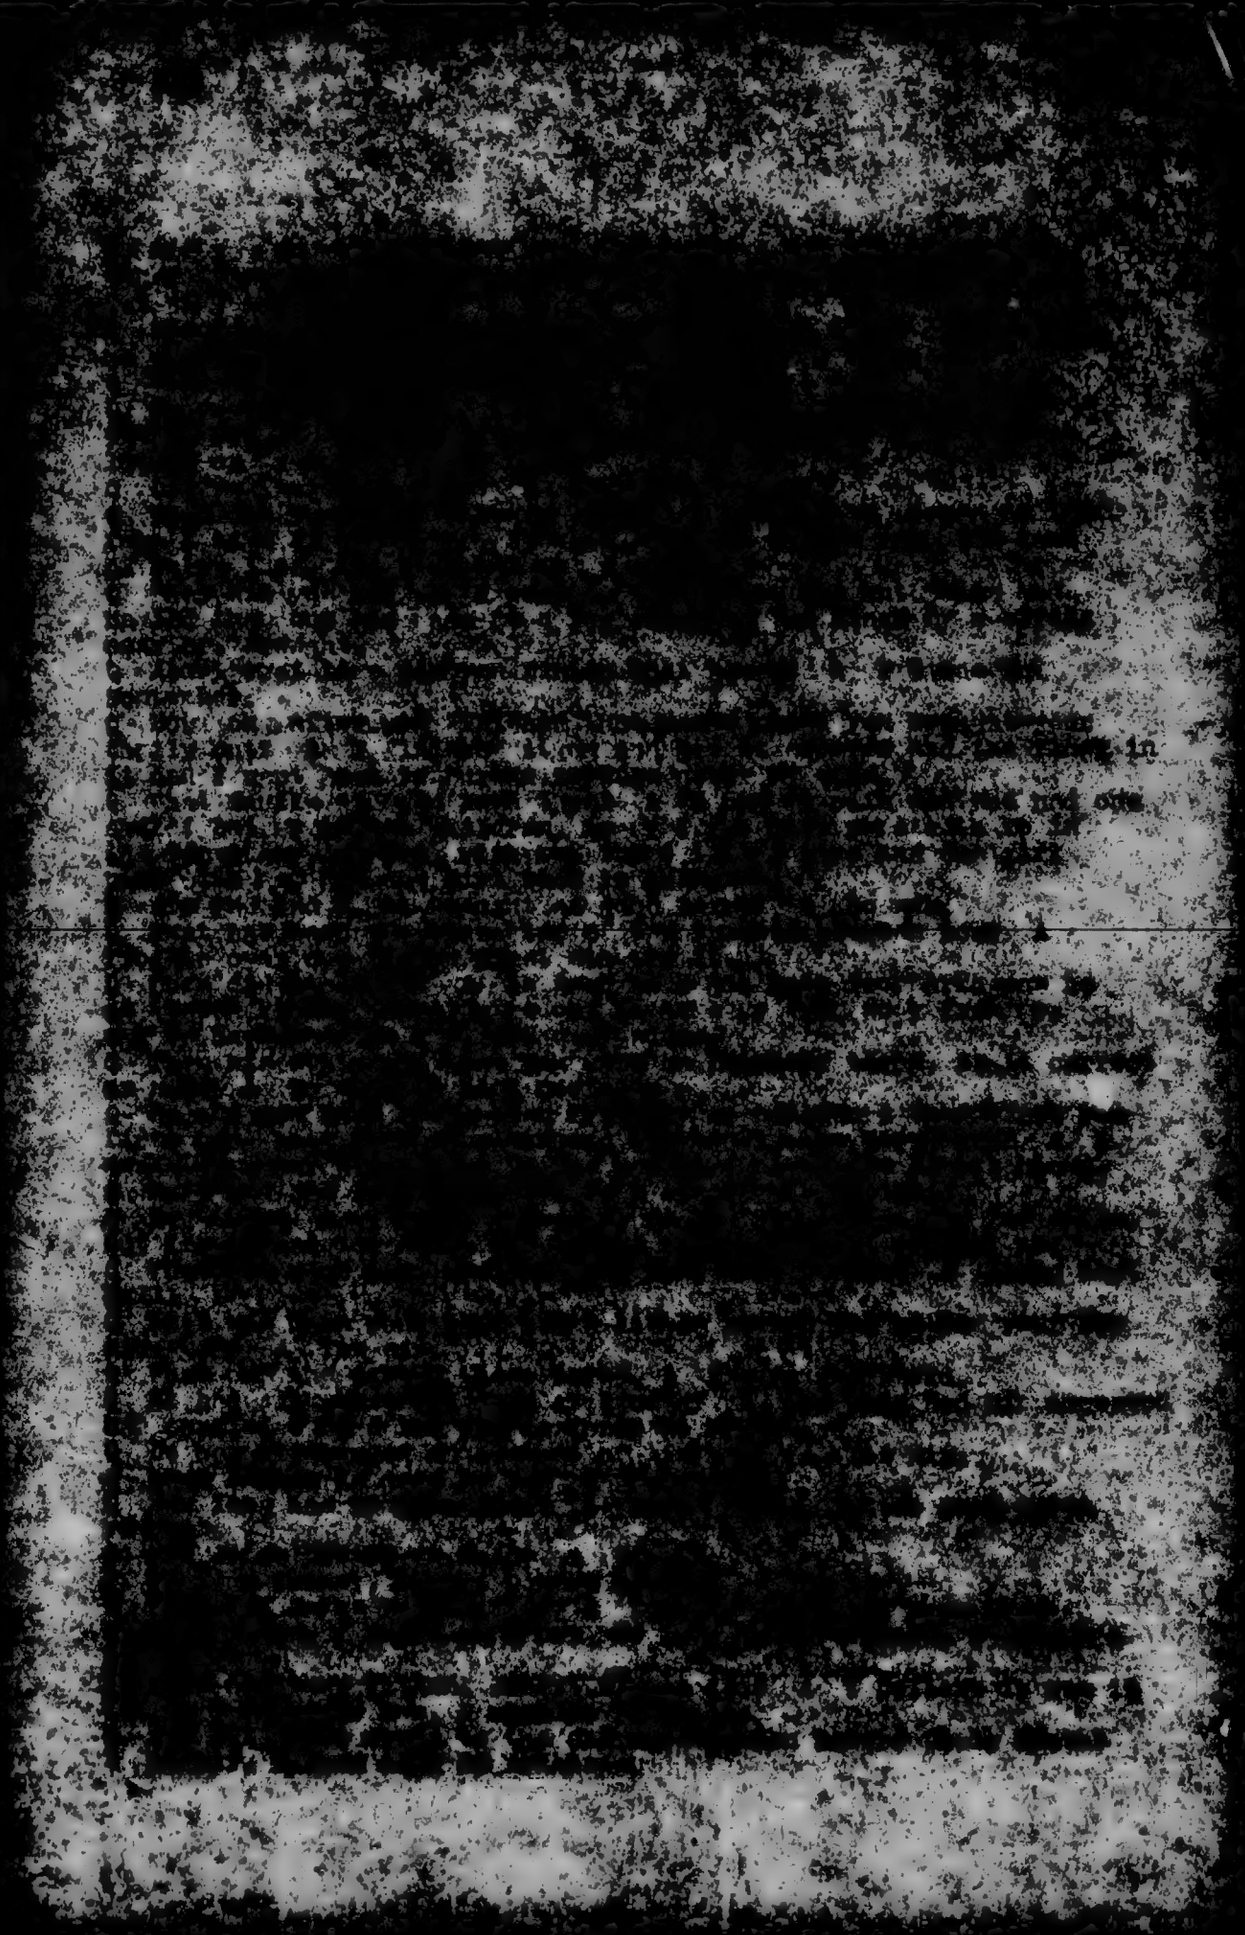


Q [illegible] A [illegible] the [illegible] day I don't recollect.









Q Those that lived here in the Nation they lived here in the Nation but went back to Arkansas and died there? A Well the rest of my folks all lived here. That was James Dawson and Buck Dawson.
Q Robert Dawson, your father, never did move to the Territory, did he? A No.
Q Did you hear the statement of the witness Beavert this morning, that about the time of hearing of the James Dawson case, at a negro church at night James Dawson came down there with someone else & introduced to him, and he loaned him ten dollars; did you hear that statement this morning? A I heard the statement, yes sir, I heard it.
Q He says that Jim James Dawson was 35 or 40 years old; was there any James Dawson living belonging to your family at that time of any such age? A No sir.
Q How many James Dawson's were there belonging to your family? A There was my uncle James Dawson and a brother James Dawson, the Doctor here.
Q How old was your brother James Dawson then? A He was a tolerable old man, I don't know his age.
Q About what age? A Must have been 60.
Q Between 60 and 70? A Yes sir.
Q What was the age of your brother James? A At that time?
Q Yes sir, in '84? A In '84 I suppose he was about 18, somewhere like that.
Q Had he anything to do with the James Dawson case? A No sir.
Q Was he present at the time that the James Dawson case was under consideration? A No sir.
Q Was James Dawson, your uncle James Dawson, present at any time during the consideration of his case? A No sir.
Q He never was present? A No sir, if Uncle Jim Dawson was ever in Tahlequah I never knew it.
Q Who conducted the prosecution of the James Dawson case before the Cherokee Citizenship Corrission, who conducted it? A The James Dawson case?
Q Yes sir? A I think James Low and Bill Jackson and Campbell Taylor.
Q Were you acting with them? A Yes sir.
Q They employed Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q Then there was no James Dawson present during that session of the Corrission? A No sir.
Q What was the condition of James Dawson's health at that time?
A It was pretty poorly; was not good.
Q Was he at that time able to get about and attend to business?
A I don't think he was.
Q Was he not a very feeble minded old man at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Regarded as rather a silly man was he not? A Yes sir.
Q Did he attend to any kind of business of the family at that time?
A No sir, didn't.
Q What was his financial condition? A Pretty bad.
Q Did he have any money? A No sir.
Q Did he have any property? A None hardly at all; horse probably, or a cow or two, something that way.
Q Was that about all the property he had? A Yes sir.
Q How about the other members of his family that were admitted at that time; what was their financial condition? A They were in poor circumstances.
Q Now then after these judgments were rendered what members of your family removed to the Territory, Cherokee Nation, I will say?
A Robert Dawson and family and James Dawson and family, that is, them and their children.

[illegible] move here? A No, I said except Robert Dawson.
Q Did all the members of Robert Dawson family move here? A Yes sir.
Q Except himself? A Yes sir.
Q And all the members of James Dawson family? A No, not all of them, Melvina Low I don't think ever lived here.
Q She has never moved here? A No sir.
Q You all the others of your family, your father's family in- [illegible] in that judgment of the Committee, rendered January 11th, [illegible]? A All but one.
Q Who is the name of that one? A Nina.
Q [illegible] Daughter of Robert Dawson.
Q [illegible] sister? A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] she then of age or was she a minor? A I think she was a [illegible], I am not sure I can remember.
Q [illegible] admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee [illegible]? A She was.
Q [illegible] the Cherokee Council? A She was first [illegible] the census rolls, her and two of her [illegible].
Q [illegible] their names? A Hattie Vernon and Vernie Fisher.
Q [illegible] what? A By certificate [illegible] Council in 1894 and they were [illegible] the roll of the Council.
Q [illegible] in 1891, they [illegible] Council admitted, re-admitted [illegible], the three above mentioned? A Yes sir. Henry and Hattie Vernon, I do not, Bob Robinson married the wife [illegible] line.
Q [illegible] there any other confirmation of the Dawson [illegible] Cherokee authorities [illegible] aside from these two [illegible] admitting the two families of Robert and [illegible] Dawson, and the act of Council of 1894 admitting these three [illegible] have just named? A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] then? A Why two of my sons was placed on the roll by the act of [illegible] Council in 1896 I think it was; left off of the rolls in per [illegible] payment and they was placed on the rolls I think, and sent [illegible] roll, per sight draft or checks for the money.
Q Have you [illegible] that copy of the act of Council admitting them? [illegible] sir.
Q [illegible] is it? A (Produces papers.)
Q [illegible] We offer in evidence an act of the Cherokee National Council making an appropriation of $6,000 [illegible] to the general fund for the payment of [illegible] persons therein named a per capita payment, as per [illegible] set opposite to its respective names, provided that the Principal Chief shall draw warrants for such amounts, and further provided "That the names of the persons appearing on the per capita rolls in this act shall be placed (on) the [illegible] roll of 1880 by the Principal Chief."
This act was approved December 21, 1891.
Approval signed by Stephen Tenee, Assistant Acting Principal-
In this act for the names of William L. Dawson for payment of $[illegible].70, and of Marion Dawson, for a like sum. Are these [illegible] the names of two of your sons? A Yes sir.
Q [illegible] paper above introduced, is filed and made a part of the [illegible] in this case.
Q Was there any other action of the Cherokee authorities relating [illegible] members of your family? A Yes sir.

Q When? A In 1894.
Q What was that? A Allowing them their Strip Money.
Q Have you a copy of that? A I think I have. (Produces papers.)
BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence a duly certified copy of an act of the Cherokee National Council approved November 24, 1894, signed C. J. Harris, Principal Chief. Senate Bill No. 19, appropriating a sufficient amount of money to make payment per capita of what is known as the strip money to certain persons named therein. Among them are members of the Blassingame family, as follows: Jane, Elbert, Henry, James Ross Lennie, Pearl, Amos, Myrtle, Minnie and Clifford; this act mentions these persons as Cherokees by blood, and whose names had been left off the pay roll approved May 3, 1894, providing payment to each one of these a sum of $265.70.
Q Were these members of the Robert Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q Which one of the members of the family? A Jane.
Q This is Jane who was admitted by the judgment admitting the Dawson family? A Yes sir.
Q And her children? A Her children, was not admitted, she was admitted.
Q I mean this mentions her children here? A Yes, that mentions her children.
(The paper last above introduced is filed and made a part of the record in this case.)
Q Do you know whether the payment of the Cherokee Strip money was to Cherokee citizens by blood only or not? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any other act of the Cherokee authorities passing upon the citizenship of members of your family? A Why the Douthett children, my brother's grand-children. Two grand-children of E. Dawson.
Q When was that? A That, I think it was in '84.
Q Have you got a copy of that act? A No, the record is here.
Q Was that by the Spears Court? A Yes sir, by the Spears Court.
BY MR. McKENNON: We now offer in evidence a judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, 1880 and 1884, found on page 190, case No. 181, dated September 9th, 1884, signed by Ellis Spears, President, John Lee and Andrew Young, Commissioners, admitting to citizenship Lula Douthett and Dallas Douthett as Cherokees by blood.
Q These men are the Douthetts to which you refer, are they? Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON: Attention is called to the fact that the names of the Commissioners are all similar in the same handwriting as the record of the judgment.

The said judgment record above introduced, and found on page 190, No. 181, record of 1880 to 1884, is as follows:

"Office of Commission on Citizenship,
Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation, September 15th, 1883.

E. Dawson, for his grand-children, No. 181.
Lula Douthitt,
Dallas Douthitt,
vs
The Cherokee Nation.

C. H. Taylor, Atty for Claim.

Petition filed September 14th, 1883.

Case submitted by claimants Sept 14th, 1887.
Case submitted by Solicitor, Sept. 19th, 1887.
Continued by Petitioner Jan 23 1894 to September Court 1894.
Re-submitted September 2nd 1894, by Attys Taylor and Beavert

Submitted by defense Sept 9 1894.

And now on this the 17th day of September 1894 comes this case for final hearing and all the evidence in the case having been carefully read, and considered by the Commission on Citizenship it has been decided by the Commission that the above named Lula Dautbert and Dallas Dautbert are Cherokee by blood, and that they are entitled to all the rights and privileges of Cherokee citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and that they should be, and are hereby admitted to the full and complete enjoyment of the same in all respects, as native born Cherokees.

Eli Spears, pres.
John Lee,
Andrew Young,
Commission on Citizenship."

John L. Adair,
Clk Com'n.

Q Now were there any other actions of the Cherokee authorities of like character relating to the members of your family?
A I don't remember of any others.
Q I will ask you if when the Cherokee authorities were [illegible] the roll of 1896, in compliance with the request of the Dawes Commission for a roll to be prepared by them for the use of the said Commission, the question of the citizenship of the members of your family was not then raised and an investigation had in regard to it? A Before the Dawes Commission?
Q No, before the Cherokee Commission making the roll of 1890, of which John T. Gunter was a member? A Yes sir, yes. I had forgot it, but since you have named it there was some investigation of them at that time; this is what I understood.
Q That roll shows that the members of your family were duly enrolled by that Commission? A Yes.

Q Have you and the other members of your family since your removal to the Territory in 1883 and immediately following been recognized as Cherokee citizens by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Have you been exercising and enjoying all the rights of Cherokee citizens by blood since that time? A Yes sir.
Q You and all the members of your family are living in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q You have all drawn Cherokee moneys whenever payments were made?
A Yes sir.
Q And have you all male members been voting at the Cherokee elections or in the Cherokee elections? A Yes sir, I was one of the judges of the elections that was held voting on the treaty.
Q What treaty? A The treaty bill that was sent back here for the Cherokees to vote on; I was one of the judges at Afton.
Q In what year was that? A I believe it was last spring some time, last April.

Q Have any of you held any offices in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What offices have the members of your family filled? A Deputy Clerk, under Pete Hastings, when he was clerk of Delaware District, I was a candidate once for Council in the Downing party.

Q Can any office of deputy clerk be held by any one else except a recognized citizen? A Only by a citizen, yes sir.
Q Is that all? A (No reply).
Q Have the children of members of your family attended the Cherokee schools, and been educated in Cherokee schools? A Yes, sir.
Q Have the members of your family been all the while subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Have they been tried for any offences against the law? Yes sir.
Q And have they instituted their civil suits in the courts of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And had suits instituted against them in such courts? A Yes sir.
Q Some of these cases have gone to the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And were passed upon by that tribunal? A Yes sir.
Q Is there anything else? A Nothing, now; I am sick this evening; I have got the head-ache so bad I can't hardly see.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How old was your father Robert Dawson was he died? A I don't know, I couldn't answer that.
Q He was a very old man? A Yes sir, he was getting tolerably old.
Q Could you tell how much older he was than you? A No I don't know.
Q Mr. James Dawson in 1884 must have been a very old man, wasn't he? A Well he was old and he was feeble.
Q Well you stated that he had become silly; was he naturally that way? A He used to live in Texas; I didn't know him until after he got to the Territory.
Q I say he had gotten so old, that was the occasion of that? A I suppose so, the oldest one of these children was Mrs. Betty Peter, that's my understanding.
Q And the oldest boy was John Dawson? A We always called him Jack.
Q Jack Dawson he was the oldest? A Yes sir.
Q And who was the youngest? A Sam Riley.
Q He was the youngest one of the crowd? A Yes sir.
Q Your father lived four or five years after he and you were admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir, something about that, it was in 1883, I think he died in 1887, I wont be positive; that is as near as I remember now. I have got a headache so bad that I can't remember anything.
Q He now none of the older members of the family were ever present at any of these trials of citizenship? A No sir, not a one of them was.
Q Was a one of them was ever called upon to testify as to the blood of their mother, who she was or anything about it? A I don't know if they was.
Q Your claim of kinship was through Captain John Rogers and that your grandmother was the half sister of Big Joe Vann, wasn't it? A I don't know, I couldn't answer the question.
Q You were there when they took the testimony? A I was there when Dr. Baker's testimony was taken, that was about 16 years ago.
Q And nobody kin to the Rogers and Vanns was ever called to testify in the case? A Not as I know of.
Q They were very well known Cherokee families in the coun try? A I suppose so, I don't know.
Q And yet nobody on any side of the family connected with it was ever called to testify? A Not that I know of, I don't know what my brother done, he taken some of the evidence at Tahlequah when I was not there; he first filed his claim.

Q You had spoken to Dr. Baker about the testifying before you brought your case didn't you? A No sir.
Q What have been a short time afterwards? A It was a short time afterwards. I went back after him and it was too late and I fetched him the next time.
Q You had talked to your brother about what you could prove by Dr. Baker? A I told him I thought Dr. Baker, I thought he knew about our folks.
Q You had told him in a general way you expected to use Dr. Baker as a witness? A Yes sir.
Q You went off, came to Arkansas and left your brother at Tahlequah after you told him that fact? A Yes sir.
Q You didn't see your brother any more until after you were admitted? A No sir.
Q You and he however made trips back and forth to Tahlequah and home at different times, but you didn't happen to get together? A No. I never met him any more and I don't know what he was there until after we were admitted.
Q But you were there and brought Dr. Baker over? A Yes sir.
Q And took his testimoney a year or such a matter before ever you were admitted? A I think so well as I remember, yes sir.
Q How the way you came to get Campbell Taylor was on the recommendation of old man Bryant? A I didn't get him, didn't use him.
Q The way he came into your case? A The way he elected to come in.
Q He did more in your case than Bryant did? A Campbell didn't do anything.
Q What did Bryant do? A I think he held my brother to his evidence my brother employed him.
Q How did you happen to be sending money by Campbell to Mr. Duncan? A I never sent him any money.
Q Then when he, Mr. Duncan, states that Campbell delivered the money as Campbell said he did, both were wrong? A Oh no, you are mistaken, Mr. Duncan got 20 or 25 dollars, which he stated, from Campbell Taylor, for me.
Q How did you happen to give it to Campbell? A I give the money to Campbell to give to Joel Bryant, and he wouldn't do it, and I tried to get the money back from him, and I finally worked the 20 or 25 dollars he gave to Duncan.
Q Then you didn't tell Duncan as he testified that you sent 20 or 25 dollars by Campbell Taylor? A Campbell Taylor agreed to pay Duncan 20 or 25 dollars for me of the money I give him to give to Joel Bryant.
Q The family kept Campbell Taylor employed though as their attorney after that? A In the James Dawson case I think so.
Q E. Dawson, you remember, had him for his grand-children? A That is my understanding.
Q And your uncle James Dawson had him in the case of his children? A Uncle James had nothing to do with it; James Low and Bill Jackson got him; that was my understanding of who employed him.
Q The record here shows that the case was originally instituted by C. E. Taylor and was finally submitted by him September 2nd, 1884, in the James Dawson case? A I don't deny him being in that case.
Q You say he was employed in the E. Dawson case? A I don't know who was in the Dauthett children's case.
Q The record shows that Campbell Taylor instituted the case, and it was finally submitted by him, and Mr. Beavert, who testified a while ago? A That was in the James Dawson case, wasn't it?
Q That was in the E. Dawson grand-children? A Blount?
Q No, in the Dauthett children's case? A Oh yes.

Q He was likewise attorney in the Mary Dawson case was he, and before the Adair court, the 4th of October, 1887, in the case of James K. P. Dawson? A I don't know anything about that.
Q And the case likewise of Riley Dawson? A I don't know anything about those.
Q They are relations of yours? A Well I couldn't say.
Q James K. P. Dawson proves to be a son of Riley Dawson? A Well if he is he is by connection then. There are so many Dawsons I don't know them all.
Q You know Andrew J. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The Dawsons have so many children their brothers didn't hardly know them did they? A That's it, I don't know them.
Q Well then you don't know who Andrew J. Dawson is? A No sir, I don't know.
Q He refers in his application as being a cousin of F. Dawson, and yourself, who were admitted to citizenship by the Tehlo Court? A He may be, I don't know nothing about it.
Q He resided I believe, at that time at Nevada, Missouri? A I don't know anything about their people.
Q Old Sam Baker was an old and paralyzed man at the time he testified wasn't he? A Getting old, he was not paralyzed.
Q Then the statement made that the reason he couldn't write his name and had to make his mark, because he was paralyzed, in the testimony isn't that true? A He didn't have good use of his fingers.
Q Then he was not paralyzed? A No, I brought him over there in a hack from Berryville, Arkansas.
Q Well I say he was a very old man? A Yes, getting old.
Q How didn't you come to this place up there joining Drought's and work on it some time before you brought your family? A No, I brought my family with me, except my wife.
Q And you subsequently built a log house on it? A Yes sir.
Q And went back and got your wife and moved them to the log house? A Yes sir, went to Eureka and got my wife.
Q You never saw your grandfather at all? A Sam Dawson, yes sir, I saw him.
Q You remember do you of being with him much of any at all? A I was in Texas in time of the war, with my uncle Riley Dawson, and he was there.
Q In '60 sometime? A '62, I reckon, or '63. Somewhere along there, it was in time of the war.
Q How old a man was he at that time? A Pretty old man.
Q You never saw your grandmother, she died before she came?
A Yes sir, I never saw her at all.
Q Who first started the citizenship matter, your brother in Texas or you? A Why it was me, and my brother together.
Q I mean who first conceived the idea? A I first commenced talking about it.
Q And sent down for him? A I was in Texas with him and then in Arkansas; I went backwards and forwards a time or two after the war.
Q About that time nearly everybody in Arkansas were trying to get some clair of kinship to Cherokees? A No sir, not at that time.
Q They were getting pretty thick in there in 1880? A Well in 83 and '4 and '5 I think.
Q Been some excitement over there to get yourselves on the rolls?
A Just got to be everybody; but it wasn't at the time we was admitted there was not much stir about the rights here.
Q Well the Watts had been admitted before that? A I suppose they had; there was not much excitement over the Watts claim at that time.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q You did locate and board with Sam Shables when you first came to Tahlequah in '31? A I think I did.
Q Your brother Buck Dawson stayed there also? A Yes sir.
Q Sam Shables lived in the north end of town, old German? A Yes sir, old German, lived in the lower part of town.
Q Did you ever hear the names of any other witnesses which you stated perhaps testified in your case? A I have heard them but I have forgot them.
Q You don't recollect any name now? A I dont remember them now sir.
Q In the Irene House case and Joanna Barber case, in which you testified before the Commission, when you were making search for this testimony you couldn't find any other testimony from that of record except the Dr. Baker testimony, could you? A That's all we could find; no we didn't find the testimony, we got a copy.
Q Well it must have been a copy of the original, the certificate shows that? A I don't know; House got a copy of what claimed to be the affidavit of Baker and he told me to give it to him; that is all I know about it.
Q Well the certificate there does not bear my certificate does it? A I don't know about that, I am no scholar.
Q Well you didn't get the testimony of any other witnesses except that of Dr. Baker; you couldn't find any other over there of record? A I didn't hunt for any; House hunted for them.
Q Now of you have ever been able to dfind any other? A No. Not even find our petition.
Q Samuel P. Dawson applied to what is known as the Adair Court, didn't he? A I don't remember now.
Q He was an uncle of yours wasn't he? A Yes sir, claimed to be.
Q The father of these two parties who testified here this morning? A Well I don't know, they claimed to be, I never met them to know them.
Q He was rejected by the Adair Court, or Hayes Court? A I don't know whether he filed his petition.
Q Did you testify in his case? A I don't remember; I might have dont it.

Q Didn't you testify in the Andrew J. Dawson case before what is known as the Hayes Court? A I don't recollect, if I did I don't remember.
Q Did you testify in the Riley Dawson case? A No sir, not that I remember.
Q Didn't you know of his being rejected by that court? A I don't remember, sir.
Q You know that the Cherokee Council never authenticated the roll of 1896, don't you? A No sir, I don't know it; I didn't know this was done until I went to Tahlequah after some papers and come back and they told me about it.
Q You never found out that W. H. Taylor was a big rascal up until the present time have you? A (No response)
Q The records here show that he has been in the constant employment of your family from that date up to this time? A Why it shows here from the record; I would rather be excused for my part of it.
Q You were the man that had the most to do with it? A I never employed him, I can say that.
Q You are the man that had most to do with the records? A In my case and in my father's case.
Q Didn't you testify for your uncle Jim Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Wasn't he attorney for him? A Yes sir.

Q Wasn't he employed by Jim Dawson after you got your citizenship?
A Why not but the grand-children.
Q Jim Dawson's petition was filed in September 1883, after yours?
A Yes sir.
Q C. H. Taylor, attorney of record, filed his petition? A He might have filed it for all I know.
Q Well you hadn't at that time fallen out with C. H. Taylor had you? A Why no, we never did have any trouble, only over this money, he never would give it back to me or give it to Bryant.
Q You never discovered that he was such a bad man until after your judgment was rendered? A I know he was not of good character.
Q Are you and Brought, this man who testified for the Cherokee Nation, on speaking terms? A Hardly speak.
Q Does he refuse to speak to you? A So. etimes he does.
Q Do you refuse to speak to him? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been speaking to him for the last two or three months? A I have not spoke to him until I met him here at the hotel the other day.
Q First time you spoke to him since he had the boy arrested? A Yes sir.
Q When did he have the boy arrested? A Along in September or October, September I think.
Q When did Dr. Baker die? A I don't remember.
Q You don't remember how much older your father was than you? A No, I don't know.
Q What is your age? A I will be 60 in May.
Q Then you were born in '42? A Yes sir, '42 according to the record.
Q Was your father as much as 25 years old when you were born? A I couldn't say.
Q What was your best judgment? A I suppose he was 30 or 35 years old. My understanding he married young.
Q Can't you give any better idea than 4 or 5 years of your father's age? A I say 25.
Q Your father was born say, 25 from 42 would have made him be born in 1817; now had your father any older brothers or sisters? A I think Jack Dawson was the oldest of the family, no, Betty, the girl, was the oldest and Jack next, and then my father as well as I remember about it.
Q There were two girls older? A No, one of the girls I never saw.
Q Then you think there are only 2 older than your father? A Yes, that's my understanding of the family.
Q Dr. Baker gives his age 77 in '82, which would make him be born in '89, now he states that when he was 15 or 16 years old, which added to 1808, will make 1824, that your grandmother Anna Priett, was a school girl; whereas from your testimony and that of the family history introduced here shows that your grandmother Anna Priett was the mother of seven children, the youngest being born in 1823, how do you reconcile that? A I don't remember about the statement of Dr. Baker; I don't know what he made such statement as that, I don't remember about it.
Q And if he did you don't know how to reconcile it ? A (No response.)

Q Did you talk to any of the members of the Court that admitted you? A No sir, I was not acquainted with them.
Q You know whether they were old or young men? A They were old men like; Steve Tehee. I got acquainted with him afterwards, and Tom Thompson, at the Council you know I was there a good deal.

Q That was the fellow that was on the Court? A Yes sir.
Q He was afterwards Assistant Chief of the Cherokee Nation?
A I think so.
Q Steven Tehee, that's the man you had reference to? A Yes sir, I think it was, I just knew the man; I had no acquaintance with him at all.
Q D. W. C. Dawson boarded when you were down there at the National Hotel? A I think he did, as well as I remember now when we were admitted.
Q Don't you know he did? A I think he did, as well as I remember.
Q Were not you over there to his room? A I think I was.
Q You remember which it was that you brought Dr. Baker down there to make a statement before the Court? A It was in January, Term, Was in January Term of 1882 I believe, it was, as well as I remember about it.
Q Well you didn't take any more testimony after Dr. Baker testified?
A No sir, I didn't.
Q But your case was not submitted or passed upon for a year?
A I think it was, yes sir, as well as I remember.
Q I would like to ask you when the Blassingame family came to the Cherokee Nation? A Alex Balsingame came with me when we moved here, and went back and got his family and moved that fall.
Q Did he move his family here that same fall? A Yes sir.
Q What year was that? A In the fall of '83 I believe it was, as well as I remember now.
Q When did the Bulaska family come? A I think the girl and the old lady came in the next spring.
Q How long did they remain that time? A The old lady stayed here, but the girl went back and in a short time her and her husband came back.
Q Did she come back until after her marriage? A No, she was married when she came first.
Q The last time? A She was married I think, she was married when she came out.
Q How long has August Bulaska been a permanent and continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation? A I think he came there in the fall of 1884 or 1885, I wont say which.
Q How long has Robert Pierce been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since he was admitted.
Q When was that? A '83.
Q How long has Martin L. Patterson? A Ever since he married his wife, and he was living here before he married his wife.
Q Who is Arizona Alsey? A That is my daughter.
Q Did you bring her with you? A No not when I moved.
Q When did she come? A She came out in a year or two after I moved here.
Q Was she married when you moved here? A No sir, she was not married.
Q She was not married when you were admitted? A No sir, she was a child.
Q When did Jim Lowe come to this country? A With his grandfather, James Dawson.
Q What was his mother's name? A Melvina Dawson.
Q You know Jim Lowe's age? A No sir.
Q Don't know how old he was in '83? A No sir.
Q Was he grown? A I think he was.
Q Married? A No no.
Q Married in this country? A Yes sir.
Q Who is James H. Hanson? A Married one of the Jackson girls.

Q When did they come to this country? A Right away after they was admitted.
Q In what year? A I think the winter of '84, I think it was, spring or winter of '84.
Q You know Gideon Graham? A Yes sir.
Q Who is his mother? A Missouri Ann Grahar, formerly Missouri Ann Dawson.
Q Did he come from Texas to Arkansas? A Came from Texas.
Q Did you know them in Texas? A I knew the girl.
Q You never knew them until they come to this country? A I never knew Gid.
Q When did you see him here? A I think they came here in the fall or winter of 1884 or '5.
Q He was married then? A I think he was.
Q Brought his wife? A I think he was, I don't know.
Q Did he have any children when you first saw him? A He came to my house and I never saw his family for-I don't know, for several years.
Q You understood he had a family? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Do you mean to say '84 or '94? A '84.
Q Did you see Gid Graham in '94? A '84, let me study, maybe '85.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Did you see him in '85, are you positive on that proposition? A I think so.
Q Will you swear to? A No sir, I won't positive swear it, but I think it was, as I remember now it was; I couldn't say positive.
Q All the people Mr. Duncan that have been admitted to citizenship by courts of competent jurisdiction unless they were de-citizenised by courts of acquired jurisdiction, enjoyed the same privileges that you have narrated here about going to school and being tried in the courts? A Yes sir.

Q All that sort of thing, that you have been telling here in your direct examination? A Ask me the question again.
Q I say all people who were admitted here by courts of competent jurisdiction, until they were de-citizenised by courts of like jurisdiction, enjoyed the same privileges that you did? A So far as I know they was.
Q They all drawed money and all tried in the courts as long as we had criminal courts, were they not? A Yes sir, so far as I know.
Q There was no special privilege granted to you in preference to anybody else? A None but recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well you had been recognized since you were admitted? A Yes sir, I enjoyed the same privileges of native born Cherokees.
Q Well I say there is nothing special about it? A No, I don't know as there is.
Q You got acquainted with Mr. Duncan while you were up there during the hearing? A Yes sir, I was acquainted with him, knew him, when I saw him.
Q Mr. Bill Rose did the examination of Dr. Baker? A Yes sir.
Q Did you file any other paper before the Court other than your petition and then Dr. Baker's statement? A I never filed any petition there at all.
Q Have you not? A I don't remember any.
Q Will you never had occasion to file any papers before Mr. Duncan? A I got him to do some writing for me.
Q What? A Letters to my brother in Texas.
Q Mack Duncan? A Yes sir, A. Duncan.

Q That? A Yes sir, Buck Dawson.
Q Well is that all he did for you? A I don't remember now about it.
Q Why didn't you get your attorney to do that letter writing? A There was not any there.
Q Taylor nor Benge was not there then? A No sir.
Q That is what you paid the 20 or 25 dollars for, was writing this letter back to your brother? A I paid him for that claim.
Q When did you pay that? A I think I paid it, I don't exactly when, Camp Taylor paid it a year or two after I moved out here and settled where I did; might have been 3 years. I don't remember.
Q There was Duncan living then? A I couldn't say where.
Q Was he still clerk of this Court? A No sir, not when that money was paid; that is, when Camp Taylor said he paid it.
Q You did send Camp Taylor some money? A I sent some money to him for Joel Bryant.
Q You knew Joel Bryant's address didn't you? A No, I don't know that I did, No I didn't send Camp Taylor any money, I gave it to him.
Q How much did you give him? A One hundred dollars.
Q When? A Right at that time; he claimed it from me as soon as he got our papers; he come onto me and duaned me for Bryant.
Q You never sent him any then after that? A No sir.
Q Did you ever see Bryant after that? A Yes sir
Q How long after that? A I don't know, a year or two afterwards. a year I believe, my brother wrote, I wrote to my brother about paying Camp Taylor money and he went onto my brother about it and he never paid him until we moved out to this country.
Q After all that you got him to attend to your uncle Jim Dawson's and the other relatives cases? A The other parties did.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all that part of the witness' evidence in response to interrogatories by representatives of the Cherokee Nation which relates to the character of the evidence upon which the judgments admitting members of the James and Robert Dawson families were admitted, and to the history of the members of the Dawson family, because the same is immaterial, incompetent and irrelevant.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q One question I omitted to ask you Mr. Dawson, as to the Court at the time the judgment admitting Robert Dawson's family was rendered, who of the judges were present on that day? A They was all three of them, Wolfe, Tehee and Thompson.
Q Are you positive of that fact? A Yes sir.
Q You do not know this Andrew Dawson family who applied to the Dawes Commission for Cherokee citizenship, and who stated that they are cousins of some members of your family? A Andrew?
Q Andrew J. Dawson, who claims to be from Missouri? A How was the question?
Q You do not know them do you? A I don't know that they are any kin to us.
Q You don't know that they are related to you at all? A No sir.
Q This Mary Dawson case, do you know the members of that family? A No sir, I don't.
Q Don't know who they are? A No sir.
Q The Rebecca Dawson case? A I don't know her either.
Q You don't know whether they are related to you or not? A No sir.
Q If any of these persons are related to you or your family did you have any knowledge of it? A Not as I know of.

Q Joanna Barber, do you know anything about them? A They claim to be kin to us.
Q Where are they from? A They are from Texas.
Q Do you know they are related to you? A They claim to be kin.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Well you swore for them before the Commission? A Yes, they claim to be kinfolks of mine.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Irene J. House, who is that? A That is a cousin of mine; claims to be.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You testified for her didn't you before the Commission? A I think I did as well as I remember.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Before the Court that admitted James Dawson and family, who were the witnesses there? A Oliver Miller, from Berryville, Arkansas.
Q Who were the others? A Myself and J. Dawson and there was two other witnesses, I don't remember who they are.
Q Were they Cherokee citizens and residents of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q You don't remember their names? A Which?
Q Of these other people who claimed to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and who were witnesses? A I said about me and J. Dawson was citizens of the Cherokee Nation.
Q You only proved that Jim Dawson was a brother of Robert Dawson before the Court? A Yes sir.
Q And then referred back to the decision in the Court before? A We proved that they were citizens, and he knew my folks before we ever came here.
Q Was he older than Dr. Baker? A About the same age.
Q Why didn't you get Oliver Miller's testimony in the House case?
Q He was dead.
Q You and no member of your family in the Irene House case or the Joanna Barber case or any of those cases that were tried before the Dawes Commission in your affidavits ever made reference to the fact that Oliver Miller testified in Jim Dawson's case in '84 did you? A I don't remember about that.
Q You did make reference to the fact that Dr. Baker testified there in '83, didn't you? A I don't remember about that now.
Q You never made reference to any other witness having testified other than Dr. Baker did you? A I don't remember about it now.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Now just one other question: All of these papers in the original application and everything, so far as you know, in the James Dawson case, were filed before the Commission which admitted the James Dawson family, are lost or mislaid are they not? A I suppose they are, I don't know, I never saw them.
Q Have you tried to get copies of them? A Yes sir, I tried to get the original papers.

BY COMMISSION: This case is continued until 8:30 a.m., tomorrow morning, March 20th, 1902, it now being the hour for adjournment.

MARCH 20, 1902,- 8:30 A. M.- F. M. DAWSON again on the stand, testifies as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Where was your brother Buck Dawson raised? A In Arkansas.

Q What County? A Carroll.
Q [illegible] town? A Berryville.
Q Did Dr. Baker live at Berryville? A Yes sir.
Q Was your brother intimately connected with him for many years?
A Yes sir.
Q Did he know him sufficiently to be acquainted with his character and habits of life? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Josephine Pierce? A Yes sir.
Q Whose daughter was she? A Everit Dawson's.
Q Is she the same identical person who is called Josie Pierce, and Josie Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Is there any other Josie Pierce or Josie Dawson or Josephine Pierce or Josephine Dawson? A I don't know but the one.
Q She was also called Josephine or Josie Kelly? A Yes, after she married; her first husband was Pierce.
Q And her second husband A Was Kelly.
Q There was another Josephine Dawson wasn't there, Bulaska's wife? A Why they called her Joe, I suppose that's her name, I could not be positive; that was Bile Dawson's daughter, August Bulaska's wife.
Q She is much younger than your sister, Josephine, above referred to? A Yes sir, oh yes.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Where were you born, Mr. Dawson? A Carroll County, Arkansas.
Q How old are you? A 42.
Q 42? A I think so.
Q How many older children were there of your father's than yourself? A Three.
Q Which were they? A E. Dawson, Miles Dawson and Jasper Dawson.
Q You are the fourth child and the fourth boy? A Yes sir, fourth boy.
Q Where were your father and mother married, do you know, Bro. Family history? A I think it was in Arkansas, I wouldn't be positive, I think they was.
Q Do you know how long your grandfather lived in Arkansas? A No sir I don't.
Q Don't know what year he came to Arkansas? A Only from statement.
Q Well what did they say about it? A I think they come there in '30.
Q You know whether your father was born in Arkansas? No any of your grandfather's children were born there? A There was none of them born in Arkansas according to history and according to what he always told me, they were born in Tennessee.
Q He came there in '30, and all the other children were born on the Hiwasee River in Tennessee, before he ever came? A That is what I think, yes sir. Now I am not positive about that. They were from Tennessee, but either Dr. Baker lived there or my folks come from there; I don't know as I remember that I ever heard my father say where he was born at.
Q In Tennessee somewhere; he said he was a good big boy when he came to Arkansas? A I don't know as I ever heard him say.
Q Do you know the difference in the ages of yourself and your three older brothers? A No I don't.
Q Don't know the time that comes in between you? A No I don't know what; I think it is about two years though.
Q That would make E. Dawson about eight years older than you, probably? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did Josephine Pierce have a daughter who married Mr. Bogle?
A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A I always knowed her by Dode Pierce; I don't know whether that is her right name or not.
Q What is Bogle's name? A John Bogle.
Q She is the child of Josephine Pierce who married John Bogle?
A Yes sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Where did she marry John Bogle? A Near Afton.
Q When? A I douldn't state.
Q About when? A You have got a copy of the marriage license.
Q When did Josephine Pierce come to the Cherokee Nation? A '83.
Q Has she lived here continuously since that time? A Up until her death; she is dead.
Q Any of her children come with her at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And have they lived here continuously since that time? A Yes sir, except Bill Pierce, he went to Colorado and died.

J. C. STARR, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Your name is J. C. Starr is it? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Starr, was that instrument taken by you, or before you? (Showing witness document.)
A Yes sir.
Q Where? A At the residence of S. H. Benge near Fort Gibson.
Q When? A On the 15th day of this month.
Q What day of the week was that? A On Saturday.
Q Is that the day it was taken? A Yes sir.
Q Did you go there on Saturday to take this? A Yes sir.
Q Then when Judge Benge stated on Tuesday that it was taken "yesterday" meaning Monday, the 17th, he was mistaken, was he?
A It was taken Saturday, the 15th.
Q Was he mistaken or not? A It was not taken then.
Q Then his statement made on Tuesday the 18th that it was taken on "yesterday", meaning Monday, the 17th, was not correct, was it?
A I think not, because I was there, and it was taken on the 15th.
Q And it was taken on the 15th, you are positive it was taken on the 15th? A Yes sir.

Q Then of course his statement could not be correct? A I guess not.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q He was just mistaken about the date, wasn't he? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Did you tell Charles T. Moore who is now present, on last Tuesday that they sent you out there on Monday to take that? A No sir.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q I sent you there last Saturday? A Yes sir.
Q And you went there at my direction, didn't you? A Yes sir, and came back Saturday night.

ROBERT L. DAWSON, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A My name is Robert L. Dawson.
Q What is your age? A My age is something close to 30 years old, I am 28 past.

Q Are you a son of E. Dawson, commonly known as Buck Dawson?
A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if you will examine this letter sent with the enclosure and state whether or not you found that among the papers of your father after his death? A (Hands letter to witness who examines it) A Yes sir, I found this amongst the papers of my father. He always kept all his own papers, and me looking over them I saw this letter.
Q Has that been in your custody ever since you found it? A Yes sir, if that's the letter that was in the envelope.
Q Well that's what it is, you can tell whether it is or not. (Witness further examines letter) Q That purports to be a letter from Samuel H. Benge, does it not, to your father? A Yes sir. (Here applicants' attorney hands letter and envelope referred to to attorneys for Cherokee Nation.)

BY MR. McKENNON: I want to offer this letter in evidence in this case: it is a letter signed by S. H. Benge, attorney at law, dated Fort Gibson, C. N., Jan. 13, 1883. Addressed to Mr. E. Dawson, Esq., together with the envelope, in which it was enclosed, with the card of C. H. Taylor upon it, attorney at law, Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and postmarked Tahlequah, Ind. T., January 13.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS: The Nation objects to the introduction of this letter for the reason that S. H. Benge is living and has testified in this case, and his handwriting should be either proven or denied by himself.

G. W. BENGE, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A G. W. Benge.
Q Are you a son of Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Do youknow his handwriting? A I believe so.
Q Is that his handwriting? (Shows witness letter before referred to.) A Yes sir, it is either his or a resemblance of his.
Q To the best of your knowledge and belief is that his letter?
A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: Now we offer it in evidence.

BY COMMISSION: (Reading letter)

"Fort Gibson, C. N.,
Jan 13th, 1883.

Mr. E. Dawson, Esq.,

Dear Sir:- I write this note to inform you that your case came off before the Court on Citizenship on the 11th inst, and was decided in your favor, so you all are citizens of this Nation. F. M. Dawson was furnished with a copy of the decision at the court. He will write to you also. You will please send me fifty dollars as my fee in your case according to contract. Send it to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation.

Respecfelly yours,
S. H. Benge,
Attorney at law."

Enclosed in envelope, as follows:
Card in upper corner, left hand:
"Return in ten days to C. H. Taylor,
Attorney at Law,
Tahlequah, Ind. Ter."
Addressed. "Mr. E. Dawson"

Henryetta,
Clay Co., Texas."

Post-marked: "Tahlequah, Jan 17 Ind T."

ROBERT L. DAWSON, -re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Now examine that and see if that is also a paper which you found among your father's papers after his death? (Hands papers to witness) A That is the same letter that I found.

Q Among the same that you found the Benge letter? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: This is a letter purporting to have been written by J. M. Bryan, to E. Dawson, dated at Chouteau Station, Cherokee Nation, and not dated, which we offer in evidence. (Applicants' attorney hands said paper to Nation's attorneys.)

Q Mr. Bryan is dead is he not? A I think so.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS: We have no objection.

BY COMMISSION: (reads letter)

"Chouteau Station, Cherokee Nation.
I. T., M. K. & T. R. R.

MR. Dawson:
Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your favor of the 30th inst in regard to our contract.

After I had got the claim so there would be little more to do I employed Campbell Taylor to answer for me when the case came up, for which I was to pay him $20 out of my fee.

This all the action I had in the matter with Taylor.

I saw Taylor in Washington last month, and he told me that your brother had made another contract with him, and paid him, or that you was to pay him $100- and that you had offered him a check on some bank in Texas.

That $100- matter with Taylor, I have nothing to do with, nor couldn't have if I wanted to.

I hope Mr. Dawson this letter will explain the matter fully.

And I am satisfied that you are apprised of the earnest work I done for you, Please write to me.

Very respectfully,
Very truly,
J. M. Bryan."

Q I will ask you if you know of your father having paid Bryan that money? A Yes sir, paid him a horse and some other money.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q How old was your father when he died? A He, I don't know whether I know his age or not.

Q If you don't know you can't say? A I wouldn't have no reason to know his age; never asked him his age; of course I guess my mother knows.

Q Never had occasion to talk about his age at all? A Oh I have heard him speaking of his age at different times, but then I never paid enough attent on to it.

Oid Graham; being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q What is your name? A Oid Graham.

Q How old are you? A Mr. Graham? A I am 35 years old.
Q How long have you been living in the Territory? A I came out here in 1887 or '88.
Q To the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living in the Cherokee Nation, what year was that '87 or '8? A Yes sir.
Q Have you resided here continuously from that time ever since in the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live in the Cherokee Nation? A About 6 years.
Q Where did you go then? A Wagoner.
Q In the Creek Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And been residing there ever since? A Yes sir.
Q In business? A Yes sir.
Q Have you all the while been recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Mr. Graham, do you know Judge Samuel H. Benge? A Yes sir.
Q Did you have a conversation with him in Fort Gibson about September of 1900? A Well as to the exact time I couldn't say, it was sometime about the time that the Dawes Commission were at Sallisaw, or possibly a little later, somewhere about there.
Q Taking the census of the Cherokees? A Yes sir.
Q At that time had the question of the validity of the judgment of the Cherokee citizenship commission admitting Robert Dawson and family been called in question? A Yes sir.
Q Did you talk to him about the facts concerning the obtaining of that judgment? A I did.
Q What did he tell you about it; well I will just ask you, did he then and there tell you that that judgment was regular and all right nothing wrong with it? A He did.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, Mr. Graham, were you? A How was that?
Q You were looking around for testimony at that time, expecting this case to be questioned? A Since the validity of that judgment had been attacked by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation, I thought it was well to look into the matter.
Q And he told you the judgment was all right? A Having known that Mr. Benge was connected with the case, I saw him in Fort Gibson, subsequent to that time and asked him about it, if there was anything wrong about the matter, and also that I might want his affidavit concerning the matter, and I also I think maybe wrote to him; possibly prior to that, I am not sure as to the writing, but I think possibly I did.
Q Did he tell you he would make an affidavit? A I don't think at that time that I asked him for an affidavit. I thought as he lived right near here I would use him in person; he assured me that everything was all right.
Q Your mother was Missouri Dawson was not she? A Yes sir.
Q Her name was Missouri Graham when she was re-admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir.
Q And was not [illegible] named in that judgment? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether the other [illegible] children named in there had married and changed their names also at the time they were admitted? A There were not any of them married.
Q Ella Dawson was your aunt? A Yes sir.
Q Was she married at that time? In 1883? A Yes sir.
Q Melvina Dawson, was she married at that time? A Yes sir.
Q And the fourth one you have mentioned, Missouri Dawson, was your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Can you give us the exact date of your birth? A Yes sir.
Q Do so, please? A January 21, 1867.
Q And you came to the Territory when? A In 1887 or 1888.
Q You can't make that any more definite? A Well sir, it has been a good while ago, and I didn't have anything to cause me to.
Q Well I just want to know whether you did have or not? A No sir.
Q When were you married? A 1886.
Q You were married prior to coming here? A Yes sir.
Q Your first child born away from here? A Yes sir.
Q What is its name? A John W.
Q '86 you were married, and he was born about the spring of '87?
A Somewhere in 1887, I don't remember.
Q Prior to your coming here? A Yes sir.
Q That is the only child you had that was born away from here?
A No sir, Julius.
Q Julius was not born in the Territory? A No sir.
Q And prior to the time of your removing to the Territory? A Yes sir.
Q These are the only children born out? A Yes sir.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you if about February 1901, he came to Wagoner, and sent his son to have you come to the hotel at night where he was, and if he then and there said to you "You people are on the doubtful list, and if you will give me five hundred dollars I will make it all right and)see that you are enrolled, and if you don't I will see that you don't get on".? A Well now as to the first part of thatquestion, where you say he sent his son; that is an error; I don't know whether he came to my house or sent some one; when I returned home that evening my wife told me there was some one there to see me, and was at the city hotel at Wagoner, and said come down and see him; I went down there; I never had met Taylor; he introduced himself to me and stated what his business was; asked me if I was on the doubtful list, etc., to which I replied that we were; he asked me if I didn't want to employ him, stating that if we would give him, our family would give him five hundred dollars he would see that we were placed on the rolls all right, but if we refused to give him five hundred dollars that he would use his influence against us and see that we were rejected.
Q You never had met him before, or had any communication with him?
A I never met him before; as to the communication, I may have written him something about his affidavit as to the validity of that judgment, I can't say as to that. He said in his testimony that I did; I don't know whether I did or not now.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q You knew he was the attorney in the case, originally? A After looking at the records I did.
Q I mean you knew it at the time you wrote to him about the affidavit; that was the reason why you thought he would know something? A Certainly.
Q He never told you he was going to swear against you or threatened to tell anything that was not true? A He just simply said unless we gave him that five hundred dollars he would see we were all put off the rolls.
Q Said he would use his influence against you, that is what he said? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS.
Q You don't deny writing to him then for the affidavit? A I don't say I did or I did not; I neither affirm it or deny the question.
Q You went to Captain Benge and also wrote him with reference to what he knew about the case? A I don't know whether I wrote him or not, I said I was under the impression I wrote him son.
Q You went to see Aaron Butler, who was interpreter before that court that admitted you? A Yes sir.
Q And you went with Aaron Butler to see Jim Smith, attorney before that court? A Yes sir.
Q And you either wrote or went to see everybody you knew of that was before that court then? A Yes sir.
Q That shows you used considerable activity? A Yes sir, I used such activity as was to my interest.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q That was all after the representatives of the Cherokee Nation objected to the enrollment of the Dawson family and by reason thereof such as had appeared before the Commission had been placed upon a doubtful card? A Yes sir.
Q Then you began to look up the evidence and see what there was in it? A Yes sir.
Q As Mr. Hastings has stated? A That's right.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q You are a grandson of James Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q The old gentleman? A Yes sir.
Q About what was his age when he was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, in 1884, wasn't it? A Yes sir, well I can't be exact as to that.
Q Well as nearly as you can? A He was somewhere about 70 or 72, years of age.
Q Well what other James Dawson did you know belonging to the families, either one of these families, Robert Dawson family or the James Dawson family? A I never knew of but two James Dawsons.
Q Who were the others? A Dr. James R. Dawson, who is present and standing right here: my grandfather, James Dawson.
Q Was there in '84 any James R. Dawson 35 or 40 or 45 years old, that you know of, belonging to either one of these families? A No sir.
Q Do you know how old Mr. James R. Dawson was that that time? A James Dawson? Q No I am speaking of Dr. James R. Dawson? A Oh, how old he was, no sir. I do not.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q Do you know who was here attending to your mother's citizenship case at that time, at the time they were admitted? A Yes sir, James Low and Bill Jackson, son of Ellen Jackson.
Q Who was W. A. Dawson? A That is Walburn, my uncle.
Q Was he here? A I don't know sir.
Q You were not here any of the time? A No sir.
Q You knew your grandfather then, you had lived in the same neighborhood with him? A Yes sir, I knew him well.
Q He didn't die but a year or two after that did he? A After when, Mr. Hutchings?
Q After his admission to citizenship? A No sir, he didn't die I think until 1891 or '92, several years after.
Q Very old man when he died? A Yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q About what age? A He was approximately 80 years old.
BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q When he died? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:
Q That about [illegible]? A I think so, yes sir.
BY MR. McKENNON:
Applicants object to the testimony of the witness elicited by interrogatories of Counsel for the Cherokee Nation relating to his family, their history, etc, as being immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

James R. Dawson, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:
BY MR. McKENNON:
Q Your name is James R. Dawson? A Yes sir.
Q Where do you live? A Afton, Indian Territory.
Q What is your age? A 45.
Q You are a physician are you not? A Yes sir.
Q Was James Dawson, whose family was admitted in 1884, an uncle of yours? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know what his age was at that time? A No sir, I do not, only approximately.
Q State as nearly as you can? A At the time of theadmission?
Q Yes sir? A About 70, I don't know exactly.
Q How old was he when he died? A I would suppose he was about 78.
Q What was your age in 1884? A I am 45.
Q What year were you born, Doctor? A I was born in '[illegible].
Q Must have been '56? A Yes sir, that's right.
Q What was your age then? A In '84?
Q Yes sir? A About 28.
Q Were you present at the time that James Dawson family was admitted, or at any time while their case was pending before the Cherokee citizenship commission? A Not while the James Dawson case was, no sir.
Q You were present during your father's case? A I was there at the time.
Q When was that? A The dates I cannot; when the case first come up, I cannot remember the exact date.
Q How long were you there? A I was there about a week.
Q Was that when it first came up you say? A Yes sir.
Q Nothing was done? A No sir.
BY MR. HUTCHINGS:
Q You never saw Dr. Baker? A Yes sir.
Q Did he and your uncle Jimmie used to talk about how they played together when they were boys? A My uncle Jim and Dr. Baker talk?
Q Yes? A I never saw them together.
Q They were about the same age? A Yes sir, I believe Dr. Baker was 15 years older probably.
Q Dr. Baker must have been mistaken about his own age? A Guessing, that's all I know about his age.
Q The Doctor had been paralyzed, rather a decrepid looking man at the time he was over here at this citizenship business? A No sir, not as I know anything about.
Q He was near about 70 then? A I couldn't tell you, he was an old looking man.
Q Your uncle Jimmie was about 70? A Yes sir.

TESTIMONY OF W. W. HASTINGS IN THE MATTER HEREIN.

W. W. HASTINGS, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. [illegible]:

Q State your name? A W. W. Hastings.

Q Residence? A Tahlequah, age 71.

Q You are attorney for the Cherokee Nation in the general preparation of these cases? A Yes sir.

Q Just state how it happened that you summoned Mr. Campbell Taylor, and what occurred between you with reference to his testimony? A Well there had been some talk, as the testimony here indicates, that there was perhaps fraud in the admission of this family, and by agreement with counsel on the other side, and the Commission, this case was set for the 14th day of March, and some short time prior to that, as the attorney for the Nation I began to make some preparation or inquiry into the case, and I wrote a great many letters around to different people and among them I wrote C. M. Taylor to come down here. I don't think in that letter that I told him what I wanted with him. I don't think I told him the case that I wanted him to testify in: that is my recollection now. Mr. Taylor prior to that time, neither directly nor indirectly, so far as I know, ever gave me any information voluntarily against this family, or ever told anything that would lead me to believe that he knew anything of a fraudulent character connected with it. But I summoned him; perhaps the fact that I knew he had been connected with them in some way and that I perhaps also would get some information from him. Well he came in response to a letter that I wrote, and I took him up to my office. I talked to him quite a long while. He was exceedingly reluctant about giving any testimony whatever, he told me first and last that he didn't intend to testify before the Commission. He told me he had been attorney for these people, and he didn't believe he could be compelled to testify, and that is he was put upon the stand he would claim that privilege, and he didn't believe I could force him to testify. I talked to him at some considerable length; I asked him what he knew about it; of course he for a long time declined to tell me: and what information I did get from him was by piecemeal. He was exceedingly reluctant all through the interview to give any information. I asked him finally though that if the Court compelled him to testify when he got before the Commission, if he would tell the facts about it, and he said that he would. I told him then that I would subpoena him.

Well we talked quite a good while and finally after always telling me that he intended to claim that privilege, and never wanting to testify, he detailed to me the facts just as he told them on the stand: I don't believe there is the slightest variation, except that he perhaps was not so full at that time and it was told by piecemeal, but I got all those facts out of him, or very nearly all those facts out of him. He may have elaborated a little more here by examination; but he never voluntarily gave me any information at all, either directly or so far as I know indirectly. I don't think he sent any one to me. I got his name because I heard he was connected with the case, and perhaps knew something about it, like I did a great many other people, some of whom I didn't bring, because they didn't know what I supposed they did know about the case.

With reference to S. H. Benge, I want to state that he never voluntarily gave me any information at all about this case, nor did I know that he knew anything in connection with this case until I sent J. C. Starr over to S. H. Benge's place to take his affidavit on Saturday, March 15, in the W. H. and J. W. Shoemake case, and their descendents. I had heard that Mr. Benge knew some important facts in connection with the Shoemake case and I sent him over there then to take that affidavit; and when Mr. Starr came back he told me that he knew some facts also in connection with these other cases, and I was surprised to find he had instead of one affidavit, in the Shoemake case, that he also had another affidavit in the Dawson case. That is the first information I had that Mr. Benge knew anything whatever in connection with the Dawson case, and therefore he never voluntarily, either directly or indirectly gave any information prior to that time to me.

I impressed upon Mr. Taylor that the Nation only wanted the absolute truth in this matter; that it was not seeking anything else but the truth, and didn't want him to tell anything else but the truth.

I want to say again that after he was on the stand and left that evening, and after Captain McKennon, or counsel for the family, had indicated his willingness for Mr. Taylor to testify, that he went over all of these facts that he testified to on the stand subsequent to that time in the presence of J. C. Starr in my office. I simply wanted to go on the stand for the purpose of showing that Mr. Taylor hadn't voluntarily given me any information, and I make this statement for that purpose.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q You had no power to compel him to give you any information at that time at all did you? A No sir, none other than the persuation that I brought to use.

Q He therefore did it simply upon your persuations? A Yes sir.

Q You knew he had been acting as attorney for these parties?

A Yes sir, I had seen from the record that he did too.

Q And he told you so? A Yes sir.

BY COMMISSION: The attorneys for the applicant and the representatives of the Cherokee Nation will be granted thirty days from the receipt of the transcript in this case in which to file a brief in this case with the Commission.

I, M. D. Green, do hereby certify that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes I correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) M. D. Green.

I, Arthur G. [illegible] being duly sworn, state that in attempting to the Commission by the First [illegible] I made the foregoing, and that the same is a true and complete copy of the Original.

D E C I S I O N.

It appears from the record herein that applications were made to this Commission at the times and places hereinafter mentioned for the enrollment of the following named persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

D 324 By Francis M. Dawson, son of Robert Dawson, at Vinita, Indian Territory, on September 17, 1900, for the enrollment of himself and his minor children, Lula, Ray, Jessie J., Jacob L., Hugh A. and Laura A. Dawson as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife Katie Dawson as a citizen by intermarriage. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on April 8, and October 30, 1902.

D 530 By John Dawson, at Nowata, Indian Territory, on October 15, 1900, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on July 1, 1902.

D 531 By William R. Dawson, at Nowata, Indian Territory, on October 15, 1900, for the enrollment of himself and his wife, Fannie Dawson as citizens by blood. Fannie Dawson has been differently classified and is not embraced in this decision.

D 524 By Andrew C. Atkins, at Nowata, Indian Territory, on October 15, 1900, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife, Lizzie Atkins and his minor children, Arthur, Edna E., Edward C. and George J. F. Atkins as citizens by blood. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on October 10, 1902.

D 528 By Francis M. Dawson, Jr., son of Francis M. Dawson and grandson of Robert Dawson, at Nowata, Indian Territory, on October 15, 1900, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood.

D 333 By Francis M. Dawson, Sr., at Chelsea, Indian Territory, on November 20, 1900, for the enrollment of his daughter Arizona Allred and his grand-son Blaine C. Allred as citizens by blood.

D 350 By Samuel R. Dawson, at Vinita, Indian Territory, on September 19, 1900, for the enrollment of himself and his two minor children August and Mate Dawson, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife Catherine Dawson as a citizen by intermarriage. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 3, 1902.

D 352 By Robert Dawson, at Vinita, Indian Territory, on September 19, 1900, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood.

D 358 By Albert H. Dawson, at Vinita, Indian Territory, on September 19, 1900, for the enrollment of himself and his minor children Ralph H., Alford and Cecil Dawson as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife Sarah F. Martin, a Notary Public on October 4, 1900, and further proceedings were had therein before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory on March 17, 1902. All of these proceedings have been made a part of the record herein.

The evidence, and an examination of the records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission show that on January 11, 1883, one Robert Dawson and his adult children, F. M. Dawson, Elbert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Wilborn Dawson, James Dawson, Rial Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson and John Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship, commonly known as the "Teehee Court", and that on September 9, 1884, one James Dawson, a brother of the Robert Dawson aforesaid, together with his adult children, Ella Dawson, W. A. Dawson, Malvina Dawson and Missouri Dawson were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship commonly known as the "Spears Court." In addition to their tribal enrollment as shown by the evidence herein, it also appears from an examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, that F. M. Dawson is identified on the Cherokee pay rolls of 1883 and 1894, Elbert Dawson on the Cherokee pay roll of 1886, Mollie Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Wilborn Dawson on the pay rolls of 1886 and 1894, James Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883 and 1894, Rial Dawson on the pay rolls of 1886 and 1894, Josephine Dawson on the pay roll of 1886, Jane Dawson on the pay roll of 1883, Joseph Dawson and John Dawson on the pay rolls of 1883, 1886 and 1894, Ella Dawson and W.A.

Dawson on the pay roll of 1886, and Missouri Dawson on the pay roll of 1894.

A majority of the above named persons, together with the descendants of the persons admitted as aforesaid and such white persons as may have intermarried with the said Dawsons or their descendants are the applicants herein.

For convenience, the applications are divided into groups: Group 1, includes the applications of Francis M. Dawson and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 324, D 580, D 581, D 584, D 588 and D 835.

The evidence shows that Francis M. Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship as hereinbefore stated under the name of F.M. Dawson. Katie Dawson, his wife, was married to him on November 21, 1880. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and the six children included in the application of said Francis M. Dawson, and hereinbefore named are the issue of the marriage aforesaid. All the applicants herein are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

John Dawson, William R. Dawson, Lizzie Athins, formerly Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Arizona Allred are the children of said Francis M. Dawson by a former wife, Julia Ann. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship. John Dawson, Lizzie Athins and Francis M. Dawson, Jr., are identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894, and William R. Dawson and Arizona Allred are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Andrew C. Athins was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on March 23, 1891, to the above named Lizzie Dawson. He has resided in the Cherokee Nation with his said wife since they were married, and the four children included in his application, and hereinbefore named are the issue of that marriage. The oldest child, Arthur, is identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1894, and the three younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Arizona Allred, nee Dawson, came from Arkansas to the Cherokee Nation for the first time in 1894, remained there about two years and then returned to Arkansas, where she was married to Lee Allred. Such marriage was not in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Arizona Allred and her husband came to the Cherokee Nation in 1896, stayed there a month and returned to Arkansas where they remained until September, 1898, at which time they came to the Cherokee Nation, remained there about a year and returned to Arkansas in 1899, where they were living at the date of this application. William C. Allred is the child of said Arizona Allred and possesses no rights not acquired by his mother. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Paragraph 8, Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495) provides:

> "No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the Nation in which he claims citizenship."

The evidence further shows that Francis M. Dawson, his wife, Katie and William R. Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, Jr., and Lizzie Atkins have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and Andrew O. Atkins, the husband of said Lizzie Atkins, since 1891, and that John Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation for at least fourteen years prior to the date of his application. The residence of the minor children of the above named persons is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group II, includes the applications of Samuel R. Dawson, together with those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 350, D 352, D 358, D 365, D 482 and D 402.

The evidence shows that Samuel R. Dawson is identified as the Rial Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. His wife, Catherine, a White woman, was married to him on July 11, 1866. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since their marriage, and August and Mate Dawson are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. Samuel R. Dawson, his wife and children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Robert Dawson, Albert H. Dawson, Josephine Bulawsky, formerly Josephine Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman, formerly Katie Dawson are the children of said Samuel R. Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Sarah F. Dawson, nee Abbott, was married to the said Albert H. Dawson in October, 1894. She has lived with her said husband, since they were married. Ralph H., Alford and Cecil Dawson are the issue of that marriage. Sarah F. Dawson and her child Ralph H. are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. Alford is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission. The evidence further shows that the youngest child, Cecil Dawson, is dead.

August Bulawsky, was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 25, 1893, to the said Josephine Dawson. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. The four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and the Strip payment roll of 1894. May Bulawsky is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and Oscar Bulawsky is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Mannie Dawson, nee Baugher, was married to the said John W. Dawson on September 2, 1894, and she has lived with her said husband since they were married.

The evidence further shows that Samuel P. Dawson, his wife, Catherine, and Robert Dawson, Albert P. Dawson, John W. Dawson, and Katie Newman have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1889, August Bulawsky and his wife Josephine, since 1892, and Sarah J. and Mannie Dawson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group III, includes the application of John Dawson, and those claiming through him and embraces cases numbered D 578, D 580 and D 530. The evidence shows that John Dawson is the same person admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. Sarah J. Dawson, nee Wood, his wife, a white woman, was married to him on October 4, 1871. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson hold that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the nine children included in the application of said John Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. John Dawson, his wife, and his seven older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Thorne P. Dawson and Orle M. Dawson are the children of said John Dawson. They were minors at the date of their father's admission to citizenship, and they are both identified on the Cherokee

Census roll of 1896.

Thomas P. Dawson was married on April 24, 1898, to Allen A. Allison, and Marion J. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Orle H. Dawson was married on December 28, 1899, to Willie York, and Burr R. and James W. Dawson are the issue of that marriage. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John Dawson and his wife, Sarah J., have resided together in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that said Orle H. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883, and that Thomas P. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IV, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Josephine Dawson, now deceased. At the time of her admission she was the wife of one Thomas Pierce, but was admitted to citizenship under maiden name of Dawson. The group embraces cases numbered D 408, D 409, D 431, D 471, D 472 and D 479.

The evidence shows that Robert Pierce, William Pierce, Charles E. Pierce, Ona Gray, formerly Ona Pierce, Effie Pierce (now Effie Akin) and Nancy J. Bogle, formerly Nancy J. Pierce are the children of said Josephine Dawson. They were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Nellie Pierce, a white woman, was married to said Robert Pierce on July 15, 1894. She has lived with her said husband since they were married, and Myrtle and Arthur Pierce are the issue of said marriage. Nellie Pierce is identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896, and her two children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Ora Gray was married to John B. Gray on April 7, 1898, and Cecil and Velton Gray are the issue of that marriage. Ora Gray is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894 and her children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John S. Bogle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 8, 1894, to the above named Nancy J. Pierce. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. John S. Bogle and his two older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his four younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said William Pierce died in January, 1902.

It further appears that Robert Pierce, Charles E. Pierce, Nancy J. Bogle and Ora Gray have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; that John S. Bogle, husband of Nancy J. Bogle, and Mellie Pierce, wife of Robert Pierce, have resided in said Nation ever since they were married, and the residence of the minor children herein is considered to be that of their parents with whom they are living. It appears that Effie Akin was seventeen years old at the date of the application for her enrollment, and it further appears that she resided in the Cherokee Nation from about 1886 up to December, 1900, when she went to Colorado, was married there to Will Akin, and is now living in that state with her said husband.

Group V, includes the application of the said Joseph Dawson, Wilborn Dawson and James Dawson, and embraces cases numbered D 364, D 475 and D 526.

Joseph R. Dawson is identified as the Joseph Dawson admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. He was married to Florence Jackson on May 16, 1886, and they have lived together since the date of their marriage. The said Florence Jackson is the daughter of Ella Dawson, but she was of age at the date of her mother's admission to citizenship. The six children included in the application of said Joseph M. Dawson, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said Joseph M. Dawson and Florence Dawson. The applicant, his said wife and the four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The [illegible] birth certificates on file with the application.

[illegible] admitted to citizenship as hereinbefore stated.

[illegible] Cherokee Census Roll of 1896

[illegible] James Dawson admitted to citizenship as hereinbefore stated. His wife, Martha [illegible] February [illegible], 1900. She has [illegible] marriage, and the four children included in the application of said James R. Dawson [illegible] marriage. The applicant and his wife and three children are identified on the Cherokee Census Roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified [illegible].

[illegible] that James R. Dawson has resided [illegible] Dawson and Wilborn [illegible] and that James R. [illegible] excepting a temporary [illegible]. The residence of the minor children is [illegible] be that of their parents, with [illegible].

[illegible] the application of Millie Dawson and those claiming through her and witnesses were numbered 1 to 518.

The evidence shows that Millie Moore, formerly Dawson, is identified as the Millie Dawson [illegible] citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as hereinbefore stated. Her husband, Charles T. Moore, was married to her under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on January 17, 1887. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of said marriage. Charles T. Moore, his wife Mollie, and his four older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896; the two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that said Charles T. Moore, his wife Mollie and his oldest child have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; the younger children have resided in said nation all their lives.

Group VII, includes the applications of those claiming through the above named Jane Dawson, who, at the time of her admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, as hereinbefore stated, was the wife of one Alexander Blasingame, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. Jane Dawson is a resident of Arkansas, and is not an applicant for enrollment. This group embraces cases numbered D 832, D 833 and D 834.

The evidence shows that Henry A. Blasingame, Elbert L. Blasingame, and James R. Blasingame are the children of said Jane Dawson. They were minors at the time of their mother's admission to citizenship and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Henry A. Blasingame was married to his wife Birdie J., on December 6, 1896, and Vinnie C. Blasingame is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Ida Blasingame, a white woman, was married to the said Elbert L. Blasingame on September 8, 1894. She has lived with her said husband ever since they were married and the four minor children included in the application of said Elbert L. Blasingame are the issue of that marriage. The said Ida Blasingame and her two other children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Mary A. Blasingame was married to the said James R. Blasingame on August 11, 1896. She has lived with her said husband since they were married and the three minor children included in the application of said James R. Blasingame, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. Mary A. Blasingame and her oldest child are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The two younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said Henry A. Blasingame, Elbert L. Blasingame and James R. Blasingame removed to the Cherokee Nation in 1897 and have resided therein with their said wives ever since. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group VIII, includes the applications of those claiming through the said Elbert Dawson, and embraces cases numbered D 435, D 604, D 603, D 605, D 609, D 617, D 626 and D 627.

The evidence shows that Zona Patterson, formerly Dawson, William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Richard W. Dawson, Ella L. Spickerman, formerly Dawson, and Francis M. Dawson are the children of the said Elbert Dawson. All of them, excepting the said Francis M. Dawson, were minors at the time of their father's admission to citizenship. Zona Patterson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson are identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894. An examination of the Cherokee tribal rolls, in the possession of this Commission, shows that the said Ella L. Spickerman is also identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894.

Martin L. Patterson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on July 13, 1890, to the said Zona Dawson. He has lived with his said wife since they were married and the six children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. Martin L. Patterson and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his three younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Alice Dawson, nee Alexander, was married to the said William C. Dawson on November 18, 1886. She has lived with her said husband ever since they were married.

Elbert B. Dawson was married on February 16, 1898, to Cora Bright, a non-citizen, and his child Ralph E. Dawson is the issue of that marriage. The said child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Sarah J. Dawson, nee Jones, was married to the above named Elbert Dawson about 1854, and lived with him as his wife until his death in February, 1899, and has not re-married since his death. The Cherokee Supreme Court in the cases of Cherokee Nation vs. Nancy Rogers and Melissa Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson held that a white woman married to a Cherokee Indian at the time of his admission to citizenship acquires thereby the rights of Cherokee citizenship.

Richard W. Dawson was married to Luella Mason, a white woman, on January 24, 1898. His child Ina M. Dawson is the issue of that marriage, and she is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

Ella L. Spickerman was married to John J. Spickerman, a white man on September 7, 1897. Her children Hellen J. and William Glenn are the issue of that marriage. They are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

It further appears from the evidence that Francis M. Dawson, son of Elbert Dawson, at the time of his father's admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation was twenty-two or twenty-three years old. There is no evidence that the said Francis M. Dawson has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1898 (30 Stats., 321), Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), Provides for the enrollment of,

> "all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted."

The evidence further shows that Zona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; Robert L. Dawson, Elbert B. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson, and Ella L. Spickerman since 1883; Alice Dawson since 1886, and Martin L. Patterson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IX, includes the applications of the said Missouri Dawson, and these claiming through her. The said Missouri Dawson at the time of her admission to citizenship was the wife of one John W. Graham, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson, This group embraces cases numbered D 23, D 35, D 836, D 1124, D 1125, D 1126, D 1127 and D 1128.

The evidence shows that John W. Graham was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on February 12, 1888, to the said Missouri Dawson. He had been formerly married to her in the State of Texas in 1866, and has lived with her since that time. Tempa V. and Robert S. Graham are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. John W. Graham, his wife and two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

ship in the Cherokee Nation was twenty-two or twenty-three years old. There is no evidence that the said Francis M. Dawson has been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of,

> "all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted."

The evidence further shows that Zona Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; Robert L. Dawson, Elbert E. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson, and Ella L. Spackerman since 1885; Alice Dawson since 1886, and Martin L. Patterson since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group IX includes the applications of the said Missouri Dawson, and those claiming through her. The said Missouri Dawson at the time of her admission to citizenship was the wife of one John W. Graham, but she was admitted under her maiden name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered, D 23, D 35, D 836, D 1124, D 1125, D 1126, D 1127 and D 1128.

The evidence shows that John W. Graham was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on February 12, 1888, to the said Missouri Dawson. He had been formerly married to her in the State of Texas in 1886, and has lived with her since that time. Tompa V. and Robert S. Graham are the issue of the aforesaid marriage. John W. Graham, his wife and two children are identified on the Cherokee Census Roll of 1896.

Joe E. Graham was married to Mary Bradshaw, a non-citizen on January 6, 1898. William C. Graham is the issue of that marriage, and he is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

John F. Graham was married on February 11, 1900, to Mattie Lawson, a non-citizen, and Edna M. and Robert Lee are the issue of that marriage. Said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Bessie Graham was married on November 2, 1892, to the said James M. Graham. She has lived with him since the date of their marriage, and the six children included in the application of said James M. Graham, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said marriage. The oldest child Marion is identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894, and the five younger children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

The evidence further shows that the said John W. Graham, his wife Missouri Graham, Gideon Graham, Mathew A. Painter, and his wife Laverna A. Painter, Florence P. Bradshaw, John F. Graham and Joe Willie Neal have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888, and that Joe F. Graham and James M. Graham have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group X, includes the application of the said Ella Dawson and those claiming through her. The said Ella Dawson, at the time of her admission to citizenship, was the wife of Green W. Jackson, but she was admitted to citizenship under her maiden name of Dawson. This group embraces cases numbered D 395, D 476, D 508, D 830 and D 847.

The evidence shows that Green W. Jackson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on March 24, 1887 to the said Ella Dawson. He had been previously married to her in Texas prior to her admission to citizenship. From an affidavit made a part of this record it appears that Green W. Jackson died subsequent to the date of this application, and prior to September 1, 1902.

The evidence further shows that Flora Harmon, formerly Jackson, Toshio A. Jackson, William Jackson and Fannie Lenox, formerly Jackson are the children of said Ella Dawson, now Ella Jackson. Flora Harmon, Toshio A. Jackson and Fannie Lenox were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship, and they are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

James H. Harmon was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 24, 1887, to the said Flora Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the four minor children included in his application, and hereinbefore named, are the issue of the said marriage. James H. Harmon and his three older children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896. The youngest child is identified by a birth affidavit on file with this Commission.

William C. Lenox was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on April 1, 1888, to the said Fannie Jackson. He has lived with his wife since the date of their marriage, and the two children Birtie B. and Myrtle Lenox, included in his application, are the issue of the said marriage. William C. Lenox and his two children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Lizzie Jackson claims to have been married in 1888 to the said William Jackson, who is now deceased. It appears that William Jackson at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship, was over twenty-one years old. There is no evidence that the said William Jackson was ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). Lizzie Jackson and the five minor children included in her application, and hereinbefore named, are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and they take only such rights as may have been possessed by the said William Jackson. The authority of the Commission herein is defined in Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), heretofore quoted.

The evidence further shows that the said Ella Jackson, the said Flora Harmon and the said Toshie A. Jackson have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884, and that William C. Lenox, and his wife Fannie Lenox have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XI, includes the applications of those claiming through Malvina Dawson and embraces case numbered D 839.

The evidence shows that James Lowe is the son of the said Malvina Dawson, and that at the time of her admission to citizenship the said James Lowe was over 21 years old. There is no evidence that the said James Lowe was ever admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by the United States Court under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321). It further appears that the said James Lowe was married on June 12, 1887, to Mollie Knight, a white woman, and the four minor children included in his application and hereinbefore named, are the issue of that marriage. James Lowe and his said children are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896 and said children take only the rights which may have been acquired by their father.

The authority of the Commission herein is defined in Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), heretofore quoted.

Group XII, includes the applications of those claiming through the said W. A. Dawson and embraces cases numbered D 405, D 406, D 715, R 12 and R 13.

The evidence shows that Millie T. Dawson was married to the said W. A. Dawson in 1892 and lived with him as his wife in the Cherokee Nation until his death in 1899, and that she has not re-married since his death. Texanna Woolley is the daughter of said W. A. Dawson and his former wife Melissa A. Dawson. Texanna Woolley was a minor at the date of her father's admission to citizenship, and she is identified on the Strip payment roll of 1894. She was married on March 27, 1898, to James Woolley, and her children Irene V. and Wilburn E. are the issue of that marriage. They are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Henry T. Richardson was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on July 11, 1886, to one Sellar Dawson, who was the daughter of the said W. A. Dawson by his first wife Melissa A. Sellar Dawson was a minor at the date of her father's admission to citizenship. Henry T. Richardson lived in the Cherokee Nation with his said wife Sellar from the date of their marriage until her death in 1892. On September 22, 1898, Henry T. Richardson married one Kitty Flournoy nee Dawson. The said Kitty Flournoy was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Of the children herein applied for, Delia F. Richardson is the child of the applicant by his first wife, Sellar. Finis T. Richardson and Casper C. Richardson are children by his wife Kitty. Edgar, Walter, Alice, Laura, Oscar, Claude and Edna Flournoy are the children of his said wife Kitty by a former husband.

The six older children were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 1, 1894, with their mother as the members of her family. The youngest child Edna Flournoy was born in 1896 and was living at the date of this application. Delia F. Richardson is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and Finis T. and Jasper C. Richardson are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

Etta Brauer is the daughter of said W. A. Dawson, and was a minor at the date of her father's admission. She was married in 1892 to a non-citizen but such marriage was not in accordance with Cherokee laws. She is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Melissa A. Dawson was married to the said W. A. Dawson in the State of Texas on September 28, 1873. The Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in the case of Melissa A. Dawson vs. W. A. Dawson, decided that Melissa A. Dawson, the applicant herein was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of intermarriage with her said husband, W. A. Dawson. She is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and she has not re-married since her divorce from said W. A. Dawson.

The evidence shows that Texanna Woolley has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884; that Etta Brauer and Melissa A. Dawson have resided in the Cherokee Nation, with the exception of temporary absences, since 1884; that Millie T. Dawson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1892; that Henry T. Richardson has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1886, and that Kitty Richardson, his wife, has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

Group XIII, includes the following applications: Miram F. Weddle, et al D 521; William D. Douthitt, D 522; Alonzo M. Fishback, D 343; Florence Morgan, et al D 939; John B. Fishback, D 849 and George A. Mabry, et al D 979. The persons embraced in these applications are related to the above named Dawsons. They are not claiming the right to enrollment by virtue of such relationship, but rely upon a separate adjudication of their rights.

The evidence shows that Hiram P. Weddle was married under a Cherokee marriage license, and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on September 13, 1884, to Lula P. Douthitt, who was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the said "Spears Court" on September 13, 1884. Curtis, Morris O. and Roy Weddle are the issue of the said marriage. Hiram P. Weddle and his said wife are identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and their three children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

William D. Douthitt is the brother of said Lula P. Weddle, and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation with his said sister on September 13, 1884. He is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

Alonzo M. Fishback was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation on May 17, 1880, to Lavirna A. Dawson. He had been previously married to the same wife in Texas in 1877, and has lived with her ever since. It appears that Lavirna Fishback was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. William A. and Annie B. Fishback are the issue of the said marriage. Alonzo M. Fishback and his said wife and children are all identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, and his wife is also identified on the Cherokee pay roll of 1890.

Florence Morgan, the wife of Elbert L. Morgan, is the daughter of the Kitty Richardson heretofore mentioned and was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on December 1, 1894 with the said Kitty Richardson as a member of her family. Ollie and Alice A. Morgan are her children by her said husband. The said children are identified by birth affidavits on file with this Commission.

John E. Fishback is the son of Laverna Fishback, who was re-admitted to citizenship on December 1, 1894, as heretofore stated. He was a minor at the date of his mother's admission to citizenship and he is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896.

George A. Mabry was married to one Edna Dawson in the State of Arkansas in 1884. He claims to have been married under a Cherokee marriage license to his said wife in 1889, but he presents no satisfactory proof of such marriage. Edna Dawson was re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an Act of the Cherokee National Council on December 1, 1894. Roby and Charley Mabry are her children by her said husband, George A. Mabry. Edna Mabry is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and the two children were minors at the date of their mother's admission to citizenship.

The evidence further shows that Alonzo M. Fishback and his wife Laverna A. Fishback have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1883; that Lula P. Weddle, William D. Douthitt, and John E. Fishback have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884, and that Florence Morgan and Edna Mabry have resided in said Nation since 1894. The residence of the minor children included in this group is considered to be that of their parents, with whom they are living.

All birth affidavits for the minor children embraced in this decision, and hereinbefore noted, are made a part of this record.

It is contended by the Cherokee Nation that the applicants herein are not entitled to be enrolled by this Commission because they have never been lawfully admitted or enrolled by the Cherokee authorities, and that the judgment of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship admitting Robert Dawson and his family was obtained by fraud on the part of said Dawson.

In considering the question at issue, it is the opinion of this Commission that it has no power, and that it is not the purpose of this proceeding, to review or to set aside the judgment in the Dawson case, or to determine such questions as were necessarily involved in the issues before the Cherokee Commission, and were passed upon by that Commission. In United States vs. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. Page 61, it is stated, "the doctrine is well settled that the Court will not set aside a judgment because it was founded on perjured testimony or for any matter which was actually presented and considered in the judgment assailed." Only such facts therefore, are considered by this Commission, as were not part of the record in the Robert Dawson case before the Teehee Commission, and which tend to show whether the judgment admitting the Dawsons was a bona fide judgment of the Teehee Commission, or whether such judgment is void because of fraud, and upon this proposition the burden of proof is upon those attacking the judgment.

Briefly stated, the circumstances attending the admission of the Dawsons appear to be as follows:

On September 24, 1881, an application was made to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship known as the "Teehee Court", for admission to Cherokee citizenship of Robert Dawson and the members of his family above mentioned. The members of that Commission were Thomas Teehee, Alex Wolfe and T. F. Thompson. The first two were full blood Cherokee Indians; they could understand, but could not talk English. One D. W. C. Duncan was the Clerk of the Commission. The Dawson case was continued several times before final decision. J. M. Bryan appears to have been an attorney in the case, and after some delay he notified Francis M. Dawson that the case would be taken up by the Commission at its session in January, 1883, and also informed him that C.H.Taylor would look after Dawson's interests as he, Bryan, would be in Washington. On receipt of this notice Francis M. Dawson went to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation, and made arrangements with his uncle Samuel N. Benge to go to Tahlequah and conduct the case. Benge who is a witness herein testifies that he was connected with the Dawson case when it was commenced in 1881; that it was continued several times for want of evidence, and that in January, 1885, in company with F. M. Dawson he went to Tahlequah and while there secured the testimony of Tosk Rogers, a negro, who knew the Dawson's ancestors, and that after getting his evidence the case was submitted to the Commission. He further testifies that the Commission rendered a decision against the Dawsons and that next morning the Commission reopened the case, but not upon motion of the witness, and rendered a judgment admitting the Dawsons to citizenship. He further states that on his way home to Fort Gibson with Dawson he remarked to the latter, "it was a pretty hard blow when they rendered a decision against us," to which Dawson is alleged to have replied, "yes, but Duncan was the man to reach and he reached him with five hundred dollars."

Dawson denies ever having had such a conversation and says that he did not return to Fort Gibson with Benge but went home to Arkansas by a different route.

C. H. Taylor testifies that he was an attorney in the case and was present when the case was decided. He says there were only two Commissioners present, Teehee and Wolfe. He further testifies that D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of the Court asked the witness to let him know when any large citizenship cases came up; that he introduced F. M. Dawson to Duncan on the evening of January 10th, heard part of a conversation between them in which Duncan addressing Dawson said, "there is a hitch in your evidence, if that was straightened out it will be all right." Next morning witness says Dawson told him to call up the case, which he did. That there was no additional evidence introduced and no argument made, and that the case was then decided in favor of the Dawsons. Witness further testifies that Dawson gave him twenty dollars and said he would send him the balance in a short time, that in the course of ten days he sent him one hundred dollars with directions to pay over half of it to Duncan; that Dawson soon afterwards sent him another hundred dollars with the same instruction to give Duncan half of it.

Dawson denied the matters testified to by Taylor excepting in the matter of paying Taylor money, which he admits in part, but says that the twenty dollars mentioned was sent to Taylor about a year after the decision, and that he instructed Taylor to pay it over to Duncan to pay him for a land claim, and that the other money was in payment of J. M. Bryan's attorney fees which Taylor represented to Dawson he had for collection against him. Taylor's reputation for truth and veracity has been impeached by various disinterested witnesses.

The evidence which may be considered as tending to support the charge of fraud is the testimony of S. M. Denge, C. H. Taylor, Thomas J. Babcart, J. L. Clinkenbeard, James W. Lewis, C. G. Draught and David Meredith.

S. M. Denge testifies that a judgment adverse to the Dawsons was rendered by the Commission on the evening of one day and without any additional proceedings in the case that judgment was reversed on the morning of the next day.

Even if this were a material fact, there is no other proof that two judgments in the case were ever rendered. The record of the proceedings and judgment in the Commission's docket is all on one page, the entry of the application in 1881 and the first continuance being entered under authority of a former Commission and by a different clerk, and there is no evidence of erasure on that page. It is not an unusual thing for a Court to change its judgment, and this fact, if it is a fact, is not in itself any evidence of fraud.

Thomas B. Dabeart testifies that one James Dawson, a man of forty or fifty years of age, in company with Butler, the Commission's interpreter and Jim Smith, solicitor for the Nation, came to the witness in Tahlequah the evening of January 10, 1883, to borrow some money; that Dawson was vouched for by Butler as a responsible party and that Dawson told the witness that he had to have money that night, that his case was to be submitted the next day if he could get some money, that Smith had agreed to submit the case without evidence, and that witness thereupon let Dawson have ten dollars.

Admitting all this to be true and that the influence of these officials was purchased for the sum of ten dollars, the Commission fails to see how these alleged facts show that the Court was imposed upon or misled. Bribery of officials to use their influence with the Commission would not necessarily vitiate the judgment, but it must appear that the fraud, or corruption reached the members of the Commission and tainted the judgment itself. The case was not submitted without evidence as appears from the record, and it is shown that such evidence was carefully considered by that Commission. Furthermore, the evidence shows that there was no such person then in Tahlequah as the James Dawson described by witness.

Clinkenbeard testifies that he had a talk with Elbert Dawson about 1881; that Dawson told him he had only one witness, Dr. Baker of Arkansas, "an old man 85 or 90 years old who did not know straight up" and that he could give Dr. Baker four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would swear black was white. Witness further testifies that Dawson told him that money was what made the mare go in Texas, and that he had found out that it goes here too.

Assuming that this Commission can go into thequestion of perjury in connection with evidence in that case, the testimony of Clinkenbeard establishes, if anything, only the facts stated, and does not prove that Dr. Baker committed perjury in giving his testimony before the Commission. Further, it is not clear that Dr. Baker was the only witness in the case. Benge stated that Tosh Rogers was a witness, Duncan is under that impression also, and T. P. Thompson, one of the Commissioners, states that he thinks there were three witnesses. The testimony of Dr. Baker, seems, however, to be the only testimony preserved of record. As to whether Doctor Baker offered perjured testimony by Dawson's procurement, it is proper to state that the evidence of W. H. Curtis and A. S. McFennon, witnesses for applicants, show that Doctor Baker was a man of integrity and was not addicted to drinking.

The testimony of James W. Lewis is to the effect that he had a conversation with F. M. Dawson about 1883, in which Dawson had told the witness that it had cost him seven hundred dollars to get his rights. Draught also testifies that he was an applicant for citizenship about 1881 or 1882, and that while his case was pending he had a talk with F. M. Dawson who told him that if he (the witness) ever got in, it would cost him seven hundred dollars, and that Dawson told him he had paid one witness three hundred dollars, and made arrangements with the Court to get the Dawsons in at one hundred dollars a family. David Meredith testifies that he had a talk with old James Dawson in 1888, and that the latter told the witness it cost him twelve hundred dollars to get his case through.

It can hardly be urged that such evidence is sufficient to show that the members of the Tecklee Commission were corrupted by the fraudulent use of money. So far as these witnesses have been able to testify the money spent by the Dawsons might have been for proper and legitimate purposes. F. M. Dawson gives a detailed statement of what the case cost him and his brother in a legitimate way. The presumption can not be indulged that such moneys were used for fraudulent purposes and the proof to the contrary must be very clear before this Commission will deny applicants the right to be enrolled upon that ground.

Admitting the truth of all the testimony in this case as to the actual transfer of money by the Dawsons, it appears that Duncan, Butler and Smith were the only beneficiaries of that money. There is no evidence that the members of the Commission received or were offered any of it.

The judgment entered in the Commission's docket shows the signature of the three members of the Commission appended thereto. There is some conflict as to whether Duncan signed Thompson's name, or whether Thompson affixed his own signature. Duncan testified that all three signatures were made by him as Clerk under authority of the Commissioners present, the two full bloods being unable to sign their names. T. F. Thompson testifies that he signed the original transcript of the judgment, which was made on the day of its rendition. The question, however, is not considered to be very material. The signing of judgments by each Commissioner appears to have been a matter of custom only. T. F. Thompson testifies that he remembers the Dawson case and recognizes the judgment therein as the final judgment of the Commission, and that there was no fraud or corruption in the procurement of that judgment by the Dawsons or by any one else so far as he knew.

Much evidence has been introduced by the Cherokee Nation for the purpose of showing that the ancestor, through whom the Dawsons claim, was not a Cherokee, and that other members of the Dawson family, claiming from the same source, have been denied Cherokee citizenship by subsequent Cherokee tribunals, and also by this Commission and by the United States Court. Such evidence, in the opinion of this Commission, is not competent for any purpose in this proceeding. The only question before this Commission is whether there was fraud in the procurement of the Robert Dawson judgment, and not whether the applicants are Cherokee Indians, or whether they ought to have been admitted to citizenship upon the proof submitted. These were questions presented, considered and passed upon by the Teckes Commission. If their decision is a valid and regular judgment, it is binding on this Commission. If, on the contrary, the applicants have never been lawfully admitted to citizenship, because the judgment under which they claim is void, for fraud, then the question as to whether they are Cherokees by blood is not material, as this Commission has now no authority to admit them to citizenship.

While it is true, that since 1883, a number of applicants, members of the Dawson family, have been denied admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, no argument derived therefrom is of any force, for it is also true that other members of the same family have been admitted to citizenship, and the action of the Cherokee authorities in admitting them has never been questioned by the Cherokee Nation. Whatever inference, therefore, may be drawn from these facts applies with equal force both for and against the validity of the judgment in question.

The Dawsons have lived in the Cherokee Nation, most of them since 1883; they have exercised the rights of Cherokee citizenship for many years, some of them occupying official positions in the Nation, and no protest seems to have been made against their citizenship until within the last few years. The records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission, show, that since 1883, there have been Commissions on citizenship charged with authority to investigate the judgments of former tribunals alleged to have been secured by fraud, and the Cherokee Legislature had power to order an investigation, and to create a tribunal with authority to set aside a judgment so obtained. No such action appears to have been taken by the Cherokee authorities with reference to the judgment of the Teehee Commission in the Robert Dawson case.

After a careful consideration of all the facts in this case this Commission is of the opinion that the evidence fails to establish that the Dawsons secured their admission to citizenship by fraud or that the judgment of the Teehee Commission as rendered January 11, 1883, was fraudulent as the result of corruption, bribery, or deception upon the part of the Dawsons, or their agents, and that such judgment, and also the judgment of the Spears Commission in 1884, and the Act of the Cherokee National Council of December 1, 1894, which have not been attacked by the Cherokee Nation, being regular on their face, must therefore be accepted by this Commission as the valid judgments of the duly constituted Cherokee authorities.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that,

It is further the opinion of this Commission that, for the reasons heretofore stated, the applications for the enrollment of Arizona Allred and William C. Allred, (embraced in D 835); Francis M. Dawson, son of Elbert Dawson, (embraced in D 627); Osie Jackson, Lizzie Jackson, Jessie Jackson, Ray Jackson, and Clyde Jackson, the children of William and Lizzie Jackson, (embraced in D 830); James Lowe, May Lowe, Zelma Lowe, Roberta Lowe and Rosa Lowe, (embraced in D 839), as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that the applications of Lizzie Jackson, widow of William Jackson, (embraced in D 830), and George A. Mabry (embraced in D 979), as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, in accordance with the provisions of the law heretofore quoted, and it is so ordered.

As hereinbefore stated William Pierce (D 409) and Cecil Dawson (D 358) and Green W. Jackson (D 395), died prior to September 1, 1902. It further appears from affidavits, made a part of this record that Liddie and Margaret Graham (D 1128) have died since the date of the application for their enrollment and prior to September 1, 1902.

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of said William Pierce, Cecil Dawson, Green W. Jackson, Liddie Graham and Margaret Graham be, and the same are hereby dismissed.

Elbert B. Dawson, Esq.,

Talala, Indian Territory.

Sir:—

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 24th instant. Your marriage license and certificate have been filed with the case of your wife.

You state in your letter that your correct name is Elbert B. Dawson and not Burton Dawson as shown in the certificate as to the birth of your child, Ralph Burton Dawson. The same is therefore returned to you for correct on. You are desired to have your name appear in the birth certificate as Elbert B. Dawson. When this has been done forward it to the Commission at Muskogee where it will receive further consideration.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 1st 1902

Elbert B. Dawson,

Tahlequah, Indian Territory,

Sir:-

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself and son

for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 17th day of March, 1902.

On said date, you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission, in person or by attorney, when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting your application.

You are further notified that the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony tending to disprove your right to enrollment, but said Representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

CHEROKEE ENROLLMENT.

Francis M. Dawson, et al.,

GROUP VIII.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to office report of even date transmitting Group I of the consolidated case of Francis M. Dawson, et al., applicants for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, there is enclosed herewith the record relative to the applicants parties to Group VIII.---

D.438, Group VIII, page 1.

Martin L. Patterson applies for the enrollment of himself as an intermarried citizen, and for the enrollment of his wife, Rena, and their minor children, Sarah A., Martha A., Glenda A., Edgar D., Thomas M. and Virgil V. Patterson, as citizens by blood. Virgil V. was born subsequent to the date of his original application and is identified by birth affidavit.

D.434, Group VIII, page 11.

William G. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Alice Dawson, as an intermarried citizen.

D.435, Group VIII, page 12.

Robert L. Dawson applies for enrollment as a citizen by blood.

D.629, Group VIII, page 11.

Hibert E. Dawson applied for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ralph E. Dawson, as citizens by blood. The child was born subsequent to the date of his original application, and is identified by birth affidavit.

D.629, Group VIII, page 12.

Sarah J. Dawson applies for the enrollment of herself as an intermarried citizen.

D.630, Group VIII, page 13.

Richard V. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ina E. Dawson, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Lucille Dawson, as a citizen by intermarriage. The Commission states that Lucille Dawson is differently classed and is not embraced in its decision.

D.634, Group VIII, page 17.

Nila L. Spickerman applied for the enrollment of herself and her minor child, Helen J. Spickerman, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband, John J. Spickerman, as a citizen by intermarriage. She also applies for the enrollment as a citizen by blood of her child, William A. Spickerman, who was born after her original application. This child is identified by a birth affidavit. The Commission states that John J. Spickerman has been differently classed and is not embraced in its decision.

D.637, Group VIII, page 18.

Francis M. Dawson applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood.

The record in this case shows that Martin L. Patterson, (Group VIII, page 1), was married July 13, 1898, to Rona Patterson nee Dawson, daughter of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted by the Dawes Court, January 11, 1903. The marriage was performed in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. Rona Patterson nee Dawson was a minor when her father was admitted. Rona Patterson's name appears on the 1896 census roll, as does the names of Martin L. Patterson, Sarah A., Martha and Claude (A.) Patterson. Edgar B., Thomas M. and Virgil V. Patterson are identified by birth affidavits.

William C. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 11), is a son of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1903. He was a minor when his father was admitted. He was married to Alice Dawson, November 16, 1896. He is identified by the 1896 and 1896 rolls of the Cherokee Nation. From the record it does not seem that the name of his wife is found on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation.

Robert L. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 15), is a son of Hibert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1903. He was a minor when his father was admitted.

Hibert B. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 16), is the son of Hibert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1903. He was a minor when his father was admitted. February 16, 1898, he was married to Cora Bright, a non-citizen. His name appears on the 1896 roll, but is not on the 1896 roll.

Sarah J. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 19), is the widow of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1903. The applicant's husband is identified by the 1896 pay-roll of the Cherokee Nation. It does not appear from the record that her name is on any roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Richard W. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 22), is the son of Hibert Dawson who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was a minor when his father was admitted to citizenship. He was married to Lucille Mason, a white woman, January 24, 1898.

Ella L. Spickermann, (Group VIII, page 27), is the daughter of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted in 1883. She was a minor when her father was admitted to citizenship. Sept. 7, 1897, she was married to John J. Spickermann, a white man. She is identified by the 1894 roll.

Francis M. Dawson, (Group VIII, page 21), is a son of Hibert Dawson, who was admitted January 11, 1883. He was of age when his father was admitted, and it does not appear that he was admitted to citizenship. From the evidence it does not seem that Francis M. Dawson's name is found on any roll of the Cherokee Nation. He claims to have lived in the Cherokee Nation since 1888. It appears that he and the members of his family were refused enrollment by the Cherokee tribal authorities in 1896.

It is shown that Emma Patterson, William C. Dawson and Richard W. Dawson, have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1894. Robert L. Dawson, Hibert M. Dawson, Sarah J. Dawson and Ella L. Spickermann, have resided there since 1883. Alice Dawson has resided in the Nation since 1886 and Martin L. Patterson since 1894.

The Commission in its decision of December 23, 1902, held that all of the parties in this group, except Lucille Dawson and J. J. Spickermann, who are differently classed, and Francis M. Dawson (Group VIII, page 21), were entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation--Martin L. Patterson, Alice Dawson and Sarah J. Dawson, as citizens by intermarriage and the others as citizens by blood.

For the reasons set forth in office report of even date, transmitting Group I of this consolidated case, the approval of the Commission's decision is recommended, except in so far as it relates to Martin L. Patterson, Alice Dawson and Sarah J. Dawson, who apply for enrollment as intermarried citizens. The question submitted to the Court of Claims not having been passed upon by the Court, their applications should not be considered at this time. The right of Francis M. Dawson to enrollment as a citizen by blood will be discussed herein.

August 31, 1905, Harry S. Kimball and W. W. White, attorneys of this city, filed a brief on behalf of applicant Francis M. Dawson, for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. In their letter it is said that a copy of this brief has been forwarded to the attorney for the Cherokee Nation, W. W. Hastings, Esq. Kimball & White in their brief state that Francis M. Dawson is the son of Elbert Dawson, who was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, January 11, 1883, and that he was at that time about 22 years of age. They claim that his father applied for readmission February 24, 1892, and that Francis M. Dawson was at the date of this application less than 21 years of age that he has resided in the Cherokee Nation from the time of his father's admission, and they take the position that the only reason the Commission gives for refusing his enrollment is that he was more than 21 years of age at the time of his father's admission. The statement is made by them "his name appears upon every roll since his father's admission. He drew his share of the Strip money and has resided nowhere except in said Nation." They claim that under Section 5, of the Amendments to Article 3, of the Constitution, and the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General in the James W. Shirley case of June 11, 1904, Francis M. Dawson is entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

From the record it does not appear that the name of Francis M. Dawson is found on any rolls of the Cherokee Nation. The Commission, in what is understood to be its field decision or field note, says: "He is not identified on any roll since that time," meaning the date of his father's admission. In this decision or note it is also said: "The application for admission is shown by the document cited to be dated January 4, 1841, and giving the applicant the benefit of the opinion that the fact of admission would date from the application, he was a minor at that time."

In the brief of Kimball & White it is alleged that Elbert Dawson applied "for admission February 24, 1880." There seems to be considerable doubt as to the exact date Elbert Dawson made application for admission for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, but from the records it appears the true date is September 24, 1841. By the supplemental testimony it is shown that the application of Elbert Dawson et al., for admission to citizenship was "filed September 24, 1841."

Francis M. Dawson, October 17, 1900, (Group VIII, page 31), testified among other things that he was 38 years of age "on the last day of December last," meaning December 31, 1899. If this be true, and if the correct date of the application of his father, Elbert Dawson, is September 24, 1841, Francis M. Dawson was 39 years 8 months and 28 days old at the date of his father's application. The office believes that the date of admission should be held to relate back to the date of the application. There is nothing in the record which shows that Elbert Dawson, or any of the other applicants of 1841, were asked in 1843 whether any of their children had arrived at the age of majority.

In view of the foregoing, it is respectfully recommended that the decision of the Commission be to Francis M. Watson be not approved, and that the Commission be directed to enroll him as a citizen of the Cherokee nation by blood, unless there be some reason which does not appear in the record why the same should not be done. There seems to be no question but that he is of Cherokee blood.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,
Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

March 31, 1904.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

February 25, 1904, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application of Francis M. Dawson et al., for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

In your decision of December 23, 1903, you disposed of the applications in the Dawson case by groups. Group VIII, as disposed of by you, includes the applications of those persons who claim enrollment by virtue of their descent from Elbert Dawson, who was admitted to Cherokee citizenship by decree of the Tahee Court dated January 11, 1843. These applications are designated by you as D.433, D.604, D.605, D.606, D.609, D.617, D.636, and D.647.

It appears that the principal applicants in this group, claiming enrollment by blood, viz: Zona Patterson, formerly Dawson, William C. Dawson, Robert L. Dawson, Elbert R. Dawson, Richard W. Dawson, Ella L. Spickerman, formerly Dawson, and Francis M. Dawson, are the children of the said Elbert Dawson. All of them except the said Francis M. Dawson were minors at the time of their father's admission to citizenship.

The application of Martin L. Patterson, D.433, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife, Zona Patterson, and his six minor children, Sarah A., Martha A., Claude A., Roger D., Thomas W., and Virgil V. Patterson, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The said Martin L. Patterson was married July 13, 1890, in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, to the said Zona Patterson, nee Dawson. He has resided in the nation since his marriage, and the six children named above are the issue of said marriage. His name, and the names of his three older children, are on the Cherokee census roll of 1896. The three younger children are identified by birth affidavits. Xona Patterson, nee Dawson, is also identified on said roll, and has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1884.

William C. Dawson, D.604, applied for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Alice Dawson, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified upon the strip payment roll of 1894, and has resided in the nation since 1884. He was married November 15, 1896, to the said Alice Dawson, nee Alexander. She has resided with him since their marriage.

The application of Robert L. Dawson, D.605, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. He is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and has resided in the nation since 1884.

The application of Elbert R. Dawson, D.606, was for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ralph R. Dawson, as Cherokees by blood. Said Elbert R. Dawson is identified upon the strip payment roll of 1894. His son is identified by a birth affidavit. The father has resided in the nation since 1884. On February 16, 1898, he married Cora Wright, a non-citizen, who is the mother of said child. It appears, however, that no application was made for her enrollment under this title.

The application of Sarah J. Dawson, D.609, was for the enrollment of herself as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation. In 1894 she married the said Elbert Dawson, and lived with him as his wife until his death in February, 1898. Since then she has not remarried. She has resided in the nation since 1884.

The application of Richard W. Dawson, D.617, was for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Ina E. Dawson, as citizens by blood and for the enrollment of his wife, Luella Dawson, as a citizen of said nation by intermarriage. The latter is differently classified and is not embraced in this decision. Said Richard W. Dawson is identified upon the 1894 strip payment roll, and has resided in the nation since 1884. January 24, 1896, he married Luella Vason. Ina E. Dawson, who is identified by a birth affidavit, is the issue of that marriage.

The application of Ella L. Spiekerman, D.626, was for the enrollment of herself and her minor children, Helen J. and William G. Spiekerman, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband John J. Spiekerman, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. His application is differently classified and will not be considered herein. The said Ella L. Spiekerman, nee Dawson, is identified on the strip payment roll of 1894, and has resided in the nation since 1880. Said children are identified by birth affidavits.

The application of Francis W. Dawson, D.627, was for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. His case is distinguished from that of the other principal applicants who claim by blood, in that he was not a minor at the date of his father's admission to citizenship. It appears, however, that the petition for the enrollment of his father, Elbert Dawson et al., was filed when he was a minor. The exact date when said petition was filed is uncertain. The Indian Office finds that the date of the petition was September 24, 1881. You find that the petition bears a still earlier date. It is claimed by this applicant and by his attorneys that his name is borne upon various tribal rolls. It does not appear from the record, however, that such is the fact. He states that he has resided in the nation never since 1869, and that he drew strip money for himself &

In his report of October 16, 1903, relative to this group, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs calls attention to that portion of the evidence which shows that the applicant was a minor when the petition for the enrollment of his father was filed, and expresses the opinion that the admission of his father (construed as including his minor children living with him) should be considered as taking effect from the date the petition was filed.

In your decision of December 23, 1903, in which you refused to enroll this applicant, you make no reference to this aspect of the case. It is observed, however, from the field notes as they appear in connection with the record in this case, that the examiner was then of the opinion that the date of the father's petition might possibly affect the rights of the applicant.

The attorneys for this applicant and for the Nation have filed briefs. The attorneys for neither, however, have discussed the rights of the applicant from this standpoint.

It is considered that both parties should be furnished with a copy of the Commissioner's letter relating to this group, and be allowed to be heard in reference to the matter.

From a letter addressed to the Assistant Attorney General for this Department, from Kimball & White, attorneys for Francis M. Dawson, Jr., dated February 13, 1904, it appears that under date of January 13, 1904, you wrote said attorneys as follows:

> "You are advised that the 1894 pay roll does not contain the name of such a person as Francis M. Dawson. There does appear upon that roll, however, the name of one Marion Dawson, and it is possible this is the same person."

Although not addressed to the Department, it was considered that your letter should be received as authentic evidence of the matters stated therein. It is believed, in view of the statement contained in said letter and from the testimony of Francis Marion Dawson, referred to above, that an adjudication of his case upon the record as it now stands would be untimely and inadvisable.

In your decision of December 23, 1903, you held that all of the applicants are entitled to enrollment except Francis M. Dawson. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs concurred in your recommendation respecting those applicants claiming by blood, except as to him, and also recommended his enrollment. As to those applicants claiming by intermarriage the Commissioner recommended that no action be taken at present.

The Department concurs in the recommendation of the Commissioner as to all of the applicants, except Francis M. Dawson. The record in his case is herewith returned for further investigation in accordance with the suggestions herein contained.

The attorney for the Cherokee Nation protests against the enrollment of these applicants, claiming that their enrollment was obtained through fraud. In this connection see opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of February 14, 1904, relating to the Dawson case, a copy of which was sent you February 24, 1904.

A copy of Indian Office letter of October 16, 1903, relating to this group, is also inclosed.

Respectfully,

(signed) Thos Ryan

Acting Secretary.

1896 roll examined for applicant and name not found;
1894 roll page 176 #1314 as Dick W. Dawson Coowescoowee Dist

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and one child; he shows by the certificate of admission cited in the testimony that his father was admitted to citizenship in 1883; he established his residence in a satisfactory manner in the Cherokee Nation; he is identified on the roll of 1894, but not upon the roll of 1896; it is shown in the application and testimony of other members of this family that the Cherokee authorities refused their enrollment in 1896 because of a contest over the circumstances of their admission; the Cherokee representatives present have protested against the enrollment of all the members of this family and this applicant with now be placed upon a right-classed as Cherokee by blood; when he files certificate of the birth of the child named in the testimony, then the child also will be listed as Cherokee by blood, upon a certificate card. The marriage certificate filed herewith shows that the applicant married his wife, a white woman, some two years or more ago; this is too late under the Curtis Act of 1898 for her to possess the right of enrollment at this time, and the application for her enrollment is rejected.

M.D.Green, being first duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly reported the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

To be filed with C. D. 617, Richard W. Dawson et al.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COURT [illegible] TO THE FIVE [illegible] TRIBES,
VINITA, I. T., SEPTEMBER [illegible], 1896.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Francis Marion Dawson, wife and children for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, C. B. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q What is your full name? A Francis Marion Dawson.
Q What is your age? A I am fifty eight years old.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Cocona.
Q What District do you live in? A Delaware.
Q Who is it you want to have enrolled? A Myself and family.
Q Your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q How many children? A Six.
Q Do you apply for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir; she is a white woman.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Since 1873.
Q Were you admitted by the Cherokee Commission? A Yes, sir.

The applicant presents a duly authenticated certificate of admission to citizenship, showing that on the 11th day of January, 1883, certain persons were admitted by the commission on citizenship, and among them appears the name of F. M. Dawson.

Q What is your name is it? A Yes, sir.

This is recognized as satisfactory evidence of the facts stated.

Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since your admission?
A Yes, sir; in Delaware District ever since.
Q Give me the name of your wife? A Katie Dawson.
Q How old is she now? A Forty five.
Q Was she admitted with you? A No, sir.
Q Have you married her according to Cherokee law since your admission? A No, sir.
Q You have not remarried since your admission? A No, sir; it was not necessary.

The applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate, showing that he was married to his wife, as stated by him, in 1880, by the Reverend H. W. Goudelock, in Carrol County, Arkansas, the license being issued by the Clerk of that County.

These papers are filed herewith.

Q Your wife was not admitted by the Cherokee Commission, when you were? A No, sir.
Q Or at any other time? A No, sir.
Q By act of the Commission or Council? A No, sir: she was placed on the rolls.
Q On the census rolls? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the names of your children, please? A Lula.
Q How old? A Seventeen.
Q Next child? A Roy.
Q How old? A Fifteen.
Q Next child? A Jessie Jane.
Q How old? A Fourteen.
Q Next child? A Jacob Levy.
Q How old? A Ten.
Q Next child? A Hugh A.
Q How old? A He is eight I believe.

Q Next child? A Laura.
Q How old is that child? A She is four years old.
Q Is that all? A Yes, sir: six of them. I have others, but they are not at home.
Q Are they married? A No, sir.
Q Are they over age? A Yes, sir.

(1896 Roll, Page 461, #908, Laura Albertie Dawson, " ")

Q Is this Lula or Luly? A Luly.
The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and six children:
Q Were these children all born since you were admitted into the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

The applicant is shown by the certificate of admission, cited in the testimony, to have been admitted to Cherokee citizenship, by the Commission on Citizenship, January 11th, 1883; he is identified on the roll of 1896, but the representative of the Cherokee Nation desires to make inquiry into the methods of that time, and for that reason, the application of the applicant will at present be placed on a "Doubtful Card." He has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since his admission to citizenship. His wife was married to him under United States law, and was married prior to his admission: she has never been remarried according to Cherokee law: She has lived with him ever since his admission to citizenship, and she is identified on the roll of 1896. The application for her enrollment will be placed on a "Doubtful Card".
Their six children, as enumerated in the testimony are identified on the roll of 1896: They are living at this time, all having been born since his admission (Applicant's) , These children will be placed with him on a "Doubtful Card". The applicant's marriageto the mother of these children is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. If any additionnal papers, adverse are developed in this case, he will be given timely notice thereof.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

BEFORE THE HONORABLE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the enrollment : of F. M. Duncan and others as :
Cherokee citizens. :

Depositions of witnesses in behalf of the applicants for enrollment mentioned in the title, taken before me, Lewis T. Martin, a Notary Public in and for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such, at the office of C. E. Denison in the Gray-Halsell building in the town of Vinita, Indian Territory, on Thursday the fourth day of October 1900, between the hours of one and a half o'clock and six o'clock in the afternoon of said day, in accordance with the agreement to take testimony, entered into between the applicants and the Cherokee Nation, by their respective attorneys, which agreement is hereto attached.

T. F. Thompson, being produced by the applicants, being first duly sworn to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY C. E. DENISON:

Q State your name, age, residence and occupation?
A T. F. Thompson, 53 years old, I live near Vinita, Cherokee Nation, I. T. I am a farmer.
Q How long have resided in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation as now constituted?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is that citizenship based, blood or otherwise?
A Blood.
Q What, if any official position have you held in the Cherokee Nation, and at what time?
A I was elected to the Cherokee Council in 1870 some odd, I don't remember the exact year, I was also on the Commission Court.
Q Do you remember when that was? A Some time in 1880 or 1881, I think, it may have been earlier.
Q Did that Commission or Court have anything to do with admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q State, if you remember, how many members of that Commission or Court, there were, and who they were besides yourself?
A There were three, Tehee, Wolf and myself, Tehee was President of the Court.
Q Where were the sessions of that body held? A Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation.
Q Did you have a Clerk? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember who that was? A D. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know whether the members of that Commission beside yourself, are living or dead? A Yes, sir, they are both dead.
Q Can you recollect now what period of time that Commission lasted?
A About two years I think, two, sessions, and there was one session each year.
Q Were the sessions of that body held in Tahlequah, open to the public at all times when it was in session?
A Yes, sir.
Q Were the cases coming before that body heard in open session?
A Yes.
Q Witnesses examined orally? A Yes, sir.

Q Judgments of the Court or Commission pronounced in open session?
A In case of decisions I think they sometimes had secret sessions, yes, the judgments of the Commission were pronounced openly.
Q What you intended to convey by you answer to the former question was that after hearing the proof the Commission or Court deliberated in secret session upon the testimony taken before reaching a decision or announcing it? A After hearing all the testimony we went into secret session.
Q I will present you with a paper which the Notary will mark exhibit "A" and a copy of which he will attach to your deposition, and will ask you if with the exception of the certificate of record by H. L. Bragdon, Clerk, and John L. Adair Asst. Ex. Secretary, you recognize it as a paper you have ever seen before?
A I recognize the signature to it, but don't remember the instrument.
Q Which signature on that paper do you recognize? A My own.
Q That signature is in your own handwriting? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether Thomas Tehee, president of the Commission could write in English or not? A No, I don't think he could.
Q How as to Alexander Wolfe, a member of the Commission?
A I don't think he could write either, I don't think either of them ever wrote except by touching the pen.
Q Were you, and are you familiar with the handwriting of D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of that Commission?
A Tolerably well, but it has been a long time since I saw any of it.
Q Will you look at the paper again and say whether you recognize his signature attached thereto?
A Yes, that is his signature to the best of my knowledge.
Q Do you preserve any personal recollection of the application before that Commission of F. H. Dawson and other members of the Dawson family, to be admitted as citizens of he Cherokee Nation by the Commission?
A I remember F. H. Dawson and his brother, that is about the only ones I remember.
Q The question was not as to the personal recollection of the individuals, but as to the claim being presented by the Dawsons for admission?
A Yes, there was such a claim before the Commission.
Q Can you state as to the citizenship of Thomas Tehee, whether he was a citizen of the Nation by blood or not?
A Yes, sir, he was always recognized as such, full blood besides.
Q What is your knowledge of Alexander Wolfe?
A About the same, he was also a full blood and recognized as a Cherokee.
Q Judge Thompson, if you possessed or had, or have now any knowledge of any corruption or bribery of the court or Commission, or any member of it by F. H. Dawson or any of the Dawson family or anybody connected with the presentation of their claim for citizenship, state it fully?
A None whatever as far as I was concerned, and I don't think there was by the balance of the Court.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY W. T. HUTCHINGS:

Q Do you mean to say Mr. Thompson that your name attached to the certificate shown you is in your handwriting?
A Yes, sir.
Q Then Mr. Duncan certified that this is a transcript of the decision in the case, he is mistaken, that is the original?
A No, I don't know, that may be the original, if that is not the original I did not sign it, if it is the original I signed it.
Q You state that the witnesses were examined orally before the Court, don't you know that in almost every case you took ex parte affidavits of witnesses when these witnesses were not present?

A I think we ruled exparte evidence out, as well as I remember.
Q Did you have any stenographer or anybody to copy the evidence?
Mr. Duncan did all of the copying.
Q Was the evidence copied and preserved?
A Yes, sir, I think it was.
Q What was done with that evidence, where was any of it ever put?
A I suppose it is at Tahlequah in the office of the Treasurer or Secretary.
Q When you went into secret session did you have Mr. Duncan read that evidence to you?
A Yes, sir, we went over the evidence thoroughly.
Q Did you allow the applicants or their attorneys admission to any of your secret sessions?
No, sir.
Q When you got ready to render your decisions did you then send for the applicants or their attorneys?
A No, sir.
Q And you rendered them in secret also, did you? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any recollection who testified in the Dawson case, as to their claim? A No, sir, I have not.
Q Have you any recollection as to who they claimed their Cherokee ancestors were? A Yes, sir, they claimed the Rogers.
Q Did they claim relationship with any of the present families of Rogers residing in the Cherokee Nation?

The applicant objects to this question as tending to elicit testimony wholly incompetent and irrelevant to the issue, and not cross-examination of this witness.

A I don't know that they did, particularly.
Q How would your court determine when they claimed descent through some Rogers family, that that family was of Cherokee blood?

The applicant objects to the question upon the same grounds as their objection to the previous question.

A By the evidence they produced.
Q Didn't you make them prove that that family was well known at one time to be connected with the Cherokee Nation, and were citizens thereof? A Yes.
Q Who was the attorney for the Dawsons? A Old man Houston Benge.
Q Could either Tehee or Wolfe speak English? A They could understand, but they never spoke English, they had an interpretor.
Q Did you ever talk to either of them as to whether they got anything for deciding this case? A No, sir.
Q How long were you considering the case altogether?
A I could not say as to that, I think we were on it two or three weeks anyhow, I could not say positively now, they were a long time getting in testimony.
Q There were only two or three witnesses examined all told, were there not?
A I think so, three I think, they had quite a lot of affidavits, but we did not consider them.
Q Well the Court was a good while arriving at its conclusion after the evidence was closed?
A Yes, quite a good while, I don't remember the exact time.

RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION:

Q Do you remember who the interpretor the Commission had during the hearing of the Dawson case.
A His name was Reese, I forgot his given name.

Q Do you know whether he is living or dead?
A I don't know, he seemed to be in bad health at the time we had the case up, I think they are all dead but me and Mr. Duncan.
Q What was he, a Cherokee by blood?
A He was considered a Cherokee by blood.
Q Do you know where he lived at that time?
A No, sir, he lived in the South part of the Nation though, I think in Sequoyah.

My commission expires Feb 3rd, 1902.,

D. F. C. Duncan being produced by the applicants after being sworn to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY G. B. DENISON:

Q Please st to your name, age, residence and occupation?
A My name is D. F. C. Duncan, My age is 70 years, my residence is Vinita, Indian Territory, my occupation is a farmer.
Q How long has that been your place of residence? A Since 1874.
Q Are you a member of the Cherokee Nation as it is now constituted?
A Yes, sir.
Q Upon what is your citizenship based, a Cherokee by blood?
A Yes, a Cherokee by blood.
Q In January 1883, did you hold any official position in the Cherokee Nation, if so, what was it?
A About that time I held the position of Clark of the Citizenship Court or Commission.
Q If you remember the names of themembers of that Commission or Court, please give them?
A The President of the Commission was Tehee I believe, and a member by the name of Wolfe whose first name I do n t recollect, and Mr. Thompson here.
Q T. F. Thompson?
A Yes.
Q Do you know whether those three members of that Commission were recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and whether their citizenship was based upon blood or not?
A They were supposed to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation and their citizenship was based upon their blood.
Q Will you please look at the paper now handed you which the Notary has marked exhibit "A" to the deposition of Mr. T. F. Thompson, and a copy of which he will att ch to Mr. Thompson's depositions, and state whether with the exception of the certificate of H. L. Bragdon, Clerk, and of John L. Adair Asst. Ex. Secretary, you recognize the paper as one you have ever se n before?
A Yes, I think I have se n this before.
Q When, and where, if you re mber, did you first see that p per?
A This is a paper I drew up at the time I was acting as clerk of the said Citizenship Court.
Q L oking at its date, was it drawn at you at the time it bears date?
A To the best of my recollection it was drawn at the date specified.
Q Do you recognize the signature to the certificate attached to that paper?
A Yes, that is my signature.
Q State if you know, in whose handwriting the body of the paper is?
A It is in my hand riting.
Q And at that time you were Clerk of t at Co is ion? A Yes.
Q Will you please look at the signatures of the members of the Co ission as they appear on that paper, and state if you can, by whom they were written?
A I think the first two is my handwriting, the last I recognize that as T. F. Thompson's.
Q Explain please, how you came to write the sign tures of Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolfe to that paper?
A Thomas Tehee and Alex Wolfe were full bloods and could not write, and in their presence, and at their request I wrote their signatures.

Q Was that the usual manner of certifying to the action of the Commission to applicants as to the decision of their application for citizenship, where admitted?
A In all instances where it was necessary for the Court to sign a paper of any kind it was adopted by that Court for the Clerk to sign Tehee's and Wolf's names and T. F. Thompson to sign his own name.
Q You didn't catch exactly my idea, but perhaps that answered it, that I intended to call you attention to, was whether when applicants had been admitted to citizenship a paper of this kind now shown you, signed by the judges as you have explained, and certified by you as a transcript of the proceedings was issued?
A My recollection is that a transcript of the judgment was issued to the applicant when they were admitted at their request, the judgment was entered upon the record when they were admitted and signed by the judges, and whenever the transcript was delivered to the applicants I think it was signed by the judges.
Q Is your mind any knowledge at the time the application of the Dawson family, F. M. and others whose names are mentioned in that paper, was pending before that Commission, or before or after, of any corruption or bribery, or attempted corruption or bribery of the court or any of its officers, by F. M. Dawson, or any person connected in any manner with the claim of the Dawsons to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, state it fully?
A I never heard a thing of the kind, I know nothing of the kind, all that I have ever heard about a question of that kind is what has originated recently, since the enrollment business has been inaugurated

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY W. T. HUTCHINGS:

Q If as you certify, this paper was a transcript of the record, why did you have the judges sign it?
A I know no reason further than that was the practice at that time, the members of the Court being present I presume it was thought it would be as good or better than the signature of the Clerk.
Q Examine that signature of Mr. Thompson, examine the first T in his name and the T in Tehee's name and see if it is not all your own handwriting?
A No, I would not call that mine, there is a resemblance between the letters but I am satisfied it is a mere fortuity, accidant.
Q Have you the evidence taken in those cases?
A It was taken by the witness being present and detailing his knowledge of the case, I wrote it down sentence by sentence as it was delivered

Q Do you know whether that evidence is in existance or not?
A I do not, the last I saw of it was when I turned the records over to the Executive office at Tahlequah, and I have not seen it since
Q You say you never heard any talk about this being an improper case until very recently?
A Well, that would depend upon what you mean by recently, I don't think I ever heard of it prior to three years ago, I can safely say that and less.

Q Do you remember through what ancestor they claimed their right to citizenship here?

Objected to by applicants because the question tends to elicit testimony which is wholly incompetent and irrelevant, and because it is not proper cross-examination.

A They claimed their right of citizenship through a man by the name of Rogers, I don't recol ect his first name.
Q Do you know how many Rogers families there are who have citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A I do.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
INDIAN TERRITORY,
NORTHERN DISTRICT,

I, LEWIS T. MARTIN, a Notary Public in and for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, do certify that the foregoing depositions of T. F. Thompson and D. W. C. Duncan were taken before me at the time and place and in the action mentioned in the caption, and said T. F. Thompson and D. W. C. Duncan, having been first by me sworn that the evidence they should give in this matter should be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and that their statements were reduced to writing by me on the typewriter in their presence: the claimants being present in person and by their attorney G. B. Denison, and the Cherokee Nation being represented by W. T. Hutchings Esquire its attorney,.

Given under my hand this 4th day of October, A. D. 1900.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., March 17, 1902.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of FRANCIS M. DAWSON, ET AL., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

[illegible] having been set for final hearing March 17, 1902, the following proceedings were had:

APPEARANCES:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of counsel for applicants;
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hutchings: Comes now the Nation in the calling of this case and announces that it is ready for trial, provided that which is [illegible] before the Commission, a part of the [illegible] proposes to prove by the witness S. H. Benge, who has been regularly [illegible] this day and time [illegible] and who [illegible] this case and probably will be for some time to come. As evidence of a good faith of the Nation we hereby present an affidavit of the facts which ought to be proven by the said Benge. If the applicant's counsel are willing to concede that the witness if present would testify to the facts herein set forth, the Nation is ready to proceed to trial without reservation of any kind. If they are not it desires to reserve this privilege of hereafter, either therefore or otherwise, this case being set for to-day and tomorrow, of examining before the Commission, or its authorized officer, this witness as above set forth.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the introduction of the paper presented and do not admit that the witness, Samuel H. Benge if present would testify to the facts therein stated. They consent [illegible] that the testimony of said Benge be taken before the Commission at its office in Muskogee but not elsewhere and protest against it being taken at any other place, with the understanding, however, that when taken we have opportunity to introduce any evidence [illegible] material.

[illegible] pay all the expenses of the opposing counsel, [illegible] Commission officers in taking the deposition at [illegible]

Assistant U. S. Attorney Breckinridge: The allegations of this witness are material in their character and are quite tangent. The Commission of the Department would acquire information of the character if it knew it to exist anywhere. While the functions of the Commission, as well known are in many respects judicial yet it is bodied with somewhat complex powers, such as congress creates from time to time to the business of certain character, and it is ordered to make a correct roll, which is a duty largely independent of hearing [illegible] that is brought before them. It must be the architect and [illegible] that roll and if evidence is not [illegible] before the Commission it must go out and get it, it is uniform on that [illegible] of the law. The Commission, as before, desires this information independent of any counsel on either side both with respect to the applicant and to the Nation, and if this witness is is not able to come one of the Commissioners will go to Fort Gibson and to his bed-side, or send a Proper official, if necessary to take his testimony. The only matter to consider, therefore, is one of convenience with respect to getting this testimony. Now, I understand that this witness is an extreme sufferer from Bright's Disease he is an old man and he may never be able to get out of the house, and it may be an injustice to him to subject him to a trip here, and therefore it seems to me better that counsel for plaintiff submit to a form of taking a deposition or else accompany an official of this Commission over to Fort Gibson and let his testimony be taken there.

After consultation with the attorneys upon the two sides it is found to be agreeable that the parties start to Fort Gibson to-morrow morning at half past eight o'clock, and it is agreed then and directed with an official of the Commission with a stenographer leave from the office of the Commission for Fort Gibson at 8:30 to-morrow morning.

FRANCIS M. DAWSON, the applicant, re-called for additional cross-examination on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q What is your name? A Francis M. Dawson.
Q Where do you reside? A In Afton.
Q You have been examined in this case heretofore, have you?
A I don't know which case it is.
Q In your own case? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you the one that is commonly called Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q You made the original application in the Dawson family for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, didn't you? No, sir; my brother.
Q What was his name? A A. E. Dawson.
Q You and Robert Dawson and Elbert Dawson and others applied September 24, '81, about that time? A Yes, sir.
Q And you were admitted about the 11th of January '83? A Yes, sir.
Q There were other members of your family that applied and were admitted after that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you or not remember the evidence offered in theirs to substantiate their cases was the relationship between yourself and Robert and others and the evidence of your admission by the Tehlequah Court. In all the subsequent admissions I mean the only evidence offered was the fact that you and your brothers had been admitted before and that they were kin to you; what was the only evidence offered in any subsequent cases, wasn't it; so far as you know?
A That is afterwards?
Q Yes, afterwards? A I think there was some other evidence introduced.
Q Don't you know that there was never any evidence offered in any other case except evidence of Dr. Baker of Arkansas? A Yes, sir.
Q Who else? A Oliver Miller.
Q Who was Oliver Miller; the records in this case have been destroyed and mutilated? A Oliver Miller, Oliver Miller.
Q What was he, who was he? A He is an Indian, was an Indian.
Q Well, what station in life did he occupy; was he a farmer?
A Yes, sir, farmer.
Q Were you present when he testified? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you present when Dr. Baker testified? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you a fair recollection of the testimony of those two men?
A No, not at all.
Q You don't read do you, Mr. Dawson? A No, sir, I dont read nor write; I can barely write my name.
Q Do you think you would remember the testimony of Dr. Baker if your mind was refreshed on it? A Part of it I think.
Q Were you present when you were admitted? A I was not in the room.
Q You were in Tahlequah at the time? A I was in the town of Tahlequah at the time.
Q I will read this paer to you and desire for you ro say whether or not it was the testimony of Dr. Baker in your case:
(Affidavit of Dr. Arthur Baker read to witness, and asked to be copied in the record later.)
Q Is that the correct transcript of the testimony? A It has been so long ago, I could not say; a part of it is, I could not remember it all.
Q Does that state the facts as to the family history correctly so far as you know about it? A So far as I know.
Q Now, you were a son of what Dawson? A Robert Dawson.
Q How many children did Robert Dawson have, and give me their names?
A Elbert Dawson, the oldest; Lila, Jesper, Francis Marion-
Q That is yourself? A Yes, sir; Elizabeth Dawson, Josephine Dawson, John Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, James Dawson, Edna Dawson, Mollie Dawson, Wilburn Dawson.
Q Thirteen? (No response.)
Q Now, Rober Dawson's father was whom? A Sam Dawson.
Q Who was Sam Dawson's wife, your grandmother? A I have been told.
Q By family history is all you know? A She was called Polly Dawson.
Q Who was Anna Pruitt? A I don't know.
Q Never heard of anybody in the family by the name of Anna Pruitt? A No, sir, that was away back in the old country; I have heard talk about it, old Dr. Baker talked about it.
Q Your grand-mother's name was Polly Dawson? A Yes, sir; I don't remember seeing her but once, she died when I was small, died in Texas.
Q Pollie Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q And she was known to be Pollie Rogers, her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q Daughter of Captain John Rogers? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, she died in Texas what time? A I don't remember.
Q Can't you guess at it? A Oh, I could guess.
Q Give your best recollection? A About '58 or '59, or no, '48 or '49; I don't say positive, just guessing at it.
Q How old a boy were you then? A I was born in '42.
Q Have you any distinct recollection of her? A No, sir.
Q Have you any recollection of all the children of Sam and Pollie Dawson; that is, your father, uncles and Aunts? I didn't see all of them.
Q Do you know by family history the names of all of them? A Yes, sir.
Q Will you give them to me?
A Betsy Ann Dawson, I believe her name was.
Q Did she marry a Petty? A Yes, sir; the next is Robert Dawson.
Q Your father? A Yes, sir.
Q Next one? A I think the next was James Dawson, and I think the next one was a girl, Edna Dawson.
Q Did he have two daughters? A Yes, sir.
Q Well sir? A The next one was Joe Dawson; I never saw him; Riley Dawson.

Q That is Samuel R. Dawson, Riley Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Any other one? A That is all I know anything about.
Q Did he have any child by the name of John? A Yes, Jack.
Q Didn't you get Jack misplaced with Joe? A No, it was Joe; I have heard my father speak of him.
Q Then they have seven children? A I never saw them all.
Q How many of them did you ever see? A I saw Uncle Riley Dawson and James Dawson and Jack Dawson and Betsy Ann Penny; I don't think I saw but one of Pa's sisters and brother, they went to Mississippi I heard.
Q Do you know what your family history says that the mother of your grandfather, Pollie Rogers' name was? A We have no history.
Q Well, as it was brought down to you; did you ever hear anybody say what your great grandmother's name was? A No, I don't remember.
Q What is that other man, Oliver Millerthat testified in your case? A I testified in James Dawson's case; he never testified in my father's case.
Q Well, didn't anybody testify in your case but Dr. Baker? A Yes, sir, several other witnesses.
Q Who were they? A I don't remember; my mother got them witnesses around Tahlequah, old people.
Q Were you present? A No, sir.
Q You were only present when Dr. Baker testified? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you find any mistakes in Dr. Baker's statement there? A I could not say all of that was correct or not, part of it is correct.
Q What part is correct? A My about knowing the family over there.
Q Who is Buck Dawson? A My brother.
Q What is his name? A We always called him Buck, it is Elbert, E. Dawson.
Q Who went with you the first time you went up to make application for citizenship do you remember? A With my brother.
Q The first time? A I met my brother in Texas.
Q Which one? A E. Dawson.
Q That is Elbert or Buck? A Yes, sir.
Q You were living in Arkansas? A Yes, sir.
Q And he was living in Texas? A Yes, sir, and another one of little brothers, Dr. Dawson now:
Q Dr. Dawson now? A Yes, sir.
Q What is his name? A James.
Q And you three went there? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants by their counsel object to all the statement of this witness relating to the testimony introduced before the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, and the history of the family as detailed by him, because the same is incompetent and irrelevant, and cannot be used for the purpose of impeaching the integrity of the judgment of said Commission, or either of the Commissioners in admitting members of the Dawson family.

Commission: The objection of the Attorney for the applicants to the testimony above will be noted. The same will be filed and noted for what it is worth.

(Attorney for applicants waives examination.)

C. H. TAYLOR, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A O. H. Taylor.
Q Where do you reside, Mr. Taylor? A Near Collierville.
Q Were you an attorney before various citizenship Courts along in '21 to '23 in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you attorney for F. M. Dawson commonly known as Bud Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you present at the taking of testimony in that case? A No, sir: I wasn't present.
Q Do you know who composed the court that decided the case at that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Who were they? A Tom Tehee and Alex Wolfe and Tommy Thompson.
Q Do you know whether or not they were all there when the case was decided? A No, sir, there were only two of them present.
Q Which two? A Tehee and Wolfe.
Q Who was the Clerk of the Court at that time? A Mr. Duncan, D. W. C. Duncan.
Q Do you know what witnesses were used in the case of Bud Dawson? A No, sir; now I was the attorney in the case and the evidence had already been filed before the Court.
Q When were you made attorney? A I was only called in as an attorney at the— Well, Mr. Bryant came down there, and Mr. Bryant had the case and several other attorneys had the case and he employed me.
Q Did you read the evidence in this case? A No, sir.
Q Did you deliver any money? A Now, I was the attorney in the case and I don't think it would be right for me to make any statement.
Q Now, you have claimed your privilege, I ask that you answer the question? Did Dawson ever send you any money with the direction to pay it to either member of the Court or the Clerk of the Court, D. W. C. Duncan, and if so state the amount? A I had a heap of trouble over this matter.—

Commission: Just answer the question, Mr. Taylor.

A Being the attorney I don't believe it is right for me to answer that question.

Commission: Do you refuse to answer? A Yes, sir.

Q Did the matter to which you object to testifying occur prior to the rendition of the decision admitting to citizenship or afterwards? (No response)

COMMISSIONER BRECKINRIDGE:

Q Do you desire to reply to the last question? A I don't think it is right; I was attorney in the case.
Q Mr. Taylor, do you object to answering that question? A Yes, sir.
Q You refuse to answer that question, do you? A I had rather not say or it.

Q Either answer it or say you won't answer it? A I had rather not answer it.
Q Mr. Taylor, you have answered a number of questions down to this point, but it is at this point that you prefer to plead your privileges, as an attorney, do you? A Yes, sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The power in regard to these matters is lodged in the United States. The Court is clothed with special power with reference to matters which arise through this Commission. Of course the Commission desires and the Government needs for the making of a correct roll the fullest information possible, but it is subject to the limitation of law, and it is not for this Commission to decide of the law in a matter of this character with any authority as I understand it at this time, but to report the matter to the United States Court and let the Court pass upon.

Under Section 21 of the Curtis law as it is commonly called Act of June 28 1898, the members of the Commission shall in performing all duties required of them by law, have authority to administer oaths, examine witnesses and send for papers and persons, and the court is clothed with authority to enforce obedience. The law having enumerated certain powers goes on to say so far as all others are concerned to enable said Commission to make rolls as herein required, and to punish anyone who may in any manner or by any means obstruct said work. Now, the Commission will report the facts to the United States Court and let the Court decide whether or not you are within your lawful privilege. It seems that you refuse to answer questions, or at least one question, which tends to establish as to whether or not you are claiming what what is commonly considered a matter of privilege--according to an authority referred to by an attorney, but the enforcement of an answer seems clearly to be a matter for the Court to deal with.

Q Now, Mr. Taylor, in regard to the last question asked you by Mr. Hutchings, one of the Counsel for the Cherokee Nation, I direct that you make answer, and if you refuse I shall report the matter to the United States Court: do you refuse? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, you have read to you, Mr. Taylor, the first of the two questions propounded to you by Mr. Hutchings, and which you declined at the time to make answer; viz; as to whether Mr. Dawson sent you money to pay to the Court or to any officials of the Court, it seems to come to the question as to whether there was any collusion between you and Mr. Dawson and any member of the Court; now, I understand that you refuse to answer that question upon the grounds that you were Mr. Dawson's attorney? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, I require that you answer that question, do you refuse?
A Yes, sir.
Q I shall also report that refusal to the United States Court as it seems to come under the provision of law, relating to conspiracy between you and Mr. Dawson which apparently considered a privilege matter, and you base your refusal now, not upon the ground that you are incriminating yourself, but that you were counsel for Mr. Dawson. I will report the matter to the Court and you will be informed at the time of any proceedings in the matter I caution you not to talk with Mr. Dawson or may of the applicants in this case.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants do not object and have not objected to the witness answering on account of his privilege as an attorney or for any other cause whatever, they only want to object to the incompetence and irrelevancy of the testimony, with the privilege of cross-examining upon any testimony given by the witness.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE:
Q You still refuse having the consent of the attorneys in the case to make answer? A I will just ask your Honor to let the matter go over until morning.

Commissioner Breckinridge: It will rest until in the morning at its present status: it is after business hours now.

As for the objection made by Captain McKennon, Counsel for the applicant, it will be taken into consideration, but will not be granted at the present.

(The Commission adjourns until 1:30 P. M. to-morrow afternoon, March 13, 1902.)

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of FRANCIS M. DAWSON ET AL., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of Counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

SAMUEL H. BENGE, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Samuel H. Benge.
Q Where do you reside? A Fort Gibson.
Q How old are you? A I am 70 years old, going in 71.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; Cherokee by blood.
Q State what official position you have held in the Cherokee Nation and what your general connection with the Nation officially in the last 40 years? A Well, I held several; I have been Sheriff, Councilman, Senator, Delegate to Washington; had a hand in making the treaty of 1866, I am the only one living that signed that treaty; President of the National Council of different tribes of Indians.
Q Were you acquainted with F. M. Dawson, commonly called Fred. Dawson? A Yes, sir; I knew him.
Q State you connection with and what you know about his citizenship case before what is known as the Thomas Tehee Citizenship Court? A Mr. Dawson came down, I was living down below here, he come and employed me to send to his case and we went to Tahlequah, I believe if I ain't mistaken in 1881 and filed his case there; we went several times and continued his case on for the want of evidence, and finally while we was up there we run across one old darkey by the name of Tosh Rogers; we got his testimony and after we got that testimony we concluded that it was sufficient to go into the trial with. Tosh lived here at Fort Gibson, he was a horse trainer down here and stayed here; he claimed that he knew the Rogers and belonged to one of them and after what we thought we had sufficient evidence we submitted our case to the Court for trial, and the Court went to work and rendered a decision against Mr. Dawson.
I told Mr. Dawson right there that "our cake is dough", just made that remark, and he just made the remark "never mind", and next morning they taken up his case again and they rendered a decision in his favor. I filed no motion nor any evidence at all whatever; I give the case up right there and the decision was then given in his favor, and on our way back from Tahlequah, why we got to talking about the case and I told him: "it was a pretty hard blow when they rendered that decision against us." He said: "yes, but Duncan was the man to reach", but he reached him with five hundred dollars.
Q What position did Duncan occupy? A He was a Clerk of the Court.
Q Duncan an educated man or-? Yes, sir; he was an educated man.
Q Who were the members of the Court? A Tom Tehee, Alex Wolfe and Tom Thompson.
Q How many of those could speak English at all? A One.
Q Which one? A Thompson.
Q Who was the Attorney that represented the Nation in those cases? A Ned Sanders.

Q What was his given name? A Wilson Sanders; was it Wilson Sanders?
A Wilson Sanders.
Q Was he an educated man, or could speak English well? A No, sir.
Q Did Mr. Dawson say anything about the matters having cost him a good deal of money? A He said it had cost him a right smart.
Q Was any remark made on the way back about the opening up of the case, and if so, what? A He asked me if I thought the case was ever investigated eventially and I told him I didn't know.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Were you ever a witness in the Dawson case, Judg , in any of those investigations that have been made since that time? A I don't know that you might call it a witness; that young man came to me once at Tahlequah, and asked me to help him up there that the case was going against him, him and his mother and all was about knocked out and I interceded and done what I could there before the Committee. I was not a witness but that is at I don't for him.
Q That was Mr. Graham, wasn't it? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you had conversations with Mr. Graham since that time about it? A Now, I might, I don't recollect, I might have had conversations with him.
Q Well, after the Daves Commission began taking a census of the Cherokees and when they were about Sallisaw down here, did you have a conversation with him here in Fort Gibson about the matter?
A Now, I just can't tell you; I have seen him on several occasions, but the conversations we might have had I can't state.
Q To refresh your memory I will ask you if he did not tell you that they were making a fight on the Dawson family and he wanted to know of you whether that judgment in favor of Robert Dawson's family was fairly rendered, and did you not then tell him that it was all right, that it was fairly obtained? A Not as I recollect of; all he was; that is as I have stated he talked to me in regard to his mother, himself and probably his brothers and sisters, I don't recollect how many there were, but he told me they were rejected, that is just the words he used.
Q When? A It has been sometime ago.
Q Here in Fort Gibson? A Well, that is I saw him here in Fort Gibson, and then I saw him in Tahlequah.
Q Well, did he here in Fort Gibson ask you particularly about the Robert Dawson judgment, as to whether it was fairly obtained or not?
A No, sir; he was basing his claim on the Dawson case, that is the way he-
Q That is the principal Dawson family? A Yes.
Q When was this other written statement here made, when was this made by you? (referring to affidavit heretofore referred to.)
A Yesterday I reckon.
Q Who came to take this? A Mr. Starr.
Q Who else was present when this was taken? A No, sir.
Q Whom had you told about this matter, Judge? A No one as I know of.
Q Do you know how it was that they knew that you knew this?
A No, sir.
Q You never made any statement? A Never made any statement that I recollect of except I might have talked with Scales, he and him talked about these cases a good many times; if I ever made a statement it was to Joe Ab Scales.
Q How did Mr. Starr know? A I could not tell you how Mr. Starr knew.

Q He came alone here as a Notary Public? A He came alone here as a Notary Public. All he said when he come, he says "we understand that you know something in regard to these cases", I said " what case," and he went to work and named Shoemake case and Dawson case.
Q And thereupon you made this tatement? A He said he wanted to qualify me.
Q Are you certain Judge that after the rendition of tat judgment Mr. Dawson came back here to Fort Gibson with you?
A Yes, sir; we was together.
Q Let me ask you if it was not a very cold day when he came here and he went over ahead of you and you went over to Tahlequah the next day or two after he left? A My recollection was he and I went together.
Q And returned here together? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he not leave you there and go back direct to Arkansas?
A No, sir, we came here together. If my memory serves me right, I might be mistaken but then I don't believe I am, he came from Watts Mills up here to my house, that is according to his statement.
Q What amount of fee did they pay you? A I don't know as that is in connection with the case whatever the money they paid me.
Q How did they pay you? A Paid me the money.
Q Who paid it to you? A Dawson there and that fellow, young fellow with me some.
Q Mr. Graham? A Yes.
Q At the same time? A Oh, no, he wanted me to intercede for him at Tahlequah and paid me to do something for him which I did.
Q I will ask you if Mr. F. M. Dawson here did not obtain two copies of the judgment one of which you sent in a letter in which you wrote to his brother living in Texas and that brother in Texas, the one they called Buck, didn't send you $50 that they paid you? A No, I never got a letter of Buck whatever you might call him, I don't recollect it and if I ever got a nickel from him I don't recollect it. Old man paid me what money I got from it. I don't know nothing about his brothers; he told me he had an uncle living over i Arkansas, but not living down in Texas, I don't know about it.
Q Where did he pay you the money? A Paid it here at home.
Q Before you went out? A He paid me fifty dollars before we went up and when we went up yonder he paid me fifty dollars more; if you want to know what I got, I got one hundredn dollars.
Q You were acting as his attorney in the case? A Yes, sir.
Q How many judges were there present when the judgment was rendered? A In his case?
Q Yes, sir. A Well, according to my recollect there was all there, but if they were not all there, Tom Thompson was sick. Rehor and Wolfe.
Q Don't you remember that they were all present? A No, I think they were present though.
Q Who else was present at the time? A Oh, I could not tell you, there were several people in the house; could not tell you at all.
Q Were there several in the house the evening before the judgment was rendered against them as you say? A Yes, there were several in the room.
Q Were several in the house when the judgment was rendered the next day? A I don't know how many there was.
Q Do you remember the names of any of them? A Why not exactly, mostly full bloods.
Q How long didyou remain out at Tahlequah on that trip?
A I guess I was there about three days.

Q Tending to this case alone, or did you have other cases? A no, sir.
Q Do you know of your own knowledge that the judges received any money (this question asked at the instance of Mr. Graham present) A I don't know whether the judges received nay or not.

---oooOOOooo---

I, J. O. Rosson, do hereby certify upon my official oath as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that I correctly recorded the testimony had this day in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) J. O. Rosson.

March 18, 1902. Commission convened pursuant to adjournment.

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of counsel for applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

C. H. TAYLOR takes the stand and continues his testimony.

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Mr. Taylor, you said you would consider the matter yesterday and let us know whether you would answer those questions today; have you decided what you would do about the matter? A Well, it is like this, of course I don't want to be held as in contempt of the Court.
Q You would be held in contempt and the other Court would make you answer? A That being he case of course I would make a statement.
Q Are you acquainted with D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of what is known as the Tehee Citizenship Commission Court? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you ever have any conversation with him about letting him know of the different character of cases that would come up before the Court that you knew of, whether they were good ones or bad ones? A No, the only thi g that ever come up in that respect; he asked me if whatever large cases that would come up before the Court to let him know.
Q Did you have any talk with him about the Dawson case during the progress of its trial or before and ever introduced Mr. F. M. Dawson to him, or carry him to him? A I spoke to him when Mr. Dawson came to Tahlequah to see about his case, and he said that he would take the papers over to his room, the Dawson papers.
Q Did you see him again that night? A Yes, sir; after supper I went down to his room.
Q Did he ask you about the Dawsons or Dawson case? A He asked me where Dawson was.
Q Which Dawson are you referring to now, F. M. Dawson, known as Bud Dawson? A Bud Dawson.
Q Well, what didyou reply to him? A I told him that I thought he had gone to church.
Q Did you find Dawson after church? A Yes, sir, he told me to come and bring Dawson down and I did so; Dawson was in church.
Q You carried Dawson to him? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you remain during the conversation? A Only a minute.
Q What was said if anything while you were present? A Mr. Duncan spoke to Mr. Dawson and says "there is a hitch in your evidence."
Q Go ahead and state what else he said? A He said "if that was straightened out it would be all right," and I turned and went away, I says, "gentlemen, I will go home."
Q Did you know of their having any other conversation or communication after that? A No, sir.
Q You left them there together yourself? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Mr. Dawson give you any directions the next morning about submitting the case? A Yes, sir, he asked me to call it up the case.
Q The next morning? A Yes, sir.
Q Had there been any additional evidence offered? A No, sir; there was not additional testimony offered.
Q He told you the next morning to call up the case? A Yes, sir.
Q Was it called up and submitted the next morning? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, how many of the members of the Court were there present that morning? A There were only two, two full-blood Indians.
Q Could they speak english at all? A Tehee could talk a little, talk some.
Q Did that Court have open sessions all the time or what is called executive sessions sometimes? A Well, I don't remember about that; it was generally when the case was submitted the attorneys would go out. The parties would go out and they would determine the case.
Q Well, did they go out into that sort of executive session the next morning on the Dawson case? A Well, we went out when the case was submitted.
Q And was the decision rendered that morning in their favor?
A Yes, sir.
Q Who notified you of the decision of the Court? A Why, Mr. Dawson.
Q Do you remember whether he went out with you or was in there during the consideration of the case? A I think he went out with me.
Q Did you at any time thereafter receive any money, checks or other evidence money from Mr. Dawson with direction to turn it in part over to D. W. C. Duncan, the Clerk of that Court? A Mr. Dawson gave me 20 dollars and said he would send the balance in a short time, said he would send some more money in a short time.
Q Well, did he send any money afterwards? A Yes, sir, in the course of ten days or two weeks he send a hundred dollar check, draft.
Q What did he direct you to do with it? A He directed me to give D. W. C. Duncan half of it.
Q Did you give him half of it? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he send you any at any other time after that? A Well, in the course of a couple of weeks he sent me a hundred dollars more.
Q Did he direct you to turn any of that and if so how much, to L. W. C. Duncan? A He told me to give him half of it,
Q Did you give him half of it? A I did, sir.
Q Do you remember whether on Dr. Arthur Baker was the principal witness in behalf of the Dawson case? A No, sir, I don't because I never had any connection with the case, but I heard that he was a witness in the case.
Q No argument was made when you submitted the case? A No, sir.
Q Just submitted it on the testimony? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKINNON:

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you born and reared in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir; I was born in the old Nation.

Q When did you come to the Cherokee Nation? A Came here in 1898.
Q How long have you been practicing law in the Cherokee Nation?
A I think since '08.
Q You have done a great deal of citizenship business haven't you?
A Yes, sir.
Q You were in the United States Court at Fort Smith on charges in regard to the citizenship business? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you convicted there? A Yes, sir; I was convicted there on this very case.
Q And served a term of what length? A I was sent to the jail hospital for sixty days and I stayed in about 38 or 39 days, and I was released.
Q When was that? A I don't remember how long ago it has been.
Q You say it was in regard to this case? A Yes, sir; this case was the bone of contention; Clem Rogers and the Chief, they are the ones that had me arrested, carried to Fort Smith.
Q Well, now, were you charged with an offense against the law in this case, or was it in regard to some other case? A Well, it was in regard to using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q Sending out propositions and obtaining case for citizenship for people [illegible] Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, it was for answering correspon[illegible].
Q Not relating to this case at all? A Well, this was the main charge, Clem Rogers went before the Court there and stated that I had got in at least three hundred Dawsons, that they were white people and not entitled to citizenship and that was the main trouble.
Q Well, now, was the charge based upon that or was it based upon your letters you sent out to other people? A That was the charge for using the mail for fraudulent purposes.
Q The use of the mails for fraudulent purposes not in connection of this case was it? A Not particular of this case.
Q Then the trouble you had was the prejudice of Clem Rogers and others caused by your connection with the Dawson case; that is what you mean to say? A Yes, sir.
Q Why did you say because you were charged with an offense based upon this case? A Well, the prejudice grew out of this case.
Q Now, then, you had full conversation with the representatives of the Cherokee Nation as to your testimony in this case, did you not before you came on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q You had told them of these particulars before you came on the witness stand did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q Yet when you came on the stand you assumed to have conscientious scruples as to answering as to matters which occured between you and your client, Bud Dawson, in relation to this matter and declined to answer claiming your privilege as an attorney did you not? A Yes, sir; I didn't want to make a statement at all in the matter.
Q You had voluntarily made a statement to the representatives of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; I had stated to Mr. Hastings; he summoned me and I came down here and I didn't want to make a statement to him but he insisted.
Q He had no power to compel you to make a statement? A No, sir.
Q You could then make it very freely and your conscience did not hurt you, but when you came on the stand you were very conscientious about it? A I didn't want to make a statement at all unless I would be put in jail here if I didn't.
Q But you had armed them with information by which they could ask you those questions when you came on the stand? A I had told Mr. Hastings.

Q You knew when you gave him that information that you would be brought on the stand as a witness, did you not, by reason of that? A No, I didn't know that I would be compelled to make a statement in the matter, a sworn statement.
Q You thought you would not be compelled to answer?
A I didn't think the law would compel me to make a statement.
Q Why then did you make a statement to him about it? A Oh, he was asking me about it, and I told him that I didn't want to make a statement, and I didn't for quite a while after I came down here.
Q When the enrollment division of the Dawes Commission was in Tahlequah, in the winter of 1900, did you not there meet P. M. Dawson and did you not then and there say to him "I told Shoemake I would be for him if he would employ me in his case and if he didn't I would be against him, and the same to you?" A No, sir; I said to him this; I says that if there is not something done that I will likely be summoned against you and Mr. Shoemake both.
Q What did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant this, I just left the matter with him to say what he wanted to do in the matter; I only spoke a word or two about it. I was going out of town just as he came in.
Q When you told him if something was not done you would be summoned as a witness against him; what did you mean by that? A Well, I just meant that the chances were that the Nation would summon me against him.
Q What did you mean by the expression "if there was not something done" that you would be summoned as a witness?
A Well, I meant this, if I was re-employed in the matter if he was to have a case and I was re-employed I would not be required.

Q You could be required to make a statement as to declarations made to you by your client to you on one instance, but if a little more money was put up you could not be required to make a statement; is that what you mean? A I didn't think I could be forced to make a statement at all in the matter.
Q Why did you make that expression to him "if something wasn't done you might be summoned as a witness" if you believed you could not be made to make a statement? A I meant if I was employed in the case.
Q If he would put up you would not testify? A That they could not force me to testify.
Q About the month of February, 1901, in the town of Wagoner, Indian Territory, did you not send your son to get Graham to come to the hotel at night, and did you not then and there say to Gid Graham; "you people are on the doubtful list and if you will give me $500. I will make it all right and say that you are enrolled and if you don't I will so that you don't get on"? A No, sir; I got a letter from Gid Graham in which he asked me to certify that the case was all right and after I met him I told him that I could not do it, that the case was crooked. He then said to me, he says, "I will give you a hundred dollars", he says "will you take a hundred dollars," I said "no, sir." I didn't make any bid, that is I didn't set no price with him.
Q You did not say to him that you were embarrassed in that question there? A No, sir.
Q You did have a conversation with him about that time and at that place, did you not? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you didn't make any bid or set any price? A No, sir; he offered me a hundred dollars.
Q Why did you send for him to come to the hotel? A In answer to his letter.

A Did you not on yesterday morning on the street in Muskogee, Indian Territory, in a conversation with W. M. Shoemake say to him: "You have made a great mistake in not keeping in your employment and so have the Dawsons and it will go hard with you and you will see it"? No, sir; I says to Mr. Shoemake, I says: "Who have you employed in your case," and he says "Judge Thomas and Mr. Green." I said "It might have been a advantage to you if you had retained me in your matter;" Well, he says "there was nothing wrong in my case" and I says "no, there is nothing wrong on earth in your case that I know of." He said all he wanted was justice and I said "I don't know a thing on earth against you," and I says "there is not a thing on earth wrong in your case as I know it came up fairly and squarely and decided in your favor."

Q You said nothing to him about the Dawson case? A Yes, I said to him "it might have been well if the Dawsons had retained me in their case." I said "I am summoned on the part of the Nation and I don't want to make a statement and I want if I can possible avoid it."

Q Was that before or after you talked with Mr. Hastings, the representative of the Nation? A It was afterwards.

Q You meant by that if you had refused to answer you would have gone to jail? A No, sir; if they had employed me before I mean I mean not now.

Q You mean that if they had employed you before hand you would not have given this information to Mr. Hastings? A I would not be required, being the attorney.

Q Were you required to give him the information; did you know that you had to give him any information? A Who do you mean.

Q Mr. Hastings. A I did refuse him and he insisted.

Q Well, he no authority to compel you to do it? A No, sir; I don't know whether he did or not.

Q As a lawyer you knew that he did not have authority to compel you to make a statement to him? A I told him that I was an attorney in the case and I didn't want to make any statement at all.

Q Why did you do it? A Well, he intimated to me it would go any further. He said to me "I will not make this matter — I will not use it;" that is, what I stated to him was part in confidence.

Q And he pledged you his word that it would not be used? A Well, told him I could make a statement in confidence, and that I didn't want to make a statement before the Court.

Q Well, what did he reply, as you said just now? A Oh, he says make the statement and then I told him—I regretted very much to do it, and I regret very much to make a statement here. I tried to avoid it yesterday.

Q You stated just now that he said it would not be used; did he say it or not? A Well, something to that amount; oh, he says it won't make any difference or something to that effect.

Q Now, don't you know that Mr. Hastings did not intimate to you that the statement he was asking you to make would not be used? A Well, I didn't think that I would be forced to make a qualified statement before the Court here, because I thought my license would protect me in that matter.

Q Yet it did not protect you or prevent you from making a statement to the attorneys for the Nation? A No, sir.

Q You, in this conversation with Shoemake to which I before referred did you not ask him to again employ you and tell him if it would you would make it all right for him? A No, sir; I didn't say that; no, I said if we had employed me in the matter "maybe it would have been better for you." Now, he offered me when I was down here last week, he offered me five dollars to go down and talk to the lawyers on the matter, I didn't go I was busy.

Q That was not your price? A No, no, I had nothing to say in his case that would be to his advantage; I knew nothing against him.
Q Now, then, you say that your were present on the morning that the judgment was rendered in favor of the Dawsons? A I was not in the Court house.
Q You were present in Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q How long had you been at Tahlequah? A I was living there at that time.
Q When were you first employed by them? A By Dawsons?
Q Yes, sir. A The evening before the case was tried.
Q You say that after he judgment was rendered Dawson handed you $20? A Yes, sir.
Q And told you to hand to Duncan? A No, sir.
Q What was your statement? A That he paid me $20 and says "I will send you some more in a short time, week or so.
Q And then he sent you $100? A Yes, sir.
Q And wrote you to give D. W. C. Duncan $50 of it? A Yes, sir.
Q And then sent you another $100 and told you to give him half of it? A Yes, sir.
Q How much did they pay you? A Well, that was the agreement, was that he would pay me $50 a family.
Q How much did he pay you? A I think there was $250; now I am not sure about the $50, but it appears to me like there was a $50 sent, and Mr. Duncan asked me, as well as I remember, says "have you got a letter from Dawson," I told him "yes, sir." It was either that or the $100, and he says "I would like to have some money", and I went to Stapler's and got it changed-- I won't be sure about it being $50 or $100--I went to Stapler's and got him to cash the check and give him his part of it.
Q How much did they pay you for your services? A That is all I got.
Q How much? A I think it was $100, $120.
Q What did you do for them? A Didn't do a thing; only called up the case and submitted it; never read the evidence.
Q Submitted it without remarks? A Yes, sir.
Q And for that you say they paid you $120? A Yes, sir; $120.
Q Was Houston Benge present when that was done? A No, sir; I don't think he was.
Q Did you see him then at that time in Tahlequah? A I don't remember.
Q Were you associated with him in any manner in connection with the case? A No, sir.
Q You had a great deal of business of that character, have you before the Courts? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you paid like fees in other cases for like services? A Yes, sir.
Q In many of them? A Yes, sir, good many.
Q All like cases? A Oh, citizenship cases.
Q When was it you were in jail at Fort Smith? A I don't remember: Mr. LaFlette can remember, he was there, he was my attorney.
Q Was it about 1893? A It was somewhere along there, along in 1890 somewhere.
Q That has been your principal business as a lawyer, has it not? A Yes, sir.
Q You have never practiced much in any other way have you? A Very little.
Q Were you in the habit of working your cases through in the same manner in which you state you worked this through? A No, sir.

Q This was an exception was it? A I never worked this case through. I simply called the case up by request of Mr. Dawson. I read the evidence; don't know what proof there was in it; he just asked me to call the case up.
Q And he agreed to pay you $50 a family for doing that? A Yes, sir.
Q Was that what you required of him? A That is what he agreed to pay. I says "What will you give?" He says "I will give you $50 a family.

MR. MCKENNON:

Q At the same time that the attorney for the Nation was talking to you about the Dawson case he also made inquiries about the Shoemake case didn't he? A Yes, sir.
Q And you told him at that time before you knew anything about whether you would be made or compelled to testify that so far as you knew there was nothing you knew detrimental to the Shoemake case? A Yes, sir; that is what I said.
Q You told him at the same time that you not only expected to claim you privilege as an attorney in the case, but that you told him, Mr. Hastings, with the full belief that the Court would sustain your position? A Yes, sir.

Mr. McKennon: That is very leading.

Q Now, did you think that the re-employment, being the attorney in the pending case would strenthen your position or weaken it, when you spoke to Mr. Dawson? A What I thought in the matter was before ever I would be summoned in the matter, a long time ago, that if I had been employed in the matter of course my position would have been such that I would not have been required or could not have been forced.
Q Did you think under those circumstances that Mr. Hastings would approach you about the subject? A No, sir; I don't think I would be forced to, having license to practice law.
Q Did Mr. Hastings tell you at the time that he was going to put you on the stand? A Yes, sir.
Q And let the Court decide? A Yes, sir.

MR. MCKENNON:

Q Now, have you a license to practice in the United States Courts?
A Yes, sir.
Q In the Territory? A Yes, sir.
Q And also in the Indian Courts? A Yes, sir; do you want to see them?

JAMES T. LEWIS, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your anem please? A J. W. Lewis.
Q James W. Lewis? A Yes, sir.
Q Where is your postoffice, Mr. Lewis? A Afton.
Q How old are you? A 73 years old.
Q What is your business ? A I work at the tin business and gun work.
Q Do you know one James Dawson, the brother of S. M. Dawson and the other Dawsons? A I know old man James Dawson.
Q That is the one I mean, old man James Dawson? A Yes, sir; I know him.
Q How long have you known him? A Well, some four or five years, I guess.
Q How long? A Four or five years I think.

Q When did you come to the country? A I have been in the country 70 odd years.
Q Well, when did he come to the country, do you know? A About somewhere in eighty if I recollect right, might have been later than that.
Q How did you happen to be acquainted with? A He lived right close by me and I built a house for him.
Q Did you have any conversation with him at the time you built that house? A Yes, several different times.
Q About how he became a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, about the circumstances? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he make any statement to you about the use of money in getting his citizenship, and if so, state what he said?
A Well, he told me that it cost him $700 to get his rights.
Q Didn't tell you to whom he paid it? A No, he didn't and I didn't ask any questions.

MR. McKENNON:

Q How old was he at that time, do you know? A I do not know exactly, must have been somewheres near about 70 years old, he might have been older than that, I don't know.
Q He was a very old and feeble man? A Yes, he was old and feeble.
Q He seldom ever got out away from his house? A No, sir, only short distance.
Q When you first knew him he was that kind of man? A Yes, sir.

J. L. CLINKENBEARD, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A J. L. Clinkenbeard.
Q What is your post office address? A Vinita.
Q How old are you? A 56.
Q Were you ever an applicant for citizenship before the Tehee Citizenship Court in Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q About what time was that? A September '81, I think.
Q Did you meet there about that time, one Elbert or Buck Dawson?
A Yes, sir.
Q How did you happen to meet him? A He and I stopped at the same place, man's by the name of Sharbow.
Q You and he stopped there, did you, board there? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, did you have any talk about citizenship cases, yours and his? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did he state that he was from? A Texas.
Q Well, state what you can remember of the conversation between you from time to time about citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A Well, we were there on the same business and we talked about it at different times, all in talking about the evidence we had there I, of course, told him how many witness I had and what I could prove and so on, and he said that he didn't have but one witness, Dr. Baker from Arkansas, a man that was 85 or 90 years old, he said, and he hadn't come and said he was to have let him there, but he hadn't come.
Q Well, what did he say about the doctor's knowing anything?
A Well, he said he was 85 or 90 years old and didn't know straight up.
Q Well, did he say anything about giving him whisky?
A Well, he said he could give him four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would swear that black was white.

Q Mr. ... say anything about ... money would be in Texas or Indian Territory? A Well, in talking about the evidence, he said that ... that rode ... here go down in Texas and he said "I come to get the fat of the land" and he says "I found out it goes here," or words to that effect.
Q Did he say what he was to spend on the question? A Well, he said that he could stand a thousand dollars on it and not be hurt very much; finally he said he could stand more than that.
Q What did he tell you what he thought about the necessity of witnesses anyhow? A Well, I don't know as he said as to that, but I understood from what he said that he thought money would beat witnesses.
Q Well, where did he go from there? A He and I left there together; he came to Muskogee by way of Fort Gibson and there we parted.
Q Did you ever see him after that? A I saw him about two years or something like that afterwards.
Q Where? A Vinita.
Q Did you refer to the citizenship matter? A I asked him how he come out and he said all right.
Q Was he deformed in any way this man? A He had a crippled hand or stiff finger; I don't remember just what it was now.

J.R. McKENNON:

Q Your first conversation with him was in '01 was it? A Yes, sir.
Q What time in '01? A September.
Q You were then an applicant for citizenship? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you ... it? A No, sir.
Q You are still an applicant? A No, sir.
Q You are still working to get in as a citizen of the Cherokee ...? A No, sir; haven't quit it entirely.
Q What business are you in now? A I am running a dairy in Vinita.
Q When did you make these statements now to the representative of the Cherokee Nation? A Well, sir, I haven't; I saw Mr. Hastings I believe here last Saturday the first time.
Q How did they ever know that you had had these conversations with Mr. Dawson? A I don't know.
Q You don't know how they found that out? A No, sir.
Q You say you saw Mr. Hastings here last Saturday? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, did you approach him or did he approach you? A He approached me.
Q You know why? A No, sir; I suppose somebody I have told something at some time about this, I don't know when or who. I don't remember of having talked to anyone about it. I have known Mr. Hastings for years.
Q Now, you say—how was that expression about his giving Dr. Baker three or four drinks of liquor? A He said the old man; he said that Mr. Baker, he was expecting him there and he didn't come, and he said he didn't care where he did or not; he said he was 85 or 90 years old; he said he didn't know straight up; said he could give him three or four drinks of Arkansas whiskey and he would not know black or white.
Q Now, he said that did he? A Yes, sir.
Q You are just as positive of that as you are of any other statement he made are you? A Yes, sir.
Q You say you next saw Dawson at Vinita? A Yes, sir.
Q How long afterwards was that? A About two years, I think something near that.

Q You don't have any unkind feeling towards him? A No, sir.
Q What were your other remarks? A I said no, sir, I didn't have any unkind feeling towards him.

(It being 5 o'clock, the Commission adjourns until 8:30 o'clock to-morrow morning.)

March 19, 1902.
Commission convened pursuant to adjournment.

Appearances:
Mr. A. S. McKennon, of Counsel for Applicants.
Mr. W. T. Hutchings, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

C. C. BRAUGH, re-called, further testified:

MR. McKENNON:

Q Mr. Braught, you were a claimant under the Watts family are you not? A Yes, sir.
(witness excused.)

CHARLES D. KENNEY, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Charles D. Kenney.
Q What is your post office? A Dawson now.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir; supposed to be.
Q Recognized as such are you? A Yes, sir.
Q How old are you? A There is no family record, my parents died when I was young, I just guess at my age, I am somewheres between 44 and 45 years old.
Q Were you personally acquainted with one Elbert or Buck Dawson?
A I knew Buck Dawson when I saw him.
Q Did you know him in the state of Texas, if so state what time?
A I knew Buck Dawson, knew him and saw him at different dates in Texas.
Q Well, in the year '81 in Clay County, Texas, did you ever see him?
A It was in '81 or 82, I think I know him in both years.
Q Did you ever have any conversation with him in the presence of Bill Smith, Jiles Flippin and Joe Pleston about his application for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Mr. Dawson and Flippin were talking in regard to grass down there befo e we got [illegible]

it was mentioned, I was going up on the strip and Buck Dawson says "he an Indian" and Jiles said "yes, he is an Indian", and "by God," I believe is the way he spoke, "if I was an Indian I would not be punching cattle, I would have stock eating my grass."
Q What did he say about making application? A He said he was going to the Chickasaw Nation and prove up and get him some grass.
Q Who was that? A Buck Dawson.
Q Well, did anybody suggest about his going to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, I told him, I says "why don't you go to the Cherokee Nation, why don't you go up home" I believe is the way I spoke it, "up amongst God's people;" and he says "are they all white like you?" and Jiles spoke up and says "majority of them."
Q Well, what did he say to Jiles then? A He says "let's go up Jiles", just in a whole crowd of cow punchers, and Mr. Flippin says "Hell, I am going; brother John is getting ready to go now."
Q Well, then what did he say to you? A He says "Who are your best lawyers up there, Kenney," and I told him "Hooley Bell was counted the brainiest man in our country."
Q Well, do you know whether he claimed to have any Indian blood or what he was claiming in that country, whether white man or Indian? A No, sir, I could not say what he was; he was generally known down there as Buck Dawson, a citizen of the State of Texas, that is all I know of him.

Mr. McKennon: The applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

Mr. McKennon:
Q Were you born and reared in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't tell you where I was born; I was raised here part of the time and in Russ County, Texas. B. W. Alberty was my guardian.
Q Were you admitted to citizenship by the Council or Court? A I think both of them passed on me; I can't tell you the date.
Q About what time? A It was sometime in '80 though.
Q What tribunal first? A I don't know; I don't know either when I was admitted, I was re-instated at Council.
Q When? A I think it was in '87 or '88.
Q Haven't you been arrested for crime and charged with crime? A Well, I didn't know that I was on trial; I have been arrested a hundred times I guess from here to the Rio Grande.
Q For what offense? A For gambling, stealing; if I am on trial I have had lots of them, I have been on the road.
MR. HASTINGS, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation;
Q Were you ever convicted? A No, sir.
Mr. McKennon: Applicant makes further objection to the testimony of this witness on account of his criminal character stated by him.

THOMAS B. BABBART, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name, please? A Thomas B. Babbart.
Q What is your post office? A Melvin.

Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know one James Dawson? A Well, yes; I did; I have seen him time or two.
Q Were you in Tahlequah about the time he had an application before the Spears or Snake Puppy Citizenship Court? A Yes, sir; I was there about the time the case was settled.
Q Did you know Aaron Butler? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was he? A He was a Cherokee Interpreter for the Court.
Q Do you know James Smith? A Yes, sir.
Q Who was he? A He was the Nation's attorney before the Court.
Q Well, did you about that time have a conversation with either Aaron Butler of Jim Smith in company with Mr. James Dawson? A Yes.
Q State the full particulars of it? A About that time this man Dawson and Butler come to me while they were all together, all three of them, and Butler come and called me off to one side, that was down at a colored church, it was after dark, and they called me off there and this man Dawson borrowed some money from me, he said he had to have it that night, his case was going to be submitted the next morning.
Q Well, did he say anything about whether he could get his case submitted if he had more money? A Well, from the language to me and Butler, he wanted this money; Smith had agreed to submit the case without further evidence in the matter.
Q Well, did you let him have the ten dollars? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did they go then? A They walked off up towards town.
Q Did they go together, those three? A Yes, sir.

MR. McKENNON:

Q Was that James Dawson, the leading applicant in that case?
A Yes, best of my recollection that was.
Q How old a man was he? A I don't know; I could not tell you; he looked, I don't know, he might have been--could not tell you just about how old he was.
Q Well, about how old was he, 25, 30 or 40? A Yes, he was older than that, from my judgment I guess he must have been 45 or 50 years old.
Q Is he living or dead? A I don't know.
Q Where have you been living? A I have been living down here near Tahlequah.
Q What was the man's name, Dawson's name? A Jim Dawson I think.
Q You are certain of that? A Yes, sir; I am pretty certain.
Q They came to you with Smith, the Prosecuting Attorney, and Butler, the Interpreter? A Yes, sir.
Q Dawson took you off to one side? A Butler took me to where Dawson was and introduced me to Dawson and vouched for Dawson being all right for the money.
Q When did you first make a statement of this matter to anybody?
A I guess--I don't remember when.
Q How long have you been in Muskogee this time?
A I have been here since, I was summoned here last Friday.
Q Did you ever make any statement to anybody about this before that time? A Yes, I talked to Butler about it.
Q When? A Oh, about, first I remember it has been about two years ago, and Butler was talking to me about it; it was at my house.
Q Were you born a citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q You weren't admitted to citizenship by the Courts or Council?
A No, sir.
Q You have been living in the Cherokee Nation all your life?
A Well, I was born and raised here; ; I haven't been here all the time; I have been out and in.

Q You have never seen that man Dawson since? A If I have I have never known it, but I seen him the next day.
Q You saw him and took a good look at him, and know about what kind of man he was? I saw him around there about several times.
Q You think he was about 36 or 40 years old? A That would be my guess at it, my recollection.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness, all of it, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

DELIA A. BREWER, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q What was your full maiden name? A Delia A. Vann; well it was really Delilah but I never was called by that name, it was Do altogether in my young days.
Q What was your father's name? A His name was Joseph Vann.
Q Was he called by any nicknames and if so how many, and what?
A None but the Cherokees, the full-bloods called him Joe Aney.
Q What does that name mean when you talk English? A Rich Joe.
Q Did any of them call him Big Joe Vann? A I don't know; he was a large man; larger than the other Joe Vann.
Q There was another Joe Vann? A Yes, sir.
Q Did your father have any sisters and brothers? A He had quite a number of sisters.
Q Did he have a half sister? A Had two half brothers.
Q Did he have a half sister? A Had several half sisters.
Q Who did they marry? A Different persons; I knew the names of all of them but I have a bad memory, but I know that there was one, a Mrs. Ibbie Wolfe, and Mrs. Lamer, she was first a Mrs. Nicholson and she became a Mrs. Lamer and lived in Alabama and never come to this country, but she has grandchildren in this country.
Q Well, did any of your father's sisters or half sisters ever marry a Rogers? A No, sir.
Q Never had any Rogers kin-folks? A No, sir, I certainly would have heard of them through my family, there was a great many of the kin-folks I never saw, but I heard of them.
Q The Dawson case was talked of here for many years, they claiming kin?
A I never knew until I understood they claimed to be kin to the Vanns, and I flatter myself that my family was prominent enough that they never claimed kin.
Q They never claimed kin at all? A No, sir.
Q Did your father ever had a sister or half sister by the name of Annie, Anna or Alsey? A No, sir.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to all the testimony of this witness because it is incompetent ad irrelevant.

Q Who was your father? A Samuel Riley Dawson.
Q What did you say your father's name was? A Lile Dawson.
Q Do you know what his full name was? A Samuel Riley Dawson.
Q What children had your father? A Why, he has got, you mean his first children or his whole family?
Q I want all of his children? A I don't know, I will have to count a while on them, there was nine or ten of them.
Q Just one or two of them I care for; is Mrs. Lewis your sister?
A Yes, sir.
Q Your full sister? A Yes, sir.
Q Was she a daughter of S. R. Dawson, Jr.? A Yes, sir.
Q How who were the parents of your father, , Samuel Dawson?
A Why Sam Dawson was his father.
Q Sam Dawson was his father? A Yes, sir.
Q What was Sam Dawson's wife, if you know their family history, what your father said or what your grandfather said? A I have heard that she was a Pruitt, my father said; of course I don't know.
Q What was her given name? A Annie.
Q Did you ever see your grandfather, Samuel Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q Saw him? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know about how old he was when he died? A He was somewhere up about 90.
Q About how old were you when your grandfather died? A I don't remember exactly how old I was, I must have been somewhere near 12 years old when my grandfather died.
Q Was your father his youngest child? A Yes, sir.
Q D you know about when your father was born? A Well, no, I don't, he died in '90 and he was 67 years old.
Q He died in about '90 and was about 67 years old when he died?
A Yes, sir.
Q And he was the youngest child? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, do you know how many children your grandfather had , that is brothers and sisters of your father? A I heard him say seven.
Q Well, did you ever hear your father or grandfather speak of whether or not your grandmother was a white woman or an Indian?
A Well, I heard my father speak about it, I don't know that I ever heard my grandmother say anything about it.
Q Well, what did he say about it? A I have heard him say his mother was not an Indian.
Q Did you fathercome here and apply once for citizenship?
A Yes, sir.
Q Was he admitted? A I think not.
Q Did you hear him make any statements about he ground he expected to get in? A He said his brothers had proved their rights here and if his brothers had any rights he did, but I don't know.
Q Well, in that connection didhe say whether his mother was an Indian or white woman? A Never heard him say that his mother was a white woman in speaking about that, I don't know whether he said anything about that or not; I have heard him say his mother wasn't no Indian.

Mr. McKennon: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness because it is wholly irrelevant and incompetent.

Q What was your maiden name? A Emma Dawson.
Q What was your father's name? A Samuel Riley Dawson.
Q What was his father's name? A Samuel.
Q What was your grandmother's name? So far as you know from family history? A Her maiden name was Annie Pruett.
Q Then your father, if I understand you, was the son of Samuel Dawson and Annie Dawson, nee Pruett? A Yes, sir.
Q Did your father have a brother named Robert, and a brother named James? A Yes, sir; that is what I was told.
Q And had a sister named Mrs. Petty? A Yes, sir.
Q And another one named Mrs. McGee? A Yes, sir.
Q And another brother named John? A Yes, sir.
Q What relation are you to Mrs. A. S. Lewis? A Sister.
Q Did you ever see your grandfather, Samuel Dawson? A Yes, sir.
Q You have a distinct recollection of him? A I, yes, I can remember him, but I was small.
Q About how old were you you suppose when your grandfather died? A About 6.
Q Was your father's birth recorded in the family Bible? A Yes, sir.
Q You know whether your grandfather's record of marriages and deaths were recorded in any Bible or not? A I was, but we haven't it.
Q What became of it? A Got burned.
Q Well, about what year do you remember that your father, Samuel Dawson was born? A I believe it was '23.
Q In 1823? A Yes, sir.
Q And how old was he when he died, if you recollect? A He was between 64 and '7.
Q Did you ever hear your father speak of his relations, his father and mother, as to whether they were white people or Indians? A Yes, sir, they were white people.

Q. You know whether in the family you grandmother was spoken of by the name of Annie, always? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. McKENNON: Applicants object to the testimony of this witness because it is wholly irrelevant and incompetent.

ALEX S. LEWIS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q State your name? A Alex S. Lewis.
Q What is your post-office? A Dawson, Indian Territory.
Q How old are? A 59 years.
Q What was your wife's maiden name? A Elizabeth Pamalee Dawson.
Q Who was your wife's father and mother? A Her father was Samuel R. Dawson and her mother was the wife of Samuel R. Dawson, did you want her maiden name?
Q Well, if you know the maiden name of your wife's mother, state how you know it? A Well she was called Margarett, Margarett Queen was her maiden name.
Q The maiden name now of your wife's father's mother? A Why the maiden name of my wife's father's mother?
Q Yes, sir? A From what her husband and my father-in-law told me it was Annie Pruett.
Q What was the name of your wife's father's father? A My wife's grandfather on her father's side, Samuel Dawson.
Q And his wife's maiden name was Annie Pruett? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know the old gentleman, Samuel Dawson, you wife's grandfather? A Yes, sir.
Q Personally? A Yes, sir.
Q What opportunities had you to get acquainted with him? A He lived with his youngest son, my father-in-law, and visited me, my wife and I, after we were married, stayed with us quite a while; I lived near my father-in-law and he visited very often.
Q When did he die? A '74.
Q Have you any particular method of recalling that date? A Well, I was away from the house when he was taken sick, and they sent for my wife and myself, and so when I got home my wife had gone to her father's to see her grandfather, he was sick, and I remember my first wife was a baby at that time.
Q And when was your first child born? A He was born December, '73.
Q You know how old you wife's father was when he died? A Why he was up in 60, but I don't remember his age.
Q Did the old original Samuel Dawson ever tell you his age? A Yes, sir, several times.
Q How old was he at the time of his death? A He was passed 94.
Q Did he ever tell you whether or not his wife Annie Pruett had any sister or brother? A Told me she only had one brother named Bob Pruett.
Q Have any of the members of the family named their children after him? A Make it a little plain, it is a little long: my wife's oldest brother was a particular favorite of his grandfather, and he always took this boy with him everywhere, and he has named one of his,- oldest child for this brother-in-law who was a particular favorite of his grandfather; named it for him I understood.
Q Now, what is his name? A Of course I don't know why he named it, but he gave him the name of Robert Pruett, and I understood it was on account of his grandfather thinking so much of Robert Pruett.
Q Did you ever hear the old Samuel Dawson speak of his brother-in-law? A Yes, sir; I have heard him say that he wished he knew what had become of Bob Pruett, he never had heard of him for a long time; didn't know where he was, or whether he was alive or not.

Q Now, I want the children of Samuel Dawson a d Annie Pruett, how many of them did you know, first? A How many did I know personally?
Q Yes, sir? AJohn James, and Samuel R. Those were the only ones of his children that I remember personally.
Q Well, remember what you know of the family, what other children did he have? A Well he had two girls, as I understand the family history, he had two girls, first, and John Dawson was the third child, and the oldest boy was John Dawson.
Q Was John Dawson the oldest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q Which was the oldest girl? What is she known by now? A I think it was Mrs. Petty, nee Bettie Dawson.
Q And John Dawson was the oldest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q And Samuel R. Dawson was the youngest boy? A Yes, sir.
Q You know anything about the time John Dawson was born, have you any way of coming at it, the oldest boy? A Yes, sir, I know what the oldest son and his wife told me.
Q What was that? A They said he was born in 1811.
Q Who was his oldest son? A Toliver H. Dawson; told me his father was born in 1811.
Q Do you remember now whether the old man had occasion to say whether his wife, Annie Pruett was an Indian or white woman, or ever said anything about it? A I know what the old man said that she was, I don't know that I ever heard the question approached in that way, I have heard him speak as to her blood, but it was in a different way that he reached it.
Q What blood did he say she was? A Well he said that she was the daughter of Mrs. Pruett, a white woman; and that her father was Captain John Rogers, a white man who lived with the Cherokee Indians, and traded with them.
Q Did he say who Captain John Rogers afterwards married? A Said he had a wife in the Cherokee Nation.
Q But that Annie Pruett was not her child? A No, sir, she was the child of Mrs. Pruett.
Q A white woman? A Yes, sir, that was the half sister of Bob Pruett.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Applicants object to all of the testimony of this witness, because it is wholly incompetent and irrelevant.

Q Did ever you apply for citizenship here? A Yes, sir; for my wife.
Q When? A My father-in-law made the application, I don't know exactly when it was, I think probably about '86, I couldn't say as to the date.
Q Before the Cherokee authorities? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he file an application before the Dawes Commission in 1896 also? A Him.
Q Yes, sir? A I don't think he did, no sir.
Q Did you? A I did.
Q On account of your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you make affidavit to that application? A No, sir.
Q Who did? A I don't know, don't remember now.
Q You applied for your wife as an Indian by blood didyou not?
A Yes, sir.
Q Are you still an applicant? A No, sir.
Q Is she? A No, sir.
Q She was denied was she? A Yes, sir.
Q Was there an appeal taken from that? A Application was filed if I remember, before the Dawes Commission, and they rejected the case, and then I appealed it to the District Court, and it was rejected there and then I stopped.

Q Have you ever been arrested for any crime? A Yes, sir.
Q What? A Charge of murder.
Q Anything else? A No, sir.
Q Committed on the train? A Yes, sir.
Q In a train robbery? A Yes, sir, in a train robbery.
Q How long did you remain in jail? A Appealed the case to the Supreme Court, and it was reversed and sent back, and I was acquitted on that charge.
Q That all the crime you were ever charged with? A Yes, sir.
Q Haven't you been having some trouble with the Dawson family? A Well me personally I have no trouble with any of them, there is one of my boys and one of W. A. Dawson's sons-in-law had some trouble.
Q You are not friendly with the Dawson family? A That son-in-law Mr. Wooley, and myself, don't speak, and I don't think his wife speaks to me either.
Q Well you are claiming some sort of lease on the Wooley farm, aren't you? A No, sir, I don't claim any lease on the Wooley farm.

No. 108 Robert Dawson, "et al."
vs.
Cherokee Nation.

Testimony for Claimants.

Witness:

Dr. Baker sworn testified as follows. My name is Arthur Baker I reside at Berrivill, Arkansas, Carroll County, my age is 73 years, I am not a Cherokee, I lived in the Cherokee Nation about three years when I first came to Arkansas I have been acquainted with him since he became a citizen of Carroll County some thirty five years (line drawn through the last three words.) 35 years at my mother's house near Calhoun I became acquainted with the clairants Robt Dawsons grandmother on mother's side, she was frequently at my mother's house; though she Anna Pruit lived in the Nation side. She claimed to be a half sister to Sir Joe Vann, also claimed to be half Cherokee; the first time she brought the clairant's mother to my mother's house she the clairant's mother was about grown, when I was a lit le boy she called her daughter Polly Rogers said Capt. John Rogers who ran a boat up the river was the father of the child; I saw the girl frequently there at my mother's and there at Louis Rogers Store I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years old and I think then Old Capt John Rogers took her off to school. I saw her no more from the time Old Capt. John Rogers took her off till I saw her here in Arkansas the wife of Old Samuel Dawson. I stayed all night there and she and I had a talk over our old matters, and I asked her when she became acquainted with Dawson and she said at the time she was going to school. And she said after she left school that Dawson followed her home to the Nation and they were there married. I have told that precisely in the words she used.

Capt John Rogers claimed to be one fourth Cherokee, the clairant is the son of Polly Rogers and I know Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Pruet, and I know the claimant to be the son of Polly Dawson Capt Rogers then resided in the Cherokee Country about twelve miles from Calhoun on the Hiawassa River.

Anna Pruet resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I stayed there the Dawsons when I got acquainted wih them Arkansas were recognized where they were as Cherokees, Robt Dawsons children is Buck, John, Marion, and two girls; the children named in the petition I recognize as being the clairants.

Question by Solicitor:

Ques. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
Ans. 1 Five, I think that's all.
Ques. 2 Did you say something about someone being married twice?
Ans. 2 The claimant was married twice.
Ques. 3 Could Anna Pruet speak Cherokee?
Ans. 3 Yes she could speak it well
Ques. 4 Did Polly Rogers speak Cherokee?
Ans. 4 She could when she was young.
Ques. 5 How far did you live from Anna Pruet?
Ans. 5 Just acros the river about 3/4 of a rile.
Ques. 6 Was Calhoun in the Cherokee Nation?
Ans.6 It was on both sides of the river, part in the Nation and part out in the State.

Ques. 7 Which Marriage was it went to Texas?
Ans. 7 George went first then John went they were the sons of old man Harnage that lived up here near the line.
Ques. 8 Did the claimant go to Texas?
Ans.8 No the claimant didn't go to Texas.
Ques. 9 What connection was claimant and Polly Rogers?
Ans. 9 The claimant is the son of Polly Rogers Marion here is the grandson of Polly Rogers.
Ques. 10 Where does claimant now live?
Ans. 10 He lives in Carroll County, Arkansas.
Ques. 11 Do you know what relation old Captain John Rogers was to Charlotte Rogers here in Cooweescoowee?
Ans. 11 They claimed kin but what kin I dont know there were two Capt. John Rogers' in the Nation I am speaking of the time when I first came to this 1830 Country about the year 1830.
Ques. 12 What was Peggy the maiden name of Claimant's grandmother
Ans. 12 Yes that was her maiden name the Indians called her Sinee.

Joseph Dawson introduced for Claimants, sworn in open Court testified as follows:

Jos. Dawson, am a Cherokee live in the Cherokee Nation, am 31 years old.

Lulu Dauthett and Dallas Dauthett, the Claimants are Cherokees. Fannie Dawson was their mother. Fannie Dawson was a Cherokee, that is what I was always told. Her father was E. Dawson. E. Dawson was my brother. Mrs. Dauthett is not living now: the last time I saw Lula, and Dallas Dauthett, they were in Texas. But I have heard since that they are in the Cherokee Nation. E. Dawson recognizes them as his grandchildren and I have known them ever since they were born.

By Solicitor:

Lula is about 10 years old. The Dallas is about 5 or 6 years old. I heard that their father is now at Vinita Cherokee Nation, E. Dawson is Elbert Dawson. The applicants' mother has been dead about three or four years. She died at Hillsboro, Texas.

I was not present when their mother and E. Dawson had eight children to the best of my recollection, or 9. Fannie, Francis, Cartenas, Zanie, Bob, Smith, Norah, Bert, Ella. All living but two, Fannie and Smith. They are all living in Texas when I left there. I am a brother to F. M. Dawson, we are full brothers. My father has been admitted to Cherokee Citizenship by this Court.

"Now this day comes the above case for final hearing, Samuel R. Dawson, bases his application for readmission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground that he is the son of Samuel Dawson a white man, Polly Rogers the alleged daughter of Captain John Rogers and Chilsey Pruitt, said to be a half sister of Joseph Vann, commonly known as Rich and who were of Cherokee blood. It is admitted that John Rogers and Chilsey Pruitt died before the roll upon which their names would appear if living at the time and specified in the 7th section of the Act of December 8th, 1866, creating the Commission on Citizenship, were made but in support of the application it is urged that certain members of the Dawson family and full brothers of the applicant were re-admitted to citizenship by the Commission on Citizenship commonly known as "Two Tehee Court", and the "Spears Court", and are now residing as citizens in the Cherokee Nation. In the opinion of this Commission the sufficiency of the considerations which determined the decision of those Commissions of the testimony now introduced to authorize the admission of the present applicant is not relivent to the issue now pending. The 7th section of the Act of December 8th, 1886, before named provides, that "The Commission shall give a hearing to any paerson applying for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground of Cherokee blood or descent, but such applicant must be a person, or the lineal descendant of a person whose name appears upon the census rolls of Cherokees taken by the United States," As are hereafter enumerated. Neither the name of the applicant nor that of the person of whom he claims to be a lineal descendant appearing upon eitherof said rolls the Commission adjudge and decree that Samuel R. Dawson and family are not entitled to re-admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as Cherokees by blood. This opinion includes the cases of Andrew J. Dawson, James K. P. Dawson, Jounnah Barber nee Jounnah Dawson and Jane Queen, nee Jane Dawson, and their families, as enumerated in their respecti e applic tions.

I am a citizen of the Cherokee Na ion and reside in Coowescoowee Dist. and am 53 years old. I am acquainted with the applicant, Andrew J. Dawson, he claims to be a relation of mine. I have known him personally about three (3) years. He said his father was Joe Dawson. I know the party, the applicant, from circumstances, and have no doubt but that he is a realtion of mine.

Joe Dawson, the father of the applicant was my father's brother. Joe Dawson was considered to be a Cherokee, I think he died on the Hiwassee river in Tenn. I think he had four (4) children. I never saw any of them but Andrew J. Dawson, and Jim Dawson.

-Cross Ex.-

Joe Dawson has been dead about 35 years he lived west of the Mississippi River, I understand. My father had four brothers. I don't know how long Jou Dawson had been living in Tenn. before he died. All that I know of the applicant being the son of my Uncle Jou Dawson, is from what he himself has told me, - My grandfather, Sam Dawson was a white man. for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.

Your respondent, S. H. Mayes, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, comes now and demurs the said application, and for the grounds thereof says:

1st. That this Commission has not jurisdiction over the parties or subject matter of this controversy.

2nd. That the application does not state facts sufficient if true, to show that the applicant . . . entitled to citizenship.

Respondent not waiving his aforesaid demurrer, but insisting upon the same for answer to said application, says that John Rogers through whom the petitioner claims to derive right to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, is not now, - . - and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, since the removal of said Nation, west to the Indian Territory, as at present located and defined; that his name does not appear on any of the authenticated rolls of said nation; that neither nor any of his ancestors now reside, or ever have resided in the Cherokee Nation and Indian Territory, as citizens thereof.

See case Nation's No. 1573.

Having fully answered, your respondent asks to be hence dismissed.

Now this day comes the above case for final hearing, Samuel R. Dawson bases his application for re-admission to Citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the ground that he is the son of Samuel Dawson, a White man, Polly Rogers, the alleged daughter of Captain John Rogers, and Chilsey Pruett said to be half sister of Joseph Vann, commonly known as Rich and Who were of Cherokee blood. It is admitted that John Rogers and Kelsey Truett died before the roll was made upon which their names would appear if living at the time, and specified in the 7th Section of the Act of December 17, 1896, creating the Commission on Citizenship were made, but in support of the application it is urged that certain members of the Dawson family the full brothers of the applicant are admitted to citizenship by the Commission on Citizenship commonly known as the "Tehee Court" and "Spears Court" and are now residing as citizens in the Cherokee Nation. In the opinion of this Commission the sufficiency of the consideration which determined the decisions of those Commissions or the testimony now introduced to authorize the admission of the present applicant is not relevant in the issue now pending. The 7th Section of the Act of December 6th, 1898, before mentioned provides that the Commission hearing to any person applying for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation upon the grounds of Cherokee blood or descent, but such applicant must be a person, or the lineal descendant of a person whose name appears upon the census roll of Cherokees taken by the United States, or hereafter authorized, neither the name of the applicant nor that of the person of whom he claims to be a lineal descendant appearing upon either of said rolls, the Commission adjudge and decree that Samuel R. Dawson and family are not entitled to re-admission of citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as Cherokees by blood. This opinion includes the case of Andrew J. Dawson, James L. P. Dawson, Joannah Barber, nee Joannah Dawson, and Jane Queen, nee Jane Dawson and their families as enumerated in their respective applications.

W. C. Rogers being duly sworn on oath deposes and says: that he is a citizen and resident of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory. That his Post-office address is Skin-atook, Ind. Ter. that he was born and raised in the above said Nation and Territory, and he is 46 years of age:

Affiant further states that he is slightly acquainted with Irena J. House, an applicant for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as shown by copy of her application.

Affiant further states that his father's name was Charlie Rogers- who was a son of Captain John Rogers and the said Capt. John Rogers was the only man of that name that ever lived in the Cherokee Nation that this affiant ever heard of; that the said Capt. John Rogers this affiants grandfather lived at Creed Salith, I. This affiant states that his father Charlie Rogers had one sister and five brothers viz. Synthia Rogers, Lewis Rogers, George Rogers, Nelson Rogers, Granvil Rogers and Randolph Rogers; that he (this affiant) was well and personally acquainted with the above said parties- except Granvil and Randolph Rogers, who were killed when this affiant was quite young.

This affiant states that he was 34 years of age, when his father, Charlie Rogers died, that his father never had any other family (like in ink drawn through) other children or sisters than the ones above mentioned; that one Polly Rogers named in the application for citizenship of Irene J. House, was not a sister of his fathers; that his father never had but one sister viz. Cynthia Rogers that this affiant ever heard of; that this affiant was well acquainted with his aunt Cynthia Crump-"

Then the above affidavit continues:

"(nee) Rogers that she lived with this affiant's father for a number of years prior to here death.

Affiant states that he has often talked with his father, Charlie Rogers and his aunt Cynthia Crump (nee Rogers) about his relatives; that they ever spoke of any other sister in their family; that this affiant was about 20 years of age when his aunt, Cynthia Crump died; that they told him there never was (words "never was" marked over with ink) father never had any other daughter or daughter other than Cynthia Rogers

Affiant states that his father told him a number of times, that this affiants grandfather Capt John Rogers never had any other family other than the one above mentioned; that this affiant never heard his father Charlie Rogers or any of his relatives speak of his grandfather Capt John Rogers owning or running a boat up any river.

Affiant states his father Charlie Rogers was born on Big Mulberry, South-east of Van Buren, Arkansas, in the year of 1817.

Further affiant saith not.

FIRST. The Commission erred in overruling its decision on said claims adversely to the appellants and against the proof submitted by said appellants.

SECOND. The Commission erred in investigating the claims of appellants and denying same during the absence of a majority of the members of the Commission.

THIRD. The Commission erred in refusing the appellants the right and privilege of examining the proof submitted by appellee in support of the answers filed by the appellee and denying the appellants the right of filing replication to appellee's answer or producing proof in rebuttal of the same.

FOURTH. The Commission erred in denying the appellants the right of a trial of their claims by a competent jury, granted to them by the law and constitution of the United States.

FIFTH. The Commission erred in refusing appellants the right to be represent in person, or by attorney, during the trial and determination of their claims before the said Commission.

SIXTH. The Commission erred in refusing to issue process for witnesses and the said commissioners were required to do so by the appellants.

SEVENTH. The Commission erred in deciding against the right of these appellants to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

EIGHTH. The Commission erred in deciding against blood, holding that blood was not a test of the right of citizenship in said Cherokee Nation.

NINTH. The Commission erred in deciding against the question of residence, holding that residence in the Cherokee Nation was not a test of the right of citizenship in the said Cherokee Nation.

TENTH. The Commission erred in not entering upon their docket of record the grounds upon which the claims of appellants were denied and refusing to notify appellants the grounds of denial or rejection.

ELEVENTH. The Commission erred in examining the claims and proof of appellants and denying the same while the Commission was not clothed with any legal authority, nor had jurisdiction, to render decision on said claims and deny the same.

TWELVTH. That the Act of Congress approved June the 10th, 1906, was unconstitutional and had no power or legal right to confer jurisdiction on said Commission to try and determine the rights to citizenship of said appellants, and said Commission erred in determining the rights and denying the same to said appellants.

THIRTEENTH. That Congress had no power by enactment to create, appoint and empower a judiciary, and said Commission erred in denying the claims of said appellants without any legal authority to do so.

Therefore, the appellants of this cause pray that an appeal be granted to this Court and that a trial, de novo, be granted the appellants, and that said appellants be permitted to introduce new testimony, and that an order be made requiring said Commission to send all pleadings, papers and records filed before it in this cause to this Court, at Muskogee, Cherokee Nation, the appellee in this cause, be cited to appear at this Court and plead and defend against the said ... why by the appellants should not by the rules, orders and decisions of this Court be adjudged entitled to citizenship in the said Cherokee Nation, and the appellants will ever pray.

'IN THE UNITED STATES COURT IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY, NORTHERN DISTRICT, AT MUSKOGEE.

JOANNA BARBER ET AL)

-VS)- : REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.

THE CHEROKEE NATION.)

----------oOo----------

I, M. A. Gibson, Special Master herein, show to the Court that under the general order herein, I have examined the proof and pleadings herein, which is hereto attached and made a part hereof, and that I find as follows:

I

This this cause was instituted on September 8th, 1896, before the Dawes Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, by Joanna Barber, and Isaac J. Barber, her husband, and their Children, Onis E., William R., James E., Johnnie and Joel A. Barber. That Joel A. Barber has the following children. Hattie Tolliver, George A., Frankie C., Jesse and Ethel Barber. That the application includes also Mary A. Bowser and her child Inez Bowser, Emma L. Murphy and her child Claud Murphy, Emma Moore and her children Anna J., Jackson D., Mary M. Gladys, Attie L. Hunt and her child Norman Hunt, Alley J. Swart and her children Georgia A. and Arzey M. Swart, Josie J. Garlinghouse and her children Myrtle C., Cora L. and Bertha M. Garlinghouse. That this application was by the Commission tried and rejected on October 20th, 1896, with no reasons given for the decision, and that subsequently on December 22, 1896, the claimants appealed to this Court. That the parties all live in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory.

II

That the parties claim the right to be admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by reason of their descent from Polly Rogers, who is claimed to be a Cherokee Indian by blood. That they filed in support of their application the affidavits of S. R. Dawson, E. Dawson, Francis M. Dawson, and T. A. Dawson, who testify that Joanna Barber is the daughter of Elizabeth Reedy, nee Dawson, who was the daughter of Polly Rogers, who married a white man by the name of Samuel Dawson, and that Polly Rogers was the daughter of Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann. That these witnesses are all Cherokee citizens by blood, acquainted with the claimants, and according to their testimony, related to them by blood.

The agent is introduced to controvert this testimony the decision of the Dawes Commission on Citizenship, rendered in the year 1897, in which these claimants were rejected by this Commission and also the affidavits of T. C. Rogers a grandson of Captain John Rogers, and Mrs. Sarah Carter, a great-daughter of Captain John Rogers, both of whom state that they never heard of any daughter of said Captain John Rogers by the name of Polly Rogers, and that Cynthia Rogers was his only daughter.

III

The claimants admitted that they are residents of the Cherokee Nation, and are relatives of the Dawson family, who are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, are entitled to be enrolled as Cherokee Nation as citizens by blood, while the agent contends that John Rogers, through whom the petitioners claim, is not now and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal West: that his name does not appear on the rolls of the Cherokee Nation, and that he nor his ancestors ever resided in the Cherokee Nation as citizens thereof.

The premises considered, in view of the unsettled condition of affairs in the Cherokee Nation at the time when Captain John Rogers, the ancestor through whom these claimants trace their Cherokee blood, lived, and especially in view of the absence of a marriage license and records pertaining to marriage, I am of the opinion that these claimants have proved that they are descended from John Rogers, who resided in the Cherokee Nation, and was a recognized citizen, though they do not show that he was ever enrolled as such; and I therefore find that the claimants are all residents of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, and that they are all Cherokee Indians by blood. That they have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1867, and probably longer, though the proof does not state definitely how long they have so resided.

I ask that the Court allow me a reasonable fee for my services herein as special master.

Respectfully submitted this 16 day of August, 1907.

(Signed) H. A. Gibson,
SPECIAL MASTER.

My fee paid.
No exceptions filed."

BY THE COURT.

From this report it appears that the claimants base their right to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation upon the grounds that they are the descendants of a Cherokee Indian by blood, but their ancestors through whom they claim have never resided in the Cherokee Nation as now constituted. It appears that they have resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1867, and probably longer, though the proof does not state definitely how long they have so resided. It does not appear that the claimants or any of their ancestors have ever been recognized as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

The judgment of the United States Commission rejecting this case is affirmed, and the application of the claimants to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation is denied."

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

We now introduce the original record in the citizenship case of Irene J. House, et al., before the Commission in 1896, the court number of same being 236. said case being denied by the Commission; Appealed to the United States Court, and the decision of the Commission affirmed.

In this case we desire to call especial attention to the certified copy filed therein of the testimony of Arthur Baker, the certified copy having been made in 1894, being the testimony of Dr. Baker in the case of Robert Dawson against the nation, number 198, before the Citizenship Commission, and which was made January 19, 1892.

BY MR. McKENNON: To all of which the applicants object, because the same is immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent.

The papers in Court No. 838, just introduced above, are as follows:

"Office of Commission on Citizenship,
Cherokee Nation, Tahlequah, January 19, 1882.

No. 108.
Robert Dawson et al) Exhibit C. vs)
Cherokee Nation.)

Testimony for Claimants.

Witness, Mr. Arthur Baker sworn testified as follows:

My name is Arthur A. Baker I reside at Berryvill Arkansas Carroll County. My age is 77 years I am not a Cherokee. I lived in the Cherokee Nation about three years. When I first came to Arkansas I have been acquainted with him since he became a citizen of Carrolls County some 17 years - At my Mothers house near Calhoun I became acquainted with the claimants Robt Dawson grandmother on mother's side she was frequently at my mothers house though she Anna Pruet lived in the Nation side; She claimed to be a half sister to Big Joe Vann, also claimed to be half Cherokee, the first time she brought the claimants mother to my mothers house she the mothers mother was about grown when I was a little boy. She called her daughter Polly Rogers, Said Captain John Rogers Who ran a Boat up the River was the father of the child; I saw the girl frequently there at my mothers and there at Louis Russes Store.

I saw her occasionally until I was 15 or 16 years of old and I think then Old Capt. John Rogers took her off to school, I saw her no more from the time Old Capt. John Rogers took her off till I saw her here in Arkansas the wife of old Samuel Dawson, I stayed all night there and we and I had a talk over our old matters and I asked her where she became acquainted with Dawson and she said at the time she was going to school and she said after she left school that Dawson followed her home, to the Nation and they were there married. I have told that precisely in the words that she used, Capt John Rogers claimed to be one fourth Cherokee. The claimant is the son of Polly Rogers, and I know Polly Rogers to be the daughter of Anna Pruett and I know the claimant to be the son of Polly Dawson.

Capt. Rogers then resided in the Cherokee Country about ~~twenty~~ (Word "twenty" marked through) twelve miles below Calhoun on the Hiwassee River Anna Pruett resided in the Cherokee Nation as long as I stayed there the Dawson when I got acquainted with them Arkansas were recognized where they were as Cherokees. Robert Dawson children is Buck, John, Marian and two girls. The children named in the petition I recognized as being the claimants.

Question by Solicitor:

No. 1 How many children did Polly Rogers have?
Ans. 1 Five I think that's all
No. 2 Did you say so other about more one being married twice?
Ans. 2 The claimant was married twice.
No. 3 Could Anna Pruet speak Cherokee?
Ans. 3 Yes, she could speak it well.

Ques 4 Did Polly Rogers speak Cherokee?
Ans. 4 She did when a e was young.
Ques 5 How far did you live from Ana Pruett?
A. 5 Just across the rive about 3/4 of a mile.
Ques 6 Was Calhoun in the Cherokee Nation?
Ans. 6 It was on both sides of the river part in the Nation and part out in the state.
Ques 7 Which Marnage was it went to Texas?
7 George went first, then John went, they were the sons of old man Marnage, that lived up near the line.
Ques 8 Did the Claimant go to Texas?
Ans. 8 No the Claimant did not go to Texas.
9 What connection was claimant and Polly Rogers?
9 The Claimant is the son of Polly Rogers Marion here is the grandson of Polly Rogers.
10 Where does claimant now live?
10 He lives in Carroll Co Arkansas.
11 Do you Know what relation old Capt John Rogers was to Charles Rogers here in Cooweescoowee?
11 They claimed Kin but what Kin I dont know there were two Capt John Rogers in the Nation I am speaking of the time when I first come to this country about the year 1840.
12 Was Anna Pruet the Maiden name of claimants grandmother
12 Yes that was her maiden name the Indian called her since

"Irene J. House et al,
vs. No. 338
Cherokee Nation,

Mr. H. A. Gibson, Special Master to whom this case was referred, submits the following report: (Insert report)

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT IN THE INDIAN TERRITORY.

NORTHERN DISTRICT AT MUSCOGEE.

IRENE J. HOUSE ET AL

VS # 232 REPORT OF SPECIAL MASTER.

THE CHEROKEE NATION.

----------oOo----------

I, N. A. Gibson, Special Master herein, show to the Court that under the general order herein, I have examined the proof and pleadings on file in this case which are made a part of this report, and that I find as follows:-

I

That this case is in reality a branch of Case No. 90, Joanna Barber vs Cherokee Nation, the principal claimant herein being Irene J. House a daughter of Joanna Barber.

That this cause was instituted on September 8, 1896 at which time application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for citizenship by blood in the Cherokee Nation.

That this case was tried by the said Commission on November 24, 1896 and the applicants denied, no reasons being given for the decision, and that on January 20, 1897, the parties appealed from said decision to this Court.

That this application was made by Irene J. House, her husband, W. J. House, and their children Chas., C. Winston T.., and Henry W. House. That they file in support of their application the affidavits of Joanna Barber, F. H. Dawson, Arthur A. Baker, E. Dawson, and W. A. Dawson. That these Dawson witnesses are citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and state that they are related by blood to the claimants herein on the Cherokee side. The claimants base their contention of a right to Cherokee citizenship upon the fact that the claimant Irene J. House is the daughter of Joanna Barber, who is the daughter of Elizabeth Petty, who was the daughter of Polly Rogers, and that Polly Rogers was the daughter of Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were recognized Cherokee citizens by blood. That the testimony shows that this Dawson family are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that the claimants herein are cousins by blood upon the Indian side, and that they all claim through a common ancestor, Polly Rogers and Captain John Rogers and Ailsey Vann, who were all recognized Cherokee Indians.

II

The appellee introduces in defense the record of the application of these claimants to the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship in the year 1897, and the record of the rejection of the claimants, and further the affidavits of W. C. Rogers, and Mrs. Sarah Carter, a grand daughter both of whom state that they never heard of any daughter of Captain John Rogers by the name of Polly Rogers, and that he had only one daughter, whose name was Cynthia.

III

The Claimants contend that the are residents of the Cherokee Nation and are relatives of the Dawsons, who are recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation by blood, and entitled to be admitted to the Cherokee Nation as citizens by blood, while the appellee contends that John Rogers, through whom the petitioners claim, is not now and has not been a citizen of the Cherokee Nation since the removal west. That his name does not appear on the rolls of the Nation, and that neither he nor his ancestors ever resided in the Cherokee Nation as citizens thereof.

IV

The premises considered, I find that the claimants are the descendants of Captain John Rogers, and that it was entirely possible that in the condition of arrairs at that early date in the Cherokee Nation, especially owing to the absence of a marriage law and of records pertaining to marriage, that these claimants should be the descendants of Captain John Rogers by a daughter, Polly Rogers, of whom the affiants for the appellee may never have heard.

I find that the claimants are residents of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, where they have resided since 1887, and that they are Cherokee Indians by blood.

I ask that the Court allow me a reasonable fee for my services herein as Special Master.

Respectfully submitted, this 8 day of Nov 1897.

(signed) H. A. Gibson,
Special Master.

My fee paid.
No Exceptions filed."

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Well we close for the present.

TESTIMONY INTRODUCED ON BEHALF OF THE APPLICANTS:

D. V. C. DUNCAN, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q Please state your name, age and residence? A My name is D. V. C. Duncan, my age is 78 years, my residence, Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q Are you a duly recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A I am.
Q You gave testimony in this case once before did you not, before the Dawes Commission? A I did.
Q Before this Commission I will say, this Commission? A The Dawes Commission? A Why I don't recollect who the Commissioner was, that was taken at Vinita, ex parte.
Q Were you in any way connected with the Cherokee citizenship Commission in 1880? Known as the "Tahlee Commission"? A I was Clerk of that Commission.

Q For what length of time? A I don't recollect the exact length of time, I think it was about thirty days, during the continuance of that Commission, existence of that Commission.
Q You were the only clerk it had during its existence were you?
A I think I was.
Q You were Clerk of that Commission when it rendered a decision in favor of Robert Dawson et als, as found on page 114, of its record, numbered 108 (witness examines record referred to.) Now in the possession of the Commission? A I was.
Q The members of that Commission were the same as shown by the signatures to this judgment were they? A The same, yes, sir.
Q Thomas Tehee, President of the Commission, Alex Wolfe and T. F. Thompson, Commissioners, that is correct, is it? A That's correct.
Q Were you present when this case was under consideration by that Commission and when it rendered this judgment in the case? A I was.
Q Were you at that time acquainted with F. M. Dawson, commonly called "Mud Dawson", Campbell Taylor and Samuel H. Benge, who were attorneys, who were Cherokee attorneys at that time? A I might say that I merely knew Mr. Dawson; all I know of him was I saw him there as a party to the suit. I knew Mr. Taylor and Mr. Benge more extensively; I have known them a number of years.
Q They were recognized Cherokee citizens were they? A They were.
Q Was Taylor not known generally as a Citizenship Attorney?
A I think he was.
Q Do you remember seeing him and Benge present at the time this case was under consideration by the Court? A Why I do not recollect seeing Mr. Benge, I cannot recollect, but I can recollect of seeing Mr. Taylor about the Court room now and then.
Q Do you know who submitted the case to the Court for the applicants? A Let me understand the meaning of that; who brought the case?
Q Who called up the case? A No, I don't recollect.
Q Do you remember whether that Commission rendered any other decision than that found upon this record in that case? A I never had any knowledge only but one decision.
Q Was that in favore of or against the applicants? A It was in favor of them; I will say this: that if there was another decision other than the one that appears on the docket now before you, I have no recollection of it.
Q The only decision you have any knowledge of was recorded by you in this book as here shown was it not? A That is the only one that I have any knowledge of.
Q Did Mud Dawson pay you any money in connection with that case?
A He did not.
Q Did he ever promise to pay you any money for your influence with the Court in that case? A Never.
Q Or paid you any money, either directly or through any other person? A For my influence in that case?
Q Yes, sir? A Never.
Q Did you have any knowledge of his having paid to the Court or to any member of the Court any money for the purpose of influencing their judgment in that case? A None whatever.
Q Did you have opportunity of observing his conduct during that Court at the time? A The only opportunity that I had was during the session of the Commission; I saw but very little of him during the recesses of the Commission; now and then I would see him in passing.
Q Did you see anything in his conduct toward that Court which indicated that he had used undue influence in procuring that judgment? A I never observed anything of the kind; nothing that awakened a suspicion in my mind that he was engaged in that kind of practice.

Q Did Campbell Taylor at any time after the rendition of that judgment pay to you any money as coming through him from Bud Dawson for any services which you had rendered to him in that case?
A Yes, he paid me some.
Q What amount? A My recollection is that, I think it was a twenty dollar bill. I don't know but I had better go and state the transaction, all about it.
Q Yes, sir. A Mr. Dawson, Bud Dawson, during the trial of the case occasionally applied to me at my desk for writing paper, issue of a subpoena or transcript, something of that kind; I always treated him with courtesy and proper official consideration. He seemed to appreciate it, and whenever I did services of that kind to him, says he, I have no money, Mr. Duncan, but I feel as I ought to pay you. I told him I made no charges for work of that kind. And in passing I might state that I never received a cent for any kind of that work which I had been in the habit of doing for various parties before the Court.

After his trial was concluded, in the afternoon a little while before supper time I went to my hotel, The National Brick Hotel in Tallequah; went to my room, felt a little tired, laid down upon the bed to rest. I recollect Mr. Dawson stepped into the room, drew a chair up to the bedside and sat down and commenced giving expression to his gratification at the success of his case, dwelling mostly upon the testimony in the case being so satisfactorily, establishing his Cherokee blood, and that he thought that he was entitled and that he had received justice by the Court. I listened to him, and we talked there I guess some ten or fifteen minutes; after a little he says, I must go to-morrow, I think he says to-morrow, I must go home,- he then lived down in Arkansas somewhere. Says he, Mr. Duncan, I believe I owe you something, ought to pay you something. Alluding, as I understood, to those little courtesies that I extended to him at my desk. Says I, I make no charges, Mr. Dawson, for services; if I have done you any good you are welcome. Well, says he, I feel indebted to you, I ought to pay you. I says, that makes no difference; I will leave that to you. Says he, I have hardly enough money to get back home. He shook my hand, and the last word he says to me, you shan't lose anything for your kindness to me; I thought he had reference to my services at the desk. That was the last I saw of Mr. Dawson, oh it must have been a year afterwards; I had located a little claim on the public domain up there in Delaware District, staked off what I intended to be a farm, merely stakes, I didn't make any other improvements, over there on Horse Creek. Went over in that part of the country to look after my claim, and I ran across Mr. Dawson, he had come into the country and located and built him a little shanty and was living in it; I called upon him, he was very glad to see me; I asked him what he was doing there; he said he had moved into the country, and I told him, says I, you are encroaching upon me here; he had spread his claim over part of mine, mine had been made so long it was outlawed under Cherokee law. Well, says Mr. Dawson, I don't feel like doing you any wrong, I will pay you for your claim, and we will settle the matter in that way, that he as soon as he got his little matters together that he would satisfy me for it. Well we parted at that point. It ran on then for a long time, I don't know how long,- I think I met him in Vinita, and says he, did Camp Taylor pay you any money that I sent to you? Says I, No, I have not seen Camp Taylor.

Well", says he, I gave him some money and told him to send it to you for me, and, says he, you ask him and he will hand it over to you I guess. Well we parted then. Well, went on for some time, some months; I happened to meet Mr. Taylor in Tahlequah; I met him on the street I think, jocularly I slapped my hand on his shoulder, says I, look here, did Mr. Dawson any money to me by you? He says, yes, and he pulled out what I recollect to be a twenty dollar bill, and handed it to me; I received it, and I received it with the idea that he was compensating me for taking my claim, or possibly for doing him those little services in the Court. Now that is the sum and substance of the whole thing.
Q Was not that twenty-five dollars, Mr. Duncan? A It might possibly have been, my recollection does not serve me exactly, it might have been 25 dollars.
Q Did Campbell Taylor pay you any other money as coming from Bud Dawson? A Never a cent.
Q Did he at one time pay you fifty dollars out of a hundred dollars which he had received from Mr. Dawson? A Never.
Q Did he on a second occasion pay you fifty dollars out of one hundred dollars which he claimed to have received from Mr. Dawson? A None at all.
Q He paid you no other money than that you have already stated, from Mr. Dawson? A Not a cent.

BY MR. McKENNON: We offer in evidence the judgment of the Cherokee Citizenship Commission before referred to, and ask that it be filed in evidence in the case of every application made by members of the Robert Dawson family who claim and or it, or through Robert Dawson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said judgment being found on page 114, Records of the Tahlequah Court, 1900 to 1904, cause number 108, judgment dated January 11th, 1903, signed by Thomas Tehee, President, Alex Wolfe, T. F. Thompson, Commissioners. D. W. C. Duncan, Clerk Commission.

The said judgment just introduced is as follows:

"Office Commission on Citizenship,
Tahlequah, I. T., September 24th, 1901.
No. 108
Robt Dawson,
Albert Dawson,
Jasper Dawson,
John Dawson,

January 11th, 1902.
The above case continued by the Cherokee Nation till next.

terms. A[illegible] by the parties that the case will not be taken up for final disposition before the [illegible] for the year 1894.

It is agreed by the parties that this case shall be finally disposed of at the next January term if the evidence is present demanding the same, if not, the case shall be continued to the September term, 1893.

On this agreement Commission continues the case till the next January term to-wit, January 1st, 1894.

And now this the 11th day of January A.D. 1893 this case coming on for final hearing, and all the evidence produced in the case being carefully read and duly considered by the Commission it was adjudged and determined by the Commission on Citizenship that the claimants, Robert Dawson, F. L. Dawson, Filbert Dawson, Jasper Dawson, John Dawson, Josephine Dawson, Joseph Dawson, Jane Dawson, Molly Dawson, Filmon Dawson, James Dawson, and Phil Dawson, are Cherokees by blood; and that they are entitled to all the rights and privileges of Cherokee citizenship within the Cherokee Nation, and that they should be, and they are, hereby admitted to the full and complete enjoyment of the same in all respects as native born Cherokees.

Q Do you remember how many members of the Court were present when this judgment was rendered, or were all of them? A My recollection upon that point is not positive, but my impression upon what I know to be the practice of the Court at the time, seeing the names of all three Commissioners there, I can say with a great deal of positiveness that they were all present, because I never signed the name of one of the Commissioners unless he was present, assenting to it or directing it.

Q The rendition of that judgment then was concurred in by all of the three judges? A It was.

Q Mr. Duncan, if there had been a decision rendered the day before in this case while the Court was in session, adverse to these Claimants, would you have known it? A I certainly should have known it.

Q Was there any such decision of the Court? A None to my knowledge. I can say positively there was not.

Q How many of these judges are now living? A Only one.

Q Who? A Mr. Thomson.

Q Tehee and Wolfe are dead? A Tehee and Wolfe are dead.

Q How long have they been dead, do you know? A I do not know, quite a number of years. I haven't kept time. [illegible] them when their death occurred, and the incidents connected with a long time before. I [illegible] of it. It is generally understood that they are dead.

Q Do you recollect the exact day after the 9th of the Dawson family about the Court at that time or not? A I have been thinking, and I can't call to mind that I ever saw any other Dawson except Ned, until after they came into the country subsequent to the rendition of the judgment.

(At this point a party who has been sitting in the room in which the examination is being held, is called forward, sworn on behalf of applicants, and asked to retire until called.)

BY MR. HUTCHINGS:

Q Mr. Duncan, when did you become clerk of the Yukon Collection Court? A It must have been somewhere in March, 1894, at the time the Commission was organized immediately at the close of the Council in which they were appointed.

Q December 1894? A I think so.

Q What are you doing rendering judgments here in your handwriting in 1893? A The Commission held its Court after they were elected and before.

Q The Court was elected in 1891 wasn't it? A Well, I mean the time, I don't pretend to say when the Court was elected, I might have said at the time I was chosen clerk. I was chosen clerk just at the close of the session of the National Council of that year.

Q '84? A I think it was '94.

Q You entered up this judgment rendered January, 1893? A Yes, that was the session of the Commission.

Q That was before you were clerk of it? A Well I held my clerkship for some time you know unofficially.

Q Well but when you come to sign it you were their clerk when the law on case was passed? A No, I don't mean to say that.

Q How could you be clerk when the Dawson case was passed on in 1893 when you were not elected until 1894? A I am mistaken in that, '94 comes after '93,- it was the year preceding 1895, it must have been '92.

Q Your first entry in the Dawson case is a March 12, 1892, isn't it? A I don't recollect what my first entry was. (Attorneys show the record to witness) Yes, that is the entry there on the 12 day,

Q And that was shortly after you became clerk wasn't it? A Yes, shortly after I became clerk.

Q The case had been entered upon the docket before you became clerk? A I think so, yes; It was entered at the previous term of the session of the Commission.

Q In whose handwriting was the names of the three Commissioners signed to what judgment? A Dawson Judgment?

(Attorney shows record to witness again) A That is my handwriting,

Q All three names? A All three names.

Q The record there shows that you immediately gave them that day a transcript of the judgment, do you know who signed that? A Signed the transcript?

Q Yes, sir. A I do not recollect now, this is, did the writing?

Q Signed the names to it? A Yes, that's it.

Q You always signed the names of Yukon and Yukon didn't you? A I think I did pretty generally; I don't know of their requesting to write their own names.

Q Then Mr. Thompson was there didn't he sign his own name? A Sometimes he did, sometimes he simply authorized me to do it.

Q Have you any recollection of his having come in to do it except from the fact that you have done it on the record frequently? A I don't recall the matter but literal fact of authorization, but I can say positively that, consulting the record, that he authorized me to put his name there.

Q Will you look at the original transcript hereby shown you and refer to it, the judgment and say who signed the names of the Commissioners there? A (Papers shown to witness) A I signed them there.
Q You recognize that as your handwriting? A I do.
Q What made you when you were testifying at Vinita before Mr. Martin, on looking at the same signatures, and being cross-examined by me, say that it was not your signature and that the signature thereto attached was the signature of Mr. Thompson? A Occurred in this way: I had not seen any of the records in the case for about nineteen years. The exact transaction in the court had vanished about entirely from my memory; I recollected at that time, however, when I gave in my testimony before the Commissioner, Martin, that that was a practice of the Court at the time I served by which I signed the names of the full-blood members of the Commission, and Mr. Thompson either uniformly or occasionally signed his own name. I based my statement in that deposition upon my knowledge of the rule or practice in the Court, without comparing the docket and refreshing my memory. I made an incorrect statement when I said that that was not my handwriting; I am convinced now that it is my handwriting. That is the way it occurred, the way it happened.
Q Then you consider your recollection of the fact that Thompson then he was present and rendering a judgment signed it himself, set on that your own knowledge of your own handwriting?
A No, I didn't so regard it. I simply spoke without advisement when I gave in that testimony; I subsequently became better informed and concluded that that was my handwriting and not entered by me. Thompson under the rule, but was one of those cases in which he authorized me to do it myself, and I did it.
Q Then you have changed your testimony, because you think you have a better knowledge of the surrounding facts now than you had then, and not from the effect of your judgment on your handwriting at present? A I simply corrected my testimony in reference to my statement in regard to this handwriting, this case.
Q And you couldn't know then as I understand you whether or not that is your handwriting; if it was not recorded by what you consider to be exterior facts? A I should know it by examining it and thinking over the circumstances, I think I should recognize my own handwriting, but if the question should be propounded instantaneously without any advisement or preconsideration I might make a mistake.
Q You did recognize the names of Thomas Tehee and Alexander Rolfe as being in your handwriting at that time? A I was very clear and positive, and so stated, that the names of those Commissioners were in my handwriting, and I was made certain by reflecting on the rule that they never signed their names with their own hand, but always authorized me to do it. Hence there is no question in my mind in me and to my handwriting in their signatures.
Q And then the third name, right under it, as compared with your admitted handwriting, you had to wait and learn the facts afterwards to determine whether that was your signature or not? A No, I don't think that if I had considered the circumstances, I knew that there was a resemblance; what made it of the opinion that that might have been Mr. Thompson's signature was like this: I knew that he had left in the habit of at least sometimes signing his own name, and I was under the impression—and I do not now think I am mistaken—that his signature bore at least some resemblance to my own, hence I doubted whether I had signed that name or not on that account.

Q You were asked on cross at this time in your testimony if the fact that Mr. [illegible] a move that I be required to [illegible] one not you were, didn't he? A Mr. [illegible] I [illegible] that that was my understanding, not in order to [illegible] testimony. I was not positive or not, and not I am sure, I think I would [illegible] that I was.

Q And he stated, only you too didn't you, that he didn't [illegible] the original bill when he was present? A I do not recollect that I stated, that I used the word "always", as that is, but at the time I was assured that the deposition was to [illegible] to do, but also I came to realize and am sure of that I was convinced that I was wrong; I am occasionally I [illegible] him.

Q Then you never found out that your testimony given on, that's like a year and a half ago was wrong, until you examined the [illegible] yesterday, and [illegible] you're saying now's a mistake? A I don't know that I have thought of it since that time until yesterday or day before the examination in chief.

Q So the only recollection that you have got and the only aid to your recollection that Thomson was present when this judgment was rendered was the fact that you now see signed to it, in your handwriting, is it? A As a fact,-

Q You can answer that yes or no? A That reading the handwriting, my recollection and I recollect now that the counsellors were all present at the time that I signed it. I didn't [illegible] their names out of court at all.

Q Was it in the forenoon now or in the afternoon ? A I don't recollect whether it was in the forenoon or afternoon.

Q In recollecting that they were all present when the record was signed, do you mean to say that they were all present when the judgment was rendered? A Yes, that is, you mean when the question of admission or rejection was voted upon?

A Yes. A They were present.

Q Did you take up the record at the time that they rendered the judgment, or make a memorandum of it, or have written up the judgment some days afterward? A The record was not written up immediately upon the decision of any case, but I wrote up the record after adjournment, generally in the evening, and presented it next day or when the next session was held, for signature: that was the practice.

Q But in this Dawson case you wrote it up the very day that it was rendered didn't you? A I didn't recollect as to that.

Q And gave them a transcript the very day it was rendered? A I don't recollect as to that.

Q And indicated the giving of the transcript on the bottom of the judgment the day it was rendered? A I should say it was given as the date of the transcript.

Q That was a very unusual thing for you to do in entering up judgment. A To do what?

Q To indicate the bottom that you had given a transcript the same day the judgment was rendered? A No, I don't know that there is anything unusual about that.

Q Any other places in that record or more than one in any event that you have ever done that? A I don't recollect, but as I don't recollect of giving anybody else a transcript.

Q That is what I am getting at, you gave them a transcript and wrote up your judgment and everything right away? A Probably [illegible] after the decision; however it was the same day or the evening, and signed next day, I don't recollect.

BY MR. McKENNON: At this point to all of the witness' testimony relative to the method of taking the testimony of witnesses at the trial, the character and effect of that testimony, and the manner of witnesses, except so far as the same may be used for the purpose of testing the memory of the witness, because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

B. F. FORTNER, being first duly sworn, and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q That is your name? A B. F. Fortner.
Q What is your age? A 54.
Q You are a physician are you not? A I am.
Q Where do you reside? A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q Do you hold any official position in your position? A Yes, I am President of the National Board of Health, Cherokee National Board of Health, and member of the Legislative Conviases of the Indian Territory and of the American Medical Association,-these are some, and the most important positions I hold at this time.
Q Are you a Cherokee citizen? A I am.
Q By blood or intermarriage? A Intermarriage.
Q Your wife is a citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know D. W. S. Duncan? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A About twelve or fifteen years, about twelve years I should say.
Q Do you know his general reputation in the community where he resides for honesty and uprightness of character? A I do, I think.
Q Is that good or bad? A It is good.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A About six or eight years, don't know exactly how long; known of him for ten years and personally I have known him about say six or eight years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and veracity? A I do.
Q Is that good or bad? A It is bad.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Mr. Du can belongs to the same church you belong to? A Yes, sir.
Q And has for a number of years? A Well now I say I think he does: I have always so understood.
Q Don't keep up with all your members? A No, but he has attended church there and my impression has been that he is a member of the church.
Q You didn't have any business before the Citizenship Court of which he was clerk, did you? A No, sir, not that I know of.
Q You was not at Tahlequah while he was clerk of a Court from 1898 to '39 A I don't believe I was.
Q Never had any business before that Court? A Had no business before them, not while he was clerk to my knowledge.

BY MR. McKENNON:

Q You spoke of his membership in the church; he is in good standing as a member of the church is he? A Yes, sir.
Q I will ask you if Campbell Taylor's reputation isn't notoriously bad? A Yes, I have so understood it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q I will ask you if it was notoriously bad in 1898, when these people employed him to represent them before the Court? A That was before my knowledge of him.

Q But so far as you know his bad reputation dates back as far as you know him? A So far as I know him.

O. W. MILLER, being duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:
BY I.R. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A O. W. Miller.
Q What is your age, Mr. Miller? A 61.
Q Where do you reside? A Vinita.
Q How long have you lived there? A Well I have lived there altogether about 17 years I guess, or 14.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.
Q What is your business? A Real estate and insurance agent.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A I have known him twenty years.
Q Do you know his general reputation for honesty and uprightness of character where he lives? A Why yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A It is good, so far as I know.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Well I have known him 18 or 20 Years, I guess.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty? A Well yes.
Q Is that good or bad? A Well, it is bad, I think.

W. H. CURTIS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:
BY I.R. McKENNON:
Q What is your name? A W. H. Curtis.
Q How old are you, Mr. Curtis? A 56.
Q Where do you reside? A Afton, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you lived in the Indian Territory? A 20 years.
Q What is your business? A Lumber business.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A About 20 years.
Q You know his general reputation for honesty and uprightness of character in the community where he lives? A I do.
Q Is that good or bad? A As good as any man's.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A Some 20 years, I suppose.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and integrity and honesty? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Bad.
Q Is it notoriously bad? A Yes.
Q Did you ever known Dr. Baker, Dr A. B. Baker, of Berryville, Arkansas? A Yes sir, I knew him in '68 and '69.
Q Where? A Over at Berryville; I ran a saw mill in that country at Berryville.
Q Did you know his general reputation so far as honesty and uprightness of character and truthfulness? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good sir. Good as any man's; he is a good Christian gentleman.
Q Did you know him well enough to know his habits of life? A Yes sir.
Q Was he in the habit of taking liquor, drinking liquor? A Not that I know, of sir, I never saw him take a drink in my life.

Q Was his character such as to preclude any such charge against him? A It was, yes sir.

BY MR. [illegible]:

Q How long did you know Mr. Baker? A Two years.

Q What done he do there? A He was an old gentleman then, he lived right in the edge of Perryville, Mr. Baker.

Q How old do you think he was then? A I think he must have been 75 or 76 years old; an old gentleman.

Q That was in 19 what, 80? A No sir, it was in '68 and '69, the two years that I lived over there.

Q He had retired from business? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he have any family? A Yes, sir.

Q What family did he have? A I don't know how much family he had, I was not acquainted with the old gentleman.

Q He wasn't doing any business with any body? A No sir.

Q And his character was never called in question one way or the other was it? A No sir, no sir.

Q Campbell Taylor was a notorious rascal pretty much ever since you ever knew him wasn't he? A Yes sir, I never knew much good of him.

Q And whenever a man got a bad citizenship case he got Campbell to work it, because he was notoriously a rascal; that's it sort of it? A Well a great many of them got him.

Q It was a notorious thing that they had a bad case they could get him, it would sort of give a case a bad odor to have Campbell around it? A Yes, that would be right.

Q You never knew anything about Mr. Duncan's connection with citizenship matters? A No sir, never did.

Q You never heard about his changing some of the records of citizenship cases? A No sir, never did.

Q You have heard lots of talk about this Democrats? A Yes sir.

Q Rumor how it all around that somebody was doing something crooky? A Yes sir.

Q You never accused him of it you think? A I never heard him accused of it, no sir.

Q That rumor got out from the first day they were admitted right up to the present? A Well I don't know not from the first day, I have heard it for a good while though.

Q But you never knew who they fixed it on? A No sir.

Q They have been a pretty strong family up there in that country haven't they, pretty large family? A Yes sir.

Q Quite a good many votes up there? A Yes sir.

Q Did you ever know of the Doctor's testifying any in court, Mr. Baker? A No sir, I never did.

Q What would you think of a man who would testify that he knew a girl that was eight in 1925 when the youngest of her seven children was born in 1824; what would you think, would you think that was a matter out to be made by a man who was truthful? A -

BY MR. McKINNON: Applicants object to the question because it is wholly incompetent, any more than proof of admitted facts in this case, and it is wholly immaterial and incompetent.

Do you think that was a statement that would be made by a truthful man? A (No response.)

Q You knew him in '68? A Yes sir.

Q He was quite an old, venerable man? A Yes sir, quite an old, old man.

Q Is there any time that this he was liable to be in his dotage?
A I don't know, he was old all the years I knew him.
Q So he was too old to work, and retired from business then? A Well he did some good work, but never did any business particular that I knew of.
Q He would have been pretty old in years from that time? A Yes, he would be getting old.

D. H. HARRIS, being first duly sworn and being examined, testified as follows:

By Mr. Mehaffey:

Q What is your name? A D. H. Harris.
Q What is your age, Mr. Harris? A I am 44.
Q What is your business? A I am publishing a newspaper.
Q What paper? A "The Indian Chieftain."
Q Are you editor of that paper? A Yes sir.
Q You live at Vinita, then? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q By blood or intermarriage? A Intermarriage.
Q Do you know D. W. C. Duncan? A I do.
Q How long have you known him? A 15 or 19 years.
Q Do you know his general reputation in the community where he lives for honesty and uprightness of character? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Good.
Q Do you know Campbell Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Why 15 years or longer.
Q Do you know his general reputation for truth and honesty in the community? A His general reputation, yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Well it is not good.
Q Is it bad? A Well I suppose it must be bad then.

BY MR. BRUMLEY:

Q How long has Campbell's reputation been bad, Mr. Harris, quite a good while, hasn't it? A Yes I think so, yes sir.
Q And it kind of began mostly with this citizenship business?
